Violent rains, tornadic and hail swept the Caprock country late yesterday. In Matador at 10 p. m. registered by the U. S. rain gauge at the city wells, was 2.10 inches. Light showers fell after.

A tornado was reported east of Dougherty and Floydada between five and six o'clock and wind damage was reported in the vicinity of Lockney and Plainview. Heavy rainfall was also reported through much of the area. No reports of damage have been received from the creek. Small hail stones were in slight drifts in the north section of town but the fall was lighter in the business section and south. No estimates of possible damage to young crops were available at midnight and it is probable the hail struck a limited area. Violent electrical displays accompanied the storms that swept Matador for about two hours. The rainfall will be of great benefit to both farmers and ranchers since young row crops in the area were in need of moisture.

Crops Damaged By Hail
Crops in the Barton community were damaged and in some instances completely destroyed by a hail storm which swept the area late Monday. Extent of the storm has not been defined in reports. In one section hailstones seven inches in circumference were reported.

It is natural, since the men cling to it with the tenacity that they cling to breath of life. Each autumn tree is shorn of its fruit and returns to the soil. A law of the Universe returns the title to all property, and it tends often and readily.

These folks are enjoying something that's being pioneered by Buick.

It's freedom from the blinding glare of bright summer sunlight.

It's freedom from hot laps—caused by the sun's rays beating down through the broad expanse of windshield.

These freedoms trace to a new feature you may have noticed in '51 Buicks—a new kind of glass* with a cool, soft, blue-green tint, in every glass area of the car, front, side and back.

Buick engineers tell us that this "Buick first" reduces glare 18% over conventional glass—cuts sun heat as much as 45%—and Buick engineers are very conservative fellows.

This glare-and-heat-reducing Easy-eye glass is factory-installed at moderate extra charge. It gives you a built-in transparent "sun visor" right in the windshield—and it also dulls the dazzle of oncoming headlights at night.

As we've said, this is something Buick owners were the first to enjoy. It takes

Colder, Wetter Years Claimed For The Future

BOSTON.—There's a colder, wetter 15 or 20 years in your future.

That is, if you are a North American, a European or an Asiatic and if you don't live in certain special places.

Hurd C. Willett, professor of meteorology at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology has studied a couple of hundred years of sunspot cycles and weather. Using a weather yardstick constructed of what's happened in the past he has laid it upon the future and has come up with a long range forecast.

Glaciers To Advance
Among other things, he says glaciers will advance.

Prof. Willett's "Extrapolation of Sunspot Climate Relationships" appears in the American Meteorological Society's Journal of Meteorology.

Prof. Willett concedes his weather yardstick may not be quite accurate. "It is," he says, "dubious procedure to base forecasts on... incomplete data." But he adds dryly, "it is inconvenient to wait 200 years longer for the necessary data."

So here goes—to the best of Prof. Willett's knowledge.

"The temperature level over much of the world will fall significantly during the next 15 years, probably reaching a first minimum level during the 1960-1965 period."

"The rainfall in lower middle latitudes, south of 50 degrees north, will be substantially higher during the next 20 years, particularly in those regions which were driest between 1920-1940. (Southern Canada, the United States, France, southern Germany, Czechoslovakia, southern Russia, most of China and Japan, and points south, fall in that zone below 50 degrees.)

"The general recent recession of glaciers in all regions is due to be reversed in the very near future. The change of trend should be most pronounced during the next 20 years."

Prof. Willett is specific in designating temperature outlooks for different areas.

Areas Are Listed
"This temperature fall will be sharpest where the anomalous (abnormal) warmth of the past 25 years has been most extreme. The greatest cooling, then, should occur in the Spitzbergen-Greenland-Iceland area, while significant cooling will occur in northern Europe, the eastern United States and Alaska.

"Some cooling probably will occur generally in middle and lower latitudes of both hemispheres (east and west).

"Exceptions to this downward trend may be noted in the Antarctic, the interior of western Canada, the northwestern United States and particularly from the eastern Mediterranean northeastward into Russia."

The professor is quite positive about this colder weather outlook.

Cold Period Cited

He suggests we may be heading for the same kind of cold period which we had in the early 1800's. In 1816, the United States had its notorious "year without a summer."

Prof. Willett points out that cold period in the first part of the 1800's followed an abnormally warm 25 years—much like the quarter

Two-Tiered Gelatine Salads For June

June with its bounty of dairy products suggests cottage cheese as a nutritious and smooth addition to double-decker gelatine salads. A tomato aspic layer contrasts appetizingly in color and flavor. The unflavored gelatine used to firm both halves of these individual, main dish salads is responsible for the perfection of the blend. With open-faced deviled ham sandwiches, potato chips and radish roses a party plate is ready for luncheon club or graduation class gatherings.

Tomato Cottage Cheese Party Molds

Cottage Cheese Layer:
1 envelope unflavored gelatine
1/4 cup cold milk
1/2 cup very hot milk
2 cups cream-style cottage cheese (1 pound)

Softening gelatine in cold milk. Add hot milk and stir until gelatine is dissolved. Blend in cottage cheese; add salt, onion, celery and green pepper. Divide mixture between 12 individual molds and chill until almost firm.

Tomato Aspic Layer:
2 envelopes unflavored gelatine
1 cup cold tomato juice
2 1/2 cups hot tomato juice

Softening gelatine in cold tomato juice. Add hot tomato juice; stir until gelatine is dissolved. Stir in salt, pepper and lemon juice. Chill until consistency of unbeaten egg white. Turn on top of cottage cheese layer in individual molds and chill until firm. Unmold on salad greens. YIELD: 12 servings.

1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 teaspoons grated onion
1 cup finely diced celery
1/2 cup finely diced green pepper
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons lemon juice

century we have just finished. "Another (warm) quarter century like the last one," he says, "cannot be expected before the beginning of the next century, probably not before late in that century."

About rainfall: "This increase already has taken place to some extent in the western United States, and probably also in the Black sea and Caspian sea areas of southern Russia," the professor says. "Lake levels in the western United States probably will reach a first maximum by 1960."

No Dust Bowl Seen
At this point Prof. Willett sandwiches in a little good news: "No possibility of another dust bowl decade in the western United States is suggested before 1970-1980, or more possibly between 2000-2020."

In areas north of 60 degrees—northern Europe, northern Canada, Alaska, northern Siberia, northern Russia—he foresees somewhat less rainfall. Why is all this going to happen? Because, according to Prof. Willett, we are heading for a period of reduced sunspot activity. "The next sunspot maximum will be delayed until at least 1962, possibly longer," he says and explains, "The cold wet periods of glacial advance have coincided roughly with the longer periods of sunspot-inactivity."

You'd like a really long range forecast for, let's say, the next 5,000 years?

Well, Prof. Willett isn't making any. He sees no trend toward the warmth of a true interglacial epoch. He concedes our last half century of weather is just a ripple in the long time tide. Perhaps we are near a cold point. Perhaps we are due for a swing back to much milder climate in a sub-glacial 5,000-year period ahead.

"It is perfectly possible," he says. "But if this is the case, it will require at least another thousand years to establish that fact."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Hope "Cappy" Told Him Where To Get Off!

"Cappy" Fisher—who just retired after thirty-five years as a railroad conductor—was telling about a salesman who was often one of his passengers.

"That man was so busy," says Cappy, "he used to bring a dictaphone on the train to catch up on his letters. On one trip he'd been rushing around so much he clean forgot to bring his ticket. Left it on his desk."

When Cappy started to tell him not to worry about the ticket, the salesman busts out with "Who's worried about the ticket? It's just that now I don't know what city I was going to get off at!"

Cappy might have been pulling our leg, but from where I sit, lots of us get so wrapped up in ourselves we often forget "where we're going." Some folks get so narrow they even begrudge their neighbors the right to enjoy a glass of beer now and then. Let's not forget that just as trains run on steam and oil, democracies run on freedom and tolerance!

Wealth of the Soil...

Greatest wealth of this area is secured in its soil. It represents both present and future security. Every farmer and rancher must look to the fertility of his land as resources to be used with the greatest of care and protected with the same precaution as money.

It is wise to deposit savings in the bank and at the same time make regular deposits "in the soil bank" by modern soil practices. The safest investment in the world is fertile, well cared-for land; the effort and expense involved is repaid many times.

Rail Line Extension Is Sought

Extension of the Quanah, Acme & Pacific rail line from Floydada to Lubbock may soon become a reality. President Chas. H. Summer of St. Louis, Quin Baker, vice-president and general manager, E. L. Anderson, chief engineer and Homer Woodruff, assistant engineer, met last week with officials of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce to discuss the proposed extension.

The project would include extension of the QA&P tracks from Floydada to Lubbock and make possible direct mail connection between Lubbock and Oklahoma City, and St. Louis.

A news article in the Lubbock Avalanche declared both the chamber of commerce officials and Mr. Summer stressed that "many hurdles must be taken" before the railroad extension involving approximately 50 miles of new track, becomes a reality.

"Actually the proposal depends on the surveyors findings and of course, on the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission, after a request for a hearing on the matter has been filed," officials pointed out.

At present the QA&P runs from Quanah to Floydada. From Quanah the line connects with Denton, Texas.—Dehard Anderson Huley of Dallas and John Ben Shepperd of Gladewater received honorary Doctor of Laws degrees at June 3 graduation exercises of North Texas State College. The citation to Huley, gas utility head who is new United States Chamber of Commerce president, pointed out that his "career exemplifies the best ideals of American tradition," etc. Shepperd is Texas Secretary of State. His degree citation stated, "... at the age of 34 you have already reached an eminence which most men who have attained distinction at all never reach until they have started on the downward slope of life..." The St. Louis and San Francisco railroad commonly known as the Frisco line to Oklahoma City and St. Louis. The QA&P gets its western outlet through a link with the Santa Fe tracks in Lockney. The road was built from Quanah to Roaring Springs in 1912 and service began June 19, 1913. The line was extended to Floydada in 1928. Possibility of the extension into Lubbock has been discussed since 1925.

IN MEMORIAM

By Mrs. C. P. Waybourn

On Wednesday morning, June 6, 1951 the curtain was drawn and Mrs. J. B. Garrison answered the summons to join her loved ones in that heavenly home beyond.

She closed her eyes in sleep that knows no mortal waking. She left the scenes where human hearts are aching. The memory of her friendly smile and faithfulness will linger on, as she left the footprints of her life glowing.

The world is richer by the seeds her life was sowing. She was a beloved member of the First Baptist Church, though her health for several years had not permitted her to be an active member in the church that she loved.

From St. John, Chapter 14:1-2,3, "Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions. If it were not so, I would have told you; and if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself that where I am, there ye may be also."

To the Church, Sunday School and W. M. U. she was true and always tried to do her part, and her vacant chair will ever be there.

But to those who have hope, why should we mourn in sorrow. We'll meet her yet again on some bright glad tomorrow.

From one who loved her.

BEING A BABY IS HAZARDOUS

"Being a baby is a real hazard in either winter or summer but much can be done to avoid or at least lessen some of these hazards that are associated with hot summer days," declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. Summer is the season in which death from intestinal disorders has in the past exacted its greatest toll.

"To guard the infant against such danger, care must be taken that his food, especially milk is pure and kept safe. If there is any uncertainty concerning the water supply, the baby should drink only water which has been boiled and cooled and kept covered. The baby and all his food must be protected against flies.

"Baby himself and all the things which he comes in contact should be kept as clean as possible. Plenty of fresh air and sunshine are essential for the best health of the infant. The baby's body should be gradually exposed to the direct rays of the sun, begin with exposure of only part of the skin surface for three to five minutes and slowly increase the area of skin and time once or twice daily.

"Care must be taken to keep the baby free from prickly heat by keeping the skin clean and not too warmly dressed or covered. If the baby is comfortable, he will get his usual amount of sleep and will eat and develop normally. In case the child shows symptoms of any abnormal conditions the family physician should be consulted at once."

BUTANE GAS is rapidly becoming popular as tractor fuel in this area of West Texas. The once waste product of refineries is used extensively in farm and ranch homes and in cities where natural gas is not available. As a tractor fuel, butane gas is declared more economical and also saves on motor repair bills. All conventional makes of gasoline-powered farm tractors can be converted to burn butane. Most butane dealers are prepared to install necessary equipment to change from common gasoline to butane. Above photograph shows a Ford tractor equipped to operate with butane.

Miss Jovena Jackson Becomes Bride Of L. M. Lockett In Recent Rites At Eden

Of interest to friends here is the recent marriage of Miss Jovena Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tom Jackson of Eden, formerly of Afton, to the Rev. Luster Marion Lockett, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Vernon Lockett also of Eden.

The couple was married May 30 in the First Methodist church of Eden, with the Rev. Grady Peters, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church in San Angelo officiating. The double ring ceremony was read before an altar arrangement of white and orchid gladioli and jade, and white tapers in branched candelabra. White satin ribbons marked the pews along the center aisle.

Given in marriage by her father, she chose a gown of white satin, designed with fitted bodice and yoke of net which was decorated with white sequins and seed pearls. Small covered buttons extended down the back, and the long sleeves tapered to points over the hands. The skirt extended into a formal train, and the finger-tip length veil of illusion was attached to a coronet of seed pearls.

She carried a white leather Bible topped with an orchid surrounded by orange blossoms and white satin ribbon, and wore the 56-year-old wedding band of her grandmother, Mrs. Lem Guthrie. Miss Amy Lou Wagner of Kerrville was maid of honor. Her gown of lavender taffeta was designed with cape collar, fitted bodice, and ankle-length skirt. She wore matching gloves and bonnet and carried orchid asters.

Bridesmaids were Miss Beverly Peters, San Angelo; Miss Vera Boenig, Beville; Miss Joan Sorrell, Eden; and Mrs. Kenneth Lockett, Eden, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. They wore gowns of orchid dotted swiss over taffeta and carried pink asters. Flower girls were Patricia Ann Green and Patricia Sparks. Their dresses and bonnets matched those worn by the bridesmaids.

Brother Is Attendant

Kenneth Lockett of Eden was his brother's best man, and ushers were Glen Harrington and the Rev. Roy Schieling, both Abilene. Candles were lighted by Phillip Lockett, brother of the bridegroom, and Dale Clich, Eden.

Traditional wedding music was furnished by Miss Barbara Sanduskey of Merkel, who also accompanied Mrs. Grady Peters and Miss Beverly Peters as they sang "Because".

A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's table was laid with a floor-length white net cloth over green taffeta, and was decorated with bands of white satin ribbon, net, and small silver wedding bells. The centerpiece was formed by white carnations and fern flanked with crystal candelabra holding white tapers.

The colonial wedding cake was topped with miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Harold Price and Mrs. Frank Hague presided at the cake. At the punch service was Miss Jane LeFevre. Mrs. Dale Clich secured names for the register. Others in the house party were Mrs. E. L. Carter, Mrs. J. C. Cook, and Mrs. Lloyd Smith.

Wedding Trip

When the couple left on a short wedding trip, the bride was wearing a print silk dress with navy accessories. Her corsage was a purple orchid.

A graduate of Eden High school, Mrs. Lockett attended North Texas State College school of music, Denton, and received her degree this year from Tarleton State College, Stephenville. She plans to continue her study of music at McMurry College, Abilene.

The Rev. Mr. Lockett was graduated from Eden High school, attended Sul Ross State College, Alpine, and has attended McMurry College for the last year. He will continue his work as ministerial student there next year.

Rev. and Mrs. Lockett last week were in Waco to attend the Central Texas Conference of the Methodist church, where he received his first regular appointment to a pastorate, that of the Methodist Church at Novice, Texas.

Relatives Attend

Among the guests at the wedding were several aunts and other relatives of the bride, including Mrs. Lee Guthrie and Corky of Wheeler; Mrs. Lilly Edmondson and Mrs. Lemmie Day, Tipton, Okla.; Mrs. Lamar Guthrie, Erick, Okla.; Mrs. Sally Jackson and Mrs. R. G. Jackson, Afton. Also Mr. and Tom Agnew and Jimmie, Emmett Stewart and Barbara, of Ballinger, and Jimmie Neal of Puerto Rico.

POWER-PACKED -and then some!

THERE are a lot of reasons you can expect a new GMC to keep hauling a lot longer than any other truck you can buy.

First is the fact of horsepower. Whether it's a gasoline-powered 1/2- to 2-tonner with horsepower unbeaten in its class, or one of the new heavy-duty Diesels—you can't beat a GMC for "go".

But the extra value you find in these great trucks doesn't end at the power plant.

Jameson Machinery Co.

Matador, Texas

You'll do better on a used truck with your GMC dealer

There's the smooth GMC Synchron-Mesh Transmission linked to a sharp-shooting drive line, pouring every ounce of power back to the rugged rear axle. And the solid way horsepower becomes wheel-action—you know there's extra depth of truck performance engineered right down through a GMC's broad-shouldered frame!

And standing guard over these long-time trucks are husky brakes with more area than most—the surest, easiest steering ever devised to direct a pay load home—all controlled from a spacious "Six-Footer" Cab that's Weathersealed for a lifetime.

GMC's come in the widest range of engine-body-chassis combinations to fit any trucking need. The prices? No better buy anywhere! Come see for yourself.

PIMA INDIANS ...

the Indian with American (or white man's) customs, deterioration, rather than improvement is noted among Indian war veterans. Typical of this situation is Melvin Hays, the Indian in the trio who raised the American flag on Iwo Jima. Hays, whose home is Sacoaton, has become a drunken derelict, practically shunned by his own race", Mr. Knierim told his audience.

At the conclusion of his interesting discourse, Mr. Knierim conducted a brief question-answer period, in which it was disclosed that the fine Pima broadcloth so popular this season in women's dresses, was named for the Pima Indians, and processed from the long staple cotton grown at the Sacoaton experiment station.

Taught At Folley
Mr. Knierim was accompanied here by his wife and two sons, Willis and Larry, and they were week-end guests in the home of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pohl.

Mr. Knierim and Mrs. Pohl were reared at South Plains and Lockney, and after graduating from High School, he attended and received his degree from West Texas State College, Canyon and New Mexico A. & M. at Las Cruces.

His first school, upon entering the teaching profession, was in the Folley community, and several friends from there attended the service Sunday night. These included Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Nell of Turkey, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Meyer and children, Reba Jean and Edward, now of Mason. Other former friends who also heard his talk, were Mrs. M. L. Bowman of Lockney and Mrs. W. E. Brown of Roaring Springs.

They are good. Their tactics are not entirely modern but they are effective.

He saw such Russian-made war materials, including "Burr" guns and hand grenades. He admires the qualities of the United Nations allies, especially the French, British and Greek soldiers. They are courageous, well trained and never let down when the going is rough.

Hammersley left the West Coast, August 15, 1950, and returned to San Francisco, May 25 at exactly 11:15 a. m. He was looking at his watch when the boat tied up, and he was looking at the beautiful soil of the United States. He is visiting his sister, Mrs. Jack Green in Matador. He is going back to Plainview to spend a week with his mother, Mrs. G. S. Colley. He is ordered to report back for duty July 5th on the east coast; the veteran Marine, age 20.

Social Security Tax Is Compulsory For Self-Employed

Old-age and survivors insurance is not optional for self-employed persons, John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock Social Security office, pointed out yesterday.

Mr. Hutton said there had been some misunderstanding regarding persons working for themselves in their own trade or business, or as partners in such enterprises.

"If you are self-employed and derive as much as $400 in net profit from your business or business in any taxable year after Dec. 31, 1950, your Social Security coverage is compulsory by law," Mr. Hutton said.

He also pointed out that the only exceptions are income derived from practice as a physician, lawyer, dentist, osteopath, chiropractor, optometrist, naturopath, veterinarian, architect CPA licensed, registered or full time practicing public accountant, Christian Science practitioner, professional engineer or funeral director.

Self-employed persons do not report themselves with the employees. This income must be reported annually on income-tax form 1040 Schedule C, especially revised for this purpose. The first such report is due March 15, 1952, covering self-employment income for the taxable year 1951.

Payable along with the report is self-employment Social Security tax. This tax is 2 1/2 per cent of the first $3,600 net business profit. For business partners, the tax is levied on the first $3,600 of the distributive share of the partnership net profits, whether or not the profits are distributed.

In these days of uncertainties the only things you can count on are your fingers.

Anyway, a man can still light a cigar without first offering one to a lady.

Our greatest trouble today is that our neighbors are always buying something we can't afford.
