Reynaud Tells Of Surrender

By LOUIS NEVIN
PARIS, July 24 (AP)—Former Premier Paul Reynaud testified at the trial of Marshal Petain today that a union of France and Great Britain was "an ideal which some day must be realized."

The dapper little politician, who said yesterday he despised the old marshal, described the proposal of Prime Minister Churchill when France was collapsing in 1940 for a union.

Petaun, on trial for his life on accusations of intelligence with the enemy and plotting against the security of France, strode into the Palace of Justice courtroom 20 minutes late on his second day of the hearing. He was clad in his marshal's uniform; his face appeared fresh and expressionless.

Reynaud said that on the day his cabinet fell, June 16, 1940, he did not oppose a "cease fire" order but was firmly against demands for an armistice. He repeated that he wished to transfer the government to French Africa and continue the war from there and was opposed by Petaun and Gen. Maxime Weygand, commander in chief of the reeling French forces.

He testified that while the armistice was being discussed, he argued with Petaun and Adm. Jean Darlan over the French fleet. Asked if the warships would be given to the Germans, Reynaud said Darlan replied: "I would sooner put it out to sea."

He testified that Darlan, since assassinated in Algiers where he was collaborating with the American invasion—sent orders to the fleet command to sink the ships rather than let them fall into German hands.

Reynaud charged that Petaun opposed fortifying the northern frontiers of France and also a two-year period of military service. He said also that Petaun "corrupted" Darlan and thereby brought about capitulation of the French fleet.

Apparently burning with anger, Reynaud yesterday began his direct attack on Petaun by stating: "I despise him, and when I was in prison I told him so." Petaun sat imperturbed in the prisoners' dock less than a yard from Reynaud.

Two More Cabinet Shifts Speculated
WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—Speculation grew today that a seventh and possibly an eighth cabinet change are in the making.

The most imminent new departure from the official family President Truman inherited last May appears to be that of Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson. Another possibility is Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes.

Stimson, 77-year-old veteran of two previous cabinet posts generally is expected to resign shortly after he and Mr. Truman return from the Potsdam Big Three meeting.

Ickes is known to be planning a showdown with Mr. Truman on his status in the cabinet. The upshot is expected in some administrative quarters to be a presidential suggestion that he remain "for a time" only.

Academic Freedom "Reasonably Safeguarded", Committee Reports
By The Associated Press
An investigating committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools believes that the principle of academic freedom at the University of Texas is "reasonably safeguarded."

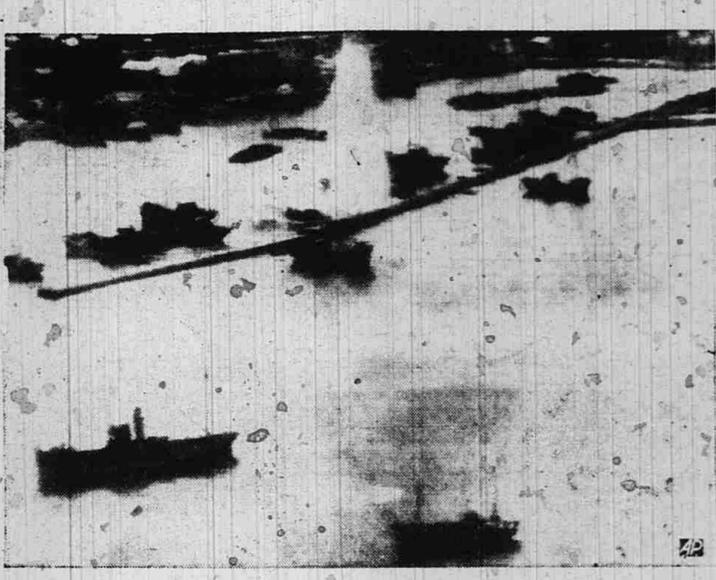

A full report of the committee, which made the recommendation that caused the association to place the university on probation at Memphis, Tenn., Sunday, made that statement.

"So long as there is any threat or suspicion of a threat to freedom of teaching or inquiry, basic in the concept of all members of the committee, the situation in the institution will be unhealthy, and should be rectified in both law and practice," it said.

The action of the association in placing the university on probation was a criticism of the relationship between Dr. Homer P. Rainey, deposed president of the institution, and the regents, directed at all involved, the association's new president said yesterday. Dr. W. J. McConnell, newly elected head of the association, added on his return to Texas from the Memphis meeting that the probation would not affect transfer of credits at the school. Dr. McConnell is president of North Texas State Teachers College.

The investigating committee said in its report that it was convinced that "administrative conditions in the university of Texas have been highly objectionable and in flagrant contravention of commonly accepted academic principles and practices."

It added that "the committee feels quite definitely that the

Big Three Take Recess

Churchill And Atlee Leaving For London For Election Results
By ERNEST B. VACCARO
POTSDAM, July 24 (AP)—The Big Three has scheduled a recess one day Thursday so that Prime Minister Churchill may be in London when the results of the British election are announced, and the leaders of the new British government are expected here Friday, it was learned authoritatively today.

The British delegation emphasized earlier that Churchill's trip to London did not mean the end of the Potsdam conference.

Churchill, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and Clement R. Attlee, labor party leader who has been sitting in on the conferences at Churchill's invitation, arranged to leave Potsdam by plane late tomorrow after the ninth successive Big Three business session.

President Truman and Premier Stalin will take off Thursday from the highest level deliberations while staffs of the three powers catch up on the paper work.

Sometime Friday the Big Three are scheduled to resume the meeting in a Hohenzollern palace here.

While there was no elaboration, it was presumed here that Churchill and Eden would return to Potsdam immediately in event of a conservative party victory. Should the labor party be victorious, Attlee presumably would return in the role of prime minister accompanied by his party's choice for foreign secretary. The election results will be made known Thursday.

The British announcement came amid speculation of an early conclusion of the Big Three conference, based largely on a steadily growing atmosphere of international understanding and on reports that President Truman had won unexpected Russian concessions.

It was reported that the president was prepared to stay here three weeks longer if necessary to help settle boundary and economic questions confronting the Big Three which possibly could furnish the seeds for another world war.

(NBC Correspondent Roy Porter said in a broadcast from Berlin last night that part of the American delegation already had left Germany and that other members were preparing to leave for "a new and surprising destination.")

Wherry Seeking To Steer Senate Into Peace Discussion
WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—Senator Wherry (R-Nebr.) sought today to steer the senate into a discussion of whether this country has received any genuine peace feelers from Japan.

Wherry told a reporter he plans to ask anew whether the state department has received any offers and to call attention of his colleagues to a compilation of purported feelers he said he had made by "a high military source" and forwarded to President Truman at Potsdam.

Wherry said he had been handed by this source a communication to Mr. Truman and carrying suggestions of possible peace terms. These include retention of the emperor and avoidance of military occupation of Japan proper.

The state department has insisted it has received nothing in the way of a genuine peace offer from Japan.

Wherry said it was his understanding that the "high military source," whom he declined to identify further, believed the terms stated in the communication to Mr. Truman might be acceptable.

State Tax Board Sets New Rates At Big Increase
AUSTIN, July 24 (AP)—The automatic tax board today set the state property tax rate for 1945 at 72 cents per $100 valuation, an increase of 15 cents over last year's rate.

Taxes under the new rate are payable beginning Oct. 1. The new rate breaks down on the basis of 35 cents per $100 valuation for general fund support, 35 cents for the available school fund and two cents for the Confederate veterans' pension fund.

Rates in the respective categories for last year were 35 cents, 18 cents and two cents.

The new assessed valuation upon which the 1945 rate will be levied is $4,084,993,824, an increase of $52,000,000.

Each division of the new rate is the maximum permitted by law and the constitution. The general fund rate of 35 cents is necessary to meet general fund obligations for next year. The 35-cent school tax rate is necessary to meet the $30 per capita scholastic apportionment set by the state board of education for next year. The per capita is an increase of $5 over this year's. The Confederate veterans' pension fund tax rate is set by statute which leaves the board no alternative, although the fund has about a $3,000,000 balance.

The general revenue rate is calculated to produce $12,875,964 next year and the school rate is estimated to yield $12,155,583.

WLB Settles CIO Firestone Dispute
DALLAS, July 24 (AP)—The eighth regional War Labor Board, acting in a dispute between local 228, Oil Workers International Union, CIO, and the Firestone Tire and Rubber company, Port Arthur, Tex., has granted the union maintenance of membership with check-off, vacations, and jury service pay.

Maurice Graff, disputes director of the board, said that union requests for sick benefits, straight time for holidays not worked, and one week's pay to all employees with one year of service upon termination of their employment, were denied.

The decision gave the workers vacations of one and two weeks for one and five years service respectively; straight time compensation while performing jury service on regular work days, and time and a half for hours worked in excess of eight hours in any work day, and forty in any work week.

Jap Planes Make Few Passes At Assaulters

By MURLIN SPENCER
GUAM, July 24 (AP)—Two thousand American warplanes, by Tokyo's admission, from carriers and half a dozen land bases hammered Japan with concentrated fury today, pounding warships in the great Kure naval base and blasting the pulsing industrial centers of Osaka and Nagoya with 4,000 tons of explosives.

The prowling U.S. Third Fleet moved back to the shores of Japan in force, sending between 1,000 and 1,500 carrier planes roaring over Kure and inland cities of Honshu island.

Associated Press war correspondents with the fleet reported pilots located hiding enemy warships and dove to the attack through intense anti-aircraft fire and the first aggressive fighter interception the enemy has mounted in two weeks of naval air and sea bombardments.

AP Correspondent James Lindley reported at least one direct hit with a 1,000 pound bomb on a warship. Correspondent Richard O'Malley told of two others.

The greatest force of Superfortresses ever to take the air roared up from their Marianas bases to attack Osaka and Nagoya. Headquarters here said there were more than 600 Tokyo placed the number above 700.

Four thousand tons of bombs—some of them two tonners—were dropped on five war plants in the Nagoya-Osaka area in the attack, first daylight strike of the B-29s since June 26. The Superforts encountered no fighter opposition and only moderate anti-aircraft fire.

Japanese broadcasts reported Mustang fighters, Liberator bombers and other light aircraft from Iwo Jima and Okinawa hammered widespread areas of southern Honshu in coordinated sorties. (Normally around 300 of these land-based planes hit Japan daily).

The Domei agency termed the 2,000 plane assault the "heaviest ever" carried out on the homeland. It claimed damage to ships was light but admitted that important establishments at Osaka were hit and fires started.

Lindley's dispatch said that the enemy, apparently goaded into action by the Third fleet's recent taunts, finally sent up planes to harass the attackers.

Returning carrier pilots reported that 12 Japanese fighter planes swept out of the clouds and made passes at them. One U.S. Hellcat was lost in the swirling fight that followed. At least one Nipponese pilot was downed.

No Opposition In Charter Debating

WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—Criticizing "cynics" who predict there always will be war, Democratic Leader Barkley (Ky.) told the senate today the United Nations organization will succeed "if the peoples of the world will do it shall."

Barkley began the second day of debate on the United Nations charter as informal checkups by both democratic and republican leaders failed to disclose a single opposition vote against the charter except that of Senator Hiram Johnson (R-Calif.).

Johnson is ill in the naval hospital and may not be present if a ratification vote comes this week as expected.

Tracing the long history of attempts to establish lasting peace, Barkley voiced belief that "the efforts is worth renewing." He preferred, he said, the philosophy of Woodrow Wilson and others like him to "that of the congregation of cynics who sit, as they have always sat, in the seats of the scornful and unbelieving."

Barring unforeseen developments, a vote may be reached in the next few days.

There remained also the possibility that President Truman might report to the senate on the Potsdam Big Three meeting. He might make a personal report to the senators, even though house members already have gone home.

Critics of some charter provisions admittedly were withholding fire until later in the week.

Barkley held the lead-off position in today's discussion after four hours and 15 minutes of talk yesterday failed to raise an opposition note.

In fact, the only criticism of the charter came from one of its staunchest supporters, Senator Fulbright (D-Ark.). Fulbright complained that the document does not go far enough.

Today On The Home Front—The Senate Giveth And The Senate May Taketh Away Charter Success

WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—The senate will approve the United Nations charter. That will make us a member. Then the senate could wreck the United Nations and our part in it.

That may not happen. It can happen. It's something to watch for. Plenty of people here think the real fight on the charter will come up later.

Bucking the charter now, with public sentiment for it, would not be popular, even for a senator. And even an isolationist senator can vote for the charter as it stands.

But two important points are left open. They have to be worked out after the charter itself is approved. Each nation will have to work out those open points in its own way. These are the points as they affect us:

Aussies Slaughter Japs By Truckload

MANILA, July 24 (AP)—Australian troops have slaughtered several truckloads of Japanese six miles north of Balikpapan in southeast Borneo and advanced three miles northward along the inland road leading to the oil fields of Samarinda, in eastern Borneo, General MacArthur's headquarters announced today.

The Japanese were caught as they tried to withdraw secretly from around Mount Batocampar, where they had made a strong stand for more than two weeks.

The water approaches to Samarinda were shelled during the night by Allied light naval units. (The Melbourne radio, in a broadcast recorded by the American Broadcasting company, said the Japanese retreating from the Balikpapan area "are leaving a trail of dead through native villages. Groups of natives are being slaughtered every day. In one village the whole population was destroyed.")

Nothing Illegal, Just Unusual, To Beat Car

HASTINGS, Neb., July 24 (AP)—A resounding crash, followed by another and another, brought passersby and then police running to where a soldier was smashing the windows of an automobile.

Police started asking the soldier questions and left, scratching their heads.

They said the soldier owned the car and was giving it punishment—because it wouldn't start. Nothing illegal, the officers explained.

Minor Star Convinces Judge Of Money Need

LOS ANGELES, July 24 (AP)—Actress Pat Clark didn't get to see the judge but she got what she came after.

Pat, a minor whose movie contract is under jurisdiction of superior court, appeared in shark-skin clamdiggers, black wool halter, bare-legged and shod in moccasins and asked to see the judge because she wanted $300 above her allowance.

Clerk Jesse Jones listened to her reasons, took a startled look, agreed and communicated her petition to his honor in chambers. An order for the money came quickly.

Her reason: "My summer wardrobe is inadequate."

Pateline: Pacific Moros Shout "Sucker Joe Here?", Trade Bolos For Mattress Covers

By JAMES HUTCHESON

TAWI TAWI, Sula Archipelago, Philippines (AP)—The Moslem Moros of this new American war base closest to Borneo shout "Hey Joe! Good trade, Joe!" from dawn to dusk as they paddle their canoes around ships in the harbor.

Bolo knives with hand-carved scabbards go like hotcakes to the Americans. The Moro trading canoes also carry chickens, eggs, shells, pearls, fruits, metal keepsake boxes, and other items. But bolos are the number one item.

After the "Good trade, Joe!" approach, the shouted bargaining goes something like this:

"How much for bolo?"

"One mattress cover, one shirt, one pants," and the Moro points at the American's clothes.

"Aw, that's a holiday. I give you one mattress cover, one carton cigarettes."

"Good bolo, Joe. One mattress, one shirt, one pants."

After a bit of haggling, it's a sale for a mattress cover and a shirt.

The mattress cover has become a strangely valuable item with these people who have been virtually without cloth for three years. Womenfolk can use it for making any number of things. Cigarettes carry a high trading value here. They bring, for instance, about eight bananas to the pack.

Yanks Lost In Cellar Without Marse Joe

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Dark days have fallen upon the once mighty New York Yankees who today are exploring the unfamiliar regions of the American league's second division without the guiding hand of Manager Joe McCarthy.

Marse Joe is off to Buffalo for a short rest period to reconsider a proffered resignation that President Larry MacPhail yesterday refused to accept.

Ill health prompted McCarthy to decide to step down in a surprise move but he agreed to think it over while undergoing a thorough physical checkup by his Buffalo physician. Upon the result of that examination hinges the baseball future of the man who won eight pennants and six world series for the Bronx Bombers.

While the Yankee stadium seethed with various rumors, the ball club itself continued to wander about in a daze, blowing a tough 11-inning decision to Chicago, 1-0, to sink into the second division.

The White Sox took over third behind Detroit and Washington and the idle St. Louis Browns for fifth. It was the seventh loss in 10 starts during the current stadium home stand for the Yankees.

After battling Bill Dietrich down the stretch for 10 scoreless innings, Bill (Sinker Ball) Zuber blew up in the second overtime session to lose the game on a walk, two wild pitches, a scratch infield single and his own error. Zuber slipped on the damp turf and fell while trying to field Oris Hockett's drive and then threw wildly past first as the only run scored.

The rebirth of Bobo Newsom of Philadelphia would be the top baseball news of the moment, if it weren't for the McCarthy affair, for old Bobo helped himself to a fourth straight decision, 1-0, over the piteously Detroit Tigers. Newsom had lost 12 straight before being past the Yanks and Boston, fore he shut out St. Louis two weeks ago.

Since Newsom broke his string of defeats he has pitched 36 innings allowing only three runs and a total of 14 hits while beating all the western clubs.

Washington dropped a 2-1 verdict to Cleveland, bowing to Ed Klemman's five-hit pitching. The Tribe hurled his own cause with a double and single.

Pittsburgh clubbed three Boston Braves hurlers for 17 hits, four by Jim Russell, in downing Bob Coleman's gang, 8-5. Bob Elliott, Bill Salkeld and Russell hit homers for the Buccos but Tommy Holmes of the Braves went hitless in five at bats to drop out of the batting lead.

St. Louis and Boston in the American and all National league clubs except Pittsburgh and Boston enjoyed an open date.

United Nations, Like A Lantern, Lights Way To Permanent Peace

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, July 23 (AP)—This is a coldblooded look at the United Nations, at what it will mean in the world we'll live in.

It's a far from perfect organization. It's built around the five big powers; United States, Britain, Russia, France, China.

They'll have to pull together. If they don't, goodbye United Nations! They'll dominate the world of the future. Make no mistake about that.

The senate this week, with great publicity will debate and approve the United Nations charter.

That puts us in the organization designed to prevent war.

For the United Nations to throw its weight against any aggressor, all five of the big five must vote "yes."

A single "no vote" blocks military action. So, if any one of the Big Five goes on the warpath, the United Nations collapses. For this reason.

A warring member of the Big Five would not vote "yes" for the United Nations to take action against itself.

What will it take to beat the Jap?

How strong is he? How good is he? How tough is he?

Says Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell:
"The Jap is a shrewd soldier and a tricky enemy. His fighting tricks are countless. He has been learning them for years under the constant unremitting system that makes him such a dangerous opponent. The Jap is a tough, determined soldier. Japs will not surrender in masses like the Germans. We must even count on fanatical opposition from the civilian population."

Says Lt. General Holland M. Smith, U. S. Marine Corps:
"The Japanese fighting man may sometimes fight foolishly but he always fights furiously, savagely, ruthlessly. Any notion that such a people will wilt morally, psychologically or economically is quite certainly wrong. Our battles with the Jap will go into Marine Corps history as the toughest of all our time. Beating him will take the best we've got."

Says Gen. Brehon Somervell:
"The war in the Pacific will be hard and it may be long. It will require great effort to defeat the close-knit power of the Japanese. Operations of greatly increased scope in the Pacific will be required to assemble and drive home the preponderance of force necessary to assure the complete defeat of Japan. Until the last Jap has surrendered, the Army Service Forces and those who support us on the home front cannot drop their burden."

Says Admiral Halsey:
"The Japanese are strong. They are tricky. They are hard fighters. It will take all the force America can muster to beat them—every ship, every plane, every soldier, and every worker. The task may be long, how long no one can say. But we can say this: It can be shortened only if every American worker sticks to his job of backing American fighters. It will take the best every one of us can do to beat Japan."

Minors To Accept Setup For 25 Years

CHICAGO, July 24 (AP)—Minor league baseball, which shouted lustily for an equal voice with the majors in selection of a high commissioner for the sport after the death of the late Kenesaw Mountain Landis, now is ready to go along with the present setup for 25 years—with reservations.

Representatives of the minors, meeting with major league moguls yesterday and last night to discuss possible changes in the major-minor league code, agreed to string along with the present commissioner setup until 1970, with the stipulation that at any time they so desired, they could abrogate the agreement on a year's notice.

The agreement to maintain the status quo, insofar as the office of baseball commissioner is concerned, was the highlight of the long session during which representatives of the majors turned thumbs down on a proposal to double the draft price of players.

The commissioner's argument arose last winter after Landis' death. The minors which must abide by the commissioner's rulings, have had no voice in his election, and they wanted to sit in when a successor to Landis was chosen. Representatives of the 16 major league clubs, however, elected Senator A. B. (Happy) Chandler to the post without the minors having a voice.

Nothing was accomplished regarding the minors' desire for better protection of territorial and franchise rights.

Lt. Patty Berg Leads Ladies In Golf Meet
CHICAGO, July 24 (AP)—Many of the nation's top lady golfers, headed by Lt. Patty Berg of the U. S. marines women's corps, tee off today in qualifying rounds for the women's all-American tournament—one of the features of the "three-ring golf circus" at Tam O'Shanter country club.

That circus, of course, will be featured by the $60,000 all-American open that has attracted the country's leading pro-swingers.

Amateurs from all parts of the country yesterday swept through qualifying rounds for their section of the big play that actually gets underway Thursday.

Bill Gilbert of Cincinnati, Big Ten golf champion in 1940, and Bill Hyndman of Philadelphia, headed the parade of amateur qualifiers. Each carded a 71.

Rosen Takes Holmes' Crown As High Batter
NEW YORK, July 24 (AP)—Goody Rosen of Brooklyn had supplanted Tommy Holmes of Boston in the National league hitting derby today but the veteran Tony Cuccinello of Chicago still held his American league lead over Washington's George Case.

According to averages including yesterday's games, Rosen at .367 was one point ahead of Holmes whose mark skidded 26 points to .366 during the past week.

Cuccinello's average was clipped five degrees to .325 but he was nine points ahead of Case at .316.

Quick Cure
During the patients' softball tourney at Welch convalescent hospital, Daytona Beach, Fla., a wounded overseas veteran who was suffering from adhesions in his arm was playing in the outfield.

The tying run was on base when someone drove a single out his way. The vet fielded the ball and, thinking only of the play, made a perfect throw to nab the runner at the plate.

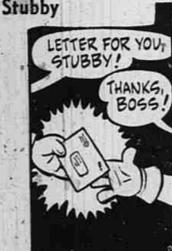

Then he discovered that the peg had cleared the adhesions and now he's strictly 1-A.

A communique from Jacobs Beach tells how Luis Firpo tested his protege, Abel Cestac, first by socking him on the chin and then by letting himself be socked. Abel knocked Luis right through a barn door (which Firpo is bigger than).

Tub-thumper Harry Markson suggests calling Cestac the "young bull of the pampas" but it sounds more like the old bull from 49th street.

Service Dept.
Lt. Bob Crosby, the ex-band leader, says his only reason for going to fleet marine ball games in Hawaii is to listen to Marine Boots Poffenberger, who is rated the best baseball "jockey" in the islands.

Some others must have different ideas for the "major" league played to an estimated 700,000 G.I. spectators (all for free) in 90 games of the first half of the season.

Baseball Expected In League Program

ABILENE, July 24 (AP)—Lectures on three of the four major high school sports are scheduled for the annual Texas coaching school here Aug. 6-10 and prospects are that the other one will be installed next year.

Football, basketball and track are on the program with Tom Dennis, coach of the Port Arthur state champions, discussing football; Charley Turner, coach of Paschall high school, state champion in basketball, lecturing on that sport; and Bones Irvin, coach of Thomas Jefferson high school (San Antonio), telling about track. His team won the state title last season.

Baseball is not down for lectures because there is no organization for this sport in the inter-scholastic league, but success of the state tournament in Dallas and a movement to put baseball into the league program indicate it will get a spot on the coaching school's schedule in 1946.

August Erfurth of Brackenridge high school (San Antonio), National AAU junior high hurdles champion, is scheduled to give an exhibition.

Head instructors for the school, expected to attract more than 300 coaches, are Leo (Dutch) Meyer of Texas Christian University and Skip Palrang, coach of Boys Town, Neb. Cecil Grigg, assistant coach at Rice, will instruct in backfield play, and Bill Jameson, line coach of Texas A. and M., will instruct in line play.

For almost an entire day there was no water in the mains and the mercury was near the 100 mark but relief came yesterday when a tractor furnished a makeshift power plant for the pumps.

WLB Chairman Gives Advice To Unionists

DALLAS, July 24 (AP)—Clifford W. Potter, vice chairman for the regional War Labor Board, said here that "a union never won a war-time dispute by forcing federal seizure of an enterprise and smart union leaders know it."

Potter advised unions and management yesterday not to force such seizures, declaring that all conditions prevailing when the government takes over remain unchanged.

1 OF EVERY 4 BOUGHT RIVERSIDES

Before the war, when truck tires were freely available, when truck owners still could choose the brand they wanted, 1 of every 4 of the biggest operators were big users of Riversides! Remember, these big "fleet" operators keep a mileage record on every tire. They know from their records that Riversides give more miles-per-dollar. So they buy Riversides! And more Riversides! Take a tip from these operators who know which tires stand-up best. Put Riversides on your car. You, too, will get more miles-per-dollar, more protection against blow-outs, and more miles-of-safety! Today, Riversides are actually stronger than Wards pre-war tires! Stronger because Riversides' cords are stronger to begin with; then chemically-strengthened to make your tire last longer, and lessen the possibility of a blow-out!

MORE MILES-OF-SAFETY ON RIVERSIDES

*Before the war, 17 of the 65 largest truck fleets, listed by the Automotive Manufacturers Association, bought Wards Riverside Tires.

As a footnote to the committee's report revealed, Dr. Donovan also did not believe academic freedom is reasonably safeguarded.

The Students' Association of the university in a statement signed by Clayton E. Blakeway, president, said today the probation order "comes as a direct result of the dictatorial and repressive measures of the men who composed the former board of regents."

"The sin of the present board is that in their omission to perform any act which would rectify the situation bequeathed to them by the old board."

"We insist that the present board take immediate and vigorous action not just to lift this probation but to return the university to its former position as a free and vital institution where professors will be proud to teach and from which we students will be proud to go out into the world and say 'I graduated from the University of Texas.'"

Research To Replace Draft, Senators Say

WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—Evidence mounted today that peacetime conscription legislation will run into congressional contentions that it is unnecessary if the nation develops a front-rank research program.

This was the theme two senators took in introducing a bill yesterday to establish a national science foundation to foster research activities.

"Research is the key to military success," Senator Kilgore (D-W. Va.) told a reporter.

"Another war will be won in the laboratory, not on the drill field," said Senator Johnson (D-Colo.).

Col. Nissley Speaks At Rotary Lunch

Col. John K. Nissley, commanding officer of the Big Spring Bombardier School, told Rotarians Tuesday he hoped for a continuation of friendly relations between the post and community.

A member of the Chico, Calif., Rotary club, Col. Nissley spoke on maintaining the relations as established by his friend, the late Col. Sam Ellis, who supervised construction of this post for the army and was its first commanding officer. Col. Nissley said that insofar as possible, the post desired to assist in civic undertakings but necessarily there would be limitations.

He urged club members and all in this area to visit the post on Aug. 1 when open house will be held in observance of the 31st birthday of the army air force.

Lt. Col. Elbert Helton, director of training at the base, Maj. Harry Wheeler, special services officer, and Maj. W. E. Turner, public relations officer, also spoke. Col. Helton invited attendance at the graduation exercises Wednesday.

City Swimming Pool To Open Wednesday

The municipal swimming pool will be reopened Wednesday, it was announced Tuesday. The pool has been drained and cleaned and is being refilled. Hugh Cochran will act as pool manager.

No further word has been heard from the two diving boards, which are supposedly in transit. According to a letter from the manufacturers received more than two weeks ago, the boards were being shipped and should have reached Big Spring within 10 days.

Thief Gang Prefers Variety, It Seems

A gang of thieves roaming the town yesterday were believers in the adage that "variety is the spice of life."

The first thing missing was a rocking chair which Mrs. Walter Underwood told police was stolen from her front porch. Lt. O. J. Rand of the bombardier school then told police that a $90 camera had been taken from the compartment of his car parked on Third street.

More common were the taking of a truck and a bicycle. Police were informed at 5:30 p. m. that a 1930 truck was taken from 400 N. Lancaster, and a man was apprehended before 7 p. m. in connection with the theft of the vehicle.

Dale Pritchett reported to officers that his bicycle was stolen from a bicycle parking space in front of a downtown theater. Two drunks were given $15 fines and J. E. Liles was fined $50 and his drivers license was suspended six months for reckless driving. Six traffic fines were paid Monday and two traffic tickets were issued.

Burma Allies Wipe Out Japs In Pocket

CALCUTTA, July 24 (AP)—Approximately one-fifth of the 5,000 Japanese troops pocketed by Allied forces in the Pegu area in southern Burma now have been wiped out in their attempts to break out, the Southeast Asia command said today.

More than 1,000 Japanese have been killed and 80 captured in heavy fighting which followed efforts of large groups of the enemy to escape eastwards to the Sittang river, a communique said. The total dead does not include those killed by artillery fire or by air strikes, which are taking a considerable toll.

Spitfires and Thunderbolts attacked Japanese held villages and defense positions in the Sittang area.

More Adults Needed For Philmont Camp

More adult scouts are needed to make the Philmont trip with Boy Scouts, H. D. Norris said Tuesday. He added that due to unexpected conflicts many of the men already registered would be unable to attend.

More than 20 men originally planned to attend the camp, but the number had dropped to 14 Tuesday from all towns in this area sending boys to the outing. He said that 20 adults could be used.

Norris reminded that there is no charge for adults, and their only expenditure would be for meals on the way to and from Philmont. The group will leave early Saturday morning.

Patch Comes To New Command At Brooks

SAN ANTONIO, July 24 (AP)—Lieut. Gen. Alexander M. Patch, veteran commander of troops in both the Pacific and European fronts, arrived at Brooks Field late yesterday from Washington to take over his new command with the 4th army.

In his new command, Gen. Patch will be charged with giving the final training touches to thousands of redeployed veterans of the war against Germany before they go to the Pacific where he himself has seen service against the Japanese.

Chamberlain Indicted In Naylor Shooting

CLARENDON, July 24 (AP)—Will Chamberlain, 44, stock farmer and former county commissioner, was indicted by a grand jury yesterday in the fatal shooting of John Naylor, 43, last Wednesday.

Chamberlain was released on $20,000 bond and trial was set for August 20.

Naylor's body was found in the front yard of the Chamberlain farm home by Sheriff Guy Wright. Two charges from a shotgun were in it.

'Sentimental Journey', Dave, All Woman Can Remember Of Identity

RANGER, July 24 (AP)—Chief of Police George Murphy said today a well dressed young woman who walked into a drug store here, asked for a glass of water, and then fainted, apparently was a victim of amnesia.

He said the woman was apparently between 20 and 25 years of age, weighed 125 pounds, had blue-grey eyes, light brown hair, a tanned skin, and a scar at the left corner of her mouth. He said she apparently fainted from hunger.

A Ranger doctor who examined her said she had all the symptoms of amnesia. Chief Murphy said the woman seemed to remember the name "Dave" and in connection with it the song "Sentimental Journey."

Eastern Floods Are Heaviest In Years

Rampant rivers and rain-swollen creeks boiled over their banks in the east today as some sections underwent their most disastrous floods in a generation.

The rest of the nation, for the most part, was hot and moist, and farmers watched with satisfaction as crops pushed up noticeably.

Eastern and western New York, western Massachusetts, New Jersey and Vermont reported that war plants, victory gardens, homes and crops were swept yesterday by flood waters.

Pennsylvania and Virginia also suffered from floods. Connecticut escaped the high waters, caused by days of excessively heavy rainfall.

Police estimated damage to roads and bridges in New York and Massachusetts at more than $3,500,000 and said estimates of private property damage would raise the total considerably.

Damage in Paterson, N. J., was estimated at $1,000,000. Two deaths by drowning occurred in the raging Hancock river in Massachusetts and a woman was missing in Little Falls, N. J., after her home was swept into the Peckman river.

In the rest of the nation, five deaths from drowning and two from heat prostration were reported yesterday. At Champaign, Ill., rain and heat "pushed" the late corn crop up 3 1/2 inches in 24 hours, it was reported.

Ice Cream Barge Sails Dessert To Navy Boys

WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—Russell S. Griswold of Marshall, Tex., is the chief engineer on an ice cream barge.

The navy tells about it. Before it sent the concrete barge it uses as an ice cream stand to the Pacific, men on ships smaller than a destroyer didn't have much ice cream, the navy explains.

The barge will serve principally such craft as destroyer escorts, small minesweepers, submarine chasers, patrol craft, LCI's, LSM's and tugs.

The barge is equipped with a commercial type forty quart ice cream freezer which is capable of manufacturing 10 gallons of ice cream every seven minutes. The ice cream hardening room has a capacity of 2,000 gallons storage at a temperature of 18 to 20 degrees below zero.

BOARD OF REVIEW PLANNED

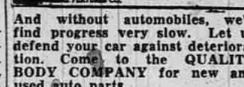

H. D. Norris, Scout executive, said Tuesday that despite the fact that a number of boys and men will be away, a Board of Review will be held next Tuesday. He stated that a Board of Review will be held at Philmont for those attending the camp, and that a Court of Honor also will be held.

Permanent Type Air Bases To Be Kept

WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—Army air bases with permanent-type housing and training installations have a good chance of being kept in operation after the war.

This was disclosed in a communication from army air force headquarters to Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) in response to a question about use of already deactivated fields in redeployment of flyers from the European to Pacific war theaters.

After noting that the shift from a two-front to a one-front war necessitated a "radical curtailment" of the training program and that the war department seeks to effect the greatest possible economy, air force officials discussed with Rayburn the question of post-war air training centers.

"It is impossible for us to determine with any accuracy now how many stations we will need after V-J day, because congress has not stated yet what the overall strength of the air forces will be in the postwar world," stated the communication to Rayburn.

"Any additional requirements for postwar use of the war-time stations will see war-time stations selected which have the maximum number of facilities, including housing for personnel and particularly gunnery and bombing ranges."

STAMFORD, Conn., July 24 (AP)—Lep. Clare Boothe Luce (R-Conn.) intends to add the designation "actress" to the many to which her career entitles her.

Connecticut's glamorous congresswoman who has been editor, playwright, author, lecturer, and foreign correspondent will play the leading role in George Bernard Shaw's "Candida" to be presented here during the week of August 6 by Stamford associates, producers of summer stock.

Coahoma Schools Need Superintendent

Coahoma school officials are searching for a new superintendent.

Last week the election of Rufus Walker, Sweetwater, to the post was announced. Before the week was out, however, Walker resigned the new position. He has been serving as director of elementary education at Sweetwater.

George Boswell, who has been superintendent of the Coahoma schools for more than a dozen years, has submitted his resignation to become effective Sept. 1.

Private Sentenced At Court Martial

Private Marvin L. Maddox, squadron C, was sentenced to three months hard labor and forfeiture of $19.06 monthly for three months by a special court martial at the Big Spring Bombardier school Tuesday morning.

Pvt. Maddox faced charges of hit and run, failing to stop and render aid, and failure to identify himself. He had been picked up over to post authorities on July 8 after Clarion M. Baklund, Wilmar, Minn., on-the-line cadet at the base, suffered a broken leg the previous midnight as he walked along W. 3rd street here.

Scholastic Transfer Progressing Slowly

The story about transfer of children from school, district to school district within the county is much the same this year — far too slow.

This was the picture given Tuesday by Walker Bailey, county superintendent, who pointed out that patrons have only one more week in which to effect transfers. After July 31 it will be too late. Failure in most cases will mean that the patron will stand to lose the amount of scholastic apportionment, which this year is $30.

Merchants Buying Rodeo Decorations

Arrangements were underway Thursday for selling rodeo decorations to merchants, Jimmy Jennings, ABClub decoration chairman, said Tuesday.

The decorations will be of the same type as were used last year, with standards proclaiming welcome to cowboys and visitors. Jennings expressed a belief that soliciting for the decorations would be completed soon and that Earl Ezell, decorator, would have them up by July 31.

Care Pays Big Dividends

This is Farm Safety week, proclaimed nationally by President Harry Truman and in Texas by Governor Coke Stevenson.

It seems to us that the president summed it up aptly in his proclamation, pointing to the fact that skilled labor is desperately needed to meet farm production quotas this year; that labor lost through death or accident is a production as well as a human loss; and that accidents on the farm are creating untold misery and sorrow and suffering through 1,200 fatalities and 25,000 injuries each month.

As with any type of accidents, those on the farm are mostly the product of carelessness. Farmers work with machinery they know is hazardous, they do things which they know to be unsafe for the same reason that men in shops do these same things. It is a case of familiarity breeding contempt.

Yet such a simple thing as always—always without fail—pulling a tractor out of gear before removing or permitting anyone to remove trash from the plows; of always checking the tractor to see that it is out of gear before even so much as turning on the ignition to start it will save human lives and limbs.

There are dozens of other simple little precautions which will prevent accidents on the farm and make it a safe place instead of one of the most dangerous—on the face of records—of any place in the country. Just a little time and care pays big dividends.

The Best Answer

Perhaps it isn't exactly a praise-worthy attribute of character, but a considerable segment of American people—that we call good people—delights in circumventing rationing regulations.

To get around a regulation is considered right honorable in some of our better circles. Less a mark of distinction but somewhat challenging to ingenuity is the ability to get around voluntary rationing attempted by merchants to broaden the base of distribution.

From another town one merchant observed that "some of our best people are the worst liars. For example, we have tried to voluntarily apportion eggs, ladies' hose, cigarettes, etc., to each customer. Many people I know have received their allotment early in the week, come in the latter part of the week insisting that they haven't made such purchases. While we know they have received their quota, we get called down if we question their veracity."

Called down, did he say? The gentleman is a master at understatement.

Mirrors Of Austin—

Liquor Not Up To Par

By PAUL BOLTON

The consumers of liquor ought to be interested in the fact that several carloads of liquor have been turned back after failing to meet the standards of the Liquor Control Board—and even more stringent standards may be made.

W. W. Ince, in charge of the Liquor Control Board's wholesale division, says that "too much" off-quality spirituous liquors had been shipped to Texas and failed to meet its labeled proof requirements. Other liquor was turned back because it "didn't even have the characteristic of the liquor it was supposed to represent. We've found some colored with tanner bark, and a lot of the present-day crop of rums and gins aren't meeting our standards, either."

Samples from virtually every shipment which comes to Texas are run through Ince's Austin laboratory. The liquors which fail to measure up to tests are not confiscated. They go back to the shipper and, presumably, into some other state where the testing is less rigid.

Currently ten carloads of blended whiskeys are being held up awaiting the outcome of such tests.

Airline Blanket Is Not All Wool

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—While the commercial aviation emphasis these days is all on the international airways and who is going to fly them, a movement has started in Congress to speed airline service to small communities over the nation from Caco, Me., to San Juan Capistrano, in you know where.

While we like to think of the United States as a country well blanketed by the airlines, the blanket doesn't cover much more than our knees.

There are 360 cities and towns now on main, trunk or feeder lines of commercial companies. It sounds fine. But they serve only about a third of our total population. There are 2,500 other communities which have applications before the Civil Aeronautics Board, and are eager to take off the minute CAB flashes the green light.

To hurry this along, Rep. Jennings Randolph, the West Virginian who is about the best friend commercial aviation has in Congress, has introduced a resolution in the House requesting CAB to open the throttle in granting these applications.

The resolution actually is only a declaration of intent—a "vote of confidence"—but it's believed that by going on record as favoring the quickest possible action on the applications, Congress can provide the stimulus that will prod CAB along.

If CAB is lagging, it isn't because they want to hold up service to the smaller communities, said Josh Lee, former senator from Oklahoma and now

The War Today

by Dewitt Mackenzie
AP Foreign News Analyst

International peace isn't a commodity which can be manufactured like pop-bottles, and it isn't a condition that can be secured by the simple expedient of policing with armed forces.

The foundations of peace must be laid in the minds and hearts of men, and this can be achieved only through real acquaintance among the world's peoples. That acquaintance can be better and more quickly attained by a free exchange of news than in any other way. Travel in foreign lands is, of course, a great educator but it would take a lifetime and a fortune to study the globe that way, whereas you can encompass it daily through the news while sitting in the comfort of your own home.

It, therefore, is of vast importance that President Truman reportedly is trying to secure an agreement with Generalissimo Stalin and Prime Minister Churchill that will permit American correspondents to work freely in Europe. Facilities accorded American newsmen obviously would apply equally to the correspondents of other nations in good standing.

It's high time the outside world knows what is going on inside Europe. By the same token, the war-torn continent should be given the news of the rest of the world just as soon as feasible.

The corollary to the above remarks is that unnecessary censorship of news is one of the prime causes of misunderstanding among nations. Unfortunately most of the globe now is under a blanket, due in part to war conditions. Restrictions naturally must be maintained in matters relating to the war of the Pacific, but it's difficult to see why there shouldn't be a sweeping relaxation of censorship in Europe and the Middle East. The same thing can be said of most of the Latin American countries which control news.

Well, it all adds up to one conclusion, that the best way to keep the most people honest is to let the pocketbook be the individual governor. We do not propose unrestrained bidding on current markets, for there is entirely too much of that now in the black side, but we do see real need for boosting civilian production as rapidly and as extensively as possible whenever it will not impede the war effort.

Life's Darkest Moment

With The AEF: "General" Censorship Not Yet Removed

By HOWARD COWAN
(Substituting For Hal Boyle)

WITH THIRD ARMY IN GERMANY (AP)—Generals as a rule are easy people to talk to. Things they say ordinarily make good sense and, with the world in the shape it is, this should be all right important to the folks back home. "Maybe so," the censors used to argue, "but there's military security. A war on, you know."

That was before the war ended in Europe. There was a flat rule against quoting anything a general said either directly or indirectly, no matter how trivial the statement might be.

If the general pinned a decoration on a soldier and congratulated him with a few words as he shook his hand—censors drew a blue pencil through that part of the story.

There was one alternative. You could have it "referred." That meant sending the quotation up through army channels for a general or board of general or some body—it never was quite established who—to decide if it was fitting and proper that the general should say "congratulations Jones. I'm proud of you."

It is not much use arguing with the censors, anyway—they just follow orders—but you had to admit there was a war on and maybe German generals should not know what our generals were thinking and saying.

The generals began going home to receive the plaudits of a grateful nation. The generals were called on for speeches—dozens of them.

The war correspondents in occupied Germany exulted in the field day the news hounds on the home front were having with "their" generals. They crashed the front pages daily with news quotations. There were no censors and no holds barred. If a general said it, it got into print.

Another thing happened about that time. From SHEAF came a hazy report that censorship had ended with the war, that henceforth there would be little if any interference with correspondents, so correspondents reasonable assumed they were done with annoying censorship of their generals.

General Patton drove down to Garmisch Parkenkirchen the other day to review the Tenth armored division. He made a speech.

But when correspondents handed in their stories the censors said, "sorry, I'll have to refer these quotes."

Hollywood—

Love In Wartime Touchingly Done

By BOB THOMAS

"You Came Along," a Hal Wallis production for Paramount with Robert Cummings, Elizabeth Scott, Don DeFore, Charles Drake and Julie Bishop. Running time: 95 minutes.

HOLLYWOOD—On the whole, this story of love in wartime is originally and touchingly done. It concerns three flying heroes who are conducted on a war bond tour by female treasury representative (Elizabeth Scott). One of the fliers (Robert Cummings) falls in love with her and they marry, even though he is dying of an incurable disease.

In less competent hands, the story could easily have become maudlin. But fortunately the sentimentality is usually kept on an even keel. The weight of the theme is lifted by the characterization of the three fliers. With their distaste for heroics and their "eat, drink and be merry" attitude, they seem authentic.

"You Came Along" introduces Elizabeth Scott, a newcomer from the stage. Because of her blonde hair and foghorn voice, the comparison to Lauren Bacall will be obvious. In action she has more of the characteristics of a languorous Hepburn. She exhibits a good deal of uneasiness in her screen debut but with proper guidance she can become a first-rate screen personality.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

They Won't Find Hitler In Patagonia

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—It may take a long time to find out whether Hitler and his bride Eva Braun escaped to Patagonia. The country is a series of vast Nazi-owned ranches, where German is spoken almost exclusively and where Hitler could be hidden easily and successfully for years.

The ranches in this southern part of Argentina cover thousands of acres and have been under Nazi management for generations. Because of absolute German control, it would be impossible for any non-German to penetrate the area to make a thorough investigation as to Hitler's whereabouts.

Along the coast of Patagonia, many Germans own land which contains harbors deep enough for submarine landings. And if submarines could get to Argentine - Uruguayan waters from Germany, as they definitely did, there is no reason why they could not go a little farther south to Patagonia. Also there is no reason why Hitler could not have been on one of them.

Note—On December 15, 1943, this column reported that "Hitler's gang has been working to build up a place of exile in Argentina in case of defeat. After the fall of Stalingrad and then Tunisia, they began to see defeat staring them in the face. That was their cue to move in on Argentina." The same column also cited chapter and verse regarding German-trained officials who ruled the new Argentine dictatorship. At San Francisco, Nelson Rockefeller and Jimmy Dunn insisted that the U. S. A. recognize Argentina.

Note 2—If it ever comes to identifying Hitler, Dr. Robert Kempner, former German police official now living in Landowne, Pa., has the answers. Kempner, who was in charge of the investigation after Hitler's Beer Hall Putsch, says that Hitler's right thumb is abnormally long, his right ear pointed on top, and his mouth is very receding. Kempner has turned over his data to U. S. Army Politicis Killed Chennault Under Secretary of War Bob Patterson and Air Force Gen. Ira Eaker were put on a very hot spot during the secret session with the senate military affairs committee. Not a senator present was willing to believe that the resignation of Maj. Gen. Claire Chennault was caused by anything but army politics.

Patterson tried to explain the selection of Lieut. Gen. George Stratemeyer as supreme air chief in China on the basis of his seniority in rank over Chennault.

"That was known when Stratemeyer was sent out there," shot back hard-working Senator Harry Chandler of Kentucky, who spent several weeks watching Chennault's operation in the winter of 1943. Aside from that explanation, Patterson insisted that Stratemeyer's appointment over Chennault was strictly a decision on the part of Gen. Albert Wedemeyer, theater commander.

Senator Allen Ellender of Louisiana, not a member of the committee but sponsor of a resolution calling for senatorial investigation of the incident, was at the secret committee session and questioned Patterson and Eaker about Chennault's military prowess. War department officials did not attempt to argue about the "Tiger."

General Eaker, who had been in England and was shunted off to command of U. S. Air Forces in Italy, was well received by the senators. His own experience, they thought, was part of the same army politics which resulted in Chennault's resignation. The Eaker incident, however, was not discussed during the meeting.

"Chennault Got Bored"—Eaker General Eaker attempted to explain that the war in China has reached a new stage. The important thing now, he said, is not overland operations against the Jap airmen and installations in China, but the stopping of food and raw material shipments from the Chinese mainland to Japan.

"This is a job of logistics," said Eaker, "and it just wouldn't appear to Chennault."

The senator, however, refused to believe this. Chandler and Senator Tom Stewart of Tennessee were particularly vehement in forcing Patterson and General Eaker to admit that Chennault is as capable a tactician as the air force has. Chandler had the two war chiefs squirming as he described the pitiful trickle of supplies with which Chennault had to operate until quite recently.

Senator Joe O'Mahoney of Wyoming spoke at length on the question of Chinese politics. Outlining the differences between the Chinese "communists" of North and the Chiang government. Finally, he asked Patterson if the real reason for placing Chennault in a subordinate position to general Stratemeyer was to appease the communists. Chennault is known as one of the staunchest supporters of the Chiang government and strongly against the communists.

Patterson, however, indignantly denied that Chinese politics entered into the move at all.

Senator Chandler proposed that Chennault be retired at the highest rank he has held—his present rank of major general. The committee will formally recommend this to the senate. Without such recommendation, it would be possible to retire Chennault at the rank and pay of major—his permanent rank. Chandler also proposed that the military affairs committee meet the general at his plane when he arrives in Washington. This will probably be done. Chennault is sure to be questioned extensively by the senators, but it is unlikely that anything further will develop.

Stillwell vs. Chennault The senators didn't go into it, but insiders who followed General Chennault's meteoric career knew as soon as they saw Gen. Vinegar Joe Stilwell come back in the

Money Increase To Aid Water Engineers

AUSTIN, July 23 (AP)—Increased appropriations by the 49th legislature will make possible expansion of some phases of the work of the state board of water engineers; the board has announced.

The emphasis will be placed on stream-flow investigation work in areas where post-war development demands more adequate information on such water supplies. Projects for conserving and using water for irrigation, flood control, and hydro-electric development are being planned.

Some stream flow stations will be abandoned, but others added. The increased appropriations will make possible expansion of engineering personnel, and permit installation of new equipment.

But He Can't Remember How He Used To Feel!

By JACK RUTLEDGE Associated Press Staff

Staff Sgt. Herbert Richardson of Amarillo thinks he's all right—but he's not sure.

Sgt. Richardson was a prisoner of war in Germany for ten months. Back in the United States, he telephoned his aunt in Amarillo. She asked him how he was.

"I think I'm all right," he said dubiously, "but I don't remember how I used to feel."

On the other hand, Sgt. J. L. Boyd of Waco doesn't feel so good and he blames it on Neptune.

He was injured in the customary initiation conducted on ships when they cross the Equator.

Sgt. Boyd got across the Equator for all right, but the initiation was so rugged it sent him to the hospital for two or three weeks.

When the drought got so bad he just couldn't take it any more. Sgt. Richardson was a prisoner of war in Germany for ten months.

Rogelio Castillo of Harlingen decided to do something about it. He got a box, put it in the middle of a street, and sat down. He said firmly he was going to sit there until it rained at least four inches. His citrus orchard needed moisture badly.

It rained. Four inches, says the Valley Morning Star.

The prize squash of the season is claimed by Rex Wilmon, aged 65, of Sulphur Springs.

The young gardener grew one that measured 16 3/4 inches in length.

Kenneth Pate, son of S-C J. P. Pate, and grandson of Mrs. C. L. Bean of Gatesville, has this war bond business figured out.

He buys war stamps, says every time he buys one "it brings daddy two miles nearer home."

CLARK FIELD, Luton, July 23 (AP)—One of Mexico's well-known writers and poets has put down his pen and is helping the Mexican expeditionary air force take part in the final air blows against Japan.

He is Cpl. Hugo Seaman Jimenez, formerly of Mexico City, and he's assigned as a unit mail clerk in the headquarters of the 201st fighter squadron of the Mexican expeditionary air force.

His wife, Mrs. Aurora Salazar De Seaman lives in Dallas, Tex.

Accommodation, Plus!

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 24 (AP) Police were seeking today to recover an automobile which was stolen from under the owner's very nose.

John Wilson reported that when he asked a man to guide his stalled machine while he pushed, the driver kept on going.

RAILWAY MAN DIES

DALLAS, July 24 (AP)—Charles E. Strong, 44, executive general agent of the Missouri Pacific Lines, died at a Dallas hospital last night. A resident of Harlingen, Texas, he was on a 30-day tour of the Missouri Pacific system when he was stricken here with a heart attack.

NAMED HEALTH DIRECTOR

HOUSTON, July 24 (AP)—Roy Needham, football and basketball coach at Jeff Davis high school here from 1926 through 1942, and assistant principal at the school since then has been named director of public health and physical education for boys in Houston public schools.

Home To Stay—
Arab Forgot Allah At Least Briefly

Paul J. Douret, back from two years and seven months of foreign service and now proud possessor of a discharge earned under the point system, tells of an excited Arab.

While serving in North Africa, word came to Douret's outfit that German planes were en route for a raid. Everybody scrambled for foxholes, ditches, or any depression. The Arab dutifully began bowing profusely and crying to Allah. On one of the upswings he looked into the sky, stopped and blurted: "G—d—, here they come."

Douret, who held rating of first sergeant with the 927th signal battalion, entered service April 9, 1942 and six months later was in Africa. He holds nine stars for the Tunisia, Sicily, Algeria-French Morocco, Naples-Foggia, Rome-Arno, So. France, No. France, Rhineland, Central Europe campaigns. He also holds the distinguished unit badge.

James H. Green, T/4, is among the discharges registering with the local board. He entered service Aug. 7, 1942, and has three stars on his EAME ribbon for Naples-Foggia, Rome-Arno, and Rhineland service. He was overseas two years and one month and was with the 701st army engineers.

Bill Shafer, corporal, who had 500 combat days with the cannon company of the 168th Infantry, a part of the famed 34th division which saw more combat service than any other in the war, is back with his discharge. He entered service here April 9, 1942 and went ashore at Casablanca 33 months ago. He holds six stars for the Algeria-French Morocco, Tunisia, Naples-Foggia, Rome-Arno, North Appennines and Po valley campaigns. Once he had a bad arm when a wound became infected. He is at home with his

Morrison School Term Ends Aug. 10

The Kate Morrison Americanization school has four more weeks before the current term is concluded.

Schedule calls for the pupils to finish their 1944-45 work by Aug. 10, marking also the end of a split term for the school serving the Latin-American section.

When local schools are resumed early in September, the Kate Morrison school will be on the same schedule. Heretofore, the school has been observing its vacation period from September to December because numbers of the children were working in cotton-fields.

However, in response to appeals from leaders in the Latin-American community, the terms are being made to conform to those of other city schools. Patrons argued that the number working in the fields were in the minority, and at any rate they would be better off in schools.

Social Security May Be Given Survivors Of Dead Serviceman

Survivors of deceased servicemen who worked at employment covered by the Social Security Act prior to their entrance into the armed forces were urged by Elliott W. Adams, manager of the San Angelo field office, to contact the nearest social security field office.

In addition to any benefits payable from war risk insurance, there may be also some payment from the old age and survivors insurance system, Adams explained. Such payments can be made if the workers was insured under the Social Security plan.

"Delay in filing the claim after notice of death is received may result in some loss of benefit by the survivor," Adams warned.
