Motley County FFA Members Attend State FFA Convention

MOTLEY COUNTY FFA MEMBERS attending State FFA Convention, held in El Paso in July, were (l-r) Bradley Jameson, Kristi Timmons, Jeromy Jameson, Chancy Cruse, Jason Stanley, Clay Ewing, Lacey Parks, Brad Wilson and Daniel Alexander.

RECEIVE TEXAS LONE STAR DEGREE: Motley County FFA Members, Jason Stanley and Chancy Cruse, received the Texas Lone Star Degree at the State FFA Convention held in El Paso in July.

Nine members of the Motley County FFA Chapter recently attended the 63rd Annual Texas FFA Convention held in El Paso. Chapter Advisor Jim Coop and his wife, Judy, accompanied the group of young people to the convention which was held on July 9-12. Members attending the convention were Daniel Alexander, Clay Ewing, Brad Wilson, Jeromy Jameson, Bradley Jameson, Jason Stanley, Chancy Cruse, Kristi Timmons and Lacey Parks.

While at the convention, members voted on several issues concerning the Texas FFA Association, elected a State Sweetheart, chose a state winning talent team, and elected for the first time a female State President to head the organization for the next year.

Two chapter members received the Texas Lone Star Degree, which is the highest degree awarded on the state level. Chancy Cruse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Cruse of Flomot, and Jason Stanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stanley of Matador, received the awards. The Lone Star Degree is awarded to FFA members who conduct a superior supervised project program, achieve proficiency in Leadership and Judging skills, and are actively involved in FFA activities.

While in El Paso the group saw many interesting things and were introduced to a culture that is very different from that of Motley County. The group toured the El Paso saddleblanket company and experienced the sights, sounds and smells of very south El Paso. They also went to Juarez where they ate some very hot peppers at Chichaha Charlies Restaurant and went through the old market square.

The trip was a good one, full of interesting activities and people, but everyone was glad when the Airplane touched down in Lubbock on July 12th.

Stolen Meador Plaque In Pioneer Park Is Replaced

The plaque in Pioneer Memorial Park which honored the late Douglas Meador, and which was stolen from its stand sometime last fall, has been replaced with a new one, and plans are underway for a dedication program, according to Mrs. Meador.

Dr. Weston Petty of Lubbock, long-time friend of Meador, had the new plaque made as a tribute to the former editor of the Matador Tribune and to his parents and other pioneers of the county. Meador had designated the small park as a memorial to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Meador and all other pioneers of Motley County.

The dedication program is set for 11 a.m. Saturday, August 24, at the park, which is located just south of the jail.

Roaring Springs City Council Report

The Roaring Springs City Council met Tuesday, August 6 at 6:30 p.m. for regular session with all members present and Frances Walters, City Manager.

Glenn Martin of Spur explained he was in business to haul solid waste. He hauls rural solid waste in Dickens County and digs the pits for Spur and Dickens landfills.

Martin explained Dickens and Spur had received letters from the Texas Health Department that stated, very possibly by January, 1992, all landfills not meeting requirements and have permits would be closed.

Martin wanted the City to know he was in hopes to transfer solid waste from Spur to Plainview, if Plainview is the regional permitted landfill. He would also like for Roaring Springs to consider his services.

The minutes were read and approved. Walters reported the propane tanks and piping were being corrected in the City Hall and Cafe building after the Railroad Commission inspection.

J.N. Fletcher was present to explain that he had requests from some citizens to keep a J.P. in Precinct 4. He will get the proposal on the September agenda of Commissioners Court. He asked interested parties to attend. He stated he wants to go with the general consensus of the people of the Precinct.

Put Breakfast On Your Checklist For School

HOUSTON - School is just around the corner, and parents are beginning to shop for supplies. But a nutritionist at the Children's Nutrition Research Center in Houston says one obvious entry on the annual checklist is often overlooked - breakfast.

"It is the most important meal of the day, especially for children," said Janice Stuff, a research instructor at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. "Breakfast supplies 1/4 to 1/2 of the recommended daily allowance of vitamins and minerals. If you skip breakfast, it is hard to catch up during the day."

Mastering the three Rs requires a lot of energy. Without breakfast, children are usually hungry by midmorning. A hungry child is too cranky and too tired to concentrate on schoolwork, Stuff said.

"Breakfast gives a child an energy boost improving his or her behavior, attitude and physical and mental performance."

Healthy breakfasts draw on several of the basic food groups. Parents can fortify their mini-scholars by serving a dairy product, a protein, a bread or cereal and a fruit.

However, it is okay to vary the menu and offer foods that do not fit the traditional breakfast ideal.

Stuff suggests the following alternatives:

- * peanut butter and jelly sandwich
- * yogurt and toast with jelly
- * fresh fruit and cottage cheese
- * cheese and crackers
- * soup
- * popcorn
- * breakfast taco

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Armstrong

Barbara Bird Jameson and William (Bill) T. Armstrong exchanged vows Sunday, July 14 at 12:30 p.m. in the Assembly of God Church of Roaring Springs with Rev. Ernie Brown, pastor, officiating.

Escorted by her son, Jason K. Jameson, the bride wore a tea length light blue chambray dress with a large collar, decorated with white cording and with silver nail head brads. The self belt was also decorated to match the collar. The bouquet was two Gardenias formed on off-white cording and satin ribbon tied to a Bible given to Barbara in 1951 by Mrs. W.Y. Higgins.

Something old was the bible, something new was her dress and something blue was a garter made by her great aunt, Jewel Hall, and given to her by her Aunt, Frances Ellis, for her wedding and now given to Barbara to wear.

The bride and groom were attended at the altar by their sons, Jason with Barbara and Michael Miner with his dad. They wore pale violet dress shirts and stone washed denim pants. The Groom wore a white dress shirt and blue denim pants with a silver and black bolo tie. Musical selections were played on the piano by Devonne Dillard. Cari and Dannie Gwinn of Afton sang "Together As One."

A pot luck dinner followed in the Fellowship Hall, as a reception.

The cake was a two tier Italian Cream Cake, made and decorated by Joely Ewing. The top tier was an open book inscribed with "What God Hath Joined Together..." and "Bill and Barbara".

After dinner the Bride opened gifts presented by ladies from the church and close friends.

The Bride is the owner of the Motley County Tribune and the Groom has Armstrong's Repair and Wrecker Service in Matador where they will make their home.

The couple traveled to Bill's family home in upstate New York for their honeymoon.

Thank You

How can I ever say thank you in the proper way for all the kindnesses shown to me during my Wheel of Fortune adventure. Your phone calls, concerns, words of encouragement and help will always mean so much to me.

Never again will I be as surprised as I was when I walked into JoAnn's Beauty Shop to have my hair done and so many of you were there for the party. I never suspected a thing. The cards, gifts, food, balloons and the beautiful Wheel of Fortune cake were great. I wore the corsage on the plane, took all the good luck items to the studio and wore the charm on the show.

Most of all I want to thank my family for putting up with me and all my worrying, short temper and nervousness during these last few weeks. I would not have been able to do this if you had not been so understanding and patient.

Again I say thank you for all your love and best wishes.

TALKING TO CHILDREN ABOUT REPEATING A GRADE

Many children, especially boys, have a difficult time in the early grades, not because they have a low IQ or are in some way deficient, but because they are simply not developmentally ready for the grade in which they are placed. Children with late birthdays are particularly prone to being unready for kindergarten or first grade because of immature social, emotional, and physical behavior.

The early years of school are critical times for young children. Children who do not compete successfully in school are likely to develop problems in living and in coping with the environment. Therefore, retaining an immature child in a grade level for a second year is often a wise move.

Retention is typically positive for immature children because they like school better and are more confident and successful. The children may feel that the "weight of the world" has been lifted from their shoulders. And in the long run, their self-esteem will be enhanced, not hurt.

Grade retention, however, is not for everybody. Retention seldom has a positive effect on school achievement for children with serious academic difficulties. But for developmentally immature children, you may do them a favor by retaining them if they are not ready - socially, emotionally, or physically - for the next grade.

The decision to retain a child is not made easily. Parents should consult with the child's teacher and possibly with a psychologist or counselor. If repeating a grade is decided upon, the earlier it is done, the better.

How the child responds to grade retention depends to a large extent on how parents break the news. Parents should calmly tell the child that they - the parent - made a big mistake. They started the child in school before the child was ready. Saying something like, "No wonder you don't like school and get tired and find it hard to finish your work. Isn't it lucky we discovered that you started school too soon, because now you can stay another year. You'll probably be one of the oldest, happiest - and possibly smartest - pupils in your class."

Once the child is convinced that repeating the grade is a good thing, that the fault (if any) lies with the parent, and that nobody is disappointed or made at the child, then the biggest part of the battle is won. In most cases, the child continues in school with feelings of success and accomplishment rather than a continuing sense of failure.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are for people of all ages regardless of socio-economic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap, or national origin.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

If we defend our habits, we have no intention of quitting them.

Amy's Anecdotes

by Amy Woolsey

People smile because they are happy or just as a friendly hello. Everyone smiles, even if they think they are in a bad mood, someone makes them smile. I've always heard that saying "Smile-it'll increase your face value!" It does. When we see people who aren't smiling, we think, they aren't very happy. So we try to say something to make them smile or we smile at them and then that makes them smile back. Even when things are rough we try to make them smile. You think more of people when they smile. I read this poem in this little book my mom has. It doesn't have a title and the author is unknown, but I liked it! (It made me smile!)

So smile! It makes more than one person happy!

*A smile is cheer to you and me
The cost is nothing - it's given free
It comforts the weary and gladdens the sad
Consoles those in trouble - good or bad
To rich or poor - beggar or thief
It's free to all of any belief
A natural gesture of young and old
Cheers the faint - disarms the bold
Unlike most blessings for which we pray
It's one thing we keep when we give it away!*

He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

Matthew 12:30

Public Notice

On April 9, 1991, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas to request that the optional feature "Call Transfer Disconnect" be available to all PLEXAR I customers by including the feature in Southwestern Bell's PLEXAR I tariff. Currently, this optional feature is available only on a customer requested basis.

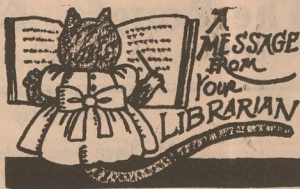

Call Transfer Disconnect (CTD) is an optional feature that allows PLEXAR I customers the ability to transfer a call to another telephone number within or outside their PLEXAR I system, hang up, and permit the two remaining parties to continue with the call. The PLEXAR I user is then free to place or accept another call. CTD is not intended to be used to avoid toll charges. Therefore, CTD will not be available to PLEXAR I customers subscribing to optional Extended Metropolitan Service or Extended Area Calling Service.

If the company's application is approved, the monthly rate for CTD will be $4.00 for each PLEXAR I station line. Prior to the June 19, 1991, interim rate approval, Southwestern Bell was billing customers who receive the service $1.50 for each station line equipped with this feature. In addition, under Southwestern Bell's proposed tariff, every line within the PLEXAR I system must be equipped with this feature. The nonrecurring charge for the additional lines which must be equipped with CTD will be waived for existing CTD customers. The tariffed monthly rate will apply to all existing and future CTD customers.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0256, or (512) 458-0221, teletypewriter for the deaf.

Black Powder Shoot Report

Despite the brief interruption by a rain shower, the shoot was considered a success by those attending. The number of shooters was smaller than we had hoped for, with four men, four women and two juniors, but everyone enjoyed themselves and the afternoon. We also had several interested spectators that came to watch and ask questions.

Local shooters were Fred, Kathy and Joseph Grant; Tommy, Kate and Tommy, Jr. Hurt; Leslie Lester and Wilda Dixon. We also had some friends from Post that shot with us, Fred and Barbara Van De Valde, whose daughter, Bessie, kept score. Also attending were Amanda Hurt and Michael Grant. The winners were 1st place man - Fred Van De Valde; 2nd place man - Fred Grant; 1st place woman - Kathy Grant; 2nd place woman - Barbara Van De Valde; 1st place junior - Joseph Grant; and 2nd place junior - Tommy Hurt, Jr.

Plans are currently being made to shoot again on September 8 and September 29. Watch for further details nearer those dates since we still hope to form a club to sponsor these events.

Brazos Electric To Refund $2.9 Million To Customers

Customers of Brazos Electric Cooperative in August will receive a $2,994,535 refund for fuel overcollections. The refund is due to the availability of economical power that Brazos Electric purchased during the first five months of the year combined with lower than expected gas costs at the cooperative's generating plants.

Based on projected sales in August, this refund will mean a savings of $5.50 per 1,000 kWh of usage at the wholesale level. It will have different effects on the retail consumers of Brazos Electric's 27 wholesale customers over the next few months. The refund will be passed through to end consumers of Brazos Electric's member cooperatives as an adjustment to the power cost recovery factor. This is the second fuel refund the Waco-based generation and transmission electric cooperative has provided customers this year.

"We continue to find ways to save our member cooperatives money," said Richard E. McCaskill, executive vice president and general manager of the cooperative. "That is the very purpose and nature of an electric cooperative."

In 1989, the cooperative's gas costs were the third lowest of any generating utility in the state, and in 1990, they were the second lowest according to a Public Utility Commission report. In February 1990, Brazos Electric also implemented a permanent reduction in its base rates that brought the average cost of its wholesale power back to the level it was in the mid-1970s.

Brazos Electric Cooperative is a member-owned generation and transmission electric cooperative based in Waco. It provides wholesale electric power to 20 member cooperatives, six municipal electric systems and Texas A&M University. The electric cooperatives include Bartlett, B-K, Belfalls, Comanche County, Cooke County, Denton County, Dickens, Erath County, Fort Belknap, Gate City, Hamilton County, Hill County, J-A-C, Johnson County, McLennan County, Mid-South, Navarro County, Navasota Valley, Tri-County, and Wise. Municipal systems served by Brazos Electric Cooperative are: Granbury, Hearne, Sanger, Seymour, Weatherford, and Whitesboro. These systems serve 245,000 consumers in a 66-county area of Central and North Texas.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Those of us who attended the ceremony in Roaring Springs in remembrance and honor of Lt. Frank Mitchell, were disappointed in the fact that none of the Roaring Springs Veterans, who were asked to attend, were mentioned in the news story. These veterans represented World War II, Korea, Vietnam, Honduras, Panama and the Virgin Islands. These veterans should have been recognized and honored for their contribution to their country and received recognition. There were two veterans who could still wear their uniforms and came dressed in them. All these veterans were glad to show their respect and honor for Lt. Frank Mitchell by their attendance.

COTTON NEWS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

Figuring out what farmers are required to do under the Fair Labor Standards Act can sometimes be confusing for everyone, according to Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. (PCG).

"We have received several calls from producers since the new minimum wage became effective on April 1," explains PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson. "Many area producers are concerned about whether or not they must pay the $4.25 per hour rate."

The unit used to calculate whether or not the federal minimum wage must be paid to agricultural laborers is the "man-day". One "man-day" is defined as any day in which an employee performs agricultural related labor for at least one hour.

The maximum number of "Man-days" a farmer can accumulate during each calendar quarter of a year is 500. Farmers with fewer than 500 "man-days" in each quarter are exempt from the federal minimum wage requirement.

In 1991 a producer that used more than 500 "man-days" of agricultural labor during each calendar quarter of 1990 must pay the federal minimum wage of $4.25. If fewer than 500 "man-days" were used during each calendar quarter in 1990 the farmer is exempt from paying the federal minimum wage.

"Man-days" worked by members of a farmers immediate family are exempt from the 500 "man-days" limit.

For 1992 a producer who uses less than the 500 "man-day" limit during any calendar quarter of 1991 will be exempt from the federal minimum wage requirement in 1992. In Texas, however, producers are still required to pay employees at least $3.35 per hour under the Texas Minimum Wage Act of 1970.

Determining the number of "man-days" used in one calendar quarter is relatively easy. A simple example is a farmer who hires three people to work for one week. Assuming each person worked for at least one hour a day for five days the farmer would accumulate a total of 15 "man-days" during the five-day recording period.

Members of a farmers immediate family are also exempt under the federal requirements, even though they may be required to pay the federal minimum wage to other workers.

The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station (TAES), Texas Agricultural Extension Service (TAEX) and Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. (PCG) are looking for a few volunteers to help boost the number of puncture vine weevils found on the High Plains.

The weevils, which feed and reproduce only on puncturevine, were first introduced to the High Plains in the mid-sixties to help control this weed, more commonly known as "goat-head". Initial releases survived in much of the area. The surviving weevils eventually helped to curb the spread of the weed.

It is suspected that the weevils caused their own population reduction. After successfully reducing the amount of puncturevine found on the High Plains by the mid-seventies the weevils may have found a lack of host plants. Weevil numbers dropped but unfortunately over the last several years puncturevine has again become a significant pest and the weevil population has been unable to keep pace with the expansion.

The goal of TAES, TAEX and PCG is to give the surviving population a leg-up on its natural expansion by recruiting a number of farmers and ranchers around the area to purchase weevils and release them on their property in the next several weeks. The resulting natural control should eventually help reduce the puncturevine population.

"The idea behind finding a few farmers and ranchers in the High Plains area to help boost populations of these very beneficial weevils is really a monetary one," explains Roger Haldenby, PCG Boll Weevil Control Program Coordinator who is working closely with Dr. Don Rummel, Research Scientist TAES. "By enlisting the aid of area producers we should be able to give the population of the puncturevine weevil a significant boost and hopefully reestablish this effective control of the puncturevine."

Interested parties should contact either Roger Haldenby (806) 792-4904 or Dr. Don Rummel (806) 746-6101 by August 12. Further releases are planned for the spring of 1992.

BIG BASS TOURNAMENTS COME TO WHITE RIVER

Starting Saturday morning, August 10, 1991, one of the most popular types of bass tournaments will offer fishermen at White River a chance to win $2,500.00. This Big Bass Tournament will begin at 6:00 a.m. and last until 1:00 p.m. Biggest bass each hour will earn $100. The biggest bass of the day will take home $2,500.00. 2nd and 3rd place are worth $600.00 and $300.00 respectively.

The entry fee is $50.00. All paybacks are based on 100 entries. More entries mean more payback and fewer will reduce the payback.

As tournament director, I will be at the marina accepting entries fees Friday night 8:00 until 11:00 p.m. and again Saturday morning starting at 5:00 a.m.

The best part of a BIG BASS tournament is that every angler is in the game until the last cast. In fact, several of the Lake Baylor Big Bass tournaments have been won in the last 15 minutes of the day. Put on some new line, gather up those secret lures, and meet us at White River Marina. For information call 806-353-3654.

Congratulations to SANDY CARROLL of PAMPA for winning the most recent Fun Tournament at Lake Meredith. Sandy is the only repeat winner of 1991 Fun Tournaments, and HE CAUGHT THE ONLY LEGAL FISH (1.6 lbs.) OF THE TOURNAMENT.

The next Fun Tournament (Thursday, August 15), originally scheduled for Lake Meredith, has been CHANGED TO LAKE GREENBELT at Clarendon. We will meet at the Sandy Beach area with registration starting at 4:00 p.m. This is a 'best-three-bass' Fun Tournament with fishing from 6:00 til 9:00 p.m. The fishing at Meredith does not warrant two tournaments per month.

The fishermen are still waiting on the Texas Parks and Wildlife people to show up and use a fishing rod instead of a "study" to demonstrate how to fish Lake Meredith. The September 5th Fun Tournament is their next opportunity.

PLAYA PETE says: "IF LAKE MEREDITH were located near Austin, the fishing conditions would have been improved years ago. Why is the fishing in the lakes formed by the Canadian River in both New Mexico and Oklahoma better than the fishing in Texas?"

TIP OF THE WEEK -- Berkeley Power Baits catch more fish. Some days any bait will catch fish, but the experts at Berkeley have developed soft plastic lures with a special formula designed to catch more fish on those really tough days. They are not cheap, but local experts are quietly using these new baits (grubs, worms, and craws) and catching more fish.

New Director Appointment For Rolling Plains PCA

Jack Reese of Abilene has been selected by the Board of Directors of Rolling Plains Production Credit Association to serve as the Director-elected Director. This new position was mandated by the Agricultural Credit Act of 1987 whereby each Production Credit Association is required to have a Director elected by the other Board members.

Mr. Reese, 61, is employed in Sweetwater as a field representative with Southern Cotton Oil Company, a division of Archer-Daniels-Midland. For 33 years he was an employee of the Paymaster Oil Mill, a division of Anderson-Clayton, and was district manager for 13 years prior to his 1984 resignation.

A 1952 McMurry graduate with a BS in business, Mr. Reese is a past president of Texas Cottonseed Crushers Association and still serves as Director of this organization. He also serves on the Board of Directors of CECO, an electronics communications engineering company located in Dallas.

Married to the former Margie Campsey of Munday, the Reeses have three married daughters who are Baylor graduates and live in Dallas. An Air Force veteran, Mr. Reese was born and raised in Abilene and has a stock farming operation east of Abilene.

Rolling Plains PCA is an entity of the Farm Credit System and serves some 750 farmers, ranchers and ag businesses in the Rolling Plains of West Texas. The Association was chartered in 1934 and presently serves 18 counties from six branch offices and a central office. With total capital funds of 14.5 million and total assets of 50 million, the Association has been awarded a Tier I rating by the Texas District Regulator. Tier I rating is the highest granted to PCAs and is partially based on the capital strength and asset quality of the organization.

Social Security Tips

TRUSTEES SEE SOUND SOCIAL SECURITY PROGRAM

The Social Security program, which currently pays old age, survivors, and disability benefits to more than 40 million Americans, remains financially solvent and able to pay benefits for many years into the 21st Century, the Social Security Board of Trustees reported today.

But in another report, the trustees said the Medicare Hospital Insurance Trust Fund will likely be exhausted shortly after the turn of the century and that "corrective action will be needed very soon in order to avoid the need for potentially precipitous changes later."

"This report underlines the urgency of our task in containing health care costs and spending our health care dollars more effectively," HHS Secretary Louis W. Sullivan, M.D., said in releasing the annual reports.

"In the Social Security trust funds, current projections indicate continued substantial growth over the next several decades, helping to ensure that Social Security can meet its financial commitments in the next century when today's younger workers become eligible for Social Security," Secretary Sullivan said.

"But we are confronting bankruptcy in the primary Medicare trust fund within 14 years unless we take effective action to change the situation."

The Annual Reports of the Social Security Board of Trustees provide actuarial estimates of the financial status of the Social Security and Medicare trust funds based on differing economic and demographic assumptions.

Under the intermediate or more likely assumptions, income to the Old Age and Survivors insurance (OASI) and Disability insurance (DI) Trust Funds in calendar year 1991 will total about $330 billion, and outgo will total about $273 billion. Estimates over the next 75 years show that the combined OASI and DI funds would continue to grow as a percentage of annual expenditures for the next 25 years and to decline thereafter until the funds are exhausted in 2041.

However, according to the report, Hospital Insurance Trust Fund exhaustion will occur in 2005, based on most likely assumptions. Using more optimistic assumptions, trust fund exhaustion would occur in 2018; using more pessimistic assumptions, the fund would be exhausted in 2001.

The trustees say in their conclusion: "There are currently over four covered workers supporting each Hospital Insurance (HI) enrollee. This ration will begin to decline rapidly early in the next century. By the middle of that century, there will be only about two covered workers supporting each enrollee. Not only are the anticipated reserves and financing of the HI program inadequate to offset this demographic change, but under all but the most optimistic assumptions, the HI trust fund is projected to become exhausted even before the major demographic shift begins to occur. Exhaustion of the fund is projected to occur shortly after the turn of the century under the alternative II assumptions, and could occur as early as 2001 if the pessimistic assumptions are realized."

The report describes the Supplemental Medical Insurance trust fund as "actuarially sound," but expresses concerns about "the rapid growth in the costs of the program. Growth rates have been sorapid that outlays have nearly doubled in the last five years. For the same period, the program grew 37 percent faster than the economy as a whole." The SMI fund pays Medicare Part B costs, including physician and outpatient expenses. It is supported primarily by general federal revenue funds (about 76 percent), in addition to beneficiary premiums (about 24 percent).

During 1991, approximately 133 million workers will be covered by the Social Security program and over 40 million beneficiaries will receive benefits each month.

In examining the longterm solvency of the OASDI program over the next 75 years, the trustees reported that the program is not considered in "close actuarial balance" because of the projected declines in the OASDI trust funds in the later years. However, because the intermediate estimates show that the overall OASDI program will have enough income to pay benefits for about the next 50 years, the trustees are not currently recommending any changes in the overall financing or benefit provisions of the Social Security program. Nevertheless, the trustees state in their report the need to strengthen the financial position of the DI fund over both the short term and the longterm, and further add that the reallocation of the contribution rates between the OASI and DI funds would maintain the financial solvency of both programs for many years into the future.

The Board of Trustees is required by law to report annually to Congress on the current and estimated future of the financial condition of the trust funds. The reports use annually updated economic and demographic assumptions, reflecting the nation's recent experience and available research.

The board has five members, three of whom serve in an ex officio capacity: Nicholas F. Brady, secretary of the treasury; Lynn Martin, secretary of labor; and Louis W. Sullivan, M.D., secretary of health and human services. The other two members, Stanford G. Ross and David M. Walker, are representatives of the public serving four-year terms.

Why Even Go???

Many people have quit going to church services, and others wish they could. These folks are not getting what they need and they don't need what they are getting.

Could the root cause be a lack of respect for biblical authority on the part of some religious leaders? When people lose confidence in the Bible or parts of the Bible, something is lost. That something is usually an interest in worshipping and serving our creator. When we get away from biblical authority, there is nothing else to offer of lasting value. There is nothing to take its place. Therefore the lack of interest in the church and in its activities is the result.

Seemingly, it's not realized that what most people need most is a clear understanding of what God wants them to know and to do. When this is denied them, they have no more reason, no more motivation for attending the services of the church. It is as simple as that. And what is the solution? It is simple too. Attend where the Bible is taught as the Word of God and where the man in the pulpit preaches the Word of God with conviction. Where the message will stand the test of honest biblical investigation.

Attend where the soul will be fed with the milk and meat of the Bible. You will thrive on it. Read carefully these passages: I Peter 2:2, I Peter 4:11 and II Timothy 4:2.
