PRICE SEVEN CENTS

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

A man's public image is not the same one he sees in the mirror when he starts to shave, but their vanishing points are about equal.

Another used to threaten to wash his mouth with lye soap had spoken a naughty word. The language often used by youngsters today would result in a sulphuric acid and a John Birch.

Another instrument in the world has given much freedom as the automobile. It has delivered him from the chains of distance and frequently made time his subject instead of master. It may destroy his health, endanger his limb and crush his spirit, but there is a small, private throne behind the steering wheel.

It is certainly not the kind of neighbor to whom you would go to the back door and borrow a cup of sugar.

Reflect and carelessness are the parents of disaster, but little financial problem was left on their door step.

During Prohibition days there were no good vintage years in the making of corn whiskey. The demand was such that the product had no time in which to ripen or earlier bottling to compare for quality.

We need to rest our problems at certain stations in order to repair the harness and anoint the collar sores.

Inquisitive people of course, learn more, but the fact creates its own problem; how much of that information is correct?

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bumpus returned home Monday night from Temple where they had accompanied his mother, Mrs. Verdna Bumpus of Cee Vee, who entered Scott and White Hospital for treatment.

Aubrey L. (Cotton) Stephens and small son, Cliffie of Roswell, N. M. were recent visitors here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Stephens, and in Paducah with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Piper.

Mrs. Claud Jeffers of Paducah, formerly of Matador, visited Mrs. L. Plemons and other friends here Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Rattan and sons, David and Chris of Rattan Ranch visited from Thursday until Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Rattan.

Legion Post Named in Honor of Matador Cowboy who Died a Hero

Blood of a cowboy, Pvt. Frank Fleming, soaked into the soil of France on October 18, 1918. It was only 24 days before the end of the great conflict somewhere on the Meuse Argonne sector of the Western Front. He was a machine gunner assigned to Hdq. Co. of the 7th Infantry.

It was in honor of this cowboy, the first known casualty from Matley County in World War I, that Fleming Post No. 337 American Legion, was named.

He was a friendly cowboy who worked hard, tended to his own business and asked no favors of anyone. He bore the nickname of "the Hackberry" with a dignity peculiar to the small world in which he lived.

When he was called for military duty he quietly disposed of his saddle and sent his personal belongings home, then went to the Matador Ranch headquarters to turn in his mount of horses and draw his last pay check. He

Capacity Crowd At Amateur Hour

Talent galore was exhibited to a capacity crowd at the annual Amateur Hour held Tuesday night in the school auditorium, as a part of Public Schools Week. With Butch Waybourn as Master of Ceremonies, the program moved along swiftly to a dramatic conclusion, with Jan Higginbotham singing "The Star Spangled Banner," and David White giving, "Meaning of the Flag" with Larry Jameson holding a large American flag in the background.

Three first prizes were given, one in each of three divisions as follows: High School, The Swing Kings, a jazz band composed of Jack McCallie, David Rattan, Larry Keltz and Max Barton.

For grades five to eight, David Garrison sang, "California Sun" accompanied by Reggie White on a steel guitar and John Johnson playing the drums. They were called The Shadows.

First prize winner in grades one to four was Lance Jameson, who won with his song, "Gone Fishing" accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Skeet Jameson at the piano.

"Beetles" and "Cockroaches" performed during the evening's program. Also delighting the audience were hillbilly skits, a ball number, solos, trios, and even "The Three Stooges." An "operation" was performed with Roger Vinson the victim (patient) and two "female" nurses, Bill Tilson and David Thompson assisting Dr. Casey (Wilburn Terry).

Home Missions Week of Prayer

Week of Prayer for Home Missions is being observed by the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union this week in a series of programs each morning at 9:30, at the First Baptist Church.

Legion Post Named in Honor of Matador Cowboy who Died a Hero

Frank Fleming was born March 23, 1893 at Eufaula, Oklahoma. His father died before he was born and his mother died when he was only 2 1/2 years of age. He was reared by an uncle, John Seals. The family lived near Checotah, Oklahoma for 12 years, then moved to California. Four years later the family moved to a farm near Memphis, Texas.

Frank Fleming left school in the 6th grade and began to work on farms and ranches. Records of his early life were difficult to obtain. It is known that he worked for the Matadors as early as 1912, assigned as a rider with Rang Thornton's range wagon for more than one season.

In the history of the Fleming Legion Post compiled by the Legion Post in May, 1936, late S. D. Rattan in May, 1936, it is recorded that he was a good cowboy and there can be no question that he was a good soldier.

or developed a loss of appetite). This is the way Cecil Fox, Spur Game Warden and student of reptiles cooks rattlesnakes. He always keeps some rattlesnake filets in the deep freeze and always offers to cook them for guests. His guests are seldom hungry.

Fox was the principal feature Monday night at Fleming Post American Legion meeting, which included a large number of guests in addition to members and the Ladies Auxiliary. Most interested guests were approximately 15 members of Matador Boy Scout Troop 60, accompanied by Scoutmasters Douglas Pitts Jr. and Freddie Welling.

The program followed a covered dish supper prepared by the two groups as is the usual first Monday procedure. Warden Fox was introduced by Commander R. C. Giesecke.

"There are many good snakes," Fox declared, "and they are our friends. For instance, there is no better protection against rattlesnakes, than the friendly King-snake. The bullsnake is also a good snake. I kill the coachwhip or prairie racer because they rob nests and kill baby doves and quail."

Eggs Are Preserved Most harmless snakes are hatched from eggs and most poisonous snakes (not all) are born. Fox said he has known of mother rattlers giving birth to from 8 to 40 baby rattlers.

One of the most interesting features of the program was the large display of various snakes and snake eggs preserved in formaldehyde. Mr. Fox also gave a demonstration in "milking" venom from the mouth of a large live rattlesnake.

He was bitten one time by a small rattler during a meeting demonstration at the Cap Rock Peace Officers Association, of which he is President. He said the bite of a rattlesnake is very painful.

Many thousands of people have seen the reptile demonstration on television, and in person before large audiences where Mr. Fox has appeared.

Among the guests at the meeting was Mrs. Fox, who accompanied her husband.

Lions in School are Declared Hopeless

A CLASS of Lions re-entering school rooms here Tuesday did not expose enough brilliance to inspire the faculty or students. The Lions were interesting to study but by modern academic standards they would probably be graded "hopeless." The 50-member civic club had just had an excellent meal prepared in the lunchroom kitchen and served by attractive high school

WHERE WOULD YOU GO TO GET AN AFTABA?

They are not easy to find in the United States. There is one at the Tribune, the property of Mrs. D. L. Damron, 6th grade teacher here. It is a beautiful hand engraved, copper or brass, long spouted container, something like a vinegar bottle.

Mrs. Damron received the aftaba from "Round The World by Mail" organization, of which she is a member. It was handmade in India. It is on loan to the Tribune for exhibition.

Aftaba came to India with the Persian Moguls. Mogul Emperors also brought Persian philosophers, poets, craftsmen and artists. The Indian artists developed the aftaba with their hand casting, hand polishing and hand engraving.

Even in India today the aftaba is used for important occasions such as marriages and anniversaries, and is filled with rose water. In the marriage rites rose water is poured into the bride's bath before the wedding takes place. Rose water is also poured from the aftaba by a servant to cleanse the hands before and after a feast.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. Forrest Campbell returned home Tuesday night from San Diego, California. She had accompanied relatives there to attend the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. John S. Tudor. Mr. Tudor accompanied his sisters, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. George Masterton of Dallas on their return to Texas.

Mrs. John Lawrence returned this week from a visit in Odessa with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Koon and her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Beauchamp. Her sister and brother-in-law from Clovis, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McNabb joined the group for a visit during the time.

IT IS INCREDIBLE today that about the turn of the century Congress seriously considered abolishing the patent of office because that body of American leaders honestly believed everything worthwhile had been invented. Within the short span of 60 odd years the world has seen more change than in all the combined centuries of recorded history. Within the past 35 years Motley County has witnessed more change than all of its recorded history.

Twilight of Change

It is true that the county has lost about 60% of its population, which is startling by the exception. Again the miracle of change is taking place in many areas where great reservoirs have been built or are under construction. Ghost towns of the future will be those towns which fail to have access to these reservoirs. Surely there is no solution to the ever increasing water problem except by the impounding of surface water.

Again nature has been more than generous in creating the topography of Motley County. Three rivers and many canyons flow through sandstone and caliche before they reach the gypsum and bitter soils. Abundant rain water rushes down these streams almost every year. The water could be impounded to irrigate much of the county's farm land, to provide recreational areas second to none, to bring greater wealth to the entire area, and increase many times the value of the lands on which the dams might be located.

Population is crowding into West Texas and water is the magic by which cities of the future will survive and prosper. We have reached the twilight of change and the future is rushing toward this generation which must make decisions quickly, or they will be in the hands of another generation willing to provide the tools for change. Surely, no country offers greater opportunity than Motley County today. Those who prosper most will be those willing to accept change, and with the courage to saddle it up and ride.

girls. It was difficult for the business men to become scholastically enthusiastic.

A group that wandered into a class where questions were handed out became apprehensive and showed relief when assured their papers would not be graded.

Representative Bill Heatly Makes Announcement for Re-Election

REP. BILL HEATLY

Representative W. S. (Bill) Heatly of Paducah has authorized the Matador Tribune to make a formal announcement as a candidate for re-election as Representative from the 82nd Legislative District comprised of Motley, Hall, Hardeman and Wilbarger Counties.

In announcing his candidacy, Mr. Heatly made the following statement:

In ten years service in the Legislature, I have acted on the theory that my primary responsibility was to represent the views and interests of the people of my district and to act as their spokesman in their dealings with the state government. My conviction is based on the fact that special groups are well represented through their organizations by persons who have large offices and field staffs and plenty of money with which to carry on their activities.

In addition, the State government, functioning through approximately 150 commissions, boards and other agencies, is amply represented by people employed for that purpose. These agencies have the responsibility of collecting taxes, making regulations governing business and professional activities, and making arrests under certain conditions. They also assess and collect fines and penalties and have authority to institute civil court action.

My service to the individual citizen includes obtaining for persons in need of special care admission to hospitals and special schools maintained by the State. During my ten years in the Legislature I have handled hundreds of applications of this nature.

Knowledge of the law and long experience in such matters enable me to be helpful to constituents in matters of this kind without cost to them.

Of importance to citizens of the 82nd District is the fact that three of the five terms I have served in the House I have been honored with the chairmanship of an important committee. I am particularly proud of the fact that I have headed the House Appropriations Committee in two sessions, a distinction enjoyed by only one previous House member. My work with the Appropriations Committee has given me a thorough knowledge and understanding of the functions of all the state agencies.

It is my feeling that counties in the 82nd District represent a fair cross-section of the interests and needs of the entire state. Consequently, in representing interests of the people in my district, I feel I am doing a good job for all of Texas.

One of the issues which always arises in my campaigns involves my attitude toward various organized business and professional groups. In this connection I think it is fair to state that such groups as organized professions, businesses and labor have a perfect right to organize and maintain lobbies in Austin to represent their interests.

But I also believe that none of these is entitled to special privileges or favors particularly in such matters as taxation. For example, I believe workers have right to organize a union to promote their interests, but I also believe that no individual should be compelled to join a union or contribute to a campaign fund or any political party or candidate in order to hold a job in Texas. I also believe that the beer industry has a right to maintain a lobby for promoting its legitimate interests, but I believe that beer should be taxed in the same ratio to sales as cigarettes and gasoline are at the present time.

These examples illustrate my philosophy of government, but naturally my views do not always suit representatives of special interests which seek or already enjoy special favors. One of the results is that in my races for re-election I have had well-financed and well-organized opposition, particularly from representatives of the beer industry, with help from certain other organized groups. I am sure this year's campaign will be no exception in this regard. Agents from some of these special interests will be at work in the 82nd District trying to bring about my defeat. Every member they can elect to the House of Representatives will make it easier for them to obtain special favors.

Of special importance, because it will be discussed in this campaign, is my record of sponsoring increased appropriations for all branches of education. Appropriations by the 58th Legislature for education represented marked increases over appropriations for the previous biennium. The increase in my appropriations bill for higher education was $63,867,667. This represented an increase of 29% and the increase for public schools was $103,950,952, making a total increase in the field of education of $167,818,619. I think my record will support the statement that I have been a genuine friend of education throughout my service in the Legislature.

It is impossible to discuss in detail all of the matters I would like to mention I would just say, however, that my record shows that I have consistently represented my people in this area by assisting the farmer, students with part-time jobs in college, the elderly people who have had problems with the Welfare Department and other individuals who have dealings with State agencies.

I was born on a farm near Mart, Texas, attended public schools there and later attended Decatur Baptist College. After graduation there I entered Baylor University, receiving a BA and LL.B. degree in 1936. I married Jonnie Green Hawkins of Wichita Falls. We have three sons, Gene and Bill, who are presently attending Baylor University and Stan, who is presently attending Schreiner Institute. We are members of the First Christian Church in Paducah where I serve as elder on the Official Board and chairman of the Building Committee. I am also engaged in the practice of law and the farming and ranching business in Cottle and Dickens Counties.

I appreciate the fine support I received in Motley County two years ago. I hope my service has been satisfactory and that I may have the support of the people in Motley County in the coming election.

What Must She Know About Auto Insurance?

Very little, actually.

When it comes to insurance protection, it's not how much she knows, but how much she has.

And that's where we come in. As an independent agency, we provide up-to-date protection to fit her family's need.

We tailor the right coverages... in just the right amounts... and at the best possible rates.

She knows we're taking care of it... and it's taking care of her.

Come to think of it, that's about all she needs to know.

Chevelle balanced performance is best!

Passing, cornering, threading through traffic, sudden stops—Chevelle excels all around! Chevrolet's new surprise package has what it takes to meet any driving challenge: Six or V8 engines, hefty brakes, Full Coil suspension—and a trim size that makes the most of them!

Chevelle means performance aplenty—standard 120-hp Six or 195-hp V8—and optional at extra cost, a 155-hp Six, a 220-hp V8, a new 327-cu.-in. V8! But Chevelle's performance means more. Chevelle's a foot shorter than the big cars. And the space Chevelle saves in size comes off the ends, not the middle. So it rides like you want a car to ride.

Chevelle lets you choose Powerglide*, 4-speed manual* or 3-speed manual transmission. Knowing how people like the custom touch, we wrote out a long list of extra-cost options. Knowing all this, what's keeping you from a test drive? Certainly not your Chevrolet dealer!

Curtains to Add Finishing Touch

By Karen Elliott

This week the homemaking girls began the task of placing things in the newly completed kitchen. The moving is now completed and the outward appearance of the kitchen is immaculate; however, no one is sure just exactly where everything is located.

The rose-beige curtains, which the homemaking classes are making, have a shagbark texture. The cafe-type curtains will be suspended from a gold rod by small gold rings. Above this will be a twelve inch valance. The wall of the room are also a rose-beige. When the curtains are finished, the new kitchen will be completed.

COUNTY AGENT PALLMEYER SAYS:

In the Midland area, farmers began to realize that something was reducing cotton yields, and after checks were made, nematodes were discovered. Soil fumigants were used in 1959 for the first time, and yield increases were from 30 to 40 percent, returning $5 for each $1 invested.

Tests were repeated in 1960 and 1961, with similar results. This could be the cause of some reduced yields in Motley County, especially where moisture has been good, fertilizers have been used correctly, and insects have been controlled. If you suspect this trouble, why not collect a soil sample from areas of low production, and have a nematode check made? We have found nematodes in garden spots, and they could be the reason for reduced yields.

There is no charge for this service, so if you are interested, contact me for information blanks that should accompany the sample.

Now is the time to submit soil samples for fertilizer recommendations. An information sheet which is available in my office should accompany any soil sample as this provides a guide for making recommendations after the test has been run. Soils should be tested at least every 5 years, and average return has been $4 for each dollar spent for fertilizer.

Contrary to common belief, fertilizers will not burn up a crop if moisture is short. In fact, proper fertility level enables crop production with less moisture, as recommendations are made for average rainfall for the area.

The only way a farmer can evaluate the use of fertilizer is to try it. When fertilizing, enough land should be left unfertilized to produce at least one bale. Then compare this acreage with the acres required to produce a bale on fertilized land. You might also want to compare grades, staple and micronaire.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO PLANT THE BEST SEED AVAILABLE.

Before planting any seed, you should know if the variety or hybrid is adapted and recommended for the area. Is the seed high in vernal purity? Is germination high? Was the germination test made within the past six months? Is the seed free from weeds? Is the seed free from other seed of other crops?

If you don't know, it is best to find out, as replanting, hoeing, and unthrifty plants will take a lot of work, as well as cost you money.

Seed cost is a minor one in the farming operation, but is necessary for top production, even though you fertilize, irrigate and control insects. You can check the seed tag for much of this information, and if in doubt if the variety is recommended, ask your seed dealer or myself.

The annual land and grass judging contest sponsored by the Upper Pease Soil Conservation District will be held in Matador on Tuesday, March 31st. All contestants will meet in the courthouse at 3:45 p.m., with separate contests for Juniors (under 14 before Jan. 1, 1964) and Seniors. Any boy or girl from Motley and Cottle counties eligible to compete, and prizes will be awarded in the Junior and Senior divisions, provided by the Matador Lions Club.

The meeting for peanut producers will be held in the Motley school Thursday, March 12, starting at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Bob Berry, area plant pathologist from Lubbock will be speaker.

Even though the main purpose for the program is to discuss peanut diseases, people with other plant disease problems are urged to attend, as this meeting will provide a chance to discuss other plant diseases also.

Plant diseases are presenting a greater problem each year. Let's stop these losses.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Timmons were attending to business in Lubbock last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cooper returned Saturday to their new place in the Crump community.

You may buy Cheaper Prescriptions . . .

It is entirely possible for us to purchase cheaper pharmaceuticals from cut-rate houses and fill your prescriptions with them. We are constantly receiving offers from these houses who propose savings of as much as 50%. It would be perfectly legal for us to fill your prescriptions with this type of drugs.

You would not be harmed but it is highly probable that you would not receive any benefit. Many tests have shown prescriptions impotent when filled with pharmaceuticals manufactured by these firms who did not spend any money in research and who do not maintain strict control in manufacture.

We will not sell doubtful prescriptions.

We know that medicines are expensive because we buy them every day from the established and recognized firms who have spent millions in perfecting their products. We will not take the chance of preparing any prescription with doubtful ingredients that might in any way reduce the results expected by your physician.

It requires a large investment to keep fresh, high quality drugs to fill any prescription brought to us. Our prices are fair and standard and you can not find a better value anywhere if you want the best. If you want less than the best, we are sorry, we refuse to prepare it.

Grass Team Goes to Houston Show

The Roaring Springs FFA Grass Team composed of Stacey Watson, Don Tardy and Rogene Swim placed 12th in the field of 50 teams at the Houston Livestock show in the grass judging contest last week.

Two of the Chapter boys, Kelly and Ronnie Clifton participated in the Calf Scramble, which was part of the rodeo program, but were unable to catch and halter their calf in the allotted time.

"Seems as luck was not smiling on us that day," observed B. L. Peacock, V-o-ag teacher and chapter sponsor. "Although the boys failed to bring home a heifer, they did bring home skinned legs and ribs, and bruises to show for their efforts."

On the return trip home the group enjoyed a tour of Galveston Island and observed the fishing boats unloading their catch at the docks, and also made a tour through Huntsville to see the state penitentiary.

The chapter and their sponsor expressed the following note of appreciation upon their return home.

"We would like to thank the following firms who made this trip possible: First State Bank, Matador, Super Service Station, Carl Tardy's Barber Shop, Thacker Supply Company, Long Insurance Agency, and Marshall Feed & Seed Store, all of Roaring Springs."

in what activities he or she had participated, after which, Coach Read presented special awards and mentioned honors which had been bestowed upon individual team members.

Mae Rainbolt and John Castillo both placed on the all-tournament teams in the Matador invitational basketball tournament. No all-district basketball teams were selected from district 15-B this season.

Boys who placed on the all-district football team for the 1963 season were: End, John Castillo; Guard, Thomas Owens; Center, Rogene Swim; and Back, Don Tardy. Don was selected the best player in the district and will play in the All Star East-West game at the coaching clinic in Ranger, Aug. 1. Mr. McKnight, girl's basketball coach, and Coach Read both expressed appreciation to the members of their teams for the faithfulness and hard work this season.

"No Room For Mediocrity"

Coach Huffman began his address on a humorous note, but left much food for thought. He emphasized that if our nation is to maintain its place, it is essential that its young people have physical strength and emotional stamina, which can only be gained through competitive athletics.

"There is no room for mediocrity in today's world," he declared. "Every player, every student and every adult must give 100% of himself."

Mr. McKnight introduced Mrs. Huffman and the speaker, who coached McKnight during his college days at Tech.

Benediction was by Don Tardy.

Public Reminded Of Book Benefit

The public is reminded of the "Book Tea" which Predicta Study Club of Roaring Springs is sponsoring Friday, March 6 at 4:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. M. S. Thacker.

Everyone is invited to attend and bring a book for the school library, or a donation toward the purchase of a book will be equally appreciated.

The club hopes to build up the school library to State standards, according to officials of the organization.

METHODIST MINISTER RETURNS "HOME"

Two-year-old Jack Daniels (inset) sits on the steps of his new Home, the Methodist Home in Waco, Texas on January 21, 1962. Jack and his six brothers and sisters entered the Home for children following the death of their parents.

In the larger picture, Methodist Home Superintendent Hubert Johnson welcomes Jack Daniels back to the Home following his recent appointment as chaplain. In his first sermon Rev. Daniels told the children he can understand their feelings well because he has been on both sides of the Methodist Home pulpit. Rev. Daniels felt his call to the ministry while growing up in the Christian atmosphere of the Home. His good record in public school and at the Home helped him earn an Albaugh Scholarship for his bachelor's degree.

Rev. Daniels worked his way through theological school as a student pastor. After graduation he served Methodist churches in the Central Texas Conference for seven years preceding his appointment to the Methodist Home. He will guide a program of bible study for the children, supervise daily devotional services in the chapel, and hold regular services in the chapel. As the children's pastor Rev. Daniels will offer experienced counsel in helping solve problems of faith and life.

The Methodist Home serves both Texas and New Mexico and since its founding 74 years ago has cared for over 8,700 children orphaned by death and human failings.

ELECTRIC FIRM TO CUT RATES

Savings resulting from the reduction in Federal income taxes will be passed on to West Texas Utilities customers according to plans for system-wide rate reductions announced today. These reductions in rates will save customers about $1 million annually, approximately 2.8% at this time. Savings will be even greater as electric sales grow.

Freddie Welling, WTU Local Manager announced that the Company plans to pass on the full benefits of the tax reduction which it will receive under the new tax law. Under the new law the income tax on corporations will be reduced in two steps of 2% each. The corporate income tax will go from 52% to 50% in 1964 and from 50% to 48% in 1965.

"We are giving customers the benefit of both the tax reduction already established for 1964 and the tax reduction scheduled for 1965," Cal Young, WTU President said. "Passing this saving on to customers in the form of rate reductions will simply leave the Company with the same rate of return it has been earning."

"Such system-wide rate reductions require extensive study," Young continued. "In addition, after the new rates are designed, considerable work will have to be done to adjust our IBM computer billing procedures to these new rates." Young added, "We expect to have the new rates in effect by mid-summer . . . probably July or August. Prior to the time the rates are placed in effect, they must be approved by each incorporated city."

"WTU has a unique record for any industry . . . one of which we are very proud," Young pointed out. "WTU has never raised a rate. Through the years we have consistently reduced the cost of service as plant efficiency and improved operations, together with increased customer usage permitted. This planned rate reduction is a continuation of that long-established policy."
