Motley Captures Bidistrict, Plays For Regional Friday

By Gary Welling

The Motley County Matadors, coached by Danny James captured the bidistrict championship from Westbrook in a game played at Post Tuesday night, to the score of 67-54.

The win gave Motley the right to advance to the Class B Region 1 tournament to be played in Levelland this week end. The Matadors will tangle with the Happy Cowboys Friday at 7:00 p.m. in the Texas Dome. If they achieve a victory there, they would play again Saturday at 11:00 a.m. with the championship at 6:30 p.m.

Although the margin of victory was large, the game at Post was not easily won by Motley, as the Wildcats played consistent ball and were never out of it until the last quarter.

The Matadors led by 2 after one quarter, and by only 1 at the half, and the two teams were even at 39 going into the final period. That's when they proved that they were better than their counterparts as they exploded for 28 points in the last quarter, compared to only 15 for Westbrook.

With the win, Motley raised their season mark to 17-11 on the year going into the regional tournament.

Statistically, the Matadors had a good night from the field as they hit 46 percent the first half, and 44 percent the second. Where the team really made the points was from the charity line as they hit 21 out of 30 field goals for a percentage of 70.

With this being the first team to get into the State playoffs in 29 years, it seems only fitting that the fan support should be extra strong at Levelland.

Freedom Train To Be In Wichita Falls Mar. 6 - 8

INSIDE THE TRAIN.....

Car 1. THE BEGINNING: A look at the first moments of the struggle for independence from 18th century New England. Visitors will view an exhibit that includes precious documents that are the foundation of our liberty, such as George Washington's copy of the Constitution and Pennsylvania's ratification of the Constitution.

Car 2. EXPLORATION AND EXPANSION: An exhibit of American frontiers from the opening of the West to the penetration of space. Early pioneers were lured by gold; modern pioneers are lured by the mysteries of outer space.

Car 3. GROWTH OF THE NATION: Changes wrought on this country as cities, farms, transportation centers and energy production have been added to the early landscape. "America the Beautiful" provides a musical reminder of the need for preserving the national environment.

Car 4. ORIGINS: Tracing the ethnic, religious and geographical origins of contemporary Americans. The music of dozens of lands speaks of this unique land of opportunity.

Car 5. INNOVATIONS: A review of the inventors and technicians whose efforts are synonymous with "American know-how" and the development of the free enterprise system and the America we know today. Patent drawings and models of inventions big and small are displayed.

Car 6. LABOR AND PROFESSIONS: An examination of the diversity and magnitude of fields of creative Americans and the products of their work. The pursuits of Americans, from silversmiths and glassblowers to film makers and scientists, are outlined.

Car 7. SPORTS: A panorama of the sporting American as hero, participant, and spectator. Scenes, artifacts and film clips include a sprinting Jesse Owens, Secretariat romping to victory, and Babe Ruth hitting a home run.

Car 8. PERFORMING ARTS: A montage of American talent through vaudeville, Hollywood, radio and television, and the Broadway stage. The sounds of entertainment, from television to vaudeville, provide a musical backdrop for this dramatic part of America.

Car 9. FINE ARTS: A gallery of American painting and sculpture reflecting the evolution of American society. Priceless paintings and sculpture capture the look of this country from 18th century portraiture through sweeping western landscapes.

Car 10. CONFLICT AND RESOLUTION: A dramatic portrayal of five events in American history which have tested the fiber of our system but from which Americans have emerged stronger and more unified. President Lincoln's assassination and President Roosevelt's economic strife help portray the ability of a people to grow.

SHOWPLACE CARS: The first of two glass-enclosed display cars deals with transportation and contains a series of display vehicles lending additional testimony to American progress. The second car contains the Freedom Bell, twice the size of the Liberty Bell and built through support of the American Legion on behalf of the nation's children.

The American Freedom Train will be in Wichita Falls at Sheppard AFB this week end - March 6 - 8, and will be the nearest point that Motley County residents will have an opportunity to view the records of 200 years of American growth and achievement. The train will be on view from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. each day.

Ten cars are open for viewing with two additional "showcase" cars which feature displays visible through glass; the Freedom Bell, the Lunar Rover vibration test unit, the "Old Scout" Oldsmobile, an 1849 fire engine, and a model of the 1834 Grasshopper locomotive.

Clear visual effects are used (mirrors make the cars look larger; movies are projected onto the faces to make the faces move). Hundreds of artifacts are skillfully presented and include pistols, maps, immigrants' trunks, the first English Bible printed in the United States, the first successful incandescent lamp, the Edison phonograph, Amelia Earhart's flight goggles, Willie Mays' baseball glove, Valentino's matador jacket from "Blood and Sand," to mention only a few.

The exhibit cars cover the United States' beginning, exploration, expansion, growth, origins, innovations, human resources, sports, arts and conflicts. The Freedom Bell is America's newest symbol of the nation's bicentennial and it is twice the size of Philadelphia's Liberty Bell, after which it was patterned.

The train traveled from Albuquerque to points in Texas, including San Antonio, Austin, Houston, Fort Worth and Dallas. From Wichita Falls it will continue to Oklahoma City, and from there, to other southern states before heading north, to complete the tour.

Since leaving Alexandria, Va., last March 28, the 25-car train has logged 14,000 miles of its scheduled 21 month, 17,000 mile journey to 48 states.

Freedom Train tickets are priced at $2 for adults, $1 for youth 3 to 12, and $1 for senior citizens, 65 and older. Children under 3 are admitted free.

Revenue raised by charging admission will help pay off the $17.5 million needed to finance the train's journey, according to the non-profit American Freedom Train Foundation, Bailey's Crossroads, Va.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. W. A. Smith returned to her home in Matador, Feb. 26, after a 45-day stay in Methodist Hospital, Lubbock, where she underwent total hip surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stanley returned home Friday from Lubbock, where he had been a patient in Methodist Hospital, undergoing tests for a circulatory problem in his feet and legs. He is resting at his home on South Eubank.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lipham returned home Sunday from a 10-day trip to South Texas, Falcon Dam and other points of interest along the border and in Mexico.

TRAIL DUST

Complaint is the first sprout from the seed of inadequacy.

Some tin-horn wag has said that living is its own reward for a residence in West Texas. My personal attitude to this kind of philosophy is one of revolt. I would like to sponsor a segregation movement that would exclude Yankee carpet-baggers from our climate if they are unable to ignore drought and sandstorms. Weather in West Texas was designed strictly as an item of conversation and not to be ridiculed.

Taxes is an unwanted child left on the people's doorsteps by promising politicians.

Courage, when divorced from common sense, can result in a sorry spectacle that refuses to awaken any emotion of admiration.

Deep in the shadowed ravines of the mind's consciousness, half-whispered voices seek to deliver mysterious messages, or weave them into the fabric of our dreams. Music that is pleasing to the heart is an inspiring transport that extends closer to the unknown, like fingers that touch gentle lips in the darkness.

It goes without saying that an agreeable disposition leaves a rose-colored vapor trail in the remote skies of association. It is the courtesy card of friendship which strangers honor with pleasure.

There exists less than a remote chance that I will ever be sufficiently affluent to visit France, yet I have suffered but little because of the situation. I have tried with resourceful diligence to enjoy wine as a beverage and for its culinary value. The result has been discouraging. Once as a youth I secured a basket of grapes, removed the juice and allowed it to ferment, adding a little sugar and a few additional ingredients that were convenient. I drank two cups of the prohibition contraband and became ill. Sand in the shade of the old cottonwood by the windmill was cool and when I awoke, darkness was everywhere.

Dry Year

1976 has been a dry year - almost. But this isn't "new" news for West Texas.

It may come as a surprise to a few to know that Motley County received .02 moisture in the form of light snow which fell January 2. This time last year Bob Stanley's weather record showed 3.66 moisture, with 1.08 falling in January and 2.58 in February.

Mr. Stanley has kept a record of precipitation since 1955 and said that this year's lack of moisture is the worst since 1968. He has records that date back to 1924.

The arrival of a cold front Wednesday, lowered the mercury from the mid-80's over the week end to 40 degrees, with a predicted 30 for the night.

Mrs. Hall passed away shortly after noon Sunday at Richard's Memorial Hospital in Paducah. She was conveyed by ambulance to the hospital after becoming critically ill at her home Saturday night. She had previously been a patient in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock and had returned home Thursday.

The former Susie Ealline Meador, Mrs. Hall was born July 16, 1914 in the Flomot community, the daughter of the late Doug and Maggie Meador, of Matador. She was reared here and attended the Matador schools. She was married to Wesley Hall, April 6, 1936, in Matador. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

El Progreso Club Has Health Program

Quack medicine as practiced in bygone years was explored at regular meeting of El Progreso Club when it met Feb. 26 in the home of Mrs. Furman Vinson.

The program was presented by a former member, Mrs. Howard Traweek, who used for her subject, "Cures - Fake and Fancied."

Mrs. Harold Campbell, club president, called the meeting to order and conducted necessary business. She then presented Mrs. Frank Price as leader for the afternoon. Mrs. Price read the title caption of the program, and the quotation from Poor Richard's Almanack, "He's the best physician that knows the worthlessness of the most medicines." (Benjamin Franklin).

Mrs. Price then introduced Mrs. Traweek, whose comments combined humor with factual information. "People from time immemorial have wanted good health," she declared. "In 400 B.C. Hippocrates was such a good doctor he was revered by his patients and friends; therefore, he is considered the father of medicine. In his writings all statements made much sense."

Mrs. Traweek pointed out that "During the 18th century as far as medicine was concerned there was little in the way of help for a patient. There was no antiseptic, no antibiotic and certainly no antibiotics... whiskey and opium were used as anesthetics, but not to any great advantage."

"As for dentistry," Mrs. Traweek continued, "it was usually taken care of by the local barber. A wintergreen twig to clean teeth could be bought for a nickel."

"The Apothecary, or drug store, had many strange things - or so we would think today: Scorpions, leeches, vipers, ants, snuff, horse-hoof, to mention a few."

A microscope in the 18th century was used merely as a toy and not in the medical field, Mrs. Traweek said.

"Medicine Shows were for people who were looking for something and found it in the bottles sold there - a cure-all for everything. Such things as 'Sympathy Powder' was used on a cut and also the sharp blade making the cut. Other things sold were Indian herbs, licorice for cough and snuff for headaches," she informed the listeners.

"In the late 1940's," she said, "doctors found a cure for lung disease (consumption). Many years before that, 'quacks' gave Tuscarora Rice or Dr. Bateman's pectoral drops."

Some of the "cures" from these quacks, Mrs. Traweek said, were (1) rods passed over a sore spot to draw the soreness out; (2) pills to restore manhood; (3) Mexican Mustang liniment; (4) Cranes fluid lightning; (5) Renees painkilling oil; (6) Dr. Pierces' Pleasant Pellets; (7) Lydia Pinkham's, etc.

With mention of these and other remedies, roll call was given. "A Remedy for Ailments in my Family," by club members present.

Mrs. John Hamilton gave the Inspirational Thought, "We are what we eat, etc."

Following the program, coffee, cake, and coffeecake.

TEXAS TALK

Something special was reflected in the bright lights of Kansas City late last year when the annual Future Farmers of America convention was held. Reflected almost blindingly was the change in attitudes about agriculture. FFA conventions used to be almost mediocre affairs with dwindling attendance and speakers not in demand elsewhere. Old attendance records fell like rain in a hurricane when more than 20,000 of the Future Farmers checked in for the November convention. They came from all fifty states with visiting students from Europe and South America. Speaking before the sea of blue-jacketed farmers were Vice-President Nelson Rockefeller, former Texas Governor and Secretary of the Treasury, John Connally and former Georgia Governor and FFA member, Jimmy Carter. One of the highlights was the planning for this year's national convention. Early indications point to another record setter.
