ISSUE NO. 24

New DPS Officer Assigned To Matador

Trooper Randahl (Randy) Gustafson, 22, has recently graduated from the Department of Public Safety Training Academy and assigned to the Highway Patrol Service in Matador.

Trooper Gustafson was one of 80 cadets recently commissioned as state troopers in graduation ceremonies in Austin. Trooper Gustafson is a native of Waco and assumes his new duties immediately.

Randy Gustafson

Colonel Jim Adams, DPS director, said he is especially pleased at the quality of people who are entering the law enforcement profession.

"These men and women were carefully selected from a large group of applicants to undergo an intensive 18-week course," Adams said. "They have been trained to uphold the laws of this state in routine as well as difficult law enforcement situations."

"Today's Texas trooper is required to handle many varied tasks in addition to traffic enforcement. The trooper may assist in narcotics arrests, recovery of stolen vehicles and investigation of theft cases. A broad range of law enforcement responsibilities will face the trooper who has chosen to serve his fellow Texans," Adams said.

The DPS training course included instruction in traffic law, criminal law, arrest procedures, accident investigation, and numerous other law enforcement related topics.

Randy is single, but has wedding plans for July 18. His fiance is Tori Spivey of China Spring.

Randy grew up in Waco, where his parents Wendell and Yolande Gustafson and two brothers, still reside.

Randy stated, "Matador is a nice little town and I like it here."

Commissioners Commend Library Board

Motley County Commissioners Court met Monday June 8, 10:00 a.m. with Judge Billy Joe Whitaker presiding. Commissioners attending were: John M. Russell, Bill D. Washington, Fraiser Watson, Joseph Simpson and his granddaughter Ashley Rae Atkinson as a guest. Also attending was County Clerk Lucretia Campbell.

Invocation was given by Billy Joe Whitaker.

Dude Speed introduced his new trainee and partner, Randy Gustafson. The court welcomed Randy. Speed also requested 2 new briefcases and a new camera lens. The Court approved the request.

Mr. E.G. Reed of Flomot and his lawyer Don Cummings came in response to the boundary dispute with Bly Shannon in the Flomot area. After a discussion it was decided that it was possible that the road in question could possibly not even be a county road. If so, this was a private dispute to be settled between Reed and Shannon, or if they wanted the county to hire a surveyor and survey and make it a county road, they would.

The minutes were read and approved.

Marisue Potts came and reported on the progress on the remodeling of the Library Building and that they planned to be in it by August. She also commented on how nice it was going to be with a community room, small kitchen area, and restroom. She asked for the new Librarian to be paid for 23 training hours. The Court approved this.

The Judge and Court commended Marisue and the board on the super work they were doing and what an asset the new Library was going to be in downtown Matador. She thanked the court for their support and for the support of the whole county and especially during the Sesquicentennial celebration. They wouldn't have had the money so quick without all these funds and the memorial donations, that are still coming in.

The court approved the outstanding bills as follows:

Precinct 1, $4,906.95; Precinct 2, $1,288.51; Precinct 3, $2,202.39; Precinct 4, $382.55; General Fund $6,906.49.

The JP report was for $4,522.00 collected in May.

The meeting was adjourned.

Flomot Past Memories That Last And Last

by Earlyne Jameson

Happy moments from the past that live on in memories that last will be renewed at the Tri-Annual Homecoming in Flomot, July 4-5.

In 1935-36, Flomot Schools were able to make many notable advancements with their education and sport endeavors. This was a benefitting factor with keeping the high school male students in the Flomot School rather than attending Matador High School.

Flomot High School won its fight for recognition of the State Department of Education in March 1935. G.D. Holbrook, Deputy State Superintendent of Texas Schools, after visiting the Flomot School facilities, recommended the school for a Class A four year High School beginning Sept. 1936. The Flomot School was granted affiliation, April 1935 through Algebra teaching by C.S. "Summer" Williams, new High school principal.

The Flomot School enrollment increased from 71 to over a 100 when the Fairmont and Flomot Schools merged, April 25, 1935. Principal of Fairmont Schools, H.J. Merriott accepted position of head football and track coach and head of the History Dept. in Flomot High School.

S.D. Rattan, superintendent, and the school board made plans for a separate High School building and football team in 1936. The Flomot boys continued their "winning ways" and through the following years won district and bi-district championships in football as well as basketball. In 1939, White Star and Folley Schools transferred to Flomot. The White Star schoolhouse was moved to Flomot.

It had been a slow process for the Flomot Schools to be granted affiliation. The first school was built in 1892 and called South Quitaque School. The next school was held for awhile in a church that was built in 1906 on northeast corner of cemetery lot. In 1908 a new two story school was built and became the Flomot School. A concrete building for the school was erected

Hospital Board Discuss Lease For Stanley Building

The Motley County Hospital Board met Friday June 6 at 6:30 a.m. at Billie Dean's Restaurant with President Larry Hoyle and Board Members Lillie Crouch and Caldwell Smith attending.

Hoyle announced that Tom Hamilton had found out from HUD that they can only lease the Stanley Hospital building and he would send the city the information so they could write a lease agreement.

The board reviewed and elected to pay the May expenses for $7,867.86 leaving a balance of 23,652.08. They also read and approved the minutes.

Hoyle informed them the liability insurance for the EMT's was being canceled, but Pipkin Insurance was trying to find another company to carry it. He also stated that Motley County was about one of the only EMT groups that still had liability insurance.

After a discussion about the Stanley Hospital building, Smith suggested they get some concrete estimates on the repairs and remodeling.

Hoyle announced he had received notice from Betty Luckett, the County Tax Appraiser, stating that due to the oil decline in 1986, the taxes for 1987 would be down 50%. They are .0917 now and would need to be .0949 to meet the 1988 budget. No action was taken.

The bank franchise tax check had been received from the state for $318.49.

The meeting was adjourned.

They were chosen to represent

Roaring Springs Hires New City Secretary

The Roaring Springs City Council met Thursday, June 4 at 7:30 p.m. in the City Hall with Mayor Eugene Watson and Councilmen Gene Brannon, Roy Hernandez, Joe Thacker and Charlie Long attending. Jeanie Adams was absent. Also attending was the new Water Superintendent Reagan Holly and City Secretary Odessa Mullins.

Chuck Lincoln came to give a grievance about the night watchman. Lincoln stated that the night it rained, Lincoln needed to get in to the Laundry to dry his belongings and the nightwatchman would not let him in. Lincoln knew that the council had had other complaints and he wanted to state his. Lincoln stated that he would like to see a more congenial night watchman. The council would not discuss this in open session.

The minutes were read and approved.

The Council asked Reagan to report. He stated that he had been going over all the inventory and had found most everything listed, that the equipment was in good shape. He asked if he could get a fire extinguisher from Keith Paschal for his pickup and for Well No. 1. He stated that the pickup was in good shape and that the fire department was trying to get some 2-way radios and wanted to know if they could put one in the city pickup. The council voted to do this. Reagan stated that he had almost everything at the school organized.

Reagan said that two weeks ago, Harry Hamilton came and told him he was digging a ditch for a 350 ft line and for him to lay the pipe, the Council said he was not supposed to do any work outside the city limits and that Hamilton had not approached them about this.

Reagan wanted to mark the city's tools so he could keep up with them. He has been hunting a lot of water meters and checking manholes and had not found all of them yet but would keep looking. Reagan stated he was really enjoying his job and would be glad to move into a house. The council stated that the house should be empty this weekend and they would get it painted and repaired.

The Council told Holly to make small decisions and take care of things as he saw they needed to be done and only bring the big problems and expenses to the council. All the council commended Reagan on the good job he is doing in cleaning up the city and working on the water and sewer plants.

The council decided to look into hiring some school students to help out with the mowing, etc. for the summer.

Discussion was brought up about the water bills not paid. It was decided that the ones that were delinquent would be turned off and locked and the customer would have to pay the back bills plus a $50 deposit.

Odessa said that Joe Rice Sr. had offered to assist Dean Grey and Kenneth Rice do the city's trash hauling.

The bills were reviewed and paid.

Thacker informed the council that the bank note for $10,000 was due and he suggested they take the $2,000 out of savings and pay the note plus the interest at this time. They voted to do this.

Brannon reported that a man from Amarillo had asked if it would be possible to put a Traylor Park in Roaring Springs if he could find the land and have access to the water. The council thought it would be a good idea. A report on Warner Sailsberry's progress was that he has begun moving equipment into the building.

Anna L. Wilson was called in to discuss the city Secretary job, and she excepted.

Thacker announced that since Ronnie Thacker was no longer on the City Council that she could not be on the South Plains Association of Governments (SPAG) Board, so the Council needed to recommend a replacement. It was decided that Gene Brannon would fill this place.

Long moved that the council have West Texas Utilities Co. forgo their rate increase for 90 days. They voted to do this.

Meeting went into executive session.

LOCAL STUDENTS TO ATTEND SEMINAR

The Texas Farm Bureau's 25th Annual Citizenship Seminar for junior and senior high school students will be June 15-19, 1987 on the campus of Angelo State University in San Angelo.

Planning to attend from Motley County are Tricia Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Palmer, and Scott Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gray.

Tricia is sponsored by the Motley County Farm Bureau and Scott is sponsored by the Matador Lions Club.

They were chosen to represent

Motley County because of their leadership ability, scholastic achievement and character, said James W. Taylor, Motley County Farm Bureau president.

The seminar, which runs for three full days, is designed to give these selected students a better understanding of the various forms of government and their responsibilities as citizens.

Students attending the seminar will be eligible to enter the TFB Young Speakers for Free Enterprise contest.

LOCAL YOUTHS ATTEND STATE 4-H ROUNDUP

Ray Minkley, Motley County Agent, accompanied Jenifer Davis, Tricia Palmer, Rhonda Long and Rusty Willman to the State 4-H Roundup held in Bryan, Monday

We all drive past the gravel pit between Matador and Floydada. We take it for granted that it is another business venture but we fail to think about the economic value to our county.

I had a strange revelation about the pit several weeks ago. I had occasion to be going to Floydada before dawn. As I came over the hill, I saw a string of white, yellow and red lights. For the life of me, I could not figure out what was the cause of this spectacular sight. Then as I approached closer I realized that it was gravel trucks. They were in line from the heart of the pit, down the road and seven or eight on the shoulder of the highway. What a beautiful combination of colored lights and sunrise!!

Then I came back to reality, realizing they weren't from outer space, but a big part of Motley County's economy plus providing a rare and brilliant sight by dawn's early light!!

PLAY DAY
Most penalties play for Geneva, Leona, Loys, Dorothy D., Olivia and Louise. Dorothy won the ball, having one penalty.
The players enjoyed lunch at J-Lyn's Cafe.

QUANAH TOURNAMENT
Quannah Ladies Association hosted a partnership tournament Saturday, June 6. Leona, Geneva, Laverna and Louise played.
Leona and Geneva were in a 3-way tie (81) in second flight. Played off on card and they got 3rd place. Also tied for first place in Calcutta play.

Laverna and Louise were lucky for door prizes. Laverna received a scarf and Louise, a bun warmer.
They reported a good time. The course was in excellent shape, and a delicious lunch was served.

Toby Wilson, age 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dink Wilson (and Geneva's grandson) made a "hole-in-one" on No. 9 - using a 7 iron. Quite a feat for anyone, and especially a 12-year-old! He has a bright future in golf and other athletics.

"Son Beams"

By June Keltz

God's formula for prosperity is found in Luke 6:38. Jesus said, "Give, and it shall be given to you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, they will pour into your lap. For by your standard of measure it will be measured to you in return."

Due to an over-publicized scandal and the misuse of funds involving a major T.V. ministry, some Christians have withdrawn their tithes from all ministries. Nothing could please satan more because when our giving ceases so does our return. God's success system consists of sowing and reaping; planting and harvesting. When farmers plan to harvest cotton and feed in November, they plant the seed in May or June. So it is with everything that comes our way. If we need love, we first must give love. If we need encouragement, we first must inspire someone else. If we sow discord, discord will be our harvest.

Well meaning individuals are disturbed about poor little widows sowing their mite into the P.T.L. crumbling empire, but their return is assured because they were obedient to God's word to give. The one to whom it was given is now responsible and will answer to God for his stewardship, which alleviates all rights for us to pass judgement. Again Jesus said in Luke 16:12, "And if you have not been faithful in the use of that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own?"

God is shaking the church, the home, the Government; darkness is coming out into the light. His purifying fire is sweeping across the land, but his does not make us unaccountable for our giving to His work. "Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing me! But you say, 'How have we robbed thee?' In tithes and offerings, you are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing Me, the whole nation of you!" (Malachi 3:8,9).

The church at Philippi was a growing success because of their generous giving. Paul encouraged them to continue when he exclaimed, "no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you alone; for even in Thessalonica you sent a gift more than once for my needs. Not that I seek the gift itself, but I seek for the profit which increases to your account." (Phil 4: 15-17)

We should seek our Heavenly Father's counseling as to where we should give but we cannot afford to stop giving. Jesus gave His life to receive unto Himself a family. People are still misusing and abusing what He gave but He hasn't stopped giving to us. What we give to Him is stored up in Heaven where moth, rust and thieves cannot destroy or steal it.

COOKING AND EATING SOLO

Eating alone isn't unusual. Teenagers do it after school, employees do it when they're staying late at work and singles of all ages do it almost every day.
Eating alone and eating nutritiously don't have to be two separate things. With a little planning -- even if that planning only goes on in your head -- you can make sure you're getting a balanced diet.

Here are some ideas to make preparing "meals for one" more convenient, enjoyable and nutritious.

* Take advantage of the single-serving frozen entrees, soups, cereals and other products on the market. They may be more expensive, but can save money if you are not good about eating up leftovers and therefore waste food.

* Items that work especially well for single servings include chicken and turkey cutlets, chops, steaks and fish and seafood which can be purchased in small quantities. These foods are a major source of protein and can be prepared quickly and easily in single serving sizes by broiling the meat or poaching the fish.

* Set aside an evening or afternoon to do quantity cooking for future meals. Package, label and freeze in single servings.

* If a recipe serves two or more, one serving should go on the plate and the rest should be put in the refrigerator or freezer immediately. This will help you avoid overeating.

* Heat-sealed freezing/cooking pouches are good for storing leftovers. They are reheated in boiling water or a microwave, which saves time and cleanup.

* If you have a good cafeteria available at work or school, or you go to business lunches, eat your big meal at noon. Then you can have a lighter meal that requires little preparation at home.

Library Notes

BY JIMMIE HUNTER

There is much excitement at the Library this cool, misty Tuesday morning as we prepare for the three o'clock registration for our Summer Reading Program. It has been such a pleasure to see the children's eyes light up with anticipation when we told them that Lola Pohl was bringing her musical instrument to entertain them and teach them songs and tell a story! I know they won't be disappointed. I'm sorry that our June schedule has to be so varied, in order to fit around Vacation Bible School and into our guests schedule, but I am so grateful for the ones who have volunteered to bring our varied programs and to help with the registration today. Here is the remaining schedule for June:

Tuesday, June 16, at the Library- Handcrafts with Mrs. Winifred Lee at 10:00 a.m.; Saturday June 27, 10:00 a.m. on the Courthouse Lawn Chino and Logan are bringing Pepper Nichols to play frisbee with them.

Tuesday, June 30, 3:00 p.m., at the Library - Story hour with Beverly Darsey.

Save this schedule and watch the Library Notes for any changes that might have to be made.

Have any of you written your animal story yet?

We are so grateful for the donations to the Motley County Library in memory of Eliza Jones from Mr. and Mrs. Howard Trawick, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Vance Campbell, Mrs. J.H. George, and in memory of Pearl Brian by Mrs. Wade Martin. It would be helpful to us if you would specify whether you would like for your donation to be used for the Library Building Fund or to purchase books, and if you would like a book on a subject of a particular interest to you such as history, genealogy, poetry or science, bibliography or fiction we will do our best to please you. Just now, if we get a donation that says, "Use anywhere you need it," we apply it to the building fund.

The progress on the new home for our Library is very exciting. Get that cotton planted and that hoeing done so you can bring those pickups and trucks and help us move before the summer ends!

Our thanks to those faithful volunteers who help keep our Library open: Keith and Joan Patton, Francis Finch, Earlyne Jameson, Grace Campbell, Irene Welling, and Darla Gwinn. We apologize for the Library being closed last Tuesday evening, Dorothy Lefevre called Darla in time for her to get a substitute, but Darla's phone was out of order.

WORD FOR THE WEEK

A CULT is a particular system of religious worship, especially with reference to its rites and ceremonies.

It is also used to refer to a great admiration of a person, idea, or thing, such as a following by a body of admirers: "A CULT of Elvis Presley."

OCULT (uh KULT) means beyond the range of ordinary knowledge, mysterious, secret, disclosed or told only to the initiated.

Popularly, it refers to magic, astrology and other alleged sciences claiming use of knowledge or secret, mysterious or supernatural agencies.

Moore - Vogler Exchange Wedding Vows

Mrs. David Lynn Moore

Valerie Denise Vogler and David Lynn Moore exchanged vows in an afternoon wedding on June 6th at the First Baptist Church in Lamesa. Mike Whelan, Director of the Baptist Student Union at Canyon, officiated the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Rinehard E. Vogler of Lamesa. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayland F. Moore of Matador. Mr. and Mrs. Foy Moore, of Matador are grandparents of the groom.

Mrs. Brenda Vogler, of Lamesa, was organist and Gerry and Eva Dee Lewis, of Fort Worth, were soloists for the occasion.

Lori Vogler and Stacy Vogler, sisters of the bride of Lamesa, and Kimberly Moore, the groom's sister of Matador, preceded the bride down the aisle. They wore floor length gowns of royal blue satin and carried nosegays of pale pink, fushia and royal blue flowers. Royal blue assorted flowers and pearls adorned their hair.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents and was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a formal gown of pearl studded English smoking, appliques and re-embroidered lace, and featured a ballroom skirt and cathedral length train. She carried a cascading bouquet of white silk roses, baby's breath and pearls.

Serving as best man for his brother was Darrell Moore of Abilene. The groomsmen were Wayland Moore, father of the groom and Rusty Deaton, of Paducah, friend of the groom. Candlelighters were Mark Appling of Crosbyton and Mark Vogler of Lamesa.

A reception was held in the parlor of the First Baptist Church. The bride's cake was a three tiered Italian cream cake decorated with silk flowers of the bride's chosen colors and featured a blue flowing fountain. Presiding at the bride's table were Sharon Peabody of Amarillo, Cesali Ericson of Lubbock, Ana McGregor of El Paso, and Erika Carter of Hereford.

Presiding at the groom's table were Leigh Ann Moore, from Abilene, sister-in-law of the groom, and Rhonda Stephens of Matador and Jeanette Clemons of Lubbock, cousins of the groom. The groom's cake was a chocolate sheet cake decorated with a Texas A&M emblem.

Fun-Fest Meeting Ends El Progresso Club Year

The current year of activities for El Progresso Club came to a close Thursday, May 28, with a fun-fest meeting at the Senior Citizens Building. Due to storms which roamed over the South Plains area, the club had to cancel plans to drive to the Solar Energy Home of Mrs. Georgia Mae Ericson near Crosbyton, where they were to be her guests.

It was raining when the group met at the First Baptist Church for their departure, and after a quick conference they decided to remain at home, and other members who had not planned to make the trip, were notified of the change in plans.

Covered dish salads had been prepared in advance, to take to the meeting, so food for luncheon was no problem. As members gathered, they engaged in table games of Bible Trivia, and Aggravation. After lunch, the president, Mrs. Douglas Meador (Lila) held a brief business session and adjourned the club until its first meeting in September.

The women continued the games during the afternoon and concluded with a sing-along with Mrs. Frank Pohl (Lola) at the piano.

Three guests, Mrs. Greta Smallwood, Mrs. James Ed Russell and Bill McCaghren were welcomed, along with the following members: Mesdames W.D. Lipscomb (Vena), Joe Campbell (Loys), Ted Elliott (Bailey), E.A. Day (Dorothy), Bob Clem (Nell), Harold Campbell, (Grace), Robert Darsey (Winifred), Bill McCaghren (Judine), John Hamilton (Josephine), J.E. Edwards (Marguerite), R.E. Campbell (Lucretia) and Frank Pohl (Lola).

Bionca Braddock, of Amarillo and Traci Vogler, cousin of the bride handed guests fushia satin rose bud rice bags following the reception.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will reside in Canyon where the groom is employed with American Cyanamid.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Tuesday, June 2, 1987, the W.F. McCaghren home was the scene of a pre-nuptial shower honoring Valerie Vogler, bride-elect of David Moore. Guests called from four to six o'clock in the evening and were registered by Mrs. Horace Jameson. Refreshments of cookies, mints, nuts and punch were served from the tea table laid with an exquisite Madiera linen cloth. Centerpiece for the table was a lovely arrangement of silk flowers featuring the bride's chosen colors of shocking pink and royal blue.

Mrs. Bill Dunning presided at the punch bowl and was assisted by the following hostesses in the house party; Mmes Bill Moss, Billy Wason, C.N. Johnson, Boyce Hart, W.F. McCaghren, Billy P. Simpson, Johnny Phillips, Richard Turner, Calvin Nimmo, Horace Jameson, J.E. Edwards, Winifred Lee, and Billy J. Whitaker.

Mrs. Rinehard E. Vogler, mother of the bride, of Lamesa, was an out-of-town guest.

CARD OF THANKS

Thankfulness fills our hearts for your many acts of love and concern at the loss of our loved one, Eliza Jones. We appreciate the flowers, cards, memorials, calls and the ladies of Flomot and others who prepared and served food at the family luncheon and breakfast. We thank God for friends such as you.

Opal Martin, Allie Hart, Mollie Bureson, Mary Ellen Barton, Viola Stinson, France Barton-

We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks for the many kindnesses shown us during the loss of our mother.

The visits of "kin" and friends, the donations, cards, flowers, and the food that was prepared for all of us was the greatest gift of friendship that can be shown.

May God Bless and keep each of you.

PIONEER BASKETBALL CAMPS SCHEDULED

PLAINVIEW, TX (Special) -- Boys basketball camps at Wayland Baptist University are just over a month away, with the first session scheduled July 12-17 in Hutcherson Physical Education Center on the WBU campus.

The Pioneer Basketball Camps offer three sessions to choose from. The second camp will be July 19-24, followed by the third July 26-31. Openings are still available in all three sessions.

Pioneer Head Coach Rick Cooper and a host of outstanding high school and college coaches from Panhandle-South Plains area will be on hand for all three weeks, giving boys age 8-17 an opportunity to improve in all phases of the game. In addition to daily work on offensive and defensive fundamentals, campers will enjoy six-game league competition, demonstration by college athletes, three-man league competition, and presentations by several guest speakers.

In accordance with Texas University Interscholastic League rules, only those boys who have not participated on varsity teams may attend camps. Out-of-state campers grades five through 12 are welcome to attend.

All campers will be housed in modern residence halls on the Wayland campus and all meals will be provided in the University Center. Each participant will receive a camp T-shirt and daily awards will be presented to winners of drills and contests. In addition, a special clinic session each Friday morning where all parents, coaches and friends are invited to see drills and activities as directed by the camp staff.

Cost of the camp is $159. A deposit of $50 must be made with each application, with the remainder due to enrollment. Contact the WBU athletic office for more information.

Social Security Tips

by Terry J. Clements

In this column, I regularly explain your rights under Social Security. It is important for you to know about monthly disability, survivors, and retirement benefits and how to get them. And you should be aware of what Medicare provides if you are 65 or older.

But there's another side to the coin. It is also essential that you clearly understand certain responsibilities you have under Social Security. Here are some prime examples:

* When you file a claim - Benefits are not paid automatically when you become disabled, retire, or after your death. An application must be filed with Social Security and certain evidence submitted. It is up to you to find out what is needed and to cooperate fully in providing needed proofs or information.

* When you get benefits - You must promptly report events that may affect your payments. For example, notify social security when you: change your address; expect earnings from work to exceed the allowable limit (or any amount if you get benefits due to disability); or you marry while getting dependent or survivor payments.

There may be other responsibilities involving Social Security, too. For instance, the Tax Reform Act of 1986 requires you to have a social security number for each dependent age 5 and over whom you list on Federal tax returns due after December 31, 1987.

For more information you may contact us at 1401-B West 5th street or call us at 293-9623. Appointment can be arranged if desired.

Praise the Lord; for the Lord is good; sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.

Letter To The Editor

To the Editor of the Motley County Tribune,

Today I received my May 7, 1987 edition of the Motley County Tribune. As is my habit I opened it and looked through it at work. I was very upset at the article written by a former Matador resident, Karl Pallmeyer about the Corps of Cadets. I have confidence that the Cadets at A&M took care of themselves in the "Battalion", the student newspaper. However I feel strongly to defend the Corps to the readers of your newspaper.

I was a four-year member of the Corps of Cadets, and very proud of it. I know I am a better person for my experiences in the Corps, and I made friends who I will have for life. I know I am a better officer in the United States Army because of the discipline and Esprit de Corps I learned while a cadet. However I see a non-reg, the title we gave the civilian students at A&M, such as Karl finds it easy to criticize an institution which he was not a part of and doesn't understand. Some things never change. Cadets were always an easy target of the Anti-Corps student newspaper, the "Battalion" and still is.

First I want to assure everyone that I did not murder babies or other heinous acts that Mr. Pallmeyer's article would lead one to believe is the favorite pastime of Cadets. Yes I pulled my share of guarding Kyle Field. However there are several things Karl failed to mention. One is most of the guys who sprint on to the field go after the band. A guy playing an instrument is very vulnerable; however Karl would leave these guys to fend for themselves against drunk non-regs. Another part of guarding Kyle Field is escorting the band to Kyle Field. In doing this I was on several occasions attacked by non-regs, who thought it was good bull to try to break into the band. Why are these facts so easily omitted by Karl? As a senior proudly wearing my boots, I was often threatened by non-regs who wanted to trash my uniform or try and steal my boots.

Also why is he so quick to condemn all cadets for the actions of a few? Karl states the actions of these few show "how well the Corps' fine tradition of chivalry has survived for 110 years." Using Karl's rationale all soldiers should be condemned as murderers and war criminals because of the actions of Lt. William Calley during the Vietnam War.

I agree with Karl in that it was most unfortunate that a cadet died. It was a tragedy; there is no denying that. I just wonder why we don't hear about all those who die as a result of pledging fraternities? It happens all too often, yet they don't get the notoriety that the Corps does when they do something. Why is that?

I have admittedly been away from A&M a long time. During my time at A&M, Cadets were very prominent among all facets of student leadership; everywhere from class officers to the student body president. We lived together, we ate together and we took care of one another. Outside of the Academies, and other Military schools, I would like to know how many other student lead organizations are as well policed as the Corps of Cadets? Not many I would imagine. Yet, as is the case with the service academies, it is very easy to criticize the Corps from the outside. I can say during my four years at A&M that the Grade Point Average of the Corps of Cadets was higher than that of the non-regs.

I love A&M. As my wife says, if you cut me I would bleed maroon. The Corps is something special and the Corps is truly the keeper of A&M's traditions. The Corps is the 12th man, and as a member I am glad I was a true Aggie, not just a non-reg student. Yes Karl, highway 6 DOES run both ways. Maybe you can find your way to Austin. GIG'EM AGGIES.

LAND VALUES

Part III

Say you purchased land fifty years ago at one dollar per acre. Add to that a nominal interest, taxes, and etc., for fifty years. Sum it up and strike a balance; divide the sum by your acres and see what the cost has been. It is sort of like having a horse shod at the cost of a penny for the first nail, and doubling the cost for every additional nail required to hold the shoes in place.

The land isn't to be blamed. It is the system that is at fault. The land is for people and all creatures to live on. People should own homes, but our system has produced a condition whereby it is cheaper to rent than to own a home. Too many people have become as itinerant as a Methodist circuit rider. They have never known the peace, joy and stability of being anchored to a home they can call their own.

Sure there are exceptions. Some have purchased haphazardly and even paid long prices and prospered. Oil discovery has brought untold wealth to men that bought land for other uses.

The Waggoner and Burnett cattle ranches are shining examples of good fortune, not vision. Those men loved ranching and bought immense bodies of land for their cattle. It is too visionary to think that they ever dreamed of the liquid gold that lay beneath the acres they purchased at the time of its acquisition.

Swenson, Goodnight and Adair, Swearingen and White, the Spur and Matador people, and dozens of others had just as large land holdings, but never had such discoveries found under them.

Some men are truly born with a golden spoon in their mouths. It is said that C.C. Slaughter, for many years, was the largest individual taxpayer in all of the great State of Texas. Land and cattle, and other holdings were increments from them. No vast subterranean wealth has ever been brought to the earth's surface on lands owned by Slaughter, so far as I have any knowledge. Just destiny, pure and simple.

Most of the State University lands lay in West Texas. A desolate, lonely region with few attributes that are enhancing, other than as a Jack Rabbit range; but the discovery of oil and pot-ash has made it more desirable than Croesus' wealth. A level, thin soiled region with a rock foundation of a thousand foot depth and little water. A thin grass turf and an abundance of wind and dry weather. Still, it was ordained by nature to have its wealth and uses. Are you arguing that the Legislature, with all its wisdom, knew all about its hidden wealth when they allotted that land to the effort of enlightenment? Scarcely that wise, must be your answer.

Sure, once upon a time, there was little or no market in West Texas for land. It was just about as hard to dispose of as Rattle Snakes would have been range delivery.

Back in those halcyon days, we speak of as the early nineties, the large ranches lost much grass, scattered about over their ranges to little men, because they didn't think they could compete with them in prices offered.

Little of the land sold at that time ever exceeded one dollar and fifty cents per acre and those purchasers were sort of "tony", for they picked lands that were reasonably level and smooth, as though they had an eye on the future.

To a cowman, a section was a section, one was as good as another unless well watered. If watered, there was about a dime's difference; then the dry weather farmer arrived with his contagious fever that rang the changes and swept the country and ended the big ranches. To some the sadness lingers, for they retain memories of bygone days.

End of 3 part story on "Land Values" playing ball. Seems like they were just fixing to go to practice when George looked at Leon's feet and said "Cloyd, those are the biggest &c% things I ever saw that didn't have guts in them."

Everyone says that Mr. and Mrs. Cavness always kept a well ordered class. In other words, there was no fooling around, you got your lessons and took part in class or "else", and you all know what that meant back then.

I was told that the other teachers were strict also, especially Mr. Lovell. There was always a "board" to keep you on the right road of learning. I know there were a few that kids could get around by getting them off the class and onto another subject for awhile. That happened in the school that I went to in center, back in East Texas, but we had a Superintendent that took care of everything in a big way and scared us all to death along the way. He walked very soft and would be in your classroom watching you before you even knew he was there. He went to every room just that way off and on all day.

We have a lot to thank the teachers for, even though when we were in school we thought it was terrible to have homework to do. Or have a "pop quiz" when we didn't expect one. Wasn't that awful? Anyway...Teachers, thank you for your good work. We backed the teachers when our's was in school and we still do.

Have to go so will be back next time to "Remember When" again.

Remember When

By Annie B. Cloyd

Flomot, TX 79234

Hello folks, it's just me, here in Flomot, watching all these farmers working so hard to get the cotton seed in the ground before it rains again. The fresh plowed ground sure smells good to me. Have you ever watched a farmer plow a while and then get off the tractor and reach down and get a hand full of dirt and squeeze it and smell of it? I've seen my Dad and then Leon do it lots and lots of times. Guess that's just natural with a farmer.

I want to thank Earlyne for the great article she wrote last week about the football players from Flomot and Matador getting together and making such a great team. We all enjoyed reading it. So keep up the good work.

We found some pictures of the Flomot Football team and Leon was playing and George Cavness was Coach. They have been back to the Homecomings before and we hope they come this time. They have stopped to see us a few times when they would come through here. One time Leon told me something that George said to him when he was
