

Cotton Farmers Facing Acute Labor Shortage

Matador Tribune

Valuable Crop Is Waiting Harvest

One of Motley county's most valuable crops is in peril because of inadequate number of cotton pickers (pullers). Hundreds of fields are white with high-costing and valuable cotton and harvest hands are becoming almost impossible to obtain. County Agent Rufus Emmons said yesterday that the Latin American labor is going to the irrigated area of the Plains where crops are better despite the fact that lower prices are being paid. He said prevailing prices on the Plains are $1.50 and $1.75 per 100 pounds, delivered to the gin, while average price in this county is $2.25.

"The prospect for any improvement in the labor situation is not very bright," Mr. Emmons declared. He said at least 40 crews are needed now by farmers in the county.

Schools at Roaring Springs and Flomot have suspended in an effort to aid the critical cotton-picker situation, while the Northfield school is operating on a part-time basis and dismissing at 2 p. m. daily.

Thousand Bale Week
Last week more than 1,000 bales of cotton were harvested in Motley county, bringing the season total up to 2,612 bales Tuesday noon. By comparison only 258 bales had been ginned on the same date last year and of the bumper 35,000-bale 1949 crop, only 1,449 bales had been ginned on the same date.

Last week Matador ginned 734 bales, Roaring Springs 66 and Flomot 610, according to Mr. Emmons' survey. The labor situation is critical in a wide area of the cotton-raising country. Mr. Emmons declared. Flomot farmers have been able to secure about 100 Negro cotton pickers from East Texas.

Some growers believe the improved mechanical cotton pullers may relieve the situation later in the season but until frost destroys the foliage the machines are not entirely satisfactory in operation.
Business in Motley county communities is beginning to reflect the impulse of the harvest and merchants in most lines report a great increase in volume over the past week-end.

ELBERT REEVES IS SPEAKER FOR P-T.A.

Speaking on the subject, "Who Bends the Twig", Elbert Reeves Tuesday night addressed approximately fifty mothers and fathers, teachers and other patron members of Matador parent-teacher Association, in a meeting held in the high school auditorium.
Mr. Reeves stressed the P.T.A. theme for the year, "Safe-guarding our freedom through responsible citizenship", emphasizing the part that parents and teachers should play in the program.

A boys chorus, directed by Mrs. L. D. Wilkerson, entertained with several folk songs and cowboy numbers, and refreshments were served in the home economics room at the conclusion of the meeting.

Another night meeting, to make it possible for fathers to attend, is scheduled for November 13, when District Judge Alton Chapman of Floydada will speak at a Thanksgiving dinner-meeting of the P.T.A. Mrs. U. L. Willie will be leader of the program. All parents, as well as other members of the organization, are urged to attend.

TEACHER INJURED IN CAR ACCIDENT

Mrs. Margarette Worsham, teacher in the Northfield school is in a serious condition in a Jacksboro hospital, following a highway accident sometime Sunday, according to meager reports which the Tribune has been able to obtain.

Mrs. Worsham was returning to Northfield from a visit to her home in Orange, Texas, reports declare, when the accident occurred near Jacksboro. She suffered head, chest and hip injuries.

While details of the accident are lacking, one report declared the car which she was driving turned over in a borrow ditch or embankment.

MGC BOOK REVIEW OPEN TO PUBLIC

The public is invited to attend an open meeting of Matador Garden Club Monday at 3 p. m. in the club room at the court-house, to hear a book review by Mrs. Leonora Luckett which will comprise the program.

Subject of Mrs. Luckett's review was not announced, but those who have heard her in the past, will be glad of the privilege of again hearing one of her reviews.

FIREMEN TO HOLD POSTER DISPLAY

In connection with Fire Prevention Week, Matador Volunteer Fire Department will stage a display of fire prevention posters prepared by Matador school children. Fire Chief Freddie Welling said yesterday the fire department will give a prize of $10 for the best prepared poster.

The display will be held Saturday afternoon in the Fleming-Post American Legion hall. Admission is free.

Chief Welling said response to the Fire Prevention Week sale of seals is encouraging but under the amount of revenue received last year. Funds from the plan will be used by the department to augment the fire-fighting equipment.

Many friends and patrons of the Matador Volunteer Fire Department have not sent in contributions to the drive as yet but will respond later, Chief Welling declared.

CLYDE LANCASTER INJURED AT GIN

Clyde Lancaster of Lovington, N. M., formerly of Matador, lost practically his entire right hand when it became caught in a gin saw where he is employed, about 11 a. m. Saturday. All fingers on his hand were cut off with the exception of his index finger.

He was conveyed to the Lea County Community Hospital at Hobbs, N. M., where he is reported resting well, and recovering satisfactorily.

His parents and sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lancaster and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brogdon drove to Hobbs Saturday after receiving word of the accident. They returned home Sunday night, after Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McWilliams of Dallas, parents of Mrs. Clyde Lancaster, arrived to be with their daughter and son-in-law.

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR
Flowing through the clouds the proud ship seemed motionless except for the steady tremor of its great motors. Purple and grey haze hung on mountain peaks and spread into distant valleys. Whitecaps on the Pacific shoreline vanished in blue mist moving north from Mexico. Fragrance of the rich coffee swept through the sky car as the two trim and exceedingly efficient hostesses began the serving of breakfast. Muffins, Canadian bacon, scrambled eggs and chilled cantaloupe. Fifteen thousand feet below was a wilderness of mountain peaks and the white burning desert. Somewhere there beneath the dust of the desert were the wagon tracks made by pioneers; thirsty, weary pilgrims in a new land battle to their advance. A child's grave in the hot sands, pre-dried water holes; vultures watching from high cliffs—courage and sacrifice had purchased the seeds of a golden heritage. An ice cube floated evenly in the water glass. The hostess poured more coffee from a silver thermos container.

V-F-W Aux Drive For Polio Aid

An intensive drive for funds to aid the Gonzales (Texas) Warm Springs Foundation, has been started by the Motley County Veterans of Foreign Wars Ladies Auxiliary, it was announced this week by Mrs. Melvin Meason, president.
Mrs. Meason said boxes have been located in Matador business places to receive contributions and that the principal drive will be conducted Saturday.

The Warm Springs Foundation is located on a 40-acre tract adjoining Gonzales-Palmetto State Park. The modern buildings (housing some 115 patients) surround an artesian spring flowing 200,000 gallons of warm water daily. The hospital is approved by the American College of Surgeons and registered by the American Medical Association.

Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation for Crippled Children was organized in 1937 by a group of far-sighted citizens of Gonzales.

The Foundation works in close cooperation with the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, of which it is neither a part nor a competitor. Within the limits of its capacity, the Foundation is open to any Texas child who can benefit from the treatment program, as determined by medical examination at the Foundation. Because of educational limitations, colored children of only pre-school age can be admitted.

SHIP OF THE DESERT (named "Moses") which Mrs. U. L. Willie is riding in the above photograph is far removed from the West Texas cow pony with which she is more familiar. The picture was made in ancient Egypt during her recent trip to the Middle East with a group of Texas Federated Club women. In the background are two of the oldest known works of mankind, the Sphinx and the second pyramid of Gizeh. More than five thousand years elapsed between the time the Sphinx was carved from solid rock, and Mrs. Willie's visit. Historians say the mythological monster, which is about 65 feet high, was made approximately 3,500 years B. C. The pagan image was an object of adoration and worship. It is approximately 1,800 feet from the Great Pyramid.

Pied 'Pinions' BY MRS. M.

Our nomination for the worst pun heard recently goes to Mr. M. for his statement after we had admired a mink stole in an exclusive shop on Hollywood Boulevard. "It would have to be stole, if you had it", he observed.

At one point in our visit to Los Angeles, our good friend Adolph Faylauer, who was chauffeuring us around in his automobile, parked his car before a Baptist Church. We thought at first there must be some mistake, but there it was before us, "Melrose Baptist Church". The name, in glittering letters, was across the front of a theatre building, and closer observation revealed, on the inside billboards, billings of the pastor, choir director, organist, and other church officials. We wondered, idly, for what purpose they might use the ticket window.

The matter of plane travel can be both humorous and serious. We liked the true account of a friend, who was traveling from Dallas to Wichita Falls. When they reached Wichita Falls, instead of landing, the pilot headed back to Dallas, and the hostess explained to the curious passengers that the landing lights had failed to flash on, and they were returning to Dallas, where ambulance service was better, in case they crashed! Practically every passenger went in the air terminal and bought an insurance policy when they landed (safely) at Dallas, our friend said.

Then there is the account (also true) of the passenger who was enroute to Lubbock from Wichita Falls. Bad weather prevented landing at Lubbock, so the pilot took the plane on to Roswell, N. M. Returning to Lubbock, the weather was still too bad to land so he continued on to Wichita Falls. The next try was also unsuccessful, and the passenger found himself at the Hobbs, N. M. airport. Finally, after three days he reached Lubbock, from Wichita Falls, by bus.

On the west coast, stores are displaying "squam" dresses and skirts, of unpressed appearance. While still wet, the garment is

Fried Shrimp Recipe Is S-T Award Winner

A recipe for "Spanish Fried Shrimp", submitted by Mrs. U. L. Willie, which appeared in Sunday's Farm and Ranch Magazine section of the Fort Worth Star Telegram, received second prize of $3.00 in the magazine's monthly recipe contest.

Mrs. Willie acquired the recipe when she was a dinner guest at the American embassy, just opened this summer in Madrid, Spain, while on a three months tour of Europe and the Middle East.

The recipe calls for 1 1/2 pounds shrimp, 1 teaspoonful yeast, 1 cup lukewarm water, 1/2 cup cooking oil; and 1/2 cup flour. Make batter of dissolved yeast in lukewarm water. Add flour and allow to rise 30 to 40 minutes. First dip shrimp in flour, then in yeast batter and fry in deep hot fat. Serve hot.

IN APPRECIATION

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for the kind deeds and greatly appreciated gifts tendered in our time of misfortune. May God bless each of you.

Here's why Fordomatic puts them all in the past!

For the past year, automotive writers, engineers and owners have been raving about a new kind of automatic driving... and here's why you get it only in Ford Cars:

All the power you need when you need it!

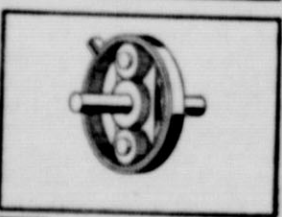

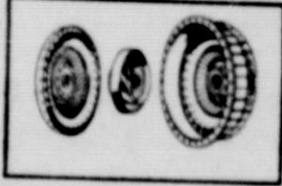

Some automatics have this

The automatic drive some cars offer you is a torque converter which multiplies torque without the use of gears. Its advantage is a smooth flow of power. Its disadvantage is a smaller range of torque multiplication which requires more power from the engine and an uneconomical axle ratio which increases costs.

Some automatics have this

Other cars offer an automatic drive that uses automatic gears (as illustrated in simplified form at right) instead of a torque converter. The advantage here is more "pin" more control and greater economy. The disadvantage is that this system is not as smooth, nor as jerk-free as a torque converter.

It gives you instant "GO"! It practically drives itself!

But Fordomatic has both

Yes, Fordomatic has a torque converter plus automatic gears. It brings you only the advantages of both drives. Unlike cars with only a torque converter (which start and cruise all in one drive gear), Fordomatic starts fast and smooth in Intermediate Gear then shifts itself into Drive Gear.

Many Cars May Fail State Test

AUSTIN, Oct. 3—Almost half of the cars now operating in Texas may fail the new state-required inspection, an expert believes.

George Busby, chief of the inspection division of the Texas Department of Public Safety, says he hopes 50 percent may be a bit high but that he fully expects 40 percent to fail.

"A lot of the defects the inspection will disclose will be minor. Some, of course, will be major," he said.

But minor defects will have to be corrected just as major ones before a certificate will be issued.

The certificate must be presented to the county tax collector next year as a requisite to securing new license plates, just as a car title and the cash have been requisites in the past.

Certificates At Printers
The new requirement was voted by the last Legislature.

Certificates are now at the printers. As soon as they are ready, the Department of Public Safety will designate official inspection stations and distribute the certificates—and rejection slips.

The state has ordered 4 million of the certificates and two million rejection slips.

The inspection, which costs the car owner $1, will cover brakes, lights, horn, windshield wipers and steering gear.

SPEAKS AT SILVERTON

Mrs. U. L. Willie drove to Silvertown Wednesday of last week, where she spoke at the First Methodist Church to a large audience of club women from over the surrounding area. She was complimented with a lovely tea while there.

Lucky Car

Renowned as a four-wheel grid talsman is this 1951 model Chevrolet which was brought to the Michigan campus 14 years ago when the football team's slumping fortunes began to recover. The vehicle has been passed from one coach to another and is currently owned by Bill Orwig, shown at the right of Head Coach Bennie Gosterbaan. Superstitious coaches kick the car's tires, pat its fenders or sound the horn before big games.

REUNION HELD SUNDAY IN METHODIST CHURCH

Several Pipkin and Poteet families, together with other relatives, attended services at First Methodist Church Sunday, to hear Rev. Nathan Pipkin, of Abilene, and remained for a covered-dish lunch and "get-together" in the church basement.

Our Bank Says "Help Yourself"

People around here need lots of small change these days — what with candy, gum, cigarette and soft drink machines... pay phones... and those penny sales taxes.

Used to put a strain on our bank. Changing money took up a lot of time. Then the Chief Teller Happy Wilson, read about another bank using a "help yourself" change system. The directors decided to see if it would work here.

They set out some big shallow bowls full of nickels, dimes and pennies with a sign saying "MAKE YOUR OWN CHANGE." Works fine.

too. At the end of the day the totals are never more than a couple of cents under — or over — the right amount.

From where I sit, folks everywhere are pretty much alike, although they may seem different. Farmers and city folks, Republicans and Democrats, those who enjoy a glass of beer occasionally and those who prefer something else — we all usually try to live up to the trust others have in us.

STEVEN'S BROTHERS CIRCUS COMING TO MATADOR, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12

The announcement of the coming to Matador of Stevens Brothers Circus, America's greatest 3 ring wild animal show on Friday, October 12, will be greeted with delight by thousands of children from 5 to 75 when it arrives at the circus grounds just north of Spears Gin.

This show, the largest ever designed for automotive transportation, believes that cities off the main lines of the railroads are also interested in a circus of outstanding size and performance quality.

And to quote Mr. Bob Bunch, general press representative this year, the show is Bigger-Better-Grander than ever before. Foremost, mightiest Supreme Brimming over with innovations and wondrous surprises and a myriad of unprecedented amazing features from all strange lands.

A continuous ever varying, always changing, kaleidoscopic multiplicity of all star acts by all-stellar artists, embracing a flood of foreign talent never before seen in America. Astounding acts centralized to amaze and thrill. Great 5-continent menagerie — Children's trained animal circus especially imported—America's finest circus—All new this season.

More than 600 men and women, horses, elephants, camels, sacred bulls, zebras, lions, bears, pumas, tigers, monkeys, and many other beasts of the forest and jungles, a never to be forgotten sight, costliest in circus history but within reach of all as prices have been maintained at pre-war prices. Many other acts too numerous to list, shows at 2 p. m. and 8 p. m. Doors open one hour earlier to give everyone a chance to view all the animals.

Self-Employed Are Reminded New Tax Law Is Mandatory

Self-employed persons were reminded today by John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock office of the Social Security Administration that coverage under the new law is mandatory and not voluntary.

"We believe," he said, "that the belief that coverage is elective has gained currency here. While it is true that certain professionals are excluded from coverage, the exclusion is by law and not by choice."

Self-employed men and women who are not excluded by law, will have to report their 1951 "net earnings" for social security purposes on their income tax returns next March. The social security tax will be paid at the same time.

In the meantime, those businessmen and women who are now covered for the first time under social security should get social security numbers if they have never done so.

Anyone whose net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more in a taxable year is "covered" under the new law, unless the earnings are derived from the operation of a farm or the practice of an excluded profession. Among those excluded, are doctors, dentists, veterinarians, full-time practicing public accountants, professional engineers.

Booklets listing all of the excluded professions can be obtained without cost from the local social security office.

FHA Girls Attend South Plains Fair

The F. H. A. girls Thursday of last week, attended the South Plains Fair at Lubbock, making the trip in cars driven by Mrs. Arthur Fair, sponsor, Mrs. A. C. Trawweek, Jr., and Jack Norman. Arriving at the fair grounds about 10:45, the girls were shown through all the exhibits of flowers, cakes, utilities, livestock and crafts.

One of the most interesting exhibits, the girls reported, was the miniature replica of Hollywood. It had all the main streets, the famous corner of Hollywood and Vine, the Brown Derby, and the Rose Bowl.

At three o'clock in the afternoon the girls watched a performance of trapeze acts by a trio of Eldonas, as well as other acrobatic stunts. They also saw the Florida swimming champion and high diver, who gave an excellent performance.

The girls left Lubbock at 8 o'clock and arrived home, tired but happy, at approximately 8 o'clock.

A GAME GUY'S PRAYER

Dear God: Help me to be a sport in this little game of life. I don't ask for any place in the lineup; play me where you need me. I only ask for the stuff to give you a hundred per cent of what I've got. If all the hard drives come my way I thank You for the compliment. Help me to remember that You won't let anything come that You and I together can't handle. And help me to take the bad breaks as part of the game. Help make me thankful for them.

"And, God, help me always to play on the square, no matter what the other players do. Help me to come clean. Help me to see that often the best part of the game is helping other guys. Help me to be a "regular fellow" with the other players.

"Finally, God, if fate seems to upbraid me with both hands and I'm laid up on the shelf in sickness or old age, help me to take that as part of the game also. Help me not to whimper or squeal that the game was a frameup or that I had a raw deal. When in the dusk I get the final bell, I ask for no lying, complimentary stones. I'd only like to know that You feel I've been a good guy."

What's the fastest-growing line of trucks in America?

LOOK around you—in cities, on farms, at terminals and loading docks—wherever goods are moved on wheels.

the power plants, the broad-shouldered chassis—the way a GMC handles.

More and more, the pay load's packed on a GMC.

Ask about the tons they've hauled, the miles they've logged—the nip-and-tuck schedules they've licked time and again.

You see those letters on medium and heavy Diesels, the most economical workers in their field. For GMC means first in Diesel power.

Ask these cost-wary haulers why they've made GMC the fastest-growing fleet in the land.

You see gasoline-powered GMC's front-running the highways of America—pace-setting delivery of the necessities of peace and war.

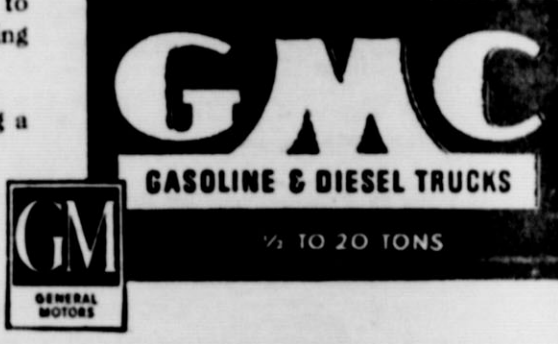

They'll tell you it's because GMC is the finest motor truck made.

You see nimble bantamweights of the family—the highest-powered ½- to 2-tonners made—outpulling, outhauling every other truck in their class.

If you'll come in, we'll show you why we think they're right.

Ever wonder why GMC is gaining a greater percentage of the industry than any other truck-maker?

Ask the truck drivers themselves. See the confident way they talk of

Some-where a Road is Call-ing

If the purr of a great-powered engine is music to your ears—

If command of two tons and more of nimble-footed and beautifully balanced automobile can step up your pulse beat—

You are just the man for whom a ROADMASTER was engineered.

Whatever it takes to give you a sense of complete and carefree freedom behind its wheel, you'll find in this proud master of the highways.

Added to the breadth and length that any fine car can give you are four soft-action coil springs to cushion the wheels, and a torque-tube to banish rear-wheel wander.

Added to its high-compression, valve-in-head engine are eight exclusive Fireball combustion chambers that get extra power from each whirling charge of fuel.

Added to the convenience of clutch-free driving is the torque-converter principle of Dynaflo Drive—that feeds a steady flow of power without lag or falter ever.

Added to the light responsiveness of its steering wheel is a Buick-engineered "front-end geometry" that gives this phenomenal performer a sense of direction straight and true.

But no roll call of engineering accomplishments can tell you the feel of a ROADMASTER out on the road.

That's something that only firsthand acquaintance can bring. Not just a trip around the block—but enough time and enough miles to let you discover what a joyous companion this great car can be.

That's something that is easily arranged. If you're truly interested, a phone call will bring a ROADMASTER to your door.
