PEDDY'S BUTANE AND OIL CO.

-Aubrey Peddy-

Aubrey Peddy Is Neighbor On the Job

Mr. WORK in person is your neighbor on the job this week—he's just an old country boy who came up to West Texas from the cotton country back in 1929, and didn't have any more sense than to work hard and despite his association, his many examples of taking life easy, the old country boy is still on the job about all the day light hours and a great many of the night hours. If you have stopped to think you have located Aubrey Peddy—owner and manager of a pretty large gas, and oil, butane and car accessory business; planter of cotton, wheat, maize, and most every thing that grows—and in the drought lots of seed that never grows—but Aubrey takes it all in his stride and does not gripe about the hard times and the bad weather conditions.

Aubrey came to Gruver from Hardman County Texas, near Chillicothe in 1929 and began working for his uncle as a wholesale Oil and Gas Business. He has been at the job as worker and owner of a Wholesale and Retail gas and oil business most of the years since he arrived in Gruver.

He is married and he and Mrs. Peddy have three fine children: Don an 18 year old son, former football star at Gruver and now a college student at Goodwell, Oklahoma A. and M. another son, Byron, age 14 who is a Freshman at Gruver high school and a daughter, Kathryn, age 10 years who is a 4th grade student at Gruver grade school.

Mr. and Mrs. Peddy and the children are members of the Methodist church and have ever been active in the church work at Gruver. Aubrey is a Steward of the church and has served as Steward during the past 6 years, having been one of the hard working members of the Board who successfully help plan and finance one of the outstanding church plants for a city the size of Gruver in the state of Texas.

Aubrey has been very active in the Gruver Chamber of Commerce and has served on most of the Committees of the organization, as well as most all the offices of the organization. Aubrey is one of the most sincere members of the Masonic Order, and has given a great deal of his time and ability towards the reinstatement of the Gruver Masonic Lodge and the work of planning and building the outstanding Masonic Temple at Gruver. He is now serving the order as District Deputy Grand Master of the order and has served in all the offices of the Gruver lodge including Worshipful Master.

Aubrey is at the present time President of the Hansford County Shriners club. He has been a member of the Gruver School Board for the past 3 years during the time that the school plant has had such outstanding growth and expansion. Aubrey is also a member of the Hansford County Hospital Board, which requires a bit of his time. It is a little difficult to know just how Aubrey does all the outside work for the civic and religious betterment of his community and does not neglect his own business; but he has excellent help in his organization and despite the outside activities, Aubrey devotes a good many hours in supervision of the wholesale and retail gas and oil and butane business.

O. B. Blunt, who is quite efficient and skilled is one of the assistants at the business institution. Blunt has been with Aubrey for the past 5 years, and is well liked and respected in the Gruver area. Another efficient man, trained to look work right in the face and get along with his fellowman is Omar Hays, who has been with the Peddy organization for a little more than one year.

While the business specializes on Wholesale and retail Gas and Oil and Butane and Propane gas, the station located in the large Quonset Hut building at the south edge of the Gruver business district, carries a lot of automobile and truck accessories, and maintains agency for the Nationally known Olympic T. V. and radio sets. The business has the sales and service of the well known Manitowac line of deep freeze equipment.

Peddy has full line of Firestone tires for cars, trucks and tractors and features the Willard line of car and truck batteries. The business has the wholesale and retail outlet for the Patena Corporation gas and oil, and maintain a complete line of several other lines of lubricants including the famous Amalie oils and R. P. M. oils. Aubrey finds time to sponsor a civic pot program, and this year as well as last year he has worked hard on the state School Free Public School program. The program this year will begin with the opening of the public schools in the county, and under the supervision of Mr. Peddy, the public will become conscious of the great blessings we have in our public FREE schools.

September 4th and 7th are the dates set for the big Ninth Annual Boys' Ranch Rodeo.

All the boys from America's First Boys' Ranch will take a two-day break from their ranch activities to give the people in this area a first-hand look into what kind of cowboys they really are when they present their Ninth Annual Rodeo in Amarillo, Texas, over the Labor Day weekend.

There will be two complete performances. One at 2:30 p. m., Sunday, Sept. 4th and one at 8:00 p. m., Monday, Sept. 7th at the Tri-State Fair Rodeo Rogers Range Riders are sponsors of the rodeo but the complete show will be put on entirely by the young cowboys from Boys' Ranch.

The boys participate in every event that is seen in any professional show plus add special attractions such as trick riding, roping and clown acts. There will be no absence of thrill and spills because the boys will be competing for prize money and for the honor of best all-around cowboy.

Besides the regular rodeo events, special added attractions will keep the show moving at a fast pace. Some of these attractions will be professional people coming to Amarillo just for the Boys' Ranch Rodeo.

Excitement is running high among the boys because many will be participating in their first rodeo. The boys, representing 21 states and three foreign countries, promise an action-studded show. All proceeds will be used for the Boys' Ranch expansion which will help provide facilities for many more boys.

Congressman Hope Here For Sept. Field Day PanTech Farms

Congressman Clifford R. Hope, chairman of the House Committee on Agriculture, has sent word to H. M. Nichols, president of the 4 county Agricultural Workers Council, stating he will be present at the Southwest Field days at PanTech Farms on September 11 and 12. The Congressman told Nichols last spring he would try to be present but the letter received over the last weekend was a final statement on the matter.

It is doubtful if there is a person as well known in agricultural circles in the United States today as Congressman Hope of Kansas. He is a sound thinker and a good listener. He knows the problems of farmers and ranchers and is doing something about it. No one stampedes this long-time member of the Congress. When he makes a statement he does so after some honest thinking on the subject. His home is in Garden City, Kansas, is so well acquainted with the problems peculiar to the plains.

Congressman Hope will arrive on Friday September 11 and will stay over for the breakfast meeting of the Flying Farmers of the Southwest in Borger, Saturday morning. The Congressman will speak at PanTech Farms at the time of the coronation of the "Sweetheart of the Soil", the Queen of the Southwest. This program will open at eight o'clock the evening of September 11. He will also appear at the old fashioned barn dance the young people of the area will hold following the crowning of the Queen. All events with the exception of the Flying Farmers breakfast will be at PanTech Farms just north of St. Francis on U. S. Highway No. 60, in Carson County, Texas.

The Flying Farmers will leave Borger in time to witness the finale of the Stable-mulch Plowing Contest and the Tractor and Tractor Contests for 4-H and PFA boys Saturday. Proceeding these contest finals, Dean W. L. Stangel of Texas Technological College will present Congressman Walter Rogers of Pampa, Texas, who will lead a discussion on Farm Programs. Congressman Rogers has worked hard for the residents of this area and is truly a friend of those engaged in agriculture.

All were guests in the J. H. Buchanan home Sunday. Also present were the Paul Buchanans of Whitewater, John Allen and family of Guymond, and Tom Jarvis and Euri Buchanan of Stinnett.

Your Senator Reports BY Lyndon B. Johnson

Texas Water Problem No. 1 (Editor's Note: This is one of a series of articles based on a Bureau of Reclamation survey of the Texas water problem, made at the request of Senator Johnson.) Drought or no drought, Texas has—potentially—plenty of water. Over the long pull, we would have more than enough water to meet all our needs—if we conserved it properly and if we had a system of distributing it to the places where it could be used profitably. When I entered the Senate in 1949, I had back of me some experience with water development on the Colorado River. I knew a little something of the water needs of Texas. I knew something of the benefits that result from solution of water problems. I felt a long-range program of water conservation and use was one of our State's fundamental needs.

APPRAISAL OF PROBLEM One of the first things I did as a Senator was to ask the Department of the Interior to have its Bureau of Reclamation make an appraisal of the Texas water problem.

A report of the Bureau's study shows Texas is using only a relatively small fraction of its potential water resources. That is true despite the fact that we are using water in Texas at a rate two and one-half times as great as our rate of use in 1940.

Believe it or not, water used in Texas amounts to only about 15 per cent of the yearly discharge of streams that border or originate in the State. The remaining 85 per cent makes its way into the Gulf and is lost to Texas.

TEXAS DRAINAGE SYSTEM Texas has 15 major drainage basins. They may be divided into three groups: (1) those belonging to the Mississippi River system, including the Canadian and Red Rivers; (2) those rising in Texas and flowing into the Gulf; (3) the Rio Grande and its tributaries.

TEXAS HAS WITHIN ITS BOUNDARIES more streams of appreciable size than any other State. Texas has wholly within its boundaries a greater part of the streams that touch its surface than any other State.

That is where our surface water comes from. It is more than enough to meet all our foreseeable needs if we will conserve it for our use.

For some years I have been telling everyone who would listen that water is more important to Texas than oil. We will be needing and using water long after our valuable petroleum resources have been exhausted.

ALL TEXAS AFFECTED The water problem is directly Texas.

It affects the mother with a thirsty child—and the rancher with thousands of head of thirsty cattle. It affects the man who wants to wash his car on a Saturday afternoon—and the chemical industry on the Gulf Coast using perhaps 100,000,000 gallons of water per day.

Above everything else, we must have water—plenty of water where it is most needed and when it is most needed. Coordinated Program Needed Up to now, there has been no coordinated Federal-State water conservation program. We need one—badly. In fact, we must have one if we hope really to solve our water problem.

The Bureau of Reclamation report suggests such a program.

This appraisal may not hold all the answers, but it does at least give a basis for action.

It opens a path that can lead to a permanent solution of the recurring problem of water shortage in Texas. That is a path which we in Texas—for the sake of our own future—must follow.

Texas Water Problem No. 2 The Texas farm economy is vitally affected by the fact that our State now uses only 15 per cent of its potential water supply. The remaining 85 per cent runs off into the Gulf of Mexico, and is lost to the State. At present, some 2,700,000 acres of land are cultivated under irrigation in Texas. Production from this irrigated acreage accounts for 40 per cent of the gross Texas farm income from harvested land.

GROUND WATER DEPLETION Two-thirds of the irrigated acreage is based on water resources. These resources are being gradually depleted by irrigation water demands. Production from this land therefore cannot logically be considered a permanent part of the future agricultural economy of Texas.

The picture I present is clear and unpleasant. Texas faces an eventual substantial reduction in farm income unless ground water irrigation can be replaced with irrigation using surface waters. Present rates of Texas farm income can be maintained only if new surface water supplies, is brought about.

CAN BE DONE The appraisal of the Texas water problem by the Bureau of Reclamation declares this can be accomplished. But, the report cautions, this replacement of ground water irrigation with surface water irrigation represents one of the primary water supply problems in Texas.

If the surface water supplies of Texas were fully utilized, we could bring another million acres of land under irrigation. At the same time, we could meet the vast water requirements of our expanding industry and the water needs of our growing municipalities.

Must Feed More People The Nation needs the food and fibers produced on the land already under irrigation in Texas. With a continuing expansion of our economy, the Nation also will need the food and fibers that could be produced on the additional million acres of land susceptible to irrigation. If full use were made of our State's potential water supplies.

Where we feed four persons today, we must feed five by the year 1975. Where we used 402,000,000 acres of farmland in 1950, we will require the production from 572,000,000 acres in 1975. The potential added production from Texas will be badly needed.

The Bureau of Reclamation appraisal is firm in concluding that only a relatively small proportion of Texas' water requirements can be permanently supplied from ground water at a reasonable and predictable cost. It follows that most of the State's water supplies eventually must come from surface sources—floods that 85 per cent of our potential water supply now allowed to drain off into the Gulf. Texas and the Nation cannot afford to allow such a loss to continue.

Don't Name It

There is talk of Roy Chase making 120 bu. of Maize per acre. It is not idle boasting on the part of Mr. Chase, but Soil Conservationist Bill Ray measured a certain amount of the ground, estimated the size of heads, counted the number of heads, and the number of heads would be at harvest time and informed Mr. Chase that he could prepare to make 120 bu. per acre from his Maize. Roy has not hardly stopped his pump since it was installed on his place, and the deep penetration of moisture is paying off.

It is most pitiful to see such fine feed shrivel up and die. Guess there are dry land fields all over the country, but this editor passes Lee McClellan feed nearly every day, and it looked like the promising feed in the country for a long time. Now it is gone. The value of a well can be observed by looking across from Lee's field of maize to the field that is watered on Bud Jackson's place. The Jackson maize will make a crop and the McClellan Maize will be just another Noble experiment.

I positively could not recommend anyone investing in a water well, cause I know from first hand experience that it requires so much work that it would be a task. Believe it is a paying proposition, but there surely is some easier way to make money than to work so hard at irrigation. Course I am independent. I only work for my son just as much as I want to and can quit right in the middle of a border—so it's a pleasure for me, but for the man that tries to operate 220 acres from a deep well it sure is lots of grief and worry.

Believe we are headed for plenty of wheat pasture this year. I can point out some mighty good stands of wheat already started in the country, and guarantee them and others informed we they were planting the past week-end, it is about the earliest planting of wheat this writer has ever witnessed in Hansford county.

markable capacity for finding the middle ground," said Senator Albert Gore of Tennessee, who added: "As quickly as any man I know, he can reach the heart of an issue, and as effectively as any man I have ever known, he can hold the friendship, esteem, and loyalty of those with whom he finds himself in disagreement."

"In every instance," declared Senator George A. Smathers of Florida, "he has put the welfare of our Nation above the welfare of our own party, and in so doing has given the party the best possible leadership."

Other Senators joining in lauding Senator Johnson's work during the session included Senator Francis Green of Rhode Island, Mike Mansfield of Montana, Lester Hill of Alabama, Herbert H. Lehman of New York, John F. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, Dennis Chavez of New Mexico, Stuart Symington of Missouri, Clyde T. Hoyer of North Carolina, Edwin C. Lyndon Johnson Receives Praise From Colleagues Glowing tribute to the work of Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, Senate Democratic Leader, was paid by his fellow-Senators, both Democrats and Republicans, in the closing hours of the recent session of Congress.

The Texas senior Senator's leadership was hailed by a number of his colleagues as the factor which brought about enactment of several proposals sponsored by President Eisenhower.

Senator Richard B. Russell of Georgia declared Senator Johnson demonstrated in this session that he was a great American before he was a great, loyal, and devoted member of the Democratic Party.

Among those acclaiming the Texas' work during the session was Senator William F. Knowland of California, Republican Leader, who said: "The Senator from Texas has been cooperative, and has put his country ahead of any narrow partnership."

Senator Johnson has a record of 100 "yes" votes in the Senate.

The marriage of Miss Florence Harriett Holton, daughter of Richard Harrison Holton of the Grand Avenue road and Johnnie Dale Davidson, son of Mrs. James Monroe Davidson of Spearman, Texas, was solemnized at 3 o'clock last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Grace F. (L.)

mer, 1248 South Garrison. The Rev. Eugene G. Malcolm, pastor of Grace Episcopal church, officiated, reading the double ring ceremony. As a prelude, the candles were lighted by Michael Batchelder and Stephen McLaughlin. Charles Yarbrough sang "O Promise me." by De Koven and "Because" by d'Hardelot, with Mrs. H. Lyle Stark as the organist. Mrs. Stark also played organ selections before and during the ceremony. Palms and arrangements of gladioli, carnations and asters, all in white, were backed against the trellis to form a background for the ceremony. Two large seven-branch brass candelabra, at either side of the mantle held burning tapers. The bride was given in marriage by Julian Miller of Cassville. The bridal gown was of ivory Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over ivory faille taffeta. The gown was fashioned with a snugly fitted bodice looped and buttoned from the Queen Anne's collar to the waist. The long sleeves extended to a point over the hands. Satin loops and buttons also trimmed the sleeves. The voluminous double skirt was of the tulle. The top skirt was appliqued with lace extending into a point front back and sides. Her fingertip veil was of silk illusion attached to a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white mums, tied with white satin ribbon.

Paula Elizabeth Yarbrough, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yarbrough, was the flower girl. Her frock was ankle-length of white nylon net over taffeta. The bodice was fitted with an off the shoulder effect with short puff sleeves. The neckline was trimmed with double ruffles of net and the skirt was lavishly trimmed with the same white ruffled fabric. She wore a bonnet shaped hat underfaced with ruffles and carried a small basket of pink rose petals. Mrs. Elmer and her mother, Mrs. Mary F. Willbar, entertained the wedding guests at a reception following the ceremony. The refreshment table was covered with an imported Italian outdoor cloth brought from China by the bride's cousin, the late Col. Edward C. Elmer, Jr., and the punch by Mrs. Thomas Moss. Also assisting were Mrs. Lance Miles and Mrs. Julian Miller, the latter of Cassville. Miss Rachel Thornton was in charge of the guest book. There were 50 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson left for a wedding trip in Colorado and for traveling the bride wore a beautiful blue faille suit trimmed in navy velvet. Her hat was of matching velvet and her other accessories were brown. White carnations formed her corsage. They will be at home after Sept. 1, in Okmulgee, Okla.

The bride was graduated from the Spearman High School and Mr. Davidson from Matador, Texas, high school. He now is a student at Oklahoma A & M School of Technology, Okmulgee. During World War II Mr. Davidson served five years in the U. S. Army Air Force.

Miss Rachel Thornton entertained Wednesday night Aug. 13, at her home, 713 South Main street for the former Miss Holton. Invited guests were Mrs. Walter R. Bailey, Mrs. James Kitchner, Mrs. Grace F. Elmer, Mrs. Edwin C. Elmer, Jr., Mrs. Thomas Moss, Mrs. Richard Frazier, Mrs. Laurence Frazier and Mrs. Lance Miles. Each guest presented the guest of honor with her favorite recipe and in a game she also was given a large assortment of gift suitable for the kitchen. The entire group gave her a gift of pottery. AUSTIN, Tex.—Texas politics appear calm on top. Only a ripple indicates the seething turmoil under the surface.

Such a ripple is the announcement by George W. Sandlin of Austin, secretary of the State Democratic Executive Committee, that the group will meet September 11 in Mineral Wells.

Small space was occupied in the newspaper by the announcement, which was casual in tone. Sandlin said the purpose of the gathering was mainly "finding out what the members might have on their minds".

What they might have on their minds might be plenty. It would involve whether the Shivers "conservative" people would retain control of the Democratic Party in Texas, or whether the "liberal-loyalist" faction would regain control.

Hopeful in the political races of next year were concerned—especially prospective candidates for state and national offices.

Politically and otherwise, a great deal depended on the governor's decision as to whether he will run for another term, seek some other office, or retire from the public service.

Several potential candidates are waiting for the governor's announcement before completing their own plans.

Some of the "experts" here said Shivers will try for a third term as governor, because in that position he could exert his influence most effectively in keeping Texas on the "conservative" side with respect to national politics.

A meeting of the executive committee at this time indicates strongly that the political forces are beginning early to prepare for next year's three-sided campaigns, with competition from both Democratic factions and from the Republicans.

Otherwise, there was the business of replacing two members of the executive committee. Mrs. L. E. Tenyson of Clinton resigned because of illness in her family. Peyton McKnight of Quitman left the committee to take a position with Jack Porter of Houston, oil man and national GOP committeeman.

Sandlin's announcement of the Mineral Wells meeting came while Shivers was attending the national governor's conference at Seattle, where President Eisenhower expressed his views on states rights.

The federal government, said the president, should never undertake to do for the states anything that the states can do for themselves.

This was what most of the governors wanted to hear. Shivers, chairman of the conference, had said that the problem of "bringing the government closer to the people" was considered by most of the delegates as the most important question before the meeting.

Governor Dan Thornton of Colorado agreed that there should be decentralization of government, and that the nation is still in danger of "drifting into socialism."

From Seattle came an indication on the part of some of the shivers to enter the presidential race in 1956. Louisiana's Governor R. F. Kennon made the suggestion to support a shivers—thought that has been expressed in Texas and elsewhere before.

Everett L. Looney of Austin, president of the State Bar of Texas, has removed himself as co-counsel for District Judge C. Woodrow Lambuth of Alice.

Looney gave two reasons for his withdrawal: first, he is ill and unable to appear at the outer proceedings; and second, some of the directors of the state bar felt that it was improper for him, as president, to appear in the Laughlin case.

Looney called for a special meeting of the bar directors for August 13 to determine what action if any the lawyers' organization should take in the Laughlin case.

Eleven South Texas attorneys petitioned the Supreme Court to hear a list of complaints against the Alice judge and to consider removing him from office.

The proceedings are scheduled to begin August 17. Laughlin is accused, among other things, of interfering with a grand jury investigation into election matters in his district.

Annexation powers of cities is being studied by the Texas Legislative Council. Laws governing annexation have not been changed for 30 years, and there is need for revision. In the opinion of many, including Representative Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio, Bell told the council that "cities should grow in an orderly way, but we ought to prevent the incorporation of 'parasitic' areas seeking to avoid city taxes while obtaining the benefits of a nearby big city. On the other hand, cities should be stopped from annexing farm territory, or from expanding where there would be no benefit offered to residents of the area."

Findings of the Council will be referred to the next Legislature.

Scheduled in federal court is the National Labor Relations Board's attack on the Texas

"right to work" law. Federal Judge R. E. Thomas of El Paso ordered Attorney General John Brown to appear and testify in regard to an injunction suit filed by the NLRB.

The board by its suit is undertaking to prevent the attorney general from enforcing parts of the law as applied to San Antonio collective bargaining case.

"Texas law in this instance is in conflict with the national labor relations act," the NLRB contended.

Behind the NLRB action are two injunctions forbidding the International Fur and Leathers Workers Union of the United States and Canada from participating in an election to be held by workers of the Nelson Tanning Corporation of San Antonio.

Under present Texas law labor unions are prohibited from operating in the state without first filing a detailed financial and operational report with the secretary of state. And union organizers must file a report and secure an organizer's card before conducting their soliciting activities in Texas.

Another Texas law under attack is the driver responsibility act. The test is going to the U. S. Supreme Court.

D. C. Gillispie of San Antonio is contesting the law, after registration of his family car was suspended because his son, who was driving it, figured in a traffic accident.

Under the law as it now stands, the son must show financial responsibility before the car can be driven by anyone. The Supreme court upheld validity of the law, but Associate Justice G. B. Smedley cleared the way for the case to go to the U. S. Supreme Court.

NLRB action is reported by the Amarillo Daily News of Sunday Aug. 23. This described how Lippig Managed to make good his threat to sue the job of umpire. Construction in Texas for the first half of the year was greater than reported, reported Richard C. Henshaw Jr., of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. No residential building more than counterbalancing a slump in home construction, the report said.

At the same time, Texas Employment Commission reported job placement for June above that of May, but behind that of June last year.

The drop was attributed to payroll cuts in federal and defense establishments, the drought, and other factors.

Out to the golf course. Off for a week-end of fishing. Half across the country on a full-scale vacation. Wherever you go—however you drive—you're going to get there on a lot less gasoline in a fine new Chevrolet.

The truth is, this year's Chevrolet owners are enjoying the most important gain in economy in Chevrolet history. Plus more power. Faster acceleration. More "steam" for the steep hills.

That's the beauty of Chevrolet's two great high-compression engines—the new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine in Powerglide models, and the advanced 108-h.p. "Thrill-King" engine in gearshift models. They squeeze much more out of regular gasoline—more miles, more pleasure.

Along with this greater gas mileage, you get lower overall upkeep costs. And Chevrolet is the lowest-priced line in its field. Drop in and let us show you how you'll be better off in every way with a 1953 Chevrolet!

*Combination of Powerglide automatic transmission and 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine optional on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models at extra cost.

Ted's Tips On Baseball

We are going tearing down the main a bit early on this season's column because three developments of the past week have left us disgusted.

1. The dominance of the major league races by the Dodgers and Yankees. The leads they now possess will spoil the fun in September and we don't think average fan cares whether Casey Stengel's dream of five straight World Series victories comes true or not.

2. The widespread indignation produced by the two year contract given to Leo Durocher as manager of the Giants. We're sure many of our readers read Harry Gilstrap's column in the Amarillo Daily News of Sunday Aug. 23. This described how Lippig Managed to make good his threat to sue the job of umpire. Baseball would be well rid of him. Collapse of Chicago White Sox hopes for American League flag due largely to failure of Ferris to hit and more recently his refusal to obey training rules as evidenced by the tavern brawl in which he broke a finger. It seems a shame that a man who led the league in batting last year can't keep the faith both with his club and the paying customers by staying in condition.

So by way of predictions we'll say that the Yankees will win the world series in 6 games and by way of hope that Plainview will hold on to a spot in the playoff and go on to win the title, in the West Texas-New Mexico League.
