Jailed In Death By Pantomime

CONROE April 10. (P)-I R. Grubbs of Houston was held in city jail here today without bond on a charge of murder in what Grubbs was charged in the shotgun death of James Everitt, 26, and employe of the Foster Lumber the Foster Lumber Company at Fostoria.

District Attorney H. S. Holleman said the two men used pantomime instead of conversation in the mill where Everitt was employed and R. L. Tollett. hat the shooting occurred after Grubbs had held up three fingers, then two and finally one to indicate a time limit. Holleman said Grubbs told him the following story:

morning for Fostoria to look for Everitt. He borrowed a shotgun and a shell from a cousin and then went to the mill where Everitt was working.

Everitt was taking lumber off conveyors when Grubbs approached to within 25 feet and signaled for Everitt to come to him. Everitt signaled back and the two men engaged thus in pantomime for a short time.

Then Grubbs held up three fingers. As the minutes passed he lowered one at a time. When he bent his third finger he raised the gun and fired:

After the shooting Grubbs handed the shotgun to the mill foreman and went with the foreman to surender to officers.

Body Of Flood Victim Found

HILLSBORO, Apr. 10. (P)— The body of Mrs. Frances Christian Beam, 21, was recovered late yesterday from the rain-swollen Hackberry Greek about two miles downstream from where she and a companion were swept from the highway by the rushing water.

Hillsboro firemen using a motorboat rescued her companion, Charles Miller of Fort Worth from a tree earlier in the day.

Miller and Mrs. Beam had gone out in an automobile to help Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Slay of Hillsboro, whose car had run out, of gas. Both cars stalled in the water, All four persons got out to walk, but were swept into deep water. Miller said he had hold of Mrs.

Beam, who could not swim, while they were carried about a mile, but that the water tore her from his grasp. The Slays made their way to a cotton gin.

LOOKING EM OVER

Big Spring, Midland and Odessa athletes have a chance smash every record in the books in Saturday's Area track and field show, which will be run off at Midland. Given good weather and no hostile wind, the boys are certain to set up new marks in at least two thirds of the events. Odessa will be strong in the hurdles, dashes, shot put, discus throw, pole vault and sprint relay.

Midland's one-man team, Dunny Goode, appears capable of bettering his own broad jump and 220-yard records. He's also in the 100-yard dash event where he is the Area record holder but Odessa's Don Bingham and Ernie Ache of Big Spring may be too much for him to handle in that one. Mitchell recognized this fact and acted.
Unfortunately, the department (which naturally included the head), was drawn into a series of skirmishes within the city commission. Although these issues were the surface manifestations of a deeper conflict between the administration and the commission, the fact that the department became an issue meant that a change in administration could no more than gloss it over. This because there still exsted the fundamental division of opinion within the commission, two members of which had not been on the board at time of confirmation of the chief. They avowedly wished a change, and thus a stale-

Now that the impasse has been dissolved there should be as nearly as possible a degree of unanimity in the approval of a successor. This should be made in the knowledge of the problems which have grown out of a lack of unanimity.. If this is achieved, the commission must, in good faith, support its judgment commensurate with faithful execution of the policy it lays down.

It should be made in full understanding of two other omni-present conditions: 11 That under our council-manager form of government, the commission is responsible for the creation of basic policy, and the city manager, through his department heads, is responsible for the execution of that policy: 2) that in any municipal operation, the most ticklish of all functions is that of the police power. This is true because human nature is what it is and because few people are ever happy about being brought to answer before the bar of justice. As a result, tempers frequently become short on both sides of the fer-e. and problems result. The responsibility of the department being what it is, there always will be unpleasantries, and this fact may as well be recognized, else impotence of enforcement will result

We believe that the police policy, among other things, should include honest and the greatest possible degree of courtesy impartial enforcement of the laws with and consideration by the best personnel available. But whatever the policy, when it is enunciated, it should be incumbant upon the administration to execute it, and for the policy makers to refrain from internal interference. What applies here is equally applicable throughout the entire municipal structure. The Herald sought to point out a year ago the clear path indicated under the charter. It is still the effective way for the most harmonious and efficient type of operation. Let this matter be behind us; let the lesson be remembered.

rose 33 per cent. But that was only a 33 per cent rise in six years and eight months.

In the next eight months—between June, 1946, and February, 1947—living costs jumped another 20 per cent, or 53 per cent above August, 1939. Living costs hit that 53, per cent mark last December. They've stayed there. They're

Centralia Disaster Helped Lewis

WASHINGTON .- Some interesting undercurrents have been taking place inside the ranks of the United Mine Workers redicate that, for the first time in years, grousing against the big miner boss had become seriousup until the time of the Centralia accident.

The worst blow John L. Lewis ever received in all his colorful career was the Supreme Court decision finding him in contempt of court and taking thousands of dollars in hard-earned dues from the union treasury. The miners never did like last November's strike anyway, though they went ahead on the assumption John knew where he was taking them. So when the Supreme Court showed he didn't know, Lewis' leadership was badly shaken.

There has always been a cerain amount of griping about Dewis. The men in the anthracitentields don't like him at all, have even dared him to show himself in Pennsylvania, which he has not done for a long time. In the bituminous fields, however, the miners will cuss out Lewis between strikes but swear allegiance during strikes.

Most of them take pride in the fact that John has his big imousine a fine house in Vir ginia and can hold his head up with the best of Washington soclety. They have not been happy, however, about the long list of Lewis relatives on the miners payroll—John L. at $25,000; Brother Denny at $12,000; Daughter Kathryn at $10,000; Brother-in-law R. O. Miller at $10,000; Brother-in-law J. Bell at $10,000; Brother-in-law Herbert Bell at $8,000. Cousin William Thomas at $10,000; plus several others, making a grand total of $150,000 in salaries to the Lewis family-all taken from miners' dues

To make up for all this, Lews has to win strikes and keep on winning. That is the first rule of dictatorship, and, make no mistake about it, Lewis is a pure and simple dictator. The minute a dictator meets his first defeat, he is a dead duck-unless something diverts public at-

That was why the Supreme Court defeat hit Lewis so badly. That was also why there has been talk for the first fime in veers about Lewis turning the mine union over to popular Secretary-Treasurer Tom Kennedy, former " lieutenant-governor of Pennsylvania, with John replacing Bill Green as president of the AFL.

Finally, all, this is why the Centralia mine disaster played squarely into Lewis' hands, why clutched at it as an excuse for calling a safety, strike, and why he has staged such dramatics in front of Congressional committees, to prove that Secretary of the Interior Krug was to blame for the tragic loss of 111 lives.

Only those who have sat on the inside of the mine negotiations realize it, but one reason why the owners have refused to take the mines back from the government is Section 2B of the Krug-Lewis agreement. They consider this one of the most revolutionary clauses ever inserted in any labor contract; for it gives the miners themselves power to close down a mine if they consider it unsafe. Employs ers say this is equivalent to permitting the workers of any fac-tory to regulate conditions inside the plant. They point Bespecially to the provision, "the operating manager is required to follow the recommendation of the committee." This they brand as "revolutionary."

But after winning this all-important and "revolutionary" concession from the govern-ment, John L. Lewis did almost nothing about it. Few mine safety committees were organized. Many of the miners did not even know about this provision in their contract.

Probably this resulted from the peculiar system under which John L. Lewis operates, whereby he is a law unto himself. Less. and less do other officials of the United Mine Workers know what is going on in their union. Mat-ters of policy—even the details of carrying out that policy—are centered in the hands of one man, plus the little group of brothers and brothers-in-law who surround him. When another man challenges Lewis' authorfty, as in the case of Ray Edmundson, he is out John Brophy, Van Bittner and other oldtime miner executives have found that they could not exercise individual judgment and stay in the union They are out.

Only the little group of Lewis' relatives and district presi-dents carefully picked for subservience to . John L. remain. That largely explains why the individual miners did not take advantage of-and did not even know about-the all-important provision in their contract permitting them to organize mine down mines if unsafe.

That also explains why the bettle-browed miner boss has gone to such extreme lengths to point an accusing finger at Secretary Krug and bellow: "Murder!" for the man who most loudly accuses others, sometimes, is most gullty himself.

Europe Staving Off Collapse

There is still some time left to prepare measures against the great post-war crisis, which is developing in Europe and will surely, if "it is not checked and prevented; affect the whole world. The Greek affair, so suddenly thrust upon us, and the inevitable disagreement at Mos-cow on reparations are only two symptoms among many others of the gravity of the situation.

The crisis is developing beeause none of the leading nations of Europe-Great Britain, France, Italy, Germany-is recovering from the war, or has any reasonable prospect of recovery with the means at its disposal and on the plans and pollcies upon which it is now work-ing. The nations of Europe are eking out a precarious existence. They are staving off the collapse of their currencies and of their present standards of life not by successful producdwindling assets and the loans, the subsidies, and doles which come from Canada, the United States, and in small amounts from the few other solvent coun-

I am saying only what informed and responsible men say when they do not have to keep up appearances in public. If it sounds sensational, it is because the men who realize the truth of it are reluctant to advertise at. Our own officials shrink from the ordeal of ex-plaining it to Senator Taft and those who see things as he does. The British government, intent on sustaining the morale of the people and on exhorting them to greater sacrifice and effort, has chosen to take the line in its official propaganda that we must not be alarmist, and that they have the situa-tion in hand. They are, if I say so, acting as if the spirit of Churchill after Dunkerque could be aroused by a policy which is like that of Chamberlain before In any event the United States.

MESQUITE BUDS REALLY CINCH SPRING SEASON

Spring is here! Even the trusted sentinels of West Texas flora proclaim it, for the mesquite are beginning to put out foliage. Many old timers in West Texas are never convinced that spring is here until they see mesquite come out of retirement.

This doesn't mean that they are never caught napping, for once in a blue moon winter's tardy curtain call catches even the sturdy native brush and trees. It happened in 1938 when the historic spring blizzard struck on April 8 and blew for 72 hours to nip grass, young crops, and all manner of trees. However, this is a rare exception and residents are entitled to believe that spring indeed is here when mesquite think it is safe to bud.
