PRICE SEVEN CENTS

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

When sentiment is absent in a man's character he is like a rose without windows.

Experience has taught me many things but never the necessity of being able to profit by a single experience; the mastery of a little gum with dentures being excepted.

No other garment in the wardrobe of human attitudes, wears well, looks so good or keeps fresh, as a smile.

Seldom is a man's true nature hidden so pitifully as when he sets his attentions elsewhere while a pretty girl is passing. It is ironical, but true, however, that he alone is deceived by the picture.

Free enterprise is nature's original idea, but it has suffered some changes in being adopted for the use of mankind. Winter winds have thrashed dry stalks of weed seeds and planted them without whim to direction.

Age, an old trapper once told me, is the period in life when you see your dreams hanging by their heels like flabby-flanked increases in a freezing dawn.

It is probable that an experience of weakness is essential to develop strength to master it. But most of us keep returning to the beginning of the lesson.

Among my early epistolary efforts was a kind publisher had enclosed with a returned manuscript. It hangs in the library of mistakes, surrounded by other youthful shames, but like a mounted elk head, its sad eyes haunt me when I hold the flickering candle of retrospection.

Lions Set Day For Cleanup

An hour of doom has been set for members of the Matador Lions club. It is Monday morning (May 10) at 8 AM when the first 1954 cleanup drive will be launched.

The man with the whip and chair, Talltwin Ben Edwards, will see that each Lion carries his share of the load (and blistered hands). Lion Alvin Stearns, has been named chairman of the cleanup drive (he is beginning his second five-year term in the office).

Each member has been assigned a block in which he will work and block chairmen will be held responsible to the inspection committee's report.

Despite the small attendance at the regular Tuesday luncheon held in the basement of the Methodist church, a report by Boss Lion Bill Moss indicated that the club during the past year had attained its largest number of perfect attendance records in its history. A total of 39 members, exactly half of the club's membership, were named as having attended every meeting.

Feature of Tuesday's program was a magical show by the club's own sleight-of-hand member, Tom Tilson. He was assisted by Mrs. Tilson, and also a number of club members took part in his feats of prestidigitation, which included producing a live snake from an empty box, producing eggs at will from his mouth, changing the colors of scarfs in his hand, etc.

Reports were made by delegates to the district convention, and the Scout committee. Members who played golf in the district tournament at Amarillo, were fined $1 each for the poor showing which they attained.

Announcement was made that the club had received citizenship awards from Flomot and Matador schools for presentation to a student selected in each school.

High senior honor students and graduation plans for Flomot High School were announced this week by officials.

Miss Cora Gail Gunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Gunn is class valedictorian with an average of 89.7.8, and Lindell Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Martin will be salutatorian with an average of 78.

MRS. J. S. LAMBERT CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mrs. J. S. Lambert, 79, pioneer resident of Motley county was claimed by death Sunday about 10 AM, at the home of a daughter, Mrs. T. H. Litteral, in El Paso, Texas, whom she had been visiting. She became ill during the night, following a heart attack late Saturday.

Bill Seal of the Eudy-Seale Funeral Home was accompanied to El Paso Sunday afternoon by Mrs. Lambert's other daughter, Mrs. H. K. Ford, assistant cashier of First State Bank, and Mr. Ford, to bring the body home for funeral services and burial.

Services were held Tuesday at 3 PM in the First Methodist Church by the pastor, Rev. W. V. O'Kelly, assisted by Rev. W. B. Vaughan. Pallbearers were: Pat Sheridan, Alvin Stearns, Howard Trawick, Clyde Gilbert, John Russell and Pete Williams. Interment was in Matador East Mound cemetery by the side of Mr. Lambert, who preceded his wife in death, in March 1944.

Mrs. Litteral, who is recovering at her home from recent surgery for a broken hip, was unable to come here, and a tape recording of the service was made for her, by her son-in-law, Dick Wright, of El Paso. Mrs. Wright, the former Juanel Litteral, is the only grandchild of the deceased.

Alarm Caused by Shinnery Poison

Alarm spread last week among Motley county cattlemen after severe losses were reported from acute shinnery (scrub oak) poisoning. County Agent Bill Pallmeyer summoned Dr. W. T. Hardy, poison expert of the Sonora Experiment Station.

Dr. Hardy said there was no known antidote for the poison, and stockmen were warned to watch their herds closely and keep cattle out of shinnery areas as much as possible.

Pallmeyer said losses reported were in the neighborhood of 50 head and that three times that number had been affected.

The Cap Rock foothill area, acknowledged as some of the finest cattle grazing country in the southwest, has extensive shinnery growth, which has never been considered a problem in the 70 years it has been used for grazing purposes. Unusual rainfall conditions and the 1953 drought, however, are believed as contributing factors in the poisoning outbreak.

Quick growth of the shinnery plant with new grass has caused cattle to eat the poison, while grazing, stockmen declare. Within a short time the scrub oak will become too tough for cattle to graze and the danger will pass.

Prairie fires two seasons ago may also have contributed to the sudden growth of tender oak plants after recent rains, according to opinions. Except under unusual conditions, cattle will not eat the tough shinnery. Growth of abundant new grass is providing excellent range conditions, except for the deadly scrub oak, which cattle inadvertently crop, while grazing.

Talent Revealed In Junior Class Play

Talent came to light in unexpected quarters Tuesday night when members of the Matador High School Junior class presented a 3-act comedy "The Deacon Slips".
The audience was not as large as could be desired, due to other activities in the community. However, all who saw the performance declared the entertainment well worth the price of admission.

Mildren Greendale, (Janey Norman) owns a farm, which causes all the trouble. Her father and mother are dead, and she is accused of theft. Helping her with the farm are her aunt, Eunice Moredough, (Frances Strickland) and a young man, Leslie Jerkome, Agent for "Cayiga Salve", (Joe Fair). They are visited by Deacon Slips, from Center Square, Missouri, (Tom Hamilton) and his daughter, Freta, (Carolyn Tidmore). Unexpected developments arise when Caleb Ringling (Jimmy Watson) a Crook Who Means Business, discovers that there are prospects for oil and gas on the farm, and that a wealthy old uncle has willed his money to Mildred. Mr. Ringling wants to purchase the farm and wants Mildred to marry his son, Harold. With No Mind of His Own (Dean Martin) Mildred is in love with Paul Hearman (Stanley McDonough) but refuses to marry him because she has been accused of theft. Ringling hires Mr. Brown, an attorney, (Wayne Cartwright) but all his schemes fall through when The Deacon and Leslie turned out to be detectives.

They saw how the rocks were crushed and brought out of the mine in coekers. The rocks were mixed with water and placed between two sheets of paper for sheet rock.

Ford's new 130-h.p. Y-block V-8 is the most modern in the automobile industry... the only V-8 in the low-price field! And Ford's 115-h.p. I-block Six is the industry's newest Six. Both of these engines give you the smoothest, savingest performance you've ever experienced.

You'll see more Fords parked in front of the finest homes and country clubs than any other car in its field. One reason is that many people who have owned the costliest cars realize that Ford offers the same beauty, quality and distinction—and for a far more practical price.

Ford is unsurpassed in riding comfort or ease of handling. A big reason is Ford's new Ball-Joint Front Suspension... which allows more total up and down front wheel travel for a smoother ride... keeps front wheels in line longer... so handling stays easy longer.

Surveys show Ford cars return more of their original cost when they are sold than any competitive make. So a Ford car costs you less to own.

Over the latest seven-month period covered by available figures, Ford has been the nation's best seller. That's because Ford has proved that it offers the most... in engineering advancements—in trend-setting styling—in value! Ford is America's best seller because it's America's best buy!

Worth more when you buy it...
Worth more when you sell it!

People Have Faith In Highway Dept. Says Commissioner

Marshall Formby, newest appointee on the State Highway Commission, said this week that he hoped to take it a little easier in his travelling. Formby has been on the Commission a little more than 14 months and has just completed visiting all of the 25 district highway engineer offices in the state. His travels took him to every area and most of the counties in the state.

Formby, who is a Plainview attorney, is also owner of Radio Station KPAN at Floydada. He is a former judge of Dickens county and former state senator. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Formby of McAdoo, Texas.

"The best part about being on the Highway Commission," the Plainview attorney said, "is the fact that you get to see Texas and to meet the Texas people. Everywhere I have gone I have found that the people have confidence in the Highway Department and I find they are glad to give us more financial support to build more of the needed roads over the entire state. The people are especially interested in Farm-to-Market roads, and the large cities are striving to find ways to build expressways in order to take care of their heavy traffic."

Besides visiting all areas in Texas, Commissioner Formby has traveled in many states in the Union during the past 14 months in inspecting highways and turnpikes. He estimates that he has traveled by land, air, and sea during the past 14 months between 55 and 60 thousand miles. What was supposed to be a part-time job has almost turned into a full-time job for the newest member of the Commission. He said, however, now that he has visited in all areas of the state he hopes to be able to spend more time in the practice of law and looking after his radio interests. He is hopeful that the highway job will require not more than one-half of his time.

Formby said it was impossible to ride over all of the 50,000 miles of Texas' paved roads, but he has made a good start at it during the first 14 months of his six-year term.

Sweet and Pungent Shrimp has an oriental flavor admired by Americans. Make it in your own kitchen—serve it with hot fluffy rice.

SHRIMP RECIPES — GLAMOROUS AND EASY

A recipe with a glamorous name and easy-to-follow directions—that's for us. If the recipe has a foreign or regional flavor, so much the better. It makes an intriguing conversation piece. The Shrimp Association of the Americas has developed two such recipes. This Sweet and Pungent Shrimp is a simplified version of the oriental favorite served in Chinese restaurants. Shrimp on Parsley Rice is an easy-to-make variation of Jambalaya, famous in Creole cookery.

Sweet and Pungent Shrimp

Clean 1 pound of fresh or frozen shrimp and cook it by boiling in salted water 3 to 5 minutes. Mix together in saucepan 1/4 cup brown sugar, 2 tsp. cornstarch, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/4 cup vinegar, 1 tsp. soy sauce, and juice drained from 1 No. 2 can pineapple chunks. Cook until slightly thick, stirring constantly.

Add pineapple chunks, 1 green pepper (cut in rings), 2 small onions (cut in rings) and cook 2 or 3 minutes. Remove from the heat, add cooked shrimp and let stand about 10 minutes. Just before serving, bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Serve with hot rice. Makes 3 or 4 servings.

Shrimp on Parsley Rice

Clean 2 pounds of fresh or frozen shrimp and cook it by boiling in salted water 3 to 5 minutes. Drain the shrimp. In the meantime, saute 1/4 cup minced onion, 1/2 cup chopped celery and 1 crushed bay leaf in 1/4 cup of butter or margarine. Add 1/2 cup minced parsley, 1 tsp. salt and 1/4 tsp. black pepper. Fold the vegetable mixture into 2 or 3 cups of hot cooked rice. Arrange the rice in a circle on a chop plate, or in a low bowl. Fill the center with the cooked shrimp. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

BROTHERHOOD MEETS

The Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church of Flomot met Monday evening with fifteen present. The pastor brought a message on the subject, "Why I am a Baptist", giving special emphasis to the doctrine of the "Security of the Believer". Refreshments of cake and coffee were served to: L. E. Shorter, Rev. B. J. Johns, Louis Purvis, Ben Tanner, J. C. Franks, Harmon Mosley, J. Johnson, Rodney Hammons, C. W. Starkey, Alton Anderson, Tom Speer, Leonard Crowell, Jr., L. B. Turner, O. E. Snow and Rev. A. L. Eubanks. Next Brotherhood meeting will be Monday night, May 17.

RAINS AID AREAS SEEDED IN GRASS

Recent general rains have produced surprisingly beneficial conditions on farms "dry planted" in Blue Panic and Weeping lovegrass, according to James Priddy, Work Unit Conservationist in the Matador office of the Soil Conservation office.

Weeping lovegrass is coming up to a good stand in sandy soil on the John Hunter farm near Roaring Springs. Interest in grass-planting is increasing in the Roaring Springs area, Priddy said.

Blue Panic seedings are coming up on the following farms: Doc Taylor, J. E. Jameson, Earl Thompson, Roscoe Lee, and E. F. Springer. Some of the farms are getting better stands than others Priddy declared.

"It is the exception, rather than the rule, to secure a good stand with the first rains," he said, "and we still have plenty of good seed in the ground that will come through with following rains."

He said some farmers plan to plant the middles with new seed and watch development in the first plantings. He declared "goat-heads" which sometimes trouble young grass, can be controlled by spraying.

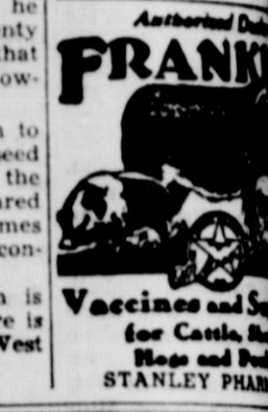

"The grass-planting season is here," Priddy said, "and there is nothing more important to West Texas."
