

Matadors Win Zone Crown

By Leon Watson
The Motley County Matadors captured the 2-1A North Zone championship last Friday by edging out Valley 20-18 in one of the hardest fought ball games of the season.

The Matadors defense rose to the occasion time after time to hold the defending district champions out of the endzone, creating five turnovers in the process, while the offense picked up 197 yards rushing and 38 passing.

Valley had won four in a row over the Matadors and were ready to make it five. Motley County kicked off to Valley and on the second play of the game Valley's Kevin Hendricks ran 74 yards for a touchdown. Their PAT failed and with 11:25 left in the first quarter Valley lead 6-0.

MCHS came right back. Behind the runnings of Harvey Lee and Tim Shannon they drove to the Valley 20. Then quarterback Shawn Bearden threw a pass to tight end Wesley Stafford who carried the ball to the half-yard line. On the next play Darrell Moore crashed in for the TD. The Matadors PAT also failed, and with 8:46 left in the first quarter the score was tied 6-6.

Valley was forced to punt on their next series and MCHS took over on their own 45. Lee broke up the middle for 25 yards, then he and Shannon took turns running, moving the team to the Valley three yard line. With 2:26 left in the first quarter Bearden kept the ball for a TD, then ran over for a two point conversion. MC had captured the lead 14-6.

Early in the second quarter the Patriots drove to the MC 14 but were held on fourth and one. Motley County punted on fourth down, and the Patriots drove to the MC 10. They were stopped again when Jerry Long intercepted a pass in the end zone.

On the next play MC lost the ball on a fumble on the 24, and Valley got the ball back. This time they drove to the eight yard line and lost the ball on a fumble.

After two plays the Pats intercepted a pass on the MC 25 and they drove to the one yard line. With 51 seconds left in the half quarterback Richy Fuston dove in for the TD. The PAT failed, and the score stood 14-12 at halftime.

Both teams punted on their first possessions of the third quarter and MC got the ball on their 41. On the first play from scrimmage the offensive line blasted a hole in the defense and Lee out ran Valley's secondary 59 yards for a touchdown. Glen Calvert kicked the extra point, and MC extended their lead 21-12 with 7:40 left in the third quarter.

Valley began to move after the next kick off. They completed a pass for 50 yards to the MC 16, but on the next play Brent Campbell picked off a Patriot pass in the end zone.

Motley County punted after five plays to the Valley 23, and the Patriots moved 77 yards in 18 plays and scored when Fuston again went over on a quarterback sneak. With 6:29 left in the game the score stood 21-18.

After a six play drive for MCHS, Long punted the ball out-of-bounds on the Valley nine. Then four plays later Long intercepted a Valley pass on the 34. The Matadors punted again after three plays, and on Valleys next play Long intercepted his third pass of the night.

Lee gained 141 yards on 17 carries, Shannon gained 32 on nine, Moore had 17 on seven and Bearden picked up seven yards on nine.

Bearden completed three of five passes for 38 yards. Stafford caught two for 28, and Long had one for 10.

On defense Lee had 17 tackles, Stafford had 14, Long had 16, Moore had 10, Roy Thompson had nine, Shannon had eight, Todd Washington had nine, Kyle Hardin had eight, Calvert had seven (four for minus yardage). Bearden had five, Campbell had three, Rob Francis had two, and Alex Guerrero, Scott Read, Clayton Sims and Steve Long each got one. Stafford also recovered one fumble.

Valley gained 282 yards rushing and 61 yards passing. This was only the second regular district game Valley had lost since 1977. The first was against Nazareth two weeks ago.

Motley County will travel to Smyer this week to face the Bobcats for District 2-1A crown. All fans are asked to go and support the Matadors. (Smyer is between Hurwood and Opdyke, or between Lubbock and Levelland).

A Second Glance By Leon

I was moved by the actions of Coach Gene Griffin and Valley Coach Ted Giddens after the Valley game Friday. Both teams gathered at the center of the field. Giddens told the Matadors that Valley was behind them all the way and wished them luck. Griffin told the Patriots they were one of the finest high school ball clubs he had seen, then Giddens offered prayer, asking the Lord to protect the Motley County players as they continue to play.

Kinda' makes you warm all over, doesn't it?

The Smyer Bobcats sewed up their first ever District 2-1A South Zone Championship this year, finishing league play undefeated and 9-1 for the season. The Bobcats and Matadors will meet in Smyer Friday and play for the District Championship.

Coach Eddie Guess' Bobcats defeated Anton, Sudan, Sundown, Amherst and Whiteface for the zone title. They were led by tailback Rudy Salgado and an outstanding running quarterback in William Moseley.

Motley County, the leading class A team in the state will have a rugged battle against the Bobcats on their home field.

The Matadors have proven they can defeat tough, fired-up teams, and will be called on again to give it their all Friday night.

New Doctor Introduced At Lions Club Meeting

By Lila Meador
A new doctor who will be coming to Matador three days a week, was introduced at the first Tuesday meeting November 3, of Matador Lions Club. He is Ferit Acar, M.D., a member of Floydada's Caprock Hospital staff.

Dr. Acar (pronounced A jar) who specializes in internal medicine, will be on duty a half day on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week, as explained by Roy Tippin, resident nurse on full time duty at Motley General Clinic. With the services of Dr. Victor Chavez, who comes from Lubbock on Tuesdays and Thursdays, Motley County residents now have a well rounded schedule of medical services, augmented by Dr. Albert Traweek, who still maintains his office at the clinic.

Services and facilities at Caprock Hospital were described by Hospital Administrator Joe Rice, a guest at the meeting, who was enthusiastic over recent changes in the administration there.

"We can now offer extended services," Mr. Rice declared. "This means that you can get excellent hospital care within 30 miles. With four doctors-one on call 24 hours every day-and a staff of between 45 and 50 nurses, around the clock, we feel that we can take care of almost any emergency. Dr. Acar, who will be coming to Matador three days a week is an excellent doctor and will help solve some of your medical problems here, if given a chance."

Boss Lion Alan Bingham reported on action taken at the Directors' breakfast, which included setting December 12 as the date for the Lions annual Christmas party for Motley School students. A report was given by Lion Larry Hoyle, on the success of the bingo concession at the Halloween Carnival.

Karen House To Appear On National Television

By Lila Meador
Karen Elliott (Mrs. Arthur) House, foreign affairs reporter for the Wall Street Journal will appear on ABC's new "This Week With David Brinkley" which will air Sunday, November 15 in the time slot formerly held by the network's Issues and Answers. The format will be foreign policy interviews with international personalities, including heads of states.

Announcement of the new program appeared in Monday's Dallas Morning News, in a television review by columnist Ed Bark: "DAVID'S TRIO: Permanent panelists on ABC's new This Week With David Brinkley are Ben Bradlee, executive editor of the Washington Post, syndicated columnist and ABC analyst George Will; and Karen Elliott House, diplomatic reporter for the Wall Street Journal. Ms. House was an education and political reporter for The Dallas Morning News before joining the Journal staff in 1974."

Mrs. House, who spent the weekend in Matador visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Elliott, spoke of her new association with ABC, but said that she was not leaving her position with the Wall Street Journal and her continuing appearance on the Brinkley assignment would be subject to her existing commitments.

Mrs. House is no stranger to local television viewers, having appeared from time to time as a panelist on NBC's Meet the Press and CBS's Face The Nation, as well as a PBS program, Washington in Review.

She has traveled extensively on her assignments, and was in Cancun, Mexico early in the summer with Secretary Haig's group to make arrangements for the later meeting which President Reagan attended. While in Cancun, she met another Matador native, Robert Brandon of Houston, who was on an assignment with ABC. Mrs. House also was with reporters who attended the funeral of President Anwar Sedat, in Egypt.

Couple To Observe 60th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. (Clovis) Murphy, longtime residents of Motley County will observe their 60th anniversary Saturday in Lubbock, at a family gathering with their children as hosts. The former Addie Martin and Mr. Murphy were married November 15, 1921, in Floydada.

They have three children: Dr. C. H. Murphy, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Lamesa; Mrs. Ralph Jones (Mary) and Mrs. Franklin Price (Laverna), both of Matador. They have eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren, all of whom, with their parents, plan to attend the celebration. Mrs. Murphy, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. P. (Pal) Martin was born and reared at Whiteflat. She met her future husband when he came to Motley County in September of 1920 from Red River County. After their marriage the following year they continued to make their home in the Whiteflat community until moving to Matador in 1960. Mr. Murphy, although retired, still has farming and ranching interests in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy are active members of the First Baptist Church in Matador.

McCaghrens Return From Recent Trip

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McCaghren returned home recently from a tour of seven southern states, beginning October 21 and returning the 29th. Making the tour with them were their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McCaghren Jr., of Amarillo.

Leaving Arlington, Tex., the group toured Arkansas, Tennessee, North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana.

In Tennessee the first tour was Memphis, seeing the home of Elvis Presley, "Graceland", and in Nashville, a two day tour which included the only replica of the ancient Parthenon in Greece, which was erected in Centennial Park in Nashville in 1896; the "Grand Ole Opry" and elaborate shows in "Opryland"; the luxurious homes of the County and Western stars; the dinner theatre called "The Barn", a duplicate of "The Hayloft", in Lubbock, Tex.; also the "Open Window" and museum, origin of the Upper Room, with daily devotional and guide supplied by the United Methodist Church. The outstanding item in the museum was a large, hand carved scene of "The Lord's Supper."

This complex is sponsored by the United Methodist Church.

In Cherokee, N.C., the Cherokee Indian Reservation and National Park, with beautiful foliage of the Smoky Mountains were highlights, and in Chattanooga, the Houston Antique Museum, containing the "house of glass" with hundreds of glass collections, was among places of interest. Others included Lookout Mountain, which contains the famous Ruby Falls, discovered inside the mountain, which fall 145 ft. from an unknown source. The interior is described as beautiful as Carlsbad Caverns, only smaller. Also interesting was the "Confederama", where the Battle of Chattanooga, sealing the fate of the Confederacy, was enacted. Chattanooga Choo Choo Restaurant and Convention Center was one of the world's largest and finest restaurants, and with real railroad sleeping cars, amazed the group.

In Alabama the highlight was the tour of the campus and University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa, and in Jackson, Miss., the old capitol building and museum were visited.

Also interesting was the Vicksburg Battleground in Vicksburg.

The highlight of the trip was being reunited with a cousin that Mrs. McCaghren had not seen since she was a teenager.

Is A Cotton Set-Aside Coming?

With a lot of cotton being produced this year, prices are down. This dilemma may lead the government back into agriculture to create a cotton set-aside program in which farmers would be paid not to grow cotton on a certain amount of their land.

Interest in set-aside programs always increases when production is up and prices are down. Since Secretary of Agriculture Block recently announced a 15 percent wheat set-aside, interest has grown regarding a similar program for cotton. Such a program would be optional for cotton farmers. If you opted to participate, you could not plant cotton or any other crop for harvest on the deferred acres. Failure to set aside the acreage specified once in the program would result in the farmer losing any benefits from farm programs, including target prices and loans.

How much would a set-aside program help cotton prices?

Based on past experiences with set-aside programs, a 15 percent set-aside would result in only a three to five percent decrease in production. This reduced production would roughly increase cotton prices by five percent.

One reason why production would not be reduced more with such a set-aside program is that only one-half to two-thirds of the farmers normally participate. Also, those who do put their poorest land into the program will increase inputs on the remainder of their land to boost production.

So, cotton farmers and their organizations need to ponder the possible effects of a set-aside program as they study the issue.

Because of this year's bumper cotton crop Nationwide, farmers are trying to decide what to do with it—sell now, hold and hope for a higher price, or try to work a delayed pricing strategy.

Deciding when and at what price to sell is not easy. However, developing a "feel" for the market and following a good marketing program can pay off big.

With a current depressed cotton market, many farmers are trying to decide whether to place cotton under the government loan program or try a delayed pricing strategy such as the seller's call contract.

Under the government loan, cotton comes off the market and provides some cash flow for farmers. But it costs about a cent a pound per month to hold cotton in the loan program. Eventually, it has to move to market, so the loan program may not help market prices that much. Under the seller's contract, the farmer's price for cotton is tied to the futures market price. This gives the farmer an opportunity to actually establish a price for his cotton after delivery. However, the farmer must be sure to understand contract terms and conditions.

Here's how it works. The farmer agrees with a broker or buyer to deliver his cotton and to transfer ownership at that time. In Texas, terms of most seller's call contracts for cash advance to the farmers of an amount equal to the loan value at delivery time. Also, most contracts specify the loan value as a price floor.

Once he delivers the cotton, the farmer has no further storage costs but he can participate in a market upswing. The seller's call contract specifies that the farmer's price will be a certain number of points off a given futures month. The farmer decides the date for the price relationship to the futures contract.

Assume a farmer selects the March 1982 futures for his contract. If cotton in the March Strict Low Middling 1-1/16-inch futures contract is trading at 68 cents a pound and the farmer's current spot price is 58 cents for the same quality, his spot price is fixed 10 cents under the March futures contract if he signs a call contract. Thereafter, if the March futures go up or down, the farmer's price will be 10 cents a pound less.

A seller's call contract should allow for changing to a new contract month for a small fee. This allows the farmer to watch the market and sign the call contract when the difference between the future price and spot price is relatively small. In other words, the smaller the difference between the two market prices, the better off the farmer is.

To use the seller's call contract wisely, a farmer must follow changes and reasons for changes in both the futures and spot markets.

The key point to remember is that the farmer benefits from the call contract when prices increase. However, the spot price must have been fixed under the call contract or there would be no price protection in a falling market.

While both the loan program and the call contract can benefit a farmer if market prices increase, carrying costs tied to the loan can be excessive, depending on the length of storage. On the other hand, the call contract offers immediate transfer of cotton and gives more flexibility in a changing market.

Texas lawmakers upset by slow gas decontrol

By States News Service

WASHINGTON — Calling President Reagan's decision to put natural gas deregulation on the back burner "foolish, surprising and disappointing," Texas members of Congress said it now is likely controls will not be removed at least until 1983.

Price controls are scheduled to end in 1985 under the Natural Gas Policy Act, but Reagan was expected to ask Congress for faster deregulation.

"If Reagan doesn't go for it, I don't think (Ways and Means Committee Chairman) Dan Rostenkowski is going to push for it," scoffed Rep. Jack Hightower of Vernon, D-Texas. Rostenkowski, a liberal Democrat, is an opponent of natural gas deregulation.

Reagan's move was prompted by an assertion by Senate Majority Leader Howard Baker that early decontrol would not pass without a windfall profits tax on natural gas prices.

The president is opposed to the tax, which would give the Treasury part of the profits resulting from decontrol.

But Texas lawmakers said the president should have pushed for early decontrols despite the congressional mood.

"They (Reagan officials) may not have anyone who wants to carry the ball," said Rep. Marvin Leath of Marlin, D-Texas, suggesting that GOP congressional leaders are not anxious to support legislation that would help energy producers.

Most Texas legislators said they "philosophically" oppose a windfall profits tax on natural gas. Leath, however, said he may be willing to accept the tax if it is "the only way to get

'If Reagan doesn't go for it, I don't think Dan Rostenkowski is going to push for it.'

—Rep. Jack Hightower

deregulation now."

Sen. Lloyd Bentsen predicted that natural gas prices will rise "sharply and suddenly" if decontrols are not phased in before 1985. He said higher prices could cause shortages in Texas and other natural gas producing states.

In the view of gas producers, the current law is a hopeless failure — setting prices too low to spur increased exploration and threatening sections of the country with shortages and varying prices.

However, consumer groups are complaining that prices are rising too quickly because federal regulators are not enforcing the law.

The opposing views were presented Thursday in hearings before the Senate Energy Committee. In testimony today, the American Gas Association warned that unless certain changes were made in current law consumers could see their bills increase by an average of $243 in just one year after price controls are removed from about 60 percent of the country's gas supplies.

The AGA predicted that a homeowner paying $583 a year in gas bills in 1984 would pay $826 in 1985. The association blamed this 42 percent increase on a variety of escalator clauses that have been added to gas contracts under the current law.

The association said Congress needs to pass a law eliminating these clauses. If this is done, the association predicted that the average bill would rise by only $73 in 1985.

However, Sen. Wendell Ford, D-Ky., told AGA president George Lawrence that "asking Congress to rewrite private contracts sticks in a fellow's craw."

The AGA was just one group which appeared before the committee during two days of testimony to complain about how natural gas prices are being decontrolled.

Supporters of faster decontrol had hoped to use the hearings as a springboard to get Congress to scrap the 1978 Natural Gas Policy Act in favor of a package that would deregulate all gas supplies much more quickly.

Roaring Springs Senior Citizen News

The Roaring Springs Senior Citizens met on Thursday, November 5 to observe Thanksgiving with 29 present. The meeting was called to order by vice-president, Minnie Dye. The theme song, "The More We Get Together", was sung and "Happy Birthday" was sung to Vera Mitchell and guest, Lee Warden.

A prayer of Thanksgiving by Bro. Jim Warden was offered and then the turkey dinner with all the trimmings was under way. The turkey was a contribution of Dean's Food, (thanks Dean) and it was cooked with dressing and gravy by Beth Hinson.

In the meeting after lunch, minutes by Beth Hinson revealed that the lovely pink and white quilt was given to Mrs. Carla Jones, whose name was drawn. The quilt brought $211 which will buy propane for heating the building.

Mrs. Eva Mitchell, appointed to receive donations to the Heart Fund for Roaring Springs, collected $41.50 from the Sr. Citizens.

The dish washing committee for this month was Eliza Kingery, Eva Mitchell and Hattie Marshall and it was their job to clean the building. Afterwards the quilt was set on stands and the following women quilted, Mary Webb, Minnie Dye, Beth Hinson, Eliza Kingery, Hattie Marshall, and Eva Mitchell with Ophelia Richardson threading needles for the group.

It was announced that the nurse will be at the building each Tuesday at 9:15 a.m. to take and record blood pressure checks at no charge.

Exercises for any who wish to come at held at 9:15 a.m., Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

The guest at the meeting were Baptist Minister Jim Warden and wife Sara with sons, Lee and Jarod, Ethel Hicks of Abilene, charter member and former secretary and treasurer. She was enroute to Plainview for Wayland's Homecoming.

Names for exchanges of Christmas gifts will not be drawn since the next meeting will be December 3rd, so early in the month. The Senior Citizens will sing Christmas carols plus any other programs planned and have ham and all the trimmings. Everybody come!

Heat from the Sky

One estimate made by engineers and scientists is that one-fourth of all the energy used in the United States is consumed in heating buildings. We are depleting our supply of fuels at an ever increasing rate. There is one energy source which—every three days—equals the combined energy in all the available coal, oil and gas in the world. That source is the sun.

- Q. Why should I consider a solar heating system for my home?
- A. There are four reasons why you should consider installing such a system in your home . . .
 - You have long-term savings.
 - Your home may have a higher resale value.
 - You will conserve Energy.
 - Your system will be ecologically safe and clean.
- Q. How much energy do I use for heating?
- A. Depending on your location, about 55% of the energy needed to run your home will be used for space heating, about 15% for hot water.
- Q. How much will a solar energy system cost?
- A. The amount you might spend for a solar system depends on the design and size of the house, climatic conditions, and the type and size of the system. In the 1976 HUD demonstration program, combined solar heating and hot water systems for single family dwellings ranged in cost from $5,000 to $19,000. Our Solar Age installation is less than $2,000.
- Q. Are there tax advantages to a solar energy system?
- A. As of January 1979, thirty-eight states had passed legislation to encourage the use of solar devices. Federal tax incentives for solar installation were enacted by Congress in 1978.

How To Protect Your Skin In Cold Weather

If you love the outdoors and participate in winter sports, your skin will need tender loving care to keep it healthy and looking beautiful.
The elements play havoc with skin. Winter winds and cold weather chap and dry the skin--causing fine lines, redness and scaling. To combat these problems Purpose Dry Skin Cream smoothes the damage caused by the elements. A companion product, Purpose Soap, helps replace natural moisture frequently lost from overexposure to wind and cold.
If you skate, ski or just like to romp in the snow, protect your sensitive skin at day's end with these specially formulated and dermatologically recommended skin care aids. They're gentle yet work so effectively.

AMERICA'S PEACEKEEPERS
WHY MARINE CORPS RESERVE DEVELOPS SELF-CONFIDENCE
You step off the bus into another world. And at the center of that world is the Drill Instructor.
Specially selected and trained by the Marine Corps, the Drill Instructor in a few short weeks molds a group of recruits into a smoothly functioning platoon of Marines.
And as a reservist, you aren't treated any differently than the recruits who are making a career out of the Marines. Not one bit different.
Don't let anybody kid you; the Drill Instructor is tough...and the training is tougher. The Marine Corps builds men three ways: In body--through a scientific program of physical conditioning. In mind--by developing mature self-confidence. And in spirit--through the unmatched pride every Marine feels in doing a job well and serving with the finest.
You're a recruit when you go in...but you're a Marine when you come out. And after boot camp, the remainder of your 130 days on initial active duty is spent acquiring basic knowledge in your specialty...anything from aircraft maintenance to communications. And you learn it well, because you're a Marine.
