RAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

Whirling argosies of white dust were dragging their low anchors over the rolling hills where sleek cattle grazed the lush grass. At intervals waves of cool air pushed heat aside and brushed the boy's moist face. His horse, prying at the shoulders, prodded steadily and with sure-footed caution, sought his way down the steep hillside. A man of clear water flowed from sandrocks in the canyon. The rider stepped from his horse beside his horse, then he held his hands and face. The boy bed was broad with his shoals where wild plums opened red in the sunlight. The cowboy ate the sweet fruit as his horse grazed at clumps of abundant grass. Presently the boy stopped and gazed at a print in the soft sand. It was a child's barefoot track. He looked at the print and saw the tracks of adults, and where the tracks of adults had blazed a path, the boy's horse had blazed a path. There was the pattern of the footprints. He gathered more plums and collected them in his hat, and rode away. Some of the plums had gone out of the children had left their prints in the soil.

Courage reaches the position of special splendor when a smile reveals the pain of an aching heart and the debris of crushed dreams.

Political promises made under the spell of an election moon, like those made during a summer love affair. At some time in the future they may be the embarrassing and ridiculous.

Except that he rides in the trappings of memory, each man makes the journey of yesterday on the constantly changing river of uncertainty. The waters are not defined before the boy arrives and close immediately after it has passed.

Keeping a nose to the grindstone is not an approved method of sharpening the wits.

Work is a religion. Its disciples are the rivers, the plains, the mountains and the seas. Its paragoners are the souls who have found contentment in a labor of laughter, truth and service.

Evil that is spoken of another like glass splinters left in the path that an unfortunate soul has no choice but to tread.

Plans To Close For Memorial Services

Flags will be at half-mast when Matador pays tribute to the honored dead next week in observance of Memorial Day. The Tribune was informed yesterday that representatives of both the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars will ask business places in the city to remain closed during the holiday.

Flomot will observe its annual Memorial Day tribute through the auspices of the Flomot Cemetery Association. Elbert Reeves of Matador will be the speaker at the sunrise services.

Joe B. Meador, representative of the VFW, announced that churches of Matador will be asked to hold individual Memorial Day services at 11 a. m. He will hold a twilight memorial service at the entrance of the Matador cemetery Friday evening (May 30th), with Rev. Keith McCormick, pastor of the First Baptist church here as speaker.

Messames Manley Thompson and J. P. Neighbors were business visitors in Childress, Monday.

Lions Hear Address by Geologist

One of the Panhandle's most fabulous characters, J. C. Estlack of Clarendon, returned Tuesday to Matador. He had been away over three score years. About 1889 a hungry orphan boy found his way to the chuck tent of a cow outfit at Electra, Texas. He told the cook he was hungry and wanted to wash dishes for food. The seven-year-old boy received food and a good word from the cook when the boss arrived. The boss of the outfit was Henry Campbell, manager of the newly organized Matador Land and Cattle Company.

Mr. Campbell brought the boy back to headquarters near Matador where he lived for several months. When he left he was given a horse, saddle and bridle. The boy was J. C. Estlack. He has traveled far since he left the area that is now Matador. He has visited every country in the world with the exception of three.

He was an American spy and interpreter in Germany during World War I. He is a teacher, cowboy, bronco-buster, newspaperman and for the past 12 years postmaster of Clarendon, Texas.

When he was 4 years of age and living with a grandparent at old Tascosa, Mr. Estlack remembers one of the pioneer outposts' famous gun battle. He was told to go home, and rounding a corner he came upon the form of a cowboy, bloody, and kicking in the dust.

But J. C. Estlack is not a violent man, altho his exciting life has been on the fringe of danger, and much of it spent during a period when history was being written with a crimson liquid. He is a geologist.

Auxiliary Schedules 'Buddy Poppy' Drive

An extensive "Buddy Poppy" drive is scheduled for the county, Saturday, May 24, according to Mrs. Gertrude Smith, president of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Ladies Auxiliary.

The crimson flower symbol of battlefield death, is made by disabled war veterans who retain a portion of the fee received through contributions. Sales forces for distribution of the poppies have been organized in Roaring Springs, Matador and Flomot, Mrs. Smith declared.

Car Burns Following Collision

Death hovered close for an instant here Saturday night, when a Negro, Jimmy Nelms, his wife and three children drove north on State Highway 70 during one of the rain squalls which blanketed the Panhandle.

Their car, a 1938 Ford, was struck from the rear by a 1949 Ford driven by John M. Cornett, 19, of Afton. The older car was tossed to the side of the road and burned. The Negro family managed to escape unhurt.

The Afton youth and a companion were taken to Stanley Hospital for examination and treatment. Cornett was released early Sunday. Neither of the youths was seriously injured. The accident occurred about two blocks south of the intersection of highways US 70 and State 70.

Sheriff John Stotts who investigated the wreck said Nelms told him a coal oil stove was burning in his car because of the chilly weather and the subsequent fire is believed to have been caused by the overturned stove.

Cornett declared he did not see the car in front of him until he had struck it.

CARLOS GRUBER TO RETURN HERE FOR PUBLIC ADDRESS

Carlos Gruber, Latvian conductor, violinist and singer, has accepted a "return" engagement with the First Baptist Church here, and will speak to the public, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the church.

In addition to his musical talents, Mr. Gruber is outstanding as a lecturer, and has a message of utmost importance for the public, concerning the influence of communism in his native country, and other countries where he has lived. He was born in Riga, Latvia, migrated with a pilgrimage of his countrymen, to South America, and later to this continent. He became a citizen of the USA in 1948. His wife is instructor of foreign languages in Wayland College, Plainview.

Mr. Gruber appeared here the latter part of March in a series of services conducted by Rev. Cecil Meadows of Rochester, and those who heard him speak at that time, have been eager to learn more of conditions as they exist in other sections of the world.

The public is invited and urged to attend the lecture.

Assembly Of God To Hold Revival

A revival meeting will begin at the Assembly of God Church Tuesday, May 27, it was announced this week by the pastor Rev. G. R. Underwood.

Rev. Earl T. Hunt and his wife of Fresno, Calif., will conduct the revival services, which will start each evening at 8 o'clock. They are in a revival meeting in Memphis, this week.

The meeting here will continue for two weeks or longer, Rev. Underwood said, in extending a cordial invitation to the public, to attend.

AIR FORCE LOSES FIRE EQUIPMENT

The Tribune has been requested by Reese Air Force Base at Lubbock to aid in recovering a fire-fighters protective hood made of asbestos material and a 15-lb. type CO2 fire extinguisher.

The equipment, valued by the government at $91.11, was lost from a fire truck following the crash of a B-45 bomber near the Matador county line on March 21.

Any information regarding the lost equipment will be received by the Tribune and relayed to Lt. Zane G. Brewer, USAF, Training Analysis and Development Division at Reese Air Force Base.

Mrs. J. W. Ward and son, of Lubbock spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Jackson.

Matador Child Is Victim of Polio

Lions Poised For Cleanup

Small Girl Rushed to Plainview Hospital

Spurred by the outbreak of polio in Matador, the Lions club cleanup drive Monday morning will swing into action with full impact. The organization this week warned the "ward leaders" of their obligations to get their assigned blocks cleaned up.

Tailtwister Raby Webb warned his "serfs" that an inspection committee will visit each block by Saturday, May 31. Any block which has not been cleaned to the satisfaction of the committee, will cause a fine of $10 to be assessed against the block or "ward leader".

There is no appealing from a sentence of the Tailtwister.

The Lions will need the assistance of trucks and pickups to remove the excess trash, weeds and junk. The city hall, phone 201, will act as a clearing house for trucks and pickup. Those offering the use of vehicles will register them and also those needing the use of trucks or pickups will call the office.

Blocks are assigned as follows: No. 1, Randall Whitworth, Assembly of God Church area; No. 2, Billy Wason, First State bank area; No. 3, Andy Hurst, Stanley Pharmacy area; No. 4, Mike Hoyle, Matador Auto Co. area; No. 5, John Stotts, jail and Farmers gin area; No. 6, Douglas Meador, city hall area; No. 7, C. W. Giesecke, courthouse block; No. 8, D. E. Pitts, Magnolia Station area; No. 9, Ralph Stapleton, West Texas Gin to Ballard creek, via old Knight house area; No. 10, Joe E. Campbell, Burton-Lingo and old school building blocks; No. 11, Henry Ford, Higginbotham-Bartlett Co. and old Baptist church site block; No. 12, Edd Hughs, Holt Conoco station block.

The Lions will attempt no supervision over the residential area of Matador, but every citizen and homeowner is asked to take part in the campaign. Boy Scout troop 60 has been assigned the task of cleaning up the city park.

WEATHER BLOWS HOT AND COLD

Residents of West Texas during the past week have been confused with weather antics. They are uncertain whether to turn on a heating stove, or an air conditioner.

The mercury Saturday left the usual late spring position and skirted a few degrees above the freezing point while natives dug out stored winter bedding and clothing.

Rainfall accompanied the cold front which did reach the freezing point on the far north plains in most areas it ranged from one to one-half inch. Matador registered 70-inch of precipitation.

Yesterday the mercury jumped back in the thermometer tubes as strong west winds drove gales of sand across the country. The weather boys in "the government know" say we are due cooler weather today with some chance for light moisture.

POLIO, the killer and crippler, made its first 1952 strike in Matador this week. A little golden-haired girl, Susan, five, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Lee, Tuesday was rushed to the Plainview polio hospital on the advice of Dr. J. S. Stanley.

A report from the hospital yesterday declared the child as a definite polio victim, with the dreaded disease running through the fever stage. Dr. Stanley said last night he had received no further word from Dr. Heye, in charge of the Plainview hospital other than the definite diagnosis.

Mr. Lee is in charge of the City of Matador department of sanitation. Due to the critical condition of his daughter requiring the greatest of expediency, he was forced to leave the city clean-up truck on short notice. A substitute driver was procured to serve until Mr. Lee is again in a position to resume his work.

The small child had been a patient in the hospital over the week-end when Dr. Stanley announced her symptoms corresponded with polio cases and advised her immediate removal to Plainview where she would receive the attention of specialists.

JACK NORMAN IS HONORED BY LIONS AT CONVENTION

Lion Jack Norman, secretary of the Matador Lions club, received signal honors at El Paso this week. He was presented a leather case as an award for the most outstanding service as a secretary in District 2T1.

Matador delegates were Lions Norman, Forrest Campbell and Tom Tilson. Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Norman accompanied their husbands on the trip. The joint meeting of Districts 2T1 and 2T2 opened Sunday and was concluded Tuesday. Approximately 650 delegates attended from the 110 clubs in the two districts.

Milton Morris of Canyon was named District Governor of District 2T1. Next meeting will be held at Borger with Borger and Phillips jointly serving as host cities.

Saddle "Dancers" Schedule Meeting

"Square Dancers" on horseback have announced a meeting for Sunday afternoon, 3 p. m., at Roaring Springs Pioneer Park arena. Purpose of the meeting is to organize the group for the summer season and to start practice.

All members of last year's troupe are asked to bring their mounts and be prepared to start practice.

HONORED AT T. C. U.

Miss Dorothy Traveck, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Traveck, Jr., received a signal honor at T. C. U. this week when she was elected president of Chi Beta club, National Home Ec organization. She has served as secretary of the club the past year.

Club Boy Writes Report Of Trip To Cattle Market

The following unedited report of a trip to the Fort Worth cattle market, was written by Bert Green of Roaring Springs, one of the club boys who entered the 10th annual Motley County Junior Livestock show, held here Saturday, May 3.

Sunday morning May 4, 1952, at 4-H and FFA boys and adult leaders left Matador for Fort Worth to see the club steers sell at Fifer Stock Commission Co., Ft. Worth Stockyards. The boys were Dayton Graham, Jimmy Graham, Jerry Swaringen, W. Russell, Melvin Cooper, Ches Cooper, Bert Green and Jerry Green. Adult leaders were Gus Emmons, Bill Moss and M. Green.

We drove to Fort Worth in about seven hours, stopping at Roaring Springs for lunch and Jacksboro for gas and refreshments. The trip was rather hot, but all of the boys enjoyed the scenes. Some of them slept most of the way. The trip was made in two cars of the men, and we had no accidents or trouble on the way down.

"When we arrived at Ft. Worth we immediately checked in at the Westbrook Hotel on fifth street. The stockyards company paid for our hotel bill, which helped a lot. We all had rooms on the sixth floor.

"We bathed and sat around for a few minutes, pulling pranks on the men and phoning one another room. About five o'clock that afternoon, we boys left the hotel and walked around a bit, trying to find a soda fountain. There weren't many stores open except a few drug stores, since it was Sunday. We had a soda and several boys bought articles. We walked around a few minutes and went back to our hotel. Anytime we left without one of the grownups, Jimmy Graham was in charge, since he was the oldest boy.

"We waited in our hotel room until time for supper. We ate at the hotel restaurant and left to see a movie at the Palace theatre a few blocks away. We had to pay a ridiculous price, but we saw a fine movie entitled 'The Greatest Show on Earth'. All except Jerry Swaringen saw the show. He visited his uncle. We came back to the hotel about 11 o'clock and stayed up an hour or two. We went to bed around midnight.

"We got up about 6 o'clock and got ready for breakfast. We ate around 6:30 at a Chinese Cafe a few blocks away. After we got a good meal under our belts we went back to the hotel and packed. We checked out of the hotel around 7:30 and went to the stockyards. We went to the Livestock Exchange building where we waited in the lobby for Mr. Emmons to contact Mr. Rice, a representative of the stockyards company, and the man who judged our show. He served as a general guide throughout the day.

"We then went to where our cattle were and looked around the stockyards. We waited around the commission house for an hour or so. We had some ice cream and Cokes and listened to Mr. Rice's speech on the strategy of the buyers, grading meat, etc.

"We then walked about one mile to the Swift Packing house and waited on the porch of the office building until Mr. Rice could contact a packing house guide. The guide was a jolly old fellow and seemed to know his business. We went through the different sections of the packing house which took about an hour and half. When we left, the company served us hot dogs and Cokes. Some with weaker stomachs could barely eat the weiners after seeing how weiners were made in the packing house.

"We then went back to the exchange building and heard Ted Gouldy's broadcast and the music of the 'Texo Hired Hands'.

"After the radio program we went to a western dry goods store down the street and bought a few articles such as clothing and hats.

"We had lunch at a nice cafe and went back to the exchange building to receive our cattle checks and go home. We had to wait a few minutes for them, and were all happy when we learned that Swift and Co., had bought our cattle for 35¢ cents per pound. Some received 32¢.

"We were ready to go and discovered that a set of keys to one of the cars had been misplaced. We looked awhile and when we didn't find them, we got an employee of the Fifer Co., who was also a mechanic to wire the starter wires whereby the car could be started without keys.

"We left about 5 o'clock and stopped at Jacksboro for gas and soda pop and about 9 miles east of Benjamin we had a flat. We didn't have keys to open the turtle shell for the spare and jack, but the other car proceeded to Benjamin and bought a spare. This occurrence caused a 2-hour delay. It was dark by the time we arrived at Guthrie. We reached home about 11 o'clock Monday night May 5.

"All boys were well pleased with the trip."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Attention Ladies!

Cakes lined up—each with a number. Judges looking, breaking off pieces, tasting. The winner? Number 4—a cake with a wonderful, glossy chocolate frosting.

This was at the Women's Club last night. Then Duke Thomas stepped up—his cake was Number 4! Seems his misus was laid up, so Duke took over—and won!

Here's Duke's prize-winning frosting recipe:

Melt 1 square unsweetened chocolate in double boiler. Remove from heat, add 1/2 cup sifted confectioner's sugar and 2/3 cup hot water and blend. Add 3 egg yolks, one at a time, beating well after each. Add

1/4 cup butter, beating thoroughly after each. Ells and frosts 8-inch, 2-layer cake.

From where I sit, we all have different abilities and tastes... and these differences are sometimes surprising. Duke bakes prize-winning cakes. My wife, for example, can beat most any man at checkers. Same when it comes to beverages—you may like coffee or tea while I prefer a refreshing glass of beer. But let's not have any "half-baked" ideas that people are all the same—or should be.

MATADOR TEXAS

Pied Pipers
BY MRS. J. M.

On her recent visit here, Mrs. Lemmie Day of Tipton, Okla., was wearing some unusual ear-screws. They looked like plastic filigree, but on inspection, and as explained by Lemmie, they were made from plain, old-fashioned tating, and lacquered with fingernail polish.

A woman at Tipton makes these intriguing bits of ornament, and they are really exquisite. Lemmie handed out several pairs to friends here, as gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean McInroe of Roaring Springs, received an unusual birth announcement recently from Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Stetson of Dickens. (If we remember correctly, Mr. McInroe and Mrs. Stetson are brother and sister).

On the cover of the announcement was a sketch of a hat hanging from a pair of steer horns, with the caption, "A New Stetson!" and the inside contained the following statistics:

"There's a new Stetson hanging in the hat."

At the O.M.S. Ranch a new cowboy has come to call.

On May 3 at 1 a. m. wt. 9-lbs., 1 ounce, he started riding the range.

For a different cowhand we just wouldn't change.

Milt is range boss and the main job of Jean's.

Is making sourdough and dishing up beans.

We're telling the world, podner, this is no joke. Just come over, and we'll present Stephen Dale... Our New Cowpoke."

Attending school graduation exercises brings back many nostalgic memories of one's own school days and graduation... and of a timid, backward Missouri gal who believed the world was 'agin her, and that the only ones destined for fame and success were the scions of the wealthy.

Seems like no time a-tall since the N. J. Smalleys moved to Matador from Turkey, and brought with them a little tow-headed tyke with big blue eyes. This year, Betty Ruth Smalley was chosen most beautiful girl in Matador High School. Selected the most handsome boy was Dewayne Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Martin, who is "tall, dark AND handsome".

Betty and Dewayne received full-page pictures in the school annual, La Arena '52, as did Frances Traweek, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Albert Traweek, Jr., and James (Jimmy) Graham son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Graham, as school favorites.

This we borrowed from Effem, in the Duluth (Minn.) Publicity. The difficult age?

Too tired to work— Too poor to quit.

How true!

Miss Maggie Bryan visited relatives in Amarillo last week, having accompanied Miss Rachel Patton and her mother, Mrs. M. L. Patton, who is receiving optical treatments there.

REGISTERED NURSE SAYS BIG 12 FORMULA IS BEST

When a registered nurse with years of experience in hospitals and private homes caring for sick people recommends a medicinal product one can be certain that the product has real merit. Mrs. Fern Collins, a registered nurse who resides in San Clemente, California and recently visited in Texas had this to say about BIG 12 Iron Tonic.

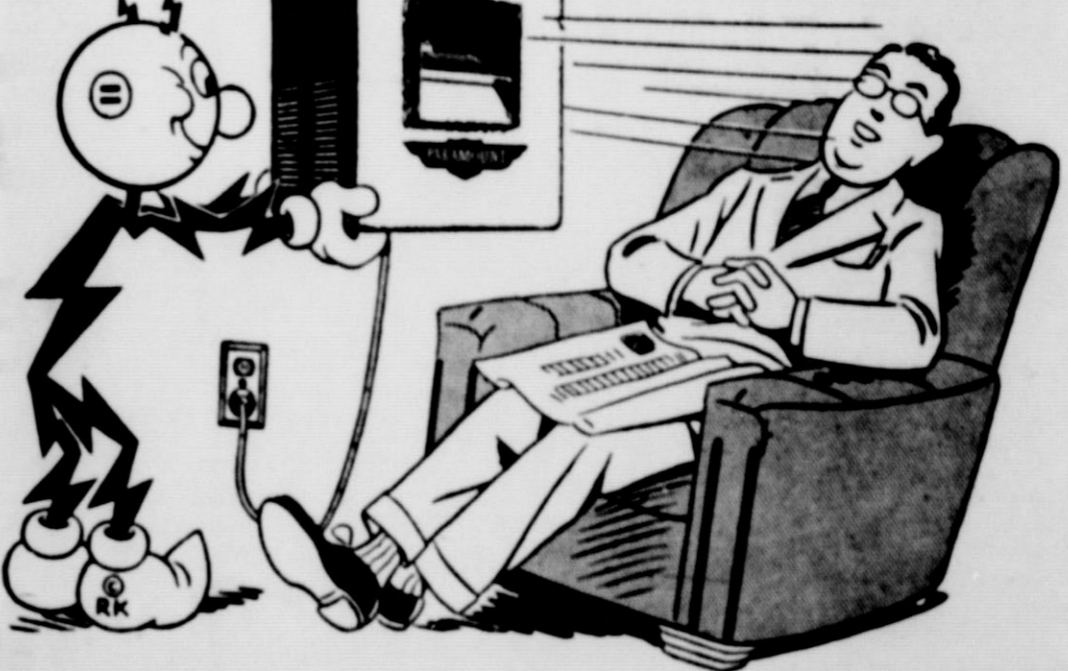

"I am a registered nurse, serving many years in hospitals and on private cases, and I have seen many instances where patients, suffering from stomach trouble, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and a general run-down condition have been greatly benefited by taking a vitamin and mineral tonic such as BIG 12. In fact I should consider BIG 12 an absolute necessity where the patient's system is deficient in Vitamins B, B₁₂, and Iron; this is especially true in cases of iron anemia of which there are many. I have studied the BIG 12 formula carefully and BIG 12 supplies by far more iron per daily dose than any similar product I have seen and I think I am familiar with all of them. BIG 12 also supplies in the daily dose as much of the new Red Vitamin B₁₂ as a doctor usually gives in an intramuscular injection. I believe that BIG 12 Iron Tonic, supplying as it does, helpful amounts of Vitamins B, B₁₂, and Niacin in addition to Vitamin B₆, and with such a large iron content is undoubtedly the best tonic a person, young or old, can take to relieve conditions caused by these deficiencies. Also, because of its pleasant taste, BIG 12 is invaluable to mothers whose children are not thriving as they should, since children will readily take BIG 12 and this is important to mothers because other similar products usually taste atrociously and have to be diluted with water to enable an adult to take them, much less trying to get such a dose down a child. BIG 12 requires no dilution with water. In fact BIG 12 can be placed in milk without causing the milk to curdle as will be the case with other similar products."

If you or any one in your family, a grownup, or child, is suffering with stomach distress, listlessness, poor appetite, nervousness, nagging aches and pains and sleeplessness due to deficiencies of Vitamins B, B₁₂, Niacin and Iron you could not possibly do a greater favor than to purchase a bottle of BIG 12 Iron Tonic at your drug store and within a short time, often before the first bottle has been taken, you will note a decided change for the better, you'll note more energy, better appetite and a general improvement so why wait? BIG 12 is the product you have been looking for if you suffer from these deficiencies and it is as close to you as your nearest drug store.

One Magic Recipe Gives New Family of Pies

- Sprinkle milk over mixture, tossing lightly with fork until dough is moist enough to hold together. Form into a ball.
- Roll out on floured board or pastry cloth to a 10-inch circle. Fit loosely into 8-inch pie pan. Gently pat out air pockets. Fold edge to form standing rim; flute. Pick crust with fork.
- Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 10 to 12 minutes. Cool. Makes 8-inch pie shell.

At the regular meeting of the Matador Lions club held Tuesday in the Methodist church basement, Mr. Estlack told his audience about the appearance of this area 250 million years ago, and then traced its history down to a more recent date. He explained the animal life which was present here during the time and said all animals were of larger bone structure and possessed tougher covering. The reason he declared, was because of the great atmospheric pressure which covered the earth at that time. He said animals of today, including man, would be crushed instantly if the same pressure continued.

He presented several cases of cut and polished rocks and stones which attracted wide interest among his listeners. He prescribed a hobby for everyone and said his own robust condition was the result of interest in rocks which kept him outdoors, in the sunshine and breathing plenty of fresh air. He said he had not had a cold in over 30 years. Mrs. Estlack accompanied her husband here Tuesday and was a guest of the Lions club.

Following the Lions meeting Mr. Estlack discussed his "rock-hound" hobby to a group of ladies of Matador who had been extended an invitation to hear him and see the collection of semi-precious jewels.
