Burleson Memorial Roping To Be Held This Weekend

Buckle winner of the Washer Pitch at Burleson Memorial Roping is Morris Burkes who will be on hand to defend his title.

The Burleson "Clan" and "faithful friends and neighbors" who donate their time and talent are running full speed to be ready for this year's "Memorial Roping" July 24, 25, 26, Burleson Arena on Farm Rd. 2009 east of Flomot, Texas.

A different aspect at one of the several events, that take place during this last weekend of July at the Memorial Roping, is in the Washer Pitch event. Any team that pitches will now qualify to participate in the WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP WASHER PITCH TOURNAMENT to be held at Amarillo, Texas in October. Previously the Washer Pitch at Burleson Memorial has not been a qualifying tournament.

Washer Pitching is similar to pitching horseshoes and can build up as much excitement as one team, which is comprised of a two member team, continues to eliminate one team after another.

Father and son, man and wife, two females, or two male teams are all in competition together. The two and one half inch washer is pitched into three inch cups that are flush with the ground building to a score of 21 points. This is an event that all ages can participate and have a good time. Belt Buckles go to each member of the winning team and prize money to other competitors.

The other activities scheduled to take place during the weekend are: FRIDAY - Cutting Horse, three divisions - Ranch, Novice, and Open. The entry books open at 10 a.m. and Cutting begins at 11 a.m.

SATURDAY - Youth horse events books open at 8 a.m. and begin at 9 a.m. There are three age divisions and the youth do not have to be members of 4-H to participate. TEAM ROPINGS books open at 10 a.m. and the ropings are scheduled to begin at Noon. The Washer pitching begins at 9 a.m. under the Hay Barn and the Art Show gets underway at the "Old Barn".

SUNDAY - Team Penning begins at 8 a.m.; Introduction of the Pasture Roping Teams will be at Noon and the roping begins at 1 p.m. The drawing will take place at 3 p.m. for the Horse and Filly Colts. There is a gate admission charge of $2 each day or $3 for 3 days. All profits go to the Scholarship Fund of the Ranch and Feedlot course at Clarendon Jr. College.

A total of $3000 will be given away during the three days of events that are scheduled to take place at the BURLESON MEMORIAL ROPING July 24, 25, 26, BURLESON ARENA "HEADQUARTERS" Farm Road 2009 east of Flomot, Texas.

The Western Art Show, coordinator Jo Goen, will again be held in the "Old Barn" at Headquarters beginning at 10 a.m. and go all day Saturday. Penny Golightly, Margaret Calahan, Jack Robertson, and Jo Goen are the local artist participating this year. Other area artist at the "Old Barn" will be June Keltz, Matador, Christeen Gilbert, Flomot, Ruth Barnett, Hale Center, Vicki Diggs, Tahoka, Billie Byrd, Petersburg, and Buster Jones of Lubbock. The art work on display will be available for purchase.

As the name implies, BURLESON MEMORIAL, proceeds benefit the Scholarship fund of the Ranch & Feedlot Operations Course at Clarendon Jr. College, this year's benefit is being dedicated to the memory of Jack C. Lackey, H.B. "Jack" Johnson, John Barnhill, and Eliza Jones. It is with appreciation that we want to remember these people who were supporters of the Memorial Roping.

This 3 day weekend of events, Cutting Horse, Youth Horse Activities, Washer Pitching, Western Art, Team Penning, Pasture Roping and the Drawing for horse and filly colts, could not be possible without the support, donations of time and talent of neighbors and so many friends to make it a success.

The three days of activities begin Friday July 24 and go through Sunday July 26 at Burleson Arena east of Flomot, Texas on Farm Rd. 2009.

Storm Produces 80 MPH Winds Hail And Flooding In Flomot

by Earlyne Jameson

Heavy rainfall accompanied by hail and high winds caused destruction as a storm pushed through the Flomot and Whiteflat communities, Sunday evening, July 12 with over 3.00 inches of rain. Wind gusts up to 80 mph was recorded by Coy Franks, east of Flomot. Mr. Franks had 75 percent crop loss and Doyle Calvert, 60 percent. ## COUNTY COMMISSIONERS HOLD REGULAR MEETING

by Michelle Bearden

Motley County Commissioners Court was in session July 13 with County Judge Bill Whitaker presiding and Commissioners Fraiser Watson, John Russell, Joseph Simpson, and Bill Washington in attendance. County Clerk Lucretia Campbell took minutes.

The Commissioners briefly discussed the Texas Department of Public Highways withdrawal of the contract to repair the bridge east of Matador. Clerk Campbell amended the minutes to correctly read that three commissioners voted to turn the matter of procuring the right-of-way over to the State rather than the county assuming the cost of it; the record showed one commissioner opposed to following this course of action.

Bills were as follows: Precinct 1 - $864.50; Precinct 2 - $735.50; Precinct 3 - $657.00; Precinct 4 - $384.00; General - $3929.50.

The Treasurer's report showed a balance of $225,075.47. The J.P.'s report showed an income of $3746.50.

SCHOOL BOARD TACKLES TOUGH CHALLENGES

by Michelle Bearden

The Motley County School Board met July 15, 1987 with Coy Franks, Donnie Cruse, Bobby Williams, Randy Barton and Guy Campbell present; James Palmer and Roy G. Stephens were absent. Also present were Superintendent Ron Cummings, Principals Don Ewing and Mike Patrick.

Discussion of changes on the contract with Butler and Company was presented by Att. Tom Hamilton. A motion was made to accept the resolution of the Tusha-Euper settlement be made, with the mentioned changes. This vote was carried unanimously. Mr. Hamilton also apprised the Board of the essence of the Open Meeting Act and its explicit implications for the public. He advised following due process of the schools policies to the letter whether it involved personnel or student complaints. Hamilton also gave the Board a brief overview of the Anti-Trust laws, and the narrow use of Executive Session.

A pertinent question brought up by one Board member centered around devising a set policy for handling a student diagnosed with AIDS. Hamilton advised the board to investigate how other school now faced with this issue are handling it and evaluate how successful their actions ultimately are; then establish a policy for Motley County ISD. Hamilton reminded the Board that the School District must, by law, furnish every child an education - if not through the normal curriculum then the Board must determine how it will be furnished.

A motion was made and carried that the vice-president, Guy Campbell, be authorized to purchase property for the ISD, specifically a house for a teacher, to be moved in and the present house demolished due to heavy termite infestation. A motion was made to place a bid on a 1500 sq. ft. house in Dougherty to be moved to Matador, and also to obtain bids to move the house.

A motion was made and passed to honor the original agreement with the city of Matador to pay half of the cost of black-topping the street.

The Board discussed, but did not act on, setting the tax rate for 1987-88. Superintendent Cummings informed the Board that the property value for Motley County dropped $3 million this year. They are waiting on the decision made by the legislature.

The board discussed the progress on the playground. They plan to have equipment installed by the time school is in session. The board is looking into purchasing a 'Fort' to add to the equipment already planned.

The Board and Administration discussed setting school starting time to 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. or 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The Board tabled this issue for the time being and went into executive session to discuss personnel.

ROARING SPRINGS VFD MEET WITH CITY COUNCIL

by Michelle Bearden

The Roaring Springs City Council met July 16 with Mayor Eugene Watson presiding and Councilmen Charlie Long, Gene Brannon and Joe M. Thacker in attendance. Absent were councilmen Roy Hernandez and Jean Adams. City Water Superintendent Regan Holley and City secretary Anna Wilson were also present.

Roaring Springs VFD representatives, Bill Moose and Vince Taylor met with councilmen to see if the city could help with their equipment, projected budget and support of efforts.

Councilman Long asked the VFD to provide the council with information about getting Fire Dept. members certified and also getting complete fireman suits.

Harry Hamilton met with the council to inform then on the background of his water situation. He requested the city water service and agreed to buy new pipe for the line that is approved for municipal use. This was agreeable to the council.

Councilman Thacker instructed city secretary to compile a delinquent tax list.

Regan Holley stated that he would complete a Home Study Course to get certification to work on city wells. The cost of this course is $75 and the council voted to pay this amount.

Councilman Thacker stated that he had been made aware of several complaints about dogs loose in town. The council decided to review the present leash ordinance with the intention of enforcing it.

Mayor Watson suggested that a light be placed at the city park as children are often playing after dark. The council decided to see if another light not being utilized was available and will place it in the park.

Councilman Long reported on the R.S. Flood Plan, which basically asserted that the city would issue a building code restriction of flood prone areas. The Council requested that the city secretary acquire more information on this subject.

Thacker reported that the new water system is on hold for the time being.

The council discussed that property owners with delinquent taxes will be issued a letter first which states that their taxes are delinquent and that if restitution is not made that their case will be submitted to the collection agency.

One bid was received by the council to repair the city house. The council decided to ask the person who submitted said bid to omit part of the work planned until a later date.

The council determined that, for the time being, the nightwatchman will not be replaced.

The council discussed the need for trash barrels to be in good condition for efficient trash removal. The Councilmen decided that the trash hauler would have to approach home owners whose barrels had become decrepit and encourage them to purchase sturdier receptacles.

Bills ten days past due will now require an additional notice sent.

J.D. Palmer has requested that the old railroad track be shredded to control mosquitoes and weeds.. The Council agreed to do so.

"Son Beams"

By June Keltz

Indelibly printed on my mind are the memories of river revivals held under cottonwood trees, of Whiteflat revivals where Baptist, Methodist and Pentecostals all came together in love, of Brother Burnham's tear soaked sermons that told of the horror of hell and the beauty of Heaven, and of hearing Mr. Casey and Mr. Dixon sing as sinners fell on their knees in repentance.

impossible because of the great, fixed chasm. He then requested that Lazarus be sent back from the dead to warn his five brothers, lest they too come to the place of torment. Abraham then told the rich man that God had His people to warn them during their time of living and if they refused to listen, neither would they be persuaded if someone came from the dead. (Luke 16:19-31)

Does anyone remember that hell is an actual fact? Does anyone believe in the splendor of Heaven? Only those in darkness by having never heard or by being deceived by the lies of Satan would be indifferent where Heaven and Hell are concerned. The Bible paints a clear picture of a reality not to be ignored.

If you wish, you may go there by living a life of worldly pleasure and ignoring Jesus Christ and His shed blood. John 3:18.

Hell is described as an eternal fire of eternal punishment. It is a place where there is torment day and night. Mark 9:46 calls it a place where the worm does not die and the fire is not quenched. Both body and soul are destroyed there but the destruction never ends. There will not be a Tylenol there to lessen the pain.

Heaven is described as being 1500 miles square, with a foundation of jasper, sapphire, chalcedony, emerald, sardonyx, sardius, chrysolite, beryl, topaz, chrysoptase, jacinth, and amethyst. It has 12 gates, each made of a single pearl attended by 12 angels. The walls are jasper. The streets and the city are transparent gold. There is no temple, no sun, no moon, because Jesus is the light. There is a clear river that flows from the throne of God and on each side the tree of life with 12 kinds of fruit. (Rev. 21 and 22) There will be no more death, marriage, sorrow, pain, curse, night or wicked people there. There will be joy, rest, peace, reward, service, righteousness and glory.

When the rich man died and went to Hades, he could see Abraham and Lazarus in Paradise and he begged for Lazarus to come down with a drop of water on his finger to touch his tongue and relieve the agony of the flames. Abraham let him know that it was

If you wish, you may go there by accepting Jesus as your saviour and allowing His blood to wash your sins away. John 3:16, Rom. 5:9.

LOW GROSS PLAY

Thursday, July 9, there were 5 players: Olivia, Loys, Louise, Dorothy D., and LaVoe. Loys and LaVoe won balls for low gross scores.

At J-Lyn's, Lucretia, Margaret, Geneva and Hazel were awaiting the golfers, to have lunch with them. Geneva was presented a card and money gift from fellow golfers, for her recent surgery and hospitalization. Glad to have her back with us!

Enjoyed seeing the Meason sisters (Helen and Thelma) who were also at J-Lyn's eating - a late breakfast - before their departure to Ruidoso, via Brownfield for a stop-over. (Reminded your reporter of long ago when golfers played at Airport Buzz Field) and we would be rained out at early morning play, and would rush into town, to Smith's Steak House, to eat and chat. Mary Meason and your reporter would always eat breakfast - regardless of how late in the morning. Remember? Mary.

CATTLE TRUCK ACCIDENT

Loys and Dorothy rushed in late for lunch, all excited over a loaded cattle truck accident near the entrance to the golf course. They were leaving the club house when they heard this LOUD noise coming from near the bridge on the highway. A loaded (72 head reported) double-decker cattle truck had a tire to blow out and the driver lost control of the truck.

As the load shifted, coming down the hill to the bridge and headed north, Howard Edmondson and Ellis Terry were with Bob Spencer, an implement salesman from Lockney, in his Suburban crossing the bridge, going south, headed for the golf course at the same time - and met the cattle truck, out of control - and no place to go until the truck knocked down some of the guard rail, and Spencer guided his vehicle to the dirt road from the bridge - missing the truck by a FEW feet. The windshield of the Suburban was broken out - and the golfers were thoroughly frightened and shaken up! Dudley Barber of Springs Ranch rushed to the scene with his cutting torch to fee the cattle from the truck. Seven head were counted dead and 37 head got on the golf course - but were herded off before any damage was done to the course.

Ellis reported that his golf game was better than usual that afternoon - when they finally got around to playing.

THURSDAY PLAY

July 16 - some of the players didn't get to finish their round on account of rain. Loys and LaVoe won balls on low net play. Others playing were Olivia, Louise and Dorothy D. They ate lunch at J-Lyn's.

Author, Launa Latham, Presents Library Program

LAUNA LATHAM

by Marisue Potts

On July 14, Launa Latham presented the Story Hour program at the Motley County Library. Mrs. Latham explained to a group of 24 children and parents how she writes and illustrates her stories using her recently published Grandma Prairie Dog's Unwelcome Visitor as an example.

Growing up in the country east of Spur without playmates except for a younger sister and an uninterested brother, the girl Launa spent hours observing her prairie friends and enemies. She often sat by a prairie dog mound waiting for the curious animal to grow accustomed to her presence so she could more closely watch it.

From the cottontail rabbits, dog owls, terrapins, and snakes that she encountered daily, her lively imagination invented whimsical characters she shared with her sister, and in later years, with her own children.

In the fifties, as part of a research project for an advanced college degree, Mrs. Latham compiled her stories into one volume. When her son, writer Aaron Latham, decided to break into publishing with Huckleberry Finn Book Co., he suggested that she illustrate the stories and turn them into a series of children's books.

"The stories come easy. I can whip off a story just like that. It's the illustrating that's hard," confided Mrs. Latham, a school teaching veteran of 40 years. Though she prefers to work with watercolors, she now struggles with fast drying acrylics to get the bright colors preferred for reproduction.

Mrs. Latham and her husband, a former coach, retired to Spur in 1980, the completion of a full circle from her teaching assignment at the one-room school at Wilson Draw, to Spur, Dickens, Abilene, DeLeon and Tucson, Arizona.

"Did you ever see a dog owl?" asked the perky grandmother to children who probably didn't even know about prairie dogs. "You can walk all the way around a dog owl and he'll follow you with his eyes until you think his head will screw off." She resumed her story, "Sam Rattler slithered along in the dust, his black Stetson pulled down low over his eyes..."

All ages will want to find out if Grandma Prairie Dog is able to turn away this scalawag from her dugout boarding house, but a warning. "Quick as a horned toad's tongue" the readers will be anxiously awaiting the sequels featuring P.U. Skunk, P.D. Cottontail, and Pack Rat.

Grandma Prairie Dog's Unwelcome Visitor will be on sale at the Motley County Library for a short time.

LIBRARY NOTES

BY JIMMIE HUNTER

The Animal Antics Summer Reading Program ends next Tuesday, July 28, when Mrs. Carol Ann Turner will present tales from "Hank The Cowdog" by John Ericson. All the children who have participated in the program will receive a certificate and we will have refreshments furnished by the Friends of the Library.

Mrs. Latham was such a delight as she told the children how she got her ideas for the "Grandma Prairie Dog" stories, and showed them a work page for her writing and her paintings. She assured them that a story often had to be changed an rearranged and how she had used one page just to discover the right shape and color for Grandma Prairie Dog's face. At least one child was inspired to go home and write a story for our story-writing contest.

We certainly appreciated Becca Bridge reading her story "The Baby Kittens" and Clayt Bridge reading "The Uninvited Guest" that he had written. They had both illustrated their stories. That had been announced as the last day to have your original animal story in, but Clayt and Becca graciously agreed to let the other children have one more week to get their stories in. If you don't have yours at the Library today, it is too late. We want to announce the winners July 28th.

We have new films in the Library now. For the pre-school children we have the MIP (Most Important Person) series:

LIBRARY TO MOVE JULY 30

Volunteers will once again move the over 8,000 volumes of the Motley County Library on July 30, 31 and August 1 and 3rd.

Unlike the first move which was forced by the damage done by the May 1st, 1984 tornado to the school, this chore will be divided into a four day event. Workers who can pack, disassemble shelving, cart books via hand truck across the street to the new location, provide refreshments, clean up, or mow grass at the American Legion Building are urged to sign up at the library.

At the new facility, the library will be needing dishes and silverware for the community room, study tables, and various other furnishings.

Green - Davis Exchange Wedding Vows

The Plainview home of Mr. and Mrs. Danny Godfrey and Jimmy Carl was the scene of the celebration of the marriage of Richard E. Green of Plainview and Janice Davis of Floydada. Rev. Charles H. Teykl, Minister of the First Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony on July 3 at 8 p.m. before family members and close friends of the couple.

The wedding scene was the fireplace area of the home. The mantel held eight brass candelabra with yellow tapers centered with a yellow silk rose arrangement made by the bride's mother. Green plants in brass planters flanked the hearth. Bridal attendants were the groom's daughter-in-law, Marla Green of Amarillo and his daughter, Cindy Hooten of Bowie. Randy Green of Amarillo served as his father's best man.

The bride wore a tea length turquoise georgette dress with matching shoes. She carried a nosegay of yellow silk roses and baby's breath with white lace and yellow satin streamers. The bridal bouquet was made by Ozena Norris.

A reception in the Godfrey home was held following the ceremony, the table was laid with a white lace cloth over yellow and featured a two tiered wedding cake trimmed with yellow roses. Yellow tapers in crystal holders along with pineapple sherbet punch served in a crystal punch bowl surrounded by yellow silk rose buds, yellow butter mints and nuts in crystal containers completed the setting. The groom's table featured chocolate brownies and the bride's garter, which was a gift from Juanita Henry, a family friend. Members of the house party included the bride's sister, Lisa Noland of Amarillo, Marla Green and Terrye Godfrey.

Special guests at the wedding and reception registered in the bridal book which was a gift to the couple from Ricky and Vivian West. Those who registered were the bride's mother Ernestine Gilly and her brother and family, Larry and Gail Noland, Aaron and Jennifer all of Floydada. Attending from Amarillo were her sister, Lisa Noland, Kevin Mitchell and Randy and Marla Green. Also present were Cindy and Jinny Kay Hooten of Bowie, Rhonda and Kelly Branch of Kress, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Teykl and the hosts, Danny, Terrye and Jimmy Carl Godfrey.

The couple will reside in Floydada. Mr. Green is an independent paint contractor, and Mrs. Green will continue as Assistant Vice President of the First National Bank in Lockney.

Commissioners to ascertain the status of the Reed/Shannon road dispute. The Commissioners had received no recent communication in the matter.

Marisue Potts, Motley County Library president and Jimmy Hunter, Librarian, reported to commissioners the on-going progress of the new library building, stating that a projected moving date will be July 29-31. Mrs. Hunter reported on a workshop she had attended and also on the summer reading program.

Judge Whitaker reported that Kay Howard of Gary Traylor Associates, had visited with him about resubmitting a grant proposal to place an elevator in the courthouse building as required by law.

The Commissioners reviewed a case in which a company has been in arrears on personal property taxes for three years, owing the county $17,000. In that the statute of limitations will soon be exhausted on this matter and the collection agency has made no known effort to collect this sum, the Commissioners voted to give the collection agency 15 days to make the collection or be subjected to notice of cancellation of the agency's contract for Motley County Commissioners Court Collections.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Concerning the farm situation: In the past couple of weeks thousands of acres of crops have been hailed out on the South Plains. Interest rates are creeping up and fuel costs are increasing. These and numerous other things have caused the farm depression of the past few years. A large number of farmers have gone out of business recently and more may be forced out soon.

Through the JTPA (Job Training Partnership Act) help is available. If a farm family has gone out of business because of foreclosure, bankruptcy, or the inability to secure an operating loan they are eligible for the "Displaced Farmer Program."

The program can help the family find jobs or enroll in a school to learn a new profession.

In 1986, 82 farm family members either went into a job training or several different vocational schools to learn a new trade.

If you would like to know more about the Displaced Farmer Program call: Caprock Community Action Joe Priddy 675-2732 in Crosbyton, Alton Painter 293-4397 in Plainview, or James Martin 894-6104 in Levelland.

Yours truly,
Joe Priddy

4-H NEWS

by Ray Minkley

Fourteen 4-Hers from Motley County completed their 4-H record books and entered them in district competition. There were five juniors, four intermediates and five senior category record books. Seven of the nine junior and intermediate record books were awarded blue ribbons and two had red. Blue ribbons are given for scores of 90 or above and red are given for 80-90 out of a possible 100. Four of the five senior record books placed first in their categories and will be going on to state competition. Motley County had 14 record books at district, led by only three other counties with much higher population and 4-H enrollments. There are 21 counties in the district.

COTTON INSECTS

Boll weevils are emerging in tremendous numbers this year and are still coming. According to Dr. Rummel's studies the overwinter survival rate is well over 16% already and rising. The average survival rate in most winters is about 1.5% - 2%. Trap catches in Motley County are higher than I have seen them in the past five years. This may level to an earlier than usual population buildup this year. To avoid or reduce economic damage there might be a need for individual application of control measures in some fields if a yield potential is there.

Reports from many other cotton growing areas indicate that relatively high numbers of fleahoppers exist in many fields. Square losses of up to 50% have been reported. A square set of at least 75% during the first three weeks of scaring is desired. Since whiteweed is an excellent weed host for fleahoppers, fields infested with or near whiteweed will likely have the highest numbers of fleahoppers. Again yield potential is a very important factor in determining if insect control expenses are advantageous.

Conservation Reserve May Be Farmers' Best Bet To Profit From Highly Erodible Cropland

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Conservation Reserve Program may be farmers' best bet to make a profit on highly erodible cropland and defray some of the cost of conservation.

"According to USDA rules, compliance with the conservation provisions of the 1985 Food Security Act requires farmers who plan to cultivate highly erodible cropland after January 1, 1990, to develop a conservation plan by 1990," said James Gillespie, district conservationist for the USDA Soil Conservation Service at Matador. "They must also protect their land against soil erosion with applied conservation practices by 1995 if they want to participate in USDA programs. These practices may include conservation tillage systems, terraces, grassed waterways, stripcropping, or other practices."

CRP offers farmers cost sharing and annual rental payments to convert this highly erodible cropland to permanent vegetation, and a chance to bypass expensive conservation treatment, retain eligibility for USDA programs, and ensure a return on this land.

"Most land fitting the highly erodible criteria is not only difficult to protect against erosion, but often produces poor crop yields and has a low profit potential," Gillespie said. "Most times, payments provided under the Conservation Reserve Program offer farmers greater rates of return to this land."

Under the CRP, farmers receive cost sharing to establish grass, or wildlife plantings on highly erodible cropland. Cost sharing is provided for 50 percent of eligible costs of establishment. Annual rental payments are bid by the farmer and extend for 10 years, the length of the CRP contract. The permanent vegetation must be maintained during this time, and harvesting will not be permitted.

The Conservation Reserve is authorized by Congress to continue until 1990, a total of five years, as long as funds are appropriated. Currently, funds have been appropriated through September of this year.

In the last four signups, farmers submitted bids on a total of 2.3 million acres in Texas.

A fifth CRP signup period has been announced by the Secretary to begin July 20 and end July 31, 1987. Signup will be at the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office located at Matador.

BILL STANDIFER

Part I

Bill Standifer, a product of Lampasas, who lived there during those turbulent times and on reaching manhood, drifted somewhere in the Concho, Colorado River territory, to follow a cowboy's calling. Bill was a small wiry little fellow. Fractious, high strung, nery and dangerous, I grant. From some cause, which I never learned, he was taken to task and chastised by three other parties. Finding him without his side arms, two men covered him with their guns while the third party laced him with a bullwhip.

The treatment was both cowardly and brutal. While helpless at the time, still, it was degrading to Standifer's feelings. No responsible man cared to live with the handicap of such report in existence. He warned them at the time that if they valued their lives and wanted to live, they had better kill him while the killing was safe. Not heeding his warning, they let him go, to suffer physical torture, while nature healed the stripes on his body. The wounded pride of his manhood wrangled, but healed not.

Later, while on cow work, two of the men went to a round-up where Standifer was working. He killed them both and it was said, the third man, on hearing the news, left the country and escaped a like fate.

Whether to avoid court trouble, I do not know; but Standifer in time was found, working on the Matador Ranch, where he became a trusted employee and was stationed on Running-Water Draw on the Plains to cut trail herds coming North, through that section. Prior to this, Standifer had run a wagon for the Spur Ranch on Red Mud Creek in Dickens County, Texas.

Later he became the second sheriff of Crosby County, Texas. He was a fearless officer, and dealt misery to every class of criminals that passed his way.

Somehow back in 1879 or thereabouts, a handful of Quaker immigrants found their way onto the grassy lea of the great western tableland, as they thought, somewhere near, the center of Crosby County. There they settled down to exact as best they could, a living from an unpeopled desert.

In course of time, the county was organized, and the center of their existence was named Estacado. Later, when the county bounds were more definitely outlined, it was found that Estacado was in the extreme Northwestern corner of the county. It came very near not being in Crosby County at all, and the County Seat was moved.

As Judge Bean was the law, West of the Pecos, Bill Standifer was the sole guardian of peace and order on the "Llano Estacado." A mite of a fellow and the lone protection of an empire larger than all the New England states combined. Seymour on the East, Snyder on the South, Tascosa and Mobeetie on the North, were the nearest organized help to him.

No telegraph, telephone, railroad or radeo for rapid communication in those days. Uncle Sam's overland mail routes were few and far between, as well as being slow. By this means, Standifer heard from the Sheriff of Young County and was requested to keep a lookout for three parties wanted for horse theft and thought to be headed for New Mexico.

Booken or Brooken Brothers, I think, were their names. By mere chance, Standifer had passed near three parties, with a bunch of horses several days before the letter reached him. The parties that he had seen seemed to fit the description of the men wanted.

Bill Standifer forked his horse, picked up a cold trail and rode into the haze of a sinking sun and was soon lost to view. That was the last seen of him for three months by those that knew him. Occasionally he picked up clues along the way, more often nothing in the way of encouragement was found, still, he moved on and finally the trail faded out and seemed hopelessly lost. He never turned back for he had the pertinacity of a bloodhound. He turned North into Colorado for a time; but picked up nothing of value, so he dropped South once more and floated around near what seemed the end of the trail. In time, his efforts were rewarded and he spotted his men. Bill kept undercover, lay around watchful like and wrote his deputy at home to come out and aid him in bringing them back. When the deputy arrived, the arrests were made and the cross-country return trip started.

Part II, next week.

Remember When

By Annie B. Cloyd
Box 22
Flomot, TX 79234

Hello Folks, it's just me again here in Flomot, thinking of the tales told at the homecoming and how much fun everyone had telling about things that had happened so long ago. There was always someone to listen and try to tell a bigger story.

One of these tales was about a watermelon fight that took place here one time. You know that most all the kids stole a melon or two at sometime or other so it was after a lot of good ones had been collected that this fight took place. Seems like there were two couples in an old pickup with a glass broken out and then another couple in the boy's Dad's car. They had all been eating watermelon, I'm sure they couldn't let that be all the fun, so the fight started. One boy thought he would see if he could put a bit of melon through that old pickup's broken window and that did it....Now the ones in the car were the ones that started this thing and before it was over everyone and the cars and pickups were a big mess. Must have been a good group of kids around before the fight was over.

After this fight ended they had to start cleaning up and everyone left to find water to wash the cars and pickups and themselves as well. Now this couple in the car that got the fight started was the last to leave - so when they started to find enough water to clean up with it was hard to find because the others had beat them to it. See, all the stations back then had water barrels that were kept full because there was no running water and the girls kept water barrels full all the time, too. This couple in the car finally found some at the gin and they sure did work to get the boy's Dad's car clean. They thought it looked just fine and he went home thinking everything was fine but the next morning when his Dad saw the car he "hit the roof" and yelled for the boy to get out there and look at the mess the car was in. He looked and saw that through all the fight and the cleaning up - he hadn't noticed that the back glass was down some and there on the back seat was a bunch of seeds, melon pieces and water. I think that the boy remembered that fight for a long time after his Dad got through with him.

Mrs. Martin told me all about this because she was there at the time this took place.

Will see you again and "Remember When" along with you.

LIONS continued from page 1

Lion Glenn Woodruff introduced three new members to the Lions Club. Rachel Patton was made the first official 'lady' member, after attending Lions meetings for the past 50 years as their sweetheart. Also Dr. Pat Williams and Rev. Gene Louder were welcomed as new members.

Lion Vann Francis introduced the new Head Coach of the Motley County Matadors, who gave an update for the athletic program for 87-88. Coach Cecil Marks thanked the people of Motley County for making he and his wife welcome.

Coach Marks thanked the Lions for helping with the local ballgames and all other areas they helped in, and he thanked God for an organization of this kind in Motley County.

His philosophy is hard work, mental toughness and to apply the best to the ability of each player. He is pleased with the interest of the weight program this summer and feels it is important to have a good start in any sport and wants each age to have good fundamentals in each sport.

Coach Marks is excited about the year and the opportunity here in Motley County.

STAY CLEAR OF POWER LINES

HAVE RESPECT FOR POWER LINES — BOTH THOSE OVERHEAD AND THOSE UNDERGROUND — ANYTIME YOU'RE DOING A JOB THAT REQUIRES YOU TO WORK NEAR THEM.

- Check your clearance carefully when you're carrying a tall pole or pipe on a tractor, or driving a truck with a raised bed, or operating machinery such as cranes, booms, hay loaders and well drilling rigs.
- Make sure you know the location of underground power lines before you install irrigation systems or unclog drain or sewer lines. Even routine projects like digging post holes or planting trees can be dangerous if you get too close to power lines.
- Fallen power lines also are extremely dangerous. If you see a line downed by a storm, high winds, car accident or other mishap, call WTU. Meanwhile, stay away from the wire and anything it touches — and keep others away, too.
- Don't trim or cut down trees near power lines. This is work best left to experts.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF RATE CHANGE REQUEST AND STATEMENT OF INTENT

Notice is hereby given that DICKENS ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE, INC. (the "Utility") intends to change rates for electric utility service effective July 19, 1987 or as soon thereafter as may be permitted by law. Based upon a test year ending December 31, 1986 the increase requested over actual test year revenues is $1,395,775 or 13.78%.

Effective April 1, 1986 the Utility switched wholesale power suppliers from West Texas Utilities (WTU) to Brazos Electric Power Cooperative, Inc. (Brazos). Based upon a test year which is adjusted to take into account differences in the WTU and Brazos wholesale rates the increase requested is $815,703 or 7.62%. The utility believes that purchasing its wholesale power requirements from Brazos will result in lower total cost. Increases or decreases in the cost of power purchased by the Cooperative are passed on to its members.

The changes are applicable to all areas, all customer classes, and all customers served by the Utility. The Utility intends to change its service rules and regulations including rules relating to obtaining service, the provision of electric service, and discontinuance of service.

Implementation of the proposed changes is subject to approval by the appropriate regulatory authority. A statement of intent including the proposed revisions of tariff and schedules and a statement specifying in detail each proposed change is available at the general office of the Utility located at Spur, Texas.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.
