Scout Executive Speaks To Matador Lions Club

Bob Moody of Lubbock, an attorney and also executive of the South Plains Council, Boy Scouts of America, was program speaker at the March 16 meeting of Matador Lions Club, at the United Methodist Church.

The 75th anniversary of the Boy Scout organization is being commemorated this year, and Mr. Moody gave a brief history of its beginning in August of 1907, by founders Robert Stephenson Smyth and Baden-Powell, in England and William Boyce of Chicago, founder of the Boy Scouts of America in 1910. The South Plains Council is 55 years old, and covers 20 counties with a membership of 8,700 boys, Mr. Moody said.

"One in nine persons in the United States has been a scout," he told the Lions. "Of boys going into scouting, one out of 20 makes First Class and of those, one in ten makes Star. In the United States since scouting started, we have had 500,000 Eagle Scouts."

Three Matador Lions Club members who are Eagle Scouts were recognized: Billy Wason, Joe Freeman and Ronnie Vandiver. It also was noted that Lion Vandiver, Scoutmaster and Unit Commissioner of Matador's Boy Scout Troop 360 was recently presented the prestigious Silver Beaver Award. Six other Scout leaders in the South Plains Council also received the award at a banquet in February, in Lubbock.

"Scouting is one of very few organizations reaching our youth today," Mr. Moody declared. "Scouting is citizenship, character building and personal development."

Boss Lion Alan Bingham presided and announced the importance of local citizens to make donations to Cable T.V. for weather reports. Dates for the light bulb sale is still pending, and the directors voted to contribute $1.00 for each local Lions Club member, to the Lions Eye Bank.

Lion Bill Durham was program chairman and introduced the speaker. Other guests introduced were Jack Van Eaton, new manager of Adams Ranch, and Lions Club Queen candidates, Deanna Durham, Queen-elect; Renee Renfro, Melea Taylor, Beverly Witcher and Holly Hobbs. Miss Durham will represent the Matador Lions Club at the District 2-T2 convention April 22-24 in Lubbock.

Methodist Women's organization of the church served an enjoyable meal, and Lion Bingham led the club in an expression of appreciation.

El Progreso Club Meets March 25

El Progreso Club met March 25 in the home of Mrs. L. B. Campbell for the program "Texas Empires". The president, Mrs. Furman Vinson, led the group in the pledge to the Texas Flag and reminded all present of the District Convention to be held in Vernon, March 26 and 27.

The leader for the evening was Miss Mary Keith who opened the program with the caption from the yearbook, "Oh give me a home where the buffalo roam." -- Home on the Range. She then introduced Mrs. Bill McCaghen for the evening's program, TEXAS RANCHES. Mrs. McCaghen first presented the Estes sisters who provided three songs for the enjoyment of the club -- "Release Me", "The Kentuckian" and "San Antonio Rose". The ladies were accompanied by Gerald Pipkin at the piano.

Mrs. McCaghen had on display a book belonging to Mrs. Clay Gilbert "Life on the Texas Range" with photos by Erwin Smith and text by J. Evetts Haley showing many scenes of life on the Matador Ranch in the early days.

She then introduced Mr. L. B. (Bundy) Campbell who spoke on the Texas Ranch -- the beef we eat and how it gets here. He told of the different eras of the cattle industry; first 1870 until 1928 when cattle were sold by the head until the latter date and then they were sold by the pound. From 1928 until 1934 the cattle industry was over-populated to such an extent that the government killed off the surplus. That did more for improving the grade of cattle than in any other period as the rancher could and did pick the worst or bottom end of the herd and dispose of it. From 1934 until or through World War II, due to lack of help by cowhands, the wagons were brought in and the faster means of moving through the pastures was brought in -- pickups, etc. The Matadors quit in 1953. The railroads quit shipping cattle and trucks came into being as a means of shipping cattle to market or to other areas of the country for grazing, etc.

The drought of the 50's was upon the country with the cattle population again overextended. Many cattle were sent to the slaughterhouse or it was at this time the feedlot operations came into being, with Oklahoma, Kansas, and Texas triggering the feedlot industry. Many of the smaller feedlots have "gone under" in the past five years. By 1972 the beef production had again become overextended and beef marketing was put on the Board of Exchange or in the hands of the moneyed people as they manipulate the market. Iowa Beef owns 33% of the beef market.

Many things a rancher has to contend with from one year to the next, and as Mr. Campbell stated, it isn't "a bed of roses", is necessities that the rancher has to have to keep a healthy herd going and producing. In 1934 scales had to be installed, then scabies were found in herds so dipping vats had to be built. In 1940 Bangs was found in the herds so they had to be tested for that and with all government rules and regulations it took many man-hours to do it. Again in 1972 scabies was found so again they had to be dipped. During the years from 1960 - 1970 cattle were again vaccinated for Bangs only to find it ineffective so a great number of the cattle turned up with Bangs-suspect and the herds were again culled. In the feedlot business it has been found that Herefords fatten better in the cornbelt lots in Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio on corn, etc., and the cross-bred cattle fatten better in our area. In the past 10 years a group of exotic breeds have come to the attention of the cattlemen but many of the "old" cattle people stick to the more common breeds. It was also noted that 75% of the beef produced is by people who use it for tax write-off. Mr. Campbell was most gracious as he answered questions from the group.

Miss Keith closed with a very appropriate Inspirational Thought after which Mrs. Campbell served refreshments to those mentioned and to Mesdames Harold Campbell, R. E. Campbell Jr., Robert Darsey, Phil Green, John Hamilton, W. F. Jacobs, Carl King, W. D. Lipscomb, W. N. Pipkin, A. B. Simpson, Ollie Pitts and Miss Rachel Patton.

LADIES GOLF

We met at the Spring's Ranch Welcome Center Thursday morning. SINCERE THANKS TO THE THACKERS

It is with a feeling of deep appreciation and gratitude that the golfers express sincere thanks to the late M. S. Thacker, his son, Buzz and the Thacker family for providing the Air Port Golf Course for our benefit and the pleasure of playing all these 30 - or more - years.

In the spring of 1945, F. F. (Flip) Calhoun (of Plainview), as party chief with Stanlind Oil and Gas Co., surveyed run-ways, getting length, width and elevation, filling out necessary forms to get the airfield qualified by F.A.A. and helping Buzz lay out the air strip, which was named Buzz Field. Melton Thacker, Ennis Moss and S. J. Braselton kept their planes here. Billy Long and Billy Joe Cooper were among those who worked on this project.

In the early 1950's, Jack Norman, Bill Seale and C. M. Barton Jr., measured off and laid out the golf course -- named the Air Port Golf Club. The players were always reminded that the golfers were to watch out for the planes rather than the pilots watching out for the golfers, since part of four fairways paralleled the landing strip.

The golf course had sand greens, even though Melton made

Helpful Hint: on Hair Care

With warmer weather coming, you may want to add new life to your hair. Hair that has been damaged throughout the season may need extra care to regain its sheen and healthy appearance.

Many people comment that their hair seems especially fragile and prone to damage during the cooler months. Even in a warm climate, excessive sun exposure can dry the hair and cause split ends, breakage, and a lackluster appearance. In a cold climate, chilly outdoor air and overheated indoor air—both which tend to have a very low humidity level—may have dried and damaged your hair. This can also be true if you have been in an air-conditioned atmosphere for a great deal of time.

Now is a good time to start a new hair care program that can help restore the healthy, shiny good looks your hair should have. A treatment that helps recondition damaged hair, and helps prevent further damage, is called Ogilvie Penetreat Penetrating Reconditioner for the Hair. Its unique instant heat helps the rich conditioning lotion penetrate the hair shaft, damaged as well as normal. Penetreat stays on and inside the hair shaft so conditioning benefits last longer, and adds body, sheen and texture so the hair is easy to comb and more manageable.

Hair that's been damaged, dull, frizzed and unmanageable can now be reconditioned at home in only five minutes.

CATTLE EAR TAGS CONTROL INSECTS

Thousands of our nation's cattle are sporting tags in their ears these days and that fact is likely to spell good news for farmers and consumers alike.

The tags, which are impregnated with insecticide, play a major part in the emphasis placed on pest control by the agricultural community. Studies say that the tags control flies that are harmful to cattle and they are less expensive than previously used methods.

A study was initiated in the spring of 1980 to determine the effect of horn fly populations on the weight gains of cattle. Sixty-four yearling Hereford steers, weighing between 500-600 pounds, were each tagged in May with two Ectrin Insecticide Cattle Ear Tags. The tags are made by Diamond Shamrock Corporation. A similar group of 70 animals were left untreated, and horn fly populations were allowed to build up on these throughout the season. Both treated and untreated animals were allowed to graze in similar but different pastures as the treated animals were kept separated from the untreated ones.

Those cattle with ear tags were essentially clean of horn flies through the
