TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

Motion pictures have a decided advantage over real life in that they tend to complicate the plot too much or cause a scene in the flowing continuity, merely clipped from the film and the scene is retaken or left on the cutting-room floor when the picture is assembled. In the strange and frequently boring drama of life, there is no editing. If the leading man's plates fall out in a tender love scene, there is no take.

A farmer friend is annoyed by his haste. After purchasing two bags of fertilizer he has learned that it stimulates the growth of weeds with the same acceleration he may expect from his crops. Reflecting on past seasons he is convinced his yield would have been more abundant if he had have kept the weeds under control.

All marriages were incorporated. It might be possible to sell the two principal stockholders a controlling interest.

The meek know more surely than an unkind word is like a flame held beneath the petals of a flower.

Alto I have never spent the night in an inn where Washington slept. I have ridden cable cars on Powell street in San Francisco which were ridden and loved by Rudyard Kipling. Alto my respect for the greatness of Washington is that of my loyal American, my admiration for the genius of Kipling second only to one other mortal, Emerson. Living six years in Hollywood I developed an immunity to celebrities which was extended through the years. Some of the greatest people I have ever known have been poor and humble and I have been more impressed by them than in the presence of a few famous people I have known. I once saw the late Franklin D. Roosevelt and I liked his looks. It would cause the loss of my job. I shook hands with the present President of the United States and spent about an hour in his hotel room with other newspaper men. He was not over-identical then and he seemed a very average man who would be killed to use sound judgement in emergencies. I have since had cause to question this personal observation.

School District Area Is Detached

An area of the Matador independent school district, located in the southwest corner of the county, Tuesday night was detached and allocated to the Roaring Springs school district. The action was taken by the Matley county school board in a call session. The change will in no way effect tax rates on property located in the area.

Other action by the board included approval of school bus routes for the county, classifying schools for the 1951-1952 term and the employing of a cooperative music teacher for the Matador, Roaring Springs and the Flomot high schools. Mrs. L. D. Wilkerson was employed on a percentage basis, determined by foundation units.

Planes Spraying Vast Area

Ranchers Start Fight To Control Mesquites

Aerial war opened in Motley county at 4 a. m. yesterday morning. Small planes spraying a fine mist deadly to mesquites began circling at the first break of dawn. It is an old war being fought by modern methods; the war between ranchers and the encroaching trees that threaten the cattle-raising industry more than price controls.

The mesquite spraying is being done by the American Dusting Co., Inc. of Chickasha, Oklahoma. C. G. Fry, in charge of the work here declared that approximately 15,000 acres of mesquite-infested grazing land may be treated.

The cost is $3.31 per acre, of which government P.M.A. pays $1.75 per acre, Walter Ray, Administrative Officer of the local PMA office said much interest is being shown by ranchers in the mesquite spraying.

Principal problem is the possible damage to cotton and other broadleaf plants. Spraying will not be done closer than 1 1/2 miles of cotton or in any locality where danger exists.

Mr. Fry said time is becoming short when the spraying can be done without danger of destroying cotton in many areas. He advised any rancher or farmer-rancher who may wish to use the spray treatment, to contact the PMA office immediately since areas next to cotton ground will be treated first (before cotton is planted or before it comes up).

Best weather for aerial spraying is when the wind is zero, and when the wind is over five miles per hour the planes are taken out of the air because of the drifting spray.

Big Prizes Offered at Spur Rodeo

There is going to be a lot of leather and hoofs popping down at Spur for four days, May 30, 31, June 1, 2. Rope and saddle fairs from the cattle country of West Texas are going to have four days of undiluted fun as they watch the arena in scenic Swenson park which has an abundance of room, shade and water.

The calf roping contest, which has a $5 entrance fee, offers $30 first in "go round" money, 2nd of $30, 3rd of $20 and 4th of $10. A special hand-made saddle will be presented the champion calf roper.

In the bronc riding contest ($5 entrance fee) the top "go-round" money is $50, and the three other prizes are $35, $25 and $15. The following offenses will disqualify a rider: Being bucked off, changing hands on rein, wrapping rein around hand, losing stirrup, pulling leather, not being ready when called and causing unnecessary delay at the chutes.

Bar-buck bronc riding pays the same cash prizes as does the double mugging contest. A (continued on back page)

AF Personnel Aids Boys' Ranch When Cut Off By Flood

Part of the Air Force personnel stationed at the Amarillo Air Base Thursday night put aside their training for warfare when one officer and three enlisted men went to the aid of the boys at the famous Boys' Ranch, located 40 miles northwest of Amarillo.

Boys' Ranch, cut off from the outside world by flood waters, was unable to obtain its regular food supply which was becoming low. Ordinary traffic to Boys' Ranch was made impossible by road mud-bogs and the rampant Canadian River which left its banks in the early stages of the Panhandle's three-day torrential downpour.

Hearing of the plight of the boys and their supervisors, Col. A. J. Mason, Executive Officer at the Base, immediately dispatched two trucks to Cal Farley, founder and president of Boys' Ranch, for the mission.

One of the trucks, a six wheel and another lighter truck, manned by the lieutenant and three enlisted men, made the night run carrying the food supplies successfully through the high waters. They remained overnight as guests of their happy hosts, the boys of Boys' Ranch.

The boys were quite relieved and pleased to see the two trucks loaded with food enter the Ranch gate. As one boy put it, "Heck, I wasn't worried at all when I found out the Air Corps were sending trucks. When I get big I'm going to be one of them soldiers myself."

Students from the first through the fifth school grades who were weak in some of their work, are offered private tutoring by Mrs. Frank Pohl, in her home. Fees are one dollar an hour for two days, or $2.00 per week. Those interested may contact Mrs. Pohl, whose phone number is 137.

CONTRACTORS WILL EXPLAIN PROPOSED IMPROVEMENT PLAN

Continued interest in a plan to do limited paving on residential streets in Matador has developed the need of a meeting between property-owners and the contractors. Steve Luce of the firm of Sheppard and Luce, paving contractors, was here Monday and discussed the project with Lions Club President Forrest Campbell Alderman O. V. Johnson and Mayor Douglas Meador.

Because of certain questions arising in the minds of property-owners with regard to the type of paving, drainage, etc., it was decided to call an open meeting. The meeting will be held in the District Court room at the courthouse Monday evening, May 28 at 8 p. m.

The meeting is open to anyone interested. Representatives of the construction company will be on hand to explain the type of work, the cost and other details.

It is estimated that funds for six to eight blocks have already been subscribed tentatively. The paving is of the approximate type on farm to market roads. The price of 60c per running foot (cost to property-owner) does not include drainage except necessary dirt work to drain the proposed 18-foot strip. It does not include curb and guttering. It is not considered permanent paving but does provide great advantages over dirt streets. In some towns the size of Matador as many as 50 blocks have been paved by property-owners. Cost of street intersections will be paid by the city.

The firm of Sheppard and Luce is currently engaged in paving a farm to market road for the State Highway Department in the Altton community and will be in this vicinity for approximately 30 days.

A field trip to view wild flowers blooming in profusion along the highways, was made by Matador Garden club members following an interesting program given at regular meeting of the organization at the courthouse, Monday afternoon.

Here's something Special in Spaciousness

A LOT of folks like the two-door idea, because they feel that tiny tots are safer in the back seat.

But that's no reason why back-seat headroom should be dimensioned for midgets only.

So Buick engineers have done something about it, in the Buick SPECIAL 2-Door Sedan pictured here.

They've kept the compactness of over-all length that's important in modern garages. But they've arched that sturdy steel top to give you he-man headroom—headroom in back as well as headroom in front—that makes a six-footer feel at home.

And they've designed a trunk that has "room for tourists."

Don't ask us how they did it. Come see for yourself.

Slip into those spacious seats—and while you're there, find out why this compact honey is one of the hottest numbers we've seen in years.

Find out how that F-263 valve-in-head Fireball Engine pours out the power and stretches the miles per gallon.

Find out how Buick's exclusive combination of torque-tube drive and coil springs on all four wheels puts big-car steadiness and stability into this nimble performer.

Find out how Dynaflo Drive* takes the strain out of traffic driving—and brings you relaxed to the end of a long day's cross-country driving.

And above all—find out the prices—and how much they'll buy in comfort and convenience. The sooner you see your Buick dealer, the better off you'll be.

*Standard on ROADMASTER; optional at extra cost on other Series.
Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.
