MR. AND MRS. LARRY DEAN BENTON

Former Resident Peggy Jean Locke is Recent Bride in Porterville, Calif.

Of interest to friends here will be the announcement of the recent marriage of Miss Peggy Jean Locke. Miss Locke became the bride of Mr. Larry Dean Benton in a ceremony performed Saturday, Sept. 9, in the sanctuary of the Pentecostal Church of God in Porterville, California.

Rev. George Pauls, church pastor, read the nuptial rites for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Locke of Porterville, formerly of Matador, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Benton of Santa Ana.

For her wedding the bride chose an all white lace over satin floor length gown. The fitted bodice was fashioned with slightly puffed sleeves tapering to a point at the wrists. Lace scalloped provided the neckline detail and satin ruffles were a feature of the bouffant skirt.

The bridal veil of silk illusion cascaded to her fingertips from a tiara, and she carried an orchid surrounded by white carnations for her bouquet.

Mrs. Alice Cobbs was her sister's matron of honor, and Wanda and Sharon Cobbs were bridesmaids.

The three attendants were dressed in identically fashioned gowns of lace and satin, the honor attendant in pastel yellow tones and the bridesmaids in frosty lime green. Each carried a pink carnation bouquet.

The little Misses Gayle and Pat Locke, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. The bride's younger sister, Freda, and another cousin, Don Locke, were ringbearers.

Candlelighters were Mrs. Betty Spooner and Joyce Locke, also cousins of the bride.

The bridegroom was attended by his uncle, Stewart Benton, as best man. Ushers and groomsmen were Dwayne Luallin and Doug Benton.

Nuptial selections were "True Love" and "Always," sung preceding the double ring ceremonies by Patricia Lott. Diane Stafford was at the organ console.

At the reception which followed in the church youth hall, Mrs. Locke greeted her daughter's wedding guests in a dress of navy blue dacron with white accessories. Also in the receiving line, Mrs. Benton wore a sheath dress of pink lace with matching accessories. Each wore a white carnation corsage. Linda Reaves, a cousin of the bridegroom registered the guests.

The bride's table was centered with a three tiered white cake topped by miniature bridal figurines.

America is A Nation of Communities Club is Told by District President

"America was founded and grew one community at a time . . . it still functions as a nation of communities," declared Mrs. Philip A. Carpenter of Burk Burnett in her opening remarks as she spoke to members of El Progresso Club, and guests Thursday.

Mrs. Carpenter, district president of Santa Rosa District of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs was guest speaker at the Sept. 28 meeting of El Progresso, at the home of Mrs. A. C. Traweck Jr.

"Your neighborhood — your home town are a part of that combined greatness."

Mrs. Carpenter continued her effective address with the introduction of "ten ladies" whose names began with the letters of FEDERATION. Foresight or Friendship; Education; Doers (not Don'ters or Doubters); Enrichment (of life); Responsibility, America—Action; Tradition; Inspiration On the Mark; Now.

These "ladies" were unique dolls which had been cleverly fashioned by Mrs. Carpenter. The climax of the doll parade was the introduction of a "man doll," as Mrs. Carpenter pointed out that every man wants his wife to be a composite of the qualities represented by these ladies.

Mrs. Carpenter was assisted in the presentation by Mrs. J. T. Richards of Paducah, and Mrs. W. D. Lipscomb. Mrs. Richards is second vice president of Santa Rosa District.

Praises Year Book

Mrs. Carpenter also paid merited tribute to the year book committee for having compiled such a comprehensive program and attractive book.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. W. N. Pipkin, who welcomed all guests and members.

Mrs. U. L. Willie, State and District Chairman of the division of Cattle Brands and Ranch Histories, Texas Heritage Department introduced the program and with appropriate remarks presented Mrs. Carpenter, who spoke on "What Federation Means To Me."

At the conclusion of her talk, Mrs. Carpenter was presented a gift from the club by Mrs. Pipkin in appreciation of her visit here.

The program opened with GFWC Collect by Mrs. W. F. Jacobs, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. G. E. Hamilton, followed by "A Prayer" by Max Ehrmann, read by Mrs. J. R. Whitworth. Closing prayer was by Mrs. Harry Willett.

During tea time, Mrs. Hamilton and several of her pupils entertained. The musical instruments were arranged in the game room, for the musicians, Misses Ruthie Lynn, Judy Gwinn, Frances Martin, Linda Vinson and Mrs. Hamilton.

Home Grown Flowers

Refreshments of coffee, assorted cookies, pastel mints and nuts were served from a beautiful white embroidered linen covered table, which was centered by a handsome arrangement of red dahlias, which with the other flowers used in the home, came from the garden of the hostess.

Guests, other than those mentioned were Mrs. J. M. Thacker from the Predicta Club, Roaring Springs and Mmes. Bill Seale, Marvin Hunt and Roy Grundy from the Eternas Club, Matador. Also guests were Mrs. Robert Darsey and Mrs. Eddie Simms.

Members of the tea committee were Mesdames Traweck, D. E. Pitts, R. W. Overstreet, Frank Pohl and Vance Gilbreath. Other members present were Mesdames A. J. Daffern, Ben Keltz, W. F. McCahren, Frank Montgomery, Elbert Reeves, Fred Simpson, Ralph Stapleton, M. S. Thacker, C. P. Waybourn, J. L. Woodruff, Miller Robinson and Douglas Meador and Misses Sue Glenn, Amy Glenn and Mary Keith.

OTTO GRIEBLING

TRAMP CLOWN IS MASTER OF MIMICRY

Of all the top laugh-provoking clowns of Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus, one of the funniest is Otto Griebling—a sad looking little tramp pantomimist and master of improvisation.

Otto entertains the audience before the start of the performance and from then until the end of the show, almost three hours later, he never stops, and never repeats himself.

Griebling is a master at using news developments to his advantage. When the first "sputnik" flashed through the skies a year or so ago, Otto was out in the arena the next day with a clown "space outfit" that convulsed audiences.

Ringling's scores of funny-men will be seen at their best when the Big Show comes to Lubbock Coliseum, October 16, 17 and 18.

SOCIAL SECURITY REPRESENTATIVE SCHEDULED HERE

Few people will dispute the saying that the only thing constant is change. During the past 25 years there have been perhaps more changes than in any other generation in history.

During the years when many people were coming close to retirement, the law that helps with retirement, social security has also changed. . . 12 times to be exact.

For instance, most people already know that it's now possible to retire at 62. But what happens when they do, and do they really want to retire are questions which are posed by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

A representative of the Lubbock office will be in Matador on Tuesday, Oct. 10, at 9:30 a.m. at the First State Bank and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to social security.

Riley Rigby has been moved from Wichita Falls General Hospital to Childress Hospital. His sons, Sherril Rigby of Childress and Pfc. Riley Rigby Jr. of Ft. Carson, Colo., were Matador visitors Saturday and reported their father's condition as slightly improved.

STANLEY HOSPITAL

Stanley Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Payne of Quitaque, underwent appendectomy Tuesday.

Miss Donna Williams, student at South Plains College, Levelland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stephens during the week end.

Mrs. C. O. Middlebrooks of Odessa, spent several days at her home here recently. She was accompanied by her daughters, Misses Faye and Unell Middlebrooks.
