Success Of School Education Week" Split Opinion

(By Beth Johnson)

Last week was State Education Week in Texas — a part of the program was parent visitation in the schools. According to Grade School Principal Jake Edwards, the parent visitation was a great success. They were very pleased by the fact that not only the parents but other interested parties who have no children in school visited the class rooms. Some of the teachers met several of their former pupils, whose children they are now teaching. Another interesting and encouraging fact reported was that many fathers as well as mothers visited children's classes.

"I would like to quote one parent of a grade school child as saying, 'My hat's off to the teachers, they certainly accomplished a lot. I enjoyed my visit and I came home thankful that my children go to school five days a week. The teachers certainly have a tremendous responsibility.'"

The Grade School registered twenty-eight visitors, a very good percentage considering how busy everyone is today.

As for the High school, the opinion is somewhat different. I think Principal Vance Gilbreath pretty well expresses the opinion of the High school faculty when he said, "I was disappointed with the few who actually visited classes and talked with the teachers. I think parents could show more interest in the child subject matter of their children's classes. We are trying to teach the students to become better citizens in a democracy and this depends on the parents' interest as well as the teachers'."

TONS OF ENVELOPES, yellow, pink and green, are being prepared for mailing by handicapped people at the Texas Society for Crippled Children in Dallas. Approximately one million of these envelopes — one of the largest mailings of the year — will be turned over to Uncle Sam the last of the month, according to Martin M. Ricker, Executive Director of the Texas Society. They will contain Easter seals, and a request to use them and return a donation for the benefit of Texas crippled children. This picture was made in the Sheltered Workshop where the Texas Society employs handicapped people who would not otherwise be able to earn wages.

"The Thing" Falls FLAMING OBJECT SCARES CHICKENS

Nobody knows just what it was, but it almost scared a bunch of chickens to death.

Bill Hill was sitting in his car near his house Friday when he saw a flaming object strike the ground and go up in smoke.

A yard full of squawking chickens scurried in every direction. Hill drove over to the Farmers Co-op gin to get R. L. Jameson. He and Jameson returned to scrutinize the object. It had a "smell of sulphur."

Object Is Small

Though he had "no more idea of what it was than the man in the moon," Jameson said it was shaped like a battery plug. Claude Jackson also took a look at it and said it was "flat on one side, rough on the other and little bigger than your thumb."

"It looked like a coal cinder," said Jackson.

Jameson said it apparently was similar to the balls of fire reported recently in New Mexico. The possibility of its being part of a meteor was considered.

"It sure did scare the chickens," Hill said.

After the above item appeared in the Lubbock Avalanche-Graysen Meade and Dr. W. I. Robinson, both of the geology department of Texas Technological college, visited Matador to inspect the object which had been brought to the Tribune office.

The small piece of material which is believed to have fallen from the sky, was taken to Lubbock where it will be analyzed.

Mr. Meade is also a paleontologist and while in Matador reviewed some large bones collected by Dr. A. C. Traweck, sr. He said part of the bones were from a buffalo and that one large petrified bone was from a type of elephant which once ranged this area.

Community Chest Receives Praise Of Salvation Army

Dean Williams of Dallas, field representative of the Salvation Army was here Tuesday and praised the Matador Community Chest for its successful campaign.

"The Salvation Army is happy to be represented in the Matador Community Chest budget," Mr. Williams declared, "since we are represented by 47 of the 49 Community Chest organizations in Texas. It is needless to say we are for chest organizations 1000%. Towns which support a chest make it needless for us to use other forms of solicitation."

Mr. Williams said the Salvation Army last year spent more than $1,300,000 in Texas.

He paid high tribute to President Glenn Woodruff for the success of the recent fund campaign and to the community for its progressive spirit in organizing the Community Chest program.

Fund Expected To Increase As Final Reports Are Made

AGAIN Motley county has exceeded its annual Red Cross membership fund quota. Phil Green, secretary and treasurer said last night that a total of $1,290.20 had been turned in by solicitors. The county's quota was $1,148.

He said returns had been received from all communities with the exception of Northfield and that it was probable additional donations would be reported before the drive is completed.

Despite the large number of requests for various funds which have been circulated this season, Motley county has retained its perfect record of attaining every goal assigned.

During the war the county reached all Red Cross, U.S.O. and War Bond goals despite the critical circumstances which existed.

County Chairman Furman Vinson is being commended by civic leaders for the excellent work he has done in conducting the 1951 fund drive.

"Red Cross is sold to the people," he declared, "and there was little need to explain the purposes to which the money will be used. People usually have their minds made up as to the amount they wish to give and the work of the solicitor is reduced to a minimum."

Colored Cage Till Sponsored By VFW

One of the more exciting sports events of the season is scheduled Tuesday evening (March 20) in the Matador school gymnasium. A basketball game between a Plainview colored team and another colored team (to be announced later) is being sponsored by the Matador County VFW Memorial Post.

An advance ticket sale is being arranged, according to officials. The admission prices are 50¢ for adults and 35¢ for children. The game will start at 8 p. m.

Net proceeds of the match will be used to augment the VFW general fund.

COWHORSE CLUB NAMES OFFICERS

Object of the meeting will be to decide future plans and objects of the organization. All interested in training cutting horses are invited and urged to attend the meeting.

Farm Bureau Supports Natural Gas Tax Bill

Texas Farm Bureau is supporting with its full strength, House Bill No. 669, which would levy a one-cent per 1000 cu. feet on natural gas piped away from beneath the soils of Texas.

Victorious Cage Season Reviewed

The Interscholastic League District Champs and 4-B Regional Third Place winner's victorious season of twenty-nine wins and one loss is now history. The team coached by Bert Ezzell and Miss Beth Johnson and led by Captain Tresa McDonough, lost to Claude, Texas State Champions, by only seven points. The Matador girls scored 1029 points to their opponents' 590 to average thirty-six points per game.

The line-up consisted of: Forwards: Susie Hughes, Carlene Lynn, Marlene Bailey, Lois Blevins, Georgia Martin, Marie Timmons, Wanda McMahan and Martha Jones. The guards were Frances Traweck, Margie Cook, Martha Hall, Barbara Neighbors, Bette Fran Montgomery and Captain Tresa McDonough. The efficient and dependable man-handlers were Cora Bostick and Betty Ruth Smalley.

Individual scores for the forwards were: Marlene Bailey with a total of 271, an average of 12 points per game. Carlene Lynn made 228 with an average of 9 points per game. Susie Hughes made 158 points with an average of 5.6 points per game. Lois Blevins, Freshman, made 135 points in the 20 games she played making an average of 5 points per game.

After careful consideration it has been concluded that a tax on natural gas will be just since fair share of taxes as compared to other commodities. Gasoline at the domestic consumer level has a tax of 29 percent as compared to a tax of one-half of one percent on natural gas at the domestic consumer level.

GOSPEL MEETING

A gospel meeting will begin March 18 and run through March 25 at Roaring Springs Church of Christ, one block north of the highway.

Cars Kill More In 50 Years Than War In Past 150 Years

The American automobile has been a bigger killer in half a century than all the nation's wars in more than a century and a half.

The National Safety Council says a total of 969,000 persons have died in automobile accidents in this country since 1906, and that victim number one million can be expected by December this year.

That is about 155 more deaths than all the armed forces of the country have suffered from the Revolutionary war through the Korean war so far.

Anticipating that millionth death on the highways, the Safety Council is starting its campaign early with the slogan "Don't You Be One In A Million."

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Joe Latimer accompanied Mrs. Vernon Latimer home from Amarillo, where she visited last week. While here they visited in the home of the Colquet Warrens.

Mrs. Jack Crider and daughters of Grandfalls are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Tipton.

Government Sets Price On Cotton

The government recently set a basic ceiling price of 45.76 cents a pound on the farm price of cotton, in a move designed to prevent further rises in the cost of cotton clothing and materials.

The action brought immediate rebukes from the cotton states and agricultural leaders through out the nation, who pointed out that price ceilings were not imposed on raw cotton during World War II and that none were needed. Opposition further declared that ceilings were imposed to protect the buyer from the manufacturer, not manufacturer from the grower.

The new ceilings, announced by Price Controller Michael V. DiSalle, are based on the highest average prevailing in the nation's spot markets between Dec. 19, 1950 and Jan. 25, 1951.

They are the highest legal prices which can be paid for a ginned and baled cotton. They also govern future trading on the commodity exchanges.

DiSalle said that with the new ceilings in effect the major cotton futures exchanges which have been closed since the general price freeze was announced on Jan. 26, can reopen for business Monday morning.

"This regulation will protect consumers against inflation; provide prices which would give the farmer a fair income, and stimulate maximum production of cotton; and translate the freeze into more realistic and enforceable dollars and cents ceilings", DiSalle said.

The 45.76 cent ceiling applies to white and extra-white middling 15 and 16-inch cotton grown in "Area 1" a group of counties in the Carolinas. Other ceilings are set from that base price, with variations for grade, staple and location.

DiSalle pointed out that the ceilings are well above the current parity price of 33.11 cents a pound and should stimulate increased production.

"I think most everyone thinks this is a pretty fair figure," DiSalle told a press conference.

BY MRS. J. M.

Circumstances have been generous in creating adequate material for a renewal of this column. I have now qualified for the legion of "my operation", and despite its questionable interest, the quantity of material is endless. I regret that this warning of things to come must be done by a proxy, because of circumstances beyond my control. I promise this column will be renewed and that it will contain some observations made while looking at the ceiling in a hospital room.

To the thoughtful friends and relatives who remembered me while fate swept away the merriments from my helpless state, I tender a full measure of sincere gratitude. I am grateful for the beautiful flowers, the stacks of cards and letters, the personal visits, and the many tokens of love and friendship that helped soften the blow of tragedy. Never before in my life have I been so much aware of the true value of friendship and never again will I be careless of the small things which mean so much in the hour of despair. To each of you I want to again profess my heartfelt gratitude.

Watch Out For The "Blind-Spots"

Stopped by Squint Miller's farm the other day and saw a vinegar bottle in his kitchen with an over-ripened cucumber inside it. The cucumber filled the whole bottle.

"What's a cucumber doing in here?" I asked him. "That's my blind-spot" reminder," says Squint. "My grandmother kept her in her kitchen to remind her to take stock of herself now and then."

"I slipped that bottle over the cucumber when it was just starting to grow on the vine," he went on. "And like certain viewpoints, not noticed, it just grew and grew — now it's there to stay."

From where I sit, we could take a cue from Squint and watch for our own "blind-spots" and prejudices before they grow too big to get rid of. We've got to respect our neighbor's right to his preferences... preferences for a certain make of car, a favorite movie star, or a temperate glass of beer after work. We won't be tripped by any blind spots if we keep our eyes—and minds—open!

RECENT CEREMONY AT PETERSBURG UNITES THEONA VERNER AND KENNETH UNDERWOOD

Of interest to many friends here is the announcement of the recent marriage of Miss Theona Verner, daughter of former residents, Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Verner now of Petersburg, and Kenneth Underwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Van Underwood, also of that place.

The Baptist parsonage at Petersburg was the scene of the wedding ceremony, which was performed Thursday, March 1 at 7:30 p. m. by Rev. Verner.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Dawson Reid, Jr. of Paducah. She wore a tailored navy suit and her flowers were red roses. Her only attendant was Mrs. Jack Brashear of Crosbyton, matron of honor, who wore a wine suit and a corsage of gardenias.

Jack Brashear of Crosbyton served the groom as best man.

Mrs. Verner and Mrs. Underwood, mothers of the bride and groom, were dressed in navy and wore shoulder corsages of gardenias.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the parsonage. Bouquets of red roses were displayed at vantage points throughout the reception rooms. The lace-covered table was centered with floating red roses in an oblong crystal bowl. The wedding cake was two-tiered, topped by a miniature bridal couple and flanked on either side by tall white candles in crystal holders.

Bobbie Underwood, sister of the groom, poured punch from a crystal punch bowl, while Mrs. Dawson Reid, Jr. the bride's sister, cut the cake.

Besides the parents and members of the wedding party, others present were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Catching and daughter, Dorinda.

MISS LEJUAN GROVES, FORMER RESIDENT, IS RECENT BRIDE OF JOE TUCKER AT ARLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Groves of Arlington, Texas, formerly of Matador, are announcing the recent marriage of their daughter, Nedra Lejuan, to Joe Dale Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Tucker, also of Arlington.

Woods-Chapel Baptist Church at Arlington was the scene of the wedding with the pastor, Rev. H. D. Barlow reading the double-ring ceremony.

Banks of woodwardia fern formed the background for the altar, which was marked with tall white satin posts. Urns filled with white mums and cathedral tapers in branching candelabra completed the decorations. White satin bows marked the bridal aisle.

Misses Beverly Ann Simpson of Weatherford, Cathie Burke, Linda Sue Green and Diane Stockton, lighted the candles, and they wore dresses of blue and pink pique, trimmed with Irish lace, modeled along identical lines. They wore corsages of blue and pink sweetpeas tied to their wrists with blue and pink ribbon.

Roy Lee Vaughn and Bobby Darby ushered. Miss Yvonne Biles, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Christine Tucker, the groom's sister who sang "Because" and "Always". Kenneth Groves, the bride's brother, was best man, and James Dixon was groomsmen.

Mrs. James Dixon of Ft. Worth and Mrs. Paul Green, aunt of the bride, poured punch, and Mrs. Elbert Seigler of Lubbock, also an aunt of the bride, served cake. Miss Dolly Ann Hare was in charge of the guest book and registered a large number of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker will make their home in Arlington on Pecan Street where they have an apartment. The bride is attending high school and will graduate at the close of the present term. The bridegroom is expecting a service call in the near future.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Groves of Matador; her aunt, Mrs. Elbert Seigler and son, Bruce of Lubbock; and others from Dallas, Weatherford, Fort Worth and Grand Prairie.

The Matador Brand

Sophomores Pay Tribute to Class President

The Sophomore Class, who is editing the Matador Brand this week, wish to pay tribute to our charming and popular class president, Frances Traweck. She is sixteen years old, 5' 8", one hundred and twenty-one pounds, brown hair and blue eyes. Nice combination!

Frances' favorite pastime is drawing (at which she is very talented) and her pet like is going swimming. Her favorite study is history and her ambition at present is to win state in basketball.

She plans to go to college at C. U. when she graduates in '53.

We think we have a mighty president, don't you agree? (Note: This week's copy for the Brand was turned in a week ago but due to the fact the Tribune was running behind in printing the school news, The Sophomore edition has been delayed a week and consequently, some of it is almost school history. Tribune editors regret this delay.)

MATADOR COLORED BASKETBALL GAMES

The Matador Negro Girls team won over the Spur team Tuesday night, Feb. 27, by a score of 23-24.

Bennie Faye Davis played an outstanding game at forward position and was also high point girl with twelve points. Captain Zettie Louis followed close behind with nine points. The Matador line-up was as follows: Forwards, Captain Zettie Louis, Bennie Faye Davis and Shirley Harris Guards, Nellie Ruth Nelson, Rubbie Lee Holt and Etta Mae Ferrel.

Katherine Thomas was high pointer from Spur with 16 points and Georgia Epps played an outstanding game as guard.

The Matador Negro Boys came out on the small end of a 27-17 score as the Spur team outscored the Matador team. Neal Louis was high pointer for the Matador's with six points while Charles Harris and Albert Richardson closely followed with five and four points respectively.

(This story was written by Misses Marlene Bailey and Frances Traweck following an interview at the Negro School of Matador. We wish to express our appreciation to Principal Walter S. Mitchell and teacher, Mrs. Norris for their kindness and cooperation.)

TWO SENIORS TAKE PERSONALITY TRIP

Letress Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simpson of Matador and Dean Stotts, son of Sheriff and Mrs. John Stotts of Matador, were chosen by the student body to represent Matador in the Personality Pageant at Canyon on the campus of West Texas State College, Friday and Saturday, March 2-3. Both of these students are seniors of M. H. S.

The Personality Pageant was presented by the West Texas State College Student association and is the fourth annual meeting, honoring the outstanding personalities of the Panhandle. Skinny Ennis, well-known band leader from the West Coast brought his celebratory orchestra to the campus for the second time in three years for this occasion.

The high school representatives acted as attendants and were presented in a ceremony conducted by William Angus Moore, professor of speech, who was also master of ceremonies.

At the Personality Pageant one of the more spectacular formal dances of the High Plains was held.

Upon returning from the occasion both students made a report to the student body concerning the trip.

Fourteen Students Make Above Eighty For Fourth Period

Fourteen students of Matador High school have succeeded in making the Honor Roll and Distinguished List for the fourth period. After a conference with the judges, the choir was informed that their "stage appearance" was poor. In plain language, they didn't "look pretty".

Then and there, the 1950-1951 annual eighth grade project was settled. The class would try to raise enough money to buy choir robes that were all alike.

In January the class sponsored a series of pay movies that were presented at the noon hour. When the series was finished and expenses for renting the film deducted, the class had netted $49.57.

After investigation, the class found that one robe like they really wanted would cost from nine to fifteen dollars apiece—and they needed thirty! Very little mathematics was required to realize that this was impossible. After a consultation with Mrs. Wilkerson and much figuring, a plan was finally worked out to buy the material and have the robes made. The material could be bought (thanks for a reduction) for an average of $1.50 per robe and the robes could be well made for an equal amount.

School Choir To Be Provided With Appropriate Robes

A long cherished dream is about to materialize for members of the eighth grade class.

About this time last year the Matador School choir was entered in the Interscholastic League music contest at Floydada. They sang unusually well and patrons from Matador were hopeful of winning at least second place. However, when the winners were announced, Matador was not one of the chosen few. After a conference with the judges, the choir was informed that their "stage appearance" was poor. In plain language, they didn't "look pretty".

Still lacking about half the necessary money, the class made an appeal to the Matador Parent-Teacher Association for the balance of the money. That worthy organization voted to pay for the labor of making the robes. Mrs. Dick Groves is making the robes.

Most any day now the class will make a formal presentation of the robes to the music department. This year when the winners are named at the music contest, it is hoped that the Matador Grade School choir will not be criticized for "stage appearance".

SEVENTH GRADE PARTY IS GIVEN RECENTLY

home room mothers, Mesdames John Hamilton, Ted Steen, Ben Edwards and Mrs. R. H. Bearden gave a class party in the VFW Hall and invited members from other classes. Various games were played which were directed by Mr. and Mrs. Murrel Harper of Lubbock and Mrs. John Hamilton.

Refreshments of sandwiches, olives, potato chips, cake, and punch were served to about forty guests.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

Now that the 1951 offerings of the motorcar industry have had a chance to strut their stuff, we ask you—can there be any doubt which is the really smart buy?

If you want a "new look"—Buick has it. That sturdy push-bar front end says "1951" to all who see it—and provides unsurpassed front-end protection to boot.

If you want power that you can live with through many moons to come—Buick has that too. Years of expert engineering have made Buick's thrill-packed Fireball engine just about as dependable as a power plant can be.

If you want features that combine present pleasure with long-time durability, consider this:

Buick's level-going ride stems from coil springs on all four wheels which are virtually break-proof and never need servicing.

Buick's Dynaflo Drive* takes the strain out of every mile of driving—and pays off by eliminating any need for friction clutch repairs and replacements, by reducing engine and transmission upkeep, and lengthening life of tires.

If you want room and comfort and handling that make any trip a breeze—there's no simpler way to find them than to take over a '51 Buick SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER—relax and enjoy yourself.

And if you want all this at a minimum outlay of dollars—one look at Buick prices will settle this point.

So the smartest thing you can do is get in touch with your Buick dealer. How about doing that right now?

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional on extra cost on other Series. Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.
