TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

Whispering the strange song of life, the sea is melancholy and gentle in appearance, yet in its depths mystery is hidden. Ceaselessly waves against the rocky shore until it seems the mistress destroys her lover.

Yellow flame of the coal oil lamp was soft on the old man's wrinkled face as he studied the pages printed on a piece of cardboard. He stroked his stained beard and traced characters on the one hundred-year calendar. A bony finger trembled as it followed the years. "Uncertain," he declared at length, "but somewhere on that card is the day each of us must die." He pushed the calendar aside, tamped some tobacco in his bowl pipe and struck a match on the chair rocker. "The thought of everything, the importance of uncertainty," he announced, placing the lighted match to the tobacco.

One comforting thing about an enemy is the freedom of worry that you give him the Christmas that he gave you last season.

Songs of cotton gins echo in the cathedral of October nights. It is the music of harvest enriched with beauty of summer rains, the sun's heat, gentle winds, beautiful soil and prayers. Placid lights leave the gray burr smoke, like long fingers combing the black tresses of darkness, a harvest moon spreads its pale tide across stubblefields.

The world's greatest nation is named and confused, calling in a hour of travail for leadership for statesmen instead of politicians. History has never offered a greater opportunity to character nor has a country needed it more desperately.

Only the humble in blithe transport, have discovered to the satisfaction of their souls that work is prayer, incognito.

Often the silent presence of a friend has the soothing influence of cool night winds on a feverish brow, of gentle rain drops on the leaves. Perhaps the unspoken assurance of friendship on best alleviate pain from a heart that has been trampled under the hoofs of perfidy.

Hostile agencies in the camps of the fates have promoted a successful movement to defeat the will of my cherished ambitions: to stand on the bridge and steer even but for a few seconds, a respectable ship. Spending a lifetime away from beating water is of course, a factor in the frustration. My nearest achievement was realized when I once sat in a row boat and held the tiller of an outboard motor on the muddy waters of a cow pasture lake.

Whitworth, President, Miss Bonnie Craft of Roasting Springs, secretary and Bruce Martin of Matador, vice-president. Other pictures made at the convention meeting will be published in a subsequent issue of the Tribune.

Gyrich Dies Of Gunshot Wounds

Henry Lee Parnell, 45-year-old farm laborer who moved here a few weeks ago from Turkey, was charged with murder Friday morning in connection with the fatal shooting of Henry Gyrich, 38, tenant farmer in the Whitelake community.

Red River Bridge Is Contracted

Work is scheduled to start immediately on a new bridge across the Prairie Dog Town Fork of Red River on State Highway 70 south of Clarendon.

Contract was awarded the J. R. Clardy Construction Company of Ft. Worth, on a bid of $183,012, by the State Highway Department. The company will establish headquarters in Clarendon, but materials for the bridge are being shipped to Memphis which is closer to point of construction. Contract calls for the bridge to be completed within six months.

Material is also arriving for construction of six miles of road south of Mulberry bridge. When this strip of paving is completed only 16 miles of Highway 70 north of Turkey will be unpaved between Pampa and San Angelo.

Road maps for several years have shown designation of Highway 70 to extend north of Pampa through Roberts county to Perryton and providing a direct route from the North Panhandle into the southern part of the state.

When the unpaved 16 miles north of Turkey is improved (no announcement of this work has been released) Highway 70 will probably carry much more traffic between this entire area and the Amarillo-Pampa area, it is believed.

Bridge across Prairie Dog Town Fork of Red River has held back development of the route for many years and civic leaders in the northern outlet will improve trade and market conditions in a vast area. It is also pointed out that the new route will relieve some of the traffic congestion on established north-south highways.

MRS. L. C. GIESECKE TO JOIN NAVY HUSBAND

Dr. Gillette is married and has one daughter, age five, but Mrs. Gillette did not accompany him to Matador pending his being able to secure a house. (He would like to rent a furnished home if possible).

Driving here from San Antonio Sunday and arriving late at night he went on duty immediately aiding with an emergency operation in progress.

Flomot Cemetery Association To Sponsor Program

A program and business meeting will be held by Flomot Cemetery Association, Tuesday, November 13 at 7:30 p. m. in the High School auditorium, according to an announcement made this week.

Included on the program will be several numbers by the Girls High School Chorus, directed by Mrs. L. D. Wilkerson, a photo-essay explaining the work and services of the organization CROP, and a talk on U.S.O. activities. Following the program, the association will elect officers for the coming year.

Everyone is extended a cordial invitation to attend.

People Gaining On The Cattle

With the official 1950 United States census report released, Fred Tripp of the Amarillo Daily News, used some of the newspaper's time and scratch paper to arrive at the conclusion that 32 Panhandle counties have 11 1/3 people per square mile.

The official count is 355,802 people and the area contains 31,344 square miles. The overall gain is about 21 per cent in the past decade, or 62,670 more people in the Panhandle than the 293,132 living here in 1940.

The Tribune does not have a reporter available to work on the story since this is the week the print shop is scheduled for sweeping, but feels that reporter Tripp might have compared the population with the cattle population of his 32 counties and come up with an interesting angle. Nearly any cattleman will tell you it is possible to raise more than 11 1/3 cows on a section of land unless it is a lake or river bed.

Risking its questionable reputation for accuracy, the Tribune believes the 32 counties still have more cattle than people but concedes the census bureau's figures that the people are gaining.

Of prime interest in the census story is the official government count of people living in Lubbock and Amarillo. For a time the other counties in the Panhandle-South Plains area feared that nothing less than the United Nations could settle the problem. The corrected total (according to Mr. Tripp, who lives in Amarillo) is Amarillo 74,246 as compared with Lubbock's 71,747. People living beyond the boundaries of these

Freeze Is Due

First snow of the season, the fine "spitting" variety fell during the morning today, but melted as it fell.

First freeze of the season is due tonight according to weather forecasts. A cold wave moved into the Panhandle early yesterday accompanied by thunder showers, which registered 36-inch precipitation here. The mercury dropped rapidly during the day with a cold mist falling at intervals last night.

The mercury at Amarillo at 10 o'clock last night stood at 31 degrees with ice reported forming on metal surfaces. Continued cold was forecast for today with freezing temperatures extending into South Plains area.

Rain over the week-end (48-inch Friday night and 61-inch Sunday) had delayed the cotton harvest throughout the area. Young wheat has been greatly improved by the much-needed moisture.

Flomot Cemetery Association To Sponsor Program

Wilkerson, a photo-essay explaining the work and services of the organization CROP, and a talk on U.S.O. activities. Following the program, the association will elect officers for the coming year.

A covered dish banquet is being arranged by the committee, to be held jointly by Fleming Post and Women's Auxiliary. Officials of the post extend an invitation to every ex-service man and his wife in the county to attend. The Armistice program will be brief, it was declared and most of the evening will be devoted to association of Legionnaires and members of the Auxiliary.

Fleming Post is conducting an annual membership drive, with collection of dues for 1952 and reports of the progress of the membership committee will be made at the meeting. Reports indicate a large number of members have already renewed their affiliations with the service-men's organization.

MATADOR QUIZDOWNERS LOSE TO BORGER'S BOY-TEAM IN CLOSE RACE FOR HONORS

Quizzmaster Monte Rosenwald understands why the Matador team from Borger fell so much louder than the team from Matador. "The team from Weatherly is the team from Matador ready?"

The answer was a booming "We are!"

"We are!"—but several details softer.

Then one of the Borger boys came up with the answer. "We've got too many girls on our team."

The first string team from Weatherly school of Borger, as a matter of fact, all were half boys and half girls.

It was a close race. The all-boys team did win, but the margin was slight. The Weatherly team took honors in the popular school boy-and-girl competition, sponsored jointly by the Globe-News and KGNC, by a difference of about one full question.

Members of Borger's winning male contingent were Douglas Keever, Dale Keith, Vard McGlaun, Ronnie Sperberg, Gary Attaway and Gary Birdsong. Alternates were Jimmy Cain, Sylvia Bryant and Joyce Widen-er.

Matador's team included Carolyn Pohl, Sue Daniel, Sidney Robinson, Clinton Burns, Mike Groves and Frances McMahan. Alternates were Thomas Edwards, Ramey Brandon and Joyce Lynn.

Ronnie Sperberg of the Borger team and Clinton Burns of the Matador team both turned in perfect individual scores.

The Borger boys won a set of the Britannica, Jr., for Weatherly School and personal prizes of gold medals and mechanical pencils.

Matador's trophy was a Rand-McNally World Globe and silver medals and mechanical pencils for team members.

Questions used on the weekly Globe-News-KGNC contest are submitted by youngsters all over the Tri-State area. Children whose questions are used on the broadcast are awarded red, white and blue Quizdown mechanical pencils.

You—and the SCRAP METAL EMERGENCY

ANSWERS every farmer should have to questions about scrap iron and steel

- Q. Why is iron and steel scrap a matter of importance to farmers?
- A. Steel for our Country's defense program and civilian economy is being produced at the highest annual rate ever . . . and this will be greatly increased in 1952. Farm machinery and equipment needs must come from this scrap supply. As steel production increases the need for scrap increases.
- Q. How does scrap figure in the production of steel?
- A. One pound of scrap is needed to make two pounds of steel.
- Q. Is scrap getting scarce?
- A. Yes, the supply of scrap at the steel mills and foundries is not increasing fast enough to meet the needs of expanding steel production. Yet, there are millions of tons of idle iron and steel scrap, in small amounts, on farms throughout the country.
- Q. What if the needed scrap isn't obtained?
- A. That will mean a serious loss of steel production . . . fewer products will be made of steel. It will mean more shortages of civilian products. Defense needs come first.
- Q. Why not use pig iron instead of scrap?
- A. Every ton of scrap conserves approximately 2 tons of iron ore, 1 ton of coal, nearly 1/2 ton of limestone and many other vital natural resources—to say nothing of transportation facilities. Besides, there are not enough blast furnaces to produce the iron needed to maintain production.
- Q. How can more scrap be furnished?
- A. By everybody pitching in—as we always do in every emergency—and searching out all possible sources of scrap. Manufacturers of all kinds of products are conducting scrap drives. Old ships are being salvaged . . . scrap is being obtained from countless sources including farms.
- Q. What is farm scrap?
- A. It is any worn out, obsolete, unrepairable equipment, tools or other objects made of metal. It may be rusting and rotting in fence corners, in the field, the barnyard or the tool shed.
- Q. What should be done with farm scrap?
- A. See that every bit of scrap gets to the scrap dealer located nearest to you. He will break it up into sizes used by the steel mills and foundries. He'll classify the metals then ship the scrap in carload lots. If you do not know the name of your local scrap dealer, consult your local implement dealer for this information.
- Q. What else can I do about farm scrap?
- A. Support the scrap drive organized in your locality. Work with your local Scrap Mobilization Committee in getting the scrap started back to the steel mills and foundries through the local scrap dealer.

Several miniature black megaphones, lettered M. H. S. in white, placed in horizontal positions held sprays of marigolds. 90% For! 10% Against Railroad workers are represented by 23 standard unions. By mutual agreement, 20 of these unions—comprising about 1,200,000 men, or more than 90%—are working under wages and rules agreed to by them and the railroads. But leaders of three unions—with only about 130,000 men, or less than 10%—still refuse, after more than a year of negotiations, to accept similar wage and rules agreements. These are even more favorable than the terms recommended by the Emergency Board appointed by the President.

Yes, it certainly seems to be finally about time that the leaders of the three unions stop their delaying tactics—their quibbling. But the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors continue to refuse. They continue a course of dillying and dallying. It is definitely time to END THIS QUIBBLING!

On June 16, 1950, an Emergency Board appointed by the President under the terms of the Railway Labor Act—an Act largely fathered by the unions themselves—made its recommendations on certain wage and working conditions ("rules" in railroad language) which had been in dispute between employees and the railroads.

More Than 90% of Employees Accept

Since then, terms equal to or better than the Board recommendations have been accepted by about 1,200,000 railroad employees—more than 90% of the total of all workers. They are represented by 20 of the 23 standard railroad unions.

Less Than 10% Refuse

But three unions—with about 130,000 men, or less than 10% of the total—have refused to accept, even after months of negotiations. These three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors. These are three of the so-called "operating" unions. Already the highest paid men in the industry, their leaders demand still further advantages over other workers.

In all, there are about 270,000 operating employees. But not all of them, by any means, are represented by BLE, BLF&E, or ORC. As a matter of fact, less than half—132,000 to be exact—are in those three unions. More than half—about 140,000—are in other unions, principally the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. What makes the whole situation so hard to understand is that these 140,000 operating employees are working under wages and rules which the leaders of the other 130,000 say they cannot agree to.

What Do the Railroads Offer?

They offer these three unions the same settlement which was contained in a Memorandum of Agreement signed at the White House on December 21, 1950, by four brotherhoods and the railroads. Later these brotherhoods sought to repudiate this agreement. But on May 25, 1951, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen signed a complete agreement carrying out the principles of the Memorandum Agreement under this agreement since May 25.

What About Wages?

Under the terms of the agreement, yard engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving a wage increase of $3.4 an hour ($2.72 a day) and road engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving an increase of 19½ cents an hour ($1.56 per day). Large sums of retroactive pay have already accrued and if the agreement is carried out, will be paid promptly.

What About "Cost of Living" Increases?

The White House Agreement includes an "escalator" clause under which wages will be geared to changes in the Government's cost-of-living index. Two such increases—April and July, 1951—have already been paid to the 90% of railroad employees covered by signed agreements.

What About the 40-Hour Week?

The White House Agreement calls for the establishment of the 40-hour week in principle, for employees in yard service. The employee can have it any time after January 1, 1952, provided the manpower situation is such that the railroads can get enough men to perform the work with reasonable regularity at straight time rates. If the parties do not agree on the question of availability of manpower, the White House Agreement provides arbitration by a referee appointed by the President.

What Else Do the Union Leaders Demand?

The continued quibbling of the leaders of the three unions has to do principally with rules changes, which have already been agreed to by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Of these, the principal one seems to be that having to do with so-called "interdivisional service"—runs which take in two or more seniority districts.

The union leaders would bar progress and efficiency in the industry, and better service to the public, by maintaining a situation where they can arbitrarily stop a railroad from establishing such interdivisional runs. The carriers propose that if a railroad wishes to set up an interdivisional run, the railroad and the unions should try to agree on such run and the conditions which should surround its establishment, and if the railroad and the unions can't agree, the matter will be submitted to arbitration.

But the three union leaders still refuse.

Rules Can Be Arbitrated

The railroads have not only offered these three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.

The Industry Pattern Is Fixed

With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BLF&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why these three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employees.

Drowned Chaplain Held Revival Here

An Air Force Chaplain who lost his life Sunday while trying to rescue two men from drowning at Patrick Air Force Base, Cocoa, Florida, preached in a revival meeting here at First Baptist church, three years ago.

The drowning victim was Maj Ray Stephens, 40-year-old chaplain at Patrick Air Force base.

Prior to his recall to active duty with the Air Force in December, 1950 Chaplain Stephens was pastor of the Spearman Baptist Church. Before then, he was pastor of the McLean Baptist Church, and it was during his pastorate there that he conducted the revival here in April, 1948 for his friend, Rev. Clifford Potts, local pastor. He had also pastored the Baptist Church at Afton, where many will remember him.

Major Stephens helped form a human chain to reach two men caught in a dangerous undertow at the Cocoa beach. The chain broke up in the rough surf and the chaplain was caught in the undertow. The two men were rescued however.

The widow, Mrs. Alla Mae Gammill Stephens, formerly of Sulphur Springs, was with him at the base. The body was to reach Sulphur Springs Thursday (today) according to reports, and Rev. Potts, together with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forbis of Afton, planned to go there to attend funeral services.

IN APPRECIATION
I wish to take this means to express my heartfelt thanks to friends for letters and cards sent me during my recent hospitalization in Dallas.

COME TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Tribune, Matador, Motley County, Texas, Thursday, November 1, 1951

Pied Pipers BY MR. J. M.

We were honored by being included in a little party of Girl Scouts held recently at Waybourn's Cafe for refreshments, following regular meeting in the home of Mrs. R. E. Donovan. Barbara Waybourn had baked a beautiful heart-shaped cake, using strawberries in the filling and top icing, which she served with soda-pop. In the group were Janie Waybourn, Joanne Potts, Kay Norman, Rose Carolyn Donovan, Betty Neighbors, Mrs. Donovan and ourself.

When the trumpet of the Lord shall sound and time shall be no more, we trust that we shall be more prepared to answer the summons than we were Halloween morning when we received a phone call, (related to us by Mr. M.) to come to coffee. Winifred Darsey was stealing a march on the goblins and inviting her guests to "come as you are".

We were in the bath tub and naturally could not leave just then. The weather was too cold outside.

Since we were headed for the office, we cheated on our invitation by proceeding to dress for work, but did run for a cup of coffee.

Sure enough, the gals were in pajamas, housecoats, bathrobes, brunch coats and slacks. Several like ourself, enroute to the salt mines, were dressed. Some had fixed their faces and looked pretty, while others came with cream on their faces, as they were in the act of getting fixed, when their call came.

Grace Campbell was there with her flash-camera taking random shots. We suspect blackmail as her ultimate motive.

It was fun, and as one of the girls said, "now we can see why husbands leave home!"

We feel sort of like a fellow facing execution as we keep in mind that Friday, Nov. 2 is the date and 9:30 a. m. the hour that we make our debut on the air. Although we'd much rather you wouldn't, just in case you are going to listen anyway, the station is KFLD, 900 (or 90) on the dial.

RETURN FROM TRIP
Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Thacker returned home Friday from a trip to Pagosa Springs, Colorado where Mr. Thacker enjoyed hunting and was lucky in getting his limit of one deer. He was also within snarling distance of a bear, which eluded him.

SOLDIER HONORED AT FAMILY DINNER

Pfc. Ernest Davis was honored Sunday, Oct. 28, with a dinner given in the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Davis of Roaring Springs. Pfc. Davis, who is stationed at Fort Monmouth, N. J., is on a two-weeks furlough visiting relatives and friends, and will return to camp Sunday, November 4.

Those present for the dinner Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith and children of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. James Smith and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jim McClesky and children all of Roaring Springs; Mrs. R. T. Wilcher and son of Rotan; Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Lee and children of Matador; a brother and sister, Cleo and Thelma Davis of Roaring Springs.

Accompanied by his mother, Pfc. Davis made a recent trip to New Mexico, visiting a sister, Mrs. Clint Langford and family of Dora, N. M. and two brothers, John Davis of Hobbs and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Davis and sons of Carlsbad.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Groves and daughters, Mary Lee and Lou, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. A. B. Groves, visited in Lubbock Monday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Tomlinson. Young Terry Tomlinson, who had been visiting his relatives here, returned to Lubbock with them. Mrs. Tomlinson is a daughter of Mrs. A. B. Groves.

Young Jim Bob Dailey of Crockett is visiting here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Woodruff. He was accompanied here by his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Woodruff, who made a business trip to Dallas last week, and drove with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stephens. They were accompanied by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Piper of Paducah.

Mrs. C. E. Woolery and Joe B. Meador of Lubbock spent the week-end here visiting their father, Joe Meador and other relatives.

Richard Ellison of Rosebud spent several days here last week visiting his aunt, Mrs. W. W. (Aunt Patti) Moore.

Mrs. George Ratcliff is in Lubbock taking a series of x-ray treatments. Her daughter, Dora, accompanied her there and they are visiting relatives there.

A Message of Importance
★ ★ ★ To Every Automobile Driver ★ ★ ★
In The State of Texas
HERE'S WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE NEW TEXAS "SAFETY RESPONSIBILITY LAW"

- 1 Enforcement Begins January 1, 1952. On this date, the new Safety Responsibility Law, as passed by the Legislature, goes into effect. This law was designed to protect you against financially irresponsible drivers and owners of motor vehicles involved in accidents. It affects all drivers and motor vehicle owners (except Federal, State, County and City-owned cars).
- 2 What Must You Do After An Accident? Under existing laws, you must file a written report to the Department of Public Safety if your car is involved in an accident where there is a death, an injury or property damage in excess of $25. Under the new law, a written report must be filed within ten days if your car is in an accident resulting in death, injury or property damage in excess of $100.
- 3 You Don't Have to Carry Liability Insurance, But . . . If you are not insured against bodily injury and property damage liability, you must be able to deposit with the Department of Public Safety security equal to the estimated damage, not exceeding $15,000.00, to cover all claims growing out of an accident anywhere in Texas in which you or your motor vehicle were involved. If you cannot establish financial responsibility for the future, your driver's license and your motor vehicle license plates are automatically suspended.
- 4 It's Easy to Establish Financial Responsibility with a motor vehicle liability insurance policy. If you do not now have such a policy, call your local insurance agent today. He is a qualified insurance counselor who will be happy to advise you concerning your needs.
- 5 What is the Minimum of Your Liability? The law permits each driver to establish the following minimum limits of liability: up to $5,000.00 for injuries sustained by one person; up to $10,000.00 for all personal injuries resulting from one accident, and up to $5,000.00 for property damage. You do not have to establish such liability but it is the easiest way.

MATADORS WIN ...

forced to punt. Fowler scored the second TD of the game early in the second quarter when he ran 15 yards to pay dirt. The extra point try was no go.
The Matadors started their scoring when Pat Reeves ran 10 yards for a touchdown, with Harold Martin running the extra point. The teams see-sawed up and down the field until the first half ended.

Matador kicked-off to start the second half. The Matadors line bounced the Cubs back to their five yard line. Here Lonny Tucker tried an end run but Pat Reeves and Billy Spray spilled him behind the goal for a two-point safety.

Estelline then kicked and the Matadors marched the ball back to the Cubs' 20-yard line. Dunning then took the ball and toted it over the goal line. Ray Carman ran the extra point. The Cubs' Doyle Walker attempted a pass that was intercepted by Ray Carman who ran 10 yards for another score. Carman also made the extra point and ended the 3rd quarter.

Walker ran five yards for another score for the Cubs early in the fourth quarter. The extra point attempt was no good.

The Matadors face the Turkey Turks at Turkey Friday night for another conference contest.

CENSUS SHOWS ...

two urban areas will probably not question the count. They will also agree that each resident of the two towns has an automobile and that it is parked on the streets or hunting a place to park when he makes an occasional visit.

Texas had a population of 7,711,194 on April 1, 1950, an increase of 20.2 per cent in 10 years. The figures indicate that 62.7 per cent of this population lives in urban areas—towns of 2,500 or more. The 1950 population is more than 36 times the population in 1850 when Texas was first enumerated in the federal census.

Harris county with 806,701 showed the largest numerical gain of any Texas county in the past ten years. Harris, Dallas, Bexar and Tarrant counties accounted for more than three-fifths of the entire state's population.

But in sparsely-settled West Texas, Andrews county showed the biggest jump. Its 1950 population was 5,002 or almost four times the 1940 figure of 1,277. Andrews county is not touched by any rail line. The county with the smallest population is Kennedy, in South Texas, with 632 inhabitants. In 1940 it had 700.

In the list of West Texas counties Motley is shown with an official population of 3,963 as compared with 4,994 in 1940 or a loss of 1,031 population in 10 years. It was one of 14 counties which lost population during the decade.

Other counties which have a smaller population than Motley in West Texas, Panhandle area are: Briscoe, 3,528; Hartley 1,913; Armstrong 2,215; Lipscomb 3,658; Oldham 1,672; Roberts 1,031 and Sherman 2,443.

TEXANS TO VOTE ON AMENDMENTS

Texans will go to the polls throughout the state Nov. 13 for the purpose of voting for or against five amendments to the State Constitution, Pat Sheridan county clerk, reminded voters this week. Balloting will take place at all regular boxes.

The amendments cover a variety of subjects. Amendment 1 is for the authorizing of a statewide retirement and disability pension for appointive county officials and employees.

Second has to do with the investment of the permanent University Fund in additional securities to those now enumerated in Section II of Article VII of the constitution.

The third amendment listed on the official ballot, if carried, would authorize the legislature to provide for the levy of an ad valorem tax not to exceed 50 cents on the $100 valuation for the creation and establishment of rural fire prevention districts.

Texas veterans are scheduled to benefit from one of the amendments if it is passed by the voters. This would amend the constitution to allow increasing Veterans Land fund for the purchase of lands in Texas by veterans of World War II.

Final amendment on the ballot would remove the $35 million limitation upon the amount of state expenditures for assistance to needy persons over 65, to needy children under 16 and to needy persons who are blind. The new law would place the limitation at $42 million.

Sheridan pointed out that absentee balloting on these issues started Wednesday, Oct. 24.
