The mighty Massey-Harris 90SP Self-Propelled Combine... truly the giant of the harvest. This superb machine puts real meaning into our slogan, Finest From the First... climaxes 50 years of progress by the first name in combines.

Breeze over your acres of golden grain... harvest upwards of 70 acres a day. And do it the easy way as the hydraulically controlled 16-foot table picks up your crop at record speed. Actually, you must sit at the controls and experience for yourself the superlative way in which this finest of all combines gathers the grain. Only on the 90 will you get an ultra-modern 3-speed automotive type transmission, enclosed live axle drive and hydraulically actuated variable speed drive. Only the 90SP has the straight-through balanced separation principle—37 inch floating elevator, 37-inch concave and cylinder, 37-inch straw walker body and 37-inch shaker shoe. It's built W-I-D-E for clean, fast threshing.

The Seniors sponsored a movie in the auditorium Wednesday. It was sort of an experiment. The seniors sold popcorn, and candy. Mr. Smith told everyone if they would conduct themselves right we could have this another time. The film was "All American Coed". There were 2 short features about Bud Abbott and Lou Costello and the Three Bears. Everyone enjoyed it very much and they're looking forward to having another one soon.

YOUR WAY OF WASHING MAY BE JUST AS OLD-FASHIONED

There was a day when this locomotive was the latest thing in rail transportation. In that day, there was a washday—usually Monday—when everything else stopped while the homemaker went at the backbreaking job of getting the clothes clean. For cleaner clothes—washed when it's convenient for you—try an automatic electric clothes washer.

Say Rosie and Buck, were you enjoying the back seat in the back of Spearman night?? Sounds like Nancy and Pat are getting along very nicely again.
Which boy from Perryon was Janie K. with Saturday night? Could it have been Don Detrick? Nancy Archer. What were you doing at church with Billy Hill Sunday night? Kirleen looked lonesome.
Say, Kay, we hear your admirer from Perryon has been coming over quite a lot lately. What is his name? James Lynch Dodson Jr.??
We saw Joe Mack and Carolyn Wilmeth at the show the other night.
Janis, how are you and Speck doing now??
Marilyn, did you and David enjoy your trip to Borger the other night??
Nadine, do you still go with Kenneth Pearson??
From the reports we get it seems like a part of the Gruber parents are getting quite a charge out of school paper. I wonder why??
Jimmy R. are your hands always cold or why do you always keep them in Mary C. coat pocket.
Larry R. do you like the idea of Ann V. having a niece??
We hear she has to wash diapers all the time and doesn't have time to go with you always.
Say, the style now is to have two drivers and it seems that this is being carried out in Spearman. Especially with Mary C. and Nick H.
Jimmie V. we haven't seen you and Nancy A. together in a long time. What's wrong??
Nancy A. do you have a good time playing canasta with that boy at Quannah??
Ann R. did we see you with Nick H. Sunday night??
Patty G. was real happy about having a letter from C. A. Davis the other day, but she's not the only one who gets letters from him. Several other high school girls do too.
Nell C. what's this we hear about Pinky P. calling you and wanting dates all the time and also stopping you down town? Jay B. had better watch you or he won't have you long.
It's too bad that Robert J. from Perryon has been going with Gigs C. from Perryon for we

Mrs. Cox And Sons Leave For Europe

Mrs. Charles Cox and sons are waiting for February 15th. To most people this date means nothing more than Valentine Day. But to Mrs. Cox, it means her start on a long awaited journey to join her husband, Captain Charles Cox, who has been stationed in French Morocco for the past several months.

Mrs. Cox and sons Charles Jr. and Mike, 9 months, have been in Spearman with her mother, Mrs. Ben Maize since her husband's absence. They will leave Amarillo Feb. 14, and fly to New York. From there they will go by boat to Casablanca arriving about the 26th, then on to North Africa.

All their household goods and furniture, along with their car, have gone on. Mrs. Cox and family believe their stay in Africa will be at least two years.

Two railroad lines are owned and operated by the United States, the Alaskan Railroad and Panama Railroad.

Cakes and pastries had been the theme of the cereal program in the Home Demonstration Clubs in Hansford County during 1952. The clubs are completing the third year of study and work on the cereal program. The main objective of these demonstrations have been to show the women better use of the Texas Food Standard, more economical and better use of pastries and the art of being a good home baker as well as a good homemaker.

The women in Hansford County are much like the women in all places when it comes to baking; they have to be reminded that they can prepare better and more economical foods in their homes than they can buy from the grocery shelf.

To begin the cereal program in 1952 a cereal program was given on butter cakes and cake containing twelve excellent cake recipes as a basic selection.

2. The mix-ery method was demonstrated. This modern method saves time, work, and dish-dish.

3. General instructions were given by the Agent on how to use recipes.

4. Use recipe for your particular altitude.

5. Start by reading recipe through for directions on ingredients and methods.

6. Assemble together exact ingredients and carefully measure amounts.

7. Use standard measuring cups and spoons and accurate measurements of every ingredient.

8. Mix carefully, as directed.

9. Try to use the same size pans, the same baking temperature as those specified.

10. Check oven temperature and bake required time.

The second demonstration was given on sponge cake and a butter cake.

The demonstration was given along the following outline:

A. A sponge cake was baked at the home of the Agent and taken to each club meeting. This was done because of the time element in baking the cake.

B. When the Agent gave the demonstration before each club she made a sponge batter and baked it as a cake roll.

C. While the cake roll was baking the sponge cake was being ground for the women present to score and sample it.

D. Good points and bad points of cake making were discussed in a leaflet on the "Why of cake failures" was given to the group.

E. The cake roll was then completed and served to the group.

The third demonstration was given on the following outline:

A. A leaflet was made up by the Home Demonstration Agent using the Master Mix for pie fillings.

B. The Agent then made two eggs from the pastry Mix. Stressing the importance of handling the pastry carefully and shaping the edges.

C. The next step was making graham-cracker crust pie shell. This was made to put the new filling in.

D. The two pastry shells were filled with two various mixes from the pie filling mix.

E. These were then cooled and served to the group.

F. Work simplifications were discussed by keeping the mixes on hand and being able to make a lot of nutritious pie crust at a moments notice.

G. Decoration of the finished was given, emphasizing cook-off of meringue.

This demonstration has received a great many comments from the women and has been practiced by nearly all the homemakers the entire year.

The demonstration planned to show a lot of the Home Demonstration women was one on "Baking Better Icings and Decorating Your Cakes." This leaflet was made up by the Agent combining all favorable information on this subject. This was given to the women and then given in turn to the clubs.

The fourth demonstration of the cereal program was given on fruit cakes. Leaflets were compiled by the Agent and distributed. The women were especially interested in this demonstration since the marketing chairman of the clubs had been able to obtain nuts and candied fruit at reduced rates. They thought that fruit cakes as gifts for the coming holiday season would be a good idea.

The main points stressed were:

1. The economy of the recipe to make up a pecan cake.
2. The time element of this recipe in comparison to the time of a large regular fruit cake.
3. Using the correct ingredients and using them finely chopped, sifted, or well crumbed.
4. Beating and mixing of the cake was stressed over and over again to the women. A batter for big as this was discussed. They worked with twenty or thirty minutes.
5. Baking the cake in smaller size pans. This was to help keep the cake fresher and nicer over a period of time.
6. Placing the cake attractively for gifts. This was to help when to decorate, how to glaze, and how to keep the cake moist.

The cake was fixed in an attractive package and shown how it would make a fine gift.

The women were very enthusiastic about the leaflet and thought that they could at least make a cake that would be economical, pretty, and very tasty.

The women have really enjoyed the hundreds of pounds of dried fruits for making of this pecan cake recipe.

This was the last year of the cereal program for the women and many wonderful things have been accomplished. In 1950 the Home Demonstration women had quick breads with four demonstrations on this phase. In 1951 they had yeast breads with six demonstrations on this phase and in 1952 cakes and pastry with five demonstrations on this phase.

Many women have commented that they have really enjoyed baking for the first time in their life. They feel that many new and inspiring ideas have come from this three year program on cereals.

District II

Narrative report on Recreation

The Home Demonstration Council has remained the "heart of the work" in the County. It remains as a constant reminder to the rest of the community of the importance of the Home Demonstration women to have what they want and feel that they need. The Home Demonstration building is used by every organization in town. Some of the constant users of the building are:

1. Scout - brownies, cubs, council
2. Church organizations
3. Art classes
4. Sewing classes
5. Family circle dinners
6. Private parties
7. Farm Bureau
8. Home Demonstration Clubs
9. Council

During the month of December the building had thirty-six different meetings in it. It is in constant use and under the supervision of the Building Supervisor, Mrs. B. J. Garnett, it has been run perfect with a minimum of conflicts.

The town and county have accepted it as the "meeting place" of any group that comes to town. Every citizen is proud of it and strives to keep it in top shape at all times.

The Home Demonstration Council landscaped it very attractively.

They follow the "Extension" methods and have a very nice landscape. The Hansford Club has been moved to the kitchen and bathroom and made them very attractive.

The Building was planned on a five year program. Each year the Home Demonstration Council is to accomplish some major improvement. In 1952 the club grounds were covering the tops of the serving tables with rubber tile, and making a complete driveway. This was a huge project and it took two 18 ft. culverts and a 190 ft length drive to complete it.

The Building is valued at $12,000 and is debt free. It is really a "dream come true" for the Hansford County Home Demonstration women.

Annual Home Improvement Tour

One hundred and four interested women were on the Home Improvement Tour sponsored by the Home Demonstration Clubs. This was the third year for the tour and was by far the most outstanding tour ever held in the county. There were about twenty guests present for the tour from Ochiltree, Sherman, Hutchinson, Pottier, and Moore counties. The speaker for the tour was very happy to show their fine homes and some of the work done on home improvement in this county.

The group met at 9 o'clock at the Home Demonstration building.

They then toured the following homes:

Hub Jackson Home - This home has been just completed and has many fine features in it.

Kiff White Home - This home has been built for several years, but still ranks high in Hansford County's homes. It is ranch style finished in rock.

Margaret Douglas - This home is a Mobilhome planned by Mrs. Douglas.

Jake Vernon - This home is still under construction, but has a great many features that are of interest to the homemakers of the tour.

John R. Collier - This home was completed last year as a large, spacious home including and redecorating. It is inspiring from beginning to end.

Joe Novak - This home was completed last year. It is now finished and is a very good example of good planning and fine workmanship.

Frank Novak - Had dinner at the Novak home. The Novak home is very interesting, because it is still under construction. It was planned by Mr. Novak and his neighbors.

L. W. Rosenbaum, Jr. - This home was formerly the "Red Hand" house, but the young Rosenbaum's undertook to make it into a home for themselves.

The club all enjoyed this many problems and say they still have a lot to work out.

Robert Alexander - This is a large, spacious home just completed. It is Gruver's pride and joy.

Emil Knutsen - This home was completed in 1928 and still has held its place in the Panhandle as being one of the most unusual homes in all the plains area.

The club all enjoyed this demonstration and learned how much fun outdoor cooking can be and how simple the preparation of the food can be. They were especially intrigued by the outdoor cooking and they learned some pointers to be remembered around fires and were taught some safety rules.

This was given back to 142 women by the leaders.

NARRATIVE REPORT ON CIVIL DEFENSE

The Civil Defense Chairman of County Mrs. A. J. Curtis, made arrangements for the Red Cross First Aid Course to be given in Hansford County during the year 1952.

Three instructors from Perryton, Mr. Headley, Mr. Hartman, and Mr. Beck, have been the instructors. There were forty-seven men and women who signed up for the course. This included the good classes. The school had all of the bus drivers take the course for use on their jobs.

The classes voted to meet three nights a week for three and a half weeks. The Red Cross course was to be eighteen hours. The Civilian Defense supplement course for four hours.

The Home Nursing Club at the time was spent each night in lecture and an hour in practical. The classes showed a great deal of interest and enthusiasm in learning all of the phases of first aid.

A class in Home Nursing and Advanced First Aid was planned as an outgrowth of the beginning first aid course. These two courses were full and fine. The group took an instructor course.

The climax of these courses was the showing of the two films: "Survival Under Atomic Attack" and "Self Preservation Under Atomic Attack."

These films were shown at the High School auditorium and the public was invited to attend.

This phase of the Civilian Defense program has really been good in Hansford County. The trained Hansford County instructors have held three courses in the County.

A total of over one hundred women have taken the First Aid Course in Hansford County.

NARRATIVE REPORT ON FAMILY LIFE

The Home Demonstration Agent introduced "Foods for Personality" to one hundred forty-six women in eight Home Demonstration Clubs. This was the first family life demonstration given in the county for over a year.

The Agent followed the plan outlined by Mrs. E. Johnson, family life specialist. The demonstration was given by using a flannel graph and attractive pictures and charts.

The outline used was as follows:

1. Hereditary tendency
2. A. Soil for personality com-

music was played over a loud speaker hidden in the truck.

The Spearman and Medina Clubs made the skirt for the parade. The skirt had a mainline base and red and white crepe paper ruffles were sewed to this skirt. When finished the skirt measured 14 x 30 feet, at the bottom which was eighteen inches from the ground.

The Hansford Club made the tree and letters. The Morse and New Hope Clubs made the candy canes and lollipops. The Happy Homes and Better Homes Clubs made the huge clown head and constructed the box over the cab.

The float drew a lot of attention in the parade and was a favorite of the children. It was awarded second prize which was $35.00.

NARRATIVE REPORT ON COOKING

A training meeting was held on outdoor cooking in May, 1952. The Agent held this meeting as a training school for the representatives of eight clubs.

This training school was held at the country home of Mrs. David Devis. Eighteen women attended. The Agent had three fire lids when the women arrived. Leaflets compiled by the Agent titled "Summer time is Outdoor Eating Time" were distributed. This leaflet listed some pointers to remember for successful outdoor cooking and these pointers were discussed before the actual cooking began.

Men used for a cooking school were equipped with a minimum of equipment and no pots and pans. This menu included for breakfast: orange cut out, egg cooked in orange shell, egg cooked in paper sack, bacon on a stick, toast; lunch - kabob (beef cubes, onion, carrot, cucumber, and steak), biscuit on a stick, baked apple; dinner - coffee can dinner (ground meat patty, sliced potatoes and carrots), salad food.

The bar-b-que steaks prepared by the Agent were especially delicious.

Some of the clubs presented this demonstration as a family night with the coffee can dinner. The club all enjoyed this demonstration and learned how much fun outdoor cooking can be and how simple the preparation of the food can be. They were especially intrigued by the outdoor cooking and they learned some pointers to be remembered around fires and were taught some safety rules.

This was given back to 142 women by the leaders.

NARRATIVE REPORT ON LANDSCAPE

The Agent held two trainer schools on Disease and Insect Control for March 1952. Eighteen leaders attended both meetings representing seven clubs in the county. A total of 162 women received training on disease and insect control for outside plantings.

At the school the agent gave information on the use of the insect control leaflet on Control of Insects. Leaflets were distributed to each club woman in the county.

The various equipment needed to carry out the program was shown and discussed.

Prevention was stressed as the best method of control. Good soil treatment and care of plants was also discussed.

All insects that suggested were shown and discussed.

The Agent mixed Arsenate of Lead and treated a shrub for bag worms and the cedar for Red Spider with sulfur.

The women then reviewed the demonstrations and made plans to carry all the information received at this school back to their clubs for their meeting on disease and insect control.

NARRATIVE REPORT ON CEREALS 4-H

The 4-H girls of Hansford County had their third year of the cereal program in 1952. The girls have come a long way in learning better and easier ways of cooking.

This year the cereal program was continued with work simplification. The girls learned how to work more efficiently as well as prepare more nutritional food.

The cereal program was started in May. The Agent gave a demonstration on cooking making. Two recipes were used; one was the flour recipe and the other was the sugar cookies. The demonstration was given and the following details were stressed:

1. Measure accurately
2. Use standard measurements
3. Always use good ingredients
4. The best types of pans and cooking equipment.
5. Cook at right temperature for right amount of time
6. Learn to recognize good cooking and good characteristics of them.

After the cookies were baked the Agent and the girls scored them. Many fine points were brought out and the girls then organized to give a demonstration to the Home Demonstration women. This is always an annual event in the 4-H in the County. The girls were put into teams and gave six demonstrations to six Home Demonstration women. This was given by the Agent with much emphasis on the texture and quality of the cakes.

The cake recipe used was the 1-2-3 cake recipe. The same procedure was used on the flour and was used on the cookies. The main interest on the cup cakes came when the Agent made a cake icing cream cheese etc.

Many interesting variations were shown to the Clubs. This demonstration was repeated by the

DRESS REVUE

The two women were seated at a table on the stage and Miss Eye described the dresses as each girl came on stage to model.

The judges for the revue were Miss Roberta Hugh and Miss Pauline Rudy. They judged the dresses on construction Saturday morning and were presented at the revue to score the dresses again. A total of sixty-one dresses and skirts were entered and modeled at the revue.

Don't Name It

A radio broadcast made by John T. Flynn, Broadcast No. K-288 so impressed this writer that we sent for the leaflet reprint of the broadcast so we could print it in this newspaper. This broadcast and all the series are sponsored by America's Future Incorporated. The public has the opportunity to write in for any subscribe for reprints of all weekly broadcasts. We believe that you readers should consider getting on the mailing list to receive these broadcasts each week. Flynn is truly making outstanding analysis of the trends of the time. Here is the broadcast: "Some Predictions for 1953"

Now a whole year stretches out before us. And the most frequent question I hear is—What is going to happen? What's ahead of us?

There is one big black spot in that question. We have managed to maneuver ourselves into a position where we no longer are the masters of our own fate and our own future. We have been foolish enough to tie ourselves up with a group of countries utterly unlike ourselves—and all of them in terrible trouble—and they will have a say in what is ahead of us for this year. Then there's Russia. What will she do? She may not imagine that the new President and Congress. Let me make one comment on that.

Please remember that the new President and the new Congress have been elected to take hold of the most awful mess this country has ever known. Do not imagine that the new President can walk in and turn everything upside down or that he can cut loose from all the problems that he has inherited. The crowd which has been in power for 20 years has plunged us into so much trouble in so many different directions that it is going to take many people in so many parts of the world and has so bedeviled our whole economic system that the problem of untangling our relations is appalling.

What we have is war prosperity. This can be ended in two ways. One is by having the war. The other is by a collapse without war. In other words if we get into war, the war could not last forever and we would have a collapse. If we don't get into war and try to keep up the war prosperity by preparation, the time would come when that would bankrupt us. There are certain things which would begin to operate and would crush us.

So when you ask the question—Will we have a depression—the answer depends on whether or not we get into war. My opinion is that we will not get into war unless we provoke it or invite it ourselves. I believe there are certain elements in our society who will try to keep up the war preparations because they make money out of it. But this war can't gamble on—if we do not get into war, sooner or later the war prosperity will blow up because it will become so burdensome that the people will rebel against it.

So to the answer the question: If the war in Korea can be ended and the European warfare ended, this country will begin to sink down into a depression. There is no doubt about that. It will begin as soon as the war business ends, but the impact will not be felt for some time—months, maybe a year.

But if the Korean war drags on and the European and Asiatic war scares drag on, sooner or later the people will get sick of it. Too many will be on the harsh end of that kind of war. Mainly the debt will get bigger—the inflation more and more serious and abstruse and a state of mind will be created in this country which will stimulate an anti-war mood which will be difficult for politicians to resist. If the war inflation stops that way, the depression will be one of the greatest severity. But in any case, I can say this with assurance. The end of this crazy war career of ours will be depression of the first magnitude. The only point no man can predict with certainty is the time of its impact. But this is sure—the longer it is delayed, the worse it will be.

So when you ask the question—Will we have a depression—the answer depends on whether or not we get into war. My opinion is that we will not get into war unless we provoke it or invite it ourselves. I believe there are certain elements in our society who will try to keep up the war preparations because they make money out of it. But this war can't gamble on—if we do not get into war, sooner or later the war prosperity will blow up because it will become so burdensome that the people will rebel against it.
