Scout troops 551, of Spearman spent the weekend earning their Historical Trail Award by spending two days and one night on the Old Dodge City, Tascosa Trail. The trek was started by visiting the site of Old Hansford and with a short review of Hansford County. The scouts were picked up and transported to the Golf Course Road bridge where their hiking began on

Texas, California and New York lead the nation in the number of advertisements for fraudulent health items carried in publications, according to a recent Food and Drug (FDA) study.

As a reult of a survey of the nation's newspapers and magazines, the FDA identified advertising for fraudulent items in publications ranging from the small weekly newspapers to multimillioncirculation magazines.

According to the FDA, weightloss products are the most popular items being promoted by fraud artists. Body wraps, sauna suits, waist wraps and vibrating belts are among the items heavily advertis-

Yet, there is not scientific or clinical evidence to support the use of these devices for controlling weight. There is also no data to back up promoters' claims that these products will eliminate cellulite and bulging fat, make spot reduction possible or control ap-

Diet pills are another widely advertised health fraud. The "grapefruit pill" diet accounted for almost half of the weight loss ads surveyed in the FDA study.

Hair restoration schemes for restorers or clincs are next in popularity to diet hoaxes the study shows. However, the FDA has advised consumers that no product has ever been approved as safe and effective for preventing baldness or restoring hair.

Other advertisements included those for wrinkle removers, hypnosis plan, and offers of quick ways to treat heart disease, arthritis, alcoholism, depression and high blood pressure. In addition to wasting millions of dollars on these products, consumers may not be receiving the legitimate health care they need.

The FDA is now listing product recalls, seizures and other regulatory actions in its weekly Enforcement Report. In addition to taking regulatory or legal actions against the promoters of these products, they hope to do a little advertising of their own to warn consumers about health frauds.

When it comes to the extravagant, misleading and sometimes dangerous claims from manufacturers of dietary products, government consumer protection goes only so far.

Three federal agencies have some jurisdiction over all advertis-Three federal agencies have some jurisdiction over all advertising and labeling, and ther merchandising of mail-order products. They are in the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), and the U.S. Postal Service. All three agencies handle complaints on a case by case basis.

The FDA can block interstate commerce of unproven drug products. It can also seize products which are hazardous or misbranded with false healing claims. But the FDA has been stopped by Congress and the courts from requiring that high-dosage vitamin supplements be labeled and regulated as drugs.

Kenda Ketron attends Mary Kay meet

Kenda Ketron of Spearman Tx., an independent beauty consultant for Mary Kay Cosmetics, has just returned home from three days of intensive sales and product training in Dallas a a participant in Mary Kay's 1985 national seminar.

More than 30,000 independent beauty consultants and sales directors flocked to Dallas between July 22 and August 3 to attend one of four consecutive three-day meetings. In keeping with the company's commitment to recognize outstanding business women, this year's multi-million dollar seminar was appropriately entitled "Applause, Applause!"

To enable Ms. Ketron, who joined Mary Kay in October 1983, to build her Mary Kay business in the months ahead, dozens of specialized classes were held each day in product knowledge, Color awareness, sales training, business management, goal setting and other valuable tools for business success.

Besides intensive training, founder and Chairman of the Board Mary Kay Ash also uses the annual meeting to personally reward and recognize the outstanding achievers of the past year. During four identical Awards Nights extravaganzas, the company distributed more than a million dollars in fur coats and jackets, luxury vacations, shopping sprees and gold and diamond jewelry.

Quilt Block Contest Set

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are cosponsoring a Panhandle Sesquicentennial Quilt Block Contest in honor of Texas' 150th birthday. According to JoAnne Arasim, the Museum's Curator of Textiles, the contest is one of the Museum's official Sesquicentennial events, and it is the only Panhandle-wide activity planned for the 1986 Sesquicentennial Celebration.

Quilt block competitions will be held in each of the top 26 counties of the Texas Panhandle, according to Becky Saunders, Clothing Specialist with the Extension Service. Extension Agents in each county are announcing and promoting the contest beginning July 29, she said. Anyone is eligible to enter, with the exception of Extension Agents, Museum staff, and their families. Deadlines for submiotting entries will be set by each individual County Agent, Saunders

Each entrant is asked to create one or more quilt blocks representing a specific characteristic of her or his county. A panel of three judges, chosed by each County Extension Agent, will select the top three blocks in each county. Entries will be judged on overall appearance, workmanship, originality of design, adherence to theme, appropriateness of material and use of color.

The first place blocks will be sent to the Museum in Canyon on February 1, 1986, where they will become part of a 30-block Sesquicentennial Quilt. Thus, each of the top 26 counties will have a representative block, with the remaining 4 blocks representing the Museum, the Extension Service, the Sesquicentennial, and the Quilt project itself.

The Extension Service has issued general rules for the competition, Saunders noted. The rules pertain to such things as the size of the blocks, seam allowances, color, type of applique, type of fabric, and so forth. In addition, the Extension Service has prepared a detailed outline entitled "Tips for Making a Winning Quilt Block," which will assist in making the entries consistent, she said.

The Museum and Extension Service are planning a "quilting bee" for February 22-23, 1986, Arasim noted. Area quilters will come to the Museum to actually finish the Sesquicentennial Quilt, and the public will be able to view and participate in the work as it progresses, she explained. Further details will be announced in the autumn of 1985. Once the Panhandle's Sesquicentennial Quilt has been assembled and finished, it will be on this year, Arasim said. O the 30 quilts selected for the exhibit, 6 were selected at the Museum's Quilt Roundup Day in March, she noted. "Lone Stars," which is sponsored by the Texas Sesquicentennial Quilt Association, will have its Texas premier at the Panhande-Plains Historical Museum on April 27, 1986 and will be on display through June 8, 1986. Mrs. Jessie Tompkins to celebrate 100th birthday

MRS. JESSIE TOMPKINS

On Sunday, August 18,1985, the children and grandchildren of Mrs. Jessie Tompkins will be hosting a one-hundredth birthday celebration in

The festivities will begin at 1:00 p.m. in the Home Demonstration Club Room in Spearman, Texas.

Aunt Jessie, as she is known to many, Mama Jessie, Grandma, and Mother to others, was born in Young County, Texas to Jake and Amanda Mathews. She has experienced many changes throughout the years covered wagons, trains, automobiles, airplanes, and space flights including the walk on the moon; tents and half dug-outs for homes; no bathrooms, running water, electricity, or gas; sparcely settled communities to thickly populated areas and cities.

In the fall of 1901, Jessie's father, Jake, made a business trip to the Panhandle. He was so impressed with this new land that he was determined to make it his home. He bought a farm that already has some improvements on it, including a small one house and half dug-out. He had a well dug, so water would be available when he returned with his family.

On his return to Young County, Jake sold his thriving business and comfortable home and made ready to embark on the journey to a new home to help pioneer a new land.

In June of 1901, everything was in readiness. Jake and his wife Amanda, their son Frank, his wife Maude, and their baby son Dewey, and two of their daughters Cora and Jessie, packed all their belongings, loaded them on covered wagons, and with extra horses and a cow, they were ready to begin their journey. Jake and Amanda traveled in an old buggy. The others drove the wagons.

The other members of the family didn't share Jake's enthusiasm. They missed their comfortable home. Jessie states that she hasn't liked "camping out" since, even the gh there were some enjoyable times.

Many unusual and experiences were encountered along

When they arrived at the Brazos Rover, they found it so swollen from heavy rains that crossing seemed impossible. But Jake, not being a very patient man, decided that they could 'make it''. The river was so deep that only the horses' heads could be seen above water. It was a very frightening experience, but the crossing was safely made with not one wagon

The storms were terrifying. They had never seen a dirt storm nor encountered such high winds. The thunderstorms, with lightening such as they had never seen before, was an experience they never forgot.

Fortunately, the Indian problem had already been solved.

After thirteen days on the road, they arrived at their "new home" in Hutchinson County, Texas - a small one room rock house.

It was late when they arrived and there was no wood to build a fire, so much to the astonishment and discomfort of the female membrs of

To God a note of Thanks Mrs. E.A. Greever

Friends the thought this week we find in Psalms Chapter 34 verses 12 and 13. What man is he that desireth life and loveth many days that he may see good? Keep thy tongue from evil and thy lips from speaking guile. In Pro 18:21 we read Death and Like are in the power of the tongue and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof. Pro 12:19 the lip of truth shall be established forever but a lying tongue is but for a moment. Pro. 21:23 whose keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul forever. Pro. 10:20-21 The tongue of the just is as choice silver. The lips of the righteous feed many. These are Testament scriptures. In the New Testament we read James tells us a number of things about the tongue. Chapter 3, in many things we offend all and if we offend not in word we are perfect and able also to bridle the whole body.

He tells us bits we put in the horses moth that they may obey us and that large ships when driven by fierce winds are turned about with a very small helm. Even so the tongue is a little member and boasteth great things. Behold how great a matter a little fire kindleth the tongue a fire a world of iniquity so is the tongue among our members that it defileth the whole body and setteth on fire the course of nature and it is set on fire of hell. He tells us beasts, birds, serpents and things in the sea hath been tamed of mankind. But the tongue can no man tame an unruly evil full of dead by poison. Please read the remainder of the Chap. commencing at verse 9.

We read the words of Jesus in Matt 12:34 A generation of vipers how can ye being evil speak good things: For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. So we can plainly see by words found in Gods word and by the words we speak and can also know whether or not we desire good and life (now and eternal) or evil and the second death in the lake of fire. Rev. 2:11 - Re. 20:14-15.

Guile-deceit talk or conduct. The following scriptures on this line of thought Psalms 32:2 Blessedis the man in whose spirit there is no guile. Jno 1:47 Jesus saw Nathanael and Israeite indeed in whom is no guile 1 Peter 2:1 Wherefore laying aside all malice and all guile and hypocrisies and envies and all evil speakings as new born babes desire the sincere milk of the word that ye may grow there by. 11 Peter 1:21-22 Forever here to were ye called because Christ also suffered for us leaving us an example that we should follow his steps. Who did no sin neither was guild found in his mouth. Now 1 Peter 3:10 really answers the subject mentioned for he that will love life and see good days let him refrain his tongue from evil and his life that they speak no guile. So as is written in Psalms Chapter 19 verse 14 we should pray let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight Lord my strength my redeemer.

Also as is written in Psalms 90 verse 12. So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto. In Psalms 39 verse 1 David said I will take heed to my ways that I sin not with my tongue I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me.

Jesus said blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God Matt. 5:8. O how I long to see him, don't you?

Marriage Encounter

"I would like to offer the strongest endorsement for a program called Marriage Encounter...this program is the best I ve seen for improving the quality of communication within the family."

Dr. James C. Dobson author of dare to Discipline and president of Focus on the Family, from his book Love Must Be Tough.

Spearman area couples are being offered a unique opportunity to participate in a Marriage Encounter weekend September 7th and 8th. Spearman First Christian Church is sponsoring the event at Perryton's Ambassador Inn. The Marriage Encounter begins Saturday, September 7th with registration at 8 a.m. and continues until Sunday, September, 8th at 5 p.m.

Marriage Encounter is a Christian Movement, open to couples of all faiths, designed to give married persons the opportunity to examine their lives together in a face-to-face, heart-to-heart encounter with the one person they have chosen to live with for the rest of their lives. The emphasis is on communication between husband and wife and, except for introductions, participants are not asked to share with anyone but their spouses. Three team couples from the Fort Worth area, trained and prepared beforehand, set the atmosphere for open and loving dialogue.

Marriage Encounter is for all marriages, for all couples who desire to deepen their love. There is no age limit. Newly-married couples and couples married over 50 years have make Encounters.

"Frankly, I attended [Marriage encounter] for professional reasons, not expecting to get anything relevant to my wife and me. If there is anything I felt Shirley and I didn't need it was help in communicating. I have rarely been so wrong."

Dr. Dobson
The Marriage Encounter is developed in the following cycle:

1 Presentation
The team shares their personal experiences relating to a particular aspect of married life, then gives questions pertaining to the talk.

2 Personal Reflection

Each person individually is given time to reflect and write down his/her personal feelings in response to the questions.

3 Couple Dialogue

In the privacy of their own rooms, the spouses are given time to exchange notebooks and dialogue in an effort to better understand each other.

"The beauty of the Marriage Encounter is that it has the ability to float to wherever the need is greatest."

Dr. Dobson

This Marriage Encounter is unique in that ordinarily couples have to travel to large cities to attend. This Encounter, through the efforts of Spearman First Christian's education committee, is being brought from the big city to our rural area. The team couples receive no salary for their time or effort. They believe strongly in the benefits of Marriage Encounter and are eagerly anticipating their trip to share with Spearman area couples.

To make reservations for this Marriage Encounter weekend or for further information, call Bob and Candy Boxwell at 659-3450, Larry and Marsha Murphy at 659-3972 or First Christian Church at 659-2036. A $20.00 registration fee is requested and will be applied toward the cost of the weekend. The approximate total weekend cost is $125. per couple, including all meals, lodging and supplies from 8 a.m. Saturday through 5 p.m. Sunday. Registration deadline is August 24 and enrollment is limited to 20 couples.

Marriage Encounter is a gift that husband and wife give to each other a gift of time, free from the tensions, pressures and interruptions so often present at home; a gift of time to share themselves - their hopes and fears, frustrations, joys and sorrows.

"When we come together and renewed our commitment for the future [at the Marriage Encounter weekend]...Shirley and I experienced one of the most emotional moments of our lives. It was a highlight of our twenty-one years together, and neither of us will ever forget it."

Attorney General Jim Mattox has announced a new program involving a "bill of rights" for victims of crimes.

Mattox announced the new program at a recent news conference, held in conjunction with the statewide meeting of People Against Violent Crimes, a citizens' or ganization. Joining Mattox at the news conference were representatives of People Against Violent Crimes, including founder and director Nell Myers, who presented Mattox with a plaque of appreciation from the organization for Mattox's work to assist victims of violent crimes.

The new "bill of rights" cards for crime victims were developed by Mattox in an effort to better inform victims and families of victims about certain rights they have in the Texas criminal justice system. The "bill of rights" was made possible by passage of a law during the 69th session of the legislature, a bill sponsored by Rep. Frank Tejeda of San Antonio and Sen. John Montford of Lubbock.

The 10 rights are spelled out on cards that will be distributed statewide by Mattox's Office, in public buildings such as libraries and by cooperation law enforcement agencies.

"For far too long in this country, the criminal justice system has not taken the rights of crime victims into consideration," Mattox said. "That is beginning to change now, with the advent of organizations like People Against Violent Crimes and with increased media attention to victime.

to victims.

"I am hopeful that this new bill of rights for crime victims will be widely distributed so that victims will know that they don't have to be ignored," Mattox said. "They have a right to be informed about

Pioneer adds vaccines to products

The Microbial Genetics Division of Pioneer Hi-Bred International, Inc., will now distribute a line of biological products formerly sold by Diamond Laboratories.

Lionel Lane, microbial products department manager for the Southwestern Division of Pioneer in Plainview, Texas, said the Diamond line of animal health products has been added to the line of microbial products already being sold by Pioneer.

He said the vaccines will be distributed under the Diamond label until early 1986, at which time the products will be distributed under the Pioneer label.

Lane said the vaccines are developed by using advanced biotechnology from Advanced Genetics Research Institute (AGRI). He added that Diamond's vaccines and other products enable Pioneer to offer its customers a much wider spectrum of animal health products.

"We see this new marketing partnership as an opportunity to offer livestock producers the most advanced animal health programs available from biological research today," said Lane.

"The complimentary effect of using our Probios brand microbial cultures with safe and effective vaccines provides new opportunities for improving animal health and productivity."

Diamond Laboratories was recently sold by Syntex Agribusiness, Inc., to AGRION Corp. of Oakland, Calif. AGRICON renamed the company Diamond Scientific. Pioneer owns an equity position in AGRION.

Lane noted that Diamond Scientific will continue to manufacture the line of animal health vaccines in cooperation with AGRI, another AGRION company. He said Diamond Scientific plans to develop new products and a new generation of vaccines along the same line.

GTE begins using "zip+4"

Most General Telephone customers are seeing their nine digit zip code for the first time on recent telephone statements as the company begins using the U.S. Postal Service's "Zip +4" program to reduce postal expenses and expedite delivery.

The expanded zip code has several advantages for high volume users, including a half cent postage discount and more complete customer address identification that allows sophisticated postal equipment to scan or read the information and direct it to its destination on a more timely basis.

General Telephone mails over a million customer bills each month and can reduce the impact of the recent increase in postal expenses by taking advantage of the discounts offered for using the additional four digit postal identification and presorting by zip codes.

The company will receive overall discounts of 42 cents per piece by presorting by zip code and using the addiltional four digits, which in turn reduces the amount of handling required by the postal service.

However, even by taking advantage of the discounts, the company's postal expenses continue to rise. The recent two-cent postal increase was partially offset by a penny increase in the presorting discount. An additional half cent will be saved by using the Zip + 4 program, leaving the company with a half cent increase in costs, or about $65,000 annually. The nine-digit codes give a more precise location of customer mailing addresses. The five digit code used by most individuals allows identification of the state, town and section of town. The first two numbers of the four digit extension identify a delivery sector. which can be several blocks, a group of streets, several office buildings or a small geographic area. The last two digits identify a delivery segment, such as one side of a street, one floor of an office building, specific departments in a firm or a group of post office boxes.
