

Allied Bombers Span Length Of Germany In Raid

By GLADWIN HILL. LONDON, May 29 (AP)—A thousand heavy American bombers and 1,200 fighters spanned the length of Germany today, bombing two aircraft factories in Poland and four in central and eastern Germany while other fleets struck up from the south at the Vienna and Wiener Neustadt areas.

Early estimates indicated at least 4,200 planes had attacked the Germans from Britain and Italy.

As the stunning day of bombardment drew to dusk, it appeared that the Allies might have sent out another fleet as large as the record number of 8,000 warplanes which flew Sunday from British and Italian bases.

The predominantly American fleets of warplanes scoured the face of Europe, bombed the invasion coasts of France and Belgium, strafed the front lines in Italy and reached deep inside Germany, Poland and Austria to ear up hideaway plants of the German aircraft industry.

The sky-darkening fleet equalled that of yesterday, which was the largest ever dispatched by the U. S. air forces.

The Polish factories were at Poznan and Kriesling. Those in Germany were at Leipzig, Tutow, Cottbus and Soran. The flight to Poznan entailed a roundtrip of at least 1,450 miles.

Simultaneously, hundreds of lesser American bombers struck heavily and repeatedly at the French invasion coast, bombing bridges, railroads and airfields.

The attacking Fortresses and Liberators split into several spearheads in efforts to confound the enemy defenses.

The German radio reported the fleets engaged in a number of sky battles. Enemy broadcasts said another Allied fleet was striking in the "lower Danube Basin" from Italy.

The operations on this hot, summer day were in force comparable to yesterday's great outpouring when 6,000 bombers and fighters flew from British bases and 2,998 more struck from Italy, chiefly at the Italian battle area.

Seven heavy bombers were forced to land in Sweden, Stockholm dispatches said. Germany was on the alert almost continuously throughout the day.

Between 500 and 750 Flying Fortresses and Liberators bombed an aircraft plant at Atzgersdorf, near Vienna; the Wiener Neustadt plant No. 1 and the nearby Nord and Wollersdorf airfields.

Lightnings which escorted the bombers to Yugoslavia strafed motor transports, trains and an airfield in northwest Yugoslavia.

One Liberator formation attacking Wiener Neustadt was assigned the task of destroying anything still intact in the main Messerschmitt factory which has been damaged in six previous assaults.

The daylight assaults capped a night in which the RAF kept the snow-balling air offensive rolling unchecked by assaults on the northwestern French railroad center of Angers, the German chemical city of Ludwigshafen, and other targets on the French coast.

The planes flying out from Britain raced through brilliant, hot channel skies to the continent.

The railway center at Angers—a new objective—was the main target of the British night bombers. The attack was reported heavy, although the air ministry indicated the force was not unusually large.

Since dawn Saturday, exclusive of the latest night attack by British planes, about 14,500 tons of bombs have been tossed by Allied planes on countless continental objectives by some 12,000 aerial sorties flown from Britain and Italy.

This tempest of fire and steel saw the greatest American aerial armada ever sent on a single mission—a fleet of about 2,300 bombers and fighters—smash at synthetic oil plants and other installations in central and western Germany Sunday.

The American raiders delivered the heaviest single day in the western European air war. In all more than 6,000 planes roared out from British bases and rained more than 8,500 tons of bombs on targets ranging all the way from the channel coast to Leipzig.

The projectiles can be fired in pairs or salvos from launchers mounted beneath the wings of five types of fighter planes—P-40 Warhawk, P-47 Thunderbolt, P-38 Lightning, P-39 Airacobra and P-51 Mustang.

This was the department's first disclosure that such weapons are being used on American planes. The Royal Air Force has disclosed use of rocket-equipped planes against ground targets in northwestern Europe.

The United States has used quantities of rockets on landing craft to cover amphibious assaults.

Allies Drive Toward Rome Tense Front Awaits Invasion

Temperatures Climb On Troop Packed Island. LONDON, May 29 (AP)—German broadcasts reflected increased tension in Marshal von Rundstedt's entire invasion front facing this troop-packed island today as temperatures over the glassy Strait of Dover reached an unofficial 100 degrees shortly before noon.

Nazi commentators asserted that Gen. Eisenhower had missed one favorable invasion date when the tides and weather were perfect and cried out: "Germany would prefer for the invasion to come today rather than to...

That suggested that enemy defenses at least once already had been brought to a nerve-racking peak of alertness, only to find that Hitler's command had guessed wrong.

DNE, the official enemy news agency, said "there can be no doubt that the original date fixed for invasion has passed but there are so many symptoms and speculations in connection with the next date that Germany cannot possibly be taken by surprise."

The Swiss newspaper, Gazette de Lausanne, gave a new clue to the defense problem of Von Rundstedt, complicated by railroads tangled and snarled by profusions of Allied bombs.

The newspaper said there was increasing fear of a general D-Day strike of French railroad workers and that the Nazis were sending in more key transportation officials and workers for key posts.

Nazi propaganda broadcasts asserted the Allied high command already had passed up its most favorable invasion opportunity because it had found out its legions of men and stupendous array of equipment were not as ready for the great event as it had thought.

Berlin made a wild guess, also, that "Gen. Eisenhower is waiting for fresh troops from America" before the go-ahead for the western assault.

"The Allied high command has allowed the past week—most favorable both from the point of view of tides and weather—go by because it has discovered flaws in armament and preparations of the invasion forces," proclaimed the German-controlled Brussels radio.

Allied authorities said they failed to see how a Berlin-announced meeting between Hitler and the Japanese ambassador to Berlin, Lt. Gen. Hiroshi Oshima, fitted into the invasion picture.

The meeting at Hitler's headquarters, with Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop present, was for consideration of "acute questions of German-Japanese collaboration," the German radio said.

It was hard to see how Japan, currently taking a military beating in the Pacific, could do much "collaborating."

Sunday passed without any special announcement from Berlin except that on the Hitler-Oshima meeting.

JUDGING SLATED. Sheep judging in the county livestock judging contests will be conducted at 9 a. m. Tuesday on the S. P. Lockhart ranch north of Gay Hill, with O. P. Griffin, county agent, in charge.

Van D. Sumrold, Jr., district performance supervisor of the AAA with headquarters at College Station, is spending Monday in Howard county checking performance practices on farms.

WESTWARD HO! Family Heads For Hollywood In Wagon. By OPAL DIXON. Westward bound in a covered wagon, Henry Strickland and his family face some of the same problems the pioneers faced in '49 but their mission is considerably different.

The family camped two days on a vacant lot on West Third street in Big Spring and left Monday morning for Hollywood—for the front door of Columbia motion picture studios.

One of the three Strickland children, 10-year-old Sistine, will report for a try-out for parts in western motion pictures.

The family left the Strickland ranch, four miles from the capital at Oklahoma City, April 22. Traveling only approximately 20 miles daily, they expect to arrive in Hollywood in about 90 days more.

Sistine, winner of approximately $1,000 in rodeo and fair prizes, gave a demonstration of her trick riding prowess to several dozen Big Spring residents who gathered on the vacant lot where the family had camped Sunday afternoon.

Riding across a rough lot and road rather than the smooth ground of an enclosed arena, Sistine almost lost her balance when she flung herself backward on the pony's back with one foot in the air and the pony jumped forward across a ditch.

"There aren't going to be any more shows like that," said her father. "I thought I had lost her when that pony jumped across the road."

Dewey Is Willing To Express Views On Platform Matters

By The Associated Press. To the long-standing fact that Governor Thomas E. Dewey has not come out for the republican presidential nomination was added today that news that he is willing to "express my views" on platform matters and is doing exactly "nothing" to discourage talk of his long pre-convention lead.

The new developments came in a press conference on the eve of the national conference of governors at Hershey, Pa., where the New Yorker told questioners that whether he would accept the nomination, if tendered, is "a hypothetical question."

The pre-convention delegate listings show that Dewey to date has at least 386 pledged and claimed delegate votes to 64 for Governor John W. Bricker of Ohio, his nearest rival.

The New Yorker also was asked by a soldier at Indian-town Gap, Pa., whether he would run for president in 1944 or 1948. His reply was, "I guess ness in winning the war quickly and might plunge us right into a violent controversy within our armed services, which must be avoided."

Hill told reporters that, acting on his own responsibility, he was proposing abolition, six months after the close of the war, of the war and navy departments and the establishment of a new, consolidated military set up under a "secretary of the armed forces."

In addition, Hill proposed the creation of an over-all military strategy, operations and supply board known as "the United States chiefs of staff," with a single chief of staff to be responsible to the president as commander-in-chief. Army, navy and air force commanders would make up this board.

He has filed suit against B. W. Smith, chairman of the Tom Green county democratic executive committee, and against Summers and Cecil Barnes, San Angelo, candidates, to have his name listed on the ticket.

Barnes said he would not oppose the inclusion of Taylor's name on the ballot and said he would "be willing for him to go ahead and have his chance."

Taylor contended in his suit, filed by Kerr and Gayer, San Angelo attorneys, in the 118th district court, that he had his announcement in the San Angelo newspaper together with a copy of the paper delivered to E. E. Murphy, until recently chairman of the county committee, should have constituted "evidence of fair intent" to make the race.

Summers has waived citation and has volunteered to testify in the hearing.

April Production Behind Schedule. WASHINGTON, May 29 (AP)—Chairman Donald M. Nelson of the War Production Board has disclosed that munitions production in April was 3 per cent behind schedule, and 2 per cent under the March quota.

Nelson said in a week-end report that the 1944 production has been cut from an original objective of $2,000,000,000 to "some-what less" than $69,000,000,000.

The WPB chief said, however, that most of the "must" items on the military schedule were well up on the production schedule.

Bid Accepted For Road Job. Bid of Hunter Strain of San Angelo for re-topping old paving and constructing several miles of new paving in Howard county was accepted at a meeting of county commissioners Monday morning.

Cost of the project will total approximately $22,906, including purchase of asphalt patch, paving material and labor and construction contract.

The contract covers 20.2 miles in all four precincts of the county, including approximately five and one-half miles of new paving. The contractor is to begin work about June 15 and complete the project in about 30 days.

Auto Tax Stamps To Go On Sale June 10. WASHINGTON, May 29 (AP)—The $5.00 automobile use tax stamps for the coming year will go on sale June 10 in postoffices and internal revenue collectors' offices.

These will cover the tax for the fiscal year beginning July 1, and must be displayed on windshields after that date.

San Angelo Girl Is Assaulted. SAN ANGELO, May 29 (AP)—Peggy Arnold, 20, telephone operator, was near death here today from injuries received in a beating late Saturday night. Preparations were made to give her a blood transfusion.

A negro soldier from Illinois, stationed at an airfield here, was held by military authorities.

Miss Arnold was beaten at a bus stop.

Military authorities said the suspect had served time in a Texas military prison several months ago for an assault on a negro girl here.

More Than 15,000 Prisoners Taken During Offensive

By SID FEDER. ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples, May 29 (AP)—Fifth army troops stormed toward four Rome-line strongholds against fierce resistance today, thrusting one wedge within 17 miles of the eternal city.

Headquarters declared three of 18 German divisions engaged in battle had been virtually destroyed in the broad offensive launched May 11, with more than 15,000 prisoners taken.

Overwhelming Aprilia, once bitterly-contested beachhead fortress, the Fifth punched north within a mile of Campoleone—the closest penetration toward Rome. To the east the Fifth army advanced within 2,000 yards of Valmontone, on the shell-torn Via Casilina, despite flame-throwing German counterattacks.

Steady artillery fire was pumped onto the Via Casilina, main escape route for eight German divisions being forced back on the front to the southeast.

In between on the Campoleone-Valmontone line, other forces fought in the outskirts of Velletri on the Appian Way, and closed upon Lanuvio, four miles southwest, where the Alban hills begin to rise from the Pontine plain.

"Despite several sharp German counterattacks, the Americans are advancing slowly in the direction of Rome," a battlefield dispatch from Associated Press Correspondent Edward Kennedy declared.

Meanwhile the Eighth army in the Liri and Cacco valleys to the southeast pushed ahead, breaking down German rearguard stands.

As the sound of the great battle rolled into Rome, the enemy in the mountains southeast of Valmontone was driven out of the towns of Sermoneta and Bassano, below Norma, which was overwhelmed yesterday. Snipers were active in the hills beyond this area and Fifth army patrols were mopping them up.

In its northward drive the Fifth army slashed across two of the bitterest battlegrounds of the beachhead fights of last February.

French forces meantime followed up their seizure of Villa Santo Stefano by taking off northward through the hills toward the Liri valley making only casual contact with the enemy and capturing Monte Siserno, 2,400 feet high.

On the heels of the capture yesterday of the important town of Ceprano on highway six and the Liri river, the Eighth army pushed west and north, throwing bridges rapidly across the Liri and Sacco rivers, where the enemy had blown up crossings.

Lt. Gen. Sir Oliver Leese's troops swept westward six miles from Ceprano to Pofi.

From the beachhead Fifth army troops met stubborn resistance every inch of the way in their drive to crack the Anzio-Albano highway, down which the Germans poured vicious attacks last February, and past the Aprilia highway, railroad and factory area, scene of much of the bloodiest fighting since the beachhead was established.

Carter Attacked By Irish Press. BELFAST, May 29 (AP)—The Irish Press, Eamon De Valera's newspaper, today attacked Amon Carter of Fort Worth, Tex., for an article it said appeared in his newspaper.

The Irish Press quoted the American publication as saying the people of southern Ireland still are fighting Cromwell, and that they also are fighting America and Americans. De Valera's paper said it is a shocking thing that a man in Carter's responsible position should expose himself to what the Irish Press described as "every cheapjack lie spoken about this country."

I don't have any control over that." Indiana republicans head the week's state activity, meeting in convention Friday to select 29 delegates expected to be unopposed, and also selecting nominees for a senator and governor. Maryland democrats in convention Friday will select 18 national convention delegates who state leaders say, will be instructed to vote for the fourth term if there is evidence President Roosevelt will accept the nomination.

Sen. Hill Strikes Trouble In Introducing Bill

WASHINGTON, May 29 (AP)—Plans of Senator Hill (D-Ala) to introduce legislation to merge the army, navy and air forces into a co-equal "department of armed forces" brought a cautionary note today from the chairman of a special-house committee on postwar military policy.

Asserting "such precipitant action would be most unfortunate," Rep. Woodrum (D-Va) said his committee shortly will make a report to the house on its "very interesting hearings" on proposals for unification, adding:

"A consolidation of the armed services undoubtedly offers food for thought and has possibilities. It would divert the attention of the high command of the army and navy from the important bus-

Nazi Propaganda Goes In For Swing

LONDON, May 29 (AP)—The Germans' invasion propaganda has gone in for swing music.

A new hour-long swing program entitled "D-Day Calling" was put on the air by the German radio last night, with the theme song "When D-Day Comes" played to the tune of "When Shadows Fall."

One section was directed especially to American troops by a master of ceremonies who said: "Howdy, Yanks. This is Fred W. Kallenback talking at you."

This was followed by a black-face skit which apparently was supposed to be funny but which hit a low in vulgarity. It was put on by two characters described as "Midge and Mitch."

Corniest feature of the evening was the sobbing by a male crooner of a rendition of "Poor Old Joe" to the tune of "Old Black Joe."

Rep. Summers Will Testify At Hearing

Rep. Burke Summers will testify in a hearing at San Angelo on June 6 that he not only has no objection to the name of R. E. Taylor, San Angelo livestock trader, being on the ballot but that he would desire to see it there.

Taylor, an avowed candidate for the office which Summers now holds and for which he is a candidate for re-election, was in South Texas at the time the May 15 filing deadline occurred and did not make direct application with any of the county democratic chairmen in the six counties of the district.

He has filed suit against B. W. Smith, chairman of the Tom Green county democratic executive committee, and against Summers and Cecil Barnes, San Angelo, candidates, to have his name listed on the ticket.

Barnes said he would not oppose the inclusion of Taylor's name on the ballot and said he would "be willing for him to go ahead and have his chance."

SS PLACES ITS FINGER FIRMLY ON RE-EMPLOYMENT QUESTION

By JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE WASHINGTON, May 29 (AP)— Selective Service has placed its finger very firmly on one of the most tender spots in the whole problem of re-employing war veterans.

Says SS in interpreting that section of the 1940 selective training and service act which protects job rights of returning veterans: "A veteran is entitled to reinstatement in his former position or one of like seniority, status and pay, even though such reinstatement necessitates the discharge of a non-veteran with greater seniority."

Settlement of cases like that will be painful for workers, bosses and unions. Some examples: A man over 38, too old for war but the father of children and for years a steady worker in the plant to which a non-married veteran returns. . . .

A man, kept out of military service for physical reasons when he volunteered and when the draft board called him. He didn't stay out of the war because he wanted to. . . .

Women who went into jobs with the understanding they would be permanent and built up seniority. . . .

Hundreds of thousands of negroes, satisfactorily employed now in factories and at jobs where negroes never were considered before. . . .

Under that 1940 act veterans are entitled to their old jobs back provided they ask for it within 60 days after their military discharge and provided the job they had was understood to be a permanent job.

So here are some things a boss should remember if he tries to stall off a veteran who fits the provisions outlined above:

The veteran is entitled to back pay for the time lost because of the boss' delay in rehiring him.

The U. S. district attorney, when he considers a veteran's claims just, will fight for him in the U. S. courts without charge, win or lose. But the boss who fights a case will have to pay his own attorney and, if he loses, court costs, too.

Additionally, he will be liable for that back pay for the veteran because of time lost in the court costs.

Any employer, seeking to show that a veteran before going into the service had waived re-employment rights, must be prepared to prove it.

An employer is not required to reinstate a veteran if his circumstances have so changed as to make it "unreasonable or impossible to do so." But what is "unreasonable or impossible?" SS says that must be decided by circumstances in each case.

The convenience of an employer, SS adds, must be distinguished from "impossible" or "unreasonable."

London Has Entertainment First With Eats Afterward

By HAL BOYLE LONDON, May 29 (AP)— This capital's transportation shortage—it mirrors Britain's manpower lack—has turned night life topsy turvy to Americans. For example, instead of dining and then going to a movie or play, they have entertainment first and eat afterward. This is because most plays start their evening performance at 6 to 6:30 and final showings of films begin at 7 to 7:30.

Even love won't induce an English girl to eat that early, so food comes later. If a couple should dawdle over supper after a show is over they find themselves caught in London's night-traffic bottleneck.

Few officers object to a moonlit stroll with a pretty girl through London's darkened streets. It is not the walk to her door they mind—it's that long shin-scraping hike home alone in British, one American—which are providing laughs in Allied circles in London.

The first concerns an English officer who became uncertain of his bearings while walking down Whitehall, an area containing many government buildings. Spying a nearby porter, he said: "Hi! say there, which side is the war office on?"

The porter looked him over and replied acidly: "Ours, I hope."

But the prize jest is the answer to the query, "what three things about Americans annoy the British most?" The answer is, "they are over-dressed, over-paid, and over here."

Don Whitehead of the Associated Press' invasion staff told this joke to a barber who laughed but said quickly, "That last one isn't true gov'nor. We are glad you Americans are over here."

He didn't deny the truth of the first two at all.

You won't see it in any official list of awards, but irrepressible headquarters officers have created a new decoration.

It is known as the "order of the purple bottom" and it will be unofficially granted to "any member of the chairborne troops who has spent at least 200 hours in the old swivel."

Looking into the lighter side of war, here are two stories—

MRS. CAN'T MRS. CAN

"They say canned food will be scarce next winter. I just don't know how we'll manage . . ."

"We'll have plenty to eat next winter—the foods we like, too. I'm canning!"

YES, MA'AM, YOU CAN!

ANYONE can can successfully. Oh, yes—if you use up-to-date methods and a little care.

And how glad you'll be next winter! With the help of your home-canned food, your family will eat and eat well, in spite of scarcities.

It's up to you! More millions of our men fighting overseas mean an even greater military call on our commercially canned food supply. In looking out for your own family you help our country to Victory.

For success, do these 3 things:

1. Preserve only sound, strictly fresh produce—the excess from your Victory Garden, and produce from local farms and market gardens.
2. Use only up-to-date scientific methods. Such information may be obtained by writing to your State College of Agriculture or to "Home Canning", U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. Or follow the methods taught at your local canning center (ask your school or newspaper if there's one in your community).
3. Use only proper equipment. If you haven't got it, or can't buy it, arrange to share someone else's canner . . . or use the facilities provided by your community canning center.

Busy Place— Every Wednesday one of the busiest spots in this part of the state is the Big Spring Livestock Commission company sales yard, seen in the panoramic view above. The sale is held in the big barn at the center, and stock brought in by farmers and ranchers is placed in the extensive pen space. The yards are located adjacent to the T.&P. track so that animals may be shipped by rail as well as by truck. An average of about 500 head of cattle goes through the sales ring here each Wednesday.

Flewellen Serves War Effort

V. H. (Vic) Flewellen has one of the best records of continuity in the oil distribution business here of any dealer, but today he is far prouder of the part his service is doing in the war program than of the more than 13 years in which he has been in business.

For most of those years, trucks from Flewellen Service have been making the rounds over the county leaving tractor fuel and lubricating oil. At the same time, drilling rigs and production units have been serviced by Flewellen trucks in the oil fields.

"Flew" always has been a stickler for good quality lubricating oil and by insisting on this policy has convinced many farmers they ought not to be satisfied with an inferior product. As a result, tractors serviced by his oils and his Cosden fuel are functioning today with less mechanical difficulties than many others. Similarly, good service has been given in the oilfields and if there are two more important fields of operation today than oil and food, then they have not yet come to public attention.

Flewellen qualifies as an "old timer" in Big Spring, he and Mrs. Flewellen having come here in 1914. With the exception of half a year out in 1918 the residence might be considered continuous. He sold out his interest in the P. & F. Grocery to his partner, J. B. Pickle, in the early 20's and spent an autumn in Brownfield, buying cotton, but he still maintained his residence here.

He was in the real estate and cotton business until the turn of the next decade when he became a retail and wholesale dealer for Cosden Petroleum Corp.

He has maintained the same connection since and is operating the same station which he built at W. 2nd and Scurry streets when he started out in business. Not long after Pearl Harbor, Flewellen closed his second station at E. 4th and Johnson due to manpower shortages and consolidated his operations. His products always have been Cosden gasoline, oils and Veedel, distributed by Cosden as well as services to ignition, batteries, lights, etc., as well as lubricating machines. The water shortage has changed service somewhat, Flew admits, for instead of washing cars, "we only wash them now," he says.

Pilot Knocks Out 3 Zeros In 90 Seconds

WASHINGTON, May 29 (AP)—It took Marine Captain John L. Morgan, of Arlington, Tex., just 90 seconds to knock out three Jap Zeros in a dogfight over Kahili in the Solomons.

The 22-year-old fighter pilot's exploit was revealed today with release of a presidential citation accompanying award of a Distinguished Flying Cross.

"His division intercepted a flight of approximately 50 Zeros and, in the ensuing violent action, Captain Morgan completely destroyed three Zeros within a period of 90 seconds," the citation read.

It also credited him with shooting down three other Jap aircraft, a bomber, a float biplane and a fighter, between June 18 and July 18, 1943, the period covered by the citation.

THE VICTORY VOLUNTEERS ARE ON THE WAY

Open your door and your heart to them

WHO IS THE VICTORY VOLUNTEER? He (or she) is someone in your locality—maybe a close neighbor or a friend—who has volunteered to work for the 5th War Loan Drive.

One of these volunteers may call at your home or place of work soon—on the most important mission of the hour! America has asked you before to do something extra to smash Hitler and Tojo. In this 5th War Loan Drive, you're asked to go all-out with every dollar you can scrape up—for war expenditures are greater now than any time since Pearl Harbor. Double your extra War Bond investments. Buy at least one extra Bond now. Invest $100, $200, $300, $400—more if you can.

Yes, it's that important. This war is mounting in fury every minute—as our fighting men plunge into the biggest and bloodiest battle of history. The men who fought and bled and died for you haven't hesitated. Only by answering "yes" to the Victory Volunteer—only by investing to the limit—can you come at all close to matching their spirit. For their sake—and for your own future—open your door and your heart!

5th WAR LOAN DRIVE Starts June 12th

JUNE 12TH. Remember the date. It is the start of the greatest "war call" ever sent to the American people. You will want to do your part. Remember, it may not be possible for a Victory Volunteer to reach every home, plant, and office. If it happens that you are missed during the drive, go to your nearest bank or Post Office or wherever they sell War Bonds. Buy all you can—at least one extra Bond—the biggest Bond you can afford. And then, when you think you've reached your limit—buy some more! Every dollar counts—NOW!

Will you be a VICTORY VOLUNTEER?

MANY patriotic men and women have already signed up to act as Victory Volunteers but more are needed. As a Victory Volunteer, you will serve your country in one of the most important missions ever given to civilians in wartime. Spend an hour or two a day in your own neighborhood. The task is important—the rewards great, for you will have the satisfaction of helping America toward Victory. For full details, without obligation, go to Bond Hdqrs. in Big Spring (Empire So. Service Co. office) 112 East 3rd St.

Double Or Nothing Wins For The New York Yankees

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

It seems to be double or nothing for the world champion New York Yankees whenever they play a doubleheader.

Manager Joe McCarthy's Bronx bombers have played four twin bills so far this season and have swept all of them. Their latest double success came yesterday at St. Louis where they whipped the Browns twice, 6 to 3 in 11 innings and 8 to 2 in a three-game lead in the American circuit.

Denny Galehouse, making his first start of the season as a weekend Brown pitcher, stayed on even terms with Hank Borowy for 10 innings in the opener, but Johnny Lindell's homer started a four-run Yankee uprising in the 11th. Rookie Joe Page outpitched Jack Kramer in the nightcap.

The St. Louis Cards, National league leaders, gained only a split with the Giants when newly-married Bill Voiselle hurled a three-hitter for the New Yorkers to take the nightcap, 3 to 1, before $2,104 paid at the Polo Grounds.

In the opener big Mort Cooper also twirled a three-hitter and fanned ten in blanking the Ottomen, 8-0.

Jim Tobin and Al Javery, of the Boston Braves, put an abrupt end to the seven-game winning streak of the Chicago Cubs. Their pitching, coupled with Butch Nieman's two homers and a triple, gave the Braves both ends of a twin bill, 7 to 3 and 7 to 4.

The Boston Red Sox made it six straight over the Chicago White Sox by pasting the Dykesmen twice, 8 to 4 and 4 to 2, hitting opportunely behind bases on balls and Chicago misplays. Joe Bowman and rookie Clem Hausman went the route for the Red Sox.

Brooklyn delighted a turnout of 28,061 at Ebbets Field by beating Cincinnati twice, 8 to 7 and 3 to 2. Angie Galan's eighth inning single won the opener. A one-baser by rookie Eddie Basinski with the bases full shattered a 1-1 deadlock in the nightcap.

Detroit managed to win its third of 16 home starts by pounding out a 15 to 2 triumph over Washington in the second game of a bargain bill. The Senators won the opener, 4 to 2, behind Johnny Niggeling's effective pitching. A first inning homer by Jimmy Outlaw with the bases loaded started the Tigers to an easy conquest in the afterpiece.

Rip Sewell pitched and batted Pittsburgh to a 4-0 victory over the Phillies, but Freddy Fitzsimons' men turned on Nick Strincovich to grab the nightcap, 8 to 2, for a split. Sewell tripped one run home to back up his sixth twirling.

Cleveland and Philadelphia Athletics also divided a doubleheader. Jess Flores was effective in the pinches to take the opener for the A's, 4 to 3. The Tribe took the second, 5 to 3, behind rookie pitcher Paul Calvert.

LOPER TAKES FIRST PLACE IN COSDEN BOWLING TOURNEY

J. C. Loper, Brownwood, captured first money in the first annual singles bowling sweepstakes sponsored during the weekend by Cosden Petroleum Corp.

Loper, a former Big Spring resident, topped a field of 60 entrants from 10 West Texas cities with a total of 1,481, or an average of little more than 185 points per game. The record was worth $150 to him.

Vick Langley, Amarillo, averaged little more than a point less per game than Loper in rolling 1,465 for second place and $50 in addition to a 21-jewel watch.

Third place went to Sgt. Ward R. Hall, Big Spring, who had 1,439. Behind him were two former professionals, Frank Benovic, exhibitionist for Brunswick, and Mike Polachek, Camp Barkeley soldier who used to be a curve ball specialist on the alleys. Benovic had 1,433 and Polachek 1,421.

Others on the top 20 finished in this order: Sgt. C. G. Smith, Big Spring, 1,418; Charles Edwards, Midland, 1,416; Bob Hibbs, Amarillo, 1,402; Sgt. W. E. Ramsey, Big Spring, 1,398; E. B. Shift winners (not among the 20) were Sgt. M. J. DeCarlo, Big Spring; Capt. Christen, Odessa; W. O. Shafer, Midland; Ted Dykes, Lubbock; and Russell Moore, Wichita Falls.

Governor Speaks At Memorial Service

DENISON, May 29 (AP)—A memorial service was addressed here at Memorial Christian church yesterday by Gov. Coke Stevenson who traced the origin of Memorial Day to the Civil war custom of southern women decorating the graves of the dead northern and southern soldiers.

The governor said southern men fought in the Civil war for state's rights and added that principle today inspired American boys on world battlefields.

Baseball Tourney Postponed Again

DALLAS, May 29 (AP)—State high school baseball tournament, rest for today, was postponed again—this time probably for good. Rain caused the meet to be called off by Director P. C. Cobb who said it would not be held unless the teams that came here for the tournament last week end want to return next week end.

One Armed Player Hits A Home Run

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 29 (AP)—One-armed Pete Gray, sensational playing outfielder with Memphis of the Southern Association, brought cheers from fans yesterday when he hit a home-run over the right field fence 330 feet away and 20 feet high.

The blow came in the ninth of the first game of a doubleheader here with one man on base, and helped Memphis beat Chattanooga, 10 to 2.

Gray also stole two bases during the game to give him the league lead with a total of 15.

Kings File Transfer To Navaro Company

EDINBURG, May 29 (AP)—Another major lease deal in the booming Los Indios district of northwestern Hidalgo county was recorded this week with the filing of a transfer covering 721 acres by the King family to the Navaro Oil company, which is rigging up for a wildcat test.

The lease document indicated payment of $15,000 for the acreage.

Lessors were Richard King of Edinburg, Mary King Estill, Gentry Estill, Minerva King Patch and Dorst Patch.

Navarro already holds several hundred acres at Los Indios, where one independent and two major firms already are at work.

Officers Will Play Tonight

Officers of the Big Spring Bombarrier school will meet an officers team from Goodfellow (San Angelo) Field at 9 p. m. today in a softball game under the city park lights.

The game will be the first between the two teams and the second for the newly organized officers contingent here. Lt. Dick Bradbeer, a master on the mound, will be pitching for the Big Spring team. The game is being played at the park so that the public may have an opportunity to witness it.

'Cold' Cash Taken

CLEVELAND (AP)—Morris Warchowski reported the theft of $300 in cold cash from the ice box of his delicatessen store. When Warchowski opened his establishment today he discovered an intruder had taken $300 in cash and $250 in checks, which he had stuck between a Swiss cheese and two bottles of ale. Not a slice of cheese or bottle was missing.

Track, Field Meet Slated At AAFBS

Plans are in the making for a general track and field meet on June 24 at the Big Spring Bombarrier School, one similar to the successful event staged around the July holiday season last year.

There will be competition in the 100, 200, 220 and 440-yard dashes, and 800 and mile runs, high jump, running broad jump, shot put, shuttle run, tug-o-war, and obstacle course. All these events will be open for enlisted men and cadets.

Officers will have a tug-o-war and a shuttle run section in the tournament.

Individual prizes will be awarded and there also will be awards for the high organization.

Red Rolfe Suggests—

College Baseball World Series

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 29 (AP)—If Red Rolfe, the ex-New York Yankee third sacker, has his way, there's going to be a college baseball world series.

"And why not?" argues the popular red-head, now coaching at Yale.

"The major leagues would cooperate and, since the games would be played in June after colleges close, there shouldn't be any reason for academic conflict."

Rolfe doesn't expect his idea will see fruition until after the war, of course, but the former big-leaguer who gave Yale one of its snappiest nines in modern athletic history last summer in his first crack at college coaching, says the groundwork could be laid now.

"We should have our plans formulated and ready, as soon as possible," suggests Red, "so that we can get going when the boys return to college from the war."

What Rolfe, veteran of six major league world series as a member of the Yanks, has in mind is a short series of regional eliminations, with the two survivors meeting for the title in a major league ball park. He would, for example, have the winner of the Pacific Coast conference meet the Missouri Valley champs; the Western conference titlists oppose the Eastern intercollegiate league victors; the Southwest battle the Southeast.

Here are the FACTS about your GASOLINE SUPPLY

Miracles of production for war have been accomplished by the oil industry. Supplies of crude and refinery output have exceeded all past records; our nation is producing more gasoline than all other countries combined. But the war machines need gasoline in fabulous quantities, and this has eaten into the usual civilian supply.

- ➔ From 1942 to 1944, military needs for gasoline stepped up almost four fold.
- ➔ In the same period, supply for civilian passenger cars has been cut almost one-half.
- ➔ Ratio of military demands to gasoline available for civilian use increased eight fold from 1942 to 1944.

Your Gasoline is Powering the Attack

It takes more than a ton of gas to "deliver" one ton of bombs.

Over half of the total of all supplies shipped to the front is petroleum in one form or another.

From 1942 to 1944, output of 100 Octane aviation gas tepped up eight times.

Training one pilot uses more gas than the average car owner uses in 18 years.

Rationing is not an Arbitrary Plan to Deprive anyone of Gas

Gasoline rationing is designed to make the limited supply go around. It is a plan for dividing available gas fairly among all users. Every irregularity, every black market deal upsets this plan. Every gallon that goes through improper or illegal channels means somebody must do without.

Here's Your Part . . .

Don't apply for more gas than you really need. . . . Get into a ride-sharing club and stick to it. . . . Endorse all your coupons now. . . . Don't take extra coupons from or offer them to anyone.

Opportunity For Citizens

Tuesday is Memorial Day, when we fittingly pause to honor all those who serve in the ranks in defense of the nation...

During the morning our flags will be at half mast as a reminder of those who fell in previous wars and those who are not coming back from this one.

No means of expression, and certainly not words, is sufficient for conveying our feelings as we stand humbled in the memory of our war dead.

Mortals treasure these opportunities and the thought of losing them hurts almost as much as the necessity of separation. But men who have taken of immortality perhaps look back on it with a much clearer perspective...

Here, perhaps, we are on more solid ground, for while it is impossible to adequately reverse the memory of our dead heroes, it is possible by unselfish and patriotic citizenship to maintain a land of freedom and opportunity...

Capital Comment—Congressmen Can't Presume On Fellows

WASHINGTON (Sp)—Cong. Ed Gossett, of Wichita Falls, was called to Texas because of a death in his family. This necessitated his being away from Washington when the House voted on the G.I. Veterans' Bill of Rights.

Cong. Bob Poage, of Waco, got unanimous consent to proceed for one minute, apparently to announce how his colleague would have voted had he been present.

"May the chair say it is a violation of the rules of the House for any member to announce how another member will vote if he were here," declared Speaker Sam Rayburn.

One of these days the greatest invasion in history will be underway. Hundreds of thousands of men—our sons, husbands, fathers—will be converging on Berlin. Since we over here "cannot see the blood," Cong. Wright Patman fears "many of us may have an inclination to be complacent," even while the casualty lists are mounting.

Cong. Milton West, of Brownsville, piloted through Congress a bill calculated to improve American relations with Canada and Mexico. The bill will relieve the Mexican and Canadian governments from paying United States customs inspectors for overtime.

The War Today

by Dewitt Mackenzie Associated Press War Analyst

German held Valmontone, astride the great Casilina highway twenty miles southeast of Rome, was the outstanding strategic prize for which a furious battle was being fought today.

Nazi retention of Valmontone was a matter of death or capture for a host of their badly mauled troops which are falling back towards the eternal city from the shattered Adolf Hitler line.

But possession of Valmontone meant even more than that. Its loss by the Hitlerites would be a heavy blow to their defense of Rome—if indeed they intend to defend it to the last.

No wonder then that as dawn broke over the battlefield the Germans were counterattacking furiously from Valmontone with flame throwers in an effort to hold open this route for their comrades, and that Fifth Army beachhead troops were driving straight through this hellish assault until they were close to the outskirts of the town.

Via Casilina isn't, however, the only avenue of escape for Nazi Field Marshal Kesselring's retreating troops. About 25 miles along this highway to the southeast lies the strategic town of Frosinone and from there another highway, and also a railroad, run a bit northward and then turn towards Rome above Via Casilina.

Thus the wily Kesselring won't be cut off even if he loses Via Casilina. However, that is his chief avenue for withdrawal not only of troops but of mountains of equipment. So while he may be able to save many of his soldiers, he already has lost heavily through death and capture, and his losses in material already are grave.

ences between the pay of customs officers and employees performing inspectional work and the pay of other federal employees doing comparable work under comparable circumstances...

Under a recent decision of the U. S. Supreme Court it was held that the owners of those facilities had to pay the overtime of the customs inspectors.

"In many instances the Canadian government owns a half interest in the bridges. In one instance at least the Mexican government owns a half interest in a bridge. That means that we are assessing the Canadian government as well as the Mexican government for the payment of our employees. They furnish those facilities, or that inspection, free of cost to the United States.

"If this bill is not passed, I believe that those foreign governments in turn will levy an assessment against us, the American people, to pay their employees. The state department is very much interested in this bill, because it is causing a very bad reaction in both Canada and Mexico. As I understand, the treasury is likewise interested in the passage of the bill."

The bill also asks the bridge director to investigate the subject within 90 days and to recommend to Congress concerning differences between the pay of customs officers and employees performing inspectional work and the pay of other federal employees doing comparable work under comparable circumstances...

Sue To The Rescue

PUEBLO, Colo., (Sp)—Carolyn Sue Oliver, 9, slammed the door and locked in a man she found rummaging in a shed at her home. The man protested, pleaded, threatened to call the cops.

"How can you call the cops when you're already locked in?" asked Carolyn Sue reasonably.

When her parents returned from their walk, they hastily released the junk dealer they had called earlier to pick up some salvage.

There's a rumor now that a petition may be circulated to draft Dies, despite his declaration that a throat ailment will keep him out of the race. There's another that a petition is being circulated to perpetuate the "Dies committee" with whatever personnel it has left plus new appointments.

A third possibility is that the Republicans will have a majority in the 79th Congress, and will make quite a noise about abolishing the Dies committee altogether.

There is however one school of thought here which argues that the defeat of Rep. Joe Starnes in the Alabama primaries indicates that the Dies committee is marked for the discard. He was the No. 2 man on the committee. It's no secret that he had the opposition of organized labor. Starnes comes from an industrial district in Alabama (centered on Gadsden) which has had a considerable influx of union labor since the war.

Some observers feel that Dies' foes won a signal victory in Alabama and were marshalling their forces to duplicate that victory in the second district of Texas.

On the other hand, friends of Dies here say his throat ailment is critical and will demand an operation from which it will be impossible for him to recover in time to enter actively into the campaign—and that is his sole reason for withdrawal.

Nevertheless, the defeat of the Dies committee's No. 2 man and the withdrawal of its chairman leave the committee in pretty sad state. If it were continued in its present form there would only be six "veterans" and only three of these would have been on more than two years (providing of course all these men are re-elected). Its chairman would be Rep. Wirt Courtney, Dem., Tenn., erudite 55-year-old lawyer, a three-termer in the House but a comparative newcomer to the embattled Dies committee.

The Timid Soul

Hollywood—Quickest Way To Success Is Longest

By JENNIFER JONES (The star of "Since You Went Away" and Academy Award winner for her performance in "The Song of Bernadette" writes today for Roblna Coons. This is the first of a series by award winners.)

HOLLYWOOD—When young girls write to actresses for advice about the best way to achieve their own acting ambitions, they mean: "What is the quickest way to become famous?"

At least, that was what I meant, aged 17, when I found the courage to write Katharine Cornell. I had never met her even seen her, but she answered my letter. She urged me to go to college before I went to dramatic school.

I had hoped she would say: "You can't start studying dramatics too soon." But my father and mother convinced me it was sound advice, and off to college I went. After a year I persuaded them I should wait no longer for dramatic school. In my impatience, I threw Katharine Cornell's counsel to the winds.

Now other young girls are writing to me, with the same questions, and I have to admit that I am not so sure of the formula as I was at 17. I am not even sure now that there is a formula.

There seems to be a popular belief that Jennifer Jones became an actress overnight—with "Bernadette." I can understand why people like to believe the story. It's one that makes it easier for them to dream. Unfortunately, it isn't true. It took me six years to become an actress, and I still have to pinch myself occasionally to make sure that I really did survive the struggle, and that I did have the luck to be in the right place at the right time when the right role came along.

The only way I know of becoming an actress is to work hard and everlastingly. It takes more than a presentable appearance, or a flair for mimicry, or a firm belief among relatives and friends that "you ought to be in the movies." It takes more than the money to go to dramatic school, or the funds to lay siege to Hollywood or Broadway. It takes more than introductions to influential people.

I had all those, five years ago—and they weren't enough. Hollywood didn't want me, and neither did Broadway.

Someone once said to me: "There's only one way to become an actress, and that is—never give up trying to be one." I've never forgotten the advice. I'm still trying to follow it. And I don't know of any better advice to give anyone who wants to be an actress.

Washington In Wartime—What Happens To Dies Committee Now?

By JACK STINNETT WASHINGTON—If you are a betting man, don't give any odds that the withdrawal of Martin Dies from the second congressional district race in Texas will end the "Dies committee."

The "Special Committee to Investigate Un-American Activities"—that's its official title—was set up in May, 1938. No special committee in Congress has received so much attention since that time. Even the major permanent committees have to take a back seat occasionally but there have been five weeks in six years when the "Dies committee" wasn't in the headlines.

You may or may not like Congress, Dies and his committee, but there are many members of the House who would trade their obscurity for the limelight that Martin Dies has had, even if the spotlight frequently drew as many eggs as roses.

There's a rumor now that a petition may be circulated to draft Dies, despite his declaration that a throat ailment will keep him out of the race. There's another that a petition is being circulated to perpetuate the "Dies committee" with whatever personnel it has left plus new appointments.

A third possibility is that the Republicans will have a majority in the 79th Congress, and will make quite a noise about abolishing the Dies committee altogether.

Today And Tomorrow Consolidate Victory Alliance

By WALTER LIPPMANN

Before he talked about the world organization, Mr. Churchill talked about Germany. And before he talked about Germany, he talked about the Soviet Union and France and Poland. The order in which he took up these subjects is a promise that this time we are "scarred and armed with experience," and shall not make the same mistakes as in 1919.

For then the order of business was, first, to dissolve the grand alliance which had won the war, and then to treat the settlement with Germany as relatively unimportant, and then to place upon the newly formed league the burden of organizing and maintaining an unsettled peace.

This time, as Mr. Churchill's speech indicates, the order of business is to consolidate the victorious alliance, then to have it take measures to prevent Germany from renewing the war, and on this firm foundation to organize the new world order.

The difference between these two ways of settling the war is the difference between experience and inexperience.

The problem of peace in the Western World will not forever be the problem of Germany. But since about 1900 it has been the problem of Germany and unconditional surrender will not in itself solve the German problem. That will take at least another generation—at least until this generation of Nazis and pan-German militarists has passed away and there is a new generation of Germans who have been reared in a Europe where the renewal of German aggression is to them inconceivable.

The renewal of aggression will not be impracticable, and therefore inconceivable, if they see about them only another League of Nations in which the principal powers are the non-European states of Britain, Russia and America. These three are the indispensable guarantors. But they cannot make their guaranty truly effective unless the immediate neighbors of Germany are strong and willing supporters and enforcers of the settlement. For this reason a complete understanding with liberated France and with restored Poland is essential. If Germany's two nearest neighbors are weak, divided, and are disaffected from Britain or Russia or America, the ground will be prepared upon which the Nazi and pan-German underground can maneuver and plot to disrupt the settlement and to restore German power.

The new world organization is not a substitute for a settlement with Germany, arranged so that the nations of Europe will enforce it with the backing of the great non-European powers. The Anglo-American armies have to invade France in order to defeat Germany; the Soviet armies have to invade Poland. To make the settlement with Germany effective the three great powers must see to it that France and Poland do not have to be liberated again. For that they must be strong in their own right and sure of reinforcements if they are threatened.

This is the only solid foundation of European security in the coming generation during which, we must assume, Germany will accept the settlement only if there is no alternative. The new league must be erected upon this foundation. It cannot be, as many imagined in 1919, a substitute for a firm, coherent, enforceable settlement with Germany.

American thinking tends in these matters to swing between two extremes: either we want no world organization or we want one which does everything. Among many of us idealistic universalism is a sentimentally inverted form of isolationism: the league is all or nothing.

But in fact the new league is bound to be, until it is well proved and tested in long practice, an experiment which, if it works well, can supplement, reinforce and re-enforce the settlement of the war and concrete agreements among nations specifically concerned with the terms of settlement.

If the settlement with the enemy is not well conceived and firmly organized by the enforcing powers, no new league is likely to work any better than the old one. Mr. Churchill's address makes it evident that this is his view and, since in all great matters he is so careful not to play a lone hand, we may be certain that this is now the view of the grand alliance as a whole.

Officers Sweep Double Header Bill To Wind Up 4 Game Series

Winding up a four game series with the Cadets of 44-10, the Officers of the Bombardier school swept a double-header bill Sunday afternoon with respective scores of 10 to 0 and 1 to 0.

Lt. Dick Bradbeer started on the mound for the Officers in the first game and twirled no-hit ball for three innings, when he was replaced by Lt. Dave Lillard who allowed only two hits the remaining five frames to complete the shutout. Lillard went the route in the second engagement of eight innings allowing four well scattered hits.

Tonight the local Officers hope to continue their winning streak when they tangle with the Goodfellow Field Officers of San Angeles, who will fly to Big Spring for the tilt under the lights at 8:30 at the city park.

Starting pitchers for tonight will be Lt. Bradbeer with Lt. Ned Humphreys receiving. At first Lt.
C. W. Kobler will resume his duties after a period in the hospital with a bad foot.

from Missouri to Oklahoma 22 years ago. It contains many of the conveniences of a modern trailer-house, including beds, storage space and chuck box.

"I was raised up in a covered wagon, never lived in anything else until I was 18, so I don't feel like traveling any other way," he said. The leisurely trip by wagon gives him plenty of opportunity for rest and he already feels much better, he said.

He has to consider the horses, since he has only one team, and gives them plenty of rest after each day's travel. One of the major problems of the trip is that of providing water for the trip across the desert. Strickland isn't sure how much water would be needed for crossing the desert at the rate of 20 miles a day. He has attached two barrels to the side of the wagon, and intends to stay on the bus route so he can go for help if a water shortage arises.

Strickland exhibited pictures of Sistine which appeared in newspapers during the last nine years. When only 13 months old, Sistine rode in a specially made saddle on a small Indian pony in the Oklahoma State fair and later was pictured in a newspaper with her ribbons. Over the years, her mother has saved rodeo programs, clippings and other souvenirs of Sistine's riding.

Sistine's riding feats include that of whirling around the saddle horn five times while her pony is running, standing up on the saddle, lying down while the pony is running, and putting her foot in a stirrup and flinging herself backward with her right foot in the air.

Tanned, with wide blue eyes and long-braided hair, Sistine wears trousers and a shirt on the trip and rides her pony alongside the covered wagon much of the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Strickland have two other children, Henry, 3, who already can ride, and Jackie, 20 months.

Medicine's Golden Decade—

New Weapons Fight In The Pestholes Of War

By SCHUYLER ALLMAN
AP Features Writer

Wars have a way of getting themselves waged in the pestholes of the world, and so medicine began to arm when World War II thundered near.

When the Japanese captured the source of the world's quinine supply in the East Indies, experimenters counter-attacked with a mass-produced synthetic—atabrine—in some respects as good as quinine.

LAST OF A SERIES

Body Destroys Parasites
Neither kills the sinister parasites which enter the blood stream when the Anopheles mosquito bites. They control the attack until the body itself rallies to destroy the invader.

Recently two chemists, Dr. Robert B. Woodward of Harvard and Dr. William E. Doering of Columbia, made quinine synthetically but it is uncertain whether it can yet be made on a large scale.

Bacillary dysentery is so firmly checked by the sulfas, particularly sulfaguanidine, that this old enemy is no longer the menace it was in World War I.

Vaccines have been developed for yellow fever, typhus, cholera, plague and tetanus, and entire armies are dosed with them.

Nor has medicine eased its endless campaign against the carriers of disease. The mosquito, flea and body louse have been attacked by repellents and insecticides, including an insect bomb that sprays insecticide and clears whole areas of mosquitoes.

DDT Bites Lice

The lice that carry typhus were badly beaten when they launched an epidemic in Italy.

An insecticide as formidable as its name—dichloro-diphenyl-trichloro-ethane—smote lice with terrible suddenness and there were no reports of typhus in the American army in Italy.

Called "DDT" for short, this insecticide proved so harmless that the Army issued it in powder form to be dusted on clothing.

IN UNIFORM

Pvt. Archie E. Ivey, Big Spring, is attending a specialist course in auto mechanics at the anti-aircraft artillery school at Camp Davis, N. C. In civilian life he had been a mechanic.

Lt. Joe L. Butts has taken up new duties at Randolph Field after his transfer from Lemoore, Calif., where he served as a basic instructor. He is the son of Mrs. Violet Butts, 902 Douglas street.

From Lemoore, Calif. (AAF) writes A/C Ralph E. (Peppy) Blount, Jr., that the Big Spring water situation could have been solved in one afternoon if we had gotten the shower which fell at Lemoore. Peppy added that he was enjoying reading his copies of The Herald, this "being the nearest thing to being home."

Here 'n There

Cpl. Tommie Sullivan of the army air base at Clovis, N. M., spent the week-end visiting his mother, Mrs. Ophelia Sullivan, and sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ballard.

The twelve hundred block of Wood street was well represented in the local hospitals today as Jimmy Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jones, and John Edwin and Dick Fort, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fort, all underwent tonsilectomies. Dick was also treated for an injured arm, which he fractured Sunday while at play.

T. E. Martin, formerly of Big Spring and now with the US Railway Mission to Mexico, has been assigned to Nuevo Laredo for several weeks, which permits him to put up across the border in the U.S. "There is no place on God's earth like our country," he said, although he has found his work in Mexico pleasant. He has checked shops at Nonalco, San Luis Potosi, Aguas Calientes, Monterrey and at Nuevo Laredo.

City police were making investigations Monday of two reported thefts in which Mrs. Tom Rossion lost a purse at 108 Lincoln containing ration books and Vivian Rice lost a diamond ring from a downtown apartment building.

Highway patrolmen checked a car smash up six miles north of here Sunday afternoon in which only property damage resulted. The mishap occurred when one car attempted to pass another as it started to negotiate a right hand turn.

Perhaps the show wasn't lively as it might have been. At any rate, police made a run to a local theatre at 1:20 a. m. Sunday to free a man who had fallen asleep in it.

Woman Is Charged With Homicide In Death Of Six Men

NEW YORK, May 29 (AP)—Mrs. Sophie Krusinas, 31, was held without bail today on a charge of homicide following the death of six men in Brooklyn who drank what police believe was poison liquor.

The wife of a candy store proprietor and mother of a five-year-old boy was arraigned before Magistrate Charles Solomon in Brooklyn felony court yesterday.

Victor Filipkowski, 58, was found dead yesterday as the latest victim after five men died Saturday. A bottle of liquor found near his body was sent to the city toxicologists for analysis.

Police said Mrs. Krusinas admitted selling 15 bottles of an alcoholic drink since last Tuesday and reported they had found a 15-gallon tank of denatured alcohol as well as 30 gallons in bottles at the Krusinas home.

Cubans To Ballot On New President June 1

HAVANA, May 27 (AP)—More than 2,000,000 Cuban voters will select a president and other public officials in general elections June 1 that may reflect the popularity of General Fulgencio Batista after four years as president and a decade as strong man of the nation.

The president has declared himself and the country's armed forces neutral in the election, but all four government parties are supporting his close friend and collaborator, Carlos Saladrigas, for the presidency.

Cotton Acreage To Reach Average

Indications are that the cotton acreage in Howard county will reach approximately the normal of the last five years, O. P. Griffin, county agent, said.

Some farmers will not plant cotton because of lateness of the season and problem in obtaining hoe hands. Some are expected to plant greater acreage, however.

Planting was underway Monday in some sections of the county. Griffin estimated approximately half of the farm acreage received only light rains last week and that farmers are rushing to get seed in the ground before the land dries. In some sections, where as much as one and one-half inches were received, farmers will wait several days before planting.

Wednesday Deadline For Paving Accounts Without Interest

Persons owing the city paving accounts have through Wednesday evening to liquidate these without interest.

In some cases interest on these accounts, which extend back for well over five years, has amounted to nearly a third of the principal.

Of $11,000 outstanding, the city has collected approximately $5,000.

Paving payments received after Wednesday evening (they may be postmarked until midnight Wednesday) will draw accumulated interest according to a city commission ruling in extending the interest-free period one month to May 31.

City Will Let Contract Today

The City of Big Spring was ready Monday to let the first of a series of contracts which will approximate $500,000 and which are conceived as the answer to a critical water shortage.

To be let at 8 p. m. was the contract for development of eight water wells in an area in north-eastern Glasscock county near the Sterling county line. One bidder had turned in his proposal at noon and several others were expected during the afternoon.

On June 7 the second unit of the contracts will be up for letting and others will follow rapidly.

Except for the fact that rain gave yards and the area in general enough seasoning to be of benefit, there was no appreciable change in the city's water situation.

Saturday evening showers were purely local for they did not go beyond the western outskirts of town nor did they extend to the city lakesheds. Light showers were reported over the area Sunday, but none was in the vicinity of the lakes.

Munitions Production Declines In April

WASHINGTON, May 27 (AP)—Munitions production in April dropped 3 per cent behind schedule and 2 per cent under March.

The War Production Board, reporting this production, described the slump as "a definite lag behind the rising schedule which was planned from March until November", and not a continuation of the planned decline in January and February.

Chairman Donald M. Nelson revealed for the first time that the production goal for 1944 has been cut to "somewhat less than $69,000,000,000" from the original objective of $82,000,000,000.

Brightest aspect of the report was Nelson's announcement that most of the "must" items were well ahead of schedule.

Solons Propose To Abolish Poll Tax

WASHINGTON, May 29 (AP)—The senate judiciary committee voted 10 to 7 today to refer to a subcommittee a proposed constitutional amendment to abolish state poll taxes as a requirement for voting.

Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the republican whip, told reporters he sought to have the amendment, sponsored by 36 of the party's 37 senate members, sent to the senate for immediate action.

But, Wherry said, Senator McFarland (D-Ariz.) offered a substitute motion to send the proposal to a subcommittee for hearings.

Among those voting to send it to committee, Wherry said, was Connally, Texas.

Forty Thousand Idle In Strikes

By The Associated Press
About 40,000 of the nation's industrial workers remained away from their jobs yesterday, (Saturday), although three labor controversies were apparently settled in the middle west.

In the Pacific northwest approximately 30,000 workers in the lumber and sawmill industry were still idle after protest walk-outs last week.

In the Washington, D. C., region 100 drivers of the Pennsylvania Greyhound bus lines walked off their jobs yesterday in sympathy strike.

In Detroit many families were on voluntary bread rationing because of shortages in stores as a result of the fourth day.

Meanwhile picket lines at the Chrysler corporation's Highland park plant blocked 2,000 employees from the factory, despite a warning by R. J. Thomas, international president of the United Automobile Workers (CIO), that "public opinion has become inflamed against our union."

Troops Penetrate Into Main Base

SOUTHEAST ASIA HEADQUARTERS, KANDY, Ceylon, May 29 (AP)—American and Chinese troops have penetrated deeper into the main Japanese north Burma base of Myitkyina but some 35 miles to the west near the town of Mogaung British Chindits have withdrawn from their positions astride the enemy's communication line from the south, it was announced today.

The Chindits had held a position southwest of Mogaung since last March, blocking the Mandalay-Myitkyina railway. A southeast Asia command communiqué said that they had retired after five days of heavy fighting with reinforced Japanese units. These airborne troops have been operating behind the Japanese 18th division which faces the Chinese in the Mogaung valley.
