THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Not enjoyment, and not sorrow,
Is our destined end or way;
But to act, that each tomorrow
Brings us farther than today.

Motley County Commissioners Meet Monday For Regular Court Session

The Motley County Commissioners agenda was short June 12.

Commissioner J.M. Russell gave the invocation followed by approval of minutes and reports. The J.P. reported collecting $2,344.00. The bills were read and approved after discussion.

Court reviewed and discussed the Texas Department of Transportation's inspection of eleven county bridges. All were rated good or fair except for 3 bridges, TeePee Creek Bridge east of Matador, in Precinct 1. Commissioner Russell explained he needs $1,000 to complete his materials to replace this bridge. Court passed for the funds to come from the Lateral Road fund. The Pease River metal bridge east of Roaring Springs on the Dumont road, Precinct 4, and in Precinct 4 the Shinnery Draw Bridge west of Roaring Springs were listed in serious condition. Precinct 2 had one bridge that TxDOT sent new signs to be reset. These are mandated weight load signs to be erected preceding bridges.

Several items of County road problems were discussed with Tempie Hutton, Special Prosecutor for Motley County, concerning road and water problems and sign destruction. Hutton read Law #4203 of Penal Code stating anyone intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly obstructing highway, roadway, or waterways, can be filed on by the County, a Class B misdemeanor, and are liable to pay restitution or be put in jail for 60 days up to 2 years. Class B misdemeanor also covers destruction of county or highway property, such as signs.

No action was taken on three agenda items.

Court had an indigent burial request After discussion, court elected to request a financial report, to prove indigent status.

Judge Price discussed the water leaks in the courthouse from the recent rains. Several suggestions were made for the Judge to look into.

Meeting adjourned.

DPS Urges Caution For Summer Driving

Trooper L.B. Snider, Public Information Officer for the Texas Department of Public Safety advises that summer driving too often combines hot weather, hot cars, and hot tempers. Pre-trip planning can help minimize these dangerous symptoms of summer driving.

Pre-trip planning includes vehicle preparation. Check the belts, hoses, and coolant fluid. Other fluids to check are motor oil, transmission oil, brake fluid, power steering fluid and windshield washer fluid. You should also check the wiper blades. With summer often being dry and dusty, be sure to check the air, oil, and fuel filters to preserve engine life.

Also, check your tires for correct and even air pressure, along with checking treadwear and sidewall cracking.

Lengthy trips should begin with route planning. A call to your nearby Department of Transportation or law enforcement agency may help you avoid construction area delays. Let a neighbor, friend, or family member (one not travelling with you) know your determined routes and scheduling. Part of the scheduling may include driving during cooler hours and resting your car and yourself during peak hours of heat.

"Now," Snider says, prepare yourself. Take proper clothing should you be exposed to extended heat and use quality sunglasses. Most of all, have a safe travel attitude before you even grasp the car keys. This safe travel attitude (being alert, courteous, and wary) is your key to safe summer traveling.

Cheer Camp Rescheduled

The Cheer Camp scheduled for June 22 has been rescheduled for Thursday, June 29. Registration will be from 9:00 until 9:30 a.m. The camp will end with a program for the parents at 12:00 noon in the Motley County gym. The cost will be $10.00 per child. All your child needs to bring is themselves, a smile, and a sack lunch. We have a wonderful day planned and are looking forward to seeing your child there.

Teaching Career Spans 43 Years

finished her teaching career at Motley County for one year after the schools were consolidated in 1972.

During the forty-one years at Roaring Springs, Miss Keahey taught mostly fifth grade but also taught Language, Social Studies, and Math in grades three through eighth, as well as being both girls and boys athletic coaches.

After retirement she has remained very active and with a most jovial attitude, participating in many social and church activities. She still has a tremendous influence on those who remember her dedication to the teaching profession, and is very interested in continuing to know about those whose lives she has touched.

She once stated "The most rewarding thing about teaching is meeting the people you have taught in later life, and knowing you had something to do with their success".

We all were her students and now we are all her friends and neighbors who owe her a debt of gratitude and respect for the years of dedication she gave to us, our children, and the Roaring Springs School System.

Roxie Lewis, Longtime Teacher

Roxie Lewis

by Devonne Dillard

Mrs. Roxie Lewis is known by all her friends and acquaintances as a person who believes in putting all you can into living. She spent 13 years in the Roaring Springs school system but her years spent in the classroom add up to 49 years. Most of those years allowed her to keep her home in Roaring Springs and commute.

Roxie first came to Roaring Springs in August, 1923 with her husband Willard A. Lewis and their 2 1/2 year old son. Mr. Lewis was school Superintendent and she came to be the High School History teacher.

She received a Bachelor's degree Magna Cum Laude in 1929 from Hardin Simmons, and a Masters Degree from Texas Tech in 1936.

Although she has been retired for several years and is now confined to her chair most of the time, she is still very active from that perspective as she is reading, watching television, writing articles for the newspaper, calling on the telephone, and sending loads of cards to everyone far and near.

She is appreciated by many who knew her as a teacher and many others who have great respect for her as a friend in

For those interested in how the Guinea Drop turned out during the National Trails Day June 3, in Quitaque, it was a crowd pleaser.

According to the Valley Tribune, two of the three guineas were dropped and caught, the third one wasn't dropped due to the bad weather, two young men are $100 richer.

For those of you who are enjoying the fresh strawberries a special treat is to take your strawberries and dip into sour cream, and then in brown sugar. Really delicious and I was told this was a Neiman Marcus speciality.

Happy Homecoming to all the Roaring Springs exes!

Nothin' But Net Basketball Camp Rescheduled

Due to conflicts with SummerSchool, the boys camp will be postponed one week. It will be held June 26-30 from 8 a.m. to noon. If you still want to register, the new deadline will be Monday, June 12. If you want to register or can't make this date, contact Kim Alexander, 348-7909 or MCISD, 347-2676.

This is the Boys Camp only. The girls camp will be at the original date and time.

Everyone Remembers Their 3rd Grade Teacher, Mrs. Stearns

Bertha Stearns

by Devonne Dillard

A third grade teacher so many of us remember is Bertha (Patton) Stearns.

Although she did not teach consecutively she gave us 23 teaching years in the Roaring Springs Schools.

She went to Baylor University and Hardin-Simmons before she married Alvin Stearns and in 1950 returned to college at West Texas State to receive her B.S. Degree in Education.

Her first year of teaching was spent in Kindergarten in the Matador school in 1927-28, but kindergarten did not seem to be her niche. She didn't teach for a few years after that, then in 1942-43 she came to Roaring Springs to teach third grade. In order to receive her degree at West Texas she took an absence from the classroom again and returned to Roaring Springs ISD in 1951 and taught third grade through 1967.

Bertha is still very active and stays busy painting beautiful pictures, piecing beautiful quilts and crocheting.

As the time approaches for the third All-School Reunion of the Roaring Springs students and teachers the Yellowjackets are swarming with excitement.

One special lady and former teacher of 43 years, with 42 consecutive years in the Roaring Springs Schools could probably greet most of the returning students as her own former students.

Miss Freda Keahey was only five months old when she moved to Roaring Springs with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. M.E. Keahey, and three other sisters, when the railroad was being laid and before the town had been surveyed.

Freda grew up with the town and completed her high school education there when high schools had only eleven grades.

After graduating, she attended North Texas Jr. College in Arlington for two years and then Sul Ross in Alpine the next two years for a B.S. Degree. Later she acquired a Masters Degree from North Texas State University in Denton.

She began her teaching career in the early thirties at Bedford for one year, and

IN MEMORY OF LUCILLE GAINES (June 15, 1908 - July 2, 1994)

—Janelle Jackson Shirley

In the old hometown she could be found in a little white house where flowers abound.

When holidays came and folks hit the road, home for the holidays kinfolks flowed.

They came in groups or one by one, in winter's snow and summer's sun.

Whatever the weather, cold or hot, she'd put on the coffee pot.

And sooner or later they'd all drop by for coffee and cake or piece of pie.

Some arrived early and stayed for lunch, while others joined the dinner bunch.

With special care she fulfilled wishes, for blackeyed peas and little "fishes".

She fed them all - the young, the old; but the real story hasn't been told.

It wasn't the food, tho they had their fill; it just wasn't home without a visit to 'Cill.

HOME SWEET HOME

Home. It is one of the sweetest and most often used words in any language. The home is the oldest human relationship known to mankind. It is the basis of order in any society. Yet the home is too often taken for granted. Some one has said, "As goes the home, so goes the church and the nation."

Our God instituted the home for the happiness of mankind. The home should be God centered. It is a sad note in our society that God has been crowded out of some homes. The results of this is all too apparent. In some places the home has become nothing more than a modern day "service station". Meaning just a place to change clothes and catch a nap and a meal.

Let us purpose to make our homes Christian homes by remembering God's presence and having our Lord Jesus Christ as an abiding guest. The home which is God centered is an educational institution. "Train up a child in the way he should go..." (Proverbs 22:6). The apostle Paul instructs fathers to bring up their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, in Ephesians 6:4. The home has been given its responsibilities by God. Much more teaching needs to be done on the home. God's will needs to be instilled into the minds of young and old alike. Let me encourage you to read your Bible and you will come to a deeper appreciation of the Christian home.

Drivers' Licenses Go High-Tech

(NAPS)—The newest digital technology is moving into the driver's seat, literally, as more and more states switch from current film-based driver's license systems to ones based on the latest digital systems. Among the advantages are greater security and more flattering-looking driver license pictures.

Existing driver license systems are being replaced by high-tech systems that produce licenses that are virtually impossible to tamper with or alter.

Many states around the country are installing a new all-electronic system developed by Polaroid Electronic Imaging Systems, a business group of the Polaroid Corporation based in Cambridge, Mass. Polaroid, a worldwide leader in secure electronic identification systems, has been awarded several drivers license contracts based on its state-of-the-art technology. Among the components of this system are a video camera for capturing portraits, signatures and fingerprints, all digitally.

Several changes are featured in the new licenses including a redesigned front and color coding to be more readable and informative with electronically captured full-color portraits that are clear, bright and sharp. On the back of the license is a standard magnetic stripe which carries lines of data including the driver's license number, which can be read by magnetic stripe readers. An optional holographic overlamine offers added security.

The entire license is encased in a special Polaroid laminate that's virtually indestructible and makes attempts at tampering immediately obvious.

With all data and photographs stored electronically, applicants no longer need to return to the office for renewals, changes and corrections. Lost or stolen licenses can be easily and quickly reproduced.

To All Our Patients and Friends:

The past few years have seen dramatic changes in the practice of medicine in this country, and Plainview certainly has been no exception. Our local hospital has undergone three changes in management. In addition, terms such as "HMO", "PPO" and "managed care" have become almost household words in recent months, dramatically changing the manner in which our office does business.

Throughout this time, our office has been able to meet the challenges brought about by change and has continued to provide each of you with the quality family health care you have come to expect from us. The changes have, however, placed an increasingly large burden upon my office staff, my family and myself. This has led us to pursue alliances with other health care institutions in order to ensure our survival in this "new market" and best position ourselves to meet your health care needs.

As a result of lengthy discussions, we are proud to announce our association with St. Mary Family Healthcare Centers effective July 1, 1995. We believe this association will ensure our ability to continue to provide health care to all our established patients as well as others whom we have not been able to serve in the past. We feel our alliance with St. Mary—one of the region's most trusted health care providers—will give our patients, my office staff, my family and myself the greatest security and assurance of continued quality medical care into the 21st century.

This change will only affect the business portion of our office operation. Daily patient care, hospital care and/or referral patterns will remain the same, and we will continue to work to strengthen and stabilize Plainview's medical community.

For the next several months we will continue to conduct business as usual at our current location at 2222 West 24th Street, Suite 1. We will, however, be moving our offices to the new St. Mary Family Healthcare Center at 3409 Olton Road this fall. We greatly appreciate your ongoing support and anxiously await the opportunity to be of continued service to you.

Sincerely,

Larry R. Karrh, M.D., D.A.B.F.P., D.A.B.Q.A.U.R.P.

Memories of Roaring Springs

by Mary Meason

Roaring Springs Homecoming always brings back many memories of the people I knew when I was a pre-teen and teenage girl.

About half of the population of Roaring Springs was made up of my relatives so we made many visits to Roaring Springs especially on Sunday. There were cousins my age, quite a few younger, and many older.

Jettie Cooper Moss and her brothers were my double cousins. Jettie was about 2 years older than I but we were very close. I knew many or all of her friends and they were very kind to put up with a dumb kid younger than they were.

The first time I ever saw Melvin Meason, my future husband, I was in the sixth grade. My family had gone to the Springs for a picnic. While there I met this "real cute" boy! I had never seen him before, but thought he was so very cute! He had on a bill cap, knee pants, long black stockings and high top shoes. I didn't look any better! I had a buster Brown bob, long black stockings, and I was already too fat!

I became acquainted with all my cousin Jettie's friends and have been friends with many of them up to the present time. They were always very kind to put up with me.

Mozelle Keahey was such a pretty girl I thought. She had beautiful red hair and the fairest complexion that I have ever seen. She could be in the sun for ten minutes and freckles would pop out on her face and arms. I'll never forget the time that she got Peacock Bleach Cream and put it on her face and arms. In just a short time she was perspiring profusely - on her face and arms. The cream bleached her freckles all right, but five minutes in the sun and all the freckles came back, plus more.

Ala Kelly and Mary Green have been my friends for many years. Ala was one of Melvin's girlfriends for a while, but at that time I didn't even know what jealousy was. Ala was such a pretty girl I would have been jealous!

Lorene James was another girl that my future husband dated but I always liked her very much.

Helen Wommack was a girl that was so much fun. Her father owned the dry goods store in Roaring Springs and that was the gathering place for all these girls. They would talk about things I didn't even know about, so I never joined in the conversation, just listened and wondered! I attended Helen's funeral in Brownfield several years ago.

There is one incident that has never faded from my memory.

One Sunday we were visiting Jettie's family and I had been allowed to drive our fine Model T Ford Sedan. By this time I was in the seventh grade. My dad told me that Jettie and I could go riding for a certain length of time, but we must be back at the end of that time. I didn't remember the time given us and I still don't remember how long our time was for that ride.

We never got off of the Roaring Springs townsite, but we made every street several times.

As we were driving down the street by the tabernacle we saw Melvin and Ralph Penny walking down the street, so of course we had to stop and pick them up. That was the first time I had seen Melvin since that day at the Springs. About the second or third round through town and down the street by the tabernacle, we met a man walking up the street. My father! I felt sure a lightning bolt would come from the sky and kill me, and I almost wished it would.

Anyhow, the boys disappeared suddenly, my dad got in the car and we drove straight to Jettie's home. I don't remember what the punishment was, but I'm sure it was quite some time before I was allowed to take that wonderful car out by myself!

You know, there are some people who you know that you can't remember when or where you met them for the first time, but it seems I have known Freda Keahey all my life! Freda's sense of humor has always amazed me and she always seemed so unaware of having that wonderful trait.

Enough of the past! Have a happy homecoming and the remembering of those early days of fun.

Thelma Meason Crites, John Meason, and Melvin Meason. All attended school at Roaring Springs.

Pastor Ronald Kelley To Make Religious Pilgrimage To Holy Lands

According to Sir Knight Wes Campbell of Plainview Commandery #53 Knights Templar of Texas, Pastor Ronald Kelley, pastor of the First United Methodist Churches of Matador and Roaring Springs has been selected by Plainview Commandery #53 of Plainview to make a religious pilgrimage to the Holy Land in February, 1996. According to Furman Vinson, past Grand Commander of the organization, this is the first time an individual commandery in the state has sponsored a pastor to the Holy Land. The Grand Commandery of Texas initiated a state-wide program some years ago.

Pastor Kelley is married to Mary Evelyn Kelley. They have five children between the ages of 18-30. Kelley has been a social worker assigned to the Armed Forces in Vietnam and a teacher-school administrator in California, New York and Texas over the past 30 years. He begins his fourth year of full-time ministry with the Northwest Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church this June 18. He was a part-time minister for two years in Southwest Texas Conference in the 1980's.

Ministers on the trip will depart from and return to JFK airport in New York City. They will follow itinerary designed especially for Christian ministers. Visits will be to many biblical sites such as the birthplace of Jesus, Mountain of the Beatitudes and the Garden of Gethsemane.

Beauty Bulletin At Do Gooders' Club

The Do Gooders' Club met Tuesday afternoon, June 6 at the Flomot Community Center. Mrs. Kathy Shorter, featured guest, presented a Beauty Bulletin For A Beautiful Look.

Mrs. Shorter was assisted by her daughter, Keri, and aunt, Mrs. Waydette Clay, when giving demonstrations of meticulous techniques when applying make-up. She gave great advice on ageless beauty by mastering small details of your appearance and how to work around a facial problem with the right cosmetics. She added, "A beautiful look doesn't have to cost a fortune." She closed the program singing the melodious song, "Hold On To The Years."

Flag Day was observed by the hostesses, Mesdames Nada Starkey and Alma Shorter when they presided at a patriotic decor service. The table was laid with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of American flags. They served strawberry and cream bliz truffle, chips and dips with iced tea.

Mrs. Alma Shorter, president, conducted a short business session. They voted to have a work-day the next day at the Community Center to clean the trophy case and to make arrangements for the installation of mini blinds in the building.

Those attending besides those mentioned above were Mesdames Lucille Monk, Bernice Bond, Annie B. Cloyd, Mary Jo Calvert, Erma Washington, Leona Degan, B. Rogers, Jimmie Hunter, Christeen Gilbert, Judy True, Trula Martin and guests, Shae Lynn Reed of Lubbock and Daggett Arrington of Canadian.

Arts & Crafts Club Meeting Canceled Due To Weather

The old adage came true for Motley County Arts and Crafts Club Monday, June 5, when inclement weather kept the members away.

The old adage states: "We will be there if the creek don't rise" - but the creek rose; Ballard was out of its banks, Winifred Lee was unable to cross, also, club President, Joy Archer, couldn't reach highway 70, due to high water. Also tornadoes were forecast for area, most members didn't venture out.

The club will meet July 10, the program is open, Show and Tell, covered dish luncheon at noon.

Time to pay dues and make plans for the ensuing year. All members are urged to attend.

See you there!

ON THE ENVIRONMENT

Producers are not just given program payments with no strings attached. To qualify for payments, farmers must meet certain conservation requirements, and, for those commodities covered by crop insurance, farmers must have that insurance to qualify for USDA program benefits. With conservation compliance requirements in place since the 1985 farm bill, individual farm conservation plans have been drafted and applied on over 100 million acres of erodible cropland. The amount of soil saved by erosion control measures on these millions of acres could cover the entire Mississippi riverbed with two feet of soil. Farmers save hundreds of millions of tons of soil each year -- with positive effects on water quality, air quality and farmland productivity. Much of this erosion quality, air quality and farmland productivity. Much of this erosion control is a direct result of conservation compliance provisions of federal farm programs. Under swampbuster and sodbuster provisions, farmers also are restricted from altering or draining wetlands or plowing up fragile lands. The wetland acreage converted for agricultural purposes today is down tremendously -- from several hundred thousand acres a year to about 30,000. In addition, the Wetlands Reserve Program will restore about 240,000 acres of wetlands through 1995. The Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) has benefitted farmers and the nation by saving vast amounts of soil, improving air and water quality, enhancing wetlands, reducing commodity program payments, and strengthening farm income. Over the past 10 years, the CRP has prevented 90 million tons of sediment from cropland from entering streams and rivers; reduced the use of fertilizer and pesticides by about 61 million tons, and provided billions of dollars in wildlife benefits. The increase in wildlife habitat brought about by CRP already has doubled the pheasant population and increased duck populations in the Dakotas and Montana by 3 million birds. Many songbirds and other wildlife species are making a strong comeback. On top of these significant environmental benefits, when cropland is idled under annual programs, much of that land is marginal land that must be put to conserving uses. Other program provisions encourage resource - conserving crop rotations and discourage environmentally destructive "fence row to fence row" planting.

"The art of making cheese is centuries old. Even with today's technology, we still rely on a precise blend of time and temperature to make the perfect product. Our electric cooperative understands that."

When Associated Milk Producers decided to build this automated cheese plant four years ago, we knew we wanted to locate it here in the heart of Texas dairy country.

We are fortunate to have a cooperative provide our electricity. The cooperative really understands the special needs of an agricultural-based business... when it comes to service, they are always eager to go the extra mile. And when you are responsible for turning 1.35 million pounds of milk into 135,000 pounds of cheese every day without fail, you need a power supplier that prides itself on reliable service.

You have heard people say: 'If you can't stand the heat, stay out of the kitchen'. With the cooperative backing me, I know that when the pressure is on, one thing I don't have to worry about is our electric service."

LIBRARY NOTES
by Suzanne Abbott

The Library has a new romance novel for your enjoyment. The title is Lily A Love Story by Cindy Bonner. Since June is Romance Month (at the Library and elsewhere) you will want to read this new book or one of our many other romances.

A new shipment of videos has arrived and are ready to be checked out. If you have always wanted to go to Paris, France, now you can by way of video from the Library. Other video titles include Ballad of the Irish Horse, Cinderella, and One Dish Meals. There are many others, so come in and check out a video for the whole family to enjoy.

We have several new books that arrived just this week. Two are for children: Eve Bunting's Caldecott Winner Smoky Night and The Three Little Wolves and the Big Bad Pig. We also received Belva Plains' book The Carousel. A new biography is that of Lee Radziwill In Her Sister's Shadow.

The Dickens County-Spur Public Library had some duplicate copies of books and they generously offered to share the extra book with The Motley County Library. Some of the titles are Sue Grafton's "H" is for Homicide, Bill Cosby's Fatherhood, and Sidney Sheldon's Memories of Midnight. There are several other titles that you will want to check out from the Library. We certainly appreciate the gift of these books.

Come by the Library and see the lovely display of colored glass. Winifred Lee arranged the display, using her own collection, and later colored glass from Earline Vaughn's collection will be displayed. We appreciate having this colorful arrangement in our Library.

We wish to thank Roger and Doris Vinson and Beverly and Furman Vinson for their donation to the Library in memory of Don Seigler. We appreciate their thoughtfulness and support.

We want to introduce a new employee. Veronica Gonzalez will be working at the Library for a while this summer. Veronica will be a senior at Motley County High School next year. We are glad to have her help this summer.

The Library has a copy of John Grisham's newest book, The Rainmaker. We have this hot new book thanks to the Friends of the Library and Betty Moore and her daughter Kim Moore Jeffers. We appreciate the efforts of all these people to keep our collection current with the new best sellers.

Library Displays Colored Glass

ON DISPLAY — The beautiful colored art glass belonging to Earline Vaughn is on display at the Library.

by Earline Vaughn

Everybody collects glass. If you don't believe you do, look around you. Without considering yourself at all a collector, you may have a lovely old dark green bottle full of ivy, or bits of cut or jewel toned glass placed where the sun can shine through them, making the colors glow. Of course, if you are younger, it may be a chianti flask with a candle stuck in it!

The making of glass has its own fascination, from the study of ancient glass, lost trade routes have been rediscovered. Research has furnished evidence that communication by ship and caravan linked the Mediterranean and the heart of Asia almost 2,000 years ago. It was not unusual for merchants thousands of miles apart to buy glassware from the same maker, or to order ingredients from a common supplier.

The ancient Mediterranean civilization knew all the essential techniques of fashioning and decorating glass that are known today, except mechanical processing. This glass making was very sophisticated. They made layered, multi-colored, sculptured, and mosaic glass that the most modern factories would be-hard put to duplicate. For 27 centuries from about 1500 B.C. to the end of the 12th century A.D., they flourished. Then glassmaking entered what we might call the modern era, with the rise of the Venetian glass blowers. They developed a fragile, lightweight glass displaying a smoothness and clarity.

Glass making in America began with the first English colony settled at Jamestown in 1607. The great bulk of what is known and collected as "early American" was made after 1800.

MATADOR CELEBRATES FLAG DAY — The nation's time-honored tradition of Flag Day was observed on Wednesday, June 14 as the city of Matador received a United States Flag from a representative of U.S. Sen. Phil Gramm's office. Hans Klingler, regional director of Sen. Gramm's office in Lubbock, delivered remarks regarding the significance of Flag Day and presented Mayor Gary Lancaster with a U.S. flag during a ceremony held at Matador City Hall, Wednesday morning. The first Flag Day celebration occurred on June 14, 1877 on the 100th birthday of the flag.

Single Family Housing Loans Available

Rural Housing Loans for very-low and low income applicants are available through County Offices of the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA), Spur, FmHA County Supervisor, said today.

Home ownership loans may be used to buy, build, improve, repair, rural homes and to provide adequate water and waste disposal systems. Homes may be built on individual tracts or in subdivisions. Funds may also be used to modernize homes - add improvements such as bathrooms, central heating, modern kitchens and other improvements. Borrowers may buy an existing house and lot or buy a site on which to build a home. Loans may be made for up to 100 percent of the appraised value of the site and the new home. Interest rates for this type of loan are presently 8.75 percent with 33 year terms. Monthly payments are subsidized with the amount of the payment dependent on the borrowers annual income. Homes will be modest in size, design, and cost but adequate to meet the family's needs. New homes average about 1,050 square feet of living area.

In addition, Farmers Home Administration guarantees home ownership loans made to applicants of low or moderate income. Guarantees offer opportunities to families who are unable to afford a commercial loan without a Guarantee. These loans may be made for up to 100 percent of the value of the property and are made for terms of 30 years. The interest rate is based on the Federal National Mortgage Association rate with a maximum loan amount in most counties of $67,500.00.

The Farmers Home Administration assists rural America by guaranteeing private sector loans and by providing temporary, supervised direct loans to farm and housing borrowers who have a reasonable chance for success, and whose current needs cannot be met at reasonable rates and terms by commercial sources. The Agency is committed to excellence in providing its services.

"Application for assistance may be obtained at the Farmers Home Administration office located at 314 Willard Ave.", FmHA County Supervisor said. The FmHA office in Spur is open from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Warning to all Parents!

A form of Tatto called Blue Star is being sold to school children. It is a small piece of paper containing a blue star. They are the size of a pencil eraser and each is soaked with LSD. The drug is absorbed through the skin by handling the paper. There are also brightly colored paper tabs resembling postage stamps that have the pictures of the following: Superman, Mickey Mouse, clowns, butterflies, Bart Simpson. Each one is wrapped in aluminum foil. This is a new way of selling acid, by appealing to young children. If your child gets any of the above, DO NOT HANDLE THEM.

These are known to react quickly and some are laced with strychnine. Symptoms: Hallucinations, severe vomiting, uncontrolled laughter, mood changes and change in body temperature. Please feel free to reproduce this article and distribute it within your community and work place. Please copy and post at work, give to a friend, send a copy to local schools. This is very serious - young lives have already been taken! This problem is growing faster than we can warn parents and professionals.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

Michael A. Guido
Metter, Georgia

Flowers and hours soon fade away.
If you're average, you'll spend 157,000 hours getting an education. That leaves you 412,000 hours from age 18 to 65.
You'll spend eight hours of every day sleeping and eight hours eating and relaxing.
You're left eight hours a day to work in. If you live to be 65, you'll have only 134,000 hours in which to work.
No matter how rich you are, you can't buy more time. No matter how poor you are, you won't receive less time. You'll be given sixty minutes to an hour.
No wonder the Bible says, "Don't be fools; be wise: make the most of every opportunity for doing good."

THANK YOU

I would like to thank the people of Roaring Springs and Matador for the get well cards while I was in Scott-White Hospital in Temple. I am now at home and recovering well.

Thank you for helping make this a successful Baseball Season for the kids.
