

Drought Broken by Lashing Rain, Hail Storm

DGS were croaking in a rain and Matador at 8 o'clock last night after a lashing rain, hail and wind storm struck about 9 p. m. Rainfall registered by U. S. rain gauge located at city wells, was 1.95 inches in 24 hours. Damage from the hail is believed to be light since few crops were up sufficiently to suffer loss. The rain was welcomed by farmers, ranchers and businessmen alike. With the critical planting season at hand the outlook had reached a point where many were beginning to despair.

In areas where sufficient rain had fallen to permit planting the five days of continuous high southeast winds preceding the rain storm, had damaged or ruined row crops.

Rain struck the South Plains Tuesday and reached as far east as Floydada. Canyon, Happy, Amarillo and other areas north received heavy rainfall. Amarillo had received eight inches at noon Wednesday and Happy reported a total of nine inches. Weather forecasters declared the storm might continue through today.

The storm here struck about 5:30 p. m. yesterday with strong winds out of the west, southwest, and bearing hail and rain. Gutters were filled with leaves from trees here in Matador and many buildings reported leaking roofs whipped by the driving rains.

The Tribune office was flooded in a matter of minutes through a hole in the west wall where gas lines had been installed. The damage was slight, however, and amounted only to about one hour loss of time while the crew mopped the flooded floor.

No report of the rainfall has been received from other communities in the county. Heavy clouds, intermittent showers and lightning prevailed at 9 p. m. and chances for more rain appeared favorable.

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

...ion to the lavish estate of the skies and cloud-ships of the fields of buttercups and sage-scented prairie, I am not to pity for the poor who are only gold in their coffers. Their dismal poverty is flanked by canyons of steel and stone, and solitude is a prisoner in the angry confines of plush walls. They must rise in their hearts as a fever, knowing I have heard of a mockingbird's song to the...

...life moves in a pattern of wheels cushioned by the general gravity of time's unhurried movement. The movement is decisive without compassions; the must be pulled from its path and reduced to dust that will nourish the future's growth.

...Unwilling slaves of sentiment for their scalding memories to the wharfs of youth in a vain hope that some of the past's light ships remain anchored in the harbor. It is a painful and bitter experience. The past is a pulchre endowed with protection from molestation.

...Dried weeds rattle between the weather-blasted spokes of wagon wheels and grass had brown over the path to the well. The empty old house seemed to beg for warmth again; for love, light and laughter. A film of time covered the same windows from which my mother had watched the sunlight for thousands of days. Time had hindered the little temple but many of the artifacts of my youth remained. Unlighted lamps that had shed radiance on my mother's gentle face, waited on a table in the empty kitchen. A thousand memories crowded the heart's corridors like hungry children. Patient decay had reached every room with strong, slow hands.

...Outside, the budding rose vine by mother had planted, swayed like a fragment of reality dangling from the cold fingers of memory. The wind whined in a parkless tree that had grown in the space that once had been a yard. I remembered the tender hands that had carried water up the long hill to wet its roots. Empty sheds and the decaying leaves cried for attention. New leaves whispered in cottonwoods that had grown from the roots of old trees and the sound was unchanged from the summers of my childhood. But the years of loneliness and emptiness had left the old home an empty shell; long nights of the winds searching the vacant rooms, a thousand cold dawns without a light in the kitchen window.

...It is amazing how some friends and relatives can remember your age about the time you have reached a secret conclusion to cease discussing it.

...It is entirely possible to burn the candle at both ends and still be completely in the dark.

...Modern agriculture is the product of continued experiments but boys of today find it impossible to improve on their fathers' methods of sowing wild oats.

...Without attempting to be cynical a friend has declared that old people are a greater problem than children, since the child can be punished when refusing to accept the rules of logical judgment.

(Publisher's Note: It was impossible to obtain pictures of Roaring Springs graduates for this special school issue of the Tribune.)

Matador Seniors Sunday heard an inspiring sermon from Walter H. Adams, Dean of Abilene Christian college in his Baccalaureate address at the high school auditorium. "Go forward and do the things you like to do," he declared in repeating the story of Moses delivering the children of Israel to the promised land. He cited the incident of the people cursing Moses when they came to the Red sea and thought they could go no farther. "When the going gets a little tough," he said, "there is someone who always complains." He told the Seniors to follow the leadership of God, not mortal leaders. He stressed obedience to parents declaring, "Know the Bible as you know no other book in the world."

The commencement program here will be held in the high school auditorium at 8:15 to 9:15. Diplomas will be awarded by Dr. J. S. Stanley.

The Flomot commencement program will be held in the Flomot Methodist church, beginning at 8:15. Superintendent H. M. Allison will present the diplomas.

PARK PLAYGROUND EQUIPMENT BEING READIED FOR USE

Announcement was made at the Lions directors' breakfast Monday morning that the playground equipment purchased last year is being installed in the Matador City Park for the use of youngsters during the summer months.

The equipment was procured late in the season last year through the joint sponsorship of the park development by the Matador Lions club and the Matador Garden club. It was decided to await erection of the equipment until this year.

It is probable the park wading pool will be opened again this season if sufficient interest is shown in the project, according to Mayor Douglas Meador. Servicing of the pool, including water and regular attention to sanitary measures was provided last year by the city without cost.

Marine Cook Uses Grease Gun To Put Jelly In Doughnuts

WITH THE FIRST MARINE DIVISION IN KOREA, May 5—Seldom does necessity have more opportunity for motherhood than with cooks manning front line galleys in Korea. Take the case of Marine Mess Sergeant William I. Penney of Dayton Beach, Fla.

Penney decided to "Whomp up a batch" of jelly-filled doughnuts for palate-weary men in his unit. Necessary ingredients were mixed and sizzling in deep fat when he had a horrible thought: How was he to get the jelly into the doughnuts?

Sergeant Penney rose magnificently to the emergency. Cranking up the field telephone, Penney called motor transport. Two hours later every man in the company was chomping away on doughnuts, complete with jelly centers. "Nothin' like a grease gun for filling pastry," said Penney proudly.

Scouts Charter Issued Lions 20th Consecutive Year

Scout Field Executive Charles Wynn of Floydada, Tuesday delivered to Matador Lions Club President Forrest Campbell, a charter for the current year as sponsor for the Scout Troop 60.

It was the 20th consecutive year the charter has been reissued the Matador Lions club as sponsor of the Scout troop.

Scouters Wynn paid tribute to the Matador civic organization for its long sponsorship of the worthy organization. He said the troop had an excellent record and that its finances were in proper order.

Park Tree Damaged Through Vandalism

Vandalism to City Park property was reported today in the damage to a large cottonwood tree near the Scout hut. Bark has been removed from a large part of the tree and it is believed the damage will result in the loss of the attractive cottonwood. The cottonwoods were set out by two members of the Matador Lions club, Henry Ford and H. F. Pipkin, about 20 years ago.

RETURN HOME

Grid Star Dick Todd Speaks at Lions Club

Honored visitor at Tuesday's meeting of the Matador Lions club's regular meeting was nationally famous former grid star, Dick Todd. He was welcomed by football-conscious Matador Lions, but the attitude of older members might have been different in the early thirties when he was stellar player on the Crowell Wildcats team, which often washed the Matador Matadors by decisive scoring.

INTEREST GROWS IN PAVING PLAN

Plan announced recently to construct hard surfacing on Matador's unpaved streets through payment by property owners is gaining increasing interest.

Six or seven blocks have already been subscribed through tentative arrangements, it was announced at the Monday morning meeting of Lions directors.

A special committee from the club, however, will attempt to meet with the contractors at an early date to clarify certain questions that have arisen regarding drainage, width of paving, permanency, etc.

The city of Matador proposes to pay for street intersections if property-owners adopt the project.

WEEK-END VISITORS
Week-end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ward included their son, Pvt. J. W. Ward of Ft. Bliss; a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. U. Lynch of Floydada; Mrs. S. Truett and a sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Keibel Jones of Burkburnett.

Tax Hike is Given Nod at Meeting

ABSENCE of any wrangling marked the mass meeting Monday afternoon when Motley county's Commissioners' Court presented a representative group of property-owners with a need for more tax revenue.

The county's position was explained by County Judge C. W. Giesecke, jr. It was very simple. The county is attempting to operate on tax valuations and rates set up five years ago and in some instances, many years ago. Everything the county buys costs more money. There is not enough revenue to keep the county on cash basis.

"Any man who operates a farm, ranch or other business, knows that operation costs have advanced a great amount in the past five years," Judge Giesecke declared, "and he also is aware that it is impossible for the county to buy materials and labor on the basis of five years ago. The county is in no present financial strain but we see a crisis in the near future. It appears that the most practical means of raising revenue is to raise property tax values. We estimate that we will need a 20% increase in valuation of real property (raise will probably include only real estate)."

In the group of approximately 20 property-owners representing most of the communities, there was not a single objection to the proposed 20% valuation raise.

In a meeting of the Commissioners' Court following the mass meeting in the District Court room, members declared they would start next week a project of equalizing property in the county before adding the proposed 20% valuation advance.

Judge Giesecke said the present taxable valuation of the county is $5,757,000. He said on the average property-owner's present valuation the increase would add about $10 to his present tax bill.

It is interesting to compare past records with the present. In 1920 the tax valuation of Motley county was over $8,000,000. During the depression and low-income years the value was lowered to its present figure.

Many of the county's largest land-owners did not attend the meeting. One prominent rancher told a Tribune reporter: "There is no purpose in attending the meeting. The court has the authority to raise valuation. We have an honest and capable Commissioner's Court. They are doing the best that can be done with the tax money. If they don't have enough money to meet the county's expenses, there is but one thing to do and this is to raise more taxes. I am willing to pay my part."

Flomot Man Struck By Garage Door During High Wind

A. B. Cloyd, 56, Flomot farmer, was seriously injured last week (Wednesday) by a freak accident resulting from the high wind. He had parked his car in front of the garage at his home when the wind storm struck about 5 p. m. After opening the double doors to drive his car inside, a heavy gust of wind slammed one of the doors, striking him on the head. He was rendered unconscious and did not regain consciousness until the next day.

Mr. Cloyd was brought to Tra-week hospital for treatment and examination. He suffered considerable loss of blood through his ears and nose.

He is still a patient in the hospital and only slight improvement in his condition is reported.

Here's Where the Pounds Pay Off

FIRST thing that people notice when they take over a Buick is the sure-footed stance this fine automobile has on the road.

You head into a curve and hold firm and true. You travel a turnpike without sway or wander.

While your wheels may dance when you hit a stretch of washboard gravel—your car holds its level course.

A lot of things account for this beautifully poised performance, but it starts with stalwart structure and ample weight—plenty of pounds where pounds are needed.

Please don't get us wrong. This isn't "deadweight." Though a Buick like the one pictured here tips the scales at more than two tons, it's as nimble as an antelope at play.

It has a generous hoodful of valve-in-head Fireball power—packing a powerful punch of velvet velocity.

It comes with the smooth magic of Dynaflo Drive*—a lightness of steering that's gently responsive to a lady's hand—a front-end geometry that's pure genius—the finest brakes ever put on a Buick.

And every wheel rides on shock-eating coil springs that are carefree and trouble-free for the life of your car.

You'll also find—by a few moments of simple arithmetic—that the pounds in this bounteous beauty pay off in another way. On a cents-per-pound basis, it will cost less to buy than anything else near its weight and power and size.

Why not visit us real soon—like the first thing tomorrow—and let us show you why you and your budget will both be happy with this Buick?

No other car provides all this:

- 4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING • DUAL VENTILATION
- PUSH-BAR FOREFRONT • TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE
- WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS • DREAMLINE STYLING

Demos Considering Lyndon Johnson As 'Veep' Candidate

Senator Lyndon Baines Johnson is being mentioned in Washington as the choice for Democratic vice-presidential candidate in 1952.

An article about the senator in the current issue of The Saturday Evening Post says, "He has, in fact, the perfect personality for Capitol Hill: a grassroots hominess blended with just enough city sophistication."

His personal charm has won him friends on both sides of Congress. Recently Republican Floor Leader Kenneth Wherry, yielding to Johnson's persuasions in connection with a bill to save West Texas long staple cotton, remarked, "I'd rather do business with you than anyone else on your side."

The greatest part of Johnson's success is attributable to his tremendous capacity for work and the willingness with which he uses it.

"Besides looking out for the Lone Star State," says the article, "Johnson functions as Democratic whip in the Senate, a post in which he acts as assistant majority leader. He is also a member of the strategy-planning Democratic Policy Committee in the Senate, and of the Interstate Commerce and Armed Services committees."

To these he recently added another important job as chairman of the powerful Armed Services Subcommittee on Preparedness.

Until the outbreak of the Korean War Johnson was content to limit his speeches on the Senate floor and win votes in the cloakroom, observes the article, then he made several penetrating and timely talks on the Government's "makeshift mobilization."

He beat the other Senators to the punch by proposing the establishment of the preparedness-investigating committee and was appointed its chairman.

To his credit it can be said that he maintains the unique practice of calling government officials into closed committee sessions before attacking them in a report, to give them a chance to rebut the charges if they could.

FOOD BOUGHT BY ONE HOUR OF LABOR

The average American worker today can buy more food with an hour's labor than at any time in recent years, despite advanced retail prices, according to reports submitted to the House Agriculture Committee by Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan.

"An hour's earnings in a factory may buy less of some things now than it has in the past, but it will buy more food," he said.

Comparing February, 1951, purchasing power with other years, the figures showed that an hour of factory labor buys 25% more bread than in 1939, 50% more than in 1929 and twice as much as in 1919.

Analyses show that bread also contains more actual nutritive

Pipkin, who was unable to attend. Each of the twelve points of the Scout Law was repeated as a candle was lighted. The candlelight Vestiture is a very impressive ceremony to scouts. It is hoped that all the boys will continue their good work and not be content with the awards they have received.

New members of the troop are Ronnie Steen, Harold Wayne Nolen and Milton Pool.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"One For The Book"

Miss Reynolds, our town librarian, really put a smart-aleck morose in his place last week—right in center of town, corner of Main and Walnut.

Her car stalled, tying up traffic. Not drivers just waited quietly realizing she couldn't help it—at one fellow kept blaring away his horn.

So Miss Reynolds gets out of her car, walks over and says sweetly, "I'm afraid I can't start my engine. If you'd like to try I'll stay here and lean on that horn for you." That stopped him!

From where I sit, a lot of us are sometimes a little overzealous to "sound off" before we really understand what it's all about. Let's try to see the other fellow's side in whatever he does—how he votes, what he thinks, whether his preference is for a glass of beer or buttermilk—rather than simply blast out anyone who "gets in the way" of our ideas in these matters.

Odis Crowell Accepts Arizona Coaching Job

PUBLISHER'S NOTE: Odis Crowell, son of Mr. and Leonard Crowell of Flomot, is a graduate of Matador high school. A former Matador Matadors star, he played football throughout college and later played professional football on the West Coast. The following article appeared last week in the Amarillo Globe-News.

Odis Crowell, line coach at West Texas State College since 1948, has resigned to accept a similar position at the University of Arizona it was announced last week.

Gene Mayfield, of Quitaque, brilliant quarterback of the Buffaloes' 1950 Border Conference and 1951 Sun Bowl champions, will replace Crowell on the coaching staff.

At Arizona, Crowell will re-join a former teammate, Bob Winslow, the Wildcats' head coach, with whom he played professional football for the San Francisco '49ers in 1947.

The departing coach was a star lineman under his recent boss, Kimbrough, at Hardin-Simmons University in his collegiate days. In 1948 he had agreed to coach at Friona High school when Clark Jarnagin, who had come to West Texas State with Kimbrough a year earlier, resigned the post as first assistant. Crowell took the job.

His West Texas State forwards have been praised consistently for their hard, aggressive play, particularly on offense. After the Buffs' 14-13 victory over University of Cincinnati in the Sun Bowl last Jan. 7, Cincinnati observers declared that the Buff line had given them more trouble than did powerful University of Kentucky's Sugar Bowl champs.

West Texas State played its first football game against Arizona last fall, defeating the Wildcats, 34-26, in Tucson. The teams will meet in Tucson again next season.

Regarding Crowell's resignation, Gus Miller, West Texas State director of athletics, declared, "Of course we are sorry to lose Odis. We have valued him highly both as a coach and as a man. But Arizona made him an offer he felt he couldn't turn down." And Harry Gilstrap, Amarillo News-Globe Sports Editor, in his column, "Between You and Me," wrote: "The big, earnest, quiet Crowell had done a magnificent job as Frank Kimbrough's first lieutenant after Clark Jarnagin's withdrawal following the 1947 season. His Buffalo linemen didn't get the headline space accorded their deserved just as much credit for West Texas State successes....

I could wish, and a lot of other West Texas State fans could wish with me, that Crowell was going somewhere other than to the University of Arizona—somewhere outside the Border Conference, that is. He will help make those Wildcats hard to beat."

While visiting in Matador last week, Crowell released to the Tribune, the schedule of games which his Arizona Wildcats will play next season, as follows:

Sept. 15: New Mexico A&M, at home. Sept. 22: Utah, home. Sept. 29: Oregon at Eugene. Oct. 6: West Texas State, home. Oct. 13: Texas Western, home. Oct. 20: Bye. Nov. 3: New Mexico U., home. Nov. 10: Temple Phoenix, Nov. 17. Idaho, home. Nov. 24: Hardin-Simmons, Abilene. Dec. 21: U. of Hawaii, at Honolulu.

SENIOR CLASS TO OKLAHOMA

The 1951 Senior Class left on their class educational tour Thursday, May 3rd, and headed toward Oklahoma to Craterville Park and Dude Ranch near Cache, Oklahoma. Although Craterville was the site selected for the tour, many other interesting points were visited such as, Medicine Park, Fort Sill, and Lawton, Oklahoma.

Craterville Park is a beautiful mountain resort situated in the Wichita Mountains. Activities carried on in this Park are skating, swimming, horseback riding, miniature golf, various rides, and other shows.

Those going on the trip were the following: R. L. Holt, Watson Townsend, Jody Graham, Dean Stotts, Jerry Warren, Kenneth Thompson, Grady Phillips, Letress Simpson, Tresa McDonough, Roy Taylor, class sponsor Mr. Gilbreath, and room mother, Mrs. Warren.

Question of the Week

What do you think of the new La Arena annuals this year?

Jerry Warren: I think that it is the best one we have ever had.

Mr. Gilbreath: I think it is really worth the money.

Cecil Carman: I think it is the grandest little book made.

Grady Phillips: I really like it.

Patsy Dewhure: I think it is the best book you can buy.

Carlene Lynn: I really think the editor (Tresa McDonough) did a good job on it.

Pat Reeves: The people who worked on it have done a fine job, and they deserve a lot of credit.

Beatrice Brogdon: I think it is above the average.

Minnie Lou Holt: In my opinion they are the best we've had in years.

Lonnie Lynn: I think it is about the best we have ever had and I like the western theme.

Warren Tilson: I think it is worth the money and Tresa has done a good job.

Conference Game Lost By Locals

The district 4B baseball play-off got underway for Matador High, Friday, May 4, at Turkey, as the local team was defeated 16 to 1. The Turkey team was sparked by left-hander, Wheeler who pitched a marvelous game, and left the Matador's with only four hits.

Gary Laughlin scored for Matador on a walk in the sixth. Reports from reliable sources say that the local team was unable to make contact with the ball.

The game was filled with many errors as compared with the game played with Turkey earlier in the season which ended in Matadors favor.

GRADESTERS PLACE SECOND IN MEET

The local grade school placed second in the Grade School Interscholastic league meet at Estelline the first part of April with 61 points. Estelline took first place with 82 points. The difference came when Estelline entered story telling and number sense in which no other school entered.

Matador entered eight events and placed in seven. Those that placed were: First, boys softball; second, boys volleyball; third, girls softball; Ronnie Steen placed first in junior declamation for boys; Gail McWilliams placed first in junior declamation for girls; Joanne Darsey and Glynda McWilliams placed first in fifth and sixth grade spelling; Frank Traweck and Lucretia Edwards placed second in 7th and 8th grade spelling.

The only event failing to place was girls volleyball.

Truman W. Brown Home From Korea

Truman W. Brown, construction electrician's mate, second class, Construction Battalion, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Thomas of Box 155, Flomot, Texas, returned to the United States this week aboard the amphibious attack transport USS Noble after nine months in Korea. He is a member of (Seabees) Amphibious Construction Battalion One.

Battalion One was with the first assault troops ashore in the invasion of Walmi-Do and Inchon. They set up docks, cleared beaches and built roads to insure the smooth flow of supplies.

When it was decided to abandon the port of Inchon the Seabees were called upon to assist in the now historic redeployment of our troops.

The returning combat veterans will be assigned to the Amphibious Construction Battalion's "stateside" headquarters at the Naval Amphibious Base, Coronado, California.
