If you haven't listened to any jacks jargon lately, you've been neglecting your education. It goes something like this: tick-ery-tock, the game is locked; no one else plays or stops! ... that's when the game begins. Then you'll hear, "no miss but make-miss" ... "overs" ... and something about "old fashioned baby." This last had us stumped so we consulted Nola Lee's mother, who is our sister. She was rather vague, so we came to the conclusion it had reference to our generation, since we could not remember any old-fashioned babies entering into the game when we last played jacks.

So the game progresses, with Nola Lee and Martha (our brother's oldest daughter) arguing about "overs" while little Susan (his youngest) shrieks on the side-lines, thrashing the air with her arms in an effort to reach the ball. If she's in her stroller, it's a simple matter to disrupt the game by charging into the scattered jacks. In the meantime Gerald, Nola's teenage brother, snorts as he leaves the room.

Three nieces and a nephew as instructors in our post-graduate course, are keeping us on our toes. Two other nieces, Donna and Dale, (going on 4 and 3 years old), are due this week-end, and we are wondering what new stunts they've been up to since we last saw them in April.

Former resident, "Prof" Doss now of Crosbyton, who was looking after business here Monday explained that the reason Mrs. D didn't accompany him was that she was entertaining their young grandson, Lindy Eugene Morris. His mother, Mrs. Gene Morris (Doris Ann) had left him there when she returned to Fort Worth after a recent visit.

Everything went perfectly at the Ketchersid Gattlin wedding, until the matron of honor dropped the bride's handkerchief and "something old" she was carrying, as she received the bride's bouquet. Folks are still talking about how beautiful the bride was (and is), and several noted how striking the two candlelighters were, being of the same height and both having auburn hair. We understand the father of the bride was slightly embarrassed trying to reach his pew by the side of his wife, but he was inching his way around the bride's train, to avoid stepping on it.

Mack, our linotype operator, thinks the bridegroom should have more notice in the write-up, and Mr. M. thinks the decorators should come in for some mention.

We don't know too much about the bridegroom, having met him for the first time at rehearsal, but he certainly seems like one fine person, and we don't think he is the only lucky one of the bridal couple.

As for the decorations, Elton Goen, (Park Florist of Floydada) was responsible for the beautiful wedding appointments. Wedding pictures were made by I. G. Holmes of Lubbock, and Mr. M.

Thus ends another "first-time" for us—as a wedding attendant.

MRS. HAROLD GATLIN

Thareen Ketchersid And Harold Gatlin Are United In Rites At Baptist Church

Wedding vows were exchanged Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. in the First Baptist Church, by Miss Thareen Ketchersid of Lubbock and Harold Gatlin of Abilene.

Dr. Ben D. Johnson, pastor of the church, read the double ring ceremony as the couple stood before an arch entwined in matrimony and white gladioli. The bride was flanked by bridesmaids, flanked with baskets of gladioli and tropical flowers, with branched candelabra in the background. The aisle was marked with tapers, tied with white satin ribbon.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Ketchersid of Matador and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Gatlin of Lubbock.

Miss Rachel Patton presented an organ prelude of "Our Very Own," "I'll Walk Beside You," "Love's Offering," and "Liebestraum," and accompanied Miss Elwanda Martin as she sang, "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "Yours." During the ceremony, Miss Patton offered "O Day of Promise" and in benediction, Miss Martin sang "The Lord's Prayer." Traditional wedding marches, "The Bridal Chorus" from Wagner's Lohengrin, and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" were also played by Miss Patton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of white marquisette over taffeta, fashioned with sheer drop shoulder yoke outlined with a wide lace ruffle headed by embroidery of iridescent beads. The fitted bodice had long sleeves ending in points over the hands, and a slender point at center front and back accenting the small waistline. From the points, the immense skirt, outlined with a ruffle of lace at bottom edge, swept into a long and graceful train at back. Hoops emphasized the skirt's fullness. The bride's fingertip length veil of silk illusion was joined to a tiara of pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white mums centered with an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Douglas Meador, matron of honor, wore a gown of white silk organza over orchid taffeta. The bodice buttoned up front to a small collar, and was accented at the waistline by an orchid taffeta sash that tied in a large bow at center back. The full skirt, with pockets at each hip, was shirred at the waistline. She wore a headpiece of orchid lace and carried a colonial bouquet complimenting her dress.

Misses Martha and Louise Hargis of Lubbock were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of aqua and maize net over taffeta, fashioned with portrait necklines and puff sleeves. The fitted bodices of lace terminated with points accenting the waistline. They wore head-pieces of lace with veils matching their dresses, and carried colonial bouquets which also complimented their dresses.

Misses Margaret Sanders and Beth Scott of Lubbock, lighted the candles. They wore dresses of green and yellow net. Mary Newman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Newman of Matador, was flower girl. Her dress was pale green organza.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ketchersid chose a street length dress of taupe crepe and brown accessories, including a brown velvet calot. Her corsage was of deep red carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a rose crepe dress and navy accessories, and her carnation corsage matched her dress.

Brother Is Attendant
Eugene Gatlin of Lubbock served his brother as best man, and ushers were James T. Johnston and Oliver Heard, jr., of Lubbock. Johnny Holmes, small son of Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Holmes of Lubbock was ring bearer.

In addition to parents of the bridegroom, other out-of-town guests were from Abilene, Melvin, Plainview, Lubbock, Floydada, Vernon, Odessa and Sweetwater.

Following the wedding, Mrs. Eugene Gatlin of Lubbock registered the guests at a reception held at the home of the bride's parents. White gladioli and white tapers were used for decorations.

The bride's table was lace covered, and centered with her attendants' bouquets and white tapers. A three tiered wedding cake, decorated with rosebuds and lovebirds, and topped with a miniature bridal couple, was served by Mrs. Paul Schmidt of Abilene, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Albert Rattan of Matador presided at the punch bowl.

For a wedding trip to Monterey, Mexico, the bride wore a pink linen suit with navy velvet hat and other matching accessories and the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home in Abilene, where the bridegroom is associated with the Zellinger Shoe chain.

The bride is a graduate of Matador High school and a former employee of the Matador Tribune. She attended Texas Technological college in Lubbock, and has been woman's editor of Southwestern Crop and Stock magazine in Lubbock for the past year and half.

The bridegroom was reared at Lubbock and graduated from Tech in 1948 with a BBA degree.

Mary Helen Keith And Hubert J. Knox Jr. Exchange Vows In Ceremony At Whiteface

Before an altar decorated with white gladioli, wedding vows were exchanged Sunday morning, July 8 at 9 o'clock by Miss Mary Helen Keith and Hubert J. Knox, jr., in First Methodist Church of Whiteface. Rev. Clarence Bounds, pastor of the church assisted Rev. Roy Patterson of Plains, Texas, who performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Keith, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Knox, all of Whiteface.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original model dress of nylon with a lace yoke. A short veil cascaded from a lace headband. Her bouquet of white roses was carried on a white Bible.

The maid of honor, Miss Thelma Roulain of Whiteface, wore a light blue organza ankle-length gown and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations.

Best man was George Keith, brother of the bride, and ushers were James Knox, brother of the groom and Robert Keith, brother of the bride.

Miss Louise Baldrige of Morton, Texas, sang "O Promise Me" and "A Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. J. B. Knox of Morton, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 75 guests was held in the home of the bride's parents.

After a short trip to the mountains in New Mexico, the couple will be at home at 2109-13th street, Lubbock.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding were two aunts and an uncle and family, of Matador being Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Patton, Miss Mary Keith and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Keith and sons, Charles Robert and David. Another uncle, formerly of Matador, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Keith, now of Lubbock, also attended.

ENGAGEMENT OF FRANCES EIRING IS ANNOUNCED

The engagement and forthcoming marriage of Miss Frances Eiring to Lt. Robert Anthony Horner was announced by her mother, Mrs. Frank Eiring, at a coffee Saturday morning in her home, 610 W. Alpine Drive, Plainview.

The announcement is received with interest by friends here, since the Eiring family formerly resided at Matador.

Lt. Horner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Horner of Johnstown and Harrisburg, Pa. The wedding is to take place August 4 in the First Baptist Church, Plainview.

Mrs. H. S. Hilburn met the guests at the door and presented them to those in the receiving line. Miss Eiring, her mother, and Mrs. D. I. W. Birnie of Matador, aunt of the bride-elect.

The table in the entrance way was decorated with a lovely arrangement of bright yellow chrysanthemums, and in the living room the mantle held a bou-quet of pink majestic daisies. Other seasonal flowers were used in the living room.

In the dining room, the buffet was decorated with a huge bouquet of shell-pink gladioli and orchid majestic daisies and greenery. The table was laid with a cutwork linen cloth. A silver service was used in serving the coffee, tiny cinnamon rolls, Danish pastries, and orange drops. A fruit platter held frosted grapes, fresh pineapple slices and fresh cherries.

A unique arrangement in the center of the table announced the date of the marriage. An open white satin bride's book which bore the words of snow, "Frances and Bob, August 4," stood on a rectangular mirror surrounded by white net ruffling. On the mirror and trailing onto the table were pink sweetheart rosebuds, lily of the valley and pink and white satin ribbon.

Members of the houseparty were Mesdames C. E. Carter, Frank Day, Herbert Dysart, J. K. Crews and Dennis Hefflefinger of Plainview; Mrs. Leonora Luckett of Matador; Mrs. G. C. Godfrey of Spur; Mesdames Frank Young, Ted Crager, J. M. Holloway and J. P. Martin and Miss Ann Cottles of Lubbock; Mesdames Rusty Dunn, J. E. McVicker, Bob Carter, Jimmie Hooser, Gene Owen and L. D. Bain, and Misses Joan Hale and Mary Cave of Plainview.

The future bride's chosen colors are peacock green and delphinium blue. She wore a dress of sheer nylon in these colors and a corsage of gardenias and lily of the valley.

Miss Eiring attended Stephens College at Columbia, Mo., and was graduated from Texas University with a B.A. degree. She plans to receive her M.E.D. from Texas Tech this August.

The prospective groom attended the University of Pittsburg and was graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. He entered pilot training in the U. S. Air Force and is now stationed at Reese Air Force base at Lubbock.

Vernon Doss of Crosbyton, formerly of Matador, was a business visitor here Monday.

Might Say

The Birds Got "Nettled"

Had dinner with Tik Bradley the other day, and over a frosty bottle of beer I found out about his job with the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

"Now just exactly what do you do?" I asked him. "Shoot birds with a cannon" he calmly replies. Seems they actually do use a cannon—to shoot out a net over a flock of birds feeding on the ground. The birds start to take off at the sound of the shot, but the settling net brings them back to earth. Then they're banded around the leg so more can be learned about their migratory habits. Afterwards, they're let loose—and everyone's happy.

From where I sit, it was a good example of how when you learn the real facts they're often not as bad as they may sound at first. Like with people. Get to really know your neighbor and chances are you'll be more tolerant of his preferences—even though they're not your own. Take a good look before you jump to conclusions.

Standard on ROADMASTER, optional on other Buick models.

PARDON us if we play switch-phrase, but we aim to flag down some certain people...

Those folks who've always had a great big yen for a new Buick, but a big worry that Buick prices ran too high for their budgets.

Now we'll have to grant you that—on style and beauty and size and impressive appearance—a 1951 Buick looks like a pretty high price tag.

And we'll have to grant, too, that the zooming power and the luxurious ride and the heavyweight steadiness you get in a Buick would also indicate prices beyond the reach of most people.

But honestly, you'll find nothing farther from the truth when you note the price tags on 1951 Buicks.

You'll find that beauty with the big-power, big-mileage, valve-in-head Fireball Engine is really within your budget picture—with prices starting below those of many of today's sixes.

And you'll have to admit then and there that you can have Buick room and comfort, can have Buick ride and handling, can have Buick style and size—for little, if any, more than you've been paying for lesser cars.

That leaves the next step up to you—stopping in to see us.

Come in soon, look over the SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER you've always wanted—and let that happy glow go surging all through you as you sign up for your smart-buys Buick.

Ella Jo, Jesse Loy and Mary Ruth Powell of Spur, spent the week-end in the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Farris.

IN APPRECIATION
Since it is impossible for us to thank each of you individually, we want to take this means of expressing our deep appreciation for all the many things you have done, and are doing for us during the illness of our loved one. May God bless each of you. Lem Jameson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Barkley, Jr., of Canyon visited here during the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Barkley.

it's here! it's NEW! it's super!

it's the McCormick FARMALL SUPER C

it's superior 17 ways!

Easy handling—power-to-spare performance—fuel metering economy. It's FIRST IN THE FIELD. Has best BALANCE between power and weight for 2-row, 2-plow "get up and go." Solves your power problems for years.

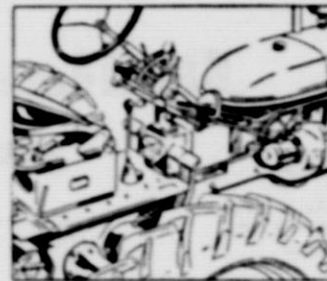

MORE POWER! MORE PEP! MORE PULL!

GET THE FEEL OF LIVE POWER! Bigger cylinder bore gives 12% more power on every piston stroke. Power-packed valve-in-head engine starts in a flash, delivers plenty of smooth power over entire load range.

GET THE FEEL OF SUPER-EASY DRIVING! Big-diameter, high-leverage steering wheel steers with finger-touch response. New TTP-TOE self-energizing disc brakes insure positive pinpoint turning.

GET THE FEEL OF BALANCED WEIGHT AND POWER! Weight is matched to power for high-traction pull with trailing implements... for peak performance with the Farmall Super C's full line of mounted equipment.

Ask us for a demonstration! Drive the Farmall Super C yourself!
