PRICE SEVEN CENTS

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

Personal freedom is losing ground in the cigarette industry and the tobacco industry prone on the operating table inhaling ether. Something is gone out of our way of life when a person is denied the privilege of making a fool of herself privately and without interfering in the lives of others. On the other hand, everything is dangerous. Perhaps the automobile heads the list of instruments causing advance arrivals of eternity. We may someday have a compulsory neon sign on the dash reading: "This thing will kill you. Get out and run for your life, and take the ash tray with you."

Gossip is a more easily understood term describing halitosis of the mind.

One convenient thing about intentions is that their proceeds will forever remain tax exempt.

There is no fertility for honest work. One of the happiest men I have ever known spent many weary months digging a well with his hands and never reaching a water sand. His reward was a depth so great he could see stars in broad daylight.

Sorrow is a detergent capable of removing the stains from a rug and returning the fabric to its original brilliance.

Some politician will eventually balance the national budget against the inheritance taxes the government is waiting to collect.

For another thing the roads are a lot smoother now than when my father used to jump out of the wagon and hold the horses close to the bits every time we met an automobile.

District Cage Games Slated

Two district basketball games are scheduled here at the gymnasium. Estelle will be here Friday night and Lakeview will be here Tuesday night, Jan. 28. Girls games will begin at 7 p.m. and boys games about 8:15 p.m.

Cemetery Group Express Thanks

The Tribune is in receipt of the following message signed by President Jimmy Woodruff and directors of the East Mound Cemetery Association with regard to the project of piping water to the cemetery:

"We are very grateful for the response to the East Mound Cemetery pipe project. In making a spot check of donors we find a great many who have not yet responded. We feel that everyone who has friends or relatives buried in the cemetery will want to have a part in the project.

"As we have stated previously, any money received and not needed for the project, will be used as widely as possible in beautifying the cemetery. We urge everyone who has not made a contribution, to do so at once so that we can get on with the job before spring arrives."

Crosbyton Service Held for Ted Steen

DEADLINE FOR INSPECTION OF VEHICLES NEARS

AUSTIN—The director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Col. Homer Garrison Jr., today reminded Texas vehicle owners that the 1964 vehicle inspection deadline will soon be upon them.

He reported that some 60 per cent of the allotted inspection period has elapsed and only 20 per cent of the vehicles have been inspected.

"If this trend continues, vehicle owners can expect to have to wait in line in order to get their vehicles inspected by the April 15 deadline," he said.

Garrison pointed out that Texas experienced its worst traffic fatality record in 1963 and vehicle defects were involved in some of these fatal accidents. He urged all Texans to begin the new year with safe vehicles and to keep them safe throughout the year. He added that vehicles involved in traffic accidents should be re-inspected after repairs have been made.

"Some 5,000 official inspection stations over the state are waiting to inspect the four million vehicles which will have to be inspected by April 15," the DPS director said. "There can be no extension of time, and after the deadline date of April 15, vehicles which come under the provisions of the Inspection Act which do not display the 1964 inspection sticker will be operating in violation of the law."

Chest Drive Nears Half $3000 Quota

NO ACCURATE CHECK was available late yesterday on the Matador Community Chest fund drive, but drive chairman Freddie Welling estimated that perhaps half of the $3000 quota had been collected.

The drive was originally scheduled to close Monday night but will probably be extended until all committees of the Lions have reported on assignments of prospects.

At the Lions regular meeting Tuesday the report of committee captains present showed a total of about $1400 but many groups had not made any report. Matador Lions are the sponsors of the Community Chest.

Lion Welling holds little hope that the goal will be achieved despite the work of the entire Lions membership.

The Community Chest supports the Boy Scouts, Teen Center, Red Cross, Salvation Army and local emergency cases. In the past the local fund has required as much as $1000 per year to service local critical needs.

The Community Chest screens every request for funds of any nature and must be approved by a committee before any payment is made. It is operated entirely by local men who serve without pay.

The Matador Community Chest represents the area covered by the Matador Independent School District.

FAR FROM HER NATIVE ROARING SPRINGS

She Built the Air Force a Village

EDITOR'S NOTE: This feature from the Los Angeles Examiner (Nov. 20 issue) is about a native of Motley County. She is Marian Mitchell Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mitchell of Roaring Springs. She was born and reared in Roaring Springs where she graduated from high school with the Class of '43. She attended C. I. A., Denton and completed a course in architecture at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, in 1946. She was married to Louis F. Jones of San Angelo in 1947. Capt. and Mrs. Jones have two children, Jonie B and John G. They expect to return to the United States in May.

Under Mrs. Jones' guidance, Incirlik is rapidly turning from a quonset hut village of tin buildings to a modern steel and concrete city. This was the debarcation point for U.S. troops during the Lebanon crisis and Powers' U2 flight over Russia. This is just par, though, for Mrs. Jones. She was assistant city planning engineer for Fresno, civil engineer for Las Vegas, and has been a practicing architect.

Her husband and two children take it in stride. Capt. Louis F. Jones, TAC fighter pilot, works here in Combat Operations Center. The buildings and airstrips come under his wife's planning.

Also, the Air Force school and children's recreation center come off her desk.

She finds time, too, to learn Turkish, study the country's customs, religion and attend many local functions in nearby Adana. This picturesque city is the fourth largest in Turkey and the agricultural center. An Adana social function isn't a success unless "Mitch" attends.

Mrs. Jones is a startling contrast to most of the Turkish women. They stay at home letting servants, husbands and sons meet the outside world.

But to the emancipated Turkish woman, Mrs. Jones is just doing what any modern housewife and mother should be doing. She's raising a family.

"Many American women are afraid of mixing with the local people," said Mrs. Jones. "They miss so much during their stay here. Nearby is where St. Paul was born, Alexander the Great marched east and Cleopatra and Antony first met."

Mrs. Jones' feminine revolution is far reaching and may take as much planning as her engineering projects. But it doesn't bother her.

"Enshallaha (if God is willing)," she says.

Enshallaha (if God is willing), she says.

QUICK AND APPETIZING frozen foods are being selected by Mrs. Robert Darsey at Billy's Grocery Tuesday morning. Mrs. Darsey is standing at one of the four unit doors of the new frozen foods display case just installed by the food market. She said it was much easier to make selections from the large assortment of frozen foods when they are displayed in the brightly-lighted and perfectly refrigerated case.

Program on Flower Arrangements Given for Predicta Study Club

An outstanding program on flower arrangements, presented by Mrs. Forrest Campbell of Matador was enjoyed by Predicta Study Club of Roaring Springs at the regular January meeting in the home of Miss Freda Keahey.

Flower arrangement as an art was not practiced until the early 1930's, the club learned.

In colonial times, women had very little to use except the dried foliage and berries they found around their cabins," Mrs. Campbell recounted. "They used principally, the wooden bowls in their kitchens for containers. Later, in the Civil War period they had acquired beautiful glass and gilt vases and mirrors which they used with the heavy brocades and satins. There still was no arranging done."

Mrs. Campbell showed four lovely arrangements representative of Colonial, Victorian and Modern periods, and of Japan. To the Japanese, the arrangement of flowers is really an art. Mrs. Campbell asserted and pointed out that it is beginning to be used in this country because of its simplicity and beautiful colors.

A business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. M. S. Thacker, who announced that the club will sponsor the annual pancake supper for the March of Dimes, on January 27th at 6 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Stephens Home is Scene of Shower

The recent bride's chosen colors of red and white were featured in floral decorations throughout the house.

The refreshment table was laid with a red cloth, covered with red net. White milk glass punch service and other appointments complemented the table decor. A mirror, encircled with sprays of red and white carnations, reflecting a bridal couple was flanked by red candles for the centerpiece.

Presiding at the punch service were the hostesses who served alternately. Wedding cookies, red and white mints and nuts were served with frosted punch. Mrs. A. L. Whitefield presided at the guest register.

MRS. FORREST CAMPBELL

All proceeds will be given to the MOD fund.

It was also announced that the next regular meeting scheduled Feb. 18, will be "Gentlemen's Night," with Dr. J. S. Stanley of Matador as guest speaker.

Guests attended from Roaring Springs and Matador.

Frank Pohl spent a few days last week in West Texas Hospital, Lubbock for treatment of complications resulting from a sprained ankle received several weeks ago.

Woman's Duties Is Subject of Recent Program

Eternas Study Club met in regular session January 16 in the home of Mrs. Lewis Bostick, with Mrs. Sut Braselton as co-hostess.

A program on "Woman's Duties" was presented, with Mrs. Dean McAnally speaking on the woman's duties as a citizen. She stressed the importance of being a good citizen and the duty to vote.

Mrs. Kirby Campbell gave the club an interesting talk on the importance of the homemaker. She emphasized the role of the mother as being the "backbone" of the home. "Bringing up children and providing for a family is the most rewarding job for any mother," she said.

"The duties of a Clubwoman" given by Mrs. Frank Price called attention to the advantages of belonging to a federated club, and stressed being interested in the aim of the club, being active as a citizen in community affairs, in the church and in home life.

The club voted to sponsor the annual Mother-Daughter banquet, and the date has been set for February 10. Anyone wishing to assist is requested to contact Mrs. Bill Palmeyer or Mrs. Dean McAnally.

Present at the meeting, in addition to the above mentioned, were Mesdames Dean Chaney, Roy Grundy, Ralph Jones, Pete Knight, Bob Thompson, Billy Wason, Doyle Rose and Hal Courtney.

He Discovered It (and so can you)

Yes, he discovered this important fact: all Auto Insurance is not the same. It isn't the same because agents aren't the same. The professional, independent agent (that's you) provides the newest, broadest coverages. Fast, considerate claim service. Best possible rates. This fellow says it makes a big difference. And he's right. Maybe that's why he's a happy driver.

COUNTY AGENT PALLMEYER SAYS:

Copies of the 1964 Farmer's Tax Guide are available at my office. Copies have been mailed to those who have requested this information relative to Income and Self-Employment Taxes. In addition to planning for 1964, information relative to preparing 1963 taxes is included.

Discussed are investment credit, depreciation, soil conservation expenses and a list of important dates for the farmer to remember.

Four-H club members literally practice what they preach. As a matter of fact, they practice and practice until they are good enough to compete in county and state-wide public speaking contests.

Coached and encouraged by local volunteer 4-H leaders, boys and girls from 9 years of age on up through their teens are developing into fine speakers.

Among platform tips offered by the youthful speaker trainees are: If you are nervous, breathe deeply several times just before you are introduced; relax limb-by-limb. Smile, and look alive. Stand quietly erect; gesture naturally or not at all. Talk to your audience as you would to one individual. Be specific, honest, friendly. Be sure you understand your subject thoroughly. Show quickly how your topic concerns your audience. Never talk about stopping STOP.

Naturally 4-H members like to talk about club work and how it affects their lives, home and community. Other popular topics are citizenship, safety and conservation. When all is said (and done) they are scored on delivery, subject and overall 4-H activities. Awards are given at three levels: county, state and national.

A long time backer of the 4-H and sponsor of the public speaking program is the Pure Oil Company. Awards consist of gold-filled medals, 19-jewel wrist watches, sets of silverware, and two college scholarships of $500 each plus expense paid trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago for the best pair of 4-H speakers in the nation.

Anyone desiring to get started in a 1964 speaking project should contact me by Feb. 1st.

The following work was done in Matador County by County Agent Bill Pallmeyer in 1963:

663 visits to farms, homes and businesses were made during the 253 days worked, and 20 adult result demonstrations were carried out. Pallmeyer drove 13,076 miles during the year, and was out of the county part of 54 days on official business, which included taking 4-H teams to contests, judging livestock shows and securing information at meetings to assist the people in the county.

Programs for the county are developed through local people who serve on the Matley County Planning Commission, the 4-H field crops and livestock subcommittees. Those who are not currently helping plan and carry out the county program are invited to offer their suggestions at any time, for the program is designed to serve the people of the county, not by telling them what to do, but by giving information that will assist them in reaching a decision of their choice.

Almost 35 million boys and adult volunteers have been registered in the Scouting program during the past fifty-four years.

Ford Wins Motor Trend's "Car of the Year" Award

January 8: Motor Trend magazine's "Car of the Year" Award goes to an engineering breakthrough! It honors all the '64s from Ford "For engineering advancement in the concept of Total Performance, proven in open competition."

Here's what the Motor Trend Award means to you...

The editors of Motor Trend, America's largest general automotive magazine, watched Ford's total performance in open competition... saw competition-modified Fords win every 300-mile stock car race in the last year, saw Ford-built engines end an era at Indianapolis and sweep the sports car circuits.

Then they drove the 1964 Fords, Falcons, Fairlanes and Thunderbirds and discovered how the lessons of open competition have helped breed into them a new kind of total performance for the open road, for your kind of driving. And then they made their award!

The "Car of the Year" Award is an impressive testimonial, but see for yourself—take the wheel of a '64 from Ford. These cars speak for themselves with their ease of handling in a supermarket parking lot or their greater stability on a rain-slick blacktop.

Before you buy any new car this year, test-drive total performance in a Solid, Silent Super Torque Ford, now hundreds of pounds more car than anything in its field. Try America's only total performance compact, the Falcon V-8, totally new, totally changed. Or, any of the '64 Cars of the Year from Ford!

TRY TOTAL PERFORMANCE FOR A CHANGE!

Basketball Teams In District Play

by Gary Campbell

In last week's basketball action the Matador boys remained in a first place tie for the district crown with a 66-43 victory over Estelline and a 63-48 triumph over Lakeview.

The MHS girls appeared improved in their two outings but were downed by Estelline 33-26 and Lakeview 36-30, in heart-breaking losses.

In Tuesday's game with Estelline, the boys got off to a fast start and continued to manacle the Bear Cubs throughout the game. Jack McCallie triggered the "Big Red" attack with 21 points, followed closely by Tim Green with 18, Charles Ezzell with 11, Richard Campbell with 6, Tommie Green with 4, and David Rattan, Luis Moore, and Larry Bynum with 2 each. The Matadors clipped off a 37 per cent from the field while holding the Cubs to a 30 per cent. In rebounds, Matador led 44-26.

Girls Make Gallant Effort
In the girls' game, MHS made a gallant effort but were finally toppled by the Estelline "fems" 33-26. Matador, however, stayed close the entire ball game and led at various stages, their last coming in the third quarter.

Karol King was high point for the Matadors with 11 points. Sharlene Berryman, Shelley Stevens and Ruthie Lynn rounded out the scoring with 6, 8, and 1 point respectively. Sue Stevens, Joyce Scaff, Olivia Campbell, Janna Crenshaw, Joanie Barton, and Francis Martin also sparkled for the Matadors.

In Friday's contest with Lakeview, the Matadors knocked the Eagles teetering with a 63-48 victory. The "Big Red" once again piled up a large lead and let the second team finish.

Tim Green Leads Scoring
Tim Green led the Matador scorers with 18 points. Rounding out the scoring was Charles Ezzell 14, Jack McCallie 12, David Rattan and Kenneth Pitts 4 each, Tommie Green 3 and Richard Campbell, Larry Bynum, Dick Moss, and Ronnie Cox 2 each. Luis Moore and Roger Vinson also played fine ball games. MHS shot 39 per cent from the field while Lakeview managed only 30 per cent. In rebounds, Matador doubled the Eagles 34-17.

In the girls tilt, Matador lost a squeaker to the Eaglettes 36-30. It was another heartbreaking loss for the Matadors. Time after time they rallied in a vain attempt to down the veteran Lakeview team before finally succumbing in the closing minutes.

Karol King pounded the baskets for 16 points to lead the scoring attack. Sharlene Berryman netted 10 points and Shelley Stevens 4 points to round it out. The lone seniors, Joyce Scaff and Sue Stevens played great games on defense, as did freshmen Francis Martin and Olivia Campbell.

Campus Collections

Gary Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Campbell, has become a big press member. Gary, a junior, not only has devoted his time to the school paper but also to the Amarillo and Lubbock papers. After each basketball game Gary has the job of calling in Matador scores.

Basketball group pictures were the cause of much excitement last week. Grade School and High School pictures were made Thursday, January 16.

Many "ous" and "uss" were echoed throughout study hall last week as the Seniors admired each others baby pictures. Each Senior had to turn in a baby picture to Editor Joyce Scaff for the annual.

A new face in the Sophomore class is Claudia Sommer, known to the students as "Kitten." She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Johnson of Roaring Springs. Kitten likes sports and her favorite subject is history.

Johnny Thomas is Elected FHA Beau

by Karen Elliott

With three raps of her gavel President Scottie Robbins called the F.H.A. meeting to order.

After the opening ceremony, Sandra Sandefer, chapter secretary, read the minutes and called the roll. Scottie then announced that the F. H. A. Beau is Johnny Thomas. Since the girls voted by secret ballot, the beau was unknown to them until the announcement.

The program, presented by program chairman, Lynda Elliott, was as follows: "Positive Attitude Pays," by Joanie Barton; "A Salesman's Prayer," given by Pat Day; "Which Boat Are You In," presented by Marianne Martin; "Do Your Job," read by Sharon Martin; "The Reasons We Hate," by Sandra Sandefer; "Formula For a Satisfying Life," given by Wanda Lipham; "Your Mind Can Keep You Well," presented by Carolyn Perkins; "Six Mistakes of Life," by Janna Crenshaw; "Philosophy of Life," by Janie Killingsworth; and "America on Its Knees," presented by Karen Elliott, concluded the program.

Humble to Build New Gas Line

HOUSTON — A contract has been awarded by Humble Oil & Refining Company for construction of a new 290-mile, 36- and 30-inch natural gas pipeline from Humble's King Ranch Gas Plant in South Texas to Baytown near Houston, it was announced today.

Receiving the contract was Panama, Inc. of Houston.

Construction will begin soon, with completion of the pipeline scheduled for the latter part of 1964. Total cost of the line will be about $43 million.

Capacity of the line will be approximately 615 million cubic feet per day. By adding compressors, capacity may approach 1.2 billion cubic feet per day. With the addition of this new line, the design capacity of Humble's Gulf Coast Industrial Gas System, with compressors, could be increased to approximately 2 billion cubic feet per day.

For approximately three-quarters of its length the new pipeline will parallel Humble's existing 30-inch line which was placed on stream in 1959 to transport natural gas from South Texas to Baytown and on to the Beaumont - Port Arthur area.

Near Pledger, however, the new line veers northward. At a point northwest of Houston, the pipeline will decrease in diameter to 30 inches and extend on to Baytown where it will rejoin Humble's existing 30-inch line.

The intrastate project is one of the largest of its type in Texas in recent years.

Gas supplies for the new line — along with Humble's existing 30-inch line — are produced from some 35 Southwest Texas fields.

The basic purpose of the project is to meet increasing natural gas requirements by customers of Humble's Gulf Coast Industrial Gas System. Dual lines from South Texas also will permit greater operational flexibility and place Humble in a better position to serve its customers.

When placed on stream, the line will have laterals for delivery of gas to industrial customers in Harris and Fort Bend counties. Additional gas also will be made available to customers in Orange and Jefferson counties.

The 290 miles of pipe will be protected by a recently perfected external coating. Although only one-tenth as thick as conventional coatings, the new material offers superior mechanical properties and corrosion resistance even under severe field conditions. Produced from petrochemicals, the coating resin is known as "Buton" and is marketed nation-wide by the Enjay Chemical Company, a Humble Company division. Earlier this year, a contract for applying the coating to the line was awarded to the Mission Protective Coating Company, a subsidiary of Mission Manufacturing Company of Houston.

Some 36,000 lengths of pipe for the line will be coated in Houston and hauled to the field for placement. A single railroad car can transport only 11 lengths of the 36-inch pipe and approximately 3,300 cars will be required to deliver all of the 36- and 30-inch pipe to location.

The line will be buried three to four feet — depending on its location — and will be installed along the route at the rate of about one mile per day. Construction will be divided into three sections.

The South Plains Council maintains two long term camps, Camp Tres Ritos in New Mexico and Camp Post and also maintains a short term camp, Camp Haynes.

COUNTY AGENT SAYS:

A test for total salts and chemical composition can help you use irrigation water to best advantage. All irrigation waters contain salts and they are applied each time water is applied. If these salts are allowed to accumulate, production will be affected.

Two criteria are used to determine water quality. One is the total salt content, and the other is the types of salts present. Calcium and magnesium are more desirable than sodium salts. Total salt may be low, but if the salts are mostly sodium salts, the water would be poor in quality.

Tests are available through Texas A & M University to determine water quality for irrigation. Ask for blank D-617, which should accompany a water sample. Let well run for 2 or 3 hours before collecting sample (1 quart), and place in a clean bottle. (A well rinsed plastic bottle is preferred.) Cost is $5.00 per sample, and results will be mailed the sender.
