A Second Glance

By Leon Watson

The difference between the two major candidates in the governor's race this year are so distinct that massive numbers of Texas voters are disregarding party labels because they realize the election is a choice between a conservative and a liberal.

The direction this state takes for the rest of the century largely will be determined by the man in the governor's office for the next four years.

Texas can go the way of the many over-taxed and over-regulated states like New York and California, or it can build upon its own, unique, independent spirit and continue its prosperity.

Many conservative Texans are supporting Bill Clements because they know he will be independent enough to stand up against undue interference and punitive policies from the bureaucrats in Washington.

John Hill's loyalty to the Carter Administration, an administration that has punished Texas and Texans time after time, is proven by one key fact, and that fact is that John Hill publicly has pledged to support Jimmy Carter when he is renominated in 1980.

John Hill will sacrifice the best interest of Texans and will support his liberal cohorts in Washington in order to further his own political career. His lack of political independence is clearly illustrated by his lack of any meaningful opposition to Carter's energy plan during the crucial early stages after it was proposed.

Clements is a non-politician and a businessman who never before has run for public office. He believes he can provide the kind of business-like leadership that Texas needs to meet the genuine necessities of its citizens without creating more government that threatens the healthy business climate which attracts new industry, creates more jobs, and expands the tax base.

I like John Tower. He is a champion of free enterprise, a foe of excessive government spending, a consistent advocate of tax reduction, a believer in keeping America strong militarily. The American Conservative Union gave him one of its highest ratings for his votes on key issues this year.

He votes the Texas way, as we understand the sentiments of our neighbors. He voted against the Panama Canal give-a-way; he fought natural gas legislation which would strip from Texas control of its own resources; he led a successful filibuster against the Labor Reform Act, the main legislative goal of labor bosses this year; he opposed giving Senate representation to the District of Columbia.

Krueger voted for the Labor Reform Act, and he voted for the constitutional amendment to give Senate representation to the District of Columbia.

Ghosts and goblins turned out in force Tuesday night for the first Halloween celebration Motley County has seen in several years. The Motley County PTA sponsored the cake walk and the costume contest for grades one through six. They also sponsored the queens contest. The Eternas Study Club sponsored the costume contest for the two year olds through kindergarten.

Kim Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Phillips, was crowned Elementary Princess for the carnival. Her escort was Cody Christian.

Junior High Princess was Melea Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor. She is a seventh grader. Her escort was Coke Barton.

High School Queen was Sophomore Kelli Taylor, sister of Melea. She was escorted by Ross Odell.

In a General Election, a voter may also use the write-in Column to put the name of any person he wishes to vote for in the race that is not listed in the Candidate Column.

See a Sample Ballot printed on page five of this issue.

COSTUME CONTEST WINNERS--Halloween Carnival costume contest winners were Ron Cox, most original, Shawn Cox, prettiest, Shawna Campbell, scariest--from grades 1-5. For two years old through Kindergarten, Heather Hobbs and Paul Barton, (Raggedy Ann and Andy), most original, Heather Turner, prettiest and Juliana Sianeros, Scariest.

This was accomplished despite the fact that the young Matadors went into the lockerroom at halftime trailing by just 6 points. This was easily the Matadors' best game of the year against such tough competition.

Making the outstanding offensive performance roster this week were Senior quarterback-turned-lineman Robert Parker, Junior split end-turned-quarterback, Julian Zabielski, and Junior guard-turned-center Eddie Roys. Outstanding defensively were Parker at his new noseguard position, Lester Campbell, Charles Davis, and Glen Calvert who played defensive tackle.

Coaches Bradshaw, James, Dearen, and Neighbors feel this game was well played and showed the Matadors potential.

Everyone will be healthy this week for the first time this season as Willy Palmer and David Walker return to hopefully boost up the line as the Matadors take on the Nazareth Swifts in a matched district encounter. Kickoff time is 7:30 Friday night on Burleson Field.

K. House Reports Schlesinger Trip

U.S. Energy Secretary James Schlesinger's current trip to China is being reported in the Wall Street Journal by the publication's Washington staff reporter Karen Elliott House.

In her first report, filed Oct. 26, Mrs. House stated, "The Schlesinger visit offers the Carter administration an opportunity to reassure the Chinese at a time when they are deeply concerned about an impending U.S. - Soviet Strategic Arms Limitation Agreement. The Chinese see a SALT pact as a symbol of U.S. retreat from global affairs, clearing the way for Soviet domination. Because Mr. Schlesinger, a former Defense Secretary, shares Peking's concern about Soviet intentions, he is perhaps the administration emissary best able to reassure Chinese leaders."

"At a banquet in his honor a few hours after he arrived Tuesday night, Mr. Schlesinger said, 'Our prospective collaboration in energy matters isn't for short-term tactical ends but will reflect our mutual long-term interests.'"

"The interest in U.S. technology is part of China's new version of a Great Leap Forward, an effort by the leaders to transform China into a modern society by the year 2000. According to the Chinese plan, oil is a key link in their modernization scheme because selling oil will be the major way of financing Chinese development."

Mr. Schlesinger Friday visited Taching, China's major oil field, and the core of the Chinese oil industry. He was scheduled to tour a new oil field outside Peking, today.

As Mr. Schlesinger departs China Nov. 5, Agriculture Secretary Bob Bergland will arrive to discuss grain sales.

Mrs. House is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Elliott of Matador.

JACK HIGHTOWER

An independent Congressman in the tradition of Texas leadership

Jack Hightower promised the voters of the 13th District when they sent him to Congress four years ago that he would represent all of them fairly and honestly. He promised to provide an independent voice in Washington. He promised to work full-time at the job. HE HAS KEPT THOSE PROMISES.

Here is what those who know Jack Hightower's record say about his effectiveness:

"... In two terms Hightower has established himself as a member of the Agriculture Committee and the Government Operations Committee whose voice must be reckoned with in arriving at solutions to two of the nation's most pressing domestic issues - problems confronting today's farmer, and inflation..." Amarillo Daily News, May 1, 1978

"... Jack Hightower from Texas is one of the newer class and, in fact, Bob Poague and I like to think he's the kind of refreshing leader of the newer members coming to Washington in a recent session or so, and Jack is a former state senator and has been a tremendously effective lawmaker..." Congressman Charles Thone of Nebraska

"... Hightower is serious about his business in Washington. He is just as serious about trying to maintain a normal lifestyle in a city where normal is often viewed as abnormal..." Jim Craig, Houston Post, October 8, 1978

"... I want you to know that we as farmers are truly grateful to have a representative in Washington who does such a fine job of telling our story... thank you for all that you have done for America's farmers..." Mrs. Georgia Holt, Spearman, Texas

"... I want to express our thanks for your hard work to benefit Texas wheat farmers in the House Committee on agriculture... I know that some of your votes and stands on the issues took real courage for a Democrat, and I want you to know how much I personally appreciate them..." Winston Wilson, Farmer, Quanah, Texas

"... Hightower has shown a willingness to listen to the needs of his constituents and the ability to legislate on their behalf..." Amarillo Daily News, May 1, 1978

"... Almost everyone on the Hill knows about Jack Hightower... the Congressman who votes his conscience, represents his district by organic instinct, but is capable of rising above parochial considerations when national interests are at stake. The same qualities that made him an influential state senator for 10 years - scrupulous honesty and an appetite for hard work - have served him well in Washington, but these alone do not explain the high regard in which he is held. In a town overpopulated by small people with large egos, it is a relief to find one for whom the reverse is true..." Texas Monthly, May, 1976

That's the kind of Congressman Jack Hightower has been since he took his oath in January, 1975. It's why he has earned the respect of his colleagues and the confidence of people throughout this district... from both political parties. Jack Hightower, Democrat, has earned another term. Vote November 7.

Paid Pol. Adv. by Hightower for Congress Committee, Wilson Frberg, Treasurer, Box 1973, Vernon, Texas 75894.

There is no way I could have effectively campaigned for State Representative without the valuable and indispensable help of my wife, who has been with me all the way--doing the typing, driving, door to door campaigning and the hundreds of chores connected with a "shoe leather" campaign. She will also be with me in Austin helping me serve the 66th Legislative District. Lois and I have turned down and returned hundreds of dollars of unsolicited campaign funds from the Austin and down state special interest groups. We are proud of our children, and want to set a proper example for them. We want no shadows cast on a reputation it takes a lifetime to build. We've tried hard to meet every citizen possible in this big 10-county district during this campaign. We are sorry if we missed you but hope to meet you in the near future.

Mrs. Pat Sheridan spent the week end in Lubbock with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sheridan Jr. She was accompanied by Mrs. Eddie Russell, who visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. W. Drace.

Week end guests of Mrs. Alvin Stearns were Mr. and Mrs. Claud Stearns of Temple, and their niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Shaw of Albuquerque, N.M. Mrs. Shaw will be remembered as the former Frances Stearns. Also a quail hunting guest of Mr. Claud Stearns was Lamar Guthrie from Hollis, Okla.

El Progreso Club, meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. John Hamilton, heard David J. Murrah, Archivist of Southwest Collection at Texas Tech University, as guest speaker for a program on "Our Legacy."

Special guests at the meeting were members of the Sunshine Club.

read the yearbook quotation by Frederick Henry Hedge: "Every man is his own ancestor and every man his own heir. He devises his own future, and he inherits his own past." She also read excerpts from an inscription at the Spur Museum, as an appropriate extension to the program theme.

The Southwest Collection, Mr. Murrah explained, had its beginning in 1930, with the acquisition of records of the Matador Cattle Company, when Dr. W. C. Holden, was professor of history and curator of Tech's museum. The records were gathered from various headquarters of the Scottish Syndicate, owners of the Matador Ranch. About the same time, papers from the Spur Ranch were also acquired.

From this beginning, Mr. Murrah showed in a slide presentation, how the Collection had grown to over 12 million loose pages of material, 17,000 volumes, 80,000 photographs, 400,000 feet of microfilm, 2,500 tapes and 1,200 maps.

"Tech students are employed to sort, index and file the material, which is donated by families and individuals, to preserve the history of the Southwest," Mr. Murrah said. "The Southwest Collection has become one of the nation's leading repositories which serves researchers at a volume above the state archives. . . ten per cent of those using the files are researchers from outside the campus."

The other 90 per cent of those using the files are Tech students, according to an article by Gerry Burton of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal Staff. They are students of architecture, park administration, elementary and secondary education, agriculture, mass communications, museum science and other subjects.

"Not only is the Southwest Collection a record of the past, its scope is to tell the complete story of the land and its people," Mr. Murrah stressed.

Mrs. Harold Campbell concluded the program with the Inspirational Thought for the day.

Following the program, Mrs. Hamilton served hot spiced tea and cookies.

In addition to those mentioned, other members present were Miss Mary Keith and Mesdames Joe Campbell, C. D. Garrison, D. E. Pitts, Bill McCaghen, E. A. Day, J. L.

Woodruff, and Una Simpson. Guests included Mrs. Minnie Dye, President of the Roaring Springs Senior Citizens, and members of the Sunshine Club, Mesdames Iris Blevins, Artie Wason, Ivy Coogler, Agnes Aaron, Stella Tison, Ocie Smallwood, Beulah Jones, Grace Zabielski and Eugenia Bethard. Also a guest was Mrs. Mary Ann Johns of Abilene.

After the next meeting, November 9 at the home of Mrs. Price, the club will be adjourned for a Thanksgiving recess. The club will also have only one meeting in December.

F.H.A. Has Meeting In Matador Recently

(Patton Springs Roundup)

The Patton Springs Future Homemakers of America officers attended a meeting at Motley County, Tuesday, October 17.

Mrs. Spain, homemaking teacher, Linda Ramirez, acting as President, Patti Vickrey, Vicki Paty, Kathy Baxter, LaKenna Park, DeAnne Parker, and Aaronda Mayo attended the meeting along with FHA members from Spur, Motley County, Happy, and Shamrock.

After refreshments were served the FHA members divided into groups and separated. One group went into the library and talked about learning to like yourself. Misty Clemmer, from Shamrock, the Area Officer from Encounter -- an FHA project, conducted the session.

Debbie Parker, State Officer from Happy, conducted the session about child care in the cafeteria. The FHA state project for this year is The Year of the Child.

After these sessions, the two groups met back in the cafeteria and talked about recognition to others. They discussed ways to get acquainted or be friendly to others verbally, non-verbally, and through activities.

The motto of the session was "If you can't say something nice to someone, then don't say anything at all."

Coaches Meet Here To Revise Districts

(Patton Springs Roundup)

Wednesday night, October 25, administration and coaches from Patton Springs, McAdoo, Guthrie, Jayton, Motley County, Harrold, Northside, Chilicothe, and Estelline met at Motley County High School and revised their districts. Patton Springs is now in District 8-B along with all of these schools.

University Interscholastic

League Literary Events will be at Vernon Regional Junior College. Tennis is divided into two zones. One meet will be at Motley County, the other at Vernon. The 8-B District Track Meet will be at Jayton.

The new district is only for spring events which include track, tennis, and literary events.

PCG Members Encouraged To Vote

Officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, are encouraging every PCG member to go to the polls and vote his convictions on November 7.

Prohibited by law from endorsing political candidates, PCG is stressing the need for individual members to become involved in the political process, plus the added importance this year of a heavy farm vote influence on the fate of the "Tax relief amendment."

The tax relief proposal will appear on the November 7 ballot as one of nine proposed constitutional amendments. Designated as House Joint Resolution No. 1, it reads "... a constitutional amendment relating to ad valorem taxation of agricultural property, exemptions of certain property from taxation, and conditions for increases in total property tax revenues."

In addition to farmers and ranchers the amendment offers hope for property tax relief for homeowners, the elderly and disabled.

"There is definitely a need to relieve the heavy and unfair tax burden borne by Texas farmers and ranchers," stated PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson in a recent interview.

"As pointed out in an analysis of the problem by the Texas Farm Bureau," he continues, "the property tax in Texas was intended as a general tax on all property and all wealth but has become primarily a tax on real estate. And since farmers and ranchers own and use more real estate than most others they have been paying an unfair share of the State's property taxes."

Passage of the amendment November 7, Johnson says, will not necessarily mean an elimination of the inequities of property taxation. "What it will do," he adds, "is give the State legislature a mandate to provide for taxation of land used for the production of crops, livestock and timber on its valuation for development speculation or other purposes."

The exact method of figuring land value for tax purposes on its productive capacity will be determined by the legislature, and Johnson makes the point that the fairness of that method will depend to some extent on who is sent to the legislature in the November 7 elections.

"Which simply means that people in agriculture should cast every eligible vote on election day to assure the success of those candidates best able and qualified to represent their interests."

Most newspapers pick Hill over Clements

"John Hill may be the best candidate for governor in decades. Judging from his record, he should win easily over his Republican opponent, whose chief qualification is money. Unlike his opponent, Hill is not given to outrageous promises, intemperate personal attack or underhanded tactics. He will work hard for the best interests of the state and its people."
-- Austin American Statesman

"The more Mr. Clements has explained his blunt viewpoints -- even those views we could agree with -- the more he has raised doubt as to how effective a bulldozer could be in Texas government. Conversely, John Hill has grown in our evaluation as a man who not only is the best state attorney general in recent history, but also is a man with the intelligence, savvy and ability to serve Texas well as governor."
-- Abilene Reporter-News

"We believe Hill will bring vitality and leadership to state government. Hill is not an advocate of big government. Nor is he a free spender. He has pledged that no new taxes will be levied if he is elected. His anti-inflation program is the kind of fiscal conservatism Texans can accept gleefully."
-- Corpus Christi Caller
