TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

Destiny doesn't always get around to finishing the things it starts. I have met and shaken hands with three men who later became President of the United States, but I have never met a President. I met Harry Truman when he came to Lubbock before the end of World War II. Later, I met Senator Lyndon Johnson in Amarillo and in San Antonio. I heard Richard Nixon in Galveston and again in Houston, and shook hands with him. I have met five governors of Texas and my wife thinks that it is a good record for a country newspaper editor.

If fate should ever call me to a place of high esteem that would require parades and marching bands, I hope it will be in summertime. If the weather should be cold, an ugly question would raise its head: was the applause because of the need to clap hands for warmth, or because of enthusiasm?

The lack of communication between parents and children could be a disguised blessing. The hope of tomorrow may rest in ignoring facts and trusting that the truth was misunderstood.

Today a private swimming pool is a status symbol, but as a youth it never helped my social position. We had a pool, from which the cattle drank, yet our neighbors never credited my family above average.

Never evaluate a desperate man's actions until you have the facts regarding the combination of influences which caused him to respond beyond the prescribed course of society.

If your taxes are too high, why not go to one of the many countries where the burden of tax is controlled? There, the government takes all you make.

The increasing cost of living may be resulting from so many luxuries becoming necessities.

FRED RATTAN CHILDREN IN INAUGURAL PARADE

The son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rattan, formerly of Amarillo, now living in Montgomery, Alabama, were in the "Sound of the South" band from Troy (Alabama) University which marched in the inaugural parade Monday in Washington, D.C.

Their daughter, Jenni, is a twirler with the band and their son, Freddie is a color guard.

Mr. Rattan was reared in this community.

TO ATTEND FUNERAL

U. S. Leaderless For 16 Minutes

WASHINGTON — The United States was technically without a president for 16 minutes Monday. Under the constitution, Lyndon B. Johnson's term expired promptly at noon EST. But it was not until 12:16 p.m. that Richard M. Nixon finished taking the oath of office.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Date Set

Date for the 31st Mother-Daughter banquet has been set for Monday, February 10, according to an announcement by Mrs. Billie Ray Slover, president of Eternas Junior Study Club which has sponsored the affair for the past several years.

Both the Mother-Daughter banquet and the Father-Son banquet (set for Feb. 11) will be held in the basement of the First Baptist Church.

Girls eligible to attend the Mother-Daughter banquet are those in the 4th grade, through high school.

Each mother in the school district is urged to accompany her daughter to the banquet. In families where there are extra daughters, women in the community are always glad to accompany them as "adopted" mothers. In past years there have been more extra "mothers" than daughters available, which has posed a problem for ticket and arrangements committees.

Tickets will be priced $3.00, and will admit a mother and daughter, Mrs. Slover said.

"We want all eligible girls to attend the banquet," Mrs. Slover declared. "Each girl whose own mother is unable to attend with her, will be given a mother to escort her. The thing we are most concerned with, is that all the girls have an opportunity to attend."

HAWAIIAN TRIP MADE BY FORMER RESIDENT

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Allen of El Paso have written friends here telling of a recent trip to Hawaii, where they spent a week of their Christmas holidays. In their opinion it was their "second honeymoon" and a "paradise on earth."

Among the many things enjoyed was a swim in the Pacific Ocean at Waikiki Beach on New Year's Eve. "Our suitcases were loaded home with souvenirs of coconuts, pineapples, coconut syrup, mums and orchid leis," they wrote.

Mr. Allen will be remembered as a 1936 graduate of Matador High School. Both he and his wife are teachers in the El Paso Public School System.

GOVERNOR PRESTON SMITH

Road Employees Up Population

Matador's usually "static" population has been increased with the arrival of ten or more families of men employed by Cooper & Woodruff Construction Company engaged in improving State Highway 70 between Matador and Roaring Springs and also north of Pease River bridge.

Four large trailer homes are now located on the Pete Williams property in north Matador. Three trailer homes are located on the Albert Daffern property in south-west Matador. Other families are located in homes.

More employees of the construction firm have been attempting to find furnished apartments here. One family is reported to have five children of school age, but no survey of the increase of scholastics has been made.

Floydada Man to Aid Farm Bureau

A Floydada man, George H. Mize, will be in Matador each Tuesday and Friday as manager of the Motley County Farm Bureau office. He said the office has now installed a telephone, No. 347-2880, for the convenience of members.

Mrs. June Tison, office secretary, will also be in the office the same days each week, Mr. Mize said.

Resident Attends Recent Funerals

Mrs. Ted Elliott returned home Saturday from Brownwood, where she attended funeral services Thursday for a nephew, Billy McKeehan, 28. Mr. McKeehan, band director and teacher in Bastrop High School, died Wednesday. Mrs. Elliott also visited her mother, Mrs. C. O. McKeehan at Gorman.

Earlier this month, Mrs. Elliott attended the funeral of Mr. Elliott's mother, Mrs. J. A. Elliott, 90, who died January 6 in Edinburg. Services were held in the DeLeon Church of Christ, and burial was in the Oakland Cemetery near there. Mrs. Elliott was a native of Tennessee.

She is survived by two sons, Ted Elliott of Matador and Joe Elliott of Kingsville; and three daughters, Mrs. R. H. Stephen and Miss Faith Elliott of Edinburg and Miss Billie Elliott of Fort Worth. She had lived in Fort Worth until about two years ago.

School Requests Data for Census

Parents with children who will start to school next year are requested to contact J. E. Edwards, Grade School Principal. Information will be needed for census records, it was explained.

Short Tribune Issue

This is a short four-page issue of the Matador Tribune, because the newspaper did not have enough advertising nor enough news to warrant the usual six pages. It is hoped that next week's issue will return to normal size.

Evangelistic Team At Lions Luncheon

THE INSPIRING singing of Wesley Boyd and the piano accompaniment of his talented wife, Tuesday provided an unusual treat for the members of the Matador Lions Club at the regular luncheon program of the civic club held in the basement of the First Methodist Church.

The world-traveled musical couple, natives of Ireland, are in Matador for their second visit, being close friends of the Methodist pastor, Rev. John Fitzgerald. Currently they are conducting a series of services at the Methodist Church, which will be concluded tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd were introduced by Rev. Fitzgerald, who said: "they have traveled all over the world, dedicating their lives and services to the Lord. While Mr. Boyd is not a preacher, he frequently takes the pulpit as a Methodist Layman, and delivers excellent sermons."

After singing a number of songs to his wife's accompaniment in his rich Irish baritone, Mr. Boyd proceeded to give the Lions a "five-minute sermon."

"Religion is basic to man," Mr. Boyd said, "man is a spiritual and moral person . . . as you seek to find the pilot in this journey to life, what is your destiny? . . ."

Republican Richard Nixon Takes Oath To the World's Most Important Office

THIS NATION and the world is looking to the new leadership of a Republican Richard M. Nixon who Monday took oath of office as the 37th President of the United States. An Associated Press writer reports it this way:

"Richard M. Nixon assumed the splendid misery of the Presidency of the United States Monday — and with it the awesome burden of leading a divided nation in a strife-torn world.

"The 37th President pledged to consecrate my office, my energies, and all the wisdom I can summon, to the cause of peace among nations."

"The changing of the guard, in ceremonies as old as the Republic, was carried out in peace and harmony.

"But it was also shielded by bulletproof glass and massive security measures that bore witness to the perils of public life in a vast and restless nation."

County Voted For Nixon

Majority of voters in Motley County cast their ballots (415) for the new President in the November 5th general election in this traditionally Democratic country. Of the total vote (1142) Humphrey received 397 and Wallace 295. Motley County had also given a majority to Nixon when he was defeated in 1960, but went 2 to 1 for Johnson when he was elected in 1964.

West Texan Preston Smith Becomes Lone Star State's Democratic Governor

WEST TEXAS WAITED a long time before it was able to put a West Texan in the Governor's chair, but it happened Tuesday when Lt. Governor Preston Smith of Lubbock took the oath of office as Governor of the Lone Star State.

It has been a long journey for the genial man to accomplish a childhood dream. It was not easy. Eighteen counties in the upper Panhandle voted against the Governor in November, but enough Texas voters wanted him in the office to provide a substantial victory.

While voting an 18 majority for a Republican President, Motley County gave an even 800 of its 1142 November votes to Democrat Preston Smith. Thus the majority of Motley County voters this week achieved their wishes in both President and Governor.

38th Man, 40th Governor

The Lubbock Avalanche yesterday said Governor Smith became the 38th or 40th governor of Texas, depending on who is counting. Thirty-seven men have occupied the office before, but two of them served non-consecutive terms.

The following is a report of the inauguration in yesterday's Lubbock Avalanche-Journal:

"Fairness and justice" will be the trademark of the Smith administration, the new governor promised.

Proposes 'Dissatisfaction'

"As we turn this page in our history, let this be an era of dissatisfaction," said Lt. Gov. Barnes in his inaugural speech. "Dissatisfaction until every Texas child has the best education we can provide; dissatisfaction until every worker has a fair chance at a decent job and the training to do that job; dissatisfaction until we have unified our state in a common purpose, to assure full opportunity not for most Texans, but for all Texans."

Cannons boomed a 19-gun salute and startled the pigeons and the squirrels on the grounds of the old pink granite Capitol.

Six inaugural balls were held Tuesday night, mostly featuring western style music. Jimmy Dean, a country music star from Plainview, entertained crowds at each place.

Johnson Welcomes Relief From Presidency Burdens

AUSTIN — Flying home, Lyndon Baines Johnson said Monday that he felt "different within four seconds" after Richard Nixon took the oath of office as President.

The former President discussed his feelings while flying back to Texas in the same presidential jet in which he took the oath of office five years ago in Dallas and returned to Washington with the body of John F. Kennedy.

"First," he said, "there was the feeling for Mr. Nixon and what he'll be facing up to.

"Second, there was the feeling that I don't have to be concerned about everything that happens now. As long as you're in the job, all the decisions rest with you. It's a great relief just to know that I can ride by myself on the ranch—that the man with the bag won't be there."

Johnson was referring to the constant companion of a president, the man who carries the top secret code for transmitting presidential decisions in the event of nuclear war.

Speaking of his first day out of elective office for the first time in more than 30 years, Johnson said he felt "wonderful" and he was visibly moved at the crowds who saw him off in Washington.

"People are so good," he said, "and the country is good and it is strong and it is getting better every year, and I want to help it get stronger as long as there is breath in me."

The presidential plane landed at nearby Bergstrom Air Force Base at 5:32 p.m. (CST). An estimated 5,000 persons jammed the fenced in area along the runway behind a big sign which read "Welcome Back, President Johnson and family."

The University of Texas band greeted him with a fanfare and the national anthem, then played "The Eyes of Texas," just before he left for his ranch west of here.

Neither Gov.-elect Preston Smith nor Gov. John Connally was at the airport. Smith had pre-inaugural commitments and Connally was in the process of getting his family moved to Houston.

Visiting from Sunday until Thursday last week in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Stanley were their daughter and granddaughters, Mrs. Ruth Harrison and Stacy of Dallas, and Paula Thrasher of Mount Vernon, and Mrs. Stanley's sister, Miss Lennie Stacy of Dallas. Mrs. Stanley has returned home after accompanying them on their return to Dallas.
