HENRY WALLACE IS ON A COMEBACK

Harry S. Truman Gains Support In Demo Battle

CHICAGO STADIUM, July 20 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace, regarded by many as all but counted out only 24 hours ago, hit the comeback trail in his fight for the renomination today while Senator Harry S. Truman, his leading rival, gained the open support of one of President Roosevelt's cabinet.

Postmaster General Frank Walker told reporters, "I'm for Truman."

Wallace's backers were cheered by addition of 16 Kansas votes to his column.

Kansas, its 16 convention votes previously unpledged, caucused and balloted unanimously in favor of the toutsed Iowan—possibly indicating a new trend among some of the previously uncommitted delegations. Backers of Senator Harry Truman of Missouri, however, conceded nothing—many predicting his nomination over Wallace on the first or second ballot.

Truman himself told reporters, however, "I'm not campaigning for anything." Asked if he had talked to President Roosevelt, he replied "No."

With 684 1-2 votes still unpledged and unclaimed, Wallace had 154 1-2 votes claimed and 165 pledged outright—total of 319 1-2. Truman had only Missouri's 22 pledged outright, with 589 needed to nominate, but apparently had been promised support from big city organizations.

As the convention prepared to renominate President Roosevelt and hear his acceptance by radio, tonight, the lines for the Wallace-

WALLACE ARRIVES IN CONVENTION CITY. Vice President Henry A. Wallace smiles and waves as he starts out in a cab for his hotel headquarters after leaving his train at a South Side station at Chicago. He came to take personal charge of his campaign for renomination by the Democratic national convention.

Truman struggle were drawn by party leaders. These were headed by National Chairman Robert E. Hannegan, vigorously backing his 60-year-old fellow Missourian.

Meantime, it was announced that the name of Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia would be placed in nomination for the presidency by Mrs. Fred T. Mooney of Jacksonville, Fla.

Mississippi caucused and voted to cast its 20 votes for former Gov. Sam Jones of Louisiana for vice president. Senator James O. Eastland predicted Mississippi's votes would be switched to Truman whenever it becomes apparent Sam Jones cannot win.

North Dakota caucused and voted to give its eight votes to Wallace.

Chairman Hannegan said it was possible the convention would reach a vote on the vice presidential choice tonight, but believed it more likely the balloting for second place would go over until tomorrow.

Wallace got some unexpected help from Secretary of Interior Harold Ickes, who was reported reliably to have sent the president a telegram declaring that Mr. Roosevelt had made a "mistake" in naming Truman as a second choice.

Wallace told reporters crowding around the cornstalk high lounge standard:

"All I know is that there is strong evidence of a fine liberal"

Allies Pursue Nazis Retreating To Gothic Line

Last Captured Town Around Ten Miles Southeast Of Pisa

ROME, July 20 (AP)—American troops, reaching the south banks of the lower Arno river on a 25-mile front in hot pursuit of the Germans fleeing to their Gothic line defenses beyond the river, have captured Colle Salvetti, seven miles northeast of Allied-held Livorno, Allied headquarters announced today.

The latest town to fall to the Americans, fanning out against decreasing Nazi resistance, is about 10 miles southeast of Pisa, on a highway leading directly to that important enemy anchor position.

German opposition was confined largely to sniping parties armed with automatic weapons as United States forces seized the last high ground held by the Germans south of the Arno river, and laid down artillery fire which left the enemy without any alternative than retreat.

At the other end of the front Polish and Italian units pushed on from the west coast port of Ancona and cut the coastal road at Torrette a Mare, nearly three miles west of the city. Another column, with armor, sped along the inland route in the Adriatic sector and established a bridgehead over the Esino river, 10 miles west of Ancona and south of Chiaravalle.

The enemy left much valuable equipment in the Ancona sector. Torrential rains impeded movements on the entire battlefield, but both the Fifth and Eighth armies made steady progress.

Remnants of the enemy rear-guard were being mopped up south of the Arno river in the Fifth army's central sector and an enemy patrol was driven back from Postedera.

The Eighth army's progress in the rough center overran Radda, 12 miles north of Siena. Another advance carried to Castiglion, six miles northwest of Arezzo and north of the upper Arno.

With Allied armies closing toward the Gothic line, Allied warplanes despite bad weather, continued their methodical destruction of Po valley communications, attempting to isolate eventually the divisions in the line. They flew 1,400 sorties, bombing oil stores at Trieste and Fiume.

Texans Among Those Missing After Blast

PORT CHICAGO, Calif., July 20 (AP)—The death toll of the explosion of two ammunition-laden ships here Monday night stood at 322 today with a Navy announcement of 213 names of men known to be dead or missing.

In addition to the Navy list issued last night known dead or missing included 69 merchant sailors, 31 members of armed guard crews aboard the vessels, five coastguardsmen and four civilians caught in the blast.

A special court of inquiry will be convened by the Navy tomorrow to consider all phases of the catastrophe, the 12th naval district has announced.

Among naval personnel listed as missing and presumably dead, were the following Texans, all enlisted men:

- Beason, Raphael Orval, S 2/C; wife, Juanita Beason, route 7, box 136, Palestine.
- Brewer, Alvin Jr., W 2/C; mother, Clara Brewer, 216 Midland ave., Tyler.
- Ebenezzer, Arthur Lee, S 2/C; mother, Bertha Ebenezzer, gen. del., Naacogoches.
- Johnson, Gabe, S 1/C; wife, Fanny Johnson, Royce City.
- Jackson, D. C., S 2/C; wife, Clara Ollie Jackson, 815 West Sixth st., Texarkana.
- Lyons, Robert, S 1/C; mother, Winnie Nash, 1165 Lamar st., Beaumont.

ARKANSAS DEMOS FOR F.D.R. CHICAGO, July 20 (AP)—Arkansas delegates to the democratic convention decided today to cast all their 20 votes for renomination of President Roosevelt. They deferred a decision on vice president.

Seven Fronts Blaze With Russian Fury

British Approach Vimont

Fighting Rages On Ten Mile Front Near Caen

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, July 20 (AP)—Strong British armored formations under the command of a man who once was Marshal Erwin Rommel's prisoner have captured 12 towns and now are approaching Vimont, eight miles southeast of Caen on the road to Paris, supreme headquarters announced today.

Just short of Vimont the armored drive led by Lt. Gen. Sir Richard Nugent O'Connor—who was captured in the African desert in 1941 but escaped from an Italian prison camp—jabbed into battered German positions after carving out a four-mile wide spearhead south from the vicinity of Troarn, east of Caen.

Comparative quiet was registered on the American front except for local advances between St. Lo and Periers which took three villages, the supreme command announced.

Fighting raged on a bulging 10-mile front from southwest of Caen across to the vicinity of Troarn as the British drove remnants of five and a half enemy divisions back toward Paris and the Seine.

While British armor slugged into German anti-tank screens on the east, Canadians driving straight south from Caen swept through several villages, including Iffs and Cormelles, and at last reports were battling German units in Bournebus, five miles below Caen. This advance secured the river docks at Caen for unrestricted use of the Allies.

Heavy armored battles were ranging from a considerable distance south of these villages in an arc to Troarn, eight miles to the east and north. Clashes also occurred between the Odon and Orne rivers and on the road southwest to Villers-Bocage. The Germans still held Noyers on the Villers-Bocage road, but the British advanced on the west.

Lawyer, Wife Are Found Dead

DALLAS, July 20 (AP)—Robert L. Hurt, 54, former Dallas county district attorney, and his wife, 40, were found, shot to death, on a bed in their apartment here today.

A pistol was clutched in Mrs. Hurt's hand. Mrs. M. F. Sullivan of Oklahoma, who was visiting her daughter in an apartment across the hall, told reporters she was awakened about daybreak by what she thought was three shots.

She said that the daughter, Miss Rachael Sullivan, also heard the shots, but that they agreed it must have been an automobile backfiring.

Ed Hurt, brother and law partner of the dead attorney, said he was notified that something had happened in the apartment by an anonymous telephone call from a woman as he was at his office about 8:30 a. m.

Hurt, a native of Dallas county, was a grandson of the late James Mann Hurt, chief justice of the Texas supreme court for 23 years.

CHICAGO, July 20 (AP)—The Texas regular delegation stubbornly refused to join in the demonstration for President Roosevelt at the national convention last night and battled successfully to keep its standard out of the parade.

For a few minutes the battle—wholly within the regular delegation—gave the assembly a mild sample of the sort of brawls that sometimes enliven conventions back home.

No blood was shed and no blows were struck but there were considerable scrambling, pushing and shoving and finally a half dozen big Chicago cops quietly stepped in to clear the aisles and calm the air.

CHICAGO, July 20 (AP)—The democratic convention fast approached a climax today, but the Texas representation remained in a high state of confusion.

Delegates from both the "rump" and "regular" delegations were uncertain shortly before the second day's session began which group would cast the state's 48 convention votes, even though the odds were on the anti-fourth term regulars.

Skies Over Germany Are Blackened By Bombers

LONDON, July 20 (AP)—In great, coordinated attacks on Germany for the third straight day, 2,000 British based American planes bombed a profusion of oil and airplane plants around Leipzig and another fleet from Italy pummeled airfields in the Munich and Friedrichshafen areas today.

The skies of central Germany were blackened by more than 1,200 Flying Fortresses and Liberators and up to 750 fighters. An armada of like strength leveled objectives around Munich and Saarbrücken

Red Air Force Out In Strength Never Equalled

By DANIEL DE LUCE MOSCOW, July 20 (AP)—The German radio showed signs of breaking in the hotly contested battleground west of the Niemen river before East Prussia today as seven fronts flamed in battle.

(The German radio said Russian troops had reached Augustow, at the base of the Suwalki triangle which was annexed to East Prussia out of Polish territory in 1939. The town is eight miles from the pre-1939 frontier of East Prussia.)

The string of German-held cities of Lwow, Brest Litovsk, Bialystok, Kaunas and Danzavilla was tottering, with the Russians fighting to the outskirts of Lwow in southern Poland and possibly in the suburbs of Brest Litovsk in northern Poland.

In the newest of their power-packed offensives near the Latvian republic's northeast corner, Gen. Ivan Maslennikov's Third Baltic army crossed the Vellika river south of Ostrov and made swift progress toward middle Latvia, the frontier only nine miles away.

The Soviet air force was out in a strength never before equaled, giving sure cover for masses of tanks, cavalry and infantry which swarmed upon the Germans from the western Bug river to the bogs of the north.

The scope of the 600-mile front made it difficult to set apart the most significant developments, but the offensive in the south where the main forces may be passing Lwow, and the wedge between Bialystok and Brest Litovsk to the north made it appear that the march to Warsaw has begun.

Marshal Ivan Konev's First Ukrainian army, after capturing Sokal, 45 miles north of Lwow, and bridging the Bug, appeared to be spearheading toward the big Polish cities of Chelm and Lublin, milestones on the way to Warsaw. Sokal is 185 miles southeast of Warsaw.

The closest Red army units were about 24 miles northeast of Bialystok and were driving hard down the main highway from captured Krynki. They had only the narrow Sokoika river to cross.

Meanwhile the Russian press reported signs of cracking German morale.

Another group of four to five divisions surrounded east of Lwow at Brody was reported surrendering by the hundreds. Red army men were rapidly rounding them up, but were taking steps for their complete extermination if any should follow Hitler's orders to die before giving up an inch of territory.

First Of Eight Wells Bottomed

First of eight wells to be drilled in the north central Glasscock area where the city is to develop a new water supply has been bottomed.

No test has been run on the well as yet, said City Manager E. J. McDaniel and because it was drilled with rotary it is yet too soon to determine reaction. Ten-inch pipe was being run Thursday.

The well is straight shaft. All others will be 30-inches in diameter and gravel-packed between the 10-inch slotted casing and outside walls. The first well was bottomed at 129 feet.

Another city project in operation Thursday was the new sewer plant. Although the city is still in the testing stage with it, Conden Petroleum Corp. took its first effluent at 8 p. m. Wednesday and was using it for plant operation. Conden plans to use a few hundred thousand gallons daily when the sewage treatment unit has time to develop its bacteria growth to working level.

Jap Government Junked: Tojo Is Stripped Of Power

By J. B. KRUEGER Associated Press War Editor Japan has thrown out the Tojo government which carried it into war and today called on two 64-year-old militarists to pick a new cabinet—which faces the Canute-like task of trying to halt the tide of Allied power now lapping at Nippon's ver y shores.

Premier Gen. Hideki Tojo, the "razor-brained" army leader who has directed Japan's Pacific war since it started, was stripped of power Tuesday, Tokyo radio belatedly announced, and his entire cabinet fell with him.

Gen. Kuniaki Koiso, governor general of Korea and former vice army minister, and Adm. Mitsumasa Yonai, one-time premier, were directed by Emperor Hirohito to form a new government, a Tokyo broadcast said today.

There was no slightest doubt that Japan's debacle in losing Salpan and the imminent loss of Guam had forced this stunning upheaval. Tokyo linked the two events inferentially, admitting the Salpan defeat almost simultaneously with announcement of high-command changes preceding Tojo's resignation.

General Koiso and Admiral Yonai were commanded to pick a "new strong cabinet" to spare the emperor further concern. However strong the new government, though, it appeared beyond Japan's power to prevent establishment of a powerful U. S. base in the Marianas, of which Salpan is the core. The Marianas—14 islands including Guam—are within effective bombing range of Japan and provide good fleet bases.

Adm. Nimitz' great fleet poured devastation upon Guam for the fifteenth consecutive day, unloading a torrent of bombs and shells against the island's defenses against invasion. The Guam barracks from battleships, cruisers, destroyers and planes exceeded in length the Salpan softening-up process.

In the Southwest Pacific, another arena in which Tojo has suffered hard blows, Gen. MacArthur reported further repulses of enemy attempts to break out of a New Guinea trap.

China fought doggedly to hold Hengyang. Enemy reinforcements were brought up to force a decision at this Canton-Hankow rail junction and Chungking said the battle was nearing its climax.

Arrangements Made For Primary Election On Sat.

As the quietest political campaign in Howard county history neared an end Thursday, arrangements were being completed for reception of voters in the 15 precincts in the county from 8 p. m. to 7 p. m. Saturday.

Local candidates have not attended a pie supper or any form of political rally. Rationing of tires and gasoline have cut house-to-house canvassing to a minimum and totally pushed county rallies out of the picture, most of the candidates appealing to voters to accept advertisements as solicitation for votes in place of personal visits.

In district offices, possibly the greatest heat is shown in the race for associate justice of the court of civil appeals, 11th district, in which Milburn S. Long of Taylor county and C. C. Funderburk of Eastland county are the candidates. Some heat is evidenced in the race between incumbent George Mahon of Colorado City and C. L. Harris of Lubbock for congressman of the 19th district.

Voters of precincts 1, 2, 3 and 4, will vote in the county court house and Big Spring precinct 8 in West Ward school. All of the out-of-town precincts will vote in school buildings except for Coahoma, number 9, which will vote in the city hall, and Seash, number 15, in a vacant house on property of R. N. Adams.

Election supplies will be ready for precinct chairmen Friday afternoon at the office of Lee Porter, county clerk, L. S. Patterson, county democratic executive committee chairman, announced.

Light Voting Over State Is Expected

DALLAS, July 20 (AP)—Reports indicate that except in districts where there are hot congressional races, the vote in the first primary election Saturday will be the lightest in years, Robert L. Johnson, manager of the Texas election bureau, says.

Johnson looks for fewer than 900,000 votes although the Texas poll tax payment this year is 1,200,000 and the voting strength, including underage and overage exemptions is estimated at 1,510,000.

There are no congressional races in four of the larger districts," Johnson said. "Thus, returns may be expected to run below voting strength."

Promise Of Relief From Heat Given

By The Associated Press There was a promise of relief from the heat for Texas today in a forecast of cloudiness and thunder showers in some areas.

Temperatures were not so high over the state yesterday but there still were plenty of places reporting 100 and above.

Palestine received cooling showers that drove down temperatures that had gone to 101. Light showers fell west of Dallas.

Waco had 104; Beaumont, 102, Dallas, Fort Worth and Austin 101, and Big Spring and Abilene, 100.

Adolf Hitler Injured During Attempt On His Life

LONDON, July 20 (AP)—Berlin announced that Adolf Hitler was burned and bruised in an unsuccessful bombing attempt on his life today.

Three of Hitler's military leaders were seriously injured while his chief military advisor Col. Gen. Alfred Jodi was less seriously hurt along with five other generals and two admirals.

The broadcast announcement did not give the scene of the attack, but it obviously took place while Hitler was surrounded by high members of the military staff—perhaps at Hitler's headquarters.

Announcement came 16 hours after Tokyo's announcement of the fall of Premier Hideki Tojo, and Berlin said Hitler after the attack received Benito Mussolini, third member of the Hitler starry trio who led the axis into war.

Among the seriously injured, Berlin said, was Lt. Gen. Schmundt, chief of the German army's personnel department and chief military aide de camp to Hitler for several years. Two lieutenant colonels named Brandt and Borgmann, and a "collaborator" named Berger also were listed as seriously injured.

The DNB announcement said Lt. Gen. Schmundt, Lt. Col. Brandt and Lt. Col. Borgmann and collaborator Berger were "seriously injured."

Schmundt was chief military adjutant to Hitler in the days of Munich and had since remained close to the fuhrer. He was at the Brenner Pass conference of Hitler and Benito Mussolini March 18, 1940, which preceded Italy's declaration of war upon the Allies.

press published a statement by the captured commander of the 41st German army tank corps, Lt. Gen. Edmund Hofmeister, saying there was grave dissent in ranks of the German high command with old generals dissatisfied with Hitler's strategy in refusing to retreat.

It was the second time, at least, during the war that Hitler narrowly missed death.

The first time was on Nov. 8, 1935, when a bomb exploded in the Munich beer hall just after the fuhrer had left a celebration marking his ill-fated putsch of 1923.

Supper Given In Honor Of Miss Hartley

Mary Helen Hartley was honored with an ice cream supper at the scenic drive Wednesday evening by Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Colson.

She has been visiting Rev. and Mrs. Colson, who are her aunt and uncle, for the past few months, and now plans to return to her home at Dev.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Atchley, Boyce Patton, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hartley, Donald Bonita and Yvonne Hartley, William Henry Colson, Jr., Rev. and Mrs. Colson, and the honoree.

Thinks Son Should Remain In Senate

KANSAS CITY, July 20 (AP) — The 61-year-old mother of Sen. Harry S. Truman (D-Mo.) doesn't want her son to be vice-president. She thinks he should stay in the senate where "he can do more good."

"His investigation committee is doing fine work," she says. "He ought to stay there."

Mrs. Martha E. Truman, who will be 92 November 25, recalls that she told her son last week, just before he left her home in suburban Grandview, Mo., for the democratic national convention in Chicago, that he should remain a senator. She adds:

"Harry said, 'I'd rather be.' And he meant it."

The sprightly mother of the man who is reported to be president Roosevelt's second choice, behind vice-president Wallace, for a running mate in the November elections sat in her old-fashioned rocker last night and listened to the convention by radio.

"I listened to all the republican convention, too," she mused. "I listened to them all and tried not to hate them. I'm a democrat. But I listened to all they had to say about us during their convention."

"They keep predicting that Roosevelt will die in office if he's elected. The republicans hope he will die, too, and I'm almost 92. I hope Roosevelt fools 'em."

The senator's father, John A. Truman, died in 1914.

Women who perspire noticeably across the shoulders and back should take the added precaution of back shields.

Democratic National Convention In Second Day Is Really Ancient

By JACK STINNETT
CHICAGO, July 20 — The democratic national convention is in its second day, but actually it's ages old. Here's how politics works:

The republicans used one kind of showmanship with the Philippine delegation, the democrats hung a wreath on the delegation's allotted place in the stadium. When they called for the vote from the Philippines and none was forthcoming, there was a dramatic pause.

The democrats didn't play it that way. The six votes allotted to the Philippines are represented. Headed by Philip Frieder, provision manufacturer of Manila cigars, the delegation includes three of the four Frieder brothers, now of Philadelphia. Holding No. 2 place on the delegation is Mrs. Bessie Dwyer. White-haired, matronly Mrs. Dwyer won't be here to cast her vote. For more than 20 years a columnist for Philippine English-speaking newspapers, Mrs. Dwyer has been even longer than that a laborer in the democratic vineyards. Today, she's interned by the Japs. One of the delegation will vote for her.

Actually the Philippine delegation is interested in only two things here now. Perpetuation of the democratic party which opened their door to freedom; and anything they can do for Paul V. McNutt; whom they still think of as the greatest commissioner the islands ever had.

Democracy, as it is practiced in these United States, is getting quite a workout at the convention here. One of the key figures is Sidney Hillman, chairman of the national citizens' political action committee, which will take over the CIO political action committee from here on. Hillman is a native of Zegare, Lithuania — in those days a part of Russia. Following immigration to the United States, he now associates with the U. S. Supreme Court. He doesn't see eye-to-eye any longer with his former sponsors, but probably more than any other individual, his weight was considered vital in the selection of the vice presidential nominee.

How to RUIN DRESSES AND LOSE FRIENDS

IT'S tragic how some girls lose their friends and ruin their dresses because of perspiration odor and stains. And there's no excuse for it. It's easy to save dresses, it's easy to save friends.

Use Arid, the new cream deodorant that helps keep your ampirs dry and removes the odor from perspiration. Arid is safe and dependable for these few reasons:

1. Arid does not irritate skin. Does not eat dresses or men's shirts.

2. Prevents under-arm odor. Helps stop perspiration safely.

3. A pure, white, antiseptic, stainless vanishing cream.

Countians Invited To Demonstration

Howard county residents planning to use freezer lockers when their installation is completed are invited to a demonstration on foods for lockers to be conducted at 10 a. m. Friday at the locker plant, it was reminded Thursday.

Mildred Atkinson, emergency war food assistant, announced the demonstration.

Another meeting will be conducted next week, at night, if sufficient interest is shown and persons interested were asked to telephone Miss Atkinson at the home demonstration office, 1039, or the locker plant, 153. Men are invited as well as women.

Rodeo Meeting Set For Friday

All persons interested in the staging of a rodeo here late in August have been invited to attend a meeting at 5 p. m. Friday at the chamber of commerce office.

All underwriters, of which there are now 100, are particularly urged to participate, but chamber of commerce officials, who are taking the lead in promotion of the event, are anxious that any person who is interested in the staging of a western extravaganza to take part in the parley.

Eat It Indoors Or Out

Cold Sliced Tongue
Horseradish Sauce
Potato Salad
Bouquets of Cooked Vegetables
Rye Bread
Peach Tarts
Hot Coffee

(Recipes Serve Four)
Smoked Tongue
Wash smoked tongue well. Soak in cold water overnight. Cover with boiling water and simmer until tender (from four to five hours). Drain, remove skin, and trim thick end. Cool. Slice just before serving and serve with horseradish sauce made by mixing one tablespoon of prepared horseradish with one half pint sour cream.

The tongue may be served on a large platter with the potato salad heaped in the center.

Peach Tarts
1 pound peaches
1-3 cup sugar
Juice of 1 lemon
Plain pastry

Peel and slice peaches and cook with sugar and lemon juice until peaches are soft and syrupy. Cool. Cut pastry into circles three to four inches in diameter and shape over wrong sides of cupcake tins. Shape edges by fluting and bake at 400 degrees for 12 to 15 minutes. Cool and fill tart shells with peach mixture. If desired, the tarts may be topped with meringue and browned in the oven, or they may be served with light cream.

Can't Keep Grandma In Her Chair
She's as lively as a youngster—New hair backache is better

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause swelling backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, grinding up nights, aching, painless under the eyes, headache and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sensations above there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills

Andrew Baker Assumes Duties

A veteran of both World wars who recently returned from service overseas and an employee of the Texas Department of Public Safety about 13 years, Andrew Baker arrived in Big Spring Wednesday to begin duties as license and weight inspector with headquarters in the highway patrol office at Third street and Scurry.

Baker has served as patrolman and inspector at 15 different stations since he began work for the state department. He has served so many stations he officially lists his address as "Somewhere in Texas." That is the address given on his driver's license.

Baker has served in the present war on Guadalcanal, New Caledonia, the Gilbert Islands, Australia and other places overseas. Developing malaria, he was hospitalized and later given a medical discharge. He served two years as a first sergeant in the 25th division, assigned to identification work with Japanese prisoners of war.

Protein Shortage Can Be Circumvented By Silage Practices

By E. R. EUDALY, Extension Dairyman

The present indications are the protein feed supply for the next 12 months will not be any greater than it was for the past 12 months. This being true, the farmers and stockmen need to take steps to lessen the demand for protein feeds.

The protein content of the hay can be increased by cutting the hay crop at a more immature stage than is now customarily done. Sorghum cane hay cut when it analyzes about five per cent protein, whereas if it is cut in the bloom stage, it will analyze about eight per cent protein.

Such crops as Johnson grass and sudan grass can be cut before heading and the resultant hay will be palatable. Johnson grass and sudan grass cut before heading will analyze from 12 to 14 per cent protein, an average of 13 per cent. When cut in the bloom stage, it analyzes about nine per cent.

Water Important In Raising Of Poultry

By RHEBA MERLE BOYLE

Water, which always is a necessary part of any poultry ration, is especially important to good management of pullets on summer range. Shade also contributes much to their health and comfort.

Feed and water containers always should be shaded and additional shade should be provided for the places where the birds idle. Pullets are inactive in the middle of the day and they need a cool, comfortable space to spend this time.

As an initial step in good management, Moore suggests that all undersize, off color, off type or unthrifty chickens should be removed when the birds are placed on range. Also any showing signs of disease or general unthriftiness during the growing period should be culled immediately.

Take Warning From Chinese On Danger Of Real Inflation

By RHEBA BOYLES

We're not hearing so much these days about the danger of inflation. But we'd better take a warning from the Chinese and be vigilant.

With price control functioning, such disasters aren't so likely in this country. But there are some things you can do in the battle of inflation. These suggestions for farm families come from the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service which has published a free leaflet on the subject.

Now here's the seventh, and it's worth remembering: Don't borrow money for non-essentials. Eighth, cooperate with your neighbors and share your equipment and machinery and time.

CONTRACT LET FOR THEATRE TO BE ERECTED BY BULL AND HENDON

Contract has been let and construction started on a new modern theatre for Big Spring. Bull, Hendon and Bull, operators of the State Theatre here for the past two and a half years, let contract for the new plant to Suggs Construction Co for $40,000 which covers extensive remodeling of a comparatively new building at Runnels, formerly occupied by Sherrod Hardware. Equipment and furnishings will amount to almost as much, according to Gene Hendon and Richard Lee Bull.

Work is due to be completed in about 120 working days and they hoped for an opening in October. Only walls of the present structure will be utilized in the project.

Hendon emphasized that only the latest equipment and furnishings would be used throughout the plant. Most of the technical equipment, Super-Simplex projectors with high intensity lamps and Western Electric microphone sound, was booked before the freeze.

The screen will be 13 feet seven inches by 17 feet and 11 inches, he said. This will be set in a stage adaptable to shows and faced by electrically controlled draperies. The 531 seats, placed on a reverse slope arrangement to give good vision from any point, will be wide and upholstered. The theatre will contain four underwriter approved exits, will have all construction in masonry and steel to be completely fireproof. Air conditioning is designed to penetrate evenly to every sentiment in this convention and it is encouraging. Sure it will rise ever stronger—until we are using all our manpower, resources and technical skill to produce a higher standard of living for all our people.

Jittery convention officials wondered, too, what sort of changes Senator Majority Leader Alben Barkley was making in a Roosevelt nominating speech which he wrote in advance, then drew back for last-minute revisions. Barkley, it became known, planned to confer with Wallace today.

Still fresh in the minds of party leaders were the caustic criticisms levelled at the president's tax bill veto several months ago by Barkley.

There was a certain amount of anger attributed also to War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes, who quit the second place fight after he got a thumbs down from President Roosevelt.

There was one thing, however, that about 90 per cent of the delegates could agree on enthusiastically—they wanted Mr. Roosevelt to have a fourth term. They said so, with stamping feet, shrill whistles and vocal acrobatics every time his name was mentioned.

But the old rebel yell was missing. The south was not having any. About 125 of its delegates were reported ready to cast protest ballots for Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia. The Roosevelt victory was so certain, however, that the president planned to accept the nomination by radio tonight.

That was to be the culmination of the second day's session, marked early in the afternoon by a speech by Senator Samuel D. Jackson of Indiana, the permanent chairman. Jackson was ready to take up where Gov. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma left off last night with a demand for retention of the nation's commander in chief.

Fourth Term Democrats Lay Strategy On Line

CHICAGO, July 20 (AP)—Inspired by the rip-roaring keynote speech of a towering, sombrero-wearing oilman governor, the fourth term democrats laid their 1944 campaign strategy squarely on the line today and it amounted to this:

If, as Republican Thomas E. Dewey says, President Roosevelt and his new deal colleagues are "tired old men," so are Churchill, Stalin and Chiang Kai-shek.

The 42-year-old Dewey raised the age issue when he became the republican nominee; the democrats threw it right back at him as they prepared to give Mr. Roosevelt his fourth consecutive nomination and offered to fight out the election on just that line.

Spokesman for this challenge was Oklahoma's Governor Robert S. Kerr who roused the democratic convention delegates to their highest pitch of the week last night by his 4,000-word keynote address.

It was built around one theme—a change in administration while the nation is at war.

Six-foot three and beaming beneath a snow white 10-gallon hat, Kerr depicted his party under Roosevelt as the party of achievement.

Stevenson Seeks Renomination

AUSTIN, July 20 (AP)—Governor Coke R. Stevenson who supports the administration of the office is the only issue in the primary campaign seeks renomination on his record.

In a formal statement, issued yesterday, he reviewed his record which he declared was generally known and "appears to have met the approval of a great majority of Texas citizens."

The governor has not made a formal campaign tour although he delivered 135 addresses this year before civic and other groups on their invitation.

Reminding that the office is an executive one and that its successful administration necessarily depends upon cooperation from the legislature and all state departments which he said he had enjoyed throughout his administration, the governor outlined these accomplishments:

Reduction of the state debt from $33,000,000 to about $2,000,000 with immediate prospects for the deficit disappearing.

Governmental economies without new taxes and bond issues and larger appropriations for social security benefits, eleemosynary institutions and public schools.

Extensive development of soil conservation to the point where more than 90,000,000 acres are now in the program.

Creation of a postwar planning commission and development of plans which will facilitate employment of thousands of returning soldiers.

Cooperation with military authorities in developing the huge military establishment in Texas and in solving state problems which arose out of military expansion.

Cooperation with organized labor to the extent where "Texas had the best labor record among states in connection with war production."

Tattooing Under Trial At Duke

By H. W. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Editor

DURHAM, N. C.—Tattooing is under trial at Duke Hospital as a means of improving the complexion of plastic surgical cases by Dr. Kenneth L. Pickrell, Duke University associate in surgery.

The tattooing is used to add natural color to skin grafted to faces from other parts of the body since transferred skin does not possess the natural facial colors. Both lips and eyebrows can be simulated by tattoo ink. Pale skin from other parts of the body can be given a little lasting color when used as a replacement for lost cheeks.

Tattooing also will restore the natural color of chin areas of men by imitating the slight darkening caused by whiskers, whose stubs show even after the cleanest shaves.

The effectiveness of the Duke experiments depends on how long the tattooing will remain without fading.

Postmaster Issues Reminders On Mail To Servicemen

Three reminders to persons mailing letters to military personnel were given Thursday by Nat Shick, postmaster.

Airmail to servicemen overseas should be fully prepaid in order to assure earliest delivery and to avoid unnecessary burdens on mail service, the postal department has reminded. Letters to service men receiving their mail through an APO number in care of postmasters at New York, San Francisco, Seattle, Minneapolis, New Orleans, Miami, or Presque Isle, Maine, need bear six-cent airmail stamp if weighing one-half ounce or less, but must bear a second airmail stamp if weighing more than half an ounce, it was stressed. The same applies to letters mailed to fleet postoffices at San Francisco, Seattle or New Orleans.

Another reminder was that matches cannot be sent in mail to any overseas destination, whether addressed to a soldier or civilian, and cannot be mailed to any United States domestic destination if sea transit is involved or overland to Alaska.

Also, the postal department has reminded that commemorative stamps or war or victory slogans should not be placed on letters to prisoners of war. One letter bearing such a stamp was received late Wednesday by the Big Spring postoffice.

"Exercise by the states of their reserved powers to determine the qualifications of their voters and to regulate their public schools and attendance thereon is not subject to control by either the legislative or executive branches of the federal government in the absence of a constitutional amendment ceding such powers."

By TEXASLEY
CHICAGO, July 20 (AP)—Charged that the Texas regular delegation to the democratic national convention plans to disenfranchise Texas Roosevelt supporters in the November election were made today before the convention's credentials committee.

Herman Jones, chairman of the pro-Roosevelt delegation, in opening his argument before the credentials group in an effort to have his delegation placed on the permanent rolls of the convention, declared the regulars wanted to dictate to the national party and had chosen electors who would not support the party's nominees in November unless certain demands were met.

Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District News

Ranges with a good grass cover still supply some green grazing despite the extreme hot and dry weather. It has been the observation of a number of ranchers and of soil Conservation Service personnel that numerous areas of short running grasses have failed to produce any growth this season and are apparently dead. Excessive overgrazing and trampling which removed all protective covering against drought, heat and cold and also brought about a much reduced root system has a direct bearing on the dying out of these grasses.

Stock tank construction is moving forward to a good clip. A 5,000 yard tank which is 20 feet deep was completed Monday on Nick Reed's ranch near Vincent. Ed Carpenter has a 3500 yard tank approximately 15 feet in depth completed Wednesday on his farm and ranch also near Vincent. Deep tanks like these will not lose water from evaporation nearly as much as wide spreading, shallow tanks.

An average of seven and three-fourths bushels per acre on a 75 acre field was accomplished by O. R. Crow, district cooperater of the Luther Community, this year despite the drought last fall and spring. The wheat was grown on a field which has been partially terraced and which was summer fallowed last year.

No feed shortage this fall is planned by Wilson Bros. of the Gay Hill community, provided weather conditions cooperate. Three ranchers and farmers have contour planted their entire cultivated land of approximately 430 acres to feed which now appears to indicate a good crop.

Army commanders in central Rome used homing pigeons to carry messages.

Bomber Named For Local Man

Somewhere in the south Pacific the Kenney, a bomber, is carrying a crack American crew for explosive licks at the Nips.

This ship happens to be named for a Big Spring man—J. Pat Kenney—in a surprise recognition for his part in the Fourth War Loan drive earlier in the year.

How this came about is a story in which Floyd W. Woodcock of the Woodcock properties figures as a key man. At his general conception of the idea of a contest flies in Wilmington, Del., Woodcock conceived the idea of a contest between the employees of the various divisions of his utility enterprise to see who could sell the most bonds.

Pat Kenney, district manager for the Empire Southern Service, took first prize in the Texas-Oklahoma division by rustling up bond sales in the aggregate of $234,474.34.

That won him a nice little prize at the time and Kenney, vastly more satisfied that his efforts had helped on the Fourth War Loan quota drive, forgot about the incident as he pitched in to help on the current Fifth War Loan.

But Woodcock had another idea. He contacted an old friend, Col. Frank F. Hennaman, who is attached to General MacArthur's staff, asking if bombers might be named after the eight leaders in the contest which produced more than two and a half million dollars in bond sales. Hennaman followed up the suggestion and the ships were so named—one after Kenney. Surprised at this development, Kenney would like nothing better than to shake the hand of the boys who fly her—"for they are the guys who are really doing something."

Schools Won't Know Ruling On Fund Division Until Next Week

By PAUL BOLTON
Herald Correspondent

AUSTIN, July 20 (Special)—School districts over Texas which are scheduled to share the six million surplus in the state's available school fund won't know until next week whether the law will permit the distribution.

Meanwhile it was learned today that state officials, and particularly Governor Coke Stevenson, sponsoring the immediate distribution of the surplus are deeply concerned over how the money may be spent in the districts.

The state has no authority in law to tell local districts to use the funds for boosting the pay of lower-salaried teachers, rather than higher-salaried administrators; but that's what the Governor thinks should be done, and he has told the Texas State Teachers Association as much.

Earlier this week, the legal questions had been believed answered. When the board of education voted to make the additional appropriation of $4, bringing this year's per capita to $29 in the face of the law saying the state shall contribute $25 for each child of school age, an opinion was asked of Attorney General Grover Sellers on its validity.

The first opinion written, however, met with strenuous objections when the several assistant attorneys general discussed it; and the entire subject has been reopened. Teachers contend that the available fund is an "annual" fund as to distribution as well as collection. And, as Governor Stevenson observed, the Constitution didn't intend for the state to start savings accounts.

The governor's views may be summarized: The most important teaching position in any school is that of the elementary teacher. This teacher certainly should be paid as much as, say, a high school teacher of comparable training and experience. And he believes this unexpected dividend of state funds should be placed where it is needed, among the lower salaried teachers to help them meet the costs of living.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, July 20 (AP)—If you hang around with major leaguers, you'll hear plenty of tall tales about the "good old days" in baseball and how kids used to be happy to play with a home made ball on a field grubbed out of a briar patch. . . . And likely as not you'll hear that kids nowadays have to be pampered and won't play under conditions that the old-timers regarded as normal. . . . In controversy of such statements, we present the following letter from Wendell Lalorin, the Newport, Vt., sports scribe.

Read It And Weep

"I thought you might like to hear about the game the Baron Town baseball team played at East Hardwick the other day," writes Wendell. "Barren lost the game 18 to 12, but the score does not necessarily indicate poor playing on either side. The condition of the playing field, which was a cow pasture, was accountable for the high score and many errors. . . . The cows were not around at the time, but there was evidence that they had been there that morning. . . . A hit ball which would look like an easy out would hit a bump and bounce over the player's head, far out of quick retrieving. Even the catchers had to run over a knoll after foul balls.

Special Talents

"The fence which surrounded the pasture was another bad feature," Lalime further explains. "Balls hit through the fence would go for a home run, which even on any good pasture would not have gone for a double. . . . Some of our Vermont ball players know how to hurdle the barbed wire enclosures, and in most cases of this nature a hit over the fence doesn't go for a homer unless you can make it. . . . There were five pitchers, who had their troubles, too. They couldn't see the plate. The cows hadn't got around to do any grazing in that particular spot. . . . Well, Barton collected 15 hits, Hardwick 24 hits, nearly every player on both teams hit safely over, under or through the fence.

Disputed Decision

What was it those old-timers were saying about modern kids?

Soldiers On Furlough To Get Gas Increase

PARIS, July 20 (AP)—Members of the armed forces on furlough will receive an increase in gasoline allowance, Rep. Wright Patman reports.

Rep. Patman in a speech at a political rally here last night said the Office of Price Administration would make the allowance one gallon per day instead of the basic allowance of five gallons per furlough as now in effect.

Patman said Chester Bowles, OPA administrator, had obtained the consent of army and navy authorities for the extra gas.

Buildings Would Be In Memory Of Truett

DALLAS, July 20 (AP)—A campaign has been launched to raise half million dollars for a library and administration building on the campus of Fort Worth's Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in memory of the late Dr. George W. Truett and dedicated to preaching.

Dr. J. W. Bruner, endowment secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, said contributions were expected to come from all over the world.

Turkey's first five-year industrialization plan was inaugurated in 1934.

Mrs. Cunningham To Make Series Of Talks

AUSTIN, July 20 (AP)—Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham of New Waverly will make another in a series of radio speeches in her campaign for the democratic nomination as governor today on Texas quality network stations.

Broadcasting from Dallas yesterday, Mrs. Cunningham paid tribute to Mrs. Clara Driscoll of Corpus Christi, national committeewoman, who she said was "so feared by the carpet-baggers who have brazenly usurped the power and wealth of Texas x x x removed her from the high office in the democratic party of Texas which the democrats have delighted to have her hold."

Mrs. Cunningham added that Mrs. Driscoll was "removed when she was so ill she could not be present."

Embargo May Be Lifted

FORT WORTH, July 20 (AP)—The shipping embargo against Burrus Mill and Elevator company here is expected to be lifted today due to easing of grain shipment congestion in the yards of Fort Worth elevators.

C. P. Wasson of Dallas, district manager of the American Association of railroads carloading division, said yesterday he had not yet received confirmation from the AAR's embargo office in Chicago but "I think we're safe in assuming that the embargo will be off."

Suspect Killed In Sinaloa Gun Battle

CULIACAN, Mexico, July 20 (AP)—A suspect in last year's masquerade ball slaying of Gov. Rodolfo T. Loaisa was killed in a gun-battle at Villa Union, Sinaloa, the state government announced.

The man was reported shot by federal soldiers after he was seen in the company of another believed to be a notorious outlaw called "The Gypsy" who is being sought in connection with the Loaisa slaying. "The Gypsy" escaped.

GERMANS KILLED

CAIRO, July 19 (AP)—Six German officers were killed in a shooting affray among high German officers during a recent conference at Athens, an official announcement said today. The conference was in the British hotel.

Should 'Oil In Place' Be The Only Yardstick For Prorating Petroleum

By PAUL BOLTON
Herald Correspondent

AUSTIN, July 20—Should "oil in place" be the only yardstick for prorating petroleum? Should the operator with one well on 40 acres in proven oil territory have an allowed production substantially 40 times as great as his neighbor with one well on one acre?

The answer to this question is being shaped up by a hearing which has occupied the Texas Railroad Commission for the past solid week. It directly concerned only the Hawkins field in Wood county, but Humble Oil & Refining company's case was too carefully prepared to have been designed for but one field. The Hawkins case will be a statewide precedent.

Before oil production was restricted, the rule was that an oil operator owned all the oil he could pull out of his well. Production forced modification of this "rule of capture"; if the state was to restrict free enterprise, the state must protect equities. The "oil in place" theory arose: By various engineering devices the oil beneath any given tract could be measured. Given a uniform sand condition it followed that beneath ten surface acres was ten times as much oil as beneath one surface acre. Various compromises between the literal "rule of capture" and the literal "oil in place" have been used over the years. Then the so-called Marrs case came along.

The Marrs case initiated with royalty owners in the McElroy oil field, supported by Gulf Oil, owner of leases to the "inside McElroy area" as distinguished from the "Church Fields" and "McClinton" areas. Gulf's inside was developed with wells far apart; Church-Fields and McClinton, with wells close together. Development brought the fields together, reservoir, and a common production reservoir, an ad common production formula was ordered calling substantially for allowables to be based 50 per cent on the well, 50 per cent on surface acres.

Thus if the total field allowable fixed the per well formula at 10 barrels for the well, one barrel for each acre, the ten-acre well got an allowable of 20 barrels; the 40 acre well, an allowable of 50 barrels; Theoretically the larger tract had four times as much oil, got only 1-2 times as much allowable production.

Supreme Court decreed that the McElroy Ranch area had about 80 per cent of the oil in place, should get something like that percentage of the daily production. But, the Commission found, to literally follow this 80 per cent division would reduce the allowable of some wells in Church Fields to the vanishing point. The commission wrote its order which commissioners interpreted as substantially complying with the court's mandate; Gulf and Marrs have now asked the Supreme Court to enforce its judgment, asserting in effect that the Commission's order was a subterfuge. Meanwhile the Hawkins case comes along.

In the Marrs case, the Supreme Court said the commission must reasonably approach an equitable division of reserves. Humble claims it has 76 per cent of the Hawkins reserves, gets only 66 per cent of the allowed production. Hence the underlying question of prorating based on "oil in place" is even more precisely spotlighted than in the McElroy case. And Humble's engineers, geologists and chemists figuratively took the field apart, foot by foot, to meticulously offer proof of Humble's contentions—obviously in preparation for a court trial if they are dissatisfied with the order.

The commission has taken the position that a man is entitled to credit for drilling a well. One member commented, "In Hawkins, proof shows dry holes in the middle of supposed production. What if a well had been given credit for 40 productive acres in the area of this dry hole, and the dry well had never been drilled? The adjacent land-owners would have supplied some of the oil for that well."

They also point out that if no economic incentive exists, the owner of a small tract—who owns the oil beneath that tract no matter how small the amount—could never get it short of pooling with the major oil companies. To literally follow "oil in place" as a prorating guide would "destroy the little man," it is argued.

The beach they landed on was the hottest along the whole landing area. For more than 12 hours, they were helplessly pinned to the shelter of an abandoned German trench. It was between two concrete shelters which they were afraid to enter because of possible boobytraps.

White told of the horror of those first blistering hours and days in France as he and three comrades sprayed white paint on a group of crosses in the First American cemetery in France.

"I never in my life saw anything like that beach and hope I never do again. Our boys had paid a terrible price to get ashore—although I guess that the number of dead actually was small considering the number of men landed.

"We buried 457 men from that stretch of beach in three days. The first thing we did was pick up litter washed up after the medics carrying them were killed on the way to the beach.

"Most of our dead had been killed by hits in the chest and head. They had been caught in a crossfire from German positions before they could get across the sand. We picked up the bodies and laid them in rows in a field that the engineers had cleared of mines.

"Then we started processing the bodies—that is, identifying them fully and removing personal effects for shipment home. We do everything possible to check the dead man's identity—even list the laundry marks in his clothing if there is any doubt about who he is.

"There were so many dead and so few of us—only 18—that we had the engineers use a bulldozer to scoop out a long trench four feet deep. Then we dug individual graves a foot deep in the trench, carefully marking them with temporary stakes to which dog tags were attached. Another dog tag was left on the body as an identity safeguard. The location of each grave and the identity of the body on each side was charted in our records.

"It is a hard tough job to collect and bury dead properly—no nobody wants and which we didn't ask for. But somebody had to do it and we were assigned to it.

St. Louis Has Answer To Attendance Problem

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
St. Louis had an answer to its attendance problem today in the 31,361 paid customers for the first two games of the Yankee-Browns series for the American league lead.

Although 31,361 represents a fair Sunday crowd in some big league towns, it is roughly 30 per cent of the Browns total home draw and is calculated to ease the pain of last night's 6-5 setback by the New Yorkers.

Only last week the St. Louis Americans were sending out questionnaires to the fans asking "Why don't you support the Browns?" Joe McCarthy's champs came to town trailing by two games and the fans started to flock through the turnstiles.

Johnny Lindell's 3-run homer four-run rally dooming Sig Jaourun rally dooming Sig Jaourun and giving Ernie Bonham his fourth straight.

Details continued to come on strong since the return of Dick Wakefield, asking six of eight starts and going into a fourth-place tie by yesterday's 4-1 nod over Washington as Stubby Overmire out-throwed Dutch Leonard in 19 hits.

Chicago finally cracked Boston's "hex" after dropping 11 straight to the Red Sox and captured a 5-4 game on five runs in the fifth. Orval Grove got credit for his eight victory, snapping Joe Bowman's five-game win streak.

Ken Keltner paced Cleveland to a 7-1 slaughter of Philadelphia with four hits for a perfect day, while Specs Kilsman checked his seventh victory at Bobo Newsom's expense.

Rucky Walters failed to go the route in a night game for the first time this season but kept intact his seven-game win streak as reliever Arnie Carter took the loss in a 10-5 shellacking by Brooklyn. Les Webber, the second of three Brook hurlers, came up with the win that moved the Dodgers back into sixth place.

St. Louis and New York Nationals were not scheduled.

San Angelo Champ In Tennis Finals

CHICAGO, July 20 (AP)—Bernard (Tui) Bartszen of San Angelo, Texas, national interscholastic tennis champion, was in the finals of the junior division of the River Forest open tournament today.

Bartszen yesterday moved through the quarter-final and semi-final rounds with straight set victories and today clashed with Glen Bassett of Santa Monica, Calif., for the title.

Bartszen, top-seeded in the tournament, beat Bobby Goldfarb of El Paso, 6-3, 6-3, then downed Bob David of Chicago, 6-3, 6-3. Bassett, second-seeded, eliminated Bob Redfern of Chicago 6-0, 6-1, and Bill Landin of Evanston, Ill., 6-1, 6-1.

Bartszen teamed with Bassett to win a quarter-finals match in junior doubles, defeating Victor Ba-dan and Tom Tambling, of Monroe, Mich., 6-0, 6-1.

Section A Defeats M&S By 5-1 Count

Section A indicated Wednesday it had no idea of easing up in its race for honors in the enlisted men's softball league at the Big Spring Bombardier School by defeating Maintenance & Supply by a 5-1 count.

John Millard, pitching his first for Section A, allowed but two hits but only sparkling fielding kept him out of serious trouble for he walked no less than 11 M & S batters while whiffing only one Bredemeyer for M & S struck out no A hitters and walked three. Vice hit a two base blow and Timko the circuit.

At 8:30 p. m. today under the city park lights, the Phillips Tire Co. team meets the section B team in a featured tilt.

AAFBS Officers Journey To Carl sbad Today

This afternoon at 4:30 the Officers of the Bombardier school journey to Carlbad, New Mexico to take on the Officers of the New Mexico base in a softball supremacy tilt.

If past records can determine a winner before game time the local officers should have this game clinched as in their previous two trips to San Angelo and Corsicana they have emerged as victor.

Though weakened considerably by loss of men by shipping orders the locals are backing their hopes on the masterful twirling of Lt. Dick Bradbeer. Lt. Kenneth Nelson has taken over full time responsibility of catching since a knee injury sent Lt. Ned Humphreys to the bench for the remainder of the season.

Replacing Capt. C. W. Kobler at first is Lt. Bob Fairchild who thus far has done more than his share of infield duties. Lt. Herbert Brogan, most recent loss to the squad, has been replaced by Lt. Bill Shasteen at short field.

With the gaps effectively filled the Officers battled the Cadets of 44-10 to a 1 to 1 deadlock Tuesday afternoon before darkness called the five inning session to a halt.

The Officers of the Carlbad AAFBS will return today's game by trekking to Big Spring the 28th of July to wind up the home and home series.

M'Spadden Holds Slim Edge In Practice

SALT LAKE CITY, July 20 (AP)—Byron Nelson and Harold (Jug) McSpadden, the golfing twins, played across the 6,575 yard Fort Douglas course in sub-par practice rounds that left little argument for their favored positions in the $2,500 Utah open starting tomorrow.

On the basis of the practice rounds, McSpadden had a slim edge over Nelson. The Jug shot the par 72 course in 66, missing a chaser to tie the record when he missed a putt on the 17th for a bogey. Nelson was one stroke behind at 67.

Bulldog Turner Waits Induction Into Army

ARILENE, July 20 (AP)—Clyde (Bulldog) Turner, all-national professional football league center with the Chicago Bears for three seasons, expects to be called to army service within three weeks.

Turner yesterday passed his pre-induction physical examination at Lubbock.

He played football for Hardin-Simmons University and was picked on the Little All-America team in 1939. He played in the East-West Shrine charity game on New Year's day in 1940 and participated in the all-star game at Chicago that summer.

Twilight Tear Nearly Ready To Cash In On Million Dollar Legs

CHICAGO, July 20 (AP)—Twilight Tear, fastest filly in America is about ready to cash in on her million dollar legs.

The sensational 3-year-old daughter of Bull Lea-Lady Duke, triumphant in her last two races, will be coupled with her stable mate, Pensive, Kentucky Derby-Freakness winner, in the $80,000 Arlington Classic Saturday and they appear to have the race at their mercy.

So much, in fact, that not more than five horses—maybe only four, smallest field in the 16-year history of the race—will go to the post in what previously was rated among the nation's top ranking races for 3-year-olds.

Twilight Tear's blinding speed over any distance and her recent achievement of twice defeating Pensive caused all her boy friend rivals to take a run-out.

Either Twilight Tear or Pensive would be tough enough alone, but running as an entry they are most formidable. The prospects of beating both are dim and not even the lure of a $60,000 purse is enough to fill the starting gate. They probably will go to the post at odds of 1 to 5.

As the situation shaped up today, those daring to challenge the Warren Wright pair will be Ole Kentucky and Sirius, neither a s.a.k.e winner, and Challenge Me, winner of the Arkansas derby. Sirius, a sprinter, is a doubtful starter.

Battle Of The Sports Writers Ends In Draw

PAMPA, July 20 (AP)—The battle of the sports writers is a draw thus far—and the boys will have to meet here next month to decide the issue.

Brownie Emerson of the Pampa News clashed with Puit Powell of the Amarillo News at Amarillo. The agreement was that the loser would serve as copy boy in the winner's office all day.

In golf Puit won 8 and 7; in tennis Brownie won 6-1, 6-0. They then analyzed it this way: Puit won nine out of eleven holes of golf and paired one; Brownie won 12 games out of 13 in tennis. Too close for a decision.

Virgil (Fire) Trucks Has Big Day At Bat

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 20 (AP)—Virgil (fire) Trucks had a big day on the mound and at bat last night as Great Lakes humbled the Springfield munny leagues all-stars, 14 to 1.

The former Detroit Tigers pitcher struck out 18 and allowed only four hits. He got three of the 20 hits, including a home run and a triple.

The win was the sailors' 29th in 30 games.

First Fiddle Gets Double Satisfaction From Winning Race

BOSTON, July 20 (AP)—Six-foot top-weighted and interfered with greatly, Mrs. Ed Mulrenan's game grey First Fiddle today had the double satisfaction of running his most persistent rival, Greentree Stable's Four Freedoms, into the track while earning $41,850 for his owner.

First Fiddle, after losing two close decisions to Four Freedoms while giving away plenty of pounds, registered a smashing victory while running from far back in yesterday's $50,000 Massachusetts handicap at Suffolk Downs.

That Mulrenan color-bearer, claimed for $2,500 as a juvenile, was bumped twice during the last sixteenth while winning that rich mil- and a furlong event in 1:49.

First Fiddle came under the wire three-quarters of a length ahead of the Millbrook stable's offending Alex Barth as A. C. Ernest's Alquest showed a length behind.

Semi-Pro Baseball Tournament Tonight

WACO, July 20 (AP)—Karlton brothers of Dallas and North Camp Hood clash tonight in the opening game of the annual Texas Semi-Pro baseball tournament.

Waco Army Air Field, the defending champion, swings into action tomorrow night, clashing with Bergstrom Field of Austin.

There will be a double-header Saturday night, Consolidated Destroyer of Orange meeting South Camp Hood and Fort Worth Army Air Field battling Twelfth Armored Division of Abilene.

Another double bill is scheduled for Sunday with Consolidated Destroyer and Twelfth Armored Division to play but they will not meet each other unless they both win Saturday night.

NAMED COACH

CANADIAN, July 20 (AP)—Frank Stockman, former star athlete at West Texas State, has been named coach of Canadian high school and will begin his duties Aug. 1.

Another double bill is scheduled for Sunday with Consolidated Destroyer and Twelfth Armored Division to play but they will not meet each other unless they both win Saturday night.

CHICAGO, July 20 (AP)—Pete Layden, star of the University of Texas football teams of 1940 and 1941 has been selected to play with the college all-stars when they meet the Chicago professional Bears here Aug. 30.

Layden, a lieutenant in the army air corps, is stationed at Randolph Field, San Antonio.

Zurita To Defend Title

MEXICO CITY, July 20 (AP)—Juan Zurita, world's lightweight boxing champion (N. B. A.), said today after a medical checkup that after a series of preliminary bouts he will defend his title against anyone the U. S. national boxing association may designate.

Zurita, whose hand was wounded in May by an accidental gunshot, said he will begin practice bouts in Mexico in August.

SOUL NOTE

LOS ANGELES—Arvil Skiles told police that his new guitar was stolen by two strangers who borrowed it from him in a tavern. They told him they wanted to render a few religious tunes.

To The Voters of Precinct 4:

I take this method to solicit your vote in my race for Commissioner of Precinct 4.

I regret it has not been my pleasure to meet each of you personally, but due to these war conditions with a scarcity of labor, gasoline and rubber I could not make a house to house canvas. We have a critical war to win. While our armed forces are doing such a wonderful job on the battlefield, I have done my best to do my part on the home front.

Those of you whom I have not met I trust will understand and give me your consideration on July 22. I thank you.

Expression Of Confidence

In little more than a half a year, our building permits here have equalled the amount of all of 1943. Included in permits are several large enterprises, and as soon as some others (who now hold priorities) can be satisfied that sufficient materials are in sight, we will be treated to some still larger ones.

Fact Of Gravest Import

A fact of the gravest import is revealed in Mr. Churchill's delayed address to the House of Commons on the robot bombings. This is that the flying bombs are able to penetrate the enormous concentrations of anti-aircraft guns, barrage balloons and fighter planes which have protected London from effective bombing attack since the end of the 1941 blitz period.

These facts are very significant and very serious. We have not yet begun to comprehend the abysses of agony and terror and annihilation which threaten the human race when science becomes the servant of the pure and relentless lust for power which has distinguished the German people under Hitler.

Do not the grief and agony of London, of Stalingrad, impose upon us who have been so mercifully spared this terror a moral duty heavier on that very account? The more deadly, the more ruthless the scientific weapons of war become, the sorer grows the myth of our own safety in isolation in a shrunken world.

Tenacity Pays Off

Although we acclaimed the attainment of our ever-all bond quota recently as the signal for having gone "over the top," Howard county did not in a moral sense achieve that honor until Tuesday. That was the day that our E quota was exceeded. While it is to be regretted that we did not accomplish this during the compass of the Fifth War Loan drive proper, we nevertheless did it during the month of July when all E bonds count. The thing which adds to the making of the quota is that it evidences a certain tenacity which speaks well of local determination.

People Take Old Gag Line Seriously

WASHINGTON—Probably never before have the good people of the land taken so seriously that old gag line: "Write your congressman." The mere fact that Congress is taking a holiday in order to get in a little campaigning doesn't seem to make much difference either. Those skeleton office staffs plugging away on the Hill these hot summer days are piling up enough unfinished business out of the daily mail bags to last most of the members all winter.

Take the mail piled up by Rep. Alvin E. O'Konki (R-Wis.), a freshman. You would hardly think he had time to get acquainted with his constituents, much less establish himself on a you-write-me-and-I'll-write-you basis.

However in 18 months, O'Konki has received more than 16,000 letters, telegrams and postcards, and personally has taken care of more than 15,000 of them.

As a matter of fact, Mr. O'Konki

The War Today

by Dewitt Mackenzie Associated Press War Analyst

Whatever other implications of the Japanese cabinet upheaval there may be, one thing stands out crystal clear: It represents recognition of the extreme peril in which the empire stands. Beyond that we cannot go with certainty until we learn the complexion of the new cabinet. We shouldn't rush to conclusions.

In the contingency of a moderate government being formed, shorn of the extreme military element which ex-Fremier Tojo represents (and news dispatches say this isn't likely), it will mean that Nippon has decided to purge herself of the outward signs of barbaric aggression in an attempt to soften the Allied peace demands.

Japan, like Germany, knows without the shadow of a doubt that she is beaten. The only question remaining in her mind is how much she can salvage from the wreckage. The same is true of Hitlerdom. These two comrades in murder and pillage are walking the last mile together.

It's difficult to escape the thought that the Tokyo government crisis is associated with the disaster which is piling up on Herr Hitler. When Japan committed her savage treachery at Pearl Harbor she was hitching her war cabinet to Hitler's blazing star. She gambled that he would win the European conflict, and thereby ensure a victory for the Mikado. She knew that if Hitler lost, she would lose. And the Fuehrer, for his part, placed much dependence on the amount of Allied striking power which Japan would absorb.

The Prussian militarists fully recognize their defeat. A similar stage has been reached in Japan, though Nippon is capable of standing off collapse longer than is Germany.

Then there are those who contend that a Chinaman should have come over here, to learn about a Wallace's chance.—Exchange.

only one don't; namely, don't write your congressman about affairs at home with which the federal government has nothing to do.

Much of the congressman's mail today, he says, has to do with veteran's claims and rehabilitation and because he has worked on so many of them, he's becoming quite an expert. In fact that's how a lot of members of Congress became experts in a spot, that's one little source of pride Mr. O'Konki will have to forego. The mail they receive frequently gets completely out of hand.

About 90 per cent of every Congressman's mail is of the will-you-please-do-this variety (some times without the please). The rest of it, even among the quiet, inoffensive legislators, is erank mail. Much of this type of mail doesn't deserve an answer but most of it gets one at least from O'Konki.

Capitol Comment: De Gaulle's Visit To Washington Successful

WASHINGTON (Sp.)—Franklin Roosevelt, 62, is five terms older than Tom Dewey, 42. My impression is that General Charles de Gaulle, whatever he came to Washington for. His visit here was successful and his stock went up every day he spent in the United States.

I happened to be standing across the street in front of the State Department on one occasion when General de Gaulle, accompanied by his aides, entered the Blair House. A large tri-color of France, on a flagpole in front of the building, waved gently in the breeze. Some 50 or 60 persons were waiting near the entrance to get a glimpse of the Fighting French General.

De Gaulle got out of his limousine quickly and walked up the steps in a soldierly fashion. When he reached the top of the steps he paused a second, stood perfectly erect, and acknowledged the applause of the people with a graceful wave of his hand. He looked every inch the soldier and leader he is.

A passing sailor, looking at the crowd waiting to see De Gaulle, said to his companions: "If Hitler were in there these people would do the same thing." A half-grown boy standing beside me observed: "I guess after the war they will make him king of France or something."

But to the majority of those present General de Gaulle symbolized everything good that France stands for, the French who are fighting on our side against the Huns, the French who didn't know when they were beaten, the French who kept fighting when the odds were against them 100 to 1. A strange feeling of pride and admiration welled up within me as I saw the soldierly Frenchman come out of the Blair House, stand a moment scowling the steps as erect and under the waving tri-color, de-

Hollywood: 'Walking Zanuck' Was Boy Genius

HOLLYWOOD—The little man sits at a polished desk at the far end of his richly carpeted, richly furnished sanctuary, so that as you enter you feel you are being granted an Audience. But as you cover the vast distance between door and desk, he rises brisk and friendly to shake hands. He is Darryl Francis Zanuck, mighty mite of 20th Century-Fox, a five-foot-five, 148-pound package of cinematic energy and ideas.

Not yet 42, Zanuck was one of those dynamic "boy geniuses." At 23, he was already in charge of all production at this mammoth plant, after movie apprenticeship as writer and associate producer. As we talked he paced a few steps back and forth at first, then more until he was covering the entire 80-foot length of the office. Once or twice, talking steadily, he wandered absently through the door behind his desk into the trophy room. Just when I thought I had lost him, he was back again, pacing, pacing. Once in a story conference a secretary counted his trips, reports he covered the room 900 times.

He is stirred up today about the part he wants his movies to play in enlightening America on the war and the peace to come. His personal program, he says is devoted solely to this cause. "If I can't make a real contribution through pictures," he almost shouts as he paces, "I'd rather be back in the army." He evolved the lush formula for musicals which moulded Alice Faye, Betty Grable and others to stardom, but since returning from North Africa and the Aleutians—as a colonel with the Allied command he photographed the African invasion—he is leaving the musicals to others. "They're important," he says, "but I personally can't get interested. I'm gambling on these other films that cry to be made." Then he plunges vigorously into details of "The Purple Heart" (already seen), of "Wilson," story of the father of the League

Today And Tomorrow Shaping German Settlement

By WALTER LIFFMANN

Within the past two weeks there has been considerable progress toward defining the terms to be imposed upon Germany. In the nature of things, because they are Germany's two largest next-door neighbors, the definition of the German terms could not in fact begin until France and Poland took their positions.

They have now done that. When General de Gaulle was in Washington he made a public declaration at his press conference which covered the western boundaries of Germany and also the control from western Europe of Germany's military power. The Polish government has now followed by committing itself in principle, and to a considerable degree in substance, on the eastern boundaries of Germany. This will shape the relations of all the countries east of Germany among themselves and toward Germany.

The French position is to abjure any claim to the annexation of territory held by Germany in 1939. But France will for a long time to come occupy with her armies the German territory on the left bank of the Rhine, and she will ask that the two great centers of war-making power in western Germany, namely the Ruhr Valley and the Saar Valley, be administered by international economic authority. Here in concrete terms is the French contribution to the policing of Germany in the immediate post-war period.

If it is agreed to, as almost certainly it will be by the big three and by Belgium and the Netherlands, the foundations of the western half of the structure of the settlement will have been laid. In effect it will mean that the immediate neighbors of Germany will be the first sentinels during the period of probation, and that at their side but in the main behind them in strategic reserve, there will be the power of the British Commonwealth and of the United States.

This is the only workable solution. For France can sit, because she must sit, on the German frontiers as long as Germany is to be under a special regime. British and American troops cannot in large numbers sit there very long.

The formal claim by the Polish government to the annexation of East Prussia is a decisive step in settling the dispute between the Poles and the Soviet Union. When the German territory is placed under the Polish flag, the post-war government in Poland must become the ally of the Soviet Union. All the other questions in dispute have to be composed, whether they relate to the personal of the Polish government or to the eastern boundaries. For a Poland that has incorporated East Prussia must renounce forever the pre-war policy of being neutral as between Germany and the Soviets, and antagonistic to both. The Germans will not willingly give up East Prussia, and only a very strong Poland allied with the Soviet Union can hope to retain East Prussia.

So important is this conclusion that there are strong reasons for asking, as the most statesmanlike of the Poles are already asking privately, whether they ought to accept, even if the Soviet Union agreed, the whole of East Prussia. If Danzig becomes a Polish city, as it should if Poland is to have secure access to the Baltic, then would it not be wiser if the onus of German resentment were shared by agreeing to have the Soviets occupy Koenigsberg? That is a very German city, and as it lies to the east of Danzig and is close to the Soviet frontier, there are Poles who think that the Soviets should take it, thus assuring a combined Soviet-Polish defense of East Prussia.

In these two actions, which are not unrelated, by the French and the Poles, we have moved from the general to the specific. Our treatment of Germany cannot be decided upon until we have fixed the German frontiers and have settled the relations among themselves of Germany's neighbors and of the three great powers.

Then within this territorial and political framework, but only then, can we begin to shape the policy we can and should pursue towards Germany. There is, for example, the question as to how far and in what sense we should promote the decentralization of the German Reich into its larger historic components. For the success of any such policy will depend upon the solidarity of the nations around Germany. That solidarity cannot be achieved in generalities. It can only be achieved through specific agreements by France, the Netherlands, Belgium, Great Britain, Canada and the United States, through specific agreements by Poland, Czechoslovakia and the Soviet Union.

Stream Becomes Menace

PRATT, Kans. — An Underground stream has become a menace in normally dry western Kansas.

There has been no explanation for the underflow which has caused farm machinery to become hopelessly mired in the J. G. Chamberlain farm.

A tractor and combine have been swallowed by the stream.

Livestock Over State In Good Condition

AUSTIN, July 20 (AP)—Pasture grass has dried out rapidly from hot weather and lack of rain in most of the state but livestock generally is in good condition.

The United States department of agriculture report for the week ended July 17 said the Panhandle and high plains were exceptions to dry range conditions.

In dry areas livestock will begin to show shrinkage unless rains are received soon. There was a shortage of stock water in parts of the rolling plains area.

CONVENTION CLOSEUPS...

Democrats' Bald Heads Look Exactly Like Republicans' Did 2 Weeks Ago

By JAMES MARLOW
CHICAGO, July 20 (AP)—From the general direction of heaven—upstairs in the stadium balcony—the democrats' bald heads look just like the republicans' bald heads of two weeks ago. . . .

Both parties have their good-time Charleys when they set out to play. They give the bars and the nightclubs a big whirl and make a rush for steaks, of which the Chicago restaurants have plenty. . . .

At noontime the democrats don't seem to fill up the hotel lunch rooms as the republicans did and one complaining waitress thought she solved the mystery with this: "I guess it's because the democrats have been in jobs so long they can afford to eat in their rooms. . . ."

A perspiring reporter bought a 10-cent bottle of salt tablets. The expense account could have read—but didn't—salt tablets—10 cents; laxative to get salt tablets—$1.25; thermometer to tell when to take salt tablets—$1.75; sweater to prevent chill while waiting for salt tablets to take effect—$7. . . . Total $10.10.

There have been very few dramatic moments at either convention but a real one came last night. Chairman Bob Hannenagan suddenly interrupted the proceedings to announce a news bulletin that Tojo and his Japanese cabinet had quit.

There was some sharp, immediate applause. The convention needed a moment to digest the meaning of that bulletin, that it might spell a change in the Pacific war, they leaped to their feet, cheering, roaring, applauding.

IN UNIFORM

1st Lt. Walter T. Bigus, of Jersey City, N. M., graduate of class 43-3 of Big Spring Bombarader school, has participated in 50 missions over Europe from 15th air force bases in Africa and Italy, according to information received at the school here. Targets in Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, France, Italy, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia and Greece were charted on his maps during more than 300 hours of operational flying as a navigator on a B-17. Enemy flak caught up with him once over Bologna, Italy, resulting in slight wounds on both hands. He received the distinguished flying cross and air medal with seven oak leaf clusters. He now is back in the states.

1st Lt. Harry L. Phinney, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Phinney, of North Route Box 6, Coahoma, Texas, recently completed an orientation course somewhere in England designed to bridge the gap between training in the States and combat soldiering against the enemy in France.

Before entering the Army Air Forces, he attended Coahoma High School, graduating class of 1938, in Coahoma.

Sgt. John Preston Senter, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Senter of Route 2, Big Spring, is now serving as an electrician at Uncle Sam's largest aircraft assembly and repair depot somewhere in England.

A graduate of Big Spring High School, Sergeant Senter was employed as a salesman for the C. R. Anthony Company prior to his enlistment in the army on December 20, 1941.

At this huge Air Service Command depot, every type of fighting and bombing plane is assembled, repaired, and modified before being sent to tactical commands.

Flying on bombing missions over Europe is like any other job not too exciting and just something that must be done. Lt. John McLaren of Elizabeth, N. J., graduate of Big Spring Bombarader school's class 43-8, said. He has returned to finish his job over there, after 21-day leave in the states. Lt. McNaren, bombardier in England designed to bridge the gap between training in the States

Cross and air medal, he was in the states when the invasion started. Wishing the invasion had started before he completed his 30 missions and returned to the states, he said wistfully as he listened to invasion reports, "I sure wish I could have been back there, even for a few missions, just so I could have seen those strips and troops pouring in on the beach and lining up for battle." He has performed missions over Berlin, Frankfurt and other parts of the continent.

Two Killed, And One Wounded In Gun Play
AUSTIN, July 20 (AP)—Two persons were killed and one was wounded today in a shooting which deputy sheriffs said occurred in a residence just outside of the east city limits.

Dead were Jessie Singleton, 44, and W. W. Scott, 31. M. M. Scott, 51, father of W. W. Scott, was hospitalized for wounds in the shoulder and hip.

Deputy Sheriffs Paul Blair and L. T. Gunn who were investigating said the shooting occurred at a residence owned by the Scotts and occupied by a relative of Singleton's.
