The calf nosed her yellow and white butter-worms soon blooming during warm weeks that followed the cow watched her bright calf frolic on the green prairie. Frequently saw the riding men stand in stirrups, looking at the calves and the dismal fears of their way out of memory of burning hair blood. Mud tears in other eyes as they milled in slush dust, blattings of pain the sound of muffled spurs part of the pattern each since her first calf was. Once she found the scent of the range wagon moved, dried, straining eyes swollen the skull, the bleached hoofs of the calf that returned to her side. Each now the sun was like a burning grass and the water holes and the calf had grown fat and. One morning the tall cow alone again with others of herd. She did not bawl like younger cows, but stared the white sky. She walked the loading chute without the slatted truck rolled the familiar range. Wheels on the asphalt, and she rocked the crowded calf. Finally the old cow moved in a strange shaded corral with sweet grass. Fear came now as she drank a little of the water and waited. She eyed other cattle up an inched chute and the scent of the air. Electric wires tortured her flanks and she was a clatter of horns and. Ahead was the dark door, swinging hammer, twisting and hot blood spurting bands and blades. The old cow stopped for an instant to at the sun and sky then tried on into the factory of.

Wading Pool On Part Time Basis

West Texas Utilities Company "pole gang" arrived here Tuesday and will install two jobs, one being the lighted rodeo arena at Roaring Springs, and the Matador city park lights. The park will probably be lighted by the weekend, Jack Norman, local manager for the utilities firm announced Tuesday.

Afton Mother Witnesses Tragedy

Fall From Automobile Is Fatal To Smallwood Boy

James Smallwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Smallwood of Afton died this morning about 4 o'clock in Stanley Clinic Hospital as result of injuries received in a fall from a moving automobile driven by his mother. The accident occurred about noon yesterday on State Highway 70 about two miles south of Roaring Springs.

The small boy, who had just completed his first year of schooling, suffered a broken right leg near the hip, crushed left ankle and a skull fracture, and possibly broken ribs and other internal injuries.

Three Smallwood children were in the back seat, including the accident victim and two sisters, Patsy 9 and Sharon 4. A baby boy, Mack age 14 years was in the front seat with Mrs. Smallwood. The mother said she felt a draft of air and turned to see her son falling from the car. She said she was driving between 55 and 60 miles per hour.

Stopping as rapidly as possible, Mrs. Smallwood hailed a neighbor, Mrs. B. M. Holson of Afton. Picking up her injured son, the mother and her three other children accompanied Mrs. Holson here to the hospital, leaving their automobile near the scene of the accident. Another neighbor notified Mr. Smallwood of the accident.

Mrs. Smallwood said she believed her son struck the car door latch with his foot, causing it to release and in an effort to grab the door, fell striking his head on the paving. The mother was enroute to Roaring Springs to bring another son, Gerald, home from his tractor work for the noon meal. The Smallwood farm is located about 1 1/2 miles north of Afton.

Funeral services will be held at the Methodist Church of Roaring Springs, tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 3 o'clock, and interment will be in Matador East Mound cemetery. McDonald Funeral Home will be in charge of arrangements.

Curtis Graham Named As Outstanding Lion

Completing their fiscal year with the regular meeting Tuesday in the Methodist church basement, Matador Lions named Curtis Graham for the outstanding achievement award.

Zone Chairman Harold Jones of Roaring Springs conducted the installation ceremony of new officers, including Forrest Campbell as president, J. E. Ed Campbell as 1st vice-president, Ralph Stapleton as 2nd vice-president, N. L. Moss as 3rd vice-president, Glenn Woodruff as Lion Tamer, J. R. Whitworth as secretary, Raby Webb as Tail Twister, Curtis Graham, Kenneth Jeffers, H. F. Pipkin, and V. J. Skaggs as directors. Pat Sheridan as Recorder and Miss Rachel Patton as Lions Sweetheart.

Outstanding citizenship award for a school student was presented to Garland Rattan.

Secretary J. R. Whitworth announced that 41 members had earned the perfect attendance awards as compared with 33 awards last year. The award buttons failed to arrive in time for presentation at the meeting.

Month Of Recess

Due to the fact that the next regular meeting falls on a holiday, July 4th, the club will dispense with the first July assembly, allowing members a month recess. Next regular meet (first meeting of the club's new fiscal year) will be held Tuesday, July 18th.

During the installation ceremony, Lion Jones read an eulogistic letter to Secretary Whitworth from former Matador Mayor Harvey Stanford of Las Vegas, Nevada, regarding the incoming president. He cited Boss Lion Campbell's high character as a youth and football player, his educational achievement, and his success as businessman in his own home town.

Lion Jones said the new president was among the youngest in the club's history.

Bank Will Close At Noon Saturdays Through Summer

Effective Saturday, July 1st, First State bank of Matador will close at noon on Saturdays and continue the shortened work week until the first of September, it was announced yesterday by Elmer Stearns executive vice-president. The same policy is being followed by all neighboring banks with the exception of one, which shortened its work week in January to conform with the new wage and hour law, and closes daily at 2 p. m.

Mr. Stearns declared wide publicity is being given the change in Saturday banking hours in order that customers will transact banking business in advance and prevent any possible inconvenience.

Implement Firm Changes Owners

Second large Matador business transaction in a week was consummated Monday when M. S. Thacker, and son Joe (Buzz) Thacker and Mike Hoyle all of Roaring Springs as partners, purchased the Matador Implement Company from L. C. Harp. The business will be managed by Mr. Hoyle who will move to Matador as soon as he can procure a house. Amount of the deal was not made public. It combines the county's two large International Harvester dealerships.

Mr. Harp retained the Pontiac automobile dealership which had been associated with the implement business and John Irvin, manager of the firm, will operate the automobile business.

It was announced by the new owners, now busily engaged in invoicing the merchandise, that no change would be made in the firm's present personnel. The large implement house and repair shop is now closed until the task of invoicing is completed. However, customers needing emergency parts are being admitted.

Mr. Harp said he retained ownership of the building which will also serve the automobile agency.

Spotlight Turned On Vets Fund

Spotlight of public opinion will go on the "more than $16,000" veterans' fund at a meeting scheduled tonight at the Fleming Post American Legion hall. The meeting will open at 8:15 and all servicemen and contributors to the fund are invited to attend. The money was collected five years ago to "construct a memorial building for returned servicemen." At present the money is invested in U. S. savings bonds.

Some misunderstanding has resulted in the interpretation of last week's Tribune article announcing the meeting. Purpose of the meeting is to reach a satisfactory agreement and does not require that the amount be divided between the two veterans' organizations.

If the majority of the contributors and veterans feel that money should be kept intact and used at a later date, the purpose of the meeting will be achieved. If, however, the majority of the interested contributors and veterans feel that the money should be divided, with each of the two veterans' organizations left free to invest their portions as desired, again will the purpose of the meeting be achieved.

If some other plan is suggested and accepted by the majority, it will achieve the purpose of the meeting. Howard Traewick, chairman of a former building committee, said the meeting had been called to sample public opinion of both contributors and veterans with regard to the fund. Every veteran is urged to attend.

Second Dance Scheduled By Old Settlers

Second benefit dance of the season is scheduled for Friday night, June 30, by the Old Settlers at Pioneer Pavilion, Roaring Springs.

Last week's dance netted in the neighborhood of $75 which will be used to apply against cost of the new lighted rodeo arena. Work on installation of the lighting will start this week. The total cost will be in the neighborhood of $1,500.

An orderly crowd of dancers attended the benefit dance last week and the orchestra, "Rhythm Makers" of Stamford, was well received and will play again for the June 30 dance.

CITY TO CLOSE FOR JULY 4th

Matador will observe July 4th holiday. A unanimous vote of merchants and businessmen attending the regular Tuesday meeting of the Lions club confirmed general assumption that past policy would be observed.

For many years Matador businesses have observed the national holiday by closing in order that both owners and employees might have the summer respite.

Hopper Advance Is Met By Resistance

Planes Being Used To Check Menace

ARMIES of hungry grasshoppers are advancing on tender crops in Motley county according to reports being received by County Agent J. R. Emmons. Some observers believe the largest "crop" of hoppers in recent history is eyeing young cotton and other row crops as drought conditions drive them from pastures and fencerows. It has been suggested that the unusually light past winter may have influenced the large "hopper crop."

Farmers, however, are alert to the menace and many are employing modern means to combat the ancient pest. Ennis Moss of Roaring Springs employed Earl Willis to spray toxaphene from a plane. Cost of spraying fence and turn rows around a 300-acre field was $58. Moss reported that examination on the day following the spraying revealed few live hoppers but vast quantities of dead hoppers.

Willis offers regular spraying service from planes. His charge is $2.50 per acre in using 2 lbs. of toxaphene and $2.25 per acre where 1 lb. of Toxaphene is applied. Half-mile of fence row is equal to 31 acres. A minimum of 45 acres is required on each spray flight.

Texas Likely to Get Extra Congressman

By SAM KINCH
AUSTIN, June 17. — Texas probably will get an extra congressman as a result of the 1950 census—but not until 1952.

The matter of which section of the state he will come from may or may not be settled then.

It can be by the 52nd Legislature next year—but if it is not, the state will elect a congressman at-large or two, if the population justifies more.

The primary question of the law is whether or not the state will get more congressional representation.

As yet, it is only guesswork. It apparently is showing a gain in population and some states are expected to get at least one more representative.

1941 Law Cited
The procedure for apportioning representation on the basis of population is set out in a law passed by Congress in 1941. It provides, for one thing, that the number of congressmen remain at 435. And it contains the guarantee of at least one for every state (Nevada and Delaware now have only one each).

The 1941 law requires that in the first week of the 82nd Congress—which meets next year—and in every fifth Congress thereafter (that's every 10 years) the president shall transmit decennial census figures to Congress.

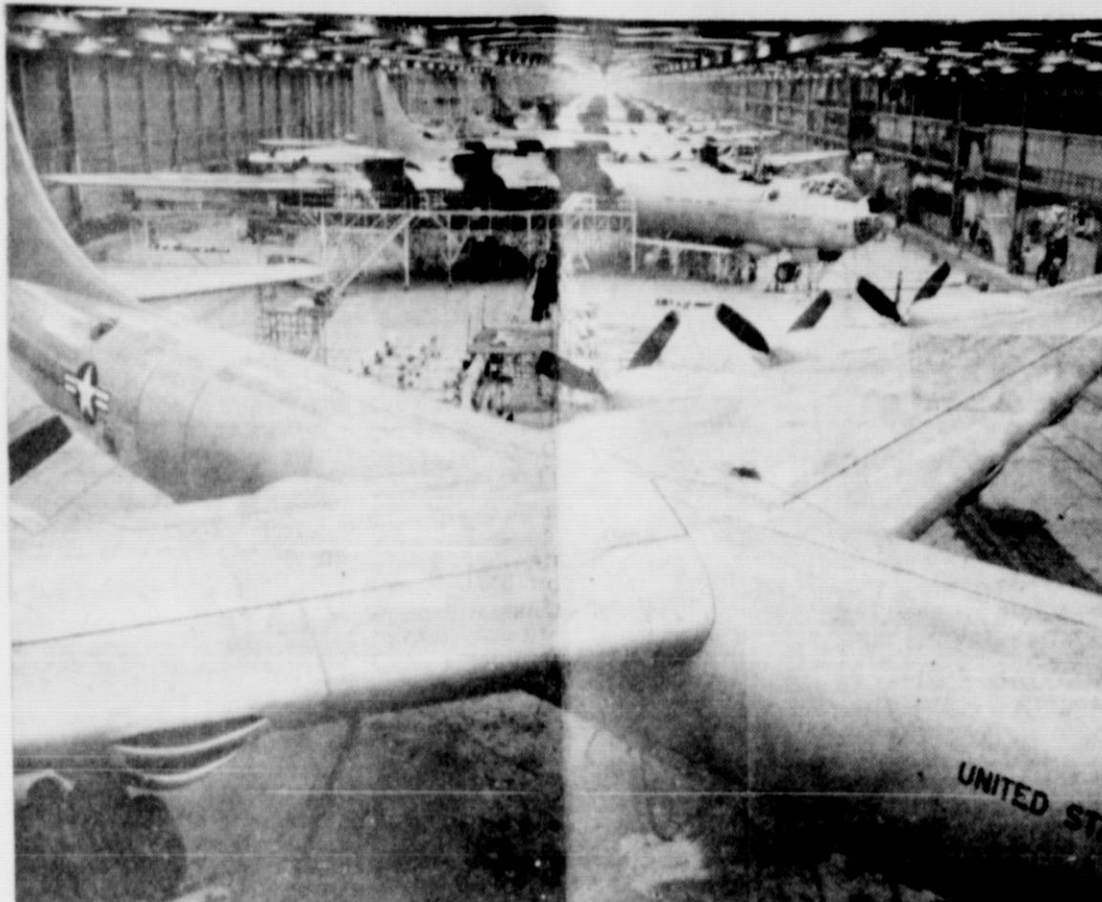

An appropriate committee divides the 435 membership total into the total population to figure how many citizens each congressman should represent (excluding the one guaranteed to each state by the Constitution).

Percentage Figures
The committee also determines by percentage figures which states' congressional districts are closest to the average for the nation, and transfers accordingly.

After all the figuring is done, the clerk of the House of Representatives notifies each state of the number of congressmen to which it will be entitled, beginning with the 83rd Congress. Legislatures may redistrict congressional districts as soon as that information is received. Texas' Legislature will be in session and could do so easily.

But if it fails, the state will elect its old number of congressmen by districts and then elect a congressman-at-large until the redistricting is accomplished.

Thus, if Texas is entitled to a new congressman, he will be elected in 1952 either as con-

B-36s, world's largest bombers, roll down assembly line at Fort Worth division of Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corporation. Latest models of the B-36 are being equipped with four jet engines in addition to six 3,500-horsepower piston engines. These Texas-built planes can carry heavier loads of bombs over greater distances at higher altitudes than any other aircraft in the world.

gressman-at-large or a representative of a district carved out of the areas showing the most gain in population.

The last additions to the Texas delegation in Congress were made in the 1934 elections.

18 Prior to 1930
There were 18 congressmen prior to the 1930 census, but the gains reflected in that year's nose count gave the state three more.

The figures apparently were not final right away, for only 18 were elected in the 1932 elections. However, the Legislature was only in regular session in 1931 until May 23, and the census figures may have arrived too late for redistricting.

In 1933, the 43rd Legislature passed a redistricting bill and set out 21 districts. Those places were filled in the 1934 elections. The new places were filled by George Mahon of Colorado City, Maury Maverick of San Antonio and Charles L. South of Coleman.

Mahon's 19th District was carved out of the old 18th. Maverick's 20th came out of the 14th and made Bexar County a one-county district, and South's 21st came out of the 14th, 15th, 16th and possibly other districts.

Congressional districts must be made up of contiguous areas, so there may have to be wholesale reshuffling of Texas districts after the 1950 census. Many East Texas districts will be below the average, but it is thought, and West and South Texas districts are due to be above.

How to reapportion things and what area will get the new congressman will be a big item for the Legislature to decide. Some state lawmakers may want the district located so he can run—or several legislators may have the same idea.

He said authorities claim a cow would need to eat an acre of grass which had been treated with 1 1/2 to 2 lbs. before it would prove fatal to the animal. He said, however, that milk cows should not be allowed to graze on poisoned grass since the toxaphene has a tendency to concentrate in butterfat.

Farm Program News

Gene D. Frisbie, Secretary

Gene D. Frisbie, Secretary of the local PMA office has announced that farmers who want a "new growers" wheat allotment for 1951 must file an application by June 26, 1950. Producers who raised wheat in 1948, 1949, or 1950 are not eligible for new growers allotment. Producers who had a wheat allotment of 5 acres or less this year must also make a request for an allotment for next year. These producers will not receive an allotment unless they make the request by June 26. Mr. Frisbie states that wheat mixtures for 1951 will not be allowed.

In connection with the cotton program, Mr. Frisbie said measuring of acreage will begin about June 26. It is requested that the farmer or his representative be on hand to show the reporter his crops and to sign the forms in connection with the acreages. Full cooperation of producers will be appreciated. The acreages of all crops other than cotton and peanuts may be estimated. Wheat, of course, has already been measured. Producers who have overplanted their cotton allotment have the privilege of destroying the excess acreage. Acreage destroyed must be reported to the PMA office within 15 days, and the remaining acreage will again be measured. There is a charge of $2.00 per farm or $1.00 per plot of cotton, which ever is greater, to check the acreage after the excess cotton has been destroyed. Producers who think their acreage has been measured incorrectly may request the office to remeasure. There is a charge of $5.00 for remeasuring at the request of the farmer. Mr. Frisbie stated that it now appears that cotton acreages will be reduced next year.

Plans for the 1951 conservation program are now being made, and it is hoped that the program will be in operation by October 1, 1950. The county committee has recommended several new practices for Motley County, which have not yet been approved by the State Committee. It is believed that some of the practices that have been carried out in past years will not be approved for the 1951 program.

Altavene Clark Announces Stand Regarding "Deals"

AMARILLO (Special)—Altavene Clark, who led the field of Democratic candidates for Congress to represent the 18th Congressional district in the May 6 special election, has announced her emphatic opposition to many of the so-called "deals" of the present administration. "I am as strongly opposed to P. E. C. as anyone could be," Mrs. Clark declared. "I am equally opposed to federal ownership of the state tidelands." "In the case of the Texas tidelands, I firmly believe the republic of Texas had every right to believe its lands and its tidelands would not be violated by the union when the Lone Star State agreed to annexation. I shall fight for state rights to the limit of my ability and against any form of centralized government in Washington which will, in any manner, take away the rights of individual states. Our constitution guarantees state rights and individual freedom and I shall never believe that any so-called "deals" are as good as the old-fashioned Jeffersonian Democracy."

Mrs. Clark is on leave of absence, without pay, from her Washington position of executive officer of the House Agricultural committee. She has served 17 years in the 18th Congressional District Congressman's office during the terms of Marvin Jones and Eugene Worley. "I feel," Mrs. Clark added, "Those years of experience qualify my seeking the office of representing the Panhandle."

Mrs. Clark also said, "For the past 18 years I have watched Congress lose prestige to the executive department. I have watched the Supreme Court lose prestige in becoming closer allied with political factions rather than maintaining its judicial purpose of protecting people's rights. That's why I want to go to Congress to represent the 18th Congressional District."

"I have read letters from the district, met with district committee groups, studied the desires of cities, communities and individuals and have wanted to work as congressman to realize those desires. I believe I'm better qualified to make those hopes come true through these years of experience. I believe the ambitions of the 18th Congressional District, individually and collectively, comes first and above any party clique, swap outs, or tradition. I promise my fullest cooperation, knowledge, acquaintances and experience toward such representation of my district," Mrs. Clark declared.

Death Rate From Diabetes Is High

AUSTIN, June 19 — Death rates from diabetes is three times as high in diabetics whose condition was not discovered until after complications developed than for patients whose illness was recognized and brought under treatment before advanced symptoms appeared.

Based on recently completed national studies, this was revealed Thursday by State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox.

"Diabetes has not always been a public health problem," the health officer declared. "It became one when we found that the death rate is much greater when the condition is discovered late."

"Public education makes for lower diabetes death rates, and public education in such matters is a health department job."

Dr. Cox told this story about diabetes. It used to be that many diabetic patients sought treatment only after having developed serious complications. A considerable number of all diabetics examined at autopsy showed active pulmonary tuberculosis.

The discovery of insulin gave physicians a specific treatment for prolonging patients' lives, even before it was entirely clear what the disease was and what its effects were. Thus, event after event took place with insulin therapy, eventually leading to the realization that early discovery means longer life.

"Diabetes mellitus" — called sugar diabetes by some people — is a condition in which the body cannot properly process the sugar it needs. The result is chronic thirst, hunger, and weakness. Eventually, without insulin, the patient will literally starve to death. Insulin injections will correct the faulty body processes.

"In 1949, there were 739 diabetes deaths in Texas," Dr. Cox said. "By comparison, that same year there were only 189 polio deaths."

"It's the family physician who is in the best position to discover diabetes or a pre-diabetic condition. That's just one more point in favor of regular medical check-ups," the doctor concluded.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Maybe This'll Wake Us Up!

Because a couple of thoughtless drivers threw a newspaper out of their car yesterday, Miss Gilbert, our school principal, nearly had a bad accident.

She was following them on the highway and the paper flattened over her windshield, so she couldn't see. In a minute her little coupe was across the line—right in the path of an oncoming trailer-truck. It missed... but only just!

The parties were recognized and soon as I heard about it I ran over to Sheriff Harper—demanded they be brought up on charges. But

Harper says: "Hold on, Joe, let's talk this out, over supper and a glass of beer at Andy's."

He pointed out that those aren't criminals. Just careless. But a lot of us seem to be getting these days, judging from the trash we see along roadsides. From when I sit, this near accident may be the lesson we need to make us stop littering our roads—and start showing a little tolerant consideration for our neighbors!
