West Blockade Cuts Output In Red Zone

BERLIN, Oct. 11. (AP)—Important industries in the Russian occupation zone of Germany have been hit by the Western Powers' counter-blockade.

A report of the third quarter of this year by the German economic commission of the Soviet zone yesterday conceded that production goals were not being met in several fields.

Lagging steel and metals production was blamed on lack of machinery which formerly came from Western Germany.

The counter-blockade of the Soviet zone was ordered by the Western military governors July 26 in retaliation against the Russian blockade of the Western sectors of Berlin.

The order halted freight traffic to and from the Russian zone, cutting Eastern Germany off from supplies of Ruhr coal and steel and machine products from Western Germany.

Indians Gain Throne Room

BRAVES FIELD, Boston, Oct. 11. (AP)—The Cleveland Indians won their first World Series since 1920 today by outlasting the aroused Boston Braves, 4-2, in a spine-tling sixth game witnessed by 40,103 frantic fans.

It was as frantic a finish as has been seen in some time with the Braves needing but a run to get even, battling back in fine fashion after the Indians appeared to have the game all sewed up.

Cleveland took a 4-1 lead in the last of the eighth with Lemon seeming to gain more zip as he went along. Then he suddenly lost it.

Tommy Holmes' single to center started the spurt that came so close to victory. After Al Dark lined out, Earl Torgeson smashed a double to right. When Lemon lost, Bob Elliott and walked him on a 3-1 count to load the bases, he was replaced by Bearden.

The slim southpaw who had won the big playoff game with the Boston Red Sox and who had shut out the Braves Friday on five hits, chalked up the second out on a fly to deep center by pinch hitter Clint Constar, scoring Holmes.

Phil Masi, batting for Bill Salkeid, hit a double high off the left field wall, driving in Torgeson. The big crowd went mad as Mike McCormick stepped up with the tying run on third base and the potential winner on second. Bearden, working calmly, made McCormick hit back to the box for an easy third out.

Again in the ninth the Braves threatened. Pesky Eddie Stanky, daring Bearden to get the ball over the plate, worked him for a walk on a 3-2 pitch.

Manager Billy Southworth sent Connie Ryan in to run for Stanky, who still is bothered by an ankle injury. Sibby Sisti, hitting for pitcher Warren Spahn, was up with orders to bunt.

Sisti failed miserably when his bunt was a 10-foot pop in front of the plate that catcher Jim Hegan smothered for the out and fired in first time to double Ryan. Holmes' fly to Bob Kennedy in left field ended the series.

PICKETS Radar-Eyed Subs Are New U. S. Defense

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11. (AP)—A new unit in the nation's defenses will start operating next month—a submarine with radar "eyes" to detect any hostile planes attempting a sneak approach across such remote places as the Polar Seas.

The Navy announced today that the Submarine Tigrone, converted into the first radar picket submarine, will be commissioned Nov. 1.

She is the first of two such pickets to be converted under the naval modernization program. The two presumably will be prototypes for others which will make up a whole chain of pickets for areas that may need watching.

The idea is that submarine pickets can cruise into the far north through water impossible for surface craft and take station on a radar watch for strange aircraft. At the first "sight" of approaching planes the sub would radio its report.

It is understood the conversion included fitting the Tigrone out with the "schmorkel," a German-designed breathing device which enables a submarine to remain submerged for virtually unlimited periods.

Deck guns are reported to have been removed from the Tigrone to allow room for installation of extensive radar equipment, such as "bird cage" and "bed spring" aeriels.

While the general effects of the rail stoppages had not yet become severe, many votes in favor of a strike have been taken. A general railroad strike is in prospect if the pro-Communists get enough votes this week.

The coal strike and rail stoppages are being directed by the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor (GCL). Observers here are convinced the labor uproar is meant to undermine the effects of the European recovery program.

The premier warned Saturday that while "the right to strike is a sacred right, the right of a nation to live is no less sacred."

He said the government would take necessary steps to halt the agitation.

When 2nd Lt. Glenn Davis, former all-America back for Army reported in Seoul Korea Oct. 1, he was greeted officially by Lt. Edward H. LaVelle, Big Spring.

Lt. Davis reported for duty with the 32nd regiment of the 7th Infantry division and surprised veterans in the Korean theater by quoting their grid and basketball records. Lt. LaVelle is public information officer for the 7th Infantry. He is the son of Mrs. Edith LaVelle, 406 Washington.

Senate Races Are Receiving More Notice

Party Control Hinges On 11 Or 12 Contests

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11. (AP)—Next to the presidency, the Senate races this year are receiving more attention than any other election battles. In some instances they are even overshadowing the Dewey-Truman duel.

The question of which party will control the next Senate hinges on 11 or 12 contests.

The present Senate is made up of 51 Republicans and 45 Democrats. A net gain of four for the Democrats would win back control which the GOP captured with a 12-seat turnover in 1946.

Many public claims have been made by both parties. But private estimates—made to a reporter by a Republican and Democrat whose job it is to keep abreast of the Senate scraps—size up the situation this way as of today:

The Republican believes his party will keep control. He sees a probable loss of two seats—in Oklahoma and Minnesota, with Wyoming's contest hanging in the balance. But he says there is a fifty-fifty chance of winning two Democratic seats in Tennessee and New Mexico. All the other seven races that figure in the calculations are safe for the GOP, in this campaign official's opinion.

The Democrat figures his party can win four seats from the Republicans—in West Virginia, Oklahoma, Minnesota, and Wyoming—but Senate control may hinge on whether Sen. Murray (D) can pull through in Montana.

O. W. Cathey, Frank George and Cosden Petroleum Corp. have split honors for first payments on 1948 taxes.

Cathey was the first to pay his city county and state taxes, according to Tom Rosson, county tax collector-assessor.

As has been the case for years, Frank George had the first poll tax receipt issued.

The Big Spring Independent School district reported Cosden as the initial taxpayer on the 1948 roll.

Totals were not available from all sources Monday although the city did report $12,394.39 to date. The school district had something over $20,000, Cosden's account having exceeded $19,000. The county office was swamped with payments Monday and no tabulation had been possible.

ATHENS, Oct. 11. (AP)—Greek army forces were reported advancing today on a wide front against the Communist guerrillas in a new offensive aimed at routing the rebels from their mountain strongholds.

Dispatches from the front said the government forces began a drive against the Communist-held triangle in Northwestern Greece. This is an area of about 300 square miles in Western Macedonia, just south of the juncture of Greece's border with the Albania and Yugoslavia, near Lake Prespa.

Seasonal snows, expected in about three weeks, would make it difficult to dislodge the Communists before spring.

BRADFORD, Pa., Oct. 11. (AP)—The headlights of 50 automobiles were used to light up the Mt. Alto, Pa., airfield last night to enable two fliers to land their small plane.

The plane, piloted by Tyler E. Leslie of Fort Allegheny, Pa., circled for an hour above the airfield—which has no night landing lights—before police were able to round up 50 motorists and their cars.

Demonstrators waving black flags and singing Fascist songs surged through Rome last night, shouting the name of their fallen hero. Police chased the demonstrators from one square to another in downtown Rome. Many demonstrators were bruised when club-wielding police charged them.

Special police precautions were taken at the first assize court session where the trial opened. The defense has called 108 witnesses, including persons connected with the Vatican, the army and the nation's political life.

Graziani, now stripped of all rank, was captured by allied troops in Northern Italy. Later he wrote a book while waiting in jail for his trial. In it he claimed he acted only in defense of Italy and that history would vindicate him.

West Considering Big Four Meeting

ALTHOUGH FACILITIES INCOMPLETE

T&P Western Division Begins Full Operations Here Today

Although permanent office facilities will not be completed until the end of the week, new western divisions headquarters for the Texas and Pacific began full operation in Big Spring this morning.

Several members of the division superintendent's staff head established temporary offices in the east end of the T&P passenger station here a few weeks ago, and train dispatchers moved in Sunday and Sunday night to begin immediate operations for the new division.

Some 30 persons, most of them from Fort Worth, have been transferred here. The entire T&P system formerly was operated from Fort Worth.

Dispatchers who came here yesterday, including a chief, two assistant chiefs and a staff of 10, left Fort Worth immediately after completing their respective shifts there, arriving here in time to begin duties in Big Spring without interrupting working schedules. New dispatchers' offices have been completed on the second floor of the passenger station, and the remainder of the remodeling project is expected to be finished and ready for occupants by the end of the week.

The western division is headed by W. T. Alexander, division superintendent, who is responsible for all T&P operations between Fort Worth and El Paso.

Key staff members are D. E. Crouser, assistant superintendent in direct charge of the district from Fort Worth to the east end of the Big Spring yard; J. G. Tucker, assistant superintendent in charge of territory from Big Spring to El Paso; L. R. Stevens, general roadmaster, who is supervisor of maintenance for track, bridges, buildings, etc., over the entire division; D. L. Ringler, master mechanic, supervisor of maintenance for equipment, locomotives, cars, etc., for the entire division; R. M. Hicks, trainmaster, direct supervision over movement of trains, working directly under both assistant superintendents; J. W. McCoy, chief dispatcher, who is responsible for movement of trains on the entire division, with direct supervision over train dispatchers who issue orders for the movement of trains.

Teachers stay off their jobs, seek back pay

FOITTSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 11. (AP)—Seven teachers say they won't return to their jobs at the Blythe Township school until they have been paid $1,400 each in back pay. The teachers left their classrooms last Monday after the school board said it didn't have the money.

The teachers offered to work in the nearby anthracite mines—a major source of revenue for the district—to help raise the money. The school board, rejected this idea on the grounds that school teachers should be in school and not in the mines.

Supervising Principal James P. Nach said yesterday the state of Pennsylvania has agreed to provide $12,000 and the school district said it could raise additional money for payments to the teachers.

A spokesman for the teachers said, however, he had been told by a state official that the commonwealth would advance only $7,600 and that this sum was for salaries and expenses yet to come.

With the situation at an impasse, the teachers hired an attorney to represent them at a school board meeting tomorrow night when a solution will be sought. The teachers are paid $2,800 annually.

EL PASO, Oct. 11. (AP)—An El Paso mother and her six-year-old son were killed and five persons were injured, two critically, in a head-on collision late yesterday three miles north of Anthony, N. M.

Patrolman I. E. Salazar of the New Mexico State Police identified the dead as Mrs. Harold H. Haracker, 58, and her son Harold, Jr.

ROME, Oct. 11. (AP)—Former Marshall Rodolfo Graziani, Mussolini's "Lion of Africa," went on trial here today on charges of collaboration with the Nazis.

Graziani, highest-ranking of the surviving fascists, came out of retirement after Italy surrendered to the allies and headed the Duce's armed forces in the Italian puppet republic in the north.

The trial of 66-year-old Graziani has been delayed repeatedly in the past two years because of his failing health. However, he seemed in good condition today. The one-time ruler of Mussolini's short-lived African empire was smiling amiably as he entered the defendant's box.

Demonstrators waving black flags and singing Fascist songs surged through Rome last night, shouting the name of their fallen hero. Police chased the demonstrators from one square to another in downtown Rome. Many demonstrators were bruised when club-wielding police charged them.

Special police precautions were taken at the first assize court session where the trial opened. The defense has called 108 witnesses, including persons connected with the Vatican, the army and the nation's political life.

Reds Start Savage Offensive In China

NANKING, Oct. 11. (AP)—Heavy Communist forces struck savagely today at two Central China provincial capitals, Sian and Taiyuan, in what the Reds described as the opening of their fall campaign.

Both capitals were threatened. More than 1 million regular Red troops were engaged in fighting ranging from the Shensi Province capital of Sian to the Manchurian corridor near the coast.

Out of this widespread fighting, the national government claimed one victory. A military spokesman said national troops aided by strong naval units threw the Reds out of the Manchurian seaport of Yingkow, lost last year when the garrison rebelled. This same drive, the spokesman said, re-established direct land communications between Yingkow and Mukden.

A special emissary from President Chiang Kai-Shek returned from Taiyuan, capital of Shansi province, with grave tidings. The emissary, Gen. Hsu Yung-Chang, predicted the isolated capital would fall soon unless strong reinforcements were airlifted to Taiyuan.

The Communists surrounding Taiyuan, part of a force of 200,000 attacking the Shensi and Shansi capitals, appeared closer to their goal of overwhelming Taiyuan's Marshall Yen Hsi-Han's semi-autonomous Shansi sector than at any time since the war began.

MOSCOW, Oct. 11. (AP)—Pravda, the Communist Party newspaper, described today as fantastic reports that the Soviet Union might walk out of the United Nations and cut relations with the world organization.

The newspaper said such reports came from in the United States and that British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin was one of those primarily responsible for them.

The Soviet press carried today the first mention of President Truman's plan, later abandoned, to send Chief Justice Vinson to Moscow. The Tass News Agency account said the President decided on this when he "became dissatisfied with the situation in connection with the so-called Berlin question."

Secretary Marshall told a news conference in Washington Saturday Mr. Truman's specific interest in the atomic problem plus a general concern over world peace.

Pravda came from the Conservative Daily Mail, which said Churchill's speech at Llandudno, Wales, Saturday, was his greatest since he spoke at Fulton, Mo., March 5, 1946. The Conservative Daily Telegraph said "if Russia seeks peace, Mr. Churchill pointed the way."

The Times of London expressed doubts about Churchill's suggestion for a speedy final settlement with Russia, with the atom bomb as the West's security.

Note Delivered To Bramuglia As Mediator

Message Is Restatement Of Principles

PARIS, Oct. 11. (AP)—The United States, Britain and France said today they are "not unwilling" to accept a Berlin settlement calling for combined lifting of the blockade and meeting of the Big Four foreign ministers council on the whole German question.

A British-American spokesman told reporters this was the sense of a note delivered by the Western Powers to Argentine Foreign Minister Juan Bramuglia, who has been heading up a six-nation effort to mediate the East-West deadlock in the United Nations Security Council over Berlin.

The spokesman said the note primarily was a restatement of the basic principles the Western Powers would like to see embodied in a Security Council settlement of the Berlin stalemate. This indicated strongly the Western Powers are not prepared to enter any direct negotiations with Russia over Berlin, which is what the Kremlin wants.

There was, however, no immediate indication of Russia's attitude on this idea. This, it is assumed, is because Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky is waiting for instructions from the Kremlin. He transmitted to Moscow Friday a set of questions put to him by Bramuglia, informants said.

Bramuglia saw Dr. Philip C. Jessup of the United States, Sir Alexander Cadogan of Britain, and Alexandre Parodi of France yesterday and asked them a number of similar questions.

Earlier, an American spokesman said the Western Powers had informed the Security Council's "neutral six" that no mediation of the Berlin crisis could succeed unless the Russians lifted the blockade first.

Churchill Speech Evokes A Storm

LONDON, Oct. 11. (AP)—Winston Churchill's speech warning that World War III might spring from the Berlin crisis evoked stormy comment among Britons over the week end.

Emanuel Shinwell, war minister in the labor government, called the wartime prime minister "a danger to peace." Health Minister Aneurin Bevan called Conservative Leader Churchill "one of the most reckless speakers in British political history."

Praise came from the Conservative Daily Mail, which said Churchill's speech at Llandudno, Wales, Saturday, was his greatest since he spoke at Fulton, Mo., March 5, 1946. The Conservative Daily Telegraph said "if Russia seeks peace, Mr. Churchill pointed the way."

The Times of London expressed doubts about Churchill's suggestion for a speedy final settlement with Russia, with the atom bomb as the West's security.

The Rev. J. R. Maceo, rector of the St. Mary's Episcopal church, was guest speaker at the guest tea of the 1905 Hyperion club in the home of Mrs. K. H. McGibbon, 108 Cedar Road, Saturday afternoon.

subject, "The Personality of an Unforgettable Character," using as his character study, Dr. R. G. Bell, who before his death lived in Devonshire, England. The Rev. Maceo quoting his favorite expression, said that "Reputation is man's opinion of his fellow creatures, but character is the true man which God alone knows."

30-DAY SMOKING TEST PROVES CAMEL MILDNESS!

Prove it Yourself! Make the Camel 30-Day Test in Your "T-Zone"

Money-Back Guarantee: Smoke Camels for 30 days. If, at any time during these 30 days, you are not convinced that Camels are the mildest cigarette you ever smoked, return the package with the unused Camels and we will refund your full purchase price, plus postage. This offer good for 90 days from this date.

(Signed) R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY, WINSTON-SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA

For 30 consecutive days in a recent test, hundreds of men and women all across the country smoked Camels—and only Camels—on the average of one to two packages a day.

Every week, their throats were carefully examined by noted throat specialists—a total of 2470 examinations from coast to coast.

And these famous throat specialists reported that they found not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels!

But prove it yourself! In your "T-Zone"—T for Taste and T for Throat. Smoke Camels for 30 days. Let YOUR OWN TASTE tell you about that full, rich Camel flavor. Let YOUR OWN THROAT tell you how mild a cigarette can be! Yes, prove for yourself that there's

NO THROAT IRRITATION DUE TO SMOKING CAMELS!

YOU WOMEN WHO SUFFER HOT FLASHES then FEEL CHILLY-

Here's Good News!
 Are you between the ages of 35 and 45 and going through that trying functional "middle-age" period peculiar to women? Does this make you suffer from hot flashes, feel clammy, so nervous, irritable, weak? Then so try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms! It's famous for this!
 Many wise "middle-age" women take Pinkham's Compound regularly to help build up resistance against this distress.
 Pinkham's Compound contains no opiate—no habit-forming drugs. It helps nature (you know what we mean?). This great medicine also has what doctors call a stomachic tonic effect.
 NOTE: Or you may prefer LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S TABLETS with added iron.

Lydia E. Pinkham's VEGETABLE COMPOUND

According to a Nationwide survey: MORE DOCTORS SMOKE CAMELS THAN ANY OTHER CIGARETTE

Doctors smoke for pleasure, too! And when three leading independent research organizations asked 113,597 doctors what cigarette they smoked, the brand named most was Camel!

KASENKINA STORY

Destruction Of Soviet Records Allows Concealment Of Fact Husband Purged

(Copyright, 1948, King Features Syndicate, Inc. Reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.) In today's article, Mrs. Kaseknina tells how the destruction of Soviet records enabled her to conceal the fact that her husband had been purged; the succession of interviews and the U. S. of her investigation by the NKVD; the instructions on how to behave in America; and how she was able to make a good appearance in this country.

By OKSANA S. KASENKINA Edited by Isaac Don Levine The destruction of the center of Slavyansk, with all the local Soviet records, made it possible for me to conceal from the authorities in Moscow the fact that my husband had been purged. And this "great crime" of my life enabled me to get out of Soviet Russia and come to America.

For six months prior to my departure I was kept in a state of suspense while I was subjected to innumerable interrogations. As I was progressing from rung to rung on the inquisitorial ladder, I never knew when my very life would be forfeited if my lie were discovered. I made up my mind to state in all my declarations that I was a widow, and that my husband had died in 1927.

First I received a call to report to the Personnel Department of the Commissariat of Education. Here I was interviewed at length as to my educational qualifications and teaching experience. I was given a paper directing me to report to the Department of Personnel of the Commissariat of Foreign Affairs.

When I got there I found myself applying for a pass in front of a peep-hole, one of many little windows staring at me, before I was directed upstairs to Comrade Andreyenko, who later came to join our Soviet school in New York. He hinted to me that I was being considered for an assignment to Paris, asked me many questions, and explained that I would have to deal with difficult children and parents. After convincing himself that I was not afraid of the responsibilities, he advised me to come back the following day to fill out a set of three questionnaires.

These three documents covered the widest range imaginable, and had to be accompanied by a full autobiographical sketch. When I got through filling out the papers, I made notes for myself of all dates and key facts, so that I would not make a slip at the next stage. To be caught in a discrepancy would be fatal. I wrote in my autobiography "My husband died in 1927."

Time dragged on. The winter was drawing to a close. I got orders to report to the forbidding premises of the Central Committee of the Communist Party, the nerve-center of the Soviet dictatorship which inspires awe in nearly all Russian hearts.

The interior of this impressive edifice is heavily draped, and I had a feeling shared by all those waiting there that many ears lurked behind the heavy drapes. I was inspected at every step here. Finally I was ushered into the presence of Alexandrov himself, then Stalin's chief aide in the field of education, whose position was more powerful than that of the Commissar of Education himself.

Alexandrov, the author of a famous Communist handbook on pedagogy, has since been removed for heresy. He was a cultured man and in the course of the interview asked me if I knew English. It was clear that I was not for America. He also inquired if I was acquainted with foreign schools, and then casually dropped the question as he looked at my papers: "Your husband died, eh? Died in 1927, I see?"

I was scared. In the back of my mind the thought flashed, "Do they know the truth? It's the Lubinka—NKVD prison—for me!" But I looked him straight in the eye and answered, "Yes he's dead."

Twice more I was called to the Central Committee for further scrutiny by two other top officials. One of these was a hardtitten and vicious examiner. He gave me a long lecture on how I should behave in America, that I should study the political situation, look into the causes of unemployment and explore the diseases of capitalism.

Then came more visits to the Foreign Commissariat, this time to fill out questionnaires and take pictures for a passport. And all the while one had to suppress the joy of the hoped for release, to watch one's step and one's tongue. I kept wondering if it was all a dream, after all.

My arrival. I received a call to report to the private shop of the Foreign Commissariat maintained solely for special government officials. I had never believed that I, a teacher, would get inside one of these much-envied "closed" stores maintained for the aristocracy. The Soviet government is anxious to put the best face on all of its representatives abroad.

I was fitted out with a black suit, an although the cloth was of poor quality, it was thrilling. I also acquired a blue, summer school uniform, a woolen dress, hat, leather purse, a pair of shoes, a coat, and a trunk. When all these things were delivered to my little abode on the outskirts of Moscow, the neighborhood was agog. Teachers and strangers came to view this luxury, feeling the clothes admiringly and discussing their quality and value.

As I was leaving for the station to take the train to the Black Sea port, where I was to board a Soviet vessel bound for the United States, still hardly trusting my own senses, a neighbor came to bid me farewell. (Tomorrow: The trip to America.)

Howard Heads Buy New Road Equipment

Howard county bought two pieces of road equipment Monday morning for $17,503.90.

This was the combined figure paid for a tractor and a road maintainer, both of them to be Allis-Chalmers products.

McClure Road Machinery company, handled the Allis-Chalmers line, was low on both bids. It got the tractor bid on a 3-1 vote when its bid of $8,882 was $117.60 under that of R. B. George (Catapillar).

The vote on the grader was unanimous. The McClure figure being $728 lower than the R. B. George offering on the Catapillar machine. Net bid on this machine was $8,621.50.

On the tractor bids, Commissioner Grover Blissard moved acceptance of the low figure and Commissioner G. E. Gilliam seconded. Commissioner Walter Long voted with them and Commissioner Earl Hull voted no, declaring that he felt the two machines he felt that low bid was not the most economical in the long run.

Delivery, according to McClure bids, is set within 30 days. Catapillar had asked for November delivery on its machine with the possibility it might not be delivered until the end of the year.

Expenditures for the machinery will be from the road and bridge fund.

Bids on the tractors (with trade-in allowances subtracted) were as follows: McClure (Allis-Chalmers) $9,882.40; R. B. George (Catapillar) $9,900; Morton (Gallion) $10,049.

Bids for the heavy duty 104-hp grader were McClure (Allis-Chalmers) $8,621.50; Plains (Adams) $11,077.89; Morton (Gallion) $9,590; R. B. George (Catapillar) $9,350.00.

Howard Cash Balance Falls

Howard county's cash balance tumbled during September, but bulk of it was in the meeting of obligations to the state highway department for a lateral road program under the 75-25 plan.

The over-all balance dwindled from $167,453 to $85,766, but in the process several state funds for lateral roads were liquidated. Of the total of $88,075 expended during the month of September, $73,500 went to the state highway department in fulfillment of the county's contract for an extensive road program which includes a dozen miles of new pavement.

Regular fund expenditures amounted to $24,575. The big item here was road and bridge payments in the amount of $13,003, but $3,784 of this amount was used to supplement transferred funds to make the state payment.

By bonds, disbursements and ending balances as of Sept. 30 were: Jury $1,836 and $879; road and bridge (exclusive of transfers) $13,003 included $3,784 for lateral roads, and $45,010; general $2,942 and $9,685; officer salary $5,811 and $3,541; permanent improvement $449 and $1,956; special road fund none and $3,173; road and bridge special none and $3,127; viaduct warrant none and $901; road service 1945 series sinking $5,705; library $530 and $4,505; road machinery warrants none and $7,267.

Return From Masonic Ceremony At Waco

Joe H. Cooper has been returned here by county authorities from Hobbs, N. M., on a charge of passing hot checks. He allegedly obtained $330 in one transaction.

The county jail also had other occupants, among them Willie Freedman, a Negro, and Ramon Padillo.

Freedman is accused of burglary while Padillo was picked up on a burglary count.

Jesse L. Clark is being held for San Antonio military authorities. He is an alleged deserter.

Americans Charged With Using Unfair Confession Tactics

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9. (AP)—Some "un-American" tactics were employed by U. S. civilian investigators to wring confessions from German prisoners, says a Pennsylvania jurist who recently reviewed 139 Dachau death sentences and recommended 29 be commuted.

Judge E. Leroy Van Roden, president judge of the Delaware County Orphans Court, said Army investigation showed that mock trials and solitary confinement were used to obtain signed confessions.

"A lot of times the investigators would march the prisoners to a small room in which the investigators would dress up as Army officers. They would hold a mock court and convict these people. Then, they would sentence them to death and obtain written confessions."

Tech Plans Homecoming

LUBBOCK, Oct. 11.—With a record 6,000 visitors expected, Texas Technological College this week was preparing for the largest annual Homecoming of its 23-year history.

The Oct. 30 homecoming program will include a giant parade, a luncheon, an afternoon football game between Tech's Red Raiders and Rice Institute Owls, and a dance.

Only 2,000 general admission seats remain to be sold, and indications are that nearly 25,000 persons, the largest crowd in Tech history, will witness the game. Rice will be making its first visit to Lubbock, the five previous meetings between the Raiders and Owls having taken place in Houston.

TEXAS POLL

Democracy Blindly Electing Supreme Court Judges

By JOE BELDEN

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 11.—Democracy is almost blind when it comes to electing judges of the Supreme Court of Texas.

A large majority of the voters don't even know the names of the men who run for high judicial office, let alone the qualifications of the candidates. They cast their ballots by hunch and accident. Having no solid facts upon which to base their choice, they are often lured into voting for a man by nothing more than the look and sound of his name.

A number of leading lawyers are advocating an end to this hit-and-miss system of electing high court judges in Texas. They are backing a plan which calls for a non-political commission to nominate the judges, the governor to appoint them, and the voters to decide periodically which ones if any ought to be removed.

What are the prospects for such a change?

Only by constitutional amendment approved by the voters will it be possible to change the system of electing judges. Most voters will admit they don't know much about judges, but they are not ready to give up their right to elect members of the Supreme Court. It will take a lot of campaigning to persuade a majority of the voters that a system of non-political appointment is better.

On July 24, more than a million Texas Democratic voters took part in nominating four men to serve on the Supreme Court. Three weeks later, a statewide survey by The Texas Poll showed that only 30 per cent of the qualified voters and only 35 per cent of the persons who actually voted could recall by name one or more of the winning candidates.

It was not that most voters forgot the names of the judges. The fact is that they never learned them. A statewide survey of qualified voters three weeks before the July 24 election showed that at that time only 16 per cent could recall by name one or more of the men who were running for Supreme Court.

Comparison of the two surveys indicates that the publicity which attended the election helped to acquaint a good many voters with the names of the principal candidate. But it was not enough to inform a bare majority. It seems clear that the great majority voted blindly when they marked their ballots for Supreme Court judges.

The post-election survey showed that Judge James P. Hart, who conducted the most vigorous campaign in recent court history, became the best known among the winning candidates. Judge Few Brewster, who was unopposed and therefore did not conduct a publicity campaign, was the least known.

The Texas Poll made its post-election measurement with this question, which was put to a statewide cross section of 1,000 qualified voters:

"Four judges were elected to the Supreme Court of Texas in July. Which ones can you recall by name?"

Correctly named: Qualified Voters 21% Actual Voters 24%

Favor some other way: 15% 17%

No opinion: 9% 12%

W. St. John Garwood: 12 15

Few Brewster: 9 12

The results above indicate that persons who actually voted on July 24 were only slightly better informed as a group than the qualified electorate as a whole. Interviewing for this survey was conducted August 9-15.

To find out how much sentiment exists for changing the present system of electing judges, The Texas Poll asked these two questions:

"Do you think judges of the Supreme Court of Texas should be elected by the people, or do you think they should be chosen in some other way?"

Qualified Voters: 76% Actual Voters: 74%

Favor election: 21% 24%

Favor some other way: 15% 17%

No opinion: 9% 12%

100% 100%

"How do you think they (Supreme Court judges) should be chosen?" (Asked only of those who said they thought judges should be chosen in some other way besides election.)

Qualified Voters: 53% Actual Voters: 63%

Favor appointment by non-political board: 53% 63%

Favor appointment by governor: 47 53

Favor appointment by State bar: 2.0 2.1
