PRICE FIVE CENTS

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

White star-lanterns hanging from their nails of space, left reflections on the pool's shadowy floor. A twig fell from the old tree, sending tiny ripples outward. The dim star reflected on the small waves far out. Lamps of little ships far out. Silence was a mighty presence. A ragged piece of wood drifted across the low moon and a coyote howled a few notes from some canyon of the night. Time touched the eyelids of dawn, weaker stars perished in the tide of light. Presently the dawn had woven ropes of crimson light through the clouds; the sound of a cow-bell was like music from small chimneys announcing the arrival of a new day.

There is an ironic flavor in the story of destiny which measures the last hours of old horses being rushed to pet-food slaughterhouses. The thundering truck that lurches like a speeding ship on the black river of asphalt, measures its strength in horse-power.

If the world possessed no mirrors, some of us less fortunate in appearance would probably still be aware of our unattractiveness, but it is possible we would be protected from knowledge of the extent of our homeliness.

To be loved provides a measure of satisfaction, but to be loved feeds an eternal hunger of the soul.

A man may work a lifetime to amass enough possessions that will warrant his buying the kind of food he enjoys, only to discover his teeth and digestion have become tired of waiting.

The formula for success has a large portion of luck concealed in the mixture of ingredients.

Surviving the scars of more than a score of years since he had witnessed the wilting petals of his ideals, my friend has reached an unhappy concept. He believes that the obligation of gratitude for a favor, in most cases, is a disease which eats at the heart of friendship and frequently changes it to an attitude of base qualities.

A touch of the hand may transport the soul of a carress; words brought to the altar of love are like prisoners chained to the galley oar for love is a democratic sovereign elected by the free will of his subjects. The man is not less consistent if words cloak the world, but shines with a golden shuttle brighter garments for the new day.

When the shell of a soul waxes at last to the shore of eternity, memory will have it for a guest more often if frequent laughter kept it bright.

His duties will be required on the evening of April 19, a part of regular Ladies' night program.

Announcement of the program and date was made this week by Bow Lim E. P. Reeves.

Principal speaker on the Ladies' night program will be Lion Leon M. Hill of Amarillo.

The banquet and program will be held in the Methodist church basement.

Rainfall Is Near 1 Inch

Beneficial rainfall following high winds here Sunday afternoon and evening, registered almost an inch (.90) on the U. S. rain gauge maintained by Water Superintendent Herman Stanfield at the city wells.

Other sections of the county reported more rainfall than registered here. Some parts of the Northfield community in the northeast area of the county reported 1 1/2 inches (unofficial).

High winds damaged property on the South Plains Sunday afternoon, altho the damage was slight according to the Lubbock Avalanche.

The rain has resulted in an improved outlook for farmers and stock-raisers. Wheat has been greatly improved by the rain and as result of the past three days of warm sunshine, is growing rapidly. Ranchers declare grass is also showing good growth.

NEED IS STRESSED FOR REGISTRATION OF SCHOLASTICS

Grave importance rests on the citizenship of Motley county to cooperate in securing 100% registration of scholastics in the school census now in progress, according to County Judge and Ex-Officio County Superintendent C. W. Giesecke.

"State funds which each scholastic brings to the county, are badly needed," Judge Giesecke, declared, "and it is the responsibility of every citizen to aid in any way possible to help achieve 100% registration. School leaders in every district solicit the support of all parents, school patrons, civic clubs and friends of education to join in the drive. More is at stake than the present school financing problems. The entire future education pattern for the county may be affected unless we secure the registration of every qualified scholastic. We are making a particular appeal for scholastic registration of children who will reach their 6th birthday on or before September 1."

Scholastics may be registered through teachers, school census registrars or at the county judge's office.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bird and daughter, Barbara, left Saturday for Dallas where he is receiving medical treatment. They are also visiting at Greenville with relatives.

Burial Fund Collector Is Back

'Smokey' is Captured, Cools Heels in 'Pokey'

RESTLESS FEET of Alexander "Smokey" Ward, Matador Negro must pace a narrow orbit; the county jail curbs his vagabond tendencies. "Smokey" left Matador suddenly and without any "bon voyage" ceremony about September 17th, last year. He had just finished collecting an amount estimated at between $100 and $200 from the business section of Matador, which he declared would be used to bury a Negro, Roscoe Hawkins, who died of a heart attack while at work, September 13.

Hawkins relatives were not in need and did not want any collection made to bury the deceased. "Smokey" says he turned some of the money to friends.

NEW YORK BOUND—W. C. (Bill) Lebow, 43-year-old Clovis, N. M. Man, who left Benjamin yesterday morning, beginning the second week of his journey by wheelchair from Clovis to New York City. Lebow, nephew of former Motley county H. T. Lebow family, is a cousin of E. M. and Bill (F. W.) Lebow, former Matador residents. He is a polio victim, paralyzed from his waist down since he was eight years old. He provides his own power with his well-developed arms and hands. Lebow, which already worn out the original hard tires on his wheelchair, which were replaced with pneumatic bicycle tires. He expects to reach Fort Worth this week. F. W. Lebow has been traveling ahead to make arrangements for his cripple cousin, and was a Matador visitor Friday, and again Tuesday.

When He Arrives In New York

Man's Wheelchair To Be Sold At Auction

It's a long journey to New York. W. C. (Bill) Lebow, 43, of Clovis is making the trip by wheelchair. A polio victim since he was eight, Lebow left the wind-swept plains of New Mexico in his chair, March 4. He has no estimate of the length of time it will require to reach New York. His hands and arms are strong and he is not afraid. Motorists are friendly and frequently offer him rides, meals, money and other tokens of their sympathy. He usually travels from ten to twelve miles daily.

A hotel clerk by occupation, the Clovis man has contemplated the trip for some time. Now he is on his way.

Equipment includes a mileage meter and a quart thermos bottle attached to the side of the wheelchair. On the back of the chair is a pocket which holds matches, cigarettes and other incidentals. The outside of the pocket flap bears the words, "From Clovis, New Mexico to New York City."

The polio victim is a nephew of the H. T. Lebow family, former Motley county residents. He is a cousin of E. M. and Bill (F. W.) Lebow, who formerly lived here.

To Auction Chair
W. C. (Bill) Lebow has no money. He possesses the wheelchair and an old and battered suitcase. He is going to sell the chair to the highest bidder. Only 10% of the highest bid is to be sent to the Clovis National Bank, care W. C. (Bill) Lebow Polio Fund. The 10% deposit on the bid will be used as a contribution to the Crippled Children's Fund.

The highest bidder will be notified every two weeks. (Thus, if a bidder offers $50, he will send $5 to the Clovis National Bank.) The highest bidder will send the remaining amount when he is notified. (Cashier of the Clovis National Bank is former Matador resident Howard Martin, who is a brother of Mrs. Buford Hobbs.)

Field Party Is Held For 'Blue Panic'

History students in the future may be required to study Saturday, March 19, 1949 as the beginning of an era. It may go down in the record books as the day when "Blue Panic" grass first took root in Motley county and restored, blowing, depleted land to greater production than ever before known.

The experiment was made on the Turner Brothers farm in the Darden Canyon community when a group of interested men soddled approximately four acres of land with the magic grass. Turner Brothers have approximately 60 acres of Blue Panic, but last year high winds blew away the seeds before they could take root. Cuttings (roots) of the producing area, were planted in rows with "droppers" riding lister-planters from which the seed boxes had been removed.

The all-day "field party" included a specially-prepared meal for visitors. One visitor declared the meal was so good that little work was accomplished after lunch because everyone had eaten too much.

Anyway, the Blue Panic, which may do for West Texas what the "shmo" has done for Dog Patch, is soddled. John Turner is not convinced it will do all that is claimed for it, nor is he convinced it is hardy enough to stand West Texas' weather, but he is eager to give it every chance possible.

Those attending the field party included, from Childress Soil Conservation Service office: George Taylor, district conservationist; Chester Hufstader, Irwin Sealander and Harold Cawthorn. From Paducah: Jimmy Wilcox. From Motley county SCS office: Loyd Lall and Lee Burns. From Motley county A.C.A. office: Richard H. Alexander, administrative officer; Tommy Moore, field officer and D. P. Keith. Others attending were Henry Pipkin, George Edwards, John Turner, George Turner, John Hunter and O. C. Campbell.

YOUNG PEOPLE TO BE RECOGNIZED IN REVIVAL SERVICES

Special emphasis is being placed on various church activities as the revival meeting progresses this week at the Baptist church, with tomorrow (Friday) night being designated as "Young People's Night", according to the pastor, Rev. Clifford Potts.

The Brotherhood and W. M. U. were both well represented in services Tuesday night when special recognition was given those two organizations. Wednesday night was specified as "All Church" night, and tonight will be "Sunday School" night.

Saturday night has been designated as "Family" night, when families are requested to attend and sit in a group.

The eight-day revival, which began Sunday, will come to a close next Sunday night, and much visitation has been done during the week by church workers, the pastor and visiting revival leaders.

Splendid messages in sermon and song are being brought by the evangelist, Rev. Vernon Shaw of San Angelo, and Clyde Hamilton of Pasadena, Texas. Hamilton is also directing a junior choir which has increased nightly, in interest and attendance.

THREE VETERANS CANDIDATES FOR ALDERMEN PLACES

Ballots have been printed and delivered bearing the names of three Matador World War II veterans, John Briscoe, Joe Campbell and Loyd Latimer as candidates for the three aldermen places to be filled in the city election to be held Tuesday, April 5th.

The three veterans are candidates without opponents and will be elected except in the possible case of sufficiently strong "write-in" candidate or candidates. Voters must elect three aldermen.

Following the election Matador city government will be in the hands of veterans with the exception of mayor Douglas Meador. Two present members of the board of aldermen, Albert Rattan and O. V. Johnson, elected last year, are veterans as is city secretary Howard Edmondson. Aldermen are elected for two-year terms (two one year and three the next).

Three retiring members of the board, Emmett Jenkins, Richard Berryman and H. H. Schweitzer, declined to be candidates for reelection.

City secretary Edmondson yesterday declared no absentee votes have been cast.

Custom in Matador is that newly elected city officials take office immediately after votes are counted. Thus, if the three veteran candidates are elected, they will, within a few minutes, be sworn into office and assume their responsibilities at the regular meeting of the board Tuesday evening, April 5th.

SINGING SCHOOL TO BE HELD AT FLOMOT

A singing school will be held in Flomot beginning Monday night, March 28, and will continue for two weeks every evening, except Saturdays and Sundays, it has been announced.

The school is for the benefit of the entire community, and every one is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Elmons visited over the week-end in Austin with their son, Jimmy.

Frank Pohl Named Chairman Of Group

"MATADOR MONEY" is free. First "Appreciation Day" program will be held near the old bandstand on the square Saturday afternoon, April 2, at 3 p. m.

A mass meeting of progressive businessmen met Monday morning at 9 a. m. in the Legion hall banquet room and organized a permanent setup for the program. Frank Pohl was named chairman in a unanimous vote and Henry Pipkin was the unanimous choice for secretary-treasurer. Douglas Meador and Kenneth Jeffers were named as directors.

Supplies for the program were issued by Mr. Pohl. Each merchant received only half of his assignment of coupons. The remaining half will be issued when requested and at the same time an order will be mailed for an additional supply.

The system is simple. Customers receive coupons without cost, according to the size of purchases, which are punched to indicate per centage of award the customer will receive if his name is selected on a Saturday afternoon. A 10% coupon will receive 10% of the award fund. A 50% coupon will receive 50% of the award fund. Starting amount for Saturday, April 2, is $144. Some customer may receive half of it. The program will continue each Saturday until an award is made. Customer must be present when his name is called (only exception is that husband or wife may answer for each other).

Merchants immediately started distribution of coupons as soon as the Monday morning meeting had ended. Each place of business has installed a container for receiving coupons. Name must be written on coupon by the customer (coupons may be taken home and named signed, brought back and left in any receiving container in town).

Mayor Douglas Meador will be master of ceremonies at the first program, April 2. Master of ceremonies will rotate from one merchant or business man to another.

Winners will receive script "Matador Money" which will be accepted as cash at any of the 36 local places of business participating. All places taking part in the program have displayed window banners designating them as members of the "Appreciation Day" program. Many advertisers are this week displaying the membership symbol in their Tribune advertising.

The annual meeting of the Farmers of Home Administration was held in Matador, March 17, in the basement of the Methodist church.

This was an all day meeting held for the purpose of reviewing progress reports for 1948 and discussing matters of mutual interest concerning farm and home management practices.

Brief talks were made by Geo. W. Taylor, Soil Conservation Service; Rufus H. Tanner, Motley county committeeman; Wallace W. White and Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman, both of the Dallas FHA office; and Marvin J. Migl of Ralston Purina Company, furnished educational slides.

Entertainment for the meeting was furnished by Tom Tilson, assisted by his wife. Lunch was served by the borrower's wives. Rev. Marvin Brotherton as-

Do you tell time by Baby?

At his feeding times, yes. He sounds off on the dot when a meal's due. But the rest of your day, you're wise to depend on electric clocks.

With a baby in the house, it's surprising how much you depend on electric service—to prepare and refrigerate his food, heat water for his bath and laundry, wash his clothes, and so on.

Of course, you depend on electricity to help take the work out of your housework, too. Always ready, it lends a willing hand with heavy chores, provides comfort, ease and even entertainment. And best of all, you can depend on its economy—for what other item in your budget does so much for so little?

Your friends and neighbors in this company—under sound business management—are continually using their technical skill and practical experience to keep electricity the biggest bargain in that budget of yours. You can depend on that, too!

MHS Volley Ball Teams Clashed Mon.

On Monday, March 21, two volley ball teams played a practice game at 11 o'clock and an odd thing occurred. The boys' team that plays volley ball was made up of Grady Phillips, Sappo Giesecke, Garland Raitan, Watson Townsend, Billy Ray Neighbors, and Dean Stotts with some substitutes. The girls' team is made of Joyce Reynolds, Margie Timmons, Pauline Blevins, Carlene Lynn, Shirley Pope and Norma Dale Edwards with substitutes. Tradition and also runners had claimed that the boys' team was much better than the girls' and the girls were just a little anxious about the score before the game was over. As the minutes ticked away and the score got nearer and nearer to 15, which is the game, it also got tighter. The girls looked as though they were beaten but they tied the score and they had to have a play-off. Again they tied and another play-off was played. Then a miracle happened—the girls got a one point lead and then with luck got another one to win the game 17-15.
 What long faces those boys did have.

SENIORS PUT LAST TOUCHES ON PLAY

It is now only 7 more days until the Senior play, "Cheerio, My Deario", is to be presented in the high school auditorium.
 Thursday, March 31, Cheerio, My Deario, will be presented at 8 o'clock. The admission prices are 50¢ for adults and 25¢ for children. Tickets will be available at the auditorium and also,
 from students.
 This play which will be given is one of the best plays ever selected for presentation in M.H.S.
 The following characters are portrayed. Cherry Holt (Sarah Springer) and Sue Grahame (Dorothy Trawick) are sole owners of the Mountain View Inn. Their negro maid, Desdemona (Geraldine Waybourn) and negro porter, Melchizedek (Truman Groves) are the only help in running their hotel and little help is that! Dick Grahame

(Billy Whitaker) and Tommy Tarrant (Don Wason) are the husband and boy friend of Sue and Cherry, respectively. The guests who arrive at Mountain View Inn and who cause all the love affairs, excitement, shooting and mix-up are made up of many different kinds of people.
 First in the act comes Miss Sophronia Spatchett (Patti Pipkin), the rich heiress, and her French maid, Fifi (Rosemary Bloodworth). Then there is the wealthy Mrs. Jefferson Johns (Frances Casey) and her daughter, Gwenneth (Ann Harp). Their taxi driver is played by Bill Smallwood. The man who starts all the hotel trade in the first place is Lord Cuthbert Twillingham (Norman Seigler) and his valet, Snodsbury (Lewis Blevins) who also come to the hotel. The mix-up that follows when there is 3 different Lords in the hotel is enough to make Thursday night one you will remember for a long time as a very enjoyable evening.

Pied 'Pinions
BY MR. S. M.

Ken Murray's Blackouts of 1949 (per Hollywood) couldn't hold a candle to the (begging your pardon) Meador-morphosis which took place at our joint the other night when Mr. M. ordered lights out while he tried out his new picture developing equipment.

Although we admit that our figure doesn't quite come up to the standards of Mr. Murray's chorines we did some subdued posing to provide the necessary exposed films for development, such as sitting at the breakfast table, reading a newspaper and drinking a cup of coffee, more to furnish a homey atmosphere. The kitchen cabinet of course was in shambles, what with Mr.

M. mixing his chemicals and fluids, at the same time we were trying to mix a salad, and it is natural to assume that portions of each got mixed with the other.

After wasting a dozen or so pieces of film, not to mention flash bulbs, the frustrated photographer was on the verge of giving up when he discovered that some gadget on his camera was causing all the negatives to come out blanks, and we had to pose all over again.

Since the developing has to be done in complete darkness, all the stuff and fluids had to be transferred to the bath room, and we're not disclosing what (or where) further developments took place when the tub was next used for ablutions.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sheridan visited Sunday in Amarillo with his mother, Mrs. J. H. Sheridan and his sisters, Mrs. Ann Gaines and Miss Beulah Sheridan.

CARD OF THANKS

In appreciation to our many friends during the illness and death of our loved one we take this means of expressing our profound gratitude for the words of comfort, acts of kindness and consolation to us. May God's richest blessings rest on each of you.

Motley Teachers Attend Convention Of West Texas Teachers Association

An overwhelming majority of all teachers in the 27-county area of the West Texas Teachers Association was in Lubbock Friday to attend the 14th annual WTTA convention, hearing talks by outstanding educators and laymen, and attending discussion groups for specific branches of teaching and school administration.

According to the Lubbock Avalanche, more than 2,000 of an estimated 2,770 teachers in the district were in attendance at the convention, making this year's the largest convention in the association's history.

Outstanding educators of the area who spoke during the convention included Clarence Whiteside of Lubbock, William B. Deaderick of Odessa, Delbert Downing of Midland, Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of Texas Technological college, and Dr. Henry H. Hill of George Peabody college, Nashville, Tenn.

Also appearing on the program Friday night was Joe C. Humphrey of Abilene, president of the Texas State Teachers association Official Backs Bill.

"The Texas school system could be boosted from its present place of about thirty-second among the 48 states to a position among the top 10 in the nation, if the Legislature enacts the proposed Gilmer-Alkin bill now before the House of Representatives," Humphrey told the assembly.

Humphrey explained that the bill would provide $60,000,000 annually for the schools from the fund that provides money for old age pensions, the needy blind, teacher retirement and rehabilitation of juvenile delinquents. He said the bill would
