Reminiscing Of Whiteflat

By Nora Bell Stephens Dunning

In reminiscing about the early days of my living and growing up in the Whiteflat community, I have precious memories of what the little town and people meant to me. The good times and bad, the sorrows and happiness, are a very loving part of my life.

Some of the early day settlers were the N. Shands, W. R. Tilson, A. B. Echols, Newman family. My dad, Hollis Stephens, came to this community in 1907. He moved with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Posey Stephens, from Red River County, to Mr. Day's place to farm. My father worked for Mr. Shands. Then in 1910 they moved to the A.B. Echols farm, north of the old four-cornered lake - land owned by Roy Grundy today. My father married Cordellia Gatewood in 1913. They moved into a new house built on the lake. I was born there and lived there my first seven years.

The folk of Whiteflat tell about the pie and box suppers. The boys used to switch the names so the boys wouldn't get their sweetheart's pie or box. They helped each other out during sickness and tragedy.

The first school was one-half mile north of town - a one-room building. Two early teachers were Mrs. Ada Wilkerson Eads and Mrs. Bessie Hamilton McWilliams. At one time in the late 20s several hundred children attended school in Whiteflat. Many times we didn't have enough desks and two pupils had to share a desk.

Due to the Depression, many families left Whiteflat and the parents voted to send the Junior and Senior classes to the Matador school. The Class of 1933 was the last class to graduate in Whiteflat. The rest of the school transferred to Matador in the late 40s.

At one time the small community had four grocery stores, four service stations, postoffice, three garages, two cafes and a hardware store - Willis Grocery, Humphries Grocery, George Preston Grocery, T.M. Dixon Grocery, George Sims Grocery, Arnold Wallace Cafe, Garage and Service Station and Herman Norton Garage and Service Station and Acker Grocery.

We had three strong churches. Nearly every farm had two or more houses on them and they were all full. In the fall many farm laborers lived in tents.

In the summer the Baptists and Methodists had revivals. They usually ran consecutively. The baptism of new members was usually in the Old Echols Lake or the Graham Lake. If the lakes were low, a windmill tub was used. Before there were many cars, we would take a wagon with quilts and blankets to sit on. We would pick up people all the way to church. Sometimes families were nearly home before they realized they had left one of the children asleep in the church.

Some of the early day pastors would preach for one and a half or two hours. Rev. R. L. Jameson was an early Methodist preacher. Bro. Brittain and Bro. Sholer were also early pastors.

Each church had their own Sunday School. The Baptist had services on the 1st and 3rd Sundays and the Methodists on the 2nd and 4th Sundays. The two denominations would join each other for services.

On Sunday afternoons in the early 30s, young people made their own pleasure. They rode horseback or drove their old Model Ts over to the hills and streams. Their only restrictions were to be back home in time for night church services. When services were over at night, people stood around and talked many times until mid-night.

Another good time of the year when I was a child was Christmas Eve. The community banded together for a huge program. The men went out and cut big cedar trees. Due to the Baptists having the largest church, the services usually were held there. Our parents saw to it that each child had a gift of some kind. The program was given. Then Santa Claus came. Each child received a gift, candy and fruit.

CONSTRUCTION BEGUN ON

Roaring Springs' Quail Pipe Plant

Construction has begun on the Quail Pipe Corporation plant in Roaring Springs. The manufacturing facility will produce high density polyethylene pipe. The plant will initially employ 25 people with expansion capabilities to double that number.

HDPE pipe produced by Quail Pipe Corporation, Roaring Springs, will be shipped to all areas of the South, Southeast, and Southwest. The pipe is used for oilfield flow lines, gas distribution systems, water, and irrigation. The plant will manufacture 1/2" through 18" diameter HDPE pipe to serve these markets. Roaring Springs is centrally located to serve the Permian Basin and the Anadarko oil patch and a good portion of the product will be shipped to these areas.

The manufacture of HDPE pipe employs the plastic extrusion process. This process, through a combination of heat and pressure, melts plastic pellets in an extruder. The extruder forces the molten plastic through a die to form a continuous length of pipe. This pipe is then cooled in water baths and cut to length. Due to the flexibility of HDPE pipe sizes up to 3" can be wound into coils. The coils can be easily rolled out or plowed in. The ease of installation exceeds that of conventional piping, including other more rigid plastic pipe. Since the polyethylene is inert, the process is a "clean" one, producing no air pollutants or chemical wastes.

The 32,000 square foot building is scheduled for limited production mid-May. Full production should be achieved by July 1.

The Roaring Springs City Hall will serve as Quail Pipe Corporation's temporary office. Applications may be picked up there any Tuesday or Thursday beginning April 11. Hours will be 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Mr. T.J. Hammer is president of the Quail Pipe Corporation. Mr. Maurice Azevedo is the Roaring Springs plant manager and Randy Barton of Matador is sales manager.

Foundation being poured Tuesday, April 2nd at the site of Quail Pipe Corporation, Roaring Springs, Texas. The factory will initially employ 25 people.

Tribune Has New Owner

Announcement is made this week by Leon Watson, publisher of the Matador Tribune the past six years, that he has sold the business to Patsy Tippin, a Matador resident for the past 5 years.

The transaction became effective April 1, and this is the first issue by the new owner. However, Mrs. Tippin has been employed at the Tribune for several months.

The Matador Tribune is a successor to newspapers dating back to 1891 when Clarence Nugent established the first publication in Motley County.

The publication changed hands, and also name and masthead many times since that time. The first newspaper was called Motley County News. With succeeding publishers it became the Matador Maverick, Motley County Journal, Texas Maverick, Matador Messenger, The Matador Gusher, and again, the Motley County News.

The late Douglas Meador renamed the publication, Matador Tribune when he acquired the business in 1933. For many years, his ownership statement included the motto, "There is glory enough for any man to live and die a Texas". Also for many years, the masthead has borne this motto, "Voice of the Foothill Country".

Meador died September 27, 1974 after publishing the Tribune for 42 years. After his death, his wife continued as publisher for three years. She sold the business in 1977 to Ray Friedman, who then sold to Leon Watson.

As the new publisher/editor, Patsy encourages your continued support of the newspaper. In addition, your suggestions and constructive criticism as how our local paper can better serve you will be appreciated.

Easter - a spring word!!

Christian it is the day God gave us eternal life.

Easter - such a beautiful word!!

Easter - the resurrection day of our Lord!!
Sing hallelujah!! Ring the bells!!

His death and resurrection removed the veil.

Praise the Lord!! Raise your voice!!

Sing evermore, "Rejoice!! Rejoice!!"

To the child it is bunnies and rabbits and chocolate eggs. To the sophisticates of New York it is the Easter Parade down Fifth Avenue - an "Easter bonnet with all the frills upon it". To the indifferent Christian, it is one of the two Sundays of the year when they go to church. To the

Every Day!

Isn't it good at the end of the day to look up at God
And say, Dear Lord, I helped someone today.
But isn't it sad if instead I have to say
"Dear Lord, I hurt someone today,
I drove the nails a little bit deeper
And forgot that I am my brother's keeper.

Isn't it better when the day is done
To know that you have injured no one?
From the time of your awakening, till you lie down to sleep,
Remember the promise we should keep.
To love one another as He loves us too,
And you'll never regret any good that you do.

To my wife: My overdraft at the bank. Maybe she can explain it.

To my son: Equity on my car. Now he'll have to go to work to meet the payments.

To my neighbor: My clown suit. He'll need it if he continues to farm as he has in the past.

To F.H.A.: My grain bins. I was planning to let them take it next anyway.

To the farm advisor: Fifty bushels of corn to see if he can hit the highest market. I never did.

To the SCS: My farm plan. Maybe they can understand it.

To the junk man: All my machinery. He's had his eye on it for years.

To my undertaker: A special request - I want six implement and fertilizer dealers for my pallbearers. They are used to carrying me.

To the weatherman: Rain, sleet and snow for the funeral, please. No sense having good weather now.

To the grave digger: Don't bother. The hole I am in should be big enough.

Pre-Easter Theme Featured In Program For El Progreso Club

CROSS COLLECTION: Mrs. Frank Pohl (left) and Mrs. Robert Dickson display crosses which Mrs. Dickson has collected, several from the Holy Land. The display was shown at a meeting of GFWC El Progreso Club.

With the subject, History of the Cross, Mrs. Robert Dickson presented a pre-Easter program and inspirational message to members of GFWC El Progreso Club, assembled March 28 at the Summit Saving Community Room.

Mrs. C.D. Garrison, leader, introduced the program with the yearbook quotation, "The greatest architectural construction consisted of two pieces of a tree nailed together to form the Cross of Calvary." Easter music was played by Mrs. Dickson and Mrs. Frank Pohl, on casios. "Whispering Hope" was a solo by Mrs. Dickson. They played a duet arrangement of "In the Garden" and Mrs. Pohl then played "Were You There?" and "The Old Rugged Cross."

"Among all the emblems of the world, none has been so admired, glorified, hated, feared yet worshipped, as the cross," Mrs. Dickson said in her presentation of a history of crosses. "We think of the cross as being an emblem of Christianity, yet in olden times it was a pagan instrument of penalty and torture in some countries, and in others, a religious symbol for adoration and worship."

The first trace of when men started to use the emblem dates back to India as early as 2000 BC, she said. Using pictorial illustrations, she described the swastika, used by Hindus and found on shrines in old China, before it became "the symbol of cruelty and destruction as used by the Nazi party of Germany;" those of the Knights of St. John, Knights of Malta, St. Patrick, St. George, Red Cross organization, highway markers, (a black cross on yellow background to signal Danger), and on medals in various forms, given by countries for recognition of unusual bravery.

"The cross of Calvary is above all others. In it we found four dimensions in which we see spiritual lessons," Mrs. Dickson said, listing breadth, length, height and depth. "It is all-embracing; it has no measure; it extends from eternity to eternity; and it extends to the throne of God."

As she read a poem The Cross by Chas. N. Pace, DD, background music was played by Mrs. Pohl. The poem symbolized the cross as being a ladder, sign-board, key, stumbling block, stepping stone, anchor, hammer, sword, plowshare, window and a beacon.

For an Inspirational Thought, Mrs. Garrison read a lyric poem, "He Grew the Tree" by Chuck Lawrence and made popular by Barbara Mandrell.

Mrs. Dickson, president, opened the meeting for business preceding the program. Mrs. Harold Campbell reported on the GFWC Santa Rosa District meeting in Vernon which she and Mrs. Dickson attended March 15-16. Arrangements for the next meeting, Gentlemen's Evening were discussed and menu assignments made.

A display of district awards won by members of GFWC El Progreso Club was brought by Mrs. Dickson. She also displayed a collection of crosses which she has acquired. Several of these were brought from the Holy Land.

Mr. Joe Campbell was hostess for the meeting and served cookies, marshmallow squares, coffee and punch.

Mrs. Pearl Alexander, pastor of the Assembly of God church, and Mrs. Greer Willis, wife of the pastor of First Baptist Church were guests, and members present in addition to those mentioned were Mesdames E.A. Day, Carl King, Gus Bird, Douglas Meador, Robert Darsey, W.N. Pipkin, and John Hamilton, and Miss Rachel Patton.

More Whiteflat Memories

In the Depression days our school couldn't afford school buses or drivers. Our parents took time about in their area furnishing a wagon and team When planting time came, we all walked. There was such a gang of us that we didn't mind too much.

Once each month we had a Community Meet. Different ones were in charge of putting on plays or getting a program together. Our Auditorium would never seat all the people so the kids stood up. We had lots of men and women that played musical instruments. They would play for hours. We could always count on Mrs. Bessie McWilliams, Harry Morris, Roscoe McWilliams, Lorena Willis and many more.

Another great pleasure of the children in the early part of the century was going up to the Lewis and Echols ranches. Both were in the west part of the county. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis always had apples, peaches and pears for sale. They saved all the "little-bitty" apples for the little kids, making us feel special.

Antelope Hill was another play house of the Whiteflat youth in the late 20s and 30s. We each had to watch for rattlesnakes and keep out of the way of Whiteface bulls. We used old tubs and pans to sit in and slide down the hills. We played baseball in the summer and tramped through the deep snow in winter.

We always had good football and baseball teams. Several of our players are still alive and still enjoy seeing others play. Some are farmers, teachers, preachers, lawyers, insurance salesmen and business owners.

Pastors H.L. Burnam and R.L. Jameson each went out into the fields and worked. Then filled their pulpits on Sundays and Wednesdays nights.

Everyone shared fresh vegetables with those that had failed to raise any. When there was a death in the community all the men helped dig the graves.

In the late summer or early fall our fathers went to the Echols or Matador Ranches and cut wood for heating and cooking. There was always plenty to go around.

In the summer when wild plums and grapes were ripe our family would go over to the Echols or Matt Camp ranch and pick enough to make all the jam and jelly we needed for the coming year.

I can remember going to the far side of our field on the Echols Lake farm about a mile away from our home and finding a bunch of watermelon vines that had come up voluntarily. The weather was looking as if we would have a freeze by morning. There were a lot of big melons on the vines. My Grandmother Stephen, my mother, Aunt Beulah and Aunt Virgie all put from one to two melons in their kitchen aprons and carried them back to our home. They had to stop and rest several times before they got home.

One of our school early day janitors was Mr. Gaskins. He always had time for each child, to answer their questions and give special attention. Following him was Coleman Willingham.

The last superintendent was Grover Bennett. He moved to the Afton area to his farm when he retired in 1933.

My two children were born in the Whiteflat community, so it will always mean a lot to me, even though there is nothing left of the little town but a few abandoned buildings.

Even though so many of our parents and grandparents and friends have passed on to be with the Lord, we have precious memories of the Whiteflat Community. As I leave these thoughts on paper, I will never forget all the good times and wonderful friends we once had in the Whiteflat Community.

Club Women Attend Annual Board Meeting

Mrs. Donnie Jackson, president and Mrs. Spencer Dixon, secretary-treasurer of GFWC Eternas Junior Study Club traveled to Lubbock Friday, March 22 to attend the GFWC Caprock District TFWC 25th Annual Board Meeting and Convention.

The convention was held at the Hilton Inn and Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Dixon attended the banquet Friday evening. The delightful meal was followed by entertainment by Mr. and Mrs. Gary Henderson of Plainview. Jackson and Mrs. Dixon were joined by Mrs. Jeff Thacker and attended the District Junior Conference, presided over by District Junior Director, Mrs. Jimmy Burson of Silverton.

The Bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a victorian gown of ivory silk organza, encrusted with lace and seed pearls on the high collar, victorian sleeves, and skirt with chapel length train. A head piece of silk flowers and leaves with seed pearls accentuated the ensemble. She carried a cascade of white roses, baby's breath, English ivy and satin ribbons down a white carpeted aisle laden with blue gladiolus.

The bridesmaids carried single long-stemmed white roses. They wore royal blue silk and taffeta, drop shoulder formal gowns with matching horsehair braid hats trimmed with silk roses. The groom, his attendants, and the father of the bride were attired in grey formal tuxedos.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the El Paso Country Club. A full buffet dinner and dancing with entertainment provided by a nine piece band were enjoyed in the banquet hall by approximately 200 guests.

The bride and groom left the reception to a barrage of rice with the new Mrs. James wearing a silver grey mohair, silk and cashmere dress with long puffed sleeves. She also wore a small brimmed hat with illusion veil and full length mahogany mink coat as they made their getaway.

After a honeymoon to the islands of Hawaii, Oahu, and Molokai the couple are at home in El Paso. The bride and groom are both partners in the law firm of Grambling and Mounce, El Paso National Bank Building, El Paso.

Prior to the wedding, a rehearsal dinner was given for a party of 54 at Plantation St. Clair. The participants enjoyed prime rib and reunion with old friends. Those from this area attending were Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Day and Patty Edwards of Matador and Mr. and Mrs. Don Finkner of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Green of Tahoka announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Traci Allison to James Wesley Cawman, son of Claudia Flippin of Tahoka. The couple will wed on Sat., May 25, at 4 P.M. in First Baptist Church, Church of Tahoka. The bride-elect and the groom are both graduates of Tahoka High School. The groom is in the U.S. Army and the bride is attending Sul Ross State University.

CARD OF THANKS

Note of Thanks

Thus begins a new chapter in the history of the MATADOR TRIBUNE, as Patsy Tippin takes over as publisher of the newspaper.

It has been my pleasure to bring you the paper each week for the past six years. I want to thank the many people who read the paper and those who helped get it out on time.

As I leave Matador I feel I'm leaving a part of my heart also. I will always care for the people of Motley County. You have a good thing going here. Support your local businesses and especially the newspaper.

I wish you all God's speed in the future and may He shower His blessing down on you all, in my prayer.

Thanks again,

Leon Watson

Thanks to all who came and helped celebrate my birthday. Your presence was appreciated - especial thanks to my children for having the party.

Lillie Barkley

To all my friends in Matador and Roaring Springs

These three little words, "I thank you"
Can't even begin to express
How much I really appreciate
Your kindly thoughtfulness.

The open house party was wonderful, but no more wonderful than the people in Motley County.

Nell Clem

I wish to express my gratitude and thanks to all who helped in "The Retirement Party", for the cards, to the "Drugstore Gang" and all the "good wishes" from the "coffee drinkers". Also to Kathy and Etelle for the lovely and delicious cakes.

Mary McMahon

"Behind the curtain of the great unknown, standeth God, among the shadows, keeping watch above His own."

We have been aware of his watchful presence in the time of our great loss.

We want to thank the good friends of Matador and surrounding communities for the kind expressions of concern for us at this time. The food, cards, letters and flowers, especially your visits and prayers all meant so much to us.

A special thanks to the ministers, Tim Ayers and Ted Kingery for the beautiful service which was made perfect by the Silverton and Rock Creek Singers.

May God bless all of you who sent memorials to Boys Ranch, Nursing School at WTSU, American Heart Fund, Christian Service Center in Abilene, West Texas Rehabilitation Center in Abilene, local church building funds and East Mound Cemetery fund.

Again, may God bless each of you as you have been a blessing to us for just being our friends.
