TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

California is many colored

California is many colored with that adorn the throat of a shimmering but exceedingly prosperous lady. Beads that are bright and translucent, strung next to drab particles of dried pebbles, tall eucalyptus trees marred against cobalt skies, distant oil wells pumping like the drifts of sea-weed and patterns of surf-washed sand; police vehicles, timid foreign cars and a jangling trolley wheels. In Hollywood the shaggy fingers of palm trees like spires of unshaded dream castles, Billy Graham and the Bowl; "breakfast all day" cafe signs. Community of more tears than sweat.

Old houses that fringe the great commercial districts of the cities have a pathetic appearance, like poor but honorable beggars forsaken by their children. Grime and dust, streaks of dried fog on old windows, rotting steps and verandas; photos of old homes where the footsteps of children have echoed. Frequently they are resigned to become third rate second-hand stores with stained glass windows in the yard and battered rocking chairs in the windows. The architecture belongs to a leave but forgotten period, a long period of pride of ownership, houses long empty of children's laughter.

On San Diego's pier the pigeons are tame and constantly flutter on walks about the feet of strollers. Children like to watch them feed on the liberal amounts of pop corn while sailboats delight in scattering. Small, brown sparrows are highly cooperative, however, and usually leave the slower-moving pigeons pecking at space where the morsel of food had rested. The birds are alerted when a customer approaches the pop corn stand. The possibility of a generous heart is worth their following.

Cady's restaurant on the wharf has an interesting atmosphere. It seems to have absorbed much of sailors and the sea. The best and worst of a thousand ports must have passed through its doors, enjoyed the excellent food and watched the low-flying gulls from the spacious windows. A tall, handsome man wearing an ex-service emblem ordered his Sunday lunch and held a late-arriving friend that had been to church. Presently two disheveled young men who had experienced difficulty in stepping over an unbedded street car rail, entered and studied the menu with red-eyed curiosity. An immaculate and shy young sailor and his girl played dreamy waltzes on the juke box and looked at their food in bewilderment while being preoccupied in holding hands. A quartet of tourists, that strange breed of animals addicted to grotesque shirts and skin-tight slacks, ordered the foot-long hot dogs, a house specialty.

Patrons of the smaller, but modern and clean Hollywood and Wilshire hotels may wonder at the absence of window screens. The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce would be glad to explain (and be truthful in it). The complete absence of bugs, flies and other insects renders screens unnecessary.

PHEASANT HUNTERS LEAVE FOR DAKOTA

Four West Texas hunters left Childress this morning for a thousand-mile trip to Westington Springs, South Dakota, to be on hand for the opening of the pheasant season, October 20th. Those in the party are Boon Simpson of Northfield, A. G. Hartgraves, John Cates and Neal Muscraw, all of Childress. They expect to return in about a week.

Judge Chapman Calls It "The Big Steal"

Fiery Speech Explains Texas Tideland Issue

TEXAS is being stolen blind by the United States Government. Its sacred rights have been violated in "The Big Steal" tideland issue. District Judge Alton B. Chapman of Floydada, Tuesday stirred the blood of every loyal Texan in his audience when he spoke to the Matador Lions Club.

Judge Chapman explained how the "fuddy-duddy" bench-warmers of the Supreme Court had ruled against the Lone Star state without ever giving the facts consideration and as a result robbed unborn generations of Texas school children of their heritage.

The word "secession" was not mentioned during the fiery 30-minute speech but it was in the thoughts of many outraged Lions who listened to the brilliant and inspired address. "The subject is not settled," Judge Chapman declared. "The tidelands of Texas belong to the school children of Texas. They were won on the battlefield of San Jacinto.

"For more than 10 years the republic of Texas claimed the waters off its shores for three leagues (about 10 1/2 miles). The United States recognized these boundaries at the time Texas was admitted to the union. "An error of history has claimed that Texas came into the union on 'equal footing' with other states. This is not true nor is it in the agreement. Texas was first refused admission to the union because of a $10,000,000 debt which the United States refused to assume. Congress at the time was convinced that Texas was worthless territory. 'Let Texas keep her lands and pay her own debts' Congress declared and that is exactly what the young republic did. Texas paid her ten million debt and came into the union by contract and not by treaty.

"Other states entering the union were relieved of debt and each given federal land grants of 3,000,000 acres or more. Texas entered the union by contract as an independent nation. "Some misinformed historians believe that Texas lost her rights in seceding during the Civil War. This is not true. Texas never seceded. The Texas act of secession was declared null and void by the United States Congress. Texas never left the union.

"The United States Government which owns 24% of the lands within its boundaries, now seeks to grasp the tidelands, an area as large as the New England states. Texas must preserve its self-respect. I do not favor any kind of compromise. Not one acre should go to the federal government.

"The state leases the tidelands (unproven area) through sealed bids which last year amounted to $20 per acre (for lease alone). The government receives 25¢ per acre for leases on unproven lands and leasing is done through application. At present 1,021 applications are on hand for the government leases.

Judge Chapman was introduced by Lion G. E. Hamilton. Boss Lion J. E. Edwards announced that the next week's meeting would be delayed until facilities are available.

He also announced the "Lions Revue" to be presented in the high school auditorium Friday night, November 30th. Former Lubbock will be master of ceremonies. Members of the Lions club will be cast in most of the roles. Admission will be $1 for adults and 50¢ for children. Profits from the production will be used to augment the Lions Christmas fund and used to bring holiday treats to underprivileged children.

THREE FROM COUNTY INDUCTED RECENTLY

Registrants ordered by Texas Local Board No. 45, Plainview, for the area covering Floyd, Motley, Swisher and Hale counties included three from Motley county, who reported for induction into the Army and Marines, on October 9. These were, Willie Fred Meyer of Flomott; Lawrence C. Carman and Leo Bennett Archer, Jr., both of Matador. Archer was inducted into the Marine Corps. Relatives here were advised last week.

Winners Selected In Poster Contest

More than 80 Matador grade school contestants entered the Fire Prevention Week poster contest sponsored by the Matador Volunteer Fire Department, according to Fire Chief Freddie Welling. Public exhibition of the posters was held Saturday in the Fleming-Post American Legion hall, and first, second and third place winners selected. First place and a $5 prize went to Charlotte Campbell. Mary Ann Lawson received second place award and a $3 prize. Third place with its $2 prize went to Frances Lancaster.

Lakeview Clips Matadors 32-12

Burleson Field here was "heartbreak ridge" Friday night for the Matador Matadors as they were forced to yield their first conference game against the superior Lakeview Eagles. The final score was 32-12.

The Eagles clawed at pay dirt midway in the first quarter when G. D. Hall ran 18 yards and Ronnie Gowdy ran the extra point. The Matadors lanced back before the quarter ended when Dewayne Martin powered 30 yards down field in a set up which enabled his cousin, Harold Martin to take the needed three yards to touchdown. The attempted conversion was futile.

The Eagles went into the scoring again about midway of second quarter when Gerald Payne passed to Gaylen Wiley for 30 yards and pay dirt. Payne ran the extra point over on a quarterback sneak. The Matadors hit back again late in the third quarter when Dewayne Martin ran eight yards for the second touchdown. His attempt at the extra point was fruitless.

Their feathers ruffled, the Eagles piled up the top-sided score in the final quarter. J. W. Lindley ran 28 yards for a touch down but the Matador line stopped the extra point try. The Eagles scored again when Gerald Payne ran around right end for 45 yards. The Matador line went through to spoil the bid for the extra point. The final score was made when the Eagles powered downfield for 40 yards. The Matadors' line held again and the bid for the extra point was wasted.

The Matadors will play their second conference game Friday night when they meet the Silverton Owls at Silverton.

A heart attack at 12:15 this morning claimed the life of L. C. Davis, Roaring Springs resident for the past 27 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil E. Burney and small son, Cecil, Jr., of Corpus Christi, were visitors here Sunday and Monday in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moore. They came here from Lubbock where Mr. Burney, president of the State Bar of Texas, presided at a two-day meeting of directors of the association on Friday and Saturday.

COME TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Earl McBride spent the week-end at Dallas, where he visited his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. McBride and attended the State Fair.

Motley Singers To Hold Meeting Here

DEATH CLAIMS J. E. JAMESON

J. E. Jameson, 81, died at his home here this afternoon, following a lingering illness of a number of years. He had been in a critical condition the past two weeks. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Methodist Church, Matador, by the pastor, Rev. Marvin Brotherton, assisted by Rev. W. B. Vaughn of Matador. Masonic graveside rites and burial will be in Matador East Mound cemetery. Eudy-Seale Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Jameson was born in Webster County, Mo., December 29, 1869, and had been a resident of Matador the past 38 years. He died October 18, 1951, at the age of 81 years, 9 months, 19 days.

He is survived by his wife; 1 son, J. E. Jameson, Jr., of Matador; 1 daughter, Mrs. Grady Starkey of Quitaque; 3 grandchildren; 1 sister, Mrs. Guy Hunter of Wheeler, and five brothers: Rev. Bob Jameson of Roaring Springs; Lem, of Matador; Luther, of Pecos; Charlie of Hobbs, N. M. and E. B. Jameson of Prentiss, Texas.

T. E. LONG TO BE SPEAKER AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Laymen's Day will be observed Sunday at the Baptist Church at both morning and evening worship hours, with the men of the church taking a leading part. Rev. Clifford Potts, pastor, announced this week.

T. E. Long will speak at the morning hour, 11 o'clock, and the pastor will resume his pulpit for the evening hour, 7:30. Plans have been made for an all-male choir for these special services. Everyone is extended a cordial invitation to attend both services.

Legion To Be Host To Pioneer Group

Meeting here Sunday (October 21st) for the year's second semi-annual convention, the singers will gather in the Fleming-Post American Legion building. Vice Commander Vernie R. Beauchamp will deliver the address of welcome.

Plans for "dinner all day and singing on the ground" have been made to use the adjacent Jackson building for spreading the famous "basket lunches". Bread for the lunch will be furnished by the City Bakery and coffee provided by the Legion. The modern Legion building provides an ideal meeting place for the convention. Every facility for the comfort and convenience of crowds are available, including the modern kitchen. Located in the center of Matador, adequate parking facilities will be found without trouble. Altho the organization has used churches as a meeting place "most of its life", it is believed the Legion building will provide a more ideal location and in no manner disturb regular church services. A radio station has made arrangements to broadcast the gospel singing here Sunday, according to announcements.

Many outstanding singers have made plans to attend and at least three excellent quartets will sing. Post Commander Hub Swearingen declared. A meeting of the Legion and Auxiliary will be held this evening to complete further plans for the convention.

'Stars' Named in Parade of Babies

It wasn't an easy task to pick the "stars" at the Motley County Home Demonstration clubs sponsored baby show held Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium. The charming youngsters tossed to the judges and the audience a difficult problem in awarding the three top places in two age ranges.

Bangs Disease Test Is Being Scheduled

A test of Motley county dairy cows for Bangs disease will be held in the near future according to County Agent Rufus Emmons. The test will not be made however, until at least 75 cows have been "booked" for testing. Mr. Emmons declared. This number is necessary before the services of a veterinary are justified.

Mr. Emmons said the price will probably be the same as in former years: $2 for one cow, $3 for two cows and $1 each for three or more head. Testing services have already been requested by Art Green and A. M. Tanner of Flomott; L. D. Carman, Carl Bird and Gus Bird of Matador and C. R. Brandon of Roaring Springs. Dairy cattle owners who are interested in having cows tested are asked to contact the county agent's office here or John R. Hunter at Roaring Springs.

Yellowjackets Nip Girard With 36-19

Roaring Springs Yellowjackets hung up their third victory of the season Thursday night, rolling to a 36-19 victory over Girard in a game witnessed by approximately 250 wind-chilled fans.

The Yellowjackets used the air effectively, passing gaining them most of their yardage and their touchdowns. Girard stuck to the ground and save for three thrusts failed to keep pace.

It was a non-conference game, with Roaring Springs preparing for its meeting this week with Guthrie in a conference tilt. Girard now has lost all five games it has played.

Jennie Diane Middlebrooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Middlebrooks of Matador, took the top place in the six months to two years age group.

Second place went to Mark Timmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Timmons of Northfield and third position went to Johnny Thacker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Melton (Buzz) Thacker of Roaring Springs.

In the three years to five years group, Gary David Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Campbell of Roaring Springs, was selected for first place.

In this group Lou Groves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Groves of Matador, won second place. Third place went to Joey Thacker, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Melton Thacker of Roaring Springs.

Miss Marie Rea, Motley county home demonstration agent announced that the clubs netted over $300 from the show through sponsorship of various county business firms. The money will be used to pay expenses of an educational tour of county 4-H club girls. Judges of the baby show were: Mrs. Tim Tyler, Cottle county home demonstration agent and Mrs. E. E. Asher, Cottle county treasurer, both of Paducah. A fine aluminum pressure cooker, contributed to the show by the Matador Hardware and Furniture Company, was awarded to Mrs. F. Z. Martin.

Returning Monday night from a business trip to Austin, were Judge C. W. Giesecke, Jr., Supt. Leo Purvis of Roaring Springs; Supt. J. L. Huey of Patton Springs school, Afton, and Supt. O. E. Lumsden of McAadoo. They were joined at Austin by Supt. H. M. Allison of Flomott schools.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Pied Pipers
BY MR. S. M.

"Pet-Pourri" in the Childress Index says it this way: "You can wear a knit—I can wear a knit—but the results just won't be the same." Our cousin at Lubbock describes herself in a knit, as looking like a cucumber. As for the least said, the bet is won. We'd love a knit dress and to own one, when we were younger and trimmer.

Mrs. Arthur Cooper, the former Ruth Simpson, mother of seven youngsters (including a pair of twins) declares they are all boys except five. Endowed with literary ability, as well as cleverness, Ruth will someday write a best seller. We've said it before and we still expect it of her.

A charming letter from Mrs. D. M. Lewis of Pensacola, Florida (who came here recently looking for her missing son) says in part, "... you were all so very kind and helpful. I have no words that can express my appreciation. If all the people of the west are as good and friendly to strangers as the citizens of Matador were to me, I have little cause to worry about the welfare of my son, should he be in your part of the country."

We have heard a recording of our voice, and know that it sounds like little frogs croaking, or a crow cawing. But the Alma Holmes doesn't know all this, and so what do we re-use but a nice invitation from her to appear on her "Listen Ladies" program over KFLD.

Floydada. She sets Friday, Nov. 2, 9:30 a. m. as the date and time.

Mrs. Holmes says we may have 10 minutes to talk. Now we've never talked that long at a stretch, unless we were lambasting Mr. M. about something, so it might be we would need him in the audience, to keep us going the allotted time.

Mrs. Holmes also left it to us to select our own subject.

The thing we know most about of course, is ourself. However, our friend Adolph says a bore is one who talks about himself when you want to talk about yourself, so maybe we'd just better not talk at all.

The Meadors were honored during the week-end with a nice long visit with the president of the State Bar Association, Cecil Burney, and his charming wife, Kara Hunsucker Burney, who once did reporting for the Tribune.

The pleasant evening was restful and full of little memories which crept in and out. Memories of other pleasant evenings when the house was alive with the voices and laughter of Kara, her sister Marie, and our younger brother and sister, Burrell and Mary Ola. Now they are all married with homes and children of their own. How tempus does fugit!

Next morning we had the privilege of a short visit with the Burney's son and heir, young "Judge", coming two years old in January. His golden curls are still un-cut, although his mother keeps "intending to".

and he has big blue eyes that remind one of his Grandmother Charlotte.

We didn't envy the judges in the Baby Show, their job of picking the winners. The little dolls and guys were all so cute and lovable, we'd have just given them all first place.

ARRIVAL ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. John Warren are announcing the arrival of a daughter, Janet Gayle, weight 8 pounds, who was born Thursday Oct. 11 at Richards Memorial Hospital, Paducah. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Karl Keener of Paducah, and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Colquet Warren of Matador. The Warrens visited their new granddaughter Sunday.

FARMER LOANS TO BE INCREASED BY NEW PUBLIC LAW

Farmers who borrow from the Farmers Home Administration will be better able to make adjustments in farming operations, increase production and work out balanced farm and home management plans under the newly enacted Public Law 123, S. W. Weatherall, County Supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration, announced today.

The law, amending the Farmers Home Administration Act of 1946, enables the agency to make loans for farm operating expenses up to $7,000 for an initial loan and places a ceiling of $10,000 on the indebtedness outstanding at any one time. The maximum repayment period is seven years. Previously the initial loan was limited to $3,500, the maximum indebtedness to $5,000 and the maximum repayment period to five years.

"In amending the loan terms, Congress recognized that the costs of farm operating expenses have increased sharply in recent years", L. J. Cappelman, State Director of the Farmers Home Administration, explained. "A farmer who required a $3,500 loan in 1946 for annual operating expenses and the purchase of machinery and livestock would have required a loan of $5,900 for the same purpose in 1951.

The main objective of the Farmers Home Administration is to help family farm operators make the most efficient use of their land and family labor supply.

"The new loan terms will be of great help in achieving this goal. In the past we have had to turn down many young veterans and other farmers who came to us for assistance simply because we could not provide them with adequate financing under our previous loan limitations to enable them to work out a balanced farming system."

A sound farm and home management plan is drawn up with each family who receives a loan and no loan is made unless the plan shows that the family will receive enough income to pay operating and living expenses and retire their debts, Cappel-man pointed out. Loans are made only to farmers who are unable to obtain necessary financing from other sources. Committees of three local farmers approve each applicant. Veterans receive preference.

Personality Sketch

(By Martha Jones)
Our personality sketch of this week is one of our faculty. We think he is a swell teacher and has been a great influence in our high school. He is Superintendent Bert Ezzell.

Mr. Ezzell was born in Eastland county in 1908 and remained there until he graduated from high school at Cisco in 1928. After working three years he entered Abilene Christian College at Abilene, Texas. He graduated from A.C.C. with his B.S. degree in 1935 and in 1939, he was awarded his Master's degree. Mr. Ezzell is now working on his Doctor degree.

Mr. Ezzell started teaching at Tipton, Oklahoma. He taught five subjects and coached five sports for only $90 a month. Of for the life of a beginning teacher. He has been teaching fifteen years here in Matador and three of those years were spent in the Army. He spent forty-two months in the Army and twenty-five months in Europe. This must have been an exciting part of his life.

Mr. Ezzell has two sons, Johnny Bert, 8, and Charles, 4. Mr. Ezzell is a member of the Masonic Lodge, Lions Club and various teachers organizations.

Mavericks Bow To Floydada Breezers

(By Lois Bleivins)
The Floydada Breezers romped over the Matador Mavericks, Tuesday night, October 8 by a score of 14-6. The Mavericks' lone score was made early in the first quarter when Stanley Neighbors carried the ball seven yards to pay dirt.

The Breezers first tally came in the third quarter on a pass, then they plunged through the line for the extra point. Their last score came late in the final period after a sustained drive of forty-five yards. The ball was carried over again for the extra point.

School Merit System Encourages Students

(By James Sturdivant)
The merit system is based upon the individual's citizenship or how many of the programs offered he participates in. Someone who participates in everything is a better citizen than the one who doesn't participate in anything. Therefore, to get his required merits, he has to participate in something and once in the habit, he will probably do so the rest of his life.

Each person is required to have 60 merits by the time he finishes school or fifteen merits per year. Good students make from twenty-five to thirty merits a year while poor students make only ten to twelve.

The school keeps a record of each student's achievement tests, attendance record, physical check-ups, books read, and an account of merits and demerits. This record is kept by the school as long as there is a school.

Before a man is drafted into the Army, they send an F.B.I. investigator who checks his personal record. They first check on the person's conduct, attendance record, his grades and his recommendation by the school officials.

Anyone applying for almost any type of work is not accepted until a representative has checked all of these records.

Merits are awarded for all sports, conduct, grades A and B, attendance, staff member on paper or annual, being elected class officer, class plays, participating in the Interscholastic League, and assisting teachers.

Matadors Receive Football Jerseys

The Matador High school football team received twenty-three new jerseys Thursday, October 11. Everyone is extremely pleased with them and I shouldn't wonder! They are bright scarlet with white numerals and are they sharp! Don't take our word for it, come out to see the Matador Matadors at their next game.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

How do you think the town's people are reacting to our football season?

THEN AND NOW

1901—Spindletop, the mightiest oil well the world had ever seen, roared into being—giving Americans a new vision of the nation's supply of oil.

1951—The continuous search for oil by thousands of U.S. oil companies has boosted known underground supplies to almost 30 billion barrels—even though Americans are now using up 290 million gallons of oil a day.

1925—With 19 million motor vehicles in use, American motorists crowded the highways as never before. Gasoline prices averaged about 20 cents a gallon.

1951—Driving 50 million motor vehicles, Americans now consume 40 billion gallons of gasoline annually. And 2 gallons of the high quality gasoline they buy today do the work 3 did in 1925—although gasoline costs about the same—only taxes are higher.

Tuesday night. Members present at the meeting were Mesdames Mutt Berryman, Eunan Lyles, Floyd Davis, Ralph Horton, Billy Dan Thomas, and David Campbell, and one visitor, Mrs. Clyde Ray.

GARDEN CLUB AND VISITORS HEAR STORY OF FAMILY CRISES AS TOLD BY MRS. LUCKETT

The age-old problem of the responsibilities of children toward their parents was the theme of the story which Matador Garden Club members and visitors heard Monday afternoon as told by Mrs. Leonora Luckett.

The meeting was held in the District court room at the courthouse.

Reviewing the book, "Jubel's Children" by Lenard Kaufman, Mrs. Luckett, in her original and inimitable way, extracted the author's theme and presented it in a manner both intriguing and impressive. The story concerns a widower whose four grown children—two sons and two daughters—face the prospect of caring for their father for the rest of his life. Each dreads the assumption of this new burden and tries to evade it by passing it on to the other. Their anxieties, however, could not take into account the independence or resourcefulness of their father. In this situation conflicts arise and through them a family drama of explosive possibilities.

Mrs. U. L. Willie presented Mrs. Luckett to the group, and later presided at a business meeting of the club in the absence of the president, Mrs. Freeman Thacker.

Local members and visitors present included Mesdames W. W. Clements, Harry Willett, R. E. Donovan, Joe Bloodworth, G. E. Hamilton, Fred Simpson, D. E. Pitts, sr., J. L. Woodruff, C. P. Waybourn, Glenn Woodruff, T. E. Long, H. S. Watson, Harry Carter, Clifford Potts, Bill McCaghren, Loyd Latimer, Ben Meador, A. A. Tipton, Ralph Stapleton, Bob Martin, Ben Keltz, Misses Clotele Willie and Mary Keith, and Mesdames L. A. Carlisle and Varner McWilliams of Whiteflat; Mesdames Ralph Long, Iva Meason and Harold Jones, Roaring Springs.

Remember, you need the church and the church needs you. Enjoy your religious freedom while you have opportunity," Rev. Harvey said in making the announcement.
