Radio Comics Make Bid For Screen Fame

Lulubelle and Scotty, that engagingly rural pair hailing from radio, make another bid of cinematic fame in "Hi Neighbor," Republic comedy with music, which bows into the Queen theatre for showings today and Monday.

"Hi Neighbor" is replete with songs, laughter, gaiety, plus good, sound human interest. The plot revolves around the efforts of Professor Hogg—played by Fappy Chesbire, also of radio fame—to preserve the tiny mountain college over which he presides, intact. The institution is threatened because its donor, one Hattie Greenfield (Janet Beecher) withdraws her patronage when she feels she has been insulted by the thoughtless and high spirited student body.

When tact and diplomacy fail in restoring the college and its students back into Miss Greenfield's good graces, the young people fake a measles epidemic so as to preserve the status quo at least for a while, and avoid being evicted on the spot.

Lulubelle and Scotty, of course, head the collegians, with Jean Parker, John Archer, Marilyn Hare and Bill Shirley figuring prominently in the affairs of the plot.

Vera Vague, foremost among the screen's sassy comedienne, contributes many a laugh-packed sequence which adds to the general merriment and entertainment value of the film.

THE WEEK'S PLAYBILL

SUNDAY-MONDAY
RITZ—"Wings For The Eagle," with Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan.
LYRIC—"King Kong," with Fay Wray, Bruce Cabot and Robert Armstrong.
QUEEN—"Hi Neighbor," with Jean Parker and Lulubelle and Scotty.

TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY
RITZ—"Twin Beds," with George Brent and Joan Bennett.
LYRIC—"The Fleet's In," with Dorothy Lamour and William Holden.
QUEEN—"Song Of The Islands," with Betty Grable and Victor Mature.

THURSDAY
RITZ—"The Postman Didn't Ring," with Richard Travis and Brenda Joyce; also, "Escape From Crime," with Julie Bishop and Richard Travers.
LYRIC—"The Ghost Of Frankenstein," with Lon Chaney and Evelyn Ankers.
QUEEN—"What's Cookin'" with the Andrews Sisters and Gloria Jean.

FRIDAY-SATURDAY
RITZ—"Jackass Mail," with Wallace Beery and Marjorie Main.
LYRIC—"Call Of The Canyon," with Gene Autry.
QUEEN—"Secrets Of The Wasteland," with Bill Boyd.

No Love Feast—There are differences to be settled, even between young Americans who are helping Uncle Sam by building planes. Witness Jack Carson and Dennis Morgan, who ignore Ann Sheridan in this scene from "Wings For The Eagle," which is at the Ritz today and Monday. It's a stirring drama of what goes on in the giant plane factories.

Neighbors?—Don Wilson is trying hard to be master of ceremonies with Jean Parker, in "Hi Neighbor," as John Archer protests from the floor. The fun-and-romance film is at the Queen today and Monday, and introduces, besides these featured players, a popular radio comedy team, Lulubelle and Scotty.

Men [And Women] Who Make Planes Dramatized In Aviation Film At Ritz

Ann Sheridan, Dennis Morgan Are Featured

It has often been said, the story behind the men who make our planes is one packed with as much drama as the story of the men who fly them. With this in mind Warner Bros. have put two of its top notch performers, Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan in its latest thrilling production, "Wings For The Eagle," which is featured at the Ritz today and Monday.

The film is set in the vast Lockheed aviation plant during the period shortly before Pearl Harbor and the hectic days that followed the infamous attack. Corky Jones, played by Dennis Morgan, a cocky young fellow, gets a job at Lockheed, primarily to be in "essential defense work" and to escape the draft. His friend, Brad Maple, played by the inimitable Jack Carson, is studying to get an engineering job at the plant. He is married to Roma (Ann Sheridan's part), an extremely good-looking girl, whose beauty is only too well appreciated by Corky.

Brad learns that the engineering college where he's studying is a racket outfit and that the much needed money he's spent for his course has been wasted. He starts brooding over this, becomes irritable, forces a break with Corky, and is finally left by Roma, who gets a job at Lockheed herself.

At the factory is a fine old fellow, Jake Hanzo, played by George Tobias, whose whole life is wrapped up in his work. As a foreman, he is extremely valuable for the inspiration he imparts to the workers. It is his son, Pete, portrayed by Russell Arma, with whom Corky takes advantage of Roma's quarrel with Brad, and he tries to rush her off her feet. But it is clear that Brad still scores high with Roma. Brad forgets his engineering aspirations and takes a plain job at Lockheed. Here he meets Corky and they engage in continual minor spats that finally culminate into a fist fight and an open break.

Corky's attitude toward the army, Roma and everything else changes when Pearl Harbor is bombed and the United States enters the war. Pete Hanzo has already joined the Air Force and is on his way overseas while his father is busily speeding up production at the factory.

One day Jake receives a message telling that his son has been killed in action. He thinks, Corky a quitter, because he hasn't shown up for the past few days, but quickly changes his mind when Corky appears in the uniform of a Flying Cadet.

Corky patches things up between Brad and Roma before leaving and promises Jake to even things up for Pete.

Detroit Chorus On Today's Broadcasts

The Federal Security administration is continuing to give the public the best possible programs in the new fall series of "I Hear America Singing," heard over KBST each Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. In choosing choruses and planning each show, FSA is working closely with the Associated Glee Clubs of America and with the Music Educational National conference.

Today's program will be presented by the Orpheus club of Detroit, one of the nation's leading male choruses.

Directed by Charles Frederic Morse, the chorus will demonstrate its versatility in the songs chosen for the program. The show itself will be in narrative and dramatic form, built around the history of Detroit. The selections for the program are: Brahms Lullaby, John Peel, The Old Woman, Northern Lights, Little Jack Horner, To My Mother, Boots, The Sword of Ferrara.

Eighteen hundred colleges in all parts of the United States are being eyed by the War Manpower Commission as a possible reservoir of needed workers—skilled and unskilled—for war industries.

Like The Marines—No Stopping 'Em Hurricanes Now In Season; Coastal Residents Wary

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff

This is the season for hurricanes and following the big storm which hit South Texas last weekend the people of the coastal country are keeping their usual close watch on barometers and weather reports.

A tornado is like a lone commando who hits and gets away. A hurricane is like the marines attacking the Solomon Islands. Nothing can stop them.

Born in the warm air of the far doldrums, these tropical cyclones sweep into the gulf or along the Atlantic seaboard.

A hurricane is a vast revolving vortex of whirling fury 300 to 500 miles wide with winds from 75 to 100 miles an hour, and even much higher near the storm center. But the central core is dead calm.

When you live on the coast you keep a map handy and when you read of a disturbance in the Gulf or Caribbean you get the map and draw a tiny circle at the point of origin. During the next day or so you follow its path with a wavy ring line. Most hurricanes stray in all directions like a drunken man.

One out of a dozen will hit the coast.

Hours before it strikes you "feel" it coming. The barometer drops stubbornly, the gulf water is choppy impatient, the skies become leaden. There is an absolute stillness like the dawn of judgment day.

And then the rain, with the wind blowing fitful gusts. Like a boxer feeling out his opponent, the hurricane loses all its preliminary gentleness after the first round. After that it begins to fall in earnest.

The rain is an ocean of wetness gone mad. . . . Every drop a stinging, driving, blinding lash. If you haven't seen hurricane-rain, you haven't seen rain.

It gets through locked windows, flows under doors, prys away shingles and soaks through the walls and soaks the paper.

Suddenly a window pane blasts out and you nail up a rug as a poor substitute. The rain really streams in now, but your real worry is whether or not the roof will hold. If the house happens to be two-storied it rocks.

Should the hurricane be central in your vicinity, the wind will crash with even more furious intensity. The 1919 storm which struck Corpus Christi was supposed to have hit at top speed of 125 miles per hour. That's just a guess, since the velocity recorder finally came loose from its moorings. At any rate, the wind brought a wall of water into the city, trapping and drowning hundreds of victims.

Water constitutes the chief danger, peaceful bays become snarling cauldrons of witches' brew and the giant gulf breaks his chains and sweeps for the shoreline.

In such exposed places as Port O'Connor and Port Aransas, even hardy fishermen respect the gulf in a hurricane mood. Both towns have been engulfed with water in the past. There are always straggling dikehards, however, who remain contemptuous of danger and then run for a sand dune at the last minute. Last year high-wheeled highway department trucks made it to Port O'Connor in the face of dangerous winds and tides to carry 50 persons to safety. One of the refugees, a woman of 78, smoked her pipe during the rough trip and complained about "the state wasting gasoline."

During the same hurricane an 80-year-old man rode out the storm on his boat in Matagorda Bay and a cafe owner in the town of Matagorda watched the water invade his establishment with the remark that "I'm not going to let a little wind and water break my record of staying open for business." Dwellings and business houses collapsed about him, but he stayed put!

Most coastal folk are similarly unafraid of hurricanes but are more judicious. They retreat inland to the safety of brick churches, schoolhouses and public buildings, taking with them tinners foods, blankets and mattresses. The children always have a good time and the atmosphere is generally friendly and pleasant.

Father Flanagan—Top Star Spencer Tracy is at the State theatre today and Monday in one of the most popular roles he ever essayed—that of Father Flanagan. "Men Of Boys Town" is the attraction, and with Tracy appears Mickey Rooney in a co-starring role. The picture is the popular sequel to famed "Boys Town" which deals in dramatic, yet truthful, fashion, of the operations of the famous school which makes men of underprivileged boys.

Ace Thriller, 'King Kong,' Back Again

Rated the most novel and thrilling of spectacles, when it first appeared some years ago, to delight, terrify and enthrall motion picture audiences, the celebrated "King Kong" is back again.

This is the screen adventure phantasy of the prehistoric monster, millions of years old, who was found in hitherto undiscovered tropical jungles, finally captured and brought to America for exhibition, escaped to terrify New York—and incidentally to remain near the lovely girl (Fay Wray) whose blonde beauty has stirred the tenderest response in the breast of the savage anthropoid.

"King Kong" is fifty feet high, weighs more than fifteen tons, has arms and paws of the proportions of steam shovels and charges about with almost incredible speed and strength.

"King Kong" presents the spectacle of a mammoth ape escaping on Broadway, New York, and hurling street cars, automobiles and human beings in the air as if they were so much chaff.

Fay Wray, Robert Armstrong and Bruce Cabot are featured in this RKO Radio picture which is the Sunday-Monday attraction at the Lyric theatre. A Marian C. Cooper and Ernest B. Schoedsack production, it is from an idea conceived by Edgar Wallace and Cooper. Willis J. O'Brien was Chief Technician for the making of this unique film.

They Don't Like To Walk, So— Texas Cowpunchers Choose Navy

AMARILLO, Sept. 5 (AP)—Texas cowboys are going to war but they won't walk if they can help it. They try to head for the navy, the coast guards or the marines.

A puncher from one of the big spreads in the navy recruiting office. Some little thing was wrong, and the navy recruiter told the puncher he might try the army.

"Hell no! Not me!" exclaimed the puncher. "I ain't going to walk."

A cowboy has always dreaded any chore that involves walking. A cowboy won't get off his horse to open a gate if he can open it from the saddle. He doesn't want to be on his feet. The puncher gets that way from his high-heeled work boots; they don't walk good.

C. E. Weymouth of Amarillo, one of the major ranchers of Texas and a vice-president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' Association, Inc., says he's datched the cowboy recruiting. "They like the navy, the coast guard and the marines," he said. "If they get the best fighting out of those boys, they'll have to give them something to ride. I've never seen a real cowpuncher who didn't complain if he had to walk many steps."

C. M. Norman, the navy recruiter in Amarillo, said he hadn't expected to do too much recruiting in the cow country, which is about as far from salt water as you can get in the United States. But Norman has consistently led Texas and the nation in recruiting. He has recruited dozens of cowpunchers, all of whom explained that there couldn't be much walking on a boat.

Norman got a particular thrill from one puncher. After walking up a flight of stairs, the puncher puffed into the office and dropped into the nearest chair. He joined. Just before he started to leave, the puncher took a couple of A's from holsters under his arms, and he said, "will I need these, boss?"

"We'll give you some better guns than those," said Norman. "Well, they'll shore have to be good," replied the puncher.

The biggest part of the plains cowboys have joined the navy. But the marine corps has had its share, and the marines like Texas cowboys. One booted fellow stopped by the marine recruiting office to ask information. While talking, he emptied the cuff of his tan trousers. The man walked out. Sgt. F. M. Bell, the recruiter, picked up the ruse from the trouser cuff. "Keep your eye on that man," he ordered his assistant. "He'll make a hell of a good marine. This is cow chips he took out of the cuff."

Veteran Of Java Killed

CORPUS CHRISTI, Sept. 5 (AP)—Lt. Douglas W. Norris, 28, of Orinda, Calif., bombed in Java and machines gunned by a Japanese Zero fighter, was killed when a patrol bomber training plane crashed into Corpus Christi bay, the navy announced today.

Norris' radiofian, A. R. Sanchez of El Paso, was killed in the crash, which occurred Thursday.

Ensign G. A. Allred of Delta, Utah, and H. J. Walker, aviation machinist's mate from Hutchinson, Kas., were rescued.

Walker swam almost to shore suffering deep gashes in his back, while Allred clung to a half-submerged wing.

Norris was in the Philippines on Dec. 7 and saw action in Borneo and the Netherlands East Indies.

Icelandic Children Wounded By Bomb

REYKJAVIK, Iceland, Sept. 5 (AP)—Four Icelandic children were wounded, one critically, by a bomb dropped this morning by a lone Focke-Wulf bomber in the "Seydijordur" area, the United States army command announced today.

Seydijordur is a village of 900 population on the northeast coast. The announcement said the bomb fell near where the children were playing. A small boy's leg probably will have to be amputated, it added.

The army said no damage was done to military installations.

Girl An Expert Machine Gunner

DENVER, Sept. 5 (AP)—Miss Fran McVey of Dallas, who studied journalism and law and was an educational consultant for the Office of Price Administration's consumer division, is becoming a machine gun expert at Lowry Field.

She is the first woman selected to teach in Lowry Field's highly technical armament school under a war department policy of replacing enlisted men instructors with civilians, both men and women.

INTO AIR CORPS

COLORADO CITY, Sept. 5 — Earnest Porter, 19-year-old grandson of the late Judge C. H. Earnest and Mrs. Earnest, was this week accepted as an aviation cadet at Lubbock after making one of the highest grades of the month in the mental examination. He is a graduate of Colorado City high school and was last year a freshman in electrical engineering at Texas university.

Many Groups Giving Wage To Uncle Sam

By NELSON FULLER
Associated Press Staff

Work as usual, with few exceptions, will be Texas' Labor Day challenge to the axis.

War work plants will hum with industry, hundreds of employees will contribute their day's pay to the government's war effort, and usual holiday observances will be held to a minimum.

One of the groups contributing to the victory program will be all workers—laborers and salaried employes alike—at the Big Spring air base projects. These are contributing their day's pay to the government, with the money to be applied toward purchase of a bomber.

Harry W. Acreman, Austin, executive secretary of the Texas Federation of Labor, said many member groups will replace normal Labor Day parades and all-day outings with a full work day with workers employed on federal projects donating the day's wages to the government.

Others will buy bonds with Labor Day pay. A few night celebrations are planned where day ceremonies would interfere with essential work.

The public was asked to show its patriotism by not traveling over the Labor Day weekend.

Pointing to vastly increased uses of trains and buses, W. T. Long, Jr., chief of the Dallas branch of the office of defense transportation, said those contemplating necessary travel should learn in advance what conditions are likely to be.

"The better thing to do is to resolve all doubts by not traveling at all," Long said.

Fort Worth's war industries plants will operate the clock around as usual. There will be no parade.

Denison, home of the state's oldest labor union of Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, will pause briefly for the holiday.

Considered one of the state's most highly-organized labor cities, Denison's labor groups have canceled their annual Labor Day celebration for the duration. Located here is the home of the heavy construction machinists labor union, only one of its kind in the world. It was especially organized for operators of heavy equipment on the Denison dam and is affiliated with the International Association of Machinists. Work at the dam is expected to halt for the day.

Only observance at the Longhorn ordnance work, at Karnack, 16 miles northwest of Marshall, will be the "work as usual" order.

All of Sherman's factories will be in production as usual. Several of them hold war contracts.

Sherman carpenters and other building unions have pledged to invest Monday's earnings in war bonds.

Labor Day wages of El Paso electricians—expected to amount to $1,000—will be contributed to the war effort.

V. H. Frank, financial secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 533, said the membership will donate its earnings to the secretary of the treasury.

Members of Lubbock's Central Labor Union also will contribute their wages for the day to the war effort.

At Paris, Camp Maxey construction workers will receive a holiday, according to Maj. E. D. Yarcho, area engineer in charge.

Events at El Paso and Brownsville will highlight what few celebrations are planned for the day.

Designed to demonstrate the solidarity of the United States and Mexican workers for prosecution of the war, a parade of United States and Mexican military units and workers will be staged in the twin border cities—El Paso, Tex., and Juarez, Mexico.

Texas' sole participation in the nation's Labor Day launching program will be the sending of five aircraft rescue boats down the ways at Brownsville's shipbuilding yards.

The state's capital will witness a parade more than six miles long, largest procession of its kind in Austin since World War I.

Win Their Wings— Among 483 young Texans who this weekend are stepping up to have the silver wings of the army air forces pinned on their chests are these three from this immediate area. Left to right: Staff Sgt. Ollie Deel of Big Spring, Lieut. Caylos W. Chapman, Lamesa; and Lieut. Arthur C. Eldson, Stanton. Eldson and Deel are completing training in the bomber school at Lubbock and Chapman is a graduate of the single engine fighter plane school at Moore Field. Each has had three weeks of pre-flight instruction and nine weeks each of primary, basic and advanced training. Soon they are slated for combat duty.

Few Stocks Show Slight Increase

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP)—The stock market today finished a narrowly irregular week with scattered rallies and specialties registering moderate progress while many leaders continued at a standstill.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up .1 of a point at 36.9 and on the week showed a net gain of as much. Transfers totalled 145,270 shares compared with 137,940 a week ago. Low-priced stocks accounted for most of the activity.

Profit taking in Western Union and Postal Telegraph preferred, which made new highs yesterday on further talk of merger legislation, stalled their advance but both closed unchanged.

Approximately 1,000,000,000 pounds of soybean oil will be produced this year, an increase of 50 per cent over last year's production.

Men 17 to 50 not yet in uniform How will YOU answer these 10 Navy questions?

1. What are you doing to protect your home, your family, your freedom?
It's your country. It has been pretty good to you. It has given you the right to do what you want to do, go where you want to go, live the kind of life you like. Now your country is at war. It's fighting for your freedom. What are you willing to do to help win this fight? Is there any job that you can do which is more important than the job waiting for you right now in the United States Navy?
2. Are you fed up with taking it—ready to dish it out?
Are you sick and tired of reading about "another U. S. ship torpedoed without warning"? About women and children being cast adrift in lifeboats? Are you through with just talking about what should be done? Okay. Here's your chance to do something—to blast the Nazi subs out of the seas—to kick the Japs off our islands. The Navy is ready to dish it out, and it needs your help to do it.
3. Do you want expert training in a skilled trade?
It's a big job, and to do it right you've got to have the training. The Navy will give you that training—makes you an expert electrician, metalsmith, photographer, torpedoman, gunner—any of nearly 50 skilled trades. More than 80% of Navy men hold Petty Officer ratings. You can be one of them!
4. Do you want good pay, quick promotion, responsibility?
You draw pay while you learn in the Navy. You get your first pay increase in approximately two months, upon completion of recruit training. And by the end of your first enlistment, you can earn up to $188 a month, plus liberal allowances for dependents and for special duties. Promotions come rapidly. And each one means more responsibility. In the Navy you play an important part on a team where every man is important.
5. Would you like $133 worth of uniforms and clothing free?
That's what you'll get in the Navy—complete outfits for both winter and summer. Everything you need, everything from cap to shoes, from whites to blues. They're the kind of uniforms you'll be proud to wear. They mark you as a man who is doing a big job for his country.
6. Would you like to build yourself up physically?
You must be in normal good health, but you don't have to be a perfect physical specimen to get in the Navy. After only a few weeks of Navy life you will be in top-notch trim. Figures show that many men become 93% stronger during their preliminary training. That's what Navy physical conditioning does. It makes men rugged, husky, fighting men who can take it—and dish it out!
7. Would you like good food—and plenty of it?
You'll get real man-size meals in the Navy. The finest food a fellow could ask for. Three square meals a day, prepared by expert cooks trained in the country's best restaurants and hotels. Wholesome, hearty meals that stick to a fellow's ribs—the kind of meals you need to do a man's job. And all the "seconds" you want!
8. Would you like travel, adventure, action?
In the Navy you go places on the finest ships afloat. You meet people, visit exciting ports most men only read about. And you get action! The kind of action that helped smash the Japs at Midway Island, that knocked them for a loop in the Coral Sea. The kind of action that thrills a he-man right down to his toes!
9. Do you want to step into a well-paid job after the war?
Men make the Navy—and the Navy makes men! Trained men who are doing great things now, who will be ready to step into important positions in civil life when the war is won. You can have no better recommendation than to be able to say, "I have had Navy training."
10. Do you want to choose your service while you can?
Before this war is over, you know you're going to be in it some way. Be fair to yourself and choose your service now before it is too late. If you're 17 to 50 and in normal health, get all the facts you need to help you decide. Ask your nearest Recruiting Officer for "Men Make the Navy"—free, 48-page, illustrated book. # Local Schools Go Into 12-Grade Program As Term Opens

Information Requested For Enrollment

For convenience and time saving, high school authorities are asking that all students report to their respective schools Tuesday morning with full information required on the enrollment cards. Here, in brief, is the information that will be wanted from each child:

Name (last, first, middle); boy or girl; address; phone number; date of birth (month, day, year); place of birth (city, state); school last attended (school, grade, city, date); attended Big Spring schools before? If so, date.

With whom child resides (father, mother, guardian) address of this parent or guardian; business address; occupation; family physician; church membership or preference; had mumps or vaccinated? If so, date, certificate on file with school?

Navy Hits A High Mark In Recruiting

U. S. navy recruiters unlimbered their biggest guns Friday and Saturday to blast away for an excellent start in the record September drive for men.

No less than 24 men were accepted and shipped to Dallas for enlistment or for interviews for ratings in the construction regiment, reported Chief S. L. Cooke, recruiter in charge.

There was a remarkable increase in the number of younger men signing for the navy, said Cooke. Of 12 going into the naval reserve or into the regular navy, every one was in minority and had to have parents consent. Previously, Cooke had referred to the "biggest backlog of these lads on record here" in predicting a sharp gain in this highly desired age group.

Among those accepted were: James Paul Cooper, V-6 (hospital apprentice 2C); Barry Otis Joyce, V-6 (apprentice seaman); Eldon Henry Hunt, V-6 (AS); Emmett Jerome Tilley, Jr., V-6, John Morgan, Jr., V-2 (aviation groundwork), all of Colorado City; Cecil Arvon Horton, V-6 (fireman), Big Spring; Billie Dean Malone, V-6, Gayle Scott Clayton, V-6, Thomas Troy Blacett, V-6, and Gerald Lacy Livingston, V-6, all of Midland; Elois Henry Badgett, Stanton, V-6; and Robert Allen Williams, V-6, Lamesa.

Construction applicants included J. B. Athey, Crane; Crutcher Lee Houston, Lamesa; Alvin Josiah Sandell, Jr., Hugh McMillan, and Albie James Oyger, and Connie Lee Warner, all of Odessa; Ford Kenner, Pecos; George Clifton Greenlee and Loyd Earl Tipton, both of Monahans; David McKinley Robinson, and Ned Noel Smallwood, both of Big Spring, and Earl Vaughn Jordan, Colorado City.

For Hitler, Et Al— Want to get your name on one of those B-25 bombers? The same type of American plane that Jimmy Doolittle's boys piloted to plaster Tokyo? One of the North American Aviation Corp's future units will bear your name—if you submit it as you purchase a War Bond. Through arrangements with theatres, which are promoting the bond campaign for September, purchasers of bonds may send their signature for a plaque (such as is pictured above) to go into the planes. Sign your name, with the serial number of your bond, on a penny postcard and mail it to the Ritz theatre; or, if you buy a bond at the Ritz, leave your name and the bond serial number on cards available. The theatre will do the rest.

Forsan Schools Open Monday; McRae Is New Superintendent

FORSAN, Sept. 5—The Forsan public schools swing into a new term Monday morning, with a schedule of work to be started at 9 a. m. Buses will operate on schedule the first day.

Heading up the administrative-teacher personnel this year is Dan McRae, new superintendent. There are two vacancies on the teaching staff and McRae expected to have these filled by Monday.

The new superintendent, who holds B.A. and M.A. degrees from Austin college, will have as his high school principal James R. Hale of Bonham. Hale holds a B.S. degree from Southwest Texas State Teachers college and will teach industrial arts. E. B. Blackburn, graduate of North Texas State Teachers college, comes from Hillsboro to serve as elementary principal. Bookkeeping and shorthand are subjects added this year, and Effie Mae Hammonds of NTSC will be the instructor. Miss Hammonds taught in the Garden City schools last year.

Mary Green, who taught at Southland last year, will teach homemaking. She is a graduate of Texas Tech with a B.S. degree and a Smith-Hughes certificate.

Mrs. E. H. Blackburn, Jr., is to be band instructor, replacing Eleanor Martin who resigned to go into war work. Mrs. Blackburn is a Hardin-Simmons graduate.

Walker G. Bailey, formerly principal at Center Point, will serve as athletic coach and instructor in mathematics. He has a B.S. degree from West Texas State.

Mrs. P. D. Lewis heads the English department and also will teach Spanish. Mrs. Lewis is a Baylor graduate, will be assisted in English by Margaret Jackson. The latter, who has a degree from McMurry, will also teach typing.

Z. H. Doan, holding a B.A. degree from Austin college, will serve as social science instructor and Mrs. Doan, graduate of the same school, will teach in the grades.

Mrs. W. E. Dunn, local resident and holder of a B.A. degree from Southwestern, will again serve as instructor in the primary department. Other grade school teachers include Mrs. Blessie Cathcart, B.A. from Hardin-Simmons; and Mrs. Doan, B.A. from Austin college.

Franklin County Reunion To Be Held Here Today

Former residents of Franklin county will stage their seventh annual reunion at the city park here today.

Although the size of the crowd, which has numbered past 300, is expected to be substantially less today, scores and scores from Martin, Howard and surrounding counties probably will be on hand with heavy picnic baskets and an appetite for renewing acquaintance of 40 years ago.

L. H. White, Stanton, president of the reunion and for more than 30 years schoolmaster in rural Franklin county, will be in charge of the informal gathering. Finley Moore, secretary, is expected to head a delegation from Seminole and territory. Other officials include these directors, T. J. A. Robinson, Lee Ashley, Emsey Newton and G. C. Broughton, Big Spring, and W. C. Holcomb, Lamesa.

There was no word that the usual group of relatives from Franklin county would make the trek here for the event. Tire rationing had balked this custom, officials agreed.

All Students To Report At 8:30 Tuesday

Big Spring schools enter into their 1942-43 term this week, facing not only new courses and schedule changes because of war conditions, but also following a drastically revised setup because of institution of the 12-year system for the first time this year.

Students do not report until 8:30 a. m. Tuesday, but all instructors are to gather at the high school study hall at 9 a. m. Monday for a final pre-school session. Principal John A. Coffey said that full class rolls for each teacher would be available Monday morning, and that on Tuesday morning a complete schedule for every student, covering his every period—will be completed.

Some new students already have been registered, and those who have not will be registered Wednesday morning at the principal's office. Schedule changes will not be considered until 4:30 Tuesday afternoon, Coffey said.

Coffey pointed out that with the change from 11 to 12 grades, several items of information should be brought to the attention of patrons and students. Said the principal:

"Those students who were promoted to the seventh grade in Big Spring last June or those who would have been in the last year of their elementary work at some other school will report to the gymnasium balcony at 8:30 Tuesday morning. If a child would be in the seventh grade of a 12-grade system, that child should go to his respective ward school. Those who report to the gymnasium should be those who would be in either the 7th grade of an 11-grade system or in the 8th of a 12-grade system."

"High school students are to report to their guidance rooms of last year unless it was necessary to make a change. There will be a list of the changes posted in several places around the high school and on the bulletin board. Each teacher will have a copy."

"Freshmen who were here last year will report as follows: from room 107 to 301; from 110 to 216; from 109 to 209; from 121 to 303; from 113 to 206; from 115 to 102; from 118 to 306. These other complete room changes are to be made: from 311 to 316; from 316 to 311; from 206 to 314."

"New students will report to the rooms as shown on the list on the bulletin board. "If any new high school student did not register during the past two weeks, he must wait until Wednesday morning. New students other than those in high school will register with the other students. Any schedule changes which are necessary for high school students will be considered Tuesday afternoon."

Cosden Gas Tank Damaged By Fire

Fire, which stubbornly resisted efforts to extinguish it, caused minor damage to a gasoline tank as Cosden Petroleum Corp. refinery here Saturday morning. Most of the fuel in the tank, said J. L. LeBlau, superintendent, was drawn off from the bottom and most of the damage resulting from flames was to the top tank.

Be American Enough To 'TAKE IT'

Sure, the going is rough. Nobody ever thought war would be a picnic. The boys on the Solomons aren't in a bed of roses, neither are those on the rolling destroyers or those soaring to a fight with the Messerschmitts. We'll say the war is causing some upsets at home, too. You can take it, though, can't you? Our boys on the front are taking it.

By taking it, we mean putting up with some of the difficulties created by the gearing of all business to war. Your merchant is taking it. He isn't happy about running short of items you would like to buy. He isn't pleased to have to restrict his deliveries. It isn't fun for him to be training inexperienced help.

You and you—all of us—should be American enough to take it, too. If your merchant doesn't have what you need, he'll try to direct you to it, or he'll explain why it can't be had. If your delivery is slow, understand that the day of conservation is here. If service is not what you have been accustomed to expect, remember that new employees are taking the place of the old. There will be difficulties, yes; but they'll be a lot less important if we all try to meet them together, in cooperative spirit. Let's take it—that's the American way.

Tube Protection Material Handled By Jones Motor Co.

A new development which is designed to save those valuable tires and tubes is the use of Film O Seal, which is now being handled in Big Spring by the Jones Motor company.

Film O Seal is a semi-plastic material that is injected into an innertube under pressure. It forms a sealing film on the inner surface of the tube and is guaranteed to maintain a steady air pressure in tires. The process has been thoroughly tested, Henry Jones asserts, and Film O Seal will seal punctures as soon as they occur. It will not injure tube or casing, he said, and will not affect operation of the car in any manner. The material is not affected by heat or cold.

"In short," said Jones, "it works. We think it is a real tire saver." The Jones Motor company can apply Film O Seal in a few minutes' time.

Well Finished In East Howard

One well was completed in eastern Howard county during the past week while another, a wildcat test in the northeastern quarter of the county, was spudded.

Fleming Oil Co. No. 1-E Snyder, section 21-30-1s, T&P, pumped 102 barrels net of oil in a 24-hour test with 28 per cent water. Oil was 30 gravity and had a 220-1 oil-gas ratio. The well was shot with 700 quarts from top of pay at 2,637 to bottom of hole at 2,970 feet.

Cosden Petroleum Corp. spudded its No. 1 Thelma Cole, located in the center of the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter, section 14-26, H&TC, and was reported completing rigging.

Having topped the solid lime by driller figures at 4,234 feet, the Ray Albaugh No. 1 Higginbotham, northern Dawson county wildcat, was reported running high. It was drilling ahead below 4,305 feet in lime. The test is projected for 5,200 feet.

Man's Income Would Be Put On Rations

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP) — A simple plan to curb consumer purchasing by imposing an arbitrary limitation on the amount an individual might spend out of his income has been suggested by treasury officials to the senate finance committee, it was learned today.

The proposal, offered tentatively by Roy Blough, head of the treasury's tax research bureau, contemplates issuance by the government of a sort of rationing certificate to each taxpayer permitting him to spend a certain proportion of his income, but no more. Income that could not be spent might be expected to gravitate to government bonds.

A man with a $5,000 annual income might be granted sufficient certificates to spend 80 per cent of it, or $4,000. He could spend this amount in any manner he chose and at anytime, but could not spend more.

Low price groups existing of a bare subsistence level might be permitted to spend all of their earnings, while those in the higher income levels probably would feel the weight of graduated restrictions.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) hailed the plan as "challenging" and said it easily could be written into the pending tax bill if the scheme found was feasible and the committee wished to give it a trial.

"This plan is challenging in its simplicity and its efficiency," Vandenberg told reporters. "It has the double value of controlling inflationary spending at its source and of providing a large reservoir of savings for bond purchases to help finance the war."

Vandenberg said that as outlined by Blough, the scheme would not involve the imposition of any tax or the withholding of any part of an individual's income for its effectiveness.

This constituted its chief difference from previous treasury proposals for a flat levy of 10 per cent on individual spendings above certain specified restrictions, the collections to be in the form of enforced savings returnable to the taxpayers after the war. The treasury also had proposed a graduated tax ranging from 10 to 75 per cent on what might be defined as "luxury" expenditures.

Blough was reported to have told the committee that the treasury believed that drastic action must be taken immediately to counteract a prospective $40,000,000,000 gap between national buying power and the amount of consumer goods to be available for purchase.

Blough was said to have warned the committee that by the last three months of this fiscal year, or April, May and June of 1943, amount of consumer goods available would not be sufficient to absorb more than $60,000,000,000 in annual spending. He estimated national income, exclusive of taxes, at the rate of $106,000,000,000 at that time.

Ration Board Office On A New Schedule

New office hours will be observed by the war price and ration board staff, effective Tuesday, it was announced by Chief Clerk Walter Wilson. The offices will be closed Monday in observance of Labor Day.

Mondays through Fridays, the office will be open from 8:30 a. m. to 12 and from 1 to 5:30. Saturday hours will be from 8:30 to 12:30. The new schedule is a 30-minute later one than has been observed.

Wilson said that full instructions had been received on the types of special services that are going under the minimum price regulations, including sample forms for filling out reports on March charges which must be turned in to the board by midnight September 10, next Thursday. Any interested person is invited to come to the office and obtain the information and see the sample compliance forms, he said. He has no "copies" of a report form to be filled, since each type of business must make its own report. However, the sample reports should be of help to all those having difficulty in meeting regulations.

Eighth Service Command Being Moved From Santone To Dallas

City Host To Dentists Of West Texas

Dentists of West Texas were due to flock here today, probably 100 strong, for the annual regional society meeting which will continue through Monday.

Most of the business of the parley will be crowded into Monday sessions when several technical and professional papers will be read. At the concluding parley, set for 4 p. m., new officers will be chosen, the next meeting place selected and other business, including committee reports, acted upon.

Opening affair of the West Texas Dental Society's 22nd annual session will be a chicken barbecue at the city park today at 7:30 p. m. The traditional golf tournament has been abandoned, but members will be accorded free swimming and golfing privileges by arrangement of the local committee composed of Dr. E. O. Ellington, Dr. C. W. Deata, Dr. C. M. Watson, Dr. W. B. Hardy, Dr. C. E. Richardson and Dr. E. H. Happel. Likewise the gun shoot has been passed for this year.

Monday's program opens with an invocation by the Rev. O. L. Savage, First Presbyterian minister, the address of welcome by Mayor G. C. Dunham and response by Dr. Guy Gillespie, Abilene.

Papers, demonstrations, and discussions will be furnished by Dr. E. C. McRimmon, Fort Worth; Dr. E. D. Bridgford, Colorado City; Dr. Edward Taylor, Austin, director of dental health; and Dr. Horace Beachum, Dallas.

DALLAS, Sept. 5 (AP)—Transfer of the Eighth Service Command headquarters controlling military establishments in five states—was reported today by Rep. Kilday of Texas who said the war department had ordered the move over his protests.

Major Gen. Richard C. Donovan, commanding officer, will determine the date of the change. He is in Mexico at present, but Kilday said several weeks probably would elapse before the order could be carried out.

The headquarters will occupy more than 200,000 square feet of office space, said J. Ben Critt, manager of the Dallas chamber of commerce. He has been requested to furnish evidence that 2,000 houses and apartments could be obtained for the personnel. Critt added the transfer will affect about 1,500 officers, 1,000 civilians and a limited number of enlisted men.

The command, formerly the Eighth Corps Area, has jurisdiction in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and New Mexico. It is one of the largest of the nine service commands and controls supplies for all military units and installations in this area. It has been located in San Antonio since 1890.

Movement of the headquarters will mean, Critt said, that the southwest division office of the United States Army Engineers, commanded by Col. Stanley L. Scott, will remain in Dallas.

Kilday said at Washington that Robert P. Patterson, undersecretary of war, cited military congestion in San Antonio and a desire for a more central location as factors that led to the order.

"He told me," the San Antonio congressman asserted, "that no city in the United States equals the military congestion now present at San Antonio," including Washington.

"Mr. Patterson said this was no longer a tactical command, but merely a housekeeping and supply command from which tactical functions had passed to the Third Army under command of Lt. Gen. Walter Krueger, whose headquarters will remain at San Antonio."

He said Patterson advanced geographical centralization as another reason for the move. Limits of the former corps area have been changed, with Colorado placed in another region and Arkansas and Louisiana brought into the 8th.

Kilday said he would continue to protest the move.

Women Step Into Jobs From Local War Industries Class

First three women to complete the War Industries Defense class in aircraft sheet metal work have lost no time in going into production with Texas airplane factories, it was reported Saturday.

The trio, Vera Spears of Combs, Dorothy Collins and Nell Roberts of Big Spring, caught on almost immediately and are averaging around $40 a week.

At the same time, it was announced, more women are needed to take the training here. The course is being offered free of charge at the high school and two shifts are now in operation. Big Spring is training on Consolidated specifications, and virtually all those who satisfactorily complete the course here will have ready access to jobs in that company's Texas branch. Several, however, have gone with other companies. Women should be 19 to 21 years of age and able to do normal work, be in sound health and have the equivalent of an eighth grade education. Men, who until now have formed the bulk of the class personnel here, should be reasonably removed from the possibility of selective service either by age or other causes before making application.

Those interested in signing for the training should call at the U. S. E. S. office here as soon as possible. All applications must be made through the employment service.

Treating 'Em Just Alike—Howard Farmers Will Poison Rats And Rain Scrap On Axis Leaders

Rats and the axis leaders were placed in the same category Saturday by Howard county rural folk who, through their Victory Council which met at the courthouse, mapped plans to exterminate the rodents by poison and the dictators by a broadside of scrap metal.

The Victory Council, made up of community and neighborhood leaders who in turn work with every rural family, agreed on a systematic method of rat killing, to reduce the menace of typhus fever which has been dangerously prevalent in recent weeks.

A large crowd was on hand to hear City-County Health Officer Dr. E. Bennett outline the gravity of the situation and to emphasize that extermination of rats is the first step toward correction.

County Agent O. P. Griffin suggested a series of community demonstrations, to be followed up with a coordinated poisoning campaign to be undertaken the first week in October. This was accepted, and a schedule for the community meetings will be mapped at once.

The nation's urgent need for scrap was presented to the council by B. J. McDaniel, county salvage chairman, who said more effort must be put in on collection. Several farmer-spokenmen said scrap had been collected, but had not been delivered. They agreed to redouble canvassing efforts and to have farmers bring in their metal as promptly as possible.

L. H. Thomas, chairman of the USDA War Board, spoke briefly on the cotton harvest labor problem, and suggested that farmers should not bid against each other for labor and thus make matters worse. He said that a fair formula seemed to be to pay from 20 to 25 per cent of the price of a bale for picking.

Recreational council members possibly those from other units will be on hand Tuesday when Henry J. Enigh, regional representative for defense health and welfare, Federal Security Agency, stops here.

Among the foremost things to be discussed is the coordination of efforts to establish a center for soldiers and to institute a program of entertainment and recreation for them.

Currently, the problem is dangling between WPA and USO and the Tuesday session may determine the avenue or procedure.

Where IS The Middle East?

Even the Allied Nations can't agree exactly on the distinction between the two. In this map the shaded area shows the territory defined as the Middle East by the British War Office.

By DE WITT MACKENZIE
Wide World War Analyst
Just what sort of geographical picture hits your mind's eye when you encounter the terms "Middle East" and "Near East" which appear so often in these war days?

Since you are a truthful person you answer likely is that the expressions strike you as being very like the traditional boarding-house hash—of very uncertain composition—since that describes them very exactly. Not even in chancelleries the world around is the much unanimity in defining these localities.

In an effort to pin the thing down I recently made inquiries in both Washington and London. The result was what Schnozzle Durante might call colossal, amazing and staggering.

Our State Department uses only one descriptive term for the two areas. It has a division of Near Eastern Affairs in charge of the whole area from Greece to Afghanistan, inclusive. The U. S. War office has no official classification for the territories. Officers handling the Department's war communiques say they prefer to entertainment will do well to invest in the series of eight programs being brought here by the Lions club. Some international figures, such as Percy Grainger, Iva Ketchell and others, are included—and the price figures out—on a season basis—at only 80 cents per program, plus tax.

Fall gardens will be the best here in years with possible exception of last year when one season was about as good as we ever had. This means there will be an opportunity to put up tomatoes, possibly late corn, and greens. Those who can will do well to have a little greens patch, plant a few onions and carrots for winter consumption. The point is not so much to lay off canned goods, thus making larger quantities of this available for our men in service.

or salvage up and take it to the front curb or possibly to town. The army did a neat bit of recruiting air corps specialists here during the past week for assignment to Big Spring. However, the need for men of this type is most urgent, and those who can qualify and who anticipate entering the service might as well take advantage of getting their on-the-job training at home. The army doesn't often make this sort of an offer.

Last year it cost farmers about one-fifth of the bale sale price for picking. Last week the county war board recognized that prices are up—even for farm labor—and suggested a fair picking price would be about one-fourth the bale price. The cotton market is a shade on the weak side and this means the farmers production cost is going up and his revenue down. Yet you will find lots of folks who yell for price control to start on the farm.

Shaughnessy Contenders In Texas League Still Are Undetermined

Steel Signs With Unions

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 5 (AP)—CIO President Philip Murray announced tonight the United Steel Workers of America has signed a new contract with five manufacturers of U. S. Steel Corporation. Murray who heads the USWA, said officials of Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation, the National Tube company, American Steel & Wire and Columbia Steel signed the contracts at a meeting today. He added that formal signatures of officials of Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad will be affixed at Birmingham, Ala., next week, explaining the Alabama officials had been unable to attend today's meeting.

By The Associated Press
Fourteen games Sunday and Monday will wind up the Texas league campaign and it's likely to be the last game before the make-up of the four-team Shaughnessy play-off can be determined. Beaumont, which led all the way, clinching first place with a double victory over Oklahoma City last night. The Exporters can lose all their remaining four games and still finish on top.

Shreveport has four games to go four left, and there's where the third place Fort Worth. The Sports might not finish second but they're bound to be in the play-off, boasting a five-game margin over fourth place San Antonio.

Fort Worth has three games left and is two and one-half ahead of San Antonio.

San Antonio, with four games on the schedule, is only one-half ahead of Houston, which also has four left, an dthere's where the major interest now lies. Tulsa, Oklahoma City and Dallas have all been eliminated.

San Antonio and Houston can not tie for fourth place except through possible postponement of games. Should a any remaining games be postponed they would automatically be cancelled.

Therefore, with the possibility of a tie virtually out of the way, the fans can get ready for the start of the Shaughnessy playoff Wednesday.

The new contract, embodying the same general provisions granted "Little Steel" companies by the war labor board, includes a 44-cent day increase, retroactive to Feb. 15, maintenance of union shop, a check-off system of dues collection and a daily minimum wage guarantee. About 165,000 wage earners are affected.

Applications Out For Wheat Payments

Applications have been dispatched from the county ACA office for 1942 wheat parity payments, it was announced Saturday. The payments were not expected to aggregate a great amount since only 38 farms in the county plant small grains extensively enough to have a wheat allotment. Two producers were over planted, but they can hold their surplus grain and underplant next year and market the grain withheld from the current market.

Roden Fires A Par 72 For Medal Honors In Local Tourney

Army Stars To Meet Chicago Pros Today

DENVER, Sept. 5 (AP) — Like any well-trained military force after an initial setback, the western army all-stars today shook up their attack formation for their football encounter with the Chicago Cardinals tomorrow in Denver University stadium.

This is the soldiers' second engagement, following a 26-7 loss to the Washington Redskins last Sunday in a man-killing five game schedule with National Professional League eleven.

Tomorrow night Major Wallace Wade's army team will hop a train for Detroit and Wednesday night's contest with the Detroit Lions, head back to Milwaukee for a game with the Green Bay Packers, Sept. 13, then on to Syracuse and the New York Giants Sept. 19.

Major Wade said it was still doubtful whether John Kimbrough, nursing a rib injury all week, would be able to start at fullback. If not, Pvt. Frank Emmons from Oregon will get the chore.

Aside from Kimbrough, not more than four of the soldiers who started against the Redskins at Los Angeles will answer the opening whistle here. In contrast to last Sunday's all-Dixie breakaway lineup representing four colleges, the one the lead major from Duke read off today showed nine.

Two regulars, Jim Thomason, blocking back, and Guard Leonard Bickey, both from Texas A. & M., were too severely bumped around in the Washington fracas to be used at all tomorrow.

Match Play Starts This Morning At The Country Club

A young red-head who has been playing some hot golf lately and who has been a menace at these Big Spring country club tournaments before, served notice Saturday that he's in the running for this year's crown.

He's Bill Roden, who walked off with medalist honors in the country club qualifying rounds by firing a 72, par for the layout.

Roden, along with Bobby Davidson who, as defending champion, posted no qualifying score, paces the field which swings into match play today.

Steers Into Scrimmage At End Of First Week Of Rehearsals

Coach—John Dibrell has been in Big Spring long enough now that he hardly can be classified as a newcomer, but he is now engaged in turning out his first football team for the local high school. He and Assistant Coach Tommy Beene have a hard row out with an inexperienced squad of boys, but then they have more hustle and spirit than any team forces, clipped Barker 4-3 for the second game of a twin bill to night, after the Yankees had taken the opener, 6 to 2, behind Ernie Bohman's steady hurling.

Boys Showing Some Hustle In Practice

Candidates for the 1942 Steer football team polished off their initial week of practice Saturday afternoon with an assortment of scrimmages that offered hope that they will do better than most everybody figures they will.

They yet have to look like a football team—and they have only two weeks in which to get to looking that way. But if "hustle and spirit" can turn the trick (and it has worked wonders thus far), Coach John Dibrell and Assistant Coach Tommy Beene may be able to check off at least one win when the boys entertain Tahoka on Sept. 18 for the opener.

The coaches aren't fooling themselves, for they know competition will be rough and tough in district 3-AAA this year, but they do see possibilities for their youngsters as the season progresses. Outside of a few spots, weight isn't too ponderous and lack of speed is proving about as big a handicap as lack of experience.

Dibrell and Beene have only three lettermen—Peppy Blount at end and Glenn Brown and Bob Boykin at tackles—back as a framework for the team. These have looked good all week and will be on par with most anything in the district. Brown carried 185 pounds and Boykin 170. Blount one of the fastest men on the team and a better passer, weighs around 195.

Besides Blount, there is some promising talent at end. Big John Urey and Wayne Dearing have been looking pretty good at the other slot, but Glen Cagle, who weighs only 155, has been the surprise of the week and is going to make somebody hustle plenty. Woody Baker also has mixed it well and will see service.

Behind the lettermen at tackle are L. B. Bryan, a hefty youngster, Billy Fox Underhill, Noel Hull, and possibly Eugene Anderson.

Robert Coffee, up to around 145 pounds now, and Darrel Webb, weighing around 160, are best guard prospects. Webb is looking well, but he may be shifted to tackle for alternate service. Coffee's downfield blocking has improved wonderfully. In Leon Rusk, Lee Christian and Ray Thomas, Dibrell has some likely reserve material at this vital point. Barkley Wood and Billy Bob McDonald, centers, are being taught the guard assignments, too.

In the backfield Dewey Stevenson is still the quarterback choice, but Lowell Matlock may give him a run for his money before the season is too far gone. The half situation is in the hands of Billy Sims, Ernest Bostick, Bobby Barron and John Mcintosh. Bostick broke a bone in his hand during the week but it was not thought to be serious. Sims looked nice in most of the workouts, and Barron and Cochran were making it a merry party to see who gets the place.

Doyle (Hunka) Stewart, down to a shadow 215 pounds, is fullback behind a doubt. The big boy was in there with all he had, and may be depended upon to loosen defenses so that Dibrell's tricky T can have a chance to work. He is better on his drive downfield, but still lacks that low drive for potent line smashes. Pete Cook looked well with his pass interceptions as fullback understudy in the Saturday rehearsals.

S'west Footballers Busy Again--And Aggies Look Best

The second wartime football season in the Southwest Conference's 26-year-old history is underway—and the circuit's only military school is a prime favorite to win the title.

Perennially-powerful Texas A&M—whose alumni are scattered on every U. S. battlefield of the world—is ready with an eleven which may shatter the conference's most impregnable jinx—that no team ever repeats as a champion.

The Aggies have come perilously close. They won in 1938, tied in 1940 and though crushed by Texas 35-0 last year came through with the title and earned the right to play in their third consecutive bowl game.

Now they're back again with thirteen lettermen, spaced advantageously everywhere but tackle where no veterans are available. Experience and versatility in offense and defense are on their side.

Barring their way are Texas, Texas Christian and Rice—all with a plethora of lettermen who will make their teams definite contenders. Southern Methodist, relying on key sophomores, a dark horse, Arkansas and Baylor, tough dangerous, may do better than last year but do not figure to win.

The Aggie offense will be built around Lupton Leo Daniels, brilliant triple-threat from Bryan who completed 28 passes last year for 447 yards and averaged 29 yards on his punts. A great broken-field artist and punt returner, he could easily be the Southwest's All-American back.

Operating with Daniels in the backfield will be Cullen Rogers, Jake Webster and Willie Zapala. Veterans returning in the line are Ends Bill Henderson and Elvis Simmons, Guards Weldon Maples and Roy Bueck and Center Bill Sibley.

Texas—which definitely missed the boat last year—has lost every starter from that marvelous aggregation which in six conference games scored 158 points—47 more than the champion Aggies.

But Coach Dana Bible has 20 lettermen back and some good sophomores and aquadman.

Inwardly he's counting heavily on a six-foot, 185-pound Austin youth — Sophomore Raymond Jones who is one of the most polished backs ever to be graduated from a Longhorn freshman team.

Jones will play either at left half or fullback and operating with him will be Harold Collins at blocking back, Ken Matthews and Max Minor at right half and Lewis Mayne and Roy McKay at full.

The line shapes up with Captains Joe Schwarting and Wallace Scott at ends, Stan Mauldin and Zuhel Conoly at tackles, Jack Freeman and Fritz Lobries at guards and Audrey Gill and Jack Sascha at center.

Texas Christian will miss the graduated Frank King, Kyle Gillespie and Nolan Sparks and the injured Frank Medanich, but Dutch Meyer can field a strong team which will line up something like this:

Giants Shake Dodgers With 7-6 Victory

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP) — The New York Giants put a crimp in the pennant plans of the Brooklyn Dodgers today as they rode to a 7-6 victory over the National league leaders on a jackpot home run by big Babe Young.

With St. Louis winning at Cincinnati, the loss clipped a full game off the Dodgers' advantage in the pennant chase, leaving them only three lengths in front of the Cardinals.

In turning back their crosstown rivals in the opener of a three-game series before a crowd of 22,863 paying customers, the Giants routed Whitlow Wyatt, the ace of the Dodger curving corps, and tagged him with his fifth defeat compared with 17 triumphs.

While Young's grand slam homer was the payoff punch, the blow that produced the final Giant run and sent Wyatt to the showers was a single by rookie Mickey Whitak, who collected three extra for the day to stretch his hitting streak to 14 consecutive games.

League Dist. Meeting Set Next Sunday

The annual autumn meeting of coaches and officials of district 3-AAA will be held here next Sunday, John Dibrell, Big Spring coach, said he had been informed.

Pat Murphy, Odessa, diversified occupations coordinator and former Big Spring grid mentor, is making arrangements for the party at the Settles hotel.

According to present plans, Morley Jennings, for more than a decade head coach and athletic director at Baylor University and for the past year director of athletics at Texas Tech, will be on hand to lead in the rules interpretations session.

Many new faces are due to be in the line-up, for there have been changes in the coaching line-up at Big Spring, Lamesa, Midland and Odessa. Several of those who were to have officiated during the season have gone into the service and there will have to be replacements there also.

Hall-Bennett Trophy Goes To Invaders

When it came to individual matches in the Hall & Bennett Trophy play here Friday, the home-town defenders lost the charm that brought them an even break in the morning Scotch four-somes, and W. W. Barker's "invaders" copped off of 7 1-2 to 4 1-2 victory.

Fudgy Matlock turned back Harry Sindorf, Midland, 2-1 and Carl Strom, generalissimo of the local forces, clipped Barker 4-3 for the only clean Big Spring win. Bill Roden and Dick Hamblton, Dallas, stroked in to a dead heat and split a point.

Sizzling hot with his game, H. E. Forgeron, Midland, was two under par on the front nine with 32 to break the back of M. K. House in snatching a 7-5 victory. House steadied on the back half but it was too late. Lieut. Bill Ebby, Jack Brown, Odessa (77), vs. Sam Heffner (77) vs. Dick Hamblton, Dallas (75).

Yanks Turned Back, 1-0, By Washington

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP) — Big Bill Zuber limited the New York Yankees to five hits as Washington turned back the world champions, 1 to 0, in the second game of a twin bill to night, after the Yankees had taken the opener, 6 to 2, behind Ernie Bohman's steady hurling.

Schroeder To Meet Parker

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP) — Frankie Parker of Los Angeles, and Ted Schroeder Jr., of Glendale, Calif., fought their way to the final round of the national amateur tennis championships at Forest Hills today as a crowd of 9,000 roared its approval.

Parker, the 27-year-old battler of Polish extraction who has been trying to win the title for 10 long years, reached the threshold of his ambition as he turned back Pancho Segura of Ecuador, 6-1, 6-1, 2-6, 6-2. It marked the first time Frankie ever had reached the finals.

Schroeder, 21, and the nation's top-ranked amateur player in this year, survived a furious first set to eliminate Lieut. Gardner Mulloy of Jacksonville, Fla., 2-7, 6-3, 6-4. It also was the first time he had been within shooting distance of the title, though he won the doubles championship last year with Jack Kramer.

Football Officials Will 'Carry On'

DALLAS, Sept. 5 (AP) — The Southwest Football Officials' association will carry on in the interest of physical fitness and if necessary will hold its annual meeting next year by districts, James W. St. Clair of Dallas, secretary-treasurer, said today.

The association opened its session here tonight and will continue through Monday morning.

St. Clair said that while the members were busier than ever before in their private business and many of them were either in the service or in defense plants, they were planning to attend the meeting for the purpose of "igniting the Southwest the same high type of officiating as in the past, since we expect a banner year of football and feel that our part is considerable in furthering the war effort by helping in the development of manpower."

St. Clair predicted that 200 officials would be here for the meeting. This is only about 50 less than last year.

Naval Air Station Has Three Teams

CORPUS CHRISTI, Sept. 5 (AP) — Thirty-nine officers, enlisted men and aviation cadets will form the three football teams to represent the U. S. Naval Air Station this fall.

Head coach is Lieut. Marty Karow, formerly of Texas A&M with Lt. (jg) Jack Gray, formerly of Texas, naming the guards and tackles; Ensign Walter Roach, formerly of T. C. U. naming the ends, and Ensign Bill Sage, Ensign G. C. Dowell and Ensign Joe Sienko selecting players for the remaining positions, nine commissioned officers, 24 cadets and six enlisted men were chosen.

The Indians now trail the Browns by 4 1-3 games.

A'S, RED SOX S

BOSTON, Sept. 5 (AP) — Phil Marchildon scored his third win of the season over the Boston Red Sox today, as the Philadelphia Athletics chalked up a 4 to 3 win over Tex Hughson, who was seeking his 19th victory. The Sox have beaten Marchildon twice.

3-AAA Teams Have Games

Two district 3-AAA teams will fire their first guns in the 1942 football wars this week, and in each case Big Spring coaches will have an opportunity to see the opening opposition and the opening conference opponent in action.

Lamesa entertains Tahoka Friday evening and either John Dibrell or his assistant, Tommy Beene, will have a look-in on this game. Tahoka comes here the following Friday night when the Steers will open the season.

While this is going on, Odessa will be playing host to North Dallas—and if the dope is right—be playing the stuffing out of the visitors. Odessa is first on the Steer conference schedule, according to custom.

Engagement Of James Pickle Announced

AUSTIN, Sept. 5 (Sp)—Judge and Mrs. Richard Critz of Austin announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Ella Nora, to Esiggn James J. Pickle, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pickle of Big Spring.

The marriage will take place in Austin the latter part of September.

Miss Critz received her B.B.A. degree from the University of Texas in 1930 where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta society, the Curta club, and Cap and Gown. She is a member of the Cotillon club and for the past year has been employed as secretary to A. L. Brandon, director of public relations at the University of Texas.

Esiggn Pickle received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of Texas and attended law school at the university where he was prominent in many campus affairs. He served as president of the student body, president of his legal fraternity, Delta Theta Phi, and was a member of Friars, honorary law fraternity. He is now in midshipman's training school at Northwestern university.

Further plans for the wedding will be announced later.

Repairs To Be Made On Local Museum Bldg.

Decision to repair the West Texas Memorial Museum building at the city park was made recently by the executive board of the museum. The interior of the building is to be arranged and repairs made. During the time of the repair work, the museum will be closed to the public.

For some months the building has not had adequate space for exhibits and an effort will be made to arrange for more space and a more attractive setting. Exhibits will be cataloged, new cards made and other changes adopted to make the museum even more useful to the public.

The board which believes it is of interest to the public good to preserve the history and resources of the western territory, thinks that after the war there will be even greater opportunities for service to the community by the museum.

Opening of the museum following the repairs will be announced through The Herald.

ADELE JENKINS. High flying is her job

WAVES. Miss America is too busy these days to remember back when jobs were hard to get, when various avenues of work were closed to her and when many people thought her place was in the kitchen or sewing a fine seam. She's too busy now to even worry about her future, what she'll be doing when the boys come back. For this Labor Day as for all the Labor Days "for the duration" she's seen a need for her services and plunged in. Doing a good job and doing it now! By next year three million more women must join her and by the end of 1943 six million Miss America's will be helping deal death to the Axis on the home front.

Request For Music A N d Instruments Receives Notice

Requests for musical instruments for soldiers to be stationed at the Big Spring Flying School have brought in one clarinet, radios, two record players, a number of records, and sheet music, so members of the Music club reported today in their drive to furnish enough instruments and music for soldiers here.

In addition to more wind instruments needed for the soldiers, Mrs. Anne Gibson Houser, chairman, asked that stringed instruments not being used by local people, be donated to the soldiers for their use. Anyone desiring to contribute to the drive may contact Mrs. Houser, phone 551, who will call for the music or instruments.

Cosden Dance At The Country Club Is Well Attended Friday

Court Opens Here Monday

A new term of 70th district court gets under way Monday, but because it is Labor Day, the grand jury may do no more than organize itself for looking into some 14 complaints that are on file.

Judge Cecil C. Collins will impel the group when court is convened at 10 a. m., then is expected to discuss proceedings for the day. The docket will be called Tuesday. A petit jury has been summoned for the second week, beginning Sept. 14, when state cases likely will be set.

The grand jury will be chosen from this group:

Willis Winters, Vincent; Earl Castle, Knott; Frank Hodnett, Knott; Cleveland Newman, Route 2, Big Spring; Loyd Brannon, Luther; Bob Odum, Otischalk; Leroy Echols, Coahoma; A. K. Turner, Coahoma; Glenn Cantrell, Route 1, C. M. Weaver.

W. H. Wise, Route 1; W. D. Anderson, Luther; C. E. Anderson, Route 2; R. V. Middleton, Robert Currie, Dave Duncan, L. W. Croft, R. Richardson, Harold Homan, V. H. Flewellen.

Cards for a petit jury will go out next Monday, the sheriff's office advised.

Mrs. O. E. Hodden returned Saturday from Clovis, N. M. where she had visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sanders. The three of them spent considerable time at Hot Springs, N. M.

Guests and employees of Cosden refinery were entertained with a dance at the country club Friday night and approximately 100 persons attended.

Music was furnished by nickelodeon and refreshments were served.

Included as guests were Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Leeman, Willie Wharton of San Diego, Calif., and a group of soldiers from the Big Spring Flying School including E. J. Turner, Eddie Hammond, Bill Dearing, Casey Montwill, N. F. Miller, Odlynn Schuette, Charles Childs.

Negro Falls Under Train, Loses Leg

Condition of William Rochelle, youthful Dallas negro who lost a leg beneath a T.&P. freight train here Saturday morning, was said to be fairly good late Saturday at the Big Spring Hospital.

Rochelle, according to statements made by three companions, fell as he was dismounting from a flat car as the train entered the yards at 10 a. m.

A. B. Strouther, Robert Butler, and Everett Harris, his companions, said that Rochelle fell as he left the car in obedience to an order to get off the train.

"He got off backwards and fell," they told officers. They picked the youth up and carried him to the nearby office of the Morris junk yard and summoned an ambulance.

Lodge To Have Entertainment For Officer

Making plans to entertain Mrs. Mary Gosman of Fresno, Calif., grand lodge officer, on October 2nd, the Trainers Ladies met at the W. O. W. hall Friday for a business session presided over by Mrs. B. N. Ralph.

Cosden Chatter-

By TOMMIE McCRARY

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Karcher returned Thursday from a two weeks vacation in Oklahoma. They visited with relatives in Enid, then took a jaunt into the Wichita mountains to Lake Lawtonka. Mrs. Karcher's father, Mr. Brown of Enid, Okla., returned to Big Spring with them for a visit.

"The best party we've had yet," was the general comment heard around the office about the open house held at the country club Friday night for all Cosden employees. This is strictly off the record, but I heard that the guests were entertained by a very talented artist by the name of— with a Mexican Hat Dance.

R. L. Tollett is in Fort Worth on company business.

Rayford Liles left the employment of Cosden Pipe Line company last week to answer the call of Uncle Sam's Coast Guard.

Had quite an unexpected visitor in the office Friday—Sailor W. H. "Willie" Whorton, home from San Diego on a ten day leave.

Quite a few of the employees are taking advantage of the Labor Day holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hendrick are visiting in San Angelo this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Collins, Bill and Gardner, are visiting in Fort Worth. Other guests of Cowtown are Opal Bates, Glynn Jordan and Perry Daughtry.

Evelyn Merrill is in Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Stormy Thompson are visiting in Abilene.

Mrs. Lucille, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Joe Blum, is in Denton this weekend.

Otto Peters, Sr., is starting a first aid class for the Cosden employees Sept. 14.

Jim Willingham of Hobbs, N. M., accompanied by his son and Mrs. Willingham, stopped by the office a few minutes Friday afternoon on his way to Fort Worth.

Velva Glass expects to return to her desk Tuesday morning.

DR. AND MRS. G. S. TRUE

Dr. And Mrs. True Observe Their 54th Anniversary Here Saturday

Their 54th wedding anniversary nearly slipped by unnoticed by Dr. and Mrs. G. S. True Saturday but when Mrs. True was reminded of the date, she felt glad to think they had at least had chicken for dinner!

In 1888, on September 5th, Mr. and Mrs. True were married by the Rev. Haggard, Methodist preacher, near West Point, Tenn., in the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. True was Miss Lillie Johnson. The bride was 16 and the bridegroom was 23 years old.

The couple lived in Tennessee until 1893 when they came to Hockholt. Later they lived in Pendleton, Ovilla and Midlothian and in 1909 arrived in Big Spring where they came for a son's health.

Dr. and Mrs. True are the parents of ten children, seven of which are living. These include one son, Archie, True of Big Spring, and Mrs. J. Lusk, Mrs. R. H. Miller, Mrs. Hayden Griffith, Mrs. Zollie Boykin, all of Big Spring, Mrs. J. B. Williams of Dallas, and Mrs. Stanley J. Davis of New York City. They also have ten grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Their receipt for living together happily for 54 years is the same one that an uncle told them back at the time of their marriage.

Knott Rebekah Lodge Organizes Unit At Lamesa

KNOTT, Sept. 5—The Rebekah lodge No. 14 at Knott went to Lamesa recently and organized a lodge there with 13 members. Making the trip and instituting the new unit were Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Unger, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hughes, Mrs. Joe Meyers and Mrs. Myrtle Morrow of Ackerly. The group plans to meet there again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewing Wheelless and Helen Osborn of Coleman were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Jr., and Mrs. Wheelless' parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Mason of Big Spring during the week.

Rip Awalt has been notified to report to induction station at Lubbock Sept. 9. He underwent his physical examination this week.

Mrs. R. V. Thomas and Mrs. Carl Grant entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Thomas in honor of R. V. and R. C. Thomas and J. E. Harland who left this week for New Orleans, La., where they will go in training for the coast guard. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fryar, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson and children, Lynda and Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fryar, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Truett Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Canning of Big Spring, Carl Grant, B. M. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Thomas, Mrs. T. M. The Knott Red Cross met Thursday in an all-day meeting at the Garner home economics building and 21 woolen rompers were finished. A committee report was given and plans for a 42 party were made for funds to continue the Knott Red Cross sewing room during the winter. Tickets are being sold for the affair to be held at the Garner gym next Friday evening, Sept. 11. Every one in the community is invited to attend. Present were Mrs. S. T. Johnson, Mrs. E. L. Roman, Mrs. J. E. Sample, Mrs. Grady Dorsey, Mrs. L. J. Burrow, Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Mrs. R. H. Unger, Mrs. E. O. Sanders, Mrs. Obie Awalt, Mrs. Fred Roman, Mrs. Herschell Smith, Mrs. Joe Meyers.

The meeting place at the home-making cottage is to be changed since the building is being moved to provide more class rooms for the school and next meeting will be held at the Garner gym.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roman and sons, Jerry and Bobby, spent last weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Reid at Lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Burchell and Dr. and Mrs. Leslie D. Bohl of Williamsburg, Ohio, are spending the weekend in San Antonio.

The Rev. J. J. Ellsberry, who has been vacationing here and assisting in the summer revivals here and at Ackerly, left for his home at Williamsburg, Ohio, Tuesday. Mrs. Ellsberry will remain here another week before returning.

Mrs. S. T. Johnson left Saturday to spend several days at Lueders visiting friends and relatives.

Dinner And Dance For Officers And Guests To Be Held Thursday

On the social calendar for the week is the dinner and dance to be given Thursday evening at the Settles ballroom for army officers and their wives or friends given under auspices of the chamber of commerce.

In addition to the officer personnel and their feminine guests, Big Spring people will be invited to attend the affair as long as tickets hold out. This get-together event will be in the way of a welcome to army officials.

WE'RE HERE TO HELP.....

Yes, some of our boys have been called to serve in the Armed Forces of our country—and we are glad to have them play a part in the nation's war effort. But we are still here—ready to help you folks on the Home Front keep "It on the home front." And, by the way, how do you stand physically? Are you up to par? If not, you'd better see your physician—before he has to see you! And let us help by accurately compounding any prescriptions that he may prescribe for you.

Cuba Arrests German Spy

HAVANA, Cuba, Sept. 5 (AP) — The arrest of a 31-year-old German whom Cuban police described as "one of the most important spies yet captured in America," was announced today. The authorities indicated he would escape the firing squad by becoming a government witness.

Police identified him as Heinz August Luning, alias Enrique Lunt, a native of Bremen and for some years an export and import merchant in Hamburg. He arrived in Havana on Sept. 29, 1941, they said, on the steamer Villa de Madrid as a transit passenger for Honduras, traveling on a passport issued by the Honduras consulate in Hamburg.

Maj. Gen. Manuel Benitez, chief of the Cuban national police, said Luning had made a complete confession of participating in widespread espionage activities.

BARROW'S

A Soldier Friendship Program

A few days ago The Herald observed in these columns that Big Spring as a community has not done its job of providing for the leisure demands of the army men who are coming into our midst. There was no thought to belittle these fine efforts that have been made on the part of some organizations; we salute these for the start they have made. But the fact remains that we have not yet attempted a comprehensive, all-inclusive program. And one is badly needed.

comes that the municipality may assist with a WPA project. The word is that a "survey" will be made on behalf of future USO intentions. All well and good. But we are a bit chary of surveys and the time they take; we fear the possible limitations of a WPA project. The entertaining community will not sit back and wait on surveys and government applications. It will serve its own.

church, every organization that has an interest in the welfare of the fighting man has a place in this program; and their representatives ought to come together. These men who leave in our city deserve something better than to have to roam the streets. They are entitled to a downtown center where they can read and write letters; they deserve a place or two where they can play some table tennis or some dominoes or checkers; they ought to have a place where social entertainments can be held.

Let a hundred or so firms and individuals subscribe a couple of dollars a month apiece; let this money be used to obtain and equip the recreation centers. Call it a "Soldier Friendship" program if you like. Call it anything. Let the Recreation Council supervise the expenditure of the money, giving due consideration to citywide programs which service clubs and churches might want to assist in. Give these boys something decent and pleasant to do with their leisure time. Let them say, when they have left Big Spring that it "was one swell town. They treated you white there." If they don't say that, we have failed in a responsibility.

Washington Daybook — Indian Pleads India's Case

By JOHN GROVER
(For Jack Bennett On Vacation)
WASHINGTON — Mohandas Gandhi's personal popularity in this capital is so low he'd have to chin himself to touch bottom, but his influence has brought out one of the most interesting personalities to hit town in a dog's age. Sardar J. J. Singh is an Indian textile importer who has lived 17 years in New York. He's president of the India League of America and an ex-member of Gandhi's movement.

champion Jawaharlal Nehru and Gandhi here, and he makes some telling points in asking for understanding. Japan, Singh reports, has made great headway in India with propaganda deriding the Churchill-Roosevelt "four freedoms." Japan has cleverly harped on the theme that the four freedoms are only for white men in Anglo-British minds, and that India will never be freed by Britain.

They say "Why fight for freedom we haven't got?" Jailing of Gandhi and Nehru plays into the Japs hands. Singh contends, and they are the only Indian leaders who could counteract the Jap propaganda but they can't do it from jail. Singh explained the Gandhi-Nehru demands on Britain, not as blackmail but as a move forced by the Indian masses. Jap agents would have claimed they were "selling out" to the British had they not demanded immediate action.

Manhattan — Material For A Musical Comedy: Irving Berlin

By GEORGE TUCKER
NEW YORK—Irving Berlin... What a musical comedy could be written around his life... What a movie could be made... His patriotism and his sincerity are so well known that it starts you to remember that he was born in Russia, that he came to the United States when he was only four, and that he was selling newspapers and listening under the doors of Bowery saloons when he was only eight years old... Helping to earn a few dimes for shoes, and for the rest of the kids at home.

WILDERNESS GIRL By LETA ZOE ADAMS

Chapter 24
WELL-MEANT BRIBE
Tyra's father didn't answer for a moment. Finally, he said slowly, "We'll have to talk to this Morse fellow. Maybe we can persuade him to wait awhile before going after that Rosetta-stone."

club to bend his judgment? She shuddered. No, she was done with that. She had finished with it. Sandy, Gil and Helen were seated around their fire discussing ways and means of approaching the Chamber of the Serpent. How when Tyra and her father stepped out of the shadows. After some formalities of greeting the Flemings made themselves comfortable in the circle, and Mr. Fleming commented upon the events of the day as reported to him by Tyra.

this rich pocket of gold. We'll make you a fair offer—let you have all the gold you can pan out. Then when the pocket is gutted we'll all pack up and leave the plateau together. Just before we go you can make your raid on the altar and get your Rosetta-stone. In that way, we'd both have what we came up here for, only you'd have a poke of gold in addition. How does it sound to you?"

The Thrill That Comes Once In A Lifetime

Smith bitterly assails any suggestion that Gandhi and Nehru are pro-Axis. They are inviolably democratic, he says, and points to Nehru's record as the first world leader to denounce Jap aggression in China, the Italian move in Abyssinia and the fascist attack on Spain in support of his claims. In contrast, he points out that L. S. Amery, British secretary for India, defended the Jap invasion of Manchuria in the House of Commons in 1931.

If you wrote a musical comedy around Berlin's career you would have plenty of laughs and also some heartbreak material to work with... His courtship and marriage to the daughter of the late Clarence H. Mackey, president of the Postal Telegraph Company, in 1926, flared into headlines all around the nation, and it was only over the father's furious and bitter protests that Ellin Mackey became Irving Berlin's bride. People still talk of Mackey's sullen anger resulting from the frustration he felt when he failed to break up the match. But he failed, and it has remained like so many of Berlin's songs, a true romance, the inspiration, doubtless, of more than one of Berlin's lullaby songs.

that would remain published on the hearts of the listeners forever. I wouldn't want to drag anything so vulgar as money into a romantic biography, but the musical play "This Is The Army," which Berlin conceived for the army and which is on Broadway at the moment, will net $800,000 by time it is withdrawn in September for appearances in Washington and other cities.

Mr. Fleming let his eyes rest momentarily upon each face as if to assure himself how his news would be received. "I hadn't been prosing around this plateau a week when I ran onto a free gold pocket that's a bonanza. Frankly, I've never seen anything equal to it, in all my experience. Nuggets—well, you have to see them to believe it."

Sandy passed that over without comment. "Then I take it that you found a mine." Mr. Fleming let his eyes rest momentarily upon each face as if to assure himself how his news would be received. "I hadn't been prosing around this plateau a week when I ran onto a free gold pocket that's a bonanza. Frankly, I've never seen anything equal to it, in all my experience. Nuggets—well, you have to see them to believe it."

By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD—If Milton Berle wanted to brag about it, he's got a million of 'em. Jokes. Card-indexed and cross-filed, his collection numbers, he says, between 850,000 and 900,000, maybe more. There aren't any new ones, only new twists to old gags.

Hollywood — War Shortages Are Felt By The Make-Up Men

Milton's lost 15 pounds as a salute to his romantic comedy lead in "Over My Dead Body," saga of a genius who concocts mystery tales and invariably baffles himself so he can't solve them. In response to my query, he's going into a dark brown study and come up (he hopes) with the first of all jokes, the granddaddy of 'em all. My guess is it's the old apple gag—played in the Garden of Eden...

War Shortages Are Felt By The Make-Up Men

Notes from Vern Murdock's make-up box: a certain camel-hair brush, getting scarcer, has jumped from 29 to 68 cents... A badger brush that cost $3.50 can't be had now at any price—it's from Germany... Vegetable colorings are coming in... No more carbon tetrachloride for wig-cleaning—they're using a dry shampoo instead... The hair shortage (most of the movie hair in wigs came from Czechoslovakia) is leading to the use of cellophane blended with crepe...

It's Anthony Quinn who tells it—the time C. B. DeMille in a casting conference was telling his colleagues: "I just know the man for the part—that fellow over at Warner's. What's-his-name. Tall. Dark-haired. Whit IS his name? My son-in-law. Oh, yes—QUINN!"

War Shortages Are Felt By The Make-Up Men

Ida Lupino, playing Monty Woolley's crippled daughter in "Tonight at 8:30," is also working on a book about her late father, celebrated English actor Stanley Lupino. She's calling it "Letter from Britain," is starting off with his final message to her, reflecting England at War, then flashing back to tell his life story against that introduction. Though father and daughter had not seen each other for six years prior to his death, they were extremely close—she influenced everything I am and everything I've done," she says. "This past year I knew he was ill, though he kept writing that he was doing well. Then I knew he was dying, because all the time I felt that I was dying too..."

News About— Mitchell County's Men In Service

COLORADO CITY, Sept. 6.—Six Colorado City youths left here Friday for Dallas to take the final physical examination for enlistment in the navy. They are James Paul Cooper, who hopes to be assigned to the naval air corps, Barry Joyce and Weldon Hunt, who have asked to be assigned to the medical corps, E. J. Tilley, who will enlist as a sheet metal worker, Johnnie Morgan and Robert Williamson, unassigned.

Duff Chesney of Colorado City who enlisted several months ago as an army aviation cadet has been called for training and sent to Kelly Field in San Antonio. Chesney, an ex-star of the Colorado Wolves and until his enlistment a student in John Tarleton college, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Chesney.

Pvt. John A. Gressett, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Gressett of Westbrook, was among the recent graduates of an intensive course in aviation mechanics at Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls.

William H. Reid, Yeoman first class U. S. Coast Guard, is at home on a ten-day furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Reid. He is stationed at Wilmington, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Hayes, route 3 Colorado City, who are the parents of three sons in the armed forces, have received a letter from their son, Vernon, assuring them of his safe arrival somewhere in the south Pacific.

Another of the Hayes' sons, Wayne, is with the field artillery in Hawaii while the third, Wesley was recently transferred from Ellington Field to Tarrant Field in Fort Worth.

New Ministers In Pulpits At Local Churches Today

Two ministers will be occupying their new pulpits here in both services today.

At the Church of Christ, J. D. Harvey, new minister, is now on the field, having come from Paducah, Ky., where he served for years as minister of the Nineteenth and Broadway Church of Christ, one of the largest in Kentucky. A native of Texas, he has many friends in this section and was for 10 years minister at Colorado City. Despite his long service in Kentucky, Harvey's interests still continued in Texas and he welcomed the call to duty back in this area.

Although this will be his first charge in Texas, the Rev. J. E. McCoy, preaching his first sermons today at the First Christian church, has served in the southwestern atmosphere. A graduate of Phillips university where he received three degrees including bachelor of religion degree, he became pastor of the Wagoner, Okla., First Christian church and under his pastorate a steady growth was accomplished. A comparatively young minister, the Rev. McCoy is an enthusiastic young people's worker. This morning he will speak on "The Threat in the Message of God," and in the evening he will use as his subject "The All-Inclusive Love of God."

The Rev. Dee Carpenter, who two weeks ago became pastor at West Side Baptist church, will speak on "The Builder" at the 11 a. m. hour and on "Sowing and Reaping" at the 9 p. m. service. Sunday school is at 9:45 a. m. and other services during the day include a 4 p. m. meeting of the executive committee and the training union at 8 p. m.

Women of the church start their observance of the state mission week of prayer at the church. Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. men of the church will meet to organize a Brotherhood. Teachers meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday will be followed half an hour later by prayer meeting. Representatives plan to attend an associational meeting in Odessa Thursday and at the East 4th Baptist here Friday.

The Assembly of God revival meeting, which is to continue through Sept. 20, goes through its first Sunday today with the Rev. Paul Bruton, Springfield, Mo., leading. Mrs. Bruton is assisting with the music. Starting Monday there will be morning services at 10 o'clock as well as the 8:15 p. m. message, said the pastor, the Rev. Homer Sheats.

For his two topics, the Rev. Dick O'Brien, First Baptist minister, has chosen "The Highway to Peace and Contentment" (morning) and "Not Far From the Kingdom of God" (evening). Next Sunday morning he will begin a series of seven sermons on the "Seven Churches

700 Win Promotions At Naval Base

CORPUS CHRISTI, Sept. 5. (AP)—Approximately 700 enlisted men, representing 44 states, were awarded advancements in military rating at the U. S. naval air station, Corpus Christi, last month. This was the largest number of men receiving promotions in a single month since the "University of the Air" was commissioned 18 months ago.

Most of the enlisted men are engaged primarily in a pilot-training program. However, there are hundreds who attend classes where they are taught trades that will be useful in peacetime.

Your soap may be short on glycerine in the months to come, but it will be soap just the same. The glycerine will be doing its duty against the Germans and Japs wherever the Stars and Stripes flutter above the battle line.

Valley's Cotton Is 90 Percent Ginned

McALLEN, Sept. 5. (AP)—More than 90 percent of the lower Rio Grande Valley's cotton crop has been ginned, in the opinion of John A. Frisby, pioneer McAllen ginner.

Some gin plants have closed down and others are operating only two to four days per week to clean up the remainder of the crop.

Scarcity of pickers was expected to prolong the gathering of the small percentage of the heavy crop which remains in the fields.

Nails are little things, but 4-H club members in Greensburg, Kentucky, recently salvaged 3,125 pounds of them from the ruins of a burned tobacco warehouse to help keep the steel mills going.

Woman With Boy In Service Urges Establishment Of Soldier Center

(Editor's Note: The Herald has received the following communication from a local woman who signed her name but who preferred to be known as "one of the Little People." It advocates establishment of a recreation center for soldiers and makes an offer of equipment. Believing that a task exists for all the people on this program, The Herald invites correspondence from any citizen on the subject. Write and give your views, make suggestions on how to handle the program, tell what you can donate. The Herald would like to publish your letters.)

Dear Sirs:
Your editorial in Sept. 2 issue concerning a recreation center for service men is one of the things especially near my heart. I am not alone. The subject has been mentioned to me by young women who would like to be friendly but who feel—rightly so, I believe—that they can not afford to invite strangers into their homes indiscriminately lest their motives be misunderstood by all concerned. Including the neighbors.

As an older woman with a son in service I feel that I see all sides of the question. My boy has written me: "The only thing about this that ever depresses me is not having a place to sit down and talk with people, and never seeing the inside of a home. If we carry on a conversation, it has to be standing at a bar."

Many of us who aren't leaders make excellent followers. I will give part of my time to this. Also, I will donate the use of a typewriter for the service men, and will furnish writing paper and envelopes.

I think we should have this recreation center down in town and furnished as nearly like a living room in a home as is possible. Doubtless many homes could spare a piece of furniture for this, and perhaps some of the business houses would donate small cheap items. All of it should be kept on a very reasonable basis, as we know we'd have to make up the money somehow for rent and utilities.

Sincerely,
ONE OF THE LITTLE PEOPLE.

Minister—For years pastor at Paducah, Ky., J. D. Harvey has returned to Texas to become minister of the Church of Christ here. He served 10 years as pastor at Colorado City before he moved to the Paducah church, one of the largest in Kentucky. He preaches his first sermons in his new church today.

All-Out Junk Drive Slated In Colorado

COLORADO CITY, Sept. 5 — An all-out Labor Day scrap rally has been proclaimed by Mayor J. A. Sadler of Colorado City for Monday. All stores in the town will be closed from 1 until 4 p. m. while a block to block canvass will be made by members of the defense guard, the boy scouts and the camp fire girls. The rally will open with a band concert by the high school band.

Dr. Harry A. Logsdon, commander of the Green C. Hooker post of the American Legion, will lead a unique ceremony scheduled for 3 o'clock at which time the legionnaires will consign to the junk heap the old German cannon which has stood as a relic of World War I on the lawn of the legion hut for the past 16 years. The old field artillery piece which once showered death in the direction of the allies in the fields of France, together with machine guns and other obsolete arms, will go to war again via the steel and iron mills.

City trucks will call for scrap metal which the citizens are unable to bring into the heap. The donation pen pile has been growing steadily through recent weeks and already boasts an estimated 100,000 pounds, stacked high on a downtown street corner.

The drive here is being directed by Frank Kelley, Mitchell county salvage committee chairman, Mayor Sadler and T. R. Haggard, U. S. D. A. war board chairman. Over 2,000,000 pounds of junk metal was shipped out of Colorado City during the earlier drive, most of it through junk dealers.
