Mrs. James Allison . . . (Carroll Campbell)

Carroll Campbell And James Allison Exchange Vows In Double Ring Rites

Marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Carroll Lynn Campbell of Matador and Mr. James Allison of McLean in a ceremony at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, June 18.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Campbell Jr., of Matador. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Allison of McLean are parents of the bridegroom.

First Baptist Church was the scene of the double ring service performed by Rev. Gene Hawkins of Lockney.

Devotion lights in swirl candelabra on each side of the altar illuminated the background of white majestic daisies, baby's breath and palms of emerald and jade fern. Floor baskets at each side contained similar floral arrangements, and the aisle markers were majestic daisies and white satin ribbon.

Sister Is Organist
Mrs. Charles Cullin, sister of the bride, was organist and accompanied Mrs. W. F. Jacobs, soloist and aunt of the bride, as she sang "Through the Years," "To Each His Own," and in benediction, "The Wedding Prayer." Traditional classical preludes and wedding marches were played by Mrs. Cullin.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The Sabrina neckline was re-embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins and the sleeves extended to points at the wrist. The full skirt was fashioned in tiers of lace and tulle and featured a chapel train.

The bride's finger-tip veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses and baby's breath on a white lace fan. She wore a single strand of pearls, the gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Linda Kay Rattan was maid of honor, and the bride's other attendants were Misses Cheri Ann Barton and Janie Waybourn, Matador, and Mrs. Mike Murff, Amarillo, sister of the bridegroom. His nieces, Tanya and Allison Murff were flower girl and ring bearer.

Lester Sitter of McLean was best man. Groomsmen were Mike Murff of Amarillo, Beryl Murdock Jr., of Jayton and Richard Campbell, brother of the bride. Ushers were Gerald Pipkin and Robin Darsey, cousins of the bride.

Wear Yellow Organza
Pastel yellow silk organza dresses were worn by the bride's attendants. Designed with cap sleeves and bell-shaped street length skirts, the dresses were accented at the waistline with self cummerbund caught at the center front with an organza rose. For headdresses they wore short yellow net veils attached to crowns of pastel yellow roses. Miniature lace fans held their bouquets of white Marguerite daisies.

Mrs. Campbell, mother of the bride wore a sheath of beige lace over pastel green with a coil of matching flowers and other matching accessories. Mrs. Allison, the bridegroom's mother chose a jacket sheath ensemble of brown silk with beige trim, with pillbox hat and other accessories matching.

The bride's chosen colors were repeated in the room decorations and table appointments for the wedding reception.

At Campbell Home

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the walkway to the terraced lawn was marked with hurricane lamps decorated with white ribbon streamers and containing yellow and white daisies.

Adding a decorative note to the refreshment table, laid with a white organza embroidered cloth over a yellow cover were the fan-bouquets carried by the bride's attendants. Majestic daisies and palm fern were used for a floral centerpiece. The three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple, was served with frosted lime punch.

Miss Donna Williams presided at the punch service, and Misses Genevieve Spray and Gwen Killingsworth served the cake. Guests were registered by Miss Carolyn Pohl.

Piano selections during the reception were played by Gerald Pipkin.

Room decorations included a miniature bridal party on the piano, floral baskets of daisies and fern, and a bridal couple on the mantel. An epergne containing arrangements of daisies enhanced the dining area.

After a wedding trip to Denver, Colo., and Estes Park, the couple will live at 3010 Manioca Road in Lubbock. For travel, Mrs. Allison wore a beige and brown cotton and silk suit with bone accessories and a corsage of yellow roses from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Matador High School and was outstanding in both scholastic and social activities. Her husband graduated from McLean High School and is a junior agricultural economics major at Texas Tech.

Out-of-town Guests

Out of town guests who registered at the reception included the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Estes of Colorado Springs, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Montgomery of Borger; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Murff of Brice;

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Beck and daughter, Helen Sue, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Haynes, Mike and Sheri, Carey Don Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Whaley, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Crockett and Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Martin M. Burroughs, Mrs. Spencer B. Sitter and daughter, Sharon, and Mrs. Clyde Magee of McLean; Mrs. Vernard Alexander and Leslie Ann, Post; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Allison, Fay and Glen, of Midland; Mr. and Mrs. J. Alfred Murtry, Clarendon; Miss Edna Williamson, Wichita Falls; Miss Carolyn Cramer, Fort Worth; Charlie Miller, Floydada; and Mrs. O. T. Youngblood, Vernon.

Program Concludes Bible School Here

Closing exercises consisting of contributions from each department were held on Sunday evening, June 18 and concluded the Methodist Vacation Bible School.

Mrs. Furman Vinson, general superintendent of the school, introduced the workers of each department and gave the opening and closing remarks about the Bible School.

Nursery workers included various mothers of the children of that age. Mesdames Roy Grundy, Pete Williams, J. B. Cooper and Donald Green.

The beginners department sang two songs which they had learned during the school and accompanied themselves in one of them with a "rhythm band." Their crafts included plaster-of-paris hand prints, water paintings, a scrap book of the theme, "My Home and Friends," and note pads for their grandmothers. Workers included Mesdames Pete Williams, Kenneth Thompson, Leon Smallwood and Miss Sandra Jenkins.

Working with the primary group were Mesdames Algie Groves, W. C. Fallmeyer and Miss Mary Slover and Miss Ida Fair. For the primary department's part on the sharing program they sang and quoted Bible verses which they had memorized pertaining to the theme, "Love One Another." The primary hand work included key racks, decorated plates and waste baskets.

The junior department reported on ways they had learned to "Live and Work Together as Christians." They had also made decorated plates and scrap books for their skill projects. Mrs. Jack McCallie had charge of this group in the absence of Mrs. Roy Patterson. She was assisted by Miss Joyce Seaff.

Following the program, the group adjourned to the basement to look over the children's hand work. Refreshments were then served by members of the W.S.C.

Each child who attended Bible School received a certificate. The smallest attendance was 44 on the first Saturday, with the highest being 69, on the last Saturday. Average attendance was 59.

Mrs. Allen Smith . . . (Retha Watson)

Retha Watson And Allen Smith Are Married In Double Ring Ceremony

The Flag Springs Baptist Church in Roaring Springs was the scene of the wedding of Miss Retha Watson and Mr. James Allen Smith at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, June 17. Rev. Ken Whitten, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Frazier Watson and Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, both of Roaring Springs.

Setting for the candlelight ceremony was a white kneeling bench before an archway formed by orchid candles in white candelabra and flanked by orchid gladioli. In the background was a basket of white gladioli. Orchid satin bows marked the bridal aisle.

Mrs. Bennie D. Dillard provided traditional nuptial music and accompanied soloist, Miss Shirley Stafford, as she sang "Because" and "Whither Thou Goest."

When given in marriage by her father the bride was wearing a ballerina gown of white chantilly lace over net and taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice, encapuled lace hemline, Sabrina neckline and long petal point sleeves. Her veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls.

The bride carried an orchid the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Prather.

In the receiving line were the bride's attendants, the bride and bridegroom, Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Smith.

The table was laid with a lace cloth over orchid and forming the center point of interest was the bride's cake and the crystal service. White burning tapers and an arrangement of gladioli and white daisies were used in other table decorations.

Mesdames Jack Prather, Jim McCowan and Corby Lee Marshall assisted with hospitalities.

When the couple left on their wedding trip, Mrs. Smith wore a white brocade sheath with orchid accessories, and an orchid corsage.

The bride and her husband are both graduates and honor students of Roaring Springs High School. Mrs. Smith graduated in 1961, and he in 1960. Both were active in all school affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are at home at 710 Mississippi, in Amarillo where he has employment.

Party Is Given For Jana Jones

Recently honored on her twelfth birthday by her grandmother, Mrs. Clovis Murphy, was Miss Jana Jones.

An afternoon of recreation was enjoyed at Roaring Springs by Miss Jones and her guests on Friday, June 9. Mrs. Murphy then accompanied the group back to her home for a "number" party.

Refreshments of Cokes, sandwiches, chips, bean dip, and cookies were served throughout the party.

Guests other than the honoree included Misses Sharlene Berryman, Judy Pitts, Olivia Campbell, Shelley Stevens, Joaqui Barton, Susan Hunt and Pat Day.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor returned recently from Quallah where Mrs. Taylor underwent surgery at Quallah Memorial Hospital.

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES:

Galaxie styling is inspiring more admiration (and imitation) than any other car on the road!

This is the look that started with Thunderbird —sired the Galaxie—and quickly became the styling success of the Sixties.

Many cars have tried to copy it. No car has succeeded. Incomparably beautiful, the 1961 Galaxie maintains its distinction—as originals always do.

Styling is only part of Galaxie's distinction: this is the car that's beautifully built to take care of itself. The '61 Ford goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications — 4,000 miles between oil changes. Brakes adjust automatically. The muffler is built to last three times as long as ordinary ones. The body is specially treated to resist rust and corrosion. The finish never needs waxing.

Wouldn't it make sense to STOP spending money on an old car that can never do for you what a new Ford can do?

SWAP right now while your Ford Dealer's sales are booming—and the swapping is easier than it's ever been before.

STANLEY HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sedgwick of Roaring Springs are parents of a daughter, Laura, born Monday, June 12, at Stanley Hospital. She weighed 7 1/2 pounds.

Patients this week were Willis Garner of Turkey, Mrs. Dan Shaw, Dickens, and Mrs. T. B. Edmondson, Matador.

WITH GRATITUDE

It is with heartfelt gratitude that we express our appreciation for the many acts of kindness extended our mother during her hospitalization, and the many thoughtful deeds performed for the family at her passing. Every card and message and the lovely floral arrangements were a solace to us, and the many dishes of food prepared for our nourishment were a great help in our time of stress. May you be richly blessed in our earnest prayer. The Family of Mrs. Doug Meador

IN APPRECIATION

We wish to take this means of expressing our appreciation for all the good things which were done for us while Mrs. Taylor was in the hospital and since returning home. The telephone calls, cards, letters and other messages, flowers and visits, and the food brought to us have all been appreciated more than words can say. You will never know how much these expressions of your friendship have meant to us. Mr. and Mrs. James (Doc) Taylor
