Evangelist Tells Lions

"Hope Of World Rests On Church Influence"

"MAN IS THE QUESTION MARK. If he elects to go God's way, the world stands today at the portal of the most marvelous age in creation. If he chooses to turn away from God, civilization and the free nations of the earth will perish." The speaker was Dr. Ray Neil Johnson, D. D. Methodist evangelist and his audience was members of the Matador Lions club in regular luncheon meeting Tuesday in the basement of the Methodist Church.

Dr. Johnson who currently is holding a revival here, spoke with eloquence and impressed his listeners with wisdom of his words. His address was brief and dynamic.

"Don't sell the Church short," he said, "for with it rests the hope of the world. I am not speaking of the Methodist Church but all churches for basically they are the same.

"Nations built with the power of God, stand," Dr. Johnson said, "and these against God always fall. Where are the two great dictators, Hitler and Mussolini, who, a few short years ago said they would dominate the world, and that there was no God, but force? History is replete with the fall of Godless tyrants."

"Little Red", the Matador Mavericks and grade school district champs, continued their winning streak last Thursday night by beating Crosbyton's grade school team 22-12.

The Crosbyton game was the Mavericks' second home game and their first game after winning the district championship title from Turkey. A host of Matador fans flocked to see the undefeated MGS team perform.

Loyd Martin led the Mavericks scoring with two touchdowns. The other touchdown was the work of Mike Barton.

Break-In Thieves Hit Here

THIEVES entered two Matador business firms some time Monday night or early Tuesday and took more than $100 in currency and small change.

Matador Motor & Implement Co. was entered and robbed of $29.20 and Matador Parts Co. was entered and lost about $75.

Both businesses were entered from a rear door, pried open with a large screw driver or similar instrument. Nothing but money was taken from either firm, so far as could be determined.

The cash register at the Matador Motor & Implement Co. was placed on the floor and the cash drawer pried open, damaging the register.

The thieves punched a $60.74 "Charge" sale on the cash register at Matador Parts Co. to open the cash drawer. They used a pair of greasy cloth gloves after they entered the parts store.

Sheriff Jinks Wilson and Texas Ranger J. P. Lynch and Deputy Jody Graham investigated the breakins. No arrests had been made in connection with the case up to yesterday afternoon.

Matadors Take First '58 Conference Tilt

By Johnny Ezzell

THE MATADORS are back in business again. They left the Estelline Cubs up a tree and hanging to a 42-0 defeat Friday night. It was the Matadors' first 1958 district. Gerald Pipkin led in the touchdown department with two and passing for a third. Sherill Rigsby also scored twice for the Matadors.

Pipkin opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 7-yard run, then ran the extra points over.

The Matadors scored their second touchdown early in the second quarter on a spectacular 89-yard pass play. Pipkin faded back and finding End Bobby Cross all alone in the right flat, threw him a perfect strike and then watched Cross go all the way untouched.

Fullback Guy Campbell went 31 yards for the third score. Pipkin passed to Cross for the extra points, and a Matador lead of 22-0 at halftime.

The Matadors crossed the goal line twice in the third period. Pipkin scored first on a 1-yard dive, then Rigsby scored on a 50-yard run. No extra points were made after either touchdown.

In the fourth quarter Rigsby went two yards for the final score of the night. Douglas Wilson passed to Lewis Fair for the extra points.

Pipkin was outstanding on defense as well as offense. Standouts for Estelline in its losing effort.

CROP Donations Will Aid Needy

By Rev. L. W. Tucker
In the shrinking world of today, the problems of people in other lands become our own. When disaster strikes and human beings are uprooted, the problems of food, clothing and shelter become urgent.

CROP, the Christian Rural Overseas Program, makes it possible for you to help these needy people. The young people of this community will be coming to your door on Sunday evening of this week asking for a contribution to CROP and the billion and a half people overseas who do not have enough to eat.

A dollar can pay for distributing over 300 pounds of government surplus food. When your doorbell rings and you see the official CROP identification tag, give gladly and generously. Give through CROP, the relief program of our churches, the Christian Rural Overseas Program. You will be glad you helped.

Help the young people of our community in this fine piece of service. Leave your porch light on or place a candle in your window between 8 and 9 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 26th. Our young people will be by to pick up your contribution.

The meeting was opened by singing the district song, "Follow The Gleam," led by Mrs. Wilson Barton.

An outline of the programs for the coming year was presented by the year book committee and reports were heard from the different clubs.

The nominating committee submitted the following names for election of officers for 1959: Chairman, Mrs. Bob Martin; vice chairman, Mrs. Sam Ross; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. G. E. Hamilton. These were elected to the respective offices.

COUNTY AGENT WILLMEYER SAYS:

DEFOLIATION

Following information received from the chemical defoliation of cotton, the following information should be noted: The chemical defoliation of cotton has just been received from the College Station, and should be applied to the previous article on this subject.

It was stated that the defoliant would not kill the cotton plant, but would kill the cotton bolls and arsenic acid would be applied with diesel oil. The information received from the Experiment Stations of the U. S. Department of Agriculture has proven that neither the defoliant nor the arsenic acid is a true killer, but may act as a defoliant when weather conditions are favorable.

The farmer wishes to kill the cotton bolls, and 2 1/2 D has to be added to the mixture at the rate of 1 lb. per acre in addition to the 2 1/2 D. If 2 1/2 D is used, there should not be more than 1 lb. of 2 1/2 D per acre. The defoliant should not be applied to spray cotton with arsenic acid. If a low volatile solution of 2 1/2 D is used, the drift should be reduced.

When 2 1/2 D is used, it should be applied at the rate of 2 quarts per acre. Apply 2 1/2 D after the defoliant. When arsenic acid is used, it should be applied at the rate of 1 qt. per acre. The higher the percentage of arsenic acid, the better the defoliant, and the grade, as soft water will not mature after the defoliant is applied. Cotton bolls that were open when 60% of the defoliant was applied, but better bolls were obtained when 80% of the defoliant was open or hard.

Homemaker's Hints

Your agent spent a majority of the past week organizing 4-H Clubs in the three schools in the county. This year the boys and girls have separate clubs in order that both their interests might be covered more completely.

Two clubs were organized in the Roaring Springs schools, one club in high school of which Rheta Watson is president and one in grade school of which Sandra Williams is president. One in grade school of which Sandra Williams is president.

Two clubs were organized in the Flomot schools. Jean Green is president of the grade school club and Sheila Degau is president of the high school club.

Matador High School Club elected Geney Spray as their president. The 7th and 8th grades elected Cheryl Stegall as their president, while the 4th, 5th, and 6th grades elected Linda Sue Havins as president.

Most of these girls were chiefly interested in foods and clothing. These are the two main programs which we will carry this year with special interest groups in Frozen Foods, Dairy Foods, Recreation, Safety, Bedroom Improvement, Homestead Improvement, Public Speaking, and Recreation, Shrub Identification and Entomology.

Before you store your summer shoes see that they are polished. This polishing helps preserve the leather as most shoe polish contains some oil to keep the leather soft. Replace rubber or leather heelcaps as soon as they are worn down or run over — your shoes will last longer and look better.

The first requisite of storing summer clothing is thorough cleaning to free it of any substance upon which silverfish, ants, and roaches feed.

Washed garments, such as cotton or linen, should be free of starch and left unironed after washing. Thorough brushing, airing and sunning are also important.

If clothes are packed in a trunk or large wooden box, glue a list of the contents inside of the lid. This may save hours of searching for a needed article.

Blasingame Writes Book on Matador Ranch in Dakota

DAKOTA COWBOY. My Life in the Old Days, by Ike Blasingame, with line drawings by John Marian; G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York, $5.

Texas people in particular should enjoy this book. Blasingame was born in Ellis County, and his on-the-spot description of the Matador Ranch's operations while grazing cattle in the Dakotas, and for a time in Canada, approximately 50 years ago, is immensely interesting.

The Matador Land and Cattle Company, with its American headquarters at Matador, in Motley County, Texas, was owned by a syndicate that had its home office in Scotland. It vied with the huge and equally well known King Ranch in South Texas for the honor of being Texas' biggest beef cattle ranch — each had around 1,000,000 acres of land.

The Matador Land and Cattle Company sold its Texas land and cattle holdings in a few years ago to a group of people. Its sale broke up one of Texas' most colorful cattle operations.

A number of books have been written about trail driving and the grazing of cattle in the Northwest. Blasingame has written specifically about cattle ranching in that area. Practically all the cattle came from the range lands in the Southwest and went by trainloads to unloading points in the Northwest.

It gets tiresome to search for food, more so when very little is thrown away. This youngster in Pakistan comes from a family which lost this year's harvest in the floods. He whistles away his time in between begging from passers-by by toying with rocks and empty cans. The 1958 CROP appeal is held to send food to him and many others like him all over the world.

He calls the names of a number of men with whom he worked today — particularly Murdo MacKenzie, who played a major role in developing and managing the big land and cattle spread. He was followed as manager by his son, John MacKenzie, until he died a few years before the ranch was broken up.

It may be news to some present-day cattlemen to learn that Murdo MacKenzie had another son, David G., generally called "Dude," who was active in the company's cattle operations in the Northwest. He is described as friendly and likeable, despite his weakness for drink. He was shot in December, 1909, while in the Phil Du Fran saloon in Le Beau, S. D. Bud Stephens, the killer, claimed self-defense for firing three bullets into a man who had befriended him many times.

Blasingame, who served as one of the top hands for the Matador outfit in the Northwest, had an observing eye and a retentive memory. He rode the "rough string" of horses — the meanest and most vicious buckers.

In "Dakota Cowboy," he has revealed in a most realistic way the loneliness, the privations and hardships, which varied from rainstorms that stampeded the cattle to winter storms that sent the thermometer plunging well below the zero mark, where it stayed for weeks. During the severe, cold winters thousands of cattle died, as well as some men.

On the brighter side, there were the thrills and excitement of seeing a job well done; and there were occasional trips to town, and dances, that included Indian girls, whom the author describes as being pretty. It seems every cow outfit has its pranksters — usually they work in pairs, and what they can't dream up is almost unthinkable. Some of their pranks often flirt with near tragedy. The Matador outfit was no exception, as Blasingame reveals. — Frank Reeves.

The popular F-100 pickup is one of 371 Ford truck models available in 1959. Dual headlights and a new Ford nameplate on the hood are standard features on the pickup models. With the 223 cubic inch six-cylinder engine — the most modern "six" in the industry — Ford offers greater economy in the high speed or increased load range. The pickup is available with either this Styleside body, which Ford pioneered with the 1957 models, or the Flareside body.

PATTON SPRINGS Community and SCHOOL NEWS

There are 17 pupils enrolled in Patton Springs fourth grade this year, with a predominance of boys. Mrs. Algio Groves is the teacher. The roll includes Ernest Balderama, Eddie Kimmel, George Dela Cruz, James Morris, Billy Perryman, Bruce Pierce, Kenneth Porter, Joe Slaton, Bobby Smallwood, Mike Haney, Mike Conaway, and a new boy who enrolled this week, Raul Padillo, and the following girls: Beverly Bridge, Judy Hale, Alma Hickman, Cherrie Hughes, Dolores McCarty, and Barbara Mohler.

This group has been studying about the three parts of the earth — liquids, gaseous, and solid. Carbon dioxide has been made by combining vinegar and soda. Other experiments proved that air has pressure.

A remedial reading class has been organized to help pupils needing review in this most important phase of school work.

Ray Bateman, 1958 graduate of Patton Springs High School joined the Armed Forces September 25th. He was sent by plane to the Reception Center at Colorado Springs, Colo., and then transferred to Fort Camp Hood for his basic training. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bateman Sr. of Afton.

Mr. and Mrs. Tice Pendergrass and son, Jerry of Blackfoot, Idaho have been visiting this week with their kinsmen at Afton. Mrs. Pendergrass is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Day and the sister of Mrs. Ray Bateman Sr., both of Afton. Friends will remember her as the former Jewel Day, who graduated from the Afton school in 1935.

LUNCH ROOM PROGRAM IS WELL ORGANIZED

The Patton Springs lunch room service is well organized and well supervised by Mrs. Ola Stokes of Afton. She has been in charge of this program for a number of years and has proved many times that good, hot meals for school children have contributed much to their health and general welfare.

The assistants in this department are Mrs. Doyle Cagle, Mrs. Marion Thomas and Mrs. E. A. Works.

The local food purchases are supplemented at different seasons of the year by issues from the Federal Government. The extra issues so far this year have been such items as flour, turkeys, and butter. Berries are expected on the list very soon.

Wholesome, balanced meals are served every school day at the nominal prices of 25c for students; 40c for teachers, and 50c for visitors.

JUNIOR RANGERS HOLD CONE 6-14

Coach Peyton Legg's fast improving Junior Rangers were able to prove their football development this past week for the second time against the Cone Juniors. Patton Springs lost a previous game to this group by a score of 38-8.

The big Cone Juniors backed the Pee Wee Rangers up to the goal line several times but were able to push the ball across only twice. Both teams did excellent work on the defense. Don Morris broke through for the lone touchdown for Patton Springs. The game ended 14-6 in favor of Cone.

Another game has been scheduled with Coach Wayne Ogle's Cone Juniors at Patton Springs, Oct. 21, at 7 P. M.

Players Receive Football Credit

Each week end the average football fan along the side-lines sees only the fast runs, the long passes, the player who scores, or the runner who crosses over to gain the conversion. Many good players go in and out of the game unnoticed and unsung. Recognition and praise is here given to some of the most consistent, loyal, and faithful Ranger regulars and reserves on the Patton Springs football squad.

Tommy Green has proved his generalship at the quarterback position. His ability to call the plays with good judgment and to pass the ball with speed and accuracy has won him many playing minutes in the present season's games.

Billy Goodwin has done yeoman service at the end position. His knowledge and experience has been very helpful in both the defensive and offensive work of the Rangers. This is Bill's last season with Patton Springs. Realizing this, he has given his best efforts to every moment of playing time in the game this year.

Max Legg is playing a good, consistent brand of football at the center position. He has been a power in the center of the line in every game. Since this is his last season with the Rangers, Max is really putting out all he has to win the district.

Rodney Randolph plays a strong, steady type of football. He can always be depended upon to do his part in every game. Being a senior, he wants to use up all of the football power he has before the final whistle blows in 1958. He is very loyal and faithful.

Hope of World . . .

Where are the nations built away from God?
Dr. Johnson, who is a veteran of World War II, said: "Another war will destroy the world, for war is hell. The church is the only way out. I ask you to give the church a chance. Consider (1) its make-up, (2) its message and (3) its mission. I know the criticism of the average man who does not go to church. He does not subscribe to the church because so many hypocrites are members."
Some Break Vows
"I am aware," he said, "that people break their vows, in the church and out, but other people keep their vows. The church is great and strong because of the people who keep their vows. It has been said that the church is made up of sinners who have been saved by grace. . . . the church is the spirit by which men know God."
Dr. Johnson was introduced by Lion Rev. L. W. Tucker, Methodist pastor here.
Visitors introduced included Mrs. Helen Hurst of Childress, Texas Ranger J. P. Lynch of Memphis and Patrolman Jim Young of Paducah.
Boss Lion Curtis Graham announced that the Matador Matadors football squad would be guests of the Lions at the next luncheon, Nov. 4.
Lion T. B. Edmondson was presented with a 25-year perfect attendance emblem. He has been a member of the club for 29 years.
