PRICE SEVEN CENTS

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

A bachelor acquaintance whose courage has gone beyond the call of judgment, says the nearest object of his affection has everything in her purse.

When a man steps into the ring of disaster his feet may rock below the surface of the mire which had not been visible when he walked in security.

Winning is not the only factor that prevents the poor sport from winning his game.

Peace is to be desired unless it is purchased at the price of man's dignity.

Keeping a husband in hot water does not signify that the young wife is proficient in domestic science.

Some of the movie film being shown on television late shows is so corny that it would require thinning if planted in a row and allowed to sprout.

Selfishness must lick its own wounds in the abominable darkness of an empty heart, while hearing the music of the world outside.

Flomot HD Club Sets Date for Benefit Program

Flomot Home Demonstration Club has set February 11 as the date for a benefit program for March of Dimes and all other charitable causes to which the community contributes.

The program will be held in the high school gymnasium.

At a recent meeting the club voted to sponsor the March of Dimes and to have a program, proceeds of which would aid the various organizations. Half of the contributions will go to the MOD and the remainder will be equally divided for the Cancer Fund, Red Cross and Heart Fund.

The arrangements committee for the program is composed of Mesdames G. E. Washington, L. B. Isbell, Joe Degan and Ray Cruise.

FROM TEXAS TECH

Among Texas Tech students who were home for the mid-term recess were: Carolyn Pohl, Gerald Pipkin, Larry Hoyle, Jan Barton, Thomas Edwards, Dink Wilson and Robin Darsey. Another Tech student, Peggy Welling was here for the Christmas holidays, but did not return for the mid-term recess.

Total Climbing in MOD Fund Drive

COLLECTIONS of contributions to the March of Dimes (National Foundation) annual fund drive, continue to grow as reports are received, according to Judge Elbert Reeves, fund drive chairman.

The total yesterday was $645.54, with two communities, Northfield and Flomot still to report.

'Jackets Keep In District Competition

Winning their 2nd district game Thursday the Roaring Springs Yellowjackets, remain in district competition. The boys defeated Guthrie 51-49. Control of the backboard by the Yellowjackets played an important part in the victory. Ronnie Davis took 20 of the rebounds while the entire Guthrie team was able to make only 26. Davis also paced the team in scoring with 21 points. Don Tardy accounted for 13 and John Castillo chalked up 12. Dennis Ratliff scored 18 for Guthrie.

Roaring Springs girls made a less impressive showing. They were defeated by Guthrie girls 68-46, despite a trailing of only 6 points at the half. Two Roaring Springs guards, Mae Rambolt and Dora Castillo were out of play because of fouls. The other guard, Judy Payne played an excellent game. Sandra Williams scored 21 points. Guthrie's Linda Pettiet, outstanding forward in the district, scored 42 points.

Fourth conference game will be played with Girard in the Roaring Springs gym tomorrow (Friday) night, starting at 7. Grade school teams play Matador in Roaring Springs tonight, starting at 6:30.

Second grade school game with Matador at Matador, 6:30 will be played a week from tonight, Thursday, February 7 (instead of 5th, as printed in schedule).

Countdown for Groundhog Day

Weather forecasters are having a rough time generally, and it is possible the traditional groundhog weather seer will have trouble Saturday. As of this writing it seems probable the groundhog will see his shadow, promptly return to his den, turn up the thermostat a couple notches and wait for six more weeks of winter.

And on the other hand, he may not see his shadow, cut off the furnace and start enjoying spring. It would be smart, however to stay within running distance of his den, just in case he did not read the signs right, and another colder than Idaho north decides to run up more fuel bills.

The drive here was conducted by the Eternas Study Club, with Mrs. Bill Seale as president. In Roaring Springs the drive was conducted by the Predicta Study Club, of which Mrs. M. S. Thacker is president.

Judge Reeves said he was well pleased with the drive and expressed his appreciation to the two clubs, their members and to others who have given of their time to make the solicitations.

As it is organized, 35 percent of all March of Dimes money now goes for research (arthritis, birth defects, polio), 32½ percent is retained in the local treasury and 32½ percent goes to the Foundation.

When the local chapter runs short of funds, however, it can get quick assistance from the Foundation.

In McCulloch County, for instance, which was hard hit by polio, the Foundation paid $8,000 more than has been collected over the past years, or 110 percent of total collections.

Patton Girls Down Jayton

by Don Morris

Patton Springs gym was the scene of an exciting girls basketball game between Patton Springs and Jayton, Jan. 25. Tommye Williams opened the scoring by sinking two free shots. After two short minutes, Patton was running away from Jayton by a score of 10 to 0. By the end of the first quarter Patton really had Jayton rattled. Patton was out front by a score of 22 to 6. The Rangerettes played another great quarter and had posted a score of 32 to 15 by half time, Patton's favor.

Starting the third period of play, Jayton came back strong, and after four minutes, had narrowed Patton's lead down to just 5 points, 35 to 30.

The fourth quarter turned into a real close ball game. The two teams were running neck and neck right up to the end when the hard-fighting Patton girls poured on the extra effort and came through with a win, 58 to 55.

Patton guards, Rhonda Forbis, Geraldine Epting, Bethel Boatman, and Thersia Middleton all played a great game. Sharon Moore of Jayton got 33 hard-earned points to become the high scorer of the game. She was followed by Tommye Williams of Patton who scored 29 points.

The Patton Springs girls hit 64 per cent of their field shots which is about average for most high school teams. This game gave both Patton and Jayton a conference record of 2 wins and 1 loss. The two teams are tied for second place at the present time.

Chest Short of $3000 Goal

DRIVE for $3000 in funds to operate the Matador Community Chest for the next year is falling short of the goal according to Douglas Meador, fund drive chairman.

Total collections yesterday show $1877 with $50 in pledges, making a grand total of $1927. The Community Chest is sponsored by the Matador Lions Club and members have been assigned names to solicit, in two-men teams. Several teams have yet to report.

"Apparently the Community Chest is going to fall short of its goal by about one third," Meador said, "and I feel responsible for at least a part of the failure to reach the $3000 quota. It has been impossible for me to devote sufficient time to the drive."

"I personally feel that the Community Chest is one of the best movements to equalize the community responsibility of our people who need assistance. In addition to Red Cross, Boy Scouts, and the Salvation Army, about one third of the funds collected are used directly to aid our own people who meet with misfortune or disaster. No funds are ever allowed until the case is completely screened by a local committee.

Contributions may be made direct to Judge Elbert Reeves.

SCOUT WEEK FEBRUARY 7-13, 1963 BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Scout Week Celebrates 53rd Anniversary

Physical fitness, one of the principal aims of the Boy Scouts of America for 53 years, is receiving special emphasis during Scout Week in February by the organization's 1,000,000 members. The theme, "Strengthen America—Be Prepared—Be Fit," as shown on the new 1963 Scout Week poster, will be dramatized during special meetings of nearly 100,000 Cub Scout packs, Boy Scout troops, and Explorer posts.

COUNTY AGENT PALLMEYER SAYS:

ton added $100, 828,440 to the income of west Texas farmers since the start of this program in 1959. 4,538,280 bales have been supported under this change, with figures derived from the support of the 1958 crop. — Taken from the Plains Cotton Grower.

The new 3 x 4 dwarf hybrid grain sorghums will be available for growers of this area for the 1963 season. These hybrids are considerably shorter than presently grown hybrids, are more resistant to lodging, and possess a high degree of resistance to smut. Farmers accustomed to growing RS 610 without severe smut or lodging problems might do well to continue with it, especially dryland areas where yields of less than 1500 lbs. ac. are likely, but if the above troubles are present, it might be a sound idea to try one of the new hybrids.

Were you satisfied with crop yields in 1962? If not, using the proper combinations of fertizers in the right amounts at the proper time can increase your crop production and net income. There are other factors, of course, such as good seed, good seedbed and weather conditions, and insect control but the key to the situation is balanced fertility.

The way to start on a program of balanced fertility is with a soil test. It's pretty hard to tell what your soil needs for maximum production until you know what is in it. That is where the soil test comes in. The money you spend for a test, $2.00 per sample, will be the best fertilizer money you spend.

An information sheet should always accompany a soil sample, as this helps to make recommendations for your place. Information sheets and soil sample bags may be secured at my office, and farmers are urged to submit samples early in the year to allow sufficient time to secure fertilizers that may be recommended for their place.

Tuning up your gasoline or butane tractor can increase its power by 11 per cent and fuel efficiency as much as 14 per cent. This increased power and economy can mean savings in time as well, and as some of these simple tune-up procedures can be performed by the farmer with only a little extra equipment and the hand tools he has available in his farm shop, tractor owners are urged to take advantage of these possible savings.

LP gas and gasoline engines usually require a tune-up every 250 hours of operation and if these adjustments are not made when needed, the engine cannot deliver the power it was designed to give and fuel is wasted.

Improper timing and carburetor adjustment can seriously harm an engine because of overheating and oil dilution from unburned fuel. A flat feeler gage, a round spark plug gap gage, ignition file, and timing light costs a total of about eight dollars, which is a very small cost, compared to the yearly savings. The Operators Manual outlines the procedures and furnishes the proper specifications for the engine, and is the only guide needed when performing engine tune-up. With the cost of crop production increasing, this is just another way to reduce production costs, and allow more net income.

Do you know the plants best suited for landscape plantings in this section of the state? Proper selection will help you avoid costly mistakes and disappointments in planning your landscape. A bulletin, "A Selected List of Woody Plants for Texas" will help you make good selections, and a list of vines, ground covers, dwarf, small, medium and large shrubs and trees included. Each plant is classified as evergreen, semi-evergreen and deciduous, with a plant hardiness map of Texas also included. Other factors such as resistance to disease and insects are covered, so if you are interested in this type of work, ask for a copy.

New Book Tells Early History Of "Old West"

LIFE IN THE SADDLE, by Frank Collinson, edited and arranged by Mary Whatley Clarke; University of Oklahoma Press, Norman; $2. (Available at Tribune)

One of the foremost chroniclers of the riproaring Old West is slim and gracious Mrs. Joe A. Clarke, a Fort Worth banker's wife, who has compiled and edited material from the pen of one of the area's most colorful frontiersmen. Frank Collinson.

Frank Collinson was known personally by Harry H. Campbell, and possibly others in this area. Mrs. Clarke, who has prepared the manuscript for "Life in the Saddle" is also known locally, having visited here on several occasions.

In her introduction, she says, "My gratitude to Harry Campbell, the veteran ranchman of Matador, Texas, is very considerable, in view of the fact that he freely permitted me to study and use excerpts from his personal collection of Collinson letters, which contain a wealth of early Motley County history. I am also indebted to the Matador Tribune, and other Panhandle newspapers for information which I gathered from their local stories."

Collinson, whom J. Frank Dobie has called "one of the most powerful men I ever met," began his career rounding up wild mustangs on the Will Noonan Ranch near Castroville for the San Antonio horse market.

He was born in Yorkshire, England and came to Texas after the Civil War and "got into the writing game" when he was almost 80.

Illustrations By Bugbee
Illustrations for the book were done by Harold D. Bugbee, Western artist of Clarendon, Texas, where Frank Collinson had lived for so many years.

The story behind "Life in the Saddle" began 30 years before, when Bugbee took a number of his drawings of the Old West to New York.

The drawings appealed to editors of the now-defunct magazine called Ranch Romances who told Bugbee to go back to Texas and get Collinson to write down some of his experiences for publication.

Thus, Collinson, at 79, became a writer. His first story was published in Ranch Romances in 1934. He gave Bugbee credit for "getting me into the writing game." Bugbee, in turn immortalized the cowboy in his western drawings, paintings and figures. "Collinson posed for many of my paintings and sketches and suggested subjects for others," he said. "He taught me much that I know about the Old West."

"I might have missed this immensely attractive character had it not been for Harold Bugbee," Mrs. Clarke declares.

Former Publisher
Mrs. Clarke, former newspaperwoman (she once owned and published the Palo Pinto Star) and freelance writer has for twenty years written ranching features for The Cattleman magazine published by the Texas and Southwest Cattle Raisers Association. These include a series of 16 articles on Collinson when his stories first appeared in Ranch Romances.

One of those who "encouraged" her to do the Collinson series was John McMurtry of Muleshoe, himself a cowboy of a vanishing era.

Collinson died in 1943, his wife in 1953. Both are buried in the cemetery in Clarendon.
