Patton Rangers are Bi-District Champs

Playing in the big, new Brownfield stadium with excellent fan turn-outs from both communities, the Patton Springs Mighty Rangers upset the fond hopes of the Wellman Wildcats Saturday night in the race for bi-district championship of the 2-B and 1-B eight-man football conferences.

Both teams were primed to the hilt for this very decisive game, but the Rangers out-ran and out-fought the Wildcats to close the book on the championship 44 to 22.

Patton Springs will now be shooting for the regional championship against Gail High School (Borden County) on the Thanksgiving holiday week-end. The game is set for Friday night, Nov. 28, at 7:30 in the Jayton stadium at Jayton.

A pep rally will be staged by the Patton Springs pep squad tonight (Thursday) at

Wife and 11 Children Witness Man's Suicide

BLIZZARD WHIPS PANHANDLE AREA

The second great winter storm of the season struck this area Tuesday night and again caused the mercury to plummet to lower levels. The low here early yesterday morning was reported by the city wells official thermometer at being 25 degrees.

Lower temperatures forecast for last night, were expected to drop to 10 degrees in the Panhandle. Freezing rain and sleet were forecast for today.

The storm was accompanied by high winds when it struck Denver, with a velocity of 100 mph being recorded. No moisture accompanied the mass of cold air when it reached this area.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Curtis Graham returned home Monday after an absence of several weeks, during which she was hospitalized for two weeks in Baylor Hospital, Dallas. Afterward, she visited her mother, Mrs. M. H. Reynolds at Carrollton, until Saturday, when her son, William Curtis Graham brought her to his home at Sweetwater. Mr. Graham visited there during the week end and accompanied his wife home. Mrs. Graham is much improved and received an encouraging report on her heart condition, from the doctors.

Tragedy Leaves Family Helpless

A SINGLE SHOT from a .32 automatic pistol Saturday afternoon left 13 children orphans and the wife of a Mexican cotton-picker, a widow, Candelario Naranjo, 33, formerly from Alice, Texas, died instantly when the gun blasted a hole through his head before his horrified wife and children.

Mrs. Naranjo and 11 of their 13 children witnessed the tragedy in the one room apartment at Brinsfield Court, near the western edge of Matador.

Deputy Sheriff Jody Graham who investigated the shooting with Sheriff Jinks Wilson, said Naranjo was in a pool of blood when they arrived. Powder burns were evident on the young Mexican's temple.

The body was brought to Eudy-Seale Funeral Home and later transported overland to Alice, Texas.

Officers theorized that Naranjo might have been "bluffing" when his finger pressed the trigger that caused the fatal shot. Evidence indicated that the gun had been fired only one time.

The 11 children range in ages from 15 years down to a small baby. Neither the mother nor any of the children are able to drive an automobile.

The family had picked cotton for Charlie Keith and Buck Waybourn earlier in the season.

Gin Wages Costly Fight With Smoke

SMOKE is a costly problem to plants operating in the growing areas during the approximate 100-day ginning. West Texas Gin here has spent approximately $4,000 attempting to control smoke and dust of its plant in the area, and still it is the target for complaints. Smoke from cotton burs at Matador's solitary plant is extremely compared with the multi-gin communities of the Plains which remain in a blanket of smoke and dust most of the ginning season.

Problem here will be discussed by Rex Sullivan, general manager of the Quana Cotton Company, owner of the West Texas Gin said last week that he will meet with the city council next week to answer complaints of the smoke and dust.

He did not locate the gin here, Mr. Sullivan said, "or have attempted to find where the smoke and dust would offend fewer people. It like dust and smoke, have tried to combat it as best as possible."

Present Bill Dea of construction superintendent for the company, is constructing a dust and smoke control system on the north side of the plant to further combat the offensive dust and

Mr. Dea has constructed during the past summer, a modern brick burr burner for the plant (former Farmers Co-op) in Hackberry Branch of Ballard Creek. The burr burner is designed to create an explosion to prevent the plant from being so smoky as to be prohibitive unless it is moved to an area where cotton from the small burr now served by Matador's restrictions and back curtains have Matador's former three burr burners to the one plant.

Mr. Dea said Texas Gin has had a burr burner since 1915. The burr burner was converted into a burr burner for Mexican cotton after acquisition of the plant.

Smoke and lint problem here apparently is less than in previous years when the burr burner was operated here. Brush is located where formerly there was lint as to appear to be snow. Although the present burr burner is one of the best in the industry, the trees and

Community Unites in Thanksgiving Observance

Sovereignty of God Acknowledged by Pilgrims

"As a man lifts his heart to God in Thanksgiving, he receives power for the way he must go," Rev. L. W. Tucker, pastor of the Methodist Church told the congregation gathered for the Thanksgiving observance Wednesday night at the First Baptist Church for community Thanksgiving services.

"The people at Plymouth recognized the sovereignty of God. There was no question for them that spiritual value was supreme," he declared. "A Right Way for Us," Rev. Tucker read from the Scriptures, Ezra 8:21, in part.

"And there at the river, by Ahava, I proclaimed a fast, that we might humble ourselves before our God, and seek of him a right way for us, and for our children . . ."

In presenting the elements which caused the early settlers to proclaim a day of thanksgiving, Rev. Tucker emphasized three thoughts: They recognized the sovereignty of God; they were adaptable, ingenious, imaginative folks; and they maintained an unbreakable bond between religious faith and personal life. And in closing he admonished, "Do it in your own way, of course. But let something of the grandeur and the simplicity of the immortal Thanksgiving spirit be in your hearts and radiate in your home — 'Give God thanks for his goodness — for His wonderful gift to the children of men.'"

Total Loss $190

INSURANCE may replace your home, business or valuables but it can't replace you, in event of fire. Johnny Roach, representative of A&M College, Thursday evening told a small group meeting at the Legion building under the auspices of the Matador Volunteer Fire Department.

Whitworth Named President

Cemetery Group Cites Fund Crisis

Matador's City of the Dead, East Mound Cemetery, is again faced with its perpetual problem of securing adequate funds to pay for maintenance. Possibility of additional means of financing the cemetery needs was the principal item of discussion Monday afternoon at a meeting of the East Mound Cemetery Association held in the Legion building.

J. R. Whitworth, cashier of the First State Bank was elected president after a report of the nominating committee. Elbert Reeves served as chairman in the absence of former president Marvin Patton.

Other officials unanimously selected to serve for the next year are: 1st vice-president, Elbert Reeves; 2nd vice-president, Bill Seale; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. John Russell and assistant, Mrs. R. E. Donovan, and the following directors: Forrest Campbell, Ed Lee, Bill Wason, Leon Smallwood, Howard Tra-week, Douglas Meador, Clyde Gilbert, Mrs. Wade Berryman, Mrs. D. I. W. Birnie, Mrs. Manley Thompson, Mrs. Freeman Thacker, Mrs. Fred Simpson, Mrs. J. L. Woodruff and Mrs. D. P. Keith.

Sexton E. B. Chambliss was praised for the efficient service he has rendered the cemetery. (Continued on back page)

Many Explosives

Many items commonly used around the home are explosive. Flour or corn starch can cause an explosion when brought into contact with heat when in dust form. Fly sprays, household sprays, spray hair nets, and cleaning fluids are among the dangers.

Smoking in bed causes many deaths from fire, Roach said. He demonstrated through a miniature home how easy it is to start a fire by over-loaded electrical circuits. He cited the need of fuses or breaker switches and said the placing of a penny behind a burned-out fuse may easily cause the loss of a home — or life.

Refreshments of coffee and cookies were served during intermission to approximately 25 attending the meeting.

BOB STANLEY HOME

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. (Bob) Stanley returned home Tuesday from Lubbock, and he will rest at his home here for a week before returning to Methodist Hospital for final surgery in a series of operations.

LETTERS TO SANTA ARE WRITTEN EARLY

Letters to Santa Claus are being written early this year by the young fry. First letter received by the Tribune, to be forwarded to the North Pole for Santa, was from Cindy Whitley, 6 years old, but the contents will have to remain a secret. For Santa's convenience however, Cindy filled in a mail order blank, listing the items she wished him to bring. Perhaps Santa will be able to decipher it. Other letters received include the following:

Dear Santa Claus:

I am a little girl 5 years old and I have a sister, named Lonella who is 3 1/2 years old. We've been real good little girls most of the time. I wanted to write you early so you'd have plenty of time to get what we want for Christmas. I would like a baby doll with no hair, a buggy and a doll sink. Lonella wants a Tiny Tears doll and a tricycle. I have a brother 9 1/2 years old and he wants a big holster set. Don't forget mother, daddy and my big brother, Truman, and all other boys and girls everywhere. We'll be waiting for you to come. We love you, and thank you.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Campbell to Observe Golden Anniversary Sunday at Floydada

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Campbell, Rt. 4, Floydada, are invited to attend open house on Sunday, November 30, from 2 to 5 p. m. in their home in observance of their Golden Wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell are former Motley County residents, having lived in the Darden Canyon community and also in Roaring Springs for a number of years. Their first home in the county was on the H. H. Campbell ranch, where they lived for six years.

They came here in 1914 from Coleman County, where they were married on Nov. 28, 1908. Although both were born in Coleman County and grew up in neighboring communities, they did not become acquainted until shortly before their marriage. Mrs. Campbell was before her marriage, the former Laura Scott. Mr. Campbell was born June 21, 1890, and his wife on Nov. 20, 1891.

Economic conditions of the country caused them to leave their native county, and they came here to accept a place with Mr. Campbell's cousin, Harry Campbell on the ranch. Later, they rented a place at Darden Canyon.

"We are so happy we came to this area," Mrs. Campbell declared. "When we return to Santa Anna for a visit, we are always so glad to get back home. Living conditions are so much better here."

In 1945 Mr. Campbell bought an irrigated farm about five miles northwest of Floydada, where they have since resided.

Their children are David, who is operating the farm for his father, Maurice, who also lives on the Plains, and Sarah, Mrs. T. R. Hunter, who lives in Floydada. The Campbells have six grandchildren, one granddaughter and five grandsons.

Medical Schools Do Not Require Straight A Record

(Special, Lubbock) — You don't have to be an 'A' student to get into medical school, more than thirty area high schoolers were told during Texas Tech's first annual Pre-Med Day.

Making the statement was Warren G. Harding, who oversees admissions and registration at the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston.

"Only sixteen per cent of those admitted to med schools have 'A' records," Harding said at the opening session in the Tech Union. "Sixty per cent have 'B' averages and fourteen per cent have 'C' averages."

"The thing that puts you high on the admissions list is being well rounded," Harding pointed out. "Of course, you need to have good grades in science, but that alone isn't enough in competition for medical school entrance."

"We figure doctors should have well-rounded educations and that the time to train toward that end is in college, not at med school."

Home Ec Students Make New Curtains

All three classes of Home Ec students have finished making brown curtains which now hang in the Home Ec room.

Each class spent a week measuring, cutting, pressing, sewing and pleating the curtains. This work was done in an assembly line fashion, each class taking up where the last left off. In this way the curtains were assembled rapidly and were hanging for Homecoming.

The curtains are made of brown textured material with a gold stripe, and tan lining to match pale yellow walls and brown furniture in the home ec room.

Wellman Wildcats Crushed By Mighty Rangers, 44-22

The first action of the game Saturday at Brownfield counted for the Patton Springs Mighty Rangers when they downed the Wellman Wildcats behind their goal line for a safety and 2 points. The play snowballed to a 44-22 victory for the Rangers and the Bi-district crown.

Patton Springs took the 2nd kick-off and suddenly discovered a great amount of Wildcat opposition. Resorting to passes, they finally got off a touchdown pass that was brought back on a penalty charge. No further gains were made against the fighting Wildcats and the ball changed hands.

Wildcat Don Pinson took the ball on his own 30-yard line and swiftly moved it 10 yards to the middle of the field for a first down. On the next play, he charged through the Ranger line 40 yards and racked up the first touchdown of the game. The conversion failed, with 4:25 minutes to play in the 1st quarter, and Wellman leading 6 to 2.

Within the last two minutes of the 1st quarter, Ranger Ronnie Ragland took the ball in the shadow of his own goal line and raced through the Wildcats for 35 yards before he was downed. On the next play, he forced-charging Harold Goodwin held his way through the Wildcat line and ran 45 yards for the first Patton Springs touchdown. No conversion followed and the score read 8 to 6 in favor of the Rangers as the 1st quarter closed.

Ranger Machine Works
The sparring Rangers had found themselves by the beginning of the 2nd quarter and the tide of the battle really began to change. Max Legg, Jerry Tarrant and Larry Clay stopped up the holes in the line and the Wildcats quit sifting through, while Billy Goodwin and Tommy Lawson smothered the Wellman end-runs.

In rapid-fire order Harold Goodwin carried the ball 35 yards to the Wildcat 3 yard line, where Ronnie Mullins rammed it over for the 2nd Ranger pay-off and also converted for the extra points.

Wellman rallied momentarily when Jimmy Goza took the ball on his own 17 yard line and raced 63 yards for a touchdown that was nullified by a penalty on the play against the Wildcats. A series of thrilling plays set in motion by Billy Goodwin and Harold Goodwin, netted three more touchdowns which brought the score up to a 32-6 lead by the Rangers as the half closed.

H. Goodwin Thrills Crowd
The 3rd quarter opened in a flash. Ranger Harold Goodwin received the ball on his 10 yard line and dashed 70 yards through the clashing Wildcats for Patton's 5th touchdown. Extra points were nullified.

Eight minutes before the end of the quarter, the Rangers set in motion a series of runs by Ragland, Blasingame, H. Goodwin, and Ronnie Mullins that placed the ball in scoring position on the Wildcat 10-yard line. End Tommy Lawson was given the chance to perfect the cross-around right end for the final Ranger score. Extra points effort failed, and the score read 44 to 6.

Coach Marshall began to move in some of his Ranger Reserves three minutes before the 3rd quarter ended. Wellman quickly took advantage of this action and moved for a pay-off. J. L. Pinson carried for 30 yards while Jimmy Goza lost no time in getting the ball on pay soil and in securing the extra points. The quarter ended in a deadlock in midfield with the score 44-14.

Wellman Scores Last
Shortly after Wellman received the ball in the 4th quarter, Wildcat Don Pinson demonstrated his speed again by lacing through the Ranger defense for another 40 yard run-touchdown.

The Wildcat backfield faked a field goal that changed into a pass over the goal line for the extra points.

This closed out the scoring for both sides with a 2 to 1 score ratio for Patton Springs, 44 to 22.

In the last minutes of play, both teams were able to make several first downs, but the final whistle found the ball near the center of the field with neither team threatening to score.

Bi-District Championship is First for Patton Springs School Since Organized

Vo-Ag Boys Tour Plants at Lubbock
Three Roaring Springs vocational agriculture classes, accompanied by their teacher, Bill Peacock made a trip to Lubbock on Friday, Nov. 7, where they visited several industrial plants.

The trip included a guided tour through the Plains Cooperative Cottonseed Mill, where the boys saw the processing of cottonseed and the enormous output involved. The next stop was at the Purina Feed Mill, where the group observed the mixing of over two hundred different formulas of livestock and poultry feeds.

The Lewter Feed lots was the third stopping point and the most interesting, as agreed upon by most of the boys. There the feeding operations involving some 15 thousand feeder cattle were observed.

Last stop was at the Lubbock F. F. A. farm which is the project farm where many of the city boys of Lubbock feed their livestock and poultry projects. To complete the evening in grand style, the group enjoyed several hours of roller skating at the Fair Park Skating Rink.

The trip was enjoyed by everyone and proved to be very educational and entertaining.

COUNTY AGENT PALLMEYER SAYS:

4-H MEMBERS STUDY RAT CONTROL

Subject of the 4-H Club meetings for November was rat control. All seven boys clubs were given instructions on how to combat the rats that are taking over the county, both city and farms. The great increase is credited to the amount of feed produced, and the lack of local floods to help keep the number down.

The State Game & Fish Commission is assisting in the rat control program, and the use of anti-coagulants is recommended, as it takes from two to three days for the rat to die after eating the poison. By using this type of poison, practically all of the rats in an area where the bait is distributed will have eaten a good bait of the poison before they realize that something is wrong by the presence of other dead rats, thereby insuring the distributor of the poison a good kill. The internal bleeding amounts to the rats drying up on the bone, and the usual odor of the dead rat is eliminated.

On an average, each rat costs the owner of the place $20.00, and the total rat bill for the US is $1,000,000,000. Fires, feed damage, vandalism and gnawing are only minor damage as compared to the losses due to diseases spread by rats. More deaths have resulted by disease spread by rats than in all of the wars combined, and at present it is suspected that the Lepto among range cattle in Motley County has been spread by rats who have contaminated feed and water.

Each pair of rats produce about 50 young each year, and their children, grand children and great grandchildren also produce young during the same year, thereby the explanation for the rapid growth of the rodents. For a successful program, all must work for the eradication of the rodents, as they will move from infested areas to areas that have been cleaned up. For further information on the program, contact your local County agent.

Postmaster Urges Early Mailing Of Christmas Gifts

Postmaster E. F. Springer, said this week: "Christmas may seem quite a way off, but nevertheless we're starting our annual Mail Early For Christmas campaign immediately, because there's every indication that the 1958 Christmas season will set an all time mailing record."

He said that right now is the time to plan Christmas card and gift mailings. The first thing to do is check Christmas card lists very carefully — making sure that each address, particularly on mail to larger cities, includes full name, street and number, city, zone and state.

Springer said that by a little advance planning, a lot of headaches can be avoided when the Christmas rush is on. He suggests a good stock of heavy wrapping paper, sturdy corrugated cartons, strong cord, and paper adhesive tape, for use in securely packing and wrapping Christmas gifts. You can include your Christmas card or letter

Be sure to use only first class four cent, or seven cent Air Mail postage on Christmas cards. All cards sent by first class mail may include a personal hand written message, whereas a signature only is authorized on cards that are mailed at the three cent, third class rate.

It's especially important to include a return address on every Christmas card envelope. Besides being socially correct, this is a big help to both you and your friends in keeping your mailing lists up-to-date.

Through the fine cooperation of the public during recent years, Postmaster Springer says that great progress has been made in getting the Christmas mails through on time.

Christmas cards and gifts for most distant points should be mailed first, preferably well before December 10th, and those for nearby points should be mailed by December 15th, or at least a week before Christmas.

Funeral Attended By Area Residents

Services were held at 2 p. m. in Southside Baptist Church, and burial was in the Lynn Creek Cemetery near South Antelope by the side of her husband, who died in 1923. Mrs. Jones had been a resident of Wichita Falls for over 20 years. She was born Paralee Garrison, and a native Texan.

She is survived by two sons, Ray and Billy Jones both of Wichita Falls, two daughters, Mrs. G. U. Baker of Wichita Falls, and Mrs. Glenn McCalister of Duncan, Okla., 4 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Ernest Fisher and Mrs. F. S. Bourland of Flomot, and Mrs. R. A. Four big reasons why FORD IS OUTSELLING ALL OTHER '59 CARS

AT THE BRUSSELS WORLD'S FAIR, the '59 Ford was awarded the Gold Medal for handsome new styling elegance by the Comité Français de l'Elegance.

ANYONE CAN FIT IN A FORD: Our cars are built for people—full-size people who want space to stretch out. And all passengers ride in deep-cushion comfort.

YOU'LL BE THANKFUL EVERY THANKFUL if you buy the new Ford, for you'll save up to a dollar a tankful with new engines that run superbly on regular gas.

THE FAMOUS FORD LOW PRICES have already taken a big hit, because only in Ford will you find value and beauty coming together at down-to-earth prices!

The world's best-selling car is the car with Thunderbird elegance

In the greatest styling decision of the year, the American public has already shown a clear preference for the new Ford. Ford sales are way ahead of all competition. Why? One reason is the classic simplicity of their Thunderbird-inspired design—clean, crisp lines that are pure automobile! And Fords are built for people—to sit in, to drive, to ride in—with comfort.

The car in hottest demand across the land has greater roominess and comfort

Thousands of customers have bought the new Ford over all competition for another compelling reason—it's a true six-passenger car. (The only four-passenger car we recommend is the Thunderbird!) All six Ford passengers get plenty of every kind of room—from leg and head to elbow and hip. Rear seat passengers don't feel like they're riding with their feet in a bucket!

The No. 1 car in sales saves money on gas, on oil, on maintenance bills

A new Ford will save you up to 5¢ a gallon on gas. That's because both standard engines—Six or Thunderbird V-8—thrive on regular gas. And Ford saves on oil, too, with a Full-Flow Oil Filter as standard equipment. Drive 4000 miles between oil changes! And you can forget about waxing your car. Ford's Diamond Lustre Finish stays gleaming bright without waxing—ever!

The most popular American car is priced as much as $102.75 lower

Ford costs you less right down the line than the competition. Compare price tags and you'll see that the manufacturer's suggested retail price of a Ford, equipped with radio, heater and automatic transmission, is as much as $102.75 less than the major competition! And on an air-conditioned car, you can save up to $219.55. So compare and save on a 1959 Ford!

DINNER SHOW DRAWS CROWD

The man behind the potted palm was probably a Hollywood talent scout with a handful of contracts. If so, he got his money's worth Monday night at the Matador Drum and Bugle Corp's benefit turkey dinner and floor show.

A wide range of heretofore hidden talent was brought out in the open by Mrs. John Stevens, entertainment chairman. Some of the numbers were out of this world.

The performance, emceed by John Barnhill, included an opening song by J. E. Edwards; a "Frankie and Johnny" duet by Mrs. Josephine Hamilton and Mrs. A. L. Fair; old-fashioned

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

The truth never requires any fancy garments to appear attractive, nor finds it necessary to apologize for its presence in the company of honest conversation.

Education is the world's brightest hope and if peace is anywhere it must come from the hearts of people who have attained knowledge. Ignorance has been the constant mistress of disunity since the dawn of history, exciting abuses for countless millions and creating suspicion of abuse for others unable to think for themselves.

Entering the perimeter of Christmas is always a pleasant experience as entering a warm room where ginger cookies have been baking.

When discouragement lays a smoke screen across our pathways and the stench of doubt offends hope, it is well to remember that men's dreams do not end at the sea.

Opportunity has often made a noise in the sky, then tossed diamonds at my feet while I surveyed more distant horizons.

Edwards; A specialty dance, the bolero, by Mrs. Inez Bailey and Keith Patton; a song by A. L. Fair; the Charleston staged by Mrs. Charlie Keith and Douglas Meador, solo by Mrs. Richard Turner, introduced as "Candy Barr"; jitterbug number by Coach and Mrs. C. D. Bradshaw, and solo by Mrs. Homer T. Jenkins.

Music was by the Hep Cats, Mike Groves, Pat Seigler and Gerald Pipkin.

Following the program, names were drawn for prizes with Stanley McDonough receiving a record player (donated to the Drum and Bugle Corps by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bloodworth), Jody Graham received an electric griddle, and Q. Canon, a turkey.

More than 230 dinners were served by the kitchen committee headed by Mrs. A. L. Fair, with Mrs. Raby Webb as serving chairman. Others who served as chairmen for the affair were Bill Seale, tickets, Freddie Welling, arrangements and Mrs. Frank Pohl, publicity. Mrs. Bill Waybourn served as business chairman.

Proceeds of the evening amounted to $318.25. However since most of the food and other expenses will be taken care of from this amount, the profits have not been determined. One turkey was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Colquet Warren.

The organization expressed appreciation for everything that was done to aid in the success of the dinner and show, and to everyone who assisted in any way.

Any donations made to the organization toward the fund for equipment, will be greatly appreciated.

Mr. Sullivan said he is installing a Cyclone dust collector to handle the discharge from the suction at the plant. When it is in place the firm will have expanded every possible means to bring the dust and smoke under control.

Mr. Sullivan said he hoped residents of the community would attend the meeting with the council so that he might explain the firm's problems and how diligently it had attempted to reduce the nuisance to the lowest possible point.

The association is unable to buy equipment because the total amount of funds contributed through membership drives and other sources, is barely adequate to pay the sexton's salary of $160 per month.

Tractor Is Offered
Bill Seale said the Eudy-Seale Funeral Home had acquired a small tractor which would be available for use in the cemetery to move sand blown into the burial ground during the period of drought. Of immediate need is a blade, scoop and other equipment to move the sand since the tractor does not have the needed accessories.

Mrs. Donovan was given a standing ovation at the meeting for her faithful service as secretary.

Mayor W. L. McWilliams reported that while water is now available in the cemetery through the system installed by the V. F. W., a break in the pipe line had made it necessary to shut off the pressure temporarily.

Plans were made to start the annual membership drive to secure funds for operation during the next fiscal year.
