Amputee Klatter

What's the news?
 My-my, didn't we have a load of dates at the prevue last Saturday? Let's see now, there was the Hughes, Barbara Spray, the Jay, and Dorothy and the Barley! Boy, must have been some show!
 Say, doesn't that Doris get a hand? She was seen in a back with a certain R. S. on Saturday night! Also, she isn't by herself Sunday either! I'm a wonderin' if a certain named J. N. has his eye on her, don't they be Marcia's?
 Garland and Bonnie, Truman Wanda made a mighty good time foursome last Sunday! I don't these Junior gals get a hand?
 Have you heard about the angle that's forming in the middle grade? Susie Hughes was to be right in the big middle of it too! Well, may the best win!
 The biggest problem for some people this week is to decide which way Bonnie's heart leans toward Garland and Jody? Why ya better ask Bonnie!
 We hear that Joyce and Peck had a mighty nice time a cruisin' around last Saturday!

Say! Would you like to have a nice sock in the nose? I'll bet ya wouldn't either but here how anyway—just you ask Don Wason what he was doin' a walking home from the Pease River bridge on the Whiteflat highway about 11 p. m. last Sunday!

Daisy Bird was 'thankin' her lucky stars that she got home Sunday nite! Wonder if Ed James and his flat-tire could be the reason? That flat tire could be the reason! Helen a little worry, also! Seems that Doe was goin' home via that little auto of Ed's!

There's a certain somebody in M. H. S. who wants to know who Kenneth Dunning had with him in his car Sat. nite! Daisy or Geraldine? Could you tell them? I can't!

Poor L. C. Giesecke! He just couldn't figure out where Sappo was last Saturday! I'll bet you that Shirley Pope could have told him!

Wonder what it is about the surroundings of Whiteflat that Frances likes so much? The town or the people? I'll bet you can guess!

Well, cheerio, my dearios,
 Miss El Matador.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Remember How We Talked?

It went like this at the Hooper's the other night. Hap's eighteen-year-old daughter is talking about "a real gone guy—solid—out of this world, but def."

"Now what kind of language is that?" Hap barks. "Can't she speak English?"

"I'll translate it for you," Ma Hooper says, "in the language of the twenties, when you were about twenty years old. She simply means this fellow is the 'cat's whiskers.' Remember how we used to talk sometimes?" Hap went back to reading his newspaper.

From where I sit, it's easy to criticize the other person when we don't take a good long look at ourselves. Sure, there'll always be some differences. I'm fond of a temperate glass of beer and maybe you would prefer ginger ale—but let's just live and let live. Because when we go out of our way to find things to find fault with in others, chances are they can find a few in us, too.

Candlelight Ceremony Thursday Unites Earlyne Laughlin And Horace Jameson

The marriage of Miss Earlyne Laughlin, daughter of Mrs. Sammie Laughlin and the late Earl Laughlin, and Horace Jameson, son of Mrs. Beulah Jameson of Whiteflat and Bob Jameson, Jr. of Matador, was solemnized Thursday at 6:30 p. m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Henderson, Baptist pastor, Rev. Clifford Potts officiated in an impressive doubling ceremony.

The fireplace, with a bowl of white gladioli and lilies decorating the mantel, formed the background for the ceremony, with floor baskets of the lilies and gladioli, and cathedral tapers in branched candelabra completing the arrangement on each side.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Van Laughlin of Rule, Texas, the bride was lovely in a wedding dress of white slipper satin, fashioned with long pointed sleeves. A ruffle of lace outlined the yoke and lace also formed a pepum for the skirt, which extended in a train. A tiara of small stars outlined with seed pearls held her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and a white Bible.

Mrs. Grady Lackey of Spur, Texas, a cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of orchid marquisette, sprinkled with pastel sequins and carried a matching bouquet of orchid and sweetpeas. Mrs. C. D. Garrison, Jr., was bridesmaid and she wore a pink chiffon dress with a matching pink bouquet of orchid and sweetpeas.

C. D. Garrison, Jr. was best man, and Gordon Russell served as usher.

Miss Mary Helen Stephens, pianist, played "Dream of Love" and accompanied Mrs. M. D. Freeman of Roaring Springs, who sang, "One Fleeting Hour" by Fuhrmann, and "I Love You Truly", by Bond. While Gary Laughlin, brother of the bride,

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jameson lighted the candles, Miss Stephens played "The Flower Song", and the Bridal Chorus for processional. During a reception which followed the ceremony, she played "Melody of Love" and "Meditation".

The bride's table was covered with a lace crocheted cloth and centered with a bowl of white carnations and gladioli. The tiered wedding cake was decorated with pastel rosebuds and topped with a miniature bridal couple. Mrs. R. E. Donovan served the cake and Mrs. J. S. Stanley presided at a crystal punch bowl.

After a wedding trip to El Paso, Juarez, Mexico, and points in New Mexico, the couple returned here Sunday night and will make their home at Whiteflat. The bride wore a gray suit with red accessories for travel.

Wedding guests included: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Leon of Rotan; Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Blackshear and Grady Lackey of Spur; Mrs. R. M. Cain, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams and children, Mike and Jerry Ann, Sam H. Bolling, Jr., and Dewey McDonald all of Lubbock; Mrs. Vernon Logan and daughter, Dee Ann of Lamesa; Sam H. Bolling, Sr., of Hobbs, N. Both Mr. and Mrs. Jameson are popular members of the younger set here and at Whiteflat. Following her graduation from Matador High school, the bride attended Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene, and later studied nursing at Lubbock Memorial Hospital, while attending Texas Technological college. During the past year she has been employed as operator in the local office of the Southwestern Associated Telephone Company. Mr. Jameson is also a graduate of Matador High school and served three years in the armed forces during the past war. ### Church and Social Activities

Telephones 123 and 156

Student Work Is Theme Of Program Given By W.S.C.S.

Program theme at regular weekly meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church, held Tuesday afternoon, March 22, was "Student Work". The theme hymn, "Thou, Whose Almighty Word" was sung with Mrs. Harry Willett at the piano.

A short devotional was led by Mrs. A. J. Daffern, and "The Story of The Violin Sermon" was read by Mrs. G. E. Hamilton, after which a report of Student Work, prepared by Mrs. Frank Pohl, was read.

Unusual feature of the program was an interesting talk given by the Rev. Mrs. Charles Henry regarding the work in her church, the colored Methodist Chapel. She thanked the Society for the help and inspiration they have given in organizing the colored church, and reported having enough money to purchase lots for a site for a proposed church building.

"No other country in the world has been blessed as America," Mrs. Henry told her listeners, "...no other race of nation has been blessed as you. I am not a stranger but a sinner saved by grace and a part of a crude type or a beginner without sufficient or required preparation of experience ... certainly, during the early period of my negro church activities we met many oppositions but they gradually passed, and the work continued slowly but surely and the experience gained produced a better type people of the negro race, which resulted from Christian Societies of power and authority."

"I am thankful that you made the negro leadership school in the Northwest Texas Conference possible and mapped its future. I am glad the Methodist Missionaries answered, "Here am I, we will go", with many efforts accomplished, through unselfish service and sacrifice ... again I am very grateful for the big helping hand of literature and the much needed information. I shall bow in submission for the results from the efforts of this great W. S. C. S. who at all time has a great message and prayer."

The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. T. E. Williams. Others present were: Mesdames H. H. Schweitzer, W. B. Vaughn, Ted Steen, R. P. Moore, C. D. Pipkin, Homer Sheats, W. F. Jacobs and Sterling Price.

Mrs. Luckett Gives Book Review For El Progreso Club

"The Years of the Locust", $10,000 prize winning novel by Miss Loula Grace Erdman of Canyon, was the book selected by Mrs. Leonora Luckett for her annual book review for El Progreso Club which met in her home last Thursday afternoon.

Dade Kenzie and his progeny lived again as Mrs. Luckett unfolded the story plot in her own inimitable end enjoyable style, and all who heard the review expressed profound appreciation and enthusiasm for Mrs. Luckett and her presentation of the book.

Business was conducted by Mrs. A. J. Daffern, president, in a session preceding the program. Mrs. G. E. Hamilton served as secretary in the absence of Mrs. U. L. Willie.

Several ladies from Spur were guests for the occasion. These were, Mrs. G. C. Godfrey and daughter Ann, Mrs. Luckett and Mesdames E. D. Engleman, Clyde Bingham, C. H. White and Bob Conner.

Club members present were Mesdames Dick Groves, Freeman Thacker, J. L. Woodruff, H. H. Schweitzer, Ralph Stappell, John Hamilton, W. N. Pipkin, Ben Meador, Joe Bloodworth, Harry Willett, J. R. Wood, J. Farris Fish, J. R. Moore, L. C. Harp, J. R. Emmons, J. E. Edwards, Willie Cooper and John Stevens, Misses Dorothy Willett, Amy Glenn and Mary Keith.

DINNER GIVEN JOE STEPHENS ON BIRTHDAY

Joe Stephens was honored Sunday on the occasion of his 50th birthday with a buffet dinner given in their home at Whiteflat by his wife and mother, Mrs. H. B. Stephens.

The dining table was laid with a hand crocheted lace cloth with a blue and white three-tier cake forming the attractive centerpiece.

Music was furnished throughout the afternoon by the band, his son, Morris, and his son-in-law, C. R. Brandon.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Morris Stephens and family and Billy Joe Stephens of Sberton; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Brandon and family of Paducah; Mrs. Minnie K. Berryman of Hale Center; Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Donaldson and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Tucker of Farwell, New Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Stephens and Mrs. Bill Dunning and daughter, Raynita of Matador; Mrs. Cordie Stephens and son, H.
