PRICE SEVEN CENTS

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

When you take a deposition from the truth the instrument reads like a franchise to practice fundamental honesty.

Not all of the world's strangest creatures are in the sea. Some extremely weird fauna come out in the sunlight when the seashores are warm.

A man who measures his own popularity may accidentally be looking through the wrong end of the telescope.

Courtesy is always profitable because it can be purchased cheaply on margin and begins to pay dividends immediately on acquisition.

Winter continues to impose its man. The father who used to wade through snow drifts to get to the cow barn, may have a son who braves the elements to reach the ski-lift.

Sarcasm can be eloquent and obscure when adorned in the perfumed lace of flattery.

My father had an aversion to hominy which may well be traced to an incident in his youth when he was a pioneer ranch cook. The ranch management had elected to effect economies by feeding the cowboys large amounts of hominy and little else. In later years a friend who was one of the cowboys at my father's crude table, said a sudden freeze one night killed the cockle burrs behind the cook shack and revealed a knee-high pile of discarded hominy.

They returned to Matador yesterday.

VACATION TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Patton returned home Monday from a mid-winter vacation trip which included a tour of Big Bend National Park and a trip to El Paso, and Ruidoso, N. M. They left Wednesday of last week.

SEVENTY YEARS LATER Mrs. C. D. Pipkin, right, witnessed the consecration of a Methodist Church education building here Sunday. As the only surviving charter member, she was in the group that organized the Methodist Church under some Cottonwoods on Ballard Creek in 1892. At the time she was a girl of 13. In the above picture Mrs. Pipkin is seated in the new parlor. Standing, left, is Bishop Paul V. Galloway, and Dist. Superintendent J. E. Shewbert. Painting of the first Methodist church building here, left, was painted by Mrs. C. T. Jinkins of Matador.

Charter Member at Methodist Building Consecration Here

A CHURCH organized in Motley County 70 years ago under a group of cottonwood trees on Ballard Creek. Sunday consecrated a new $40,000 education building.

UNSCCHEDULED STOP—Big grain truck from Tulia, shown above, went out of control on Willow Creek hill about dark Monday crashed through the fence and stopped when the front end buried in an embankment. Driver Earl Price Rollins, 30, of Anna, Texas, walked away uninjured and caught a ride into town. The accident was investigated by Deputy S. A. Conway and Highway Patrolman F. E. Johnson of Paducah. Rollins told officers a part fell off the steering equipment of his loaded truck, and that the steering wheel spun without effect.

Mr. Puckett said he is able to write a wide variety of coverage, including Life, Fire, (homeowners and ranch owners) Auto, farm liability and other types on commercial property.

Husband was Preacher

The Edmondsons were among the early pioneers of the county, and Mrs. Pipkin was then Ida Edmondson. Her husband, the late C. D. Pipkin was an early day Methodist circuit preacher who served as pastor of several community churches in Motley County. They were married in Matador in 1898, and he was serving the Methodist Church at Emma in Crosby county. In 1910 they moved to Crosbytown and he became the first pastor of the newly organized Methodist Church there. On his retirement from active ministry, they returned to Matador and he died in March, 1941.

The first Matador Methodist Church building was constructed in 1900 and was replaced in 1926 by the present brick structure.

Aiding in the consecration services here Sunday were Rev. J. E. Shewbert, District Superintendent of the Plainview District, Rev. Roy Patterson, who is serving his third year as pastor, and Rev. W. B. Vaughn, retired Methodist pastor.

Following a covered dish luncheon in the church basement, open house was held in the new education building.

SINGING ANNOUNCED

Singing will be held Sunday afternoon, January 27, starting at 2 p.m. at the Methodist Church in Dickens. Everyone is invited, according to the announcement by B. D. Clifton, president of the Fourth Sunday singing Association.

Rev. W. B. Vaughn has been confined to his home for a few days following a fainting spell which was thought at first to be a heart attack.

HIGHWAY HERE SOON TO BE "WHITE WAY"

Lights were turned on yesterday in testing 26 new street lights that will make Matador one of the best-lighted small towns in the country and make U. S. Highway 70, a "Great White Way."

The big lights are being installed without cost to the city by the West Texas Utilities Company, and cost of operation will be paid out of "use tax" (use of streets and alleys for lines) by the WTUC, as are other street lights in town.

In other words, Mayor Bill Seale said, "the city is not out a dime in the installation and operation of the impressive highway lighting."

The lights, on 30-ft. poles reach from the Drive-In to Bob's Oil Well, about 8 blocks. Each lamp is rated at 6000 lum. West Texas Utilities manager Freddie Welling declared.

CLUB MAKES MOD REPORT

First report of the March of Dimes (National Foundation) fund drive which is being conducted by the Eternas Study Club, showed yesterday that a total of $452.02 had been collected here, and included the "Porchlight drive."

County Judge Elbert Reeves, county fund chairman, said he was pleased and encouraged by the report. He said the Predicta Study Club is conducting the campaign at Roaring Springs, and will include the proceeds from a pancake supper. The drive continues through January.

Party At Whiteflat

Another benefit party for the March of Dimes has been announced for Friday night (tomorrow) at Whiteflat, to supplement a former entertainment sponsored by the Home Demonstration club. The party will be at 7:30 and admission will be a free-will offering to the March of Dimes fund. Games of "42" will be played and refreshments will be served. Everyone is invited.

Pioneer Area Minister Dies

The Rev. Albert Parker Stokes, 94, a Dickens County pioneer resident and minister, and father of a Matador resident, died at 3:45 p.m. Saturday at his home in Afton following a lengthy illness.

Funeral services were held at 3 p.m. Monday at the Afton Baptist Church with the Rev. Roy Moseley, Electra, and the Rev. Franklin Swanner, Plainview, officiating.

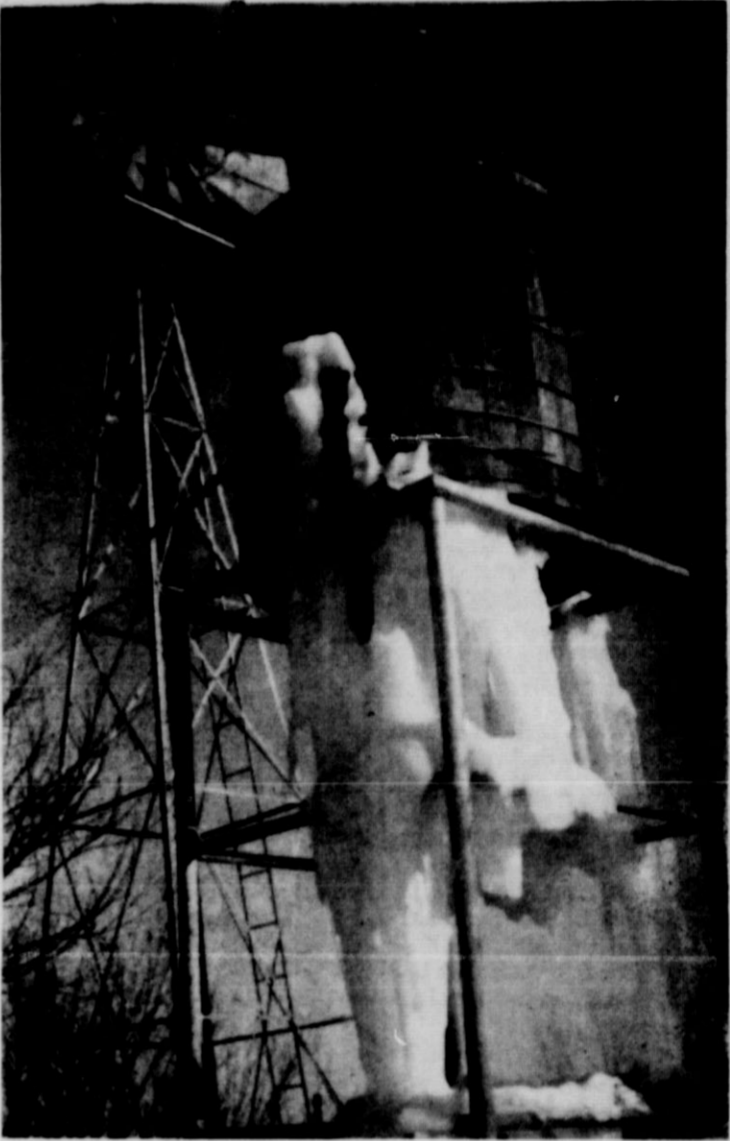

Burial was in Afton Cemetery under direction of Campbell Funeral Home, Spur.

The Rev. Stokes, a native of Eaton, Ohio, moved to Paducah in 1908 and to Dickens in 1911. He moved to the Afton community in 1913.

Ordained in 1896, the Rev. Stokes had been pastor of every church in the Dickens Baptist Association.

His survivors include eight sons, Mitch, of Littlefield, Henry, of Waco; Tip, of Dallas; Waymon and Rob of Weatherford; Oscar, of Matador and John and Walter Stokes both of Afton; two daughters, Mrs. Anna Mae Link of Houston, and Mrs. Rachel Putman of Dallas; a brother, O. J. Stokes, Atlanta, Ga.; 15 grandchildren; 26 great-grandchildren; and 6 greta-great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Jack Lawson, Peyton Legg, Frank Forbis, Jack Sims, H. I. Yeates, and C. B. Roberts.

FROSTY, MAN, FROSTY—The above picture was made here in Matador on the Sam Chambliss place in the north part of town, last Thursday, a full week after the first blizzard hit, and before the arrival of the second.

Panhandle Stunned By 3rd Cold Front

MERCURY WAS ABOUT 5 DEGREES yesterday morning here in Matador after the third cold front in succession had struck the Panhandle. Temperature readings have climbed rapidly after the passage of the two earlier fronts. However, low readings were expected for last night, with a warming trend night said another front may be on its way.

Setting in today, according to forecasters. A forecast last week end drove the mercury down to zero for the second time in ten days. It hit late Friday, was severe Saturday and Saturday night, then changed to balmy weather Sunday.

The mercury here Tuesday was 64 degrees before the blizzard struck in the afternoon. By 10 o'clock the temperature had dropped to 10 degrees and continued to go on down to five degrees before daylight yesterday. It was driven by strong winds and a few scattering flakes of snow fell about 4 a.m.

No official confirmation has been received but some reports have been obtained that dead boll weevil larvae have been found in fields, which might indicate that the zero weather could effect some control of the weevil in this area.

Each of the three cold spells has produced its share of frozen water pipes, damaged radiators and other results of sudden weather changes.

Livestock are reported to be faring well because with the exception of light snowfall two weeks ago, the fronts have been without precipitation.

Judging Teams Enter Contest

Roaring Springs FFA and 4-H livestock judging teams competed in a contest at Hereford, Saturday, and although they did not take top places, they made a good showing.

The FFA team scored 876 points and the 4-H team placed fifth in their division, in swine judging Fidel Garcia was fourth high in individual cattle judging. Composing the FFA team are Mike Peacock, Thomas Owens, Bill Dawson, Mike Garcia, Tommy Cooper and Fidel Garcia.

Both teams were coached by B. L. Peacock, Roaring Springs Vo-Ag teacher.

PIED PINIONS

By Mrs. M.

At last I've found someone who has heard of Colt, Arkansas, the place of my birth several decades ago. Bishop Paul Galloway of San Antonio has not only heard of it, he knows the exact location of the hamlet. Seems the Bishop is also a native of the Bear state, although he came to Texas from Oklahoma.

Can you imagine the traffic situation if everyone were required to return to his birthplace to be counted and taxed, as in the days when Joseph and Mary journeyed to Bethlehem, and Christ was born. All the expressways and freeways in existence could not possibly take care of such a fantastic flow of vehicles as such a decree would cause, especially if everyone had to be taxed at the same time.

The covered dish lunch Sunday at the Methodist Church was another of those affairs where you do what you know you shouldn't do and wish you had the will power not to do. Namely, fill your plate to the brim and eat until you're stuffed. But who wants will power when so many delicious dishes are at your disposal?

One of the earliest Sunday Schools and churches I remember was in a small sawmill town, and by common consent was operated on a "union" basis. Methodists and Baptists rotated in supplying a pastor, and although it was considered a congregational church, the leaning was more toward the Methodist faith, because they had more members. I was therefore exposed to Methodism until a time when we moved to another town where a Baptist church was available for membership, in keeping with parental wishes.

It was in this small non-denominational church that a good Methodist grandmother often rose up to shout her praises to the Lord, especially during revival meetings. Even "way-back-then" shouting in church was becoming a little old-fashioned and the younger members were prone to smile in embarrassment.

At that time it was still a custom to toll the church bell when a death occurred in the village, or while the funeral procession was on the way to the church. Youngsters usually counted the knells in the belief that each one represented a year of the deceased's age. I remember listening to the tolling of the knell when this good woman died, and I knew that heaven was her destination.

As I listen to modern music on the radio, I feel compassion for the present generation especially when a teen-ager practically swoons in delight over some of the numbers. On the other hand it is proof enough that even modern youngsters "go" for the soft, sentimental music or the more peppy jazz tunes of former years when one reads that Ted Lewis with his "Shadow" number is still tops in the entertainment world and not just with the oldsters.

Visiting recently with Mrs. Alma Montgomery, were Mr. and Mrs. Fate Young of Rotan and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bacot of the Swenson Ranch, near Paducah.

ETERNAS CLUB PROGRAM ON COMMUNISM

A discussion of Communism proved to be a very enlightening program for members of Eternas Study Club at their regular meeting, Thursday evening, January 17 in the home of Mrs. Joly Graham Mrs. Dean McAnally was co-hostess for the occasion.

The community project of making maps of East Mound Cemetery was discussed and it was announced that progress was slow at this time. Mrs. Bill Seale, club president, presided for the short business meeting. Committees were set up for the Porchlight campaign for the March of Dimes.

Refreshments of cake, whipped cream and coffee were served to the following: Mesdames Sut Braselton, Kirby Campbell, Dean Chaney, Roy Grundy, Charles Johnson, Ralph Jones, Lonnie Lynn, Bill Palmeyer, Frank Price, Bill Seale, Pat Seigler, Bob Thompson, Kenneth Thompson, Billy Wason and the hostesses, Mrs. Graham and Mrs. McAnally.

Mrs. Freeman Thacker was hostess to members of the Rebecca Circle of the Baptist W.M.U. Tuesday, January 22. Ten members and one visitor were present.

Mrs. J. L. Woodruff, chairman, presided for a business meeting. Plans were discussed for the Associational Meeting to be held here on Friday. "Blest Be the Tie" was sung at the close of the meeting, and Mrs. Leonora Luckett gave the closing prayer.

Refreshments of cookies and coffee were served to the following: Miss Amy Glenn; Mesdames R. E. Campbell Sr., H. D. Marshall, J. L. Woodruff, W. R. Puckett, Vinie Keltz, Clovis Murphy, Berta Campbell, Leonora Luckett, Edgar Lee and the hostess, Mrs. Thacker.

Memphis Cotton Classing Office Closing Season

With only about 2 per cent of cotton crop remaining to be ginned, the sub-freezing weather of the past week again delayed the gathering of the crop, says K. E. Voelkel, Officer in Charge of the Memphis Classing Office. Samples classed amounted to about 6,000 compared with over 23,000 the week before. The largest number of samples classed in a week this year was 33,000. To date a total of 200,482 samples was classed.

The Memphis Classing Office, which is a seasonal set-up, will be for the 1962-63 season on Tuesday, January 23. Samples are to be classed by the parent of origin in Altus, Oklahoma. White grades represented about 3 per cent of the total classed this past week according to statistical estimates. Approximately 64 per cent averaged Spotted; 27 per cent Spotted 4 per cent Tinged; and 2 per cent Below Grade. The remaining grade was Strict Middling Light Spotted at 45 per cent. Grades were reduced because of the following reasons: 4 per cent because of Preparation and 26 per cent because of Grass and Bark. The staple length averaged shorter than previous reports at 17 per cent 29/32 inch and 15 per cent 15/16 inch. About 1 per cent of the cotton classed was Wasty.

Microaire averages showed per cent reading 2.9 and low 3.6 per cent 3.0-3.4; 21 per cent 3.5-3.9; and, 16 per cent 4.0 and higher. The average prices paid for cotton, mixed lots in warehouse, were: Middling Light Spotted 16-30.15; Strict Low Middling Light Spotted, 15.16-29.10 per pound.

COUNTY AGENT PALLMEYER SAYS:

The voluntary feed grain program for 1963 will generally follow provisions for the 1961 and 1962 crops by giving feed grain producers an opportunity to reduce acreages and receive payments. The program will again apply to corn, grain sorghum and barley. Participating farmers will receive diversion payments for shifting acreage from production to a conservation use and price-support payments on the normal production of the 1963 feed grain acreage. They will also be eligible for price-support loans and purchase agreements for the 1963 actual feed grain production. Rates for diversion are somewhat smaller than in previous years, but the decrease will be more than offset for most farmers by the price-support payments.

A major change was listed. To be eligible for payments or price support on any of the three grains included, THE FARMER MUST DIVERT THE TOTAL ACREAGE FOR WHICH HE SIGNS UP. Farmers may take part in the program by reducing the total of their 1963 feed grain acreage (corn, grain sorghum and barley) by at least 20%. The maximum diversion is the highest of 40% of the base acreage or 25 acres, providing this is not more than the base acreage. The acreage of the three crops (1959-1960 acreage as adjusted) will be combined into a single feed grain base for the farm, and the farmer may choose to divert one or more of the feed grains, with the diversion payment being made at the per-acre rate applicable to the grain or grains diverted. Farmers who have planted their 1963 barley crop will be able to take part in the 1963 program by reducing their total feed grain acreage by at least 20%.

Price support to participating farmers will be available partly through loans and purchase agreements and partly through price-support payments. Loans and agreements will reflect a national average price of $1.07 per bushel on corn; $1.71 per cwt. on grain sorghum and 82c per bushel on barley.

In addition, price-support payments will be made on the normal production of the 1963 feed grain acreage at the rate of 18c per bushel on corn; 29c per cwt. on grain sorghum and 14c per bushel on barley. Participating farmers can put all of their 1963 crop corn, grain, sorghum and barley under price-support loans and purchase agreements. This is a change, from earlier programs, which limited support to the normal production of the 1962 crop.

Acres taken out of feed grains may be planted to guar, sesame, safflower, sunflower and castor beans, but at a lower diversion rate — with no payment on acres planted to safflower. Farmers may receive part of their acreage diversion payments at the time they sign up to participate in the program. The sign up period will be announced later, but will be early in the year.

Since oats and rye are not included in the program, no payment is provided and no reduction in acreage is required for price-support eligibility.

As in 1962, the national average supports for these two crops will be 65c per bushel for oats and $1.07 for rye. County ASCS personnel can supply detailed information on the 1963 program.

Loan Firm Sets Big Gain Record

Assets of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Childress increased by $967,552-80 during 1962 totaling $5,273,358.96 at year's end, the institution has announced.

Russell V. Jones, Executive Vice President, said the new mark represents a record one-year gain of 23 percent from assets reported at the end of 1961.

According to the institution's 1962 Annual Report, net savings gains recorded during the year totaled $941,510.71, bringing total savings held by the Association to an all-time high of $4,622,360.17.

The association also reported record dividend payments of $167,091.97, on savings accounts.

The annual report also revealed that the association's mortgage lending volume rose to a record $1,547,763.69 in 1962, approximately 102 per cent above the volume of the previous year.

With the expanding area now being served by First Federal, Jones predicted another good year ahead in 1963.

Crisis Faced In Screwworm Eradication

The screwworm eradication program in Texas has reached a crisis.

Either livestock producers must promptly pay into the program their remaining part of the $3 million they were to raise — or the program halts March 31. Livestock men need to raise his additional $1 million immediately.

Livestock men are working the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation raising $3 million for the $1 million program.

The State of Texas is to furnish $3 million and the federal government $6 million.

The reason the livestock industry needs to put another $1 million into the program is because State money isn't become available till after March 31 and by then the program will be halted unless more money is put up right now.

The screwworm eradication program has been in gear for several months, and apparently getting good results. Eradication of screwworms would save Texas an estimated $100 million annually — a good return on a $1 million investment.

Johnny Stevens, chairman of the Motley County group supporting the program, said this week that but with a few exceptions, stockmen here had already paid their assessments.
