Playground Main Topic Of PTA Meeting Tonight

The Motley County PTA will meet tonight (Thursday) in the school cafeteria at 7:00 p.m. for a regular meeting.

Playground facilities at the school and the PTA involvement in financing and planning a new playground for the children of Motley County will be the topic of the business meeting.

Dr. Barbara Simmons, of the Child Development Center at Texas Tech spoke to PTA members at the September meeting concerning up-dating playgrounds with regard to special needs of children, safety measures, and cost feasibility of equipment and construction.

Simmons stressed members that playground injuries are the second largest cause of children's deaths in the United States following only car accidents.

A film was shown in which safe and unsafe playgrounds were compared and unsafe play areas and equipment were pointed out to those present.

Also explained to members was a program at Texas Tech in which architecture students design and blueprint an ideal playground for a community free of charge. This service is provided after the students have been made aware of the size of the total area, existing equipment, ages and needs of the children involved, available finances, and added equipment already available.

Simmons stressed the need for a total plan before beginning construction, so that if all work cannot be completed at once, the finished playground will meet all the needs of the children, and play areas will complement each other.

PTA members have worked towards buying a fence to enclose the existing playground at the school, but have tabled that idea in order to have finances to re-design the existing area and add to equipment. It was stressed by Simmons that many of the most successful playgrounds in our area are not full of expensive equipment but are areas designed around old tires, railroad ties, drainage pipes, and hulls of old cars and boats. These are items which can be purchased for little money and which require little maintenance.

The PTA wishes to extend an invitation to all community members to attend the meeting tonight. Parents of preschool children are especially urged to attend in order that we may have your ideas on the type of play your children enjoy. It is hoped that all ages will attend this meeting, as we are looking forward to a school playground which will be a place everyone can enjoy.

Lighthouse Electric Coop To Celebrate Open House

The public and members of Lighthouse Electric Cooperative, Inc. are invited to attend open house and dedication ceremonies at the Cooperative's new headquarters facility Saturday, January 23, at 1:30 p.m.

A modern meeting room for use by civic and community organizations and Cooperative functions is an outstanding feature of the building and is already being reserved.

Activities for the open house will feature Congressman Charles Stenholm and Jack Hightower whose districts extend into the Lighthouse service area.

A flag ceremony and ribbon cutting will follow remarks by the Congressmen, after which the public may tour the building and visit with Mr. Stenholm and Mr. Hightower.

Lighthouse Electric Cooperative, Inc. was formally organized as Floyd County Rural Electric Cooperative in December, 1937, by a group of people who realized the need and desire for a higher standard of living in rural areas. From that beginning the first meter was energized in March 1939, and the system began expansion into a seven county area.

In 1951, the name of the Cooperative was changed to Lighthouse Electric Cooperative, Inc. following a contest among the membership to rename the organization, to more adequately reflect the broad area served.

Another milestone was reached in 1978, with the consolidation of Lighthouse Electric Cooperative and Hall County Electric Cooperative in Memphis. The service area now includes all or portions of twelve counties, and makes Lighthouse one of the larger rural electric systems in Texas with 3,348 miles of line and 7,500 consumers. The Cooperative presently employs 51 people in Floydada and Memphis.

Planning for the new, modern office and warehouse complex was begun several years ago, with the aim toward bringing the headquarters operation to one location. The new facility has, in addition to expanded and larger office and warehouse areas, a transformer, line breaker and recloser shop, an automotive maintenance shop, and an expanded meter repair area.

The Lighthouse Board of Directors are: J. W. Jackson, District I, McAdoo; Louis Lloyd, District II, Floydada; Cecil Baxter, District III, Floydada; Wayne Hunter, District IV, Flomot; L. B. Brandes, District V, Lockney; Henry Scarborough, District VI, Petersburg; Tom Porter, District VII, McCoy; Harold Burk, District VIII, Estelline; and James Richburg, District IX, Lakeview. Mr. Baxter is president of the board, Mr. Porter, vice-president, and Mr. Scarborough, the secretary.

Brooks -- Green Vows Exchanged Recently

Mrs. Mickey Brooks
(Angela Green)

Marriage vows were exchanged Sunday, December 20, 1981 at 3 p.m. in the First Baptist Church, Matador, between Angela Irene Green and Mickey Lynn Brooks. Rev. Gary Hillyard officiated the double ring ceremony before an altar of evergreens, an archway of white tapers, tied with large royal blue bows, and pots of greenery and white poinsettias. Blue bows were also used as pew markers along the aisle.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Green of Tahoka, formerly of Matador. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Brooks of Roaring Springs.

A prelude of traditional wedding music was by Mrs. Glen Woodruff, organist. Mrs. Ray Allen of Andrews, cousin of the bride, sang "Our Wedding Day" and Mr. Allen sang "What A Difference You Made in My Life."

Given in marriage by her parents, and escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a candlelight chiffon gown designed by Marina of New York. The moulded bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline and was embellished in silk venise lace and sprinkled delicately with tiny seed pearls. The long bishop sleeves were gathered to a wide venise lace and pearl cuff, and encircling the empire waistline were motifs of venise lace. A floor length circular skirt fell from the waist and swept to back fullness forming a chapel length train.

To complete her ensemble, the bride chose a silk illusion veiling caught to a beaded venise lace Juliet capulet. The triple layered veil was finished in petal edging, and venise lace encircled the longest layer of the waltz length veil. Her bridal bouquet was of off-white silk roses and blue silk forget-me-nots centered with a white orchid, trimmed with pearls and off-white lace and ribbon streamers. She wore a strand of pearls belonging to her grandmother for something old. Something new was her wedding gown. She wore a blue garter, and for something borrowed, a mother-of-pearl Bible from Jerusalem, belonging to her grandmother.

Miss Traci Green, sister of the bride was maid of honor and Mrs. Danny Perryman was matron of honor. They wore floor length dresses of royal blue velour and headbands of matching blue roses, and carried bouquets of off-white and royal blue silk roses.

Miss Suzan Hamilton, cousin of the bride and Miss Susannah Woodruff were candlelighters. They wore royal blue velour floor length dresses with headbands of matching blue and white.

Danny Perryman served as best man, and groomsman was Timmy Brooks, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Rickey Lawrence, Michael Green, brother of the bride, Louis Shorter and Billy Osborn.

The bridegroom wore an off-white tuxedo. His attendants, the ushers and the bride's father wore black tuxedos.

Bradley Jameson was ringbearer and his sister, Brandi Jameson was flower girl. He wore a black suit and carried the rings on a white satin pillow. Brandi wore a floor length dress of royal blue with matching ribbons in her hair and carried a basket of rose petals. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jameson.

As the bride and her father approached the altar, she presented the groom's mother a long stemmed white rose, and after the ceremony she presented her mother a long stemmed white rose.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico, the bride chose a jade green velour slack suit and wore the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

A reception was held in the home of Mrs. Alvin Stearns, aunt of the bride, with Mrs. J. D. Craven, maternal grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. L. J. Barkley and Miss Rachel Patton, her aunts, as hostesses.

Mrs. Michael Green, sister-in-law of the bride registered the guests. Presiding at the refreshment table were Miss Colleen Rose, who served the punch and Miss Reneigh Gwinn, who served the three-tiered wedding cake, which was decorated with blue confection roses. The table was laid with a white Madeira cloth, centered with an arrangement of blue and white flowers in a crystal bowl and crystal candle holders with blue tapers. The punch was served from an antique crystal bowl.

Out-of-town wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arvil Craven, Mrs. Vernon Craven, Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harrison and Kyle, Brownfield; Pete Rybacki, Washington, D.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hamilton, Eagle River, Alaska and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sims and Jami of Lubbock.

Pre-nuptial affairs honoring the couple included a bridal shower December 7, 1981 at the home of Mrs. Bobby Jameson.

Hostesses with Mrs. Jameson were Mesdames John Scott, Charles Gwinn, Leslie Jameson, Roy Grundy, Frank Price, C. M. Barton Jr., R. E. Donovan, Clay Jameson, Dale Baumgardner and Glenn Woodruff of Matador and Mesdames Lem Miller, L. A. Mullin, Joey Thacker, M. S. Thacker, Joe Thacker, M. S. Thacker, Bill Palmer, Travis Payne, Billy Hand and T. F. Watson of Roaring Springs.

Program Presented For Matador Garden Club

Matador Garden Club met Monday afternoon, January 18, in the home of Mrs. Douglas Meador, and was presented a special program by Mrs. Robin Darsey, Motley County librarian.

Mrs. Darsey brought two films which are currently available at the library, for club programs, one of Pictorial Switzerland, and the other, Norman Rockwell's World: An American Dream. Both were equally enjoyed.

The scenery in the Switzerland film was very beautiful, showing lush countryside and majestic snow covered peaks, with background music of Beethoven's Sixth Symphony. Rockwell's World was a 1973 interview with the late artist and included interesting flashbacks of events during the century which inspired the covers which he painted for The Saturday Evening Post. An Arbor Day observance was postponed and plans were discussed to plant a tree in Pioneer Memorial Park at a later date.

Mrs. Meador, president, conducted business, and Mrs. W. N. Pipkin, secretary, called the roll. Response was a "show and tell" artifact (shells, rocks, cones, etc.), with several colorful seashells being displayed.

Mrs. Edgar Lee, program chairman, concluded with review from the Lone Star Gardener. Others present were Mesdames Bill Wason, W. D. Lipscomb, W. F. Jacobs and J. D. Craven and Miss Rachel Patton. Refreshments of coffee, hot chocolate and banana nut cake were served.

FOOD FACTS & FANCIES

It may seem like just a fancy, but it's quite true—entirely new kinds of food plants are sprouting in the test tubes of agricultural laboratories around the globe. The U.S. Department of Agriculture has just announced a number of important breakthroughs, including the successful transfer of a high-protein gene from a bean seed into a sunflower cell, known now as the "sunbean," and the successful union of the potato and tomato, aptly called the "pomatoe."

Agricultural scientists are using genetic engineering techniques to develop plants that have the same high-quality protein as animal foods, and are also pest resistant, can fertilize themselves and enrich the soil, and can grow and produce well in drought conditions. In fact, the nutritional equivalent of beef may one day be reproduced in plants, such as genetically engineered corn—which may someday be known as "beef-corn."

The experts at Bethesda Research Laboratories (BRL) think that genetic engineering techniques will be a big part of the 1980s, expanding into the dairy, baking and brewing industries.

New Exhibits Underway At Plainview Museum

Construction on several new permanent exhibits recounting major periods in West Texas history is nearing completion at the Museum of the Llano Estacado on the Wayland Baptist University campus in Plainview.

Chief among the projects is an expansive exhibit on the formation of the area, entitled "Natural History," in addition to a photo exhibit labeled "Images of the Past," according to Museum Director Eddie Guffee.

The "Natural History" exhibit covers four basic periods, Guffee explained, beginning with the geological formation of the area. That portion of the display includes a stratographic map and geographic cross-section of the Llano Estacado, in addition to actual samples of minerals common to the region.

The Triassic Period, he said, featured a tropical climate with swamp and stream environment providing a natural habitat for reptiles. It was an era marked by dinosaurs, marine and flying reptiles, ganoid fish, and evergreen trees.

The Age of Pleistocene, when giant mammals such as buffalo and elephants roamed the region, and Modern Fauna are the final two periods covered in exhibit. The latter takes a look at the pre-settlement era and will soon feature a taxidermed antelope as its main attraction.

Noted Plainview artist Rodney Watson provided much of the artwork and background scenery for the Natural History display.

"Images of the Past" is a collection of about 55 large photographs depicting virtually every phase of life for West Texans around the turn of the 20th century.

The exhibit was erected with the help of Don's Photography Studio, which provided toned copies of actual photographs taken during the period.

Future exhibits still under construction at the Museum will depict Spanish exploration, the Santa Fe Expedition, Apache Indians, Anglo exploration, the Ciboleros, commercial hide hunters, and the Comancheros, Guffee said.

The Museum is open to the public from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Peanut Referendum To Determine Future

According to Ross Wilson, Manager of Southwestern Peanut Growers' Association, a referendum vitally important to peanut producers will be conducted by a mail ballot from the County ASCS office during the period January 25-29. The following message in respect to the referendum has been endorsed by the National Peanut Growers Group and by all peanut grower organizations in the state.

"Peanut growers will have an opportunity to vote in a very crucial belt-wide referendum during the week of January 25 to determine if we will have a peanut price support program this year. If growers approve quotas by a two-thirds majority of those voting, quotas and price supports will be in effect throughout the four years, 1982-1985. If growers fail to approve quotas, there would be no quotas or price supports in effect for 1982 and another referendum would be conducted next December to determine marketing procedure in 1983.

There is a big difference in the result of this referendum and those held in the past for peanut growers. In past referenda, if growers had failed to approve quotas, there still would have been a program with support prices at 50 percent of parity for those growers planting within their allotments. This year, however, if growers fail to approve quotas, the new Farm Bill specifically provides that there will be no price support. In other words should growers fail to approve quotas, there would be no program whatever, neither quotas nor support price, in 1982.

However, if two-thirds of the growers participating in the referendum vote to approve, we will maintain our program framework with a quota support rate of $550 per ton in 1982--a 21 percent increase over 1981--and with mandatory increases in subsequent years to help offset production cost increases. We will have a national poundage quota of 1.2 million tons in 1982, along with substantially strengthened undermarketing carry forward provisions beginning with unused undermarketings in 1980.

We know that many peanut producers are unhappy with the program and its future outlook. Such feelings are understandable, but they are not good reasons for voting out the peanut program altogether or for not voting. With all of its problems, the peanut program is one of two remaining commodity programs that contain the basic essentials for success--supply management and support prices. These features must be preserved. Don't risk losing those fundamental concepts--VOTE FOR QUOTAS AND PRICE SUPPORTS.

We urge that you not only vote in the referendum, but that you join with other growers in your community in setting up a telephone call campaign just prior to and during the referendum period to remind growers to vote.

A vote not cast can be used by program adversaries almost as effectively as a vote against quotas."

Practices include grass seeding, shrub control, terraces, waterways, livestock water wells, underground irrigation systems, and livestock pipelines.

Acraage Reports Needed For Oats

Because oats are included in the new farm bill, we need a record of any oats planted for the 1980 and 1981 crop years.

1982 Farm Program
At this time we are establishing "Farm Bases" for the following crops: wheat, cotton, corn, grain sorghum, oats and barley. As soon as we receive more details on the new farm bill we will let you know.

Cotton Loans

There seems to be some confusion as to how the loan works. Some of you are hesitant to put your cotton in the loan because you say you can't afford to pay the interest and other charges. Maybe the following will help you.

The county office fee for warehouse loans is $1.50 per loan, plus $0.25 per bale. No storage charges are deducted if the loan documents are presented to the county office within 60 days from the date the warehouse receipts is issued.

If you choose to put your cotton in the loan, you have 10 months to redeem it. If you elect not to redeem your loan, CCC will take over the loan and you do not pay any interest or any other charges. What you received when you put it in the loan is yours, you pay nothing back.

Now, let's say the market gets better, or you just want to buy it back, you then pay back what you got plus interest to CCC and storage charges to the warehouse. Interest rate is now 12.25% but will be reviewed each month and it can go up or down. It just depends on what the money is costing CCC.

Hope this short explanation helps you some. We will be glad to help you in any way we can.

Seed Cotton Loans

Motley County ASCS Office can now make seed cotton loans for cotton stored in the field. Gins approved are Farmers Cooperative in Flomot, and Paymaster in Quitaque. For more information come by the ASCS Office.

Bentsen Announces For Re-Election

U.S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen, saying his records "reflects the spirit of independence and initiative which Texans expect of their elected officials," announced Monday that he will be a candidate for re-election this year.

Bentsen announced Monday morning at a press conference in the Capitol in Austin that he is filing as a candidate in the Democratic Primary. He left immediately after for press conferences in Houston and Dallas. Bentsen will also be traveling to El Paso, San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Laredo, Rio Grande city, McAllen and Harlingen during the week.

"B.A. and I are proud of my record in the Senate," Bentsen said. "I have no intention of allowing the agenda for this campaign to be set by extremist attacks rooted in distortion and misrepresentation."

"The agenda is my consistent record of working effectively with both Democrats and Republicans to build a nation that is more prosperous, more powerful and more just."

The 60 year old Bentsen was first elected to the U.S. Senate in 1970. Re-elected in 1976, he is seeking his third term of office.

Bentsen, Chairman of the prestigious Joint Economic Committee in the 96th Congress, is currently ranking Senate Democrat on that committee. He is also a senior member of the Senate Finance Committee and the Senate Committee on Environment and Public Works. He was asked at the beginning of the 97th Congress to also serve as a member of the Senate Intelligence Committee.

Born in Mission, Bentsen has a law degree from the University of Texas. During World War II he flew 50 bomber missions over Europe. Following the war he returned home to the Rio Grande Valley of Texas and was elected County Judge of Hidalgo County. In 1948 he was elected to the Congress and served three terms before declining in 1954 to seek re-election. He moved to Houston on leaving Congress and spent 16 years building a successful business before returning to public life.

"My two terms in the Senate have spanned a decade of dramatic change and great turmoil here and throughout the world," Bentsen said in his announcement statement.

"During this period we have had no fewer than four Presidents, one of whom was forced to resign and two of whom were defeated at the polls. We have endured two serious energy shortages and two severe recessions. Recently we have seen interest rates soar so high that people cannot afford to buy homes. A new word has been coined to describe our economic ills: stagflation."

"To restore the American economy we have a national mandate to reduce the size of government and balance the budget without backing away from our commitments to the American people—commitments such as a sound Social Security system. Both the Administration and the Congress are challenged to cut out waste and excess wherever they exist, and to see to it that the taxpayers get their money's worth. We are challenged to stay on course in reducing the burden of taxation and encouraging greater productivity and more job opportunities."

"To reinforce the security of our country and to deter aggression we face the task of strength our defense forces, both conventional and nuclear, and to do it with an eye toward cost-effectiveness," Bentsen said.

"We can be assured of one thing: nothing is going to get any easier. Our need is for proven and experienced leadership in Washington. I believe sincerely that my service in the Senate contributes to this type of leadership," Senator Bentsen said.
