TRAIL DUST

Pain creates its own desperation which may flow away from the valleys of convention. The arthritic never ceases his experiments with the problem that science has not dissolved, and now the newest "fad" knocks on the doors of the impossible. For a number of years the WD-40 Company in San Diego, California has been making a petroleum distillate product to stop squeaks, protect metal and loosen rusted parts. It is a very efficient item for door locks, electrical switches, cabinet drawers that stick and many other uses, but it has no medical claims. The designer of the product probably never dreamed that some man or woman suffering the misery of arthritis would become desperate enough to spray some of the clear liquid on an affected part of the human anatomy. One store on the Plains is reported to buy WD-40 by the case and frequently sell more of the penetrating preparation than is immediately available. It is not available at the drug counter, but in hardware stores, auto supply stores and many other stores which offer a large variety of products. Most of the preparation will either penetrate or evaporate, leaving only a small oily residue after a few minutes.

A pathetic example of frustration may be displayed by a hungry dog trying to remember where a bone is buried. A similar case may result in an over-confident politician trying to remember where he left the confidence of the people.

Some of this nation's woes might be solved if so many cars did not drive past church buildings during the time of services on Sundays.

A Dallas pastor is quoted in a national magazine as saying that the devil's greatest accomplishment is convincing so many people that he does not exist.

Trouble seems to keep a methodical record of calls and return at intervals to keep the record active.

Time is about the only thing that can be wasted; other elements merely change form.

TEEN CANTEN MEETS FRIDAY

Next Teen Canteen will be held Friday, Oct. 8, (an open football date) it was announced this week. Regular meeting time is scheduled for after-games. However, the Canteen did not meet Friday night, due to the Youth-led revival meeting and fellowship at the First Baptist Church following the game.

A game and fun night is being planned for the meeting next week, in the form of a "Tacky party." Prizes will be given to the tackiest dressed boy and girl, and all youth of the community are invited.

"Many of our young people have never attended a tacky party," and don't know what it is," said an adult leader for the Canteen. "If you don't know what a tacky party is, just ask, then come and enjoy it, Friday night, Oct. 8, at 8 o'clock."

Golf Tournament Scheduled Sunday

A golf tournament sponsored jointly by the Men's and Women's Golf associations will be held Sunday, October 10, it was announced this week.

There will be a supper at the clubhouse following play, it was also announced. More details of the tournament will be announced next week.

Plans are complete at Flomol for the 8th Annual Quarter Horse Show and Youth Activity, Sunday, Oct. 3.

The show, sponsored by Flomol Lions Club, will start at 10 a.m. at the Turner Arena, two miles east and one mile south of Flomol. Malcolm Turner of Flomol is manager of the show.

Purcell Amendment Proposes Halt of Students Busing

A Constitutional amendment to halt federally-imposed busing of school children has been proposed by U. S. Representative Graham Purcell. "Unless this step is taken," the Texas Democrat stated, "we will see the irrevocable destruction of the world's most effective educational system — the neighborhood schoolhouse."

Purcell's amendment, if ratified, would prohibit the forced assignment of children to schools outside their neighborhoods. "After all," the veteran legislator said, "what we're seeking is the best education possible for every child in the United States regardless of their race. Shuffling young less of their race. Shuffling youngsters from one school to another over the course of their fundamental education seems to be the most self-defeating program anyone ever dreamed up."

Congressman Purcell insisted that the emphasis should be turned instead to an improvement of the educational quality of public schools. The proposed amendment would also require the government, from federal to local levels, to concentrate available resources on substandard schools.

Early last month, Purcell announced his intention to prepare such a Constitutional amendment reserving the hope that "eventually some position would be taken that would restore order from the chaos which has completely ignored its victims — our school children."

"While contradictory and confusing statements have come from the White House," Purcell concluded, "the President has refused to take the action he alone can take: instructing his Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare to stop advocacy of busing schemes. I am taking the only action left."

Congressman Purcell offered his proposal upon the reconvening of Congress following its just completed month-long recess.

Missionaries At Assembly of God

Foreign missionaries from East Africa will speak Sunday night at the Assembly of God Church, according to an announcement by Rev. R. L. Lockwood, pastor.

The speakers will be Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Hagemeier, who are home on furlough from Tanzania, East Africa.

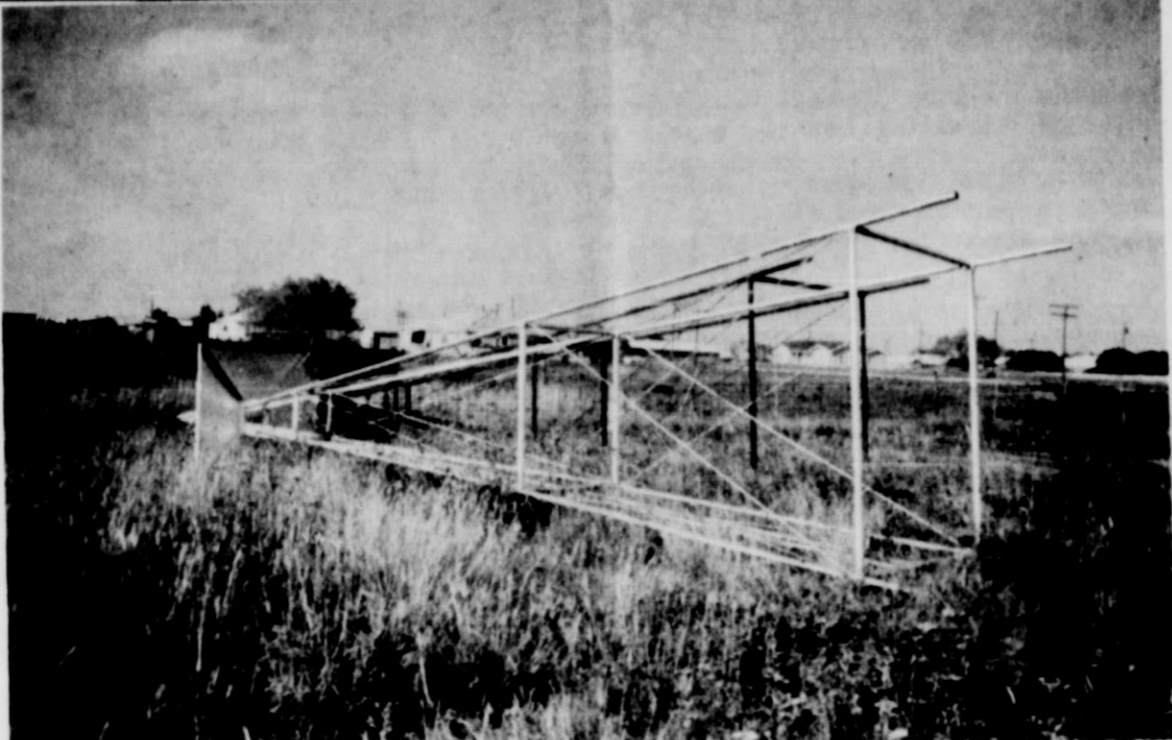

Services will start at 7:30 p.m. and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Rev. Gene Joplin In Methodist Hospital

Rev. Gene Joplin, pastor of First Baptist Church is a patient in Methodist Hospital, Lubbock (room 433) where he is in traction to relieve a back ailment. Rev. and Mrs. Joplin had driven to Albuquerque, N.M. after receiving word that her brother, Johnny Howard of Portales, had been seriously burned in a butane explosion.

The Joplins went first to the hospital in Lubbock, where he had an appointment with his physician, who put him to bed. Mrs. Joplin remained at her husband's bedside after a call to Albuquerque, and the assurance that her brother was in a satisfactory condition.

Mr. Howard operates a ranch near Portales. Following the accident he was transferred to a hospital in Albuquerque for specialized treatment.

SKYLINE SYMBOLS of the Foothill Country are shown above. The two steel windmill towers will soon rise against the Texas horizon. The towers were built by Bill Jameson of Jameson Drilling Co. here in Matador who has several other orders on hand. Contrary to some publicity, the windmill is not passing from the scene in this ranch country. The Pitchfork Ranch has 117 windmills (many old wooden towers and some early steel towers are being replaced) and the Moss Ranch has 19 windmills. The demand for used motors has about exhausted the supply on the Plains. A new motor with an 8-ft. wheel costs in the neighborhood of $300. The rancher has not yet found a cheaper and more dependable source of stock water supply, than the windmill.

Methodist Church Announces Revival

Revival services will be held at the United Methodist Church, beginning Sunday evening, October 3, according to an announcement this week by Rev. Douglas Gossett, pastor.

The Letter of St. Paul to the Philippians will be Rev. Nelson's basis for the morning services.

A special feature of the evening

REV. TOMMY NELSON

Army Careers to be Subject of Program

Highlights of an Army career will be given Monday night at regular supper meeting of the American Legion and Auxiliary. Speakers will be Carl King and his wife, a former WAC, who have recently returned to Matador to make their home.

Also on the program will be a report by Mr. and Mrs. Ward Rattan, of the 18th District convention in Childress, which they attended.

New Post Commander Billy Wason will preside. A covered dish supper will be served at 7:30, and followed by the program and separate business sessions of the two organizations.

Conference Set for Parents, Teachers

A conference for parents and teachers will be held Thursday and Friday, October 7-8, starting at 1:40 p.m. according to J. E. Edwards, Matador Grade School Principal.

"This is an opportunity for the parents to visit the schoolroom and discuss with the teachers, their children's work to this point," Mr. Edwards explained. Students will take home letters, advising the parents what time their conferences are scheduled. It will be greatly appreciated if all parents will cooperate, and attend these conferences.

During the business session, plans will be made for the Lubbock Craft Tour which the club will make in November. All members are requested to attend Monday, so that these plans can be completed.

Attend Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Jameson attended funeral services Tuesday, in Stamford for her uncle, Cliff Lefevre. The services were held at 2:30 p.m.

Rainfall Now Above Average

PATRIARCH of the rain gauge Pharmacist Bob Stanley has conceded that the drought is broken "or badly bent," but he still points out that a two inch rain has not fallen in Matador during a 24-hour period since May 6, 1968.

On that date he recorded 2.45 inches. His faithful records of the all-important precipitation, show rainfalls over 1.30-in. since the above date, as follows: June 14, 1969, 1.45-in.; Aug. 25, 1969, 1.35-in.; Oct. 22, 1969, 1.90-in.; May 24, 1970, 1.34-in.; Oct. 26, 1970, 1.35-in.; June 10, 1971, 1.55-in.; Sept. 17, 1971, 1.80-in.

On the other hand his records show that Matador has recorded more than normal rainfall to this date. The average rainfall to this date is 16.55 inches, and Mr. Stanley's gauge has tallied 16.92 inches. Last year at this date he had recorded only 9.20 inches.

Another interesting record is the amount of rain that fell in August and September, a total of 10.01 inches. For the entire year up to the first of August only 9.20 inches were registered. More moisture fell in two months than had been recorded in the previous seven months.

Mr. Stanley also keeps a faithful record of temperatures, high and low, and records snowfalls.

Isbell, brother-in-law of J. P. Sturdivant. The women visited Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Meador while here. They, and Mr. Meador, also Mrs. Isbell are former Cottle County residents.

Matadors Top Out Bronchos with 28-0

by Lance Jameson

On the wet turf at the Burleson football arena Friday night, the Matador Matadors drew a tight rein and gentled the Meadow Bronchos 28-0.

A second quarter outburst by the Matadors flashed a 12-0 half-time score. End Berry Bostick erased the zero from the scoreboard when he converted a screen pass from quarterback Bill Barnhill into a 38 yard touchdown. Fullback Smitty Smith slashed 44 yards into the end zone and up went the hands of an official.

Quarterback Barnhill on a sparkling keeper scored from the 2 yard line in the third quarter. Halfback Hal Martin bolted through the Broncho line for the 2 conversion points.

Last quarter, end Dwayne Campbell snared a 28 yard aerial from freshman quarterback, Steve Stevens, for another Matador touchdown. Stevens dived between Broncho legs for the 2 conversion points for the final score 28-0.

The Matadors chalked up 12 first downs while their tough defense held the Bronchos to 2. Smith led the Matadors with 101 yards on 13 assignments and Barnhill added 95 yards on 16 carries. Thomas Tilson, Smith and Mark Parks pounced on Meadow fumbles and Barnhill snagged a Bronco pass. Doug Meador blocked a Bronco punt with Benny Edwards covering it. Matador hit 6 of 12 passes for 143 yards and gained 166 yards overall for a total of 309 gained yards to Meadow's 46.

Coach Stan Irvine was well pleased with the team's great improvement, attitude and desire to win. He said the offense was alive, quick and did some good faking while doing outstanding blocking.

The Matador Matadors plan to give a repeat performance Friday night when they meet the Jaybirds in Jayton at 8:00 o'clock.

Roaring Springs Baptist Church To Hold Revival

A fall revival will be held by the Roaring Springs First Baptist Church, starting Sunday morning, October 3, it was announced this week by Rev. Henry Rhynes, pastor.

Rev. Don Hancock, pastor of the Parkview Baptist Church Plainview, will do the preaching, and Clifford Truett of the Pansy Baptist Church will lead the singing. Rev. Hancock was reared at Crosbyton, and is former pastor of the Baptist Church at Afton. He is a graduate of Wayland Baptist College.

Mrs. J. D. Palmer, church pianist, will play for the revival. The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend all services, which will be held twice daily, at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., through October 10. "We are praying for a renewing revival. Come and bring someone with you," is the invitation of the church and pastor.

Postal Department To Speed Delivery

Next day delivery of first class mail has been assured patrons of Matador and other area post offices, according to Postmaster Charlie Scaff.

He said areas contingent to Matador will benefit from the next-day deliveries under a new mail service goal announced by Postmaster General Winton M. Blount. Scaff recently attended a district meeting in Childress where the improved delivery of first class mail was announced.

These areas, Scaff said, include the following sectional centers: Amarillo, Lubbock, Abilene, Wichita Falls, Midland and San Angelo. Postmaster General Blount on August 26 unveiled the Postal Service's new goal of overnight delivery of local area first-class mail deposited by 5 p.m.

"The Postmaster General has pointed out that this program will affect more than half of all first-class letter mail sent in the United States," Postmaster Scaff said. "So postal customers of every post office in the country will benefit from the new mail service goal."

Substantially more than half of the 52 billion pieces of first-class mail handled annually are for delivery within the city where deposited or in nearby communities. Areas outlined for which next day delivery will be provided are for ZIP coded first-class mail deposited by 5 p.m. on weekdays.

A basket lunch will be spread at noon, brought by those attending. Plates and drinks will be furnished, it was announced. Everyone is welcome to attend, and a special invitation is extended former residents of the community.

Extra City Patrol To be Discussed

A meeting to discuss the feasibility of adding a night patrolman for the Matador business district, will be held tonight (Thursday) at 8:00 o'clock in the commissioners court room.

The Matador City Council and the Motley County Commissioners Court have announced the joint meeting, at the suggestion of local citizens.

Following two recent burglaries, several Matador businessmen have expressed a desire for additional nighttime protection, in view of the fact that the night watchman is hired only for fire watching and to sound the alarm in case of an emergency.

Any interested businessman is invited and urged, to attend the meeting.

MRS. JOHN BENNETT DRAEMER

Recent Draemer-Tipton Nuptials Solemnized in Dayton Ceremony

The recent marriage of Susan Marie Tipton of Dayton, Tex., and Mr. John Bennett Draemer of Houston is announced by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Tipton of Dayton, formerly of Matador. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Draemer of Huffman.

Vows were pledged in a double ring service at 8 p.m. September 17, in the First Baptist Church, Dayton, officiated by the Rev. Glen Dromgoole, Baptist minister of South Lake.

An arched candelabra entwined with greenery, within an arrangement of buckskin pompon mums and oak transparent leaves, was at each side of the altar. In the background were two branched candelabras holding candlelight tapers. Garlands of boxwood teak along the chancel rail, and family pews marked with clusters of stephanotis and buckskin mums, completed the autumn decor.

Wedding music was played by M. W. Ford Jr., organist. He accompanied Mrs. Walter R. Copeland, who sang, "Love Story," and at the conclusion of the ceremony as the couple knelt, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden."

The bride was presented in marriage by her father. The Victorian bridal gown, an original designed and made by the bride and her mother, was fashioned of candlelight Lutesong. Rows of French lace, inset with tiny seed pearls trimmed the bodice. The long, full sleeves were held at the wrist with a band trimmed in matching lace and seed pearls, and the high collar was also trimmed in matching lace and seed pearls. For "something old" the bride wore a brooch, centered at the throat of her collar, which belonged to her paternal grandmother, the late Mrs. A. A. Tipton. For "something new" she wore a gold wrist watch, her gift from the groom. Her attire also included the traditional "something borrowed and blue, and a six pence in her shoe."

The bride's mantilla was fashioned of candlelight illusion and edged in matching lace and lace rosettes with tiny seed pearls. She carried a Bible covered in Lutesong to match her gown, and a bouquet of daisies, centered with an orchid corsage, tied with satin streamers in lover's knots and daisies.

Mrs. Luches P. Dartz Jr., of Huffman, was matron of honor. She wore a mint green street-length dress of crepe, designed with empire waist and a pale green satin bow and ribbon accenting the waistline, and short, bell sleeves. She wore matching accessories and carried a bouquet of buckskin pompon mums.

Danny McKenzie of Fort Stockton was best man. Ushers were J. W. Boothe of Beaumont, brother of the bride, Gary Outenreath of Houston, cousin of the groom, and Larry Stevens, also of Houston.

Reception is Held

A reception was held following the ceremony, in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth over white damask. Centerpiece was an arrangement of white stock, baby's breath and snowflake mums, complementing the crystal punch service and silver appointments, and the traditional three-tiered wedding cake.

A registry and gift table held a bird cage containing the rice bags. Other accessories and decorations included the bride's book, a feathered pen, the bride's bouquet and that of the matron of honor, Miss Sherry Remkes registered the guests and presided at the refreshment table with Miss Deborah Draemer, Mrs. J. W. Boothe and Mrs. Gary Outenreath.

The bride's ensemble for travel was a white brocade pants suit with chiffon blouse and white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Draemer is a graduate of Dayton High School and attended East Texas Baptist College in Marshall. She has been employed as secretary for the Dayton News. Her husband is a graduate of Milby High School of Houston, and Texas A&M University. He is an accountant for Houston Pipe Line Company. They are residing in Houston.

Out of town guests at the wedding included the bride's aunt, Mrs. Douglas Meador of Matador. Others were from Baytown, Devers, Huffman, Pasadena, Humble, Houston, Midland and Stafford.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gilbert returned home Monday of last week for a two week's visit with relatives. They visited in Burnet with her brother, J. B. Vaughn and were joined there by Mr. Gilbert's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Gilbert of Houston. They also visited in Athens with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bateman Middlebrook and daughters, Clyda, Gina and Nona.

WEEK END VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. English of Odessa visited from Friday until Sunday with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Rattan and all drove to Boys Ranch, Saturday to spend the day with the latter's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Rattan and sons, Chris and David.

Week end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith were his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ballinger, and a brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith, all of Fort Worth. They also visited a niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. David Thompson and children while here.

THEME OF EL PROGRESSO CLUB PROGRAMS EMPHASIZE 'TEXAS'

"Texas, Our Texas! All hail the mighty State!" — stirring words of the State Song inaugurated the new year and season for 1971-72 in federated club work for El Progreso Club of Matador, Thursday, Sept. 23.

Mrs. Furman Vinson, President, gave an opening welcome to all members and visitors present in the Methodist Church parlor, and stated the theme for the club's study the next two years, "Texas, Becoming the Number One state in the Union."

Mrs. W. N. Pipkin was leader for the day's program, "Texas: Her Earliest Settlers."

Mrs. Vinson introduced as guest speaker, Jim Word of Floydada, amateur archeologist, who brought a most interesting program on various Indian tribes that roamed, hunted and traded in this area many, many years ago, including the Caddos, Apaches and Comanches. He showed slides of Indian artifacts found in this area and other parts of western Texas.

Mr. Word said it is an unfortunate thing over Texas and other parts of the United States, that the sites of archeology are being destroyed. "It is like destroying a page in our history books," he declared, "since many artifacts in this vicinity date back hundreds of years."

He concluded his remarks with a question and answer session and general discussion of his subject. Mr. Word was presented as a gift from the club, Mary Whatley Clarke's latest book, "Chief Bowles and the Texas Cherokees." Mrs. Harry Willett gave the Inspirational Thought, to conclude the program.

TFWC Backs "Big Thicket"
El Progreso Club is joining the other federated clubs in Texas in a united effort to save the "Big Thicket" near Livingston, and location of the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Reservation — Texas' only Indian reservation.

The Big Thicket, the last of its kind in Texas is rapidly vanishing at the rate of 300 acres per day. It harbors fauna and flora that have become extinct in other places. Only by persistence of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs can this area be saved for posterity.

It was announced by Mrs. Vinson that the Santa Rosa District workshop will be held in Childress on October 16. She urged as many as possible, to attend.

Club members also made plans to attend "They Came From Spain," in Palo Duro Canyon State Park, Thursday (today) and to meet at the Methodist Church at 5:00 p.m. to go in a group to attend the production. A barbecue supper will be served in the park, and all members wishing to attend the drama are to be at the church by departure time. Estimated cost of the trip, including supper and the play, is $5.00.

The club will meet October 14 at the ranch home of Mrs. J. M. Hill Jr., for a President's Tea honoring Mrs. Overton Neal, President of Santa Rosa District of TFWC.

Mrs. Tom Edwards Honored at Coffee

A coffee honoring Mrs. Tom Edwards was held Tuesday, September 21, in the home of Mrs. Ralph Stapleton, assisted by a number of friends and neighbors.

Mavericks Elect New Cheerleaders

Christi Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Carpenter, was elected as head cheerleader to lead the 1971 Matador Mavericks. Assisting Christi will be Penny Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Corby Marshall, and Shari Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Smith. Each of these girls received letters consisting of white megaphones with M.G.S. written in red. Also helping the cheerleaders will be two newly elected twirlers. They are Merritt Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Simpson, and Nancy Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holt. The cheerleaders are chosen from the eighth grade and the twirlers are seventh graders.

Shane Stevens is FFA Sweetheart

The Matador Chapter of Future Farmers of America elected Shane Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Stevens, FFA Sweetheart in the first general meeting September 15. She will represent the chapter in the District FFA Beauty Contest. Serving as officers this year are: Rickey Lawrence, President; Smitty Smith, Vice-President; David Boykin, Secretary; Lamar Tilson, Reporter; Lance Jameson, Treasurer, and Kenneth Marshall, Sentinel.

The chapter decided as their money making project to sell oranges and grapefruits. The date to start selling has not been announced.

Rally Creates Victor Spirits

Cheers and chants rang through the halls of M.H.S. as the Meadow Pep Rally got under way, Friday, September 24. Spirits soared as yells and chants such as "Onward", "Hey Let's Move", and "Big G Little O Let's Go" were yelled to assure the Matadors that the student body was behind them all the way. Kay Cooper, along with other girls, portrayed a football broadcaster relaying the game to the fans. At halftime, a commercial from the Chicken Soup Company was presented by cheerleaders Charla Wason and Linda Cammack. Others who participated in the skit were Paula Palmeyer, Jackie Martin, Nancy Higginbotham, Debbie Doran, Cinda Simpson, and Cindy Carpenter.

Wayland Moore inspired the Matadors to victory by stressing in his speech that this game plus all the games to come in the season should be taken one at a time and looked upon as the most important. Dwayne Campbell and Mark Parks assured the student body that with determination and team work the Matadors would "Tame the Bronchos".

The pep rally closed with the singing of the school song and the Matador Matadors leaving out to the cries of "All the way, Big Red".

Relics of Judge Roy Bean on Display at Highway Visitor Center, Langtry

LANGTRY (Special) — Judge Roy Bean, the "Law West of the Pecos," was likely to handcuff prisoners to a handy tree 'till he could get round to a trial on his front porch. He reeled off decisions with the aid of a solitary law book, and backed 'em up with a six-shooter on the table beside him. Then to make it official, he made liberal use of his prized notary seal.

The old judge is long gone, along with the frontier Southwest, he so colorfully represented. But his pistol, handcuffs, book and notary seal are now on display at the Texas Highway Department's Judge Roy Bean Visitor Center in Langtry.

The historic items, in private hands since Bean's death, are feature additions at the site where a slice of the old West is preserved in authentic detail. The relics are on view in a special case protected by an electronic security system.

Roy Bean wouldn't believe it. The weathered old "Jersey Lilly," his saloon-courtroom-billiard hall, is just like he left it. The State Legislature, in 1939, named it a historic site and directed the Highway Department to preserve it for tourists. Next door is the department's modern, air-conditioned Visitor Center. Inside the judge would find himself the star of a half dozen dioramas, each with a special recorded program.

With his eye for the ladies, he'd surely go for the pretty travel counselors who are always on duty, especially since their favorite subject is the same as his: Roy Bean. And there, rigged up like the crown jewels — his pistol, handcuffs, law book, and notary seal.

The cactus garden outside would surely perplex the old judge. Neat paths lead to hundreds of cacti, yucca, and other Southwestern plants, each with a label of names and facts. Why in tarnation such bother for those pesky, thorny things?

But it's not likely that Roy Bean's ghost will be roaming the Visitor Center. There's one thing about it he just couldn't abide. It's all free. Imagine, folks dropping in every day of the week — from all over Texas, California, and even Canada — but not a nickle to be made. Thunderation!

Course, he'd probably be pleased that some old friends remember him. They're heirs of W. H. Dodd, a compadre of Bean's from the old days, and they made the Bean relics available to the Highway Department. Among them are Mrs. Pearl Dodd Nicholson of Langtry; Cross Dodd and Mrs. Mary Hall Uzzell, both of Austin; Mrs. Dorothy Hall Frazz of Dixon, Illinois; and Mrs. Billie Hall Carey of La Crescenta, California.

Roy Bean says thank'ee! Texas.

COUNTY AGENT PALLMEYER SAYS:

Farmers and ranchers should become familiar with the new vehicle brake law recently passed by the Texas Legislature.

The new law applies to every trailer, semi-trailer, and pole trailer equipped with air or vacuum actuated brakes and every trailer in excess of 3,000 lbs. These trailers must now be equipped with brakes acting on all wheels which can be applied automatically and promptly and remain applied for at least 15 minutes upon breakaway from the towing vehicle.

There are some exceptions to the law. Trailers with a gross weight of 3,000 or less and those weighing 40% or less of the towing vehicle are exempt.

Also farm trailers or semi-trailers moving temporarily on highways at speeds of 30 miles per hour or less and having a gross weight of 10,000 lbs. or less are exempt from the brake requirements if they are otherwise exempt from vehicle registration laws.

In addition, cotton trailers weighing 15,000 lbs. or less moving temporarily at speeds of 30 miles per hour or less are exempt if they are exempt from vehicle registration laws.

Other special brake requirements were added for mobile homes, certain vehicles in drive-away and towaway operations, and certain trucks and truck-trailers having three or more axles.

Officers of the Texas Department of Public Safety have more specific information on the new brake law as well as the effective date of the various provisions of the law.

Ask them about these new restrictions, so that you won't get caught with your brakes down.

Armyworms, both fall and beet are appearing in damaging numbers in many places. If you detect them in time, you may save the field, but in most instances, the field has been "cleaned out" before the worms are noted. Small grains, grasses, alfalfa, grain sorghum and even cotton are attacked.

The larval stage lasts about 20 days, but it only takes a day or so for a heavy infestation to clean you out. When this is accomplished, they move to an adjoining area. The fall armyworm will reach a length of one to one and a half inches, and vary in color from light tan or green to nearly black. They have three yellowish-white hair lines down the back from head to tail; on the side next to the yellow lines is a wider dark stripe spotted with red. A prominent white inverted Y is also noted on the head.

When the larvae are full grown, they dig into the soil and pupate. Within about 2 weeks, the adult emerges (as a moth) and flies some distance before laying eggs in masses of about 150 until a total of about 1,000 eggs are laid.

While in the pupae stage, shallow cultivation is effective, and while in the larvae (worm) stage, Sevin, Methyl parathion, Parathion and Toxaphene are recommended. (Be sure to read the label for strength of mixture and safety precautions.)

The beet armyworm is distinguished from the fall armyworm by the lack of the inverted Y, and the stripes are not as prominent. In the mature stage, spots are noted on the side towards the front of the body, but don't take the time to tell which armyworm you have if you find them. Both will do the same damage and can be controlled the same way, so if you detect them in time, act, for the crop you save, may be your own.

If your repair bill is high, you may have been overcharged for service, but more commonly, you were charged for good service.

Consumers don't often realize the high costs for a repair service to carry out an efficient business and offer good service. Good repair service doesn't happen automatically; it required good management, organization, and a substantial capital investment.

A repair bill reflects these costs of business, such as specialized training (up to four years for competent repairmen), trucks driven by repairmen, truck maintenance and operation, tools, stock of spare parts and accurate testing apparatus.

Also, remember it includes office rent and utilities, such as a phone; office equipment, including stationery and office supplies; office help; warehouse and shop rent; insurance for trucks, liability, fire theft, property and workman's compensation; employee's benefits; taxes; and travel time.

The cost of repair service is more than actual time spent repairing an appliance and the cost of the parts.

While most repair services charge honest prices some may not. To protect yourself, follow these steps:

Deal with the factory-authorized repair service for your particular appliance.

Obtain estimates from more than one shop if the repair estimate seems too high.

Don't sign a statement saying repair work has been finished until it actually has been completed.

Don't advance money for any repair work before it has been done.

Make sure that the repair service guarantees completed work.

Consumers in the United States lose about four billion dollars a year through gyps and fraud. The only way consumers can guard against such losses is to learn to recognize dishonest business gimmicks.

A popular gimmick is the promise of a free gift. Remember, very few things are really free with no strings attached. Businessmen who make a habit of giving away free goods and services cannot make a profit or stay in business.

Consumers, then should investigate before being taken by such claims as "free" and "low, low prices;" consumers usually get no better quality than they pay for.

Another attention-getter is "you have been selected." You probably were selected because your name is next in the telephone book, or because your house happens to be next in the block.

Watch for the "supply is limited" claim. Often the supply is really limited, but this is not always the case. The company may be overstocked and the salesman instructed to push the product.

For some reason, the product may not sell on its own.

"If you get 10 buyers, it's yours free" is a phrase usually spouted by door-to-door salesmen. Be cautious: you may not be able to get buyers for the product, and the salesman may have already covered the neighborhood. Or you may not really want to sell the product to neighbors.

Also put on your guard when you hear "a well known person in your neighborhood bought one." Don't be fooled into thinking such a claim automatically makes the product worthwhile, as many people buy foolishly, and the same product will not meet the needs of everyone.

A product that "can't be bought in the store" may be a good product from a reputable company. Many well-known companies conduct their business only through door-to-door salesmen, but dishonest businesses may also operate through direct contact, peddling low quality, poor merchandise. Be on the alert.

"Formerly $30, now $10" is an other gimmick. Such a claim is not always legitimate; the original price may never have existed.

Always beware of unrealistic promises. Watch out for "too good to be true" and "something for nothing" signals. Legitimate bargains come and go everyday, but so do frauds.

Campaign Started For McMurry Funds

McMurry College, Abilene, has launched a program approved by the Northwest Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church to raise $500,000 in cash and three-year pledges by October 10, 1971. This money will be matched by a family which has long been a friend of McMurry from oil production assigned to the college over several years.

This campaign is to build a new Physical Education Center costing a total of $1,300,000. The present "Indian Gymnasium" is nearly fifty years old and considered inadequate for today's needs.

The Plainview District of the United Methodist Church held a "kick-off" worker's meeting Tuesday night, Sept. 28, at Holiday Inn, Plainview. Workers from local churches will solicit funds in their communities, following this meeting.

McMurry is a liberal arts college owned and supported by the people of the United Methodist Church and their friends. Enrollment is open to students of good moral character regardless of denomination.
