TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

There is but one anodyne to the gossamer festering heart, and that is when another's character is being persecuted. The gossamer judges to prevent being judged, ignoring the basic impulses of all mortals which produce a behavior that is less than perfect.

Plains of loneliness that tread to the New Mexico mountains are being drained of their solitude through the alchemy of men's dreams that is identified as progress. This is the land that once belonged to the vicars of solitude, the shepherds. Men who lived alone on the shimmering, treeless mesas, fed by little fires and watched the stars. It was here that time forgot to be counted; a reserver of silence, or the nest of silent weather. The graves of the sheep-herders are lost or their bones have crumbled to all on the ancient hills. They could not remain to see new herders that the hands of men would fling into the unmeasured depths of space, the skies they etched in solitude.

Gentle eyes of the white-faced deer looked between the panels of the loaded cattle truck. Bright sunshine spread warmth across the brown hills and the perfume of spring was in the air. It was the culminated vista of life and the world an animal known. The truck lurched to motion. It was farewell to land where the yellow buttercups will soon be blooming, where the scent of green sage will spread at dawn. Buttercups do not bloom in the slaughterhouse; there is no sage to brush crimson throat.

When a man passes his worries on to his friends he can never be sure they will receive proper care and nourishment, as if he left children with neighbor who has children of his own.

There are many corners behind which tragedy can wait until it is time to keep an appointment.

Each time I am tempted to quit to an achievement, it becomes evident that the element of chance involved would make me claim appear ridiculous.

Being in a hurry is often an excuse for delaying too long getting started.

All men of the organization are extended an invitation to attend the meeting Monday night, March 28, at 7:30 o'clock.

Pictures Sought For Publication

If you are an adult resident of Motley County the Tribune would like to have your picture on file for publication. But pictures for publication are expensive. The minimum cost now for a one column wide (3 inches deep) zinc engraving is slightly less than $2. It is impossible to publish a picture on letterpress equipment (as the Tribune has) without an engraving. Recently this newspaper paid almost $10 for a rush order 2 col. engraving.

The Tribune can receive a one-column engraving of you without cost. A contract has been made with Winston B. Lucas, photographer of Irving, Texas, to be here Thursday, April 7. He will be at the Tribune office between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. He is an expert photographer, and entirely reliable. His equipment is the best. He will make your picture without charge and he will deliver to the Tribune, an engraving of the picture. This offer is open to both men and women.

Of course, Mr. Winston believes he can make a picture of you so good that you will want to buy it, and that you will. However, the Tribune guarantees that there will be no "high pressure" methods used. If you don't like the picture well enough to buy one, the Tribune will still receive an engraving, and that is the end of the transaction. You will be out less than 10 minutes of your time.

Four are Named To Take Census

Four women who have qualified as census takers in Motley County, will participate in four training sessions next week, District Supervisor Clyde Cook of Amarillo, has announced.

Census takers who will visit every dwelling unit in the area during the 1960 Census of Population and Housing which starts April 1, are Mesdames Sterling Price, J. D. Craven and J. D. Spray of Matador and Mrs. Billy Hand of Roaring Springs.

The training sessions, to be conducted by the crew leader, Mrs. Wilma Martin of Memphis, will be held in Memphis on March 28, 29, 30 and 31. Each census taker will receive a total of approximately nine hours of instruction. Class room training will cover proper manner of asking questions, use of the Census questionnaire, Census definitions, and map reading.

The census taker won't be knocking on doors until April 1, but during March the mail will bring the Advance Census Report Form to every household in the United States. These are due in this area this week, according to the District Supervisor.

This will ask seven questions about each person in your household and six about your dwelling.

The district supervisor urges all residents to fill out the forms and have them ready for the census takers when they start their rounds on April 1.

Your answers to all questions will be held in strict confidence by the department of Commerce. The census taker could be your neighbor, and know all the answers. But she is sworn to confidence under penalty of law.

Baptist Revival Plans Completed

Preparations are being completed for the spring revival meeting at the First Baptist Church, April 3-10. These include cottage prayer meetings in each side of town from 7 to 7:30 every night next week except Wednesday.

The neighborhood gatherings as announced this week by the pastor, Rev. Gene Hawkins, will be as follows: Monday night, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Berryman with Elbert Reeves as leader, and in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mayes, led by R. E. Long, Tuesday, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson, Littleton Rattan leading, and with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Watson with Forrest Campbell as leader.

Thursday night the meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. John Barnhill with Jake Edwards as leader, and with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hicks with Bob Stanley as leader. Friday meetings will be in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Waybourn, R. E. Campbell Sr., leading, and with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Barton Jr., Bill McCaghren leading.

Veterans to Honor 36 County Seniors

MINDFUL that the greatest asset Motley County can ever possess is the fine boys and girls it produces, the Fleming-Post American Legion, Monday evening will honor the 36 seniors of the three county high schools. The entire program which includes dinner in the Legion club room, will pay tribute and be designed to entertain the boys and girls.

Speaker will be Furman Vinson. First Vice Post Commander J. L. Speer will serve as master of ceremonies. Rev. L. W. Tucker, pastor of the First Methodist Church here will deliver the invocation.

Following announcements, the group singing of "America" and a Pledge to the Flag. After an address of welcome Mrs. Charlie Johnson will sing.

Special music by the Swing Kings will follow the address. County Judge Elbert Reeves (and associates) will conduct a quiz contest which has in a previous meeting been received with general and enthusiastic endorsement.

Following announcements, the benediction will be given by Mrs. Rose Turner of Flot.

Inspiration of Youth Vice Commander Speer who first organized the tribute to county seniors several years ago, said regarding the Monday program: "I look forward to these meetings. I receive an inspiration from the fine boys and girls which Motley County has always produced. We of the Legion want the youngsters to know that we appreciate them and have faith in their part in handling the future destiny of the world. We hope the dinner and program will provide for them a portion of the pleasure it is to us in having them as our guests."

These have dealt with problems concerning the dependent child, on standards of child welfare, on status of health and well-being of children, on development of mental, emotional and spiritual qualities essential to children's individual happiness and the conditions necessary to this development.

Theme for this year's conference is "To provide opportunities for children and youth to realize their full potential for a creative life in freedom and dignity." More than one and three-quarter million Texans have been involved in preparations for this conference, according to State Chairman Guy D. Newman of Austin.

Interviewed On TV Miss Barton was the guest of "Cotton John" on his KGNC-TV program Saturday in Amarillo in an interview regarding her forthcoming trip to Washington.

Also on the program were the Matador Teen-Tones, Misses Dixie Barton, Melanie Brown, Cheri Barton, Vada Nichols, Vella Ree Edwards and Judy Hobbs, who entertained with several songs.

TO KENTUCKY Mrs. Ralph Nichols and daughter, Rita, left Saturday for Louisville, Ky., where they will spend a month with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Henley.

Series of Burglaries Solved in 2 Arrests

AT LEAST 11 burglaries are in the process of being cleared up in the arrest of 2 brothers, Vernon Marshall Jett, 24, and Bill Jett. Vernon Jett is in Plainview jail and his brother Bill is in Lubbock jail.

Vernon Jett is charged with the burglary of Moseley & Anderson Implement Company and Harrison George grocery at Flotmot Friday night. An estimated $35 to $40 was taken in pennies, dimes, nickels and quarters. So far as is known, no merchandise was taken in either place.

Sheriffs, deputy sheriffs and other peace officers from half a dozen West Texas counties have been working on the case which will clear up at least 11 breakins.

Both the Jett brothers have served prison terms. Vernon Jett was released from Huntsville in 1955. The Jett brothers will be questioned further and undergo lie detector tests, it was declared.

In one of the burglaries at Umbarger, a pistol, shot gun, radio and 14 silver dollars were taken.

Negro Is Stabbed Over 50c Argument

J. D. James, about 35, was seriously stabbed about 1 p.m. Sunday afternoon as the result of an argument over 50c in a dice game. Approximately 160 stitches were required to sew up knife wounds in James' body. His lung was punctured and the top of his stomach laid open. Some gashes 6 to 8 inches long were cut in his right arm and also the slashing pocket knife barely missed his throat. At present his condition is reported satisfactory at Stanley Hospital.

James Thompson, about 40, was arrested by Deputy S. A. Conway and placed in jail here charged with the stabbing. He has since been released on $750 bond.

James was brought to the hospital by G. L. Lewis. The stabbing occurred at the Bill Beckwith house in Matador colored section.

Man Injured In Fall From Horse

Alvin Ross, 65, of Flotmot was released Monday from Trawenk Hospital where he received treatment for injuries sustained in a fall from a horse while working on the W. T. Ross ranch.

Mr. Ross suffered a fractured ankle and bruises about the head in the accident. His foot became fastened in the stirrup when he was thrown from the horse. The accident occurred March 14.

Lions Show Prizes Value is Increased

THERE IS GOLD in them these packages of candy the Matador Lions are going to sell at their annual show on the evening of April Fool's Day at the high school auditorium (well, not exactly gold but its equivalent). This year the "collectors" a few jumps ahead of the Internal Revenue Department, have improved the quality and value of prizes to be given away during the candy sale.

Except for the point of ethics that they are giving away more than $30,000.00 in prizes. This is almost true, however, $30,000 is in three insurance policies given by two Matador agencies. The Bill Pipkin Agency is giving away a $10,000 policy and the Vance H. Gilbreath Agency is giving away two six months $10,000 public liability and property damage policies.

Gifts more tangible, but of lesser paper value, include a $10 book of coupons that will involve the Lions could claim $10 worth of groceries, a new automobile tire that sells for $18 to $20, a beautiful green plant and Redwood bucket, with a value of about $15.

These are but a few of the prizes now on display at the West Texas Utilities Company window, and more are in the process of being added. (Note to Lion Freddie Welling: Keep that green plant watered, or it will be charged to WTUC and replaced by a new one.)

Victim of Burns is Resident's Brother

H. B. Spence, 44-year-old farm laborer, died at 6 a.m. Sunday in Richards Memorial Hospital, Paducah, from burns received in an explosion that ripped apart his farm home about two weeks ago.

The victim was a brother of a Matador woman, Mrs. Mutt Smith. Other survivors include his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnston, Paducah; two brothers and five sisters.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Monday from the Paducah Church of Christ with Quentin A. Dunn, pastor, and Rev. Jack Badger, pastor of the Harmony Baptist Church, officiating.

Burial was in Garden of Memories with Norris Funeral Home directing arrangements.

Spence was critically injured about 7 a.m. on March 8 when he attempted to light a butane heater in his home 12 miles southwest of Paducah. Relatives believed that a leak under the house had filled rooms with gas that was ignited when Spence struck a match to light the stove.

City Office To Close Saturdays

Effective March 26, Matador city office will shorten its week by 160 minutes by remaining closed all day Saturdays. Action taken by the council at the February meeting authorized the office to close for the three Saturday morning hours. The reason is that customs of the office are changing and the city office no longer has enough traffic Saturday mornings between the hours of 9 to 12 to warrant keeping it open.

Queens In Review

In addition to the entirely new and different show which is written and directed by Lions Bill Seale and Forrest Campbell, a bevy of 21 of the fairest girls in high school will compete for the Lions Queen honor.

Winner of the queen contest will be a "Queen for a Day" as guest of the club at the Borger district Lions convention. In another contest she will compete for district honors.

The audience will select the queen here by vote during the show. Each paid admission will be given a ballot at the door. The ballots will be counted and the winner announced before the show is ended.

MOD "Door Count" Points to Need

Three crippling diseases now under attack by the National Foundation affect about 30% of Motley County homes answering a questionnaire in the January Mother's March for the new March of Dimes, Judge Elbert Reeves, chairman of the county chapter, has reported.

The three cripples are birth defects, arthritis and polio. In addition to seeking funds, the Marching Mothers this winter bore small "door count" cards asking several basic questions about the three diseases. Tabulation of the door count, which has just been completed, points to the need of attack-on the three cripples.

Judge Reeves said that many did not return the door count cards and that the survey is not completely accurate. "It indicates a step in the right direction," he said.

The Marching Mothers also found that more than half of the individuals in the households reporting had not yet completed their full series of Salk polio vaccine shots.

"While the door count is not a scientific survey," Judge Reeves said, "it provides a good working estimate of the size of these problems in our county. It will be of value to the chapter in planning its future program of assistance to individuals with these conditions."

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hill Jr., and son, Mark, visited in Vernon during the week end with her parents.

Golfers Plan for Season

A meeting of the Airport Golf Club was held Monday night at the American Legion building to discuss rules and plans for improvements on the course, and to elect officers for the coming season.

Alfred Barton Jr. was elected president by the men's association, with M. S. Patton, vice-president and Frank Price, secretary.

The Women's Golf Association elected Mrs. Bundy Campbell as president, Mrs. John Barnhill, vice-president, Mrs. Frank Price, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Alfred Barton Jr., reporter.

As a means of financing improvement and maintenance of the course, membership in the club is $15 for each family, and annual dues are $12. An additional $3 is charged by the women to qualify for play-day in the women's association, it was further announced. Proceeds of this fund is used for tournament trophies.

Anyone in the Motley County area wishing to join the golf club is invited to do so, and may pay the membership fee and dues to the secretary. A greens fee is charged non-members.

Attending the meeting Monday night were Messrs. and Mesdames Bill Seale, Gus Bird, Marvin Patton, Algie Groves, Buz Thacker, Frank Price, Alfred Barton Jr. and John Barnhill, Glen Rose, and Mesdames Melvin Meason, Bundy Campbell and Glenn Woodruff.

Students Observe 2nd Western Day

Western regalia was the order of the day Friday, March 18, as Matador High School students served the second annual Western Day on the campus. Students went all out for the gay affair, wearing cowboy hats, spurs, and guns and holsters.

Prizes were given to Gale Stafford and Edna Williamson for singing the most typical cowboy and cowgirl. The prize for the boy was a bull money bank, and for the girl, a pair of western slippers.

Western Day was climaxed by a party given in the VFW building that night. It is sponsored by the Student Council.

Cheerleaders to Be Elected Soon

Principal Charlie Johnson announced last week that cheerleader try-outs for next football season will be held soon.

He urged all girls, who are trying out, to start practicing now, so that some contestants will not drop out of the contest because of stiff and sore muscles.

Cheerleaders are elected by the student body. The girl receiving the most votes will be head cheerleader. The next two girls with the most votes will be her assistants. Cheerleaders during last season were Daphne Lynn, Carol Campbell, and Genevieve Spray.

CAMPUS CUES

By Carolyn Pohl

Western Day at MHS was really a sight to see. Cowboys and cowgirls were seen all over the place. You should have seen some of the boys keeping books in bookkeeping class with chaps and spurs on!

A new sextette has been formed. This time the group consists of boys. Our singing boys are Robin Darsey, Clem Edwards, Carl Thompson, Hutch Renfro, Guy Campbell, and Roy Hobbs. They sang at the Baptist Sweetheart Banquet held recently.

Congratulations to Mary Newman and Clem Edwards for being named Queen and King of the 1960 Sweetheart Banquet. See ya next week!

LIBRARY LAPSE

by Edna Williamson

This week's book, The Turquoise, is written by Anya Seton. Once there lived a woman on the slope of Atalaya. This woman was Santa Fey Cameron. She was born in January of 1850. Her mother died when she was born, leaving Fey with her grief-stricken father, and a filthy Indian woman to care for her.

When Fey was six, her Scottish father died. Fey went to live with the family of the woman who took care of her.

Fey had one friend. This was an old Indian who gave her a lovely turquoise as a good luck charm. She was not to let this leave her possession.

How Fey left her miserable environment and went to New York, married one of America's wealthiest men, and finally her course of life, makes one of the most thrilling stories I have ever read.

NEW 4-H AWARDS PROGRAM FOR '60

A new award has been added to the 4-H Cooperative Result Demonstration and the 4-H Team Method Demonstration. It was announced this week by County Agent Bill Pallmeyer.

Both are a part of the Farmer Cooperative Activity Awards program.

Under the new 1960 program, an all-expense paid trip to Berkeley, Calif., and the annual meeting of the American Institute of Cooperation will be the award for the State winning 4-H method demonstration team. The trip will be in August, with the winning team selected in June at the 4-H Roundup.

The 1960 winners from each of the 12 Texas Extension districts in the 4-H Cooperative Result Demonstration program will also receive the same award as the winning team. All winners will assemble at Amarillo for the California trip.

This is an added award sponsored by the Extension Service and the Producers Grain Corp., a farmer's cooperative at Amarillo.

Each of the district and state winners will become members of the Talent Club. Some 266 outstanding Texas 4-H club members have been initiated into the Talent Club since 1942.

County Agent Pallmeyer has complete details on the new program, and urges all 4-H members to investigate, and if possible, participate.

TRIBUNE PASSES 26th MILESTONE

(delayed)

Monday was more than an ordinary day at the Tribune. It was the newspaper's 26th birthday, or March 14, 1954, was the date the Tribune purchased the Matley County News from G. C. Mitchell and changed it to the Matador Tribune.

First newspaper to be circulated here bearing the masthead, "Matador Tribune", was printed in Floydada by the Hesperian, in December 1931. It was started as a free publication and was forced to suspend after seven issues.

In October 1932 Douglas Meador became editor of the hand-set Roaring Springs News, which he operated until December 1933. In that month the News was moved to Matador, and the name changed to the Matador Tribune. On January 16, 1934 Meador and Howard Hamilton formed the Tribune Publishing Company and were in partnership when they purchased the Matley County News 60 days later. Meador purchased Hamilton's interest in March 1935.

At the time the Tribune purchased the News 26 years ago, it was being printed on a 2-page Taylor press with one form roller. The press was later sold for $10. The newspaper and plant before the purchase had an estimated value of $750, all of which was owed.

Immediately after the purchase of the Matley County News, the Tribune ordered a new Linotype machine, and purchased a $1,000 press. Its indebtedness increased to approximately $10,000.

The government purchased cows at $12 per head in 1934 and shot them on the hills that surround Matador. Farmers and ranchers were glad to be relieved of the burden of feeding livestock because there was no grass and no feed. The Tribune struggled with everyone else, because its faith was, first in the people and, second, in the country. It remains unchanged after a quarter of a century.

Many Farmers Get "On Their Feet" With FHA Credit

At present 65 families in Motley and Floyd Counties are using FHA credit. This is a reduction of 50% in the number of borrowers since 1958, according to Joe T. Boone, the agency's county supervisor. The purpose of Farmers Home Administration credit is to graduate the borrowers to normal sources of credit.

Approximately 25 farm families have completed a series of individual meetings with Mr. Boone, to take a careful look at their 1959 operations and to make plans for 1960. He said the year-end analysis is a service provided by the agency which makes loans to eligible farmers to operate, improve, or enlarge family-type homes.

In studying their farm operations, Mr. Boone said some of the better practices which farmers are working into their plans include (1) rotation planting of soybeans and other legumes, cotton and maize for better land care and greater yields (2) more extensive use of fertilizer based on land needs indicated by soil analysis tests (3) more strip cropping and summer fallowing of land for moisture conservation and (4) planting crops according to available irrigation water and not trying to water more acres than is practical.

Loans Total $300,000
Loans totaling over $300,000 have been made to farmers in this area in a nine-month period since June 30, 1959. Boone said. This money has been for acquiring equipment, livestock, feed, seed, fertilizer and paying other operation costs, and for paying for labor and materials in connection with housing and other improvements. The money and extra money from increased incomes circulate through local trade channels.

Good planning and record keeping are carried on throughout the year. During 1959 approximately 25% of the borrowers paid their loans in full and are now obtaining necessary credit from local banks and other lenders.

Parents are Urged To Take Children To Sunday School

(By J. Edgar Hoover)
Shall I make my child go to Sunday School and church? YES! And with no further discussion about the matter. Startled? — Why? How do you answer Junior when he comes to breakfast on Monday morning and announces to you that he is not going to school any more? You know Junior goes to school.

How do you answer when Junior comes in very besmudged and says, "I'm not going to don't he" Why all this timidity then, in the realms of his spiritual guidance and growth? Going to wait and let him decide what church he will go to when he is old enough? Quit your kidding. You didn't wait until you were old enough. You don't wait until he's old enough to decide whether he wants to go to go to school or not-to start his education. You don't wait until he's old enough to decide whether he wants to be clean or dirty, do you? Do you wait until he decides to take the medicine when he is sick? Do you?

What shall we say when Junior decides he doesn't want to go to Sunday School and Church? That's an easy one to answer. Just be consistent. Tell him, "Junior, in our house we all go to Sunday School and church and that includes you." Your firmness and example will furnish a bridge over which youthful rebellion may travel into rich and satisfying experiences in personal and religious living. The parent of America can strike a telling blow against the forces which contribute to our juvenile delinquency if our mothers and fathers will TAKE their children to Sunday School and church regularly.

Always the heart of our business

WHY do most drug stores sell everything from breakfast to dance wax . . . ? The answer is simple. It is a matter of economic necessity.

Americans, thank goodness, are generally healthy and there are not enough prescriptions to keep all drug stores going. Thus, we sell a variety of merchandise. By so doing we are able to stay open and render assistance whenever and wherever it is needed. Prescription service, however, continues to be the heart of our business and we are always pleased to assist you when medication is needed.
