The Spearman Reporter

VOLUME 69, NO. 30

THE SPEARMAN REPORTER, SPEARMAN, TEXAS 79081

THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1978

Lion of the year, Curly Hall, with three Spearman beauties, will be on hand for the ladies nite at the Junior Hi cafeteria in Spearman, Saturday night. Lion Hall was accompanied by Lion Miller in this parade, which was at Dalhart last year. The Lions enter their float in all of the area town parades.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Nollner are presented a check for $2000.00 from Jimmy McLain. They won on the trip to Hawaii for 2, sponsored by the YMCA. McLain stated that the project netted around $7000.00 for the YMCA fund drive.

Oma Kiser, a Perryton artist, whose studio is "Windmill Alley" is instructing a group in oil canvas painting at Martha Latham's Paint & Stitchin Pantry located at 903 S. Bernice Street. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Latham recently opened a complete arts & craft shop at this address. Lessons in various art and tole painting and needlepoint are continually underway at the Paint & Stitchin Pantry.

Lions club plans 50th anniversary

The Spearman Lions Club will have their 50th anniversary party at the Junior High School Cafeteria in Spearman Saturday night at 7 p.m. The Spearman Club is celebrating 50 years of continuous service to the community.

President of the club is Cecil Biggers, who has done an excellent job this year as Boss Lion. The Lions just this week, spent some $400.00 in the community, including donations to the Little League, Crippled Childrens fund, and eye glasses for one boy in the community.

One of the original members of the club, C. A. Gibner, is still active in the Spearman Lions Club. Lion Gibner has been an inspiration to the entire club, and can well remember when the club was chartered back in 1928.

All of the Lions and their Ladies are invited to the 50th anniversary meeting. Special 50 anniversary Lions Pins have been ordered for the meeting, but have not yet arrived.

Work on Club Building Begins

Mike K. McQueen, director of the agency planning for the Aging for the Palo Duro Regional Planning Conference, met with the Golden Spread Club board on Monday, June 5 at 6:00 p.m. at the Center, to discuss federal programs for groups working with the aging.

Orville Brummett, president of the board, presided at the meeting, which was opened with prayer by the Rev. Edward D. Freeman. Those in attendance at the meeting were Freeman Barkley, Bob Boxwell, Coleen and Orville Brummett, Rosa Lee Butts, Mildred Chamberlain, Pete Fisher, Ed Freeman, Marsha Murphy, Frances Loftin, Mark Neff, Thelma Scott, and Lenis Simpson.

Marsha Murphy reported that there were an average of ten at the craft classes on Monday and Thursday afternoons.

It was decided to proceed immediately with the selling of the garage door and heater, and closing in the front of the building. The offer to donate a good, used freezer to the Center by R. S. Weckesser was accepted. Box Boxwell was placed in charge of selling the garage door and heater.

Lenis Simpson was put in charge of purchasing a fifteen passenger Van for picking up Senior Citizens for necessary transportation to all kinds of events in the community, going to the doctor and dentist and shopping, etc.

The next meeting of the board will be held at the Center on Monday, June 19 at 6:00 p.m.

Golden Spread Club is an organization open to everyone fifty-five years of age and older without discrimination as to sex, race, religion, ethnic background, national origin, denominational preference, or political affiliation.

County Among Top Ten In Cattle On Feed

AUSTIN--Hansford County was among the top ten counties in the state in number of cattle on feed at the first of the year, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has reported.

"At 69,000 head of cattle on feed for slaughter market, Hansford County had 3.7 percent of the entire state total," Brown said. "Hansford County feeders were major contributors to making Texas the largest cattle feeding state in the nation in 1977."

Brown noted that consumer demand for top-quality Texas beef remained high in 1977, due mainly to reasonable retail prices and improved consumer disposable income.

"Beef remains one of the best food buys," Brown said. "It is very rich in iron, one of the nutrients found to be most lacking in the American diet."

71 voted in the run-off election here Sat.

Some 50 persons were present at a hospital meeting Monday night, at the H. D. club room in Spearman. They plan to attend the hospital board meeting at the hospital 7:30 p.m. Thursday night, June 8th. Purpose of the meeting is to try and see why doctors will not stay in Spearman! Many professional and business men were present at the meeting Monday night, along with young people, and the old. All of them asking the question, why can't we keep doctors in Spearman?

The situation became serious this week, when Dr. Phillips moved his offices to Pampa to begin practice. However, the hospital is open, and we still have doctors who are practicing here. But, those present at the meeting Monday night, want some answers to several questions.

Many questions were asked Monday night, and the group "came down hard" on the commissioners court and the hospital board. If there is any problem with administration, most present at the Monday night meeting thought that much of the blame could be with the commissioners and board for allowing the problems to build up.

Many present Monday nite felt that much mis-information is coming out of the hospital, including the lack of cooperation when a citizen wants to see the minutes of the last board meeting.

A discussion was held concerning who runs the hospital. It was learned that the commissioners court appoints a hospital board, and the board in turn appoints an administrator who runs the hospital! The men on the hospital board are picked for their ability, and so far the hospital has remained open and is doing a fine job. The question was asked Monday night, "how many of the board members use this hospital?"

To answer this question, it is pretty well known that all of the members either have, or are willing to use the hospital.

These questions, and many more were discussed Monday night. It was learned that doctors can now be guaranteed a $50,000 income, given a free house, and clinic to go to some communities. Hansford Hospital does not guarantee $50,000, offer free clinic, or free home for new doctors, it is understood.

To try and answer all of the questions, is an impossibility. But, it is for sure, that we must change our "old fashioned way" of thinking towards our doctors. We no longer can expect a doctor to come to town, buy a new home, build a new clinic or pay a large lease on one, and practice for many hours under "extreme pressures!" This has been part of the problems in all small communities. We must change our way of thinking towards our doctors, and literally treat them in a "special manner" because a doctor today, is "something special!"

At the meeting Monday night, one man stated that the last time his wife had a baby, their doctor left, and sure enough, they are expecting another one, and their doctor is leaving this time! It is very discouraging to our young men and women to live in a community where the doctor turnover is so high! Also, Mr. business-man, it is bad for business, when your doctor turn-over is high!

All of the questions should be answered in the meeting Thursday night, and of course you are invited to attend. It is a public meeting, and open to everyone. See you Thursday night at the hospital!

It is very interesting to note that a couple of years ago, the hospital district held an election to see if the hospital board would be appointed by the Commissioners, or elected. It wasn't even a contest. The Spearman area, with three times the voting strength of the West part of the county joined in with the West part of the county and voted over two to one to let the Commissioners Court appoint the hospital board. It is the opinion of most of the tax payers in the county that the commissioners and board are merely "obeying the law" in running the hospital in the present manner.

Run-off Election Voting Light

The ladies rest room at Hi Plains Conoco had an un-expected visitor Saturday nite, when a large truck went out of control, drove across the front of the Gulf station, and smashed into the rest room. No-one was hurt. The accident occurred at 8:30 p. m. Sat. nite.

FARM HERITAGE—Hermann and Helene Schulze pose with two of their prized draft animals in this old photograph, circa 1900. The present day owners of the Schulze farm, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Tietjen, Jr. of La Grange, were honored in 1975 by the Texas Department of Agriculture's Family Land Heritage Program (FLHP).

TDA Suit Alleges Company Delivered Short Weight Meat

HOUSTON—The Texas Department of Agriculture has filed suit against Glenn Snider, general manager of Swift and Co. operations here, for short weight on meat products delivered on bids to Harris County, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has announced.

The suit was filed in mid-April in Precinct No. 1 Justice of the Peace Kenneth M. Pacetti's court following a month-long investigation of weekly deliveries.

"We were given reason to believe that meat products being delivered were short weight from the weight listed on invoices," Brown stated. "Our investigation produced information that would require us to file suit in accordance with the weights and measures laws we enforce."

The Texas Department of Agriculture administers laws on weights and measures on all levels of trade, from the amount of grain held in country elevators to the package of flour on the grocery shelf, Brown explained. Duties include checking package weights against the amount stated on the label to check-weighting large public scales.

France extended the vote to women in 1944.

BOB BULLOCK
Comptroller of Public Accounts

Dear Mr. Bullock:
I am a student, with a question. How much money does Texas receive from the federal government, and how does this compare to the other states?
In 1976, the State of Texas received $1.8 billion in federal assistance, ranking it fourth among the 50 states in total federal aid. The states that received more than Texas were New York, California and Pennsylvania. On a per capita basis, however, the federal aid picture is not as good for Texas. In terms of total federal dollars per person, we ranked ninth from the bottom.

Mr. Comptroller:
Are the labor charges taxable when a welding shop makes wrought iron chairs and a table for my patio?

Yes. The full amount charged for the items would be subject to the tax. Labor in the manufacturing process is taxable so long as it is not a repair.

Dear Sir:
Is the money from life insurance policies exempt from the state Inheritance Tax?

The first $40,000 received from life insurance policies are exempt from the tax if the policies are made payable to a named beneficiary. If the insurance is payable to the estate, the total amount received is taxable.

Sir:
I am a serviceman stationed at Fort Hood, but I claim Virginia as my residence. Do I have to pay property taxes in Texas?

You must pay tax on any real property you own in Texas. Your personal property, however, is taxable only in Virginia.

Ask Bob Bullock is produced as a public service to the taxpayers of Texas by the State Comptroller's Office. The answers here do not necessarily apply in every similar situation and should be used only as a general guide.

If you have a question, write Ask Bob Bullock, c/o

GOOD PSYCHOLOGY

PRaise that describes efforts is more helpful than praise that describes character. Psychologists point out, when you tell your teenage son, for example, that he's always so good and generous, you put him under an obligation to live up to that all the time. Relaxing with him over a refreshing cup of hot tea and a snack after class is a good time to praise his latest accomplishment.

Dave calls this his wedding picture. He was best man when Jane and I were married, and a prouder boy you'll never see. He loved Jane from the first. He never thought of her as a stepmother.

Jane's zest for life, her merry ways, her love for God were happily contagious. The unhappy years we'd known faded. Soon we were marching off to church with her as though it were our own idea.

Tomorrow Dave will be married, and I'll be his best man. He and Susan are a fine couple. Jane and I don't worry about their marriage. Their relationship has a depth that comes from a mutual love for God and His Church. In the years ahead, their church will be a bedrock of understanding and strength.

The Church is the starting point for the happiness that every family needs.

Lights Out Tuesday Morning

What did you do when the lights were out from 6 a.m. til 8:30 Tuesday morning? The power was off so that the power company could do some switching of their power lines. The biggest problem encountered was that the electric shavers were out, the bathroom was dark, and No. 1 problem of all, was that electric percolator! The American family just can't get started without that cup of coffee! Here at the newspaper, we had our coffee pot full of fresh coffee and water and were waiting anxiously for the electricity to come on! It was worth waiting for, as the coffee tasted great, and everything was back to normal by near 9 a.m. We just can't do without that early morning cup of coffee!

have wished that their high school youngster would get it together, are looking at a new program designed to help their son do just that, while helping him get ahead with his life, too.

A GOOD MARINE is a better civilian.

Here's how it works: If your son qualifies, the Marine Corps Reserve will pay him about $53 a month for working one weekend a month while in high school. After graduation, he can earn about $2,200 for approximately 143 days of active duty training. Then he returns home to his friends and family—and a good-paying part-time job one weekend a month, two weeks each summer.

As a Marine Reservist he'll have all the benefits of Marine training and all the advantages of civilian life. For further information about this program call 800-423-2600 toll free, or in California 800-252-0241. It's a good way to get it all together.

Gillispie Family Reunion Held

The families of Mrs. W. A. Gillispie of Morse, Texas and Mrs. Sam Gillispie of Lubbock, convened at the Weldon McClure cabin in Palo Duro Canyon some twenty odd miles South East of Claude, Sunday June 4, for a family reunion.

The noon meal from basket lunches was enjoyed while waiting out a shower. Soon after lunch the rain stopped, the sun began to shine and activity began around the cabin. Some of the group remained in the cabin visiting, others pitched horse shoes, some took pictures and several waded in the shallow water of the creek, which was just a short distance from the cabin. Suddenly a terrible roar was heard and most every one rushed to the creek bank. What had been a narrow, shallow stream had become a torrent with billows carrying large fence posts and other debris in a dipping, swirling motion. It was learned that all the waders had returned except three. They had gone up stream and it was feared they may have been caught between two cliffs. Then they were seen walking along the creek bank through the "stickers" barefooted. Many had never seen the rise of a creek or a river, to them it was a new experience, and will not soon be forgotten. Soon every one decided it was time to start home.

Those present were: Mrs. Sam Gillispie and Martha Kate, Lubbock, Texas; Mr. & Mrs. Don Gillispie, Cheryl and Charles, Rt. 2, Claude, Texas; Mrs. W. A. Gillispie, Morse, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. John Gillispie, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gillispie, Gruver; Mr. and Mrs. William McCloy, and Nanelle, Morse; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Henderson, Morse; Mr. and Mrs. Thane McCloy, Morse; Mrs. Wirt E. L. Denman, Spearman.

Our Heritage of Faith... notes from Faith Lutheran Church

The joint Vacation Church School with the Christian, Lutheran, Methodist, and Presbyterian Churches working together went well. We suffered from a lack of teachers and helpers, but the turnout of children and the program and organization was good. The adult classes at night were quite interesting and informative. It was unfortunate that more people did not take advantage of this opportunity. Hopefully we can do the same thing another time.

The message that came across throughout the Vacation Church School is that God has a "secret" for each of us that He wants everyone to know. That secret or message is that He loves you and me. It makes no difference what church we belong to. The church we belong to or its doctrines and teachings do not save us or make us better. It is only God and His love for us which saves us, and we can trust in that love.

If you have no regular church home or just wish to worship with us once we invite and encourage you to come. Our Sunday Morning Worship is at 9:30 with Sunday School following at 10:30.

The adult Sunday School class is beginning a new study now on Job and Esther entitled "God's Care - Fact or Fiction." It deals with some honest questions concerning God's activity in our daily life.

Other activities coming up at Faith are the meeting of the Church Council Thursday, June 8, at 8:00; a Sunday School picnic for the students and teachers at Womble Park on Saturday, June 10, from 5:00-7:00; and the Bible Study and meeting for the women on Wednesday at 7:30. The food for the Sunday School picnic will be provided, but only for the Sunday School children and teachers.

Health Professions Scholarships Available

Arlington, Texas - Almost 500 Air Force health professions scholarships are available to students who are enrolled in or accepted by a school offering doctorates in medicine or osteopathy, optometry, clinical psychology or veterinary medicine. Air Force officials announced recently.

Scholarships in these disciplines provide up to four years of full tuition, books, fees and $400 tax-free monthly stipend. The military obligation incurred is one year for each year of participation, with a minimum of three years active duty.

Applications for the 1979 AFHPSP will be accepted starting in September 1978.

Selected applicants are commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Air Force Reserve and remain in student status until graduation. However, a 45-day active duty will be required each year during participation in the HPSP, officials said. During this period, students will receive full pay and allowances as a second lieutenant on active duty in the Air Force.

People interested in obtaining more information about the AFHPSP should contact the nearest Air Force recruiter or call (toll free) 1-800-523-5000.

Social Security Film Available

"The Third Day," a 14-minute film in color about Social Security, is available for showing to local clubs and organizations, according to Howard L. Weatherly, Manager of the Pampa Social Security Office.

Narrated by the distinguished actor, James Earl Jones, the film dramatically presents the four basic kinds of beneficiaries in a day that starts at dawn in Maine with an elderly fisherman getting retirement checks. Then, the film takes viewers to a hospital in South Carolina where they see how Medicare helps a 67-year old woman. The next stop is Chicago and a young widow who depends on survivor benefits to keep her family together. In Arizona, the film emphasizes that Social Security is set up to replace only part of a person's earnings. The day ends in San Francisco with a truck driver who was disabled and depended on disability benefits to support his family.

Weatherly said clubs and organizations desiring a program on Social Security and view of the film may contact the Pampa Social Security Office to schedule it. There is no charge for the service. The telephone number in Pampa is 669-3381, or individuals may address correspondence to 1541 N. Hobart Street in Pampa, TX 79065.

New Rules For Social Security Applicants

Beginning May 15, everyone who applies for a social security number will need to provide evidence of his or her age and identity, Don I. Wortman, Acting Commissioner of Social Security, announced today.

Most affected by the change will be native-born applicants under 18. To establish their date of birth, these people will need to submit a public or religious record of birth. If a birth or baptismal certificate is not available, another document may be used if it is at least 1 year old and shows information such as the applicant's name, address, age, signature, or photograph.

They must submit a second record such as a vaccination record, a school record or a driver's license, to establish identity. Parents applying for a social security number for their preschool children will need to furnish only a birth record if no other record of age or identity has been established for the child.

Applicants under 18 need not appear in person at a social security office to apply for a number and submit documents. They can apply by mail, and their documents will be returned to them by mail after they are noted on the social security record and certified by a Social Security Administration employee.

"The new requirements are designed to protect the applicant's social security record by helping to assure that it is complete and accurate," Wortman said. "These procedures will help prevent another person from misusing a social security number, either knowingly or unknowingly. This is a subject of legitimate concern both to Congress and to the public."

Applicants 18 and over must apply in person at a social security office and bring with them a birth certificate and another document proving identity.

Since most people 18 and older already have a social security number, each applicant will be interviewed to make sure that he or she has never been given a number before. The SSA interviewer will certify that the interview took place and that the applicant submitted documentation.

Foreign-born applicants of any age must submit evidence of their United States citizenship or their alien status to show they are lawfully admitted to the United States. Procedures for this group are unchanged.

Anyone who has lost his social security card and who applies for a replacement must show a driver's license, voter registration card, school identification card, or other proof of identity. The social security office will check the new application against information already in the applicant's record before issuing a replacement card.

Under old procedures, persons under 18 did not need to prove their identity to get a social security number. Those 18 and older were required to establish their identity, but could apply by mail and send in documentation with the application. Persons applying for a replacement card were not required to establish identity if they could produce any part of the old card, or if they knew their social security number.

Besides helping to assure the integrity of an applicant's social security number, the new procedures will help the applicant later in life when he applies for benefits in future years, Wortman said. Since his age will have been established at the time he received his social security number, he may not need to submit proof of age a second time. People now must submit proof of age at the time they apply for benefits.

Under Federal law, an employee must furnish to his employer his social security number for purposes of reporting social security taxes. He must also furnish the number to the Internal Revenue Service as a taxpayer identification number. State and local governments use the social security number for tax purposes, driver's license and motor vehicle registration, and for public assistance payments. Each year social security issues 7 million new numbers and about 4.4 million replacement cards.

People applying for a new or replacement card under the new procedure are urged to apply well in advance of the time they will need the number—at least six weeks.

People who have questions about the new procedures can call any social security office. The telephone number is listed in the directory under U. S. Government.

Stricter requirements on social security numbers were required by the 1972 social security amendments, which said that all applicants would have to submit evidence to establish age, identity and citizenship or alien status. Due to large workloads, SSA applied the evidence requirements only to applicants for new numbers who were foreign born, to welfare recipients, and to those 18 or older. Congress was notified of this procedure in 1973.

13th Season of Texas

Canyon, Texas...Visitors to the Palo Duro Canyon this year will be welcomed to the lucky thirteenth season of "Texas" - the year in which we appreciate good fortune. The show has been lucky because the public finds entertainment and a bond with the past in the show: lucky because many young exciting young artists get their first professional training here: lucky because writers and photographers help with their creative reactions to the show.

Here are thirteen of the lead stories which have described "Texas"

Before the opening in 1966

...Tour leaders may plan a breathtaking entrance into the State of Texas for their groups - or a dramatic exit if they enter or leave through the Panhandle and pay a visit to the unbelievable Palo Duro Canyon.

1966...The American West is a land of strong forces and bold men, vast distances and enduring qualities, too large to imagine, too bold to disregard. The "Texas" musical drama is a window into this life.

1967...There is a saying in the Texas Panhandle that anyone who stays long enough to wear out a pair of shoes will stay here always. If this is true, the dancers in the "Texas" show will live here forever, because their dancing shoes have already had to be resoled after seven performances.

1968...Who would expect to see a helicopter in a theatre...flying up a draw to the top of the 600 foot bluff behind the stage of the theatre and landing there so that the men on top could unload lights and wire for the production of "Texas."

1969...This is the year for memories: flags whipping in the wind, bugles, horses galloping, washboards, axes, plains, cliffs, twilight, darkness, well water and chuck wagons.

1970...The sounds of "Texas" will roll through the crags of the Palo Duro Canyon for the fifth season this summer. Echoing from the great cliffs behind the stage are the bugles, the hymns, the banjos and guitars, the songs of celebration and sorrow, the cry of the wolf and the roar of a train, the words of warning and waiting, the shots of 45's and rifles, and the thundering crashes of storms swirling around the listeners.

1971...Lightning will strike 58 times this summer in the Palo Duro Canyon at 10:15 P.M. each evening - unless it rains.

1972..."Texas" is the story of the land in the Texas Panhandle and of the people who lived on it, both Indian and Anglo. Twenty members of the cast - 80 have Indian drums in their heritage as do eight among the members of the technical and hospitality crews.

1973..."Now, we know how it was." (This remark is often heard each evening after "Texas", especially from those who are visiting from other countries.)

1974...There will be lighting, and galloping, singing and dancing, bugles and banjos in the Palo Duro Canyon at the Gala Opening of "Texas." Last night was railroad night and there is a new song in the show which salutes the railroads:

She's a comin' cross the prairie, there she comes. She's a fiery shining wonder, there she comes. Hear her wheels and engine thunder, there she comes. She's a comin' round the bend there, here she comes.

1975...In the place in Texas which has as much sunshine as Arizona, the adventures of farming, the gambles with that magnificent adversary the weather, and the joys of space and air have been captured in an outdoor musical drama, "Texas."

1976...Answers: "No, we cannot get the seats next to yours back unfortunately. They were sold several weeks ago and we cannot find the people and ask them to exchange so that you have them back."

"No, there is no danger on the Indians or wild beasts."

"No, we cannot allow dogs in the theatre no matter how well trained they are."

"One cast member has so many duties that he runs 2.8 miles each evening to fulfill them."

1977...When the last rider swept across the face of the Canyon with the American flag streaming over his head as he rode, and the music soared and the lights built up on the 600 foot cliff behind the stage, and 12th. run of "Texas" closed.

Now the theatre is waiting for the thirteenth season. It will be ready to write for tickets to "Texas," Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015 or call 806-655-2182.

It is well to make reservations well in advance.

probably the most frequently occurring problem costing the company--and ultimately the consumer--money and inconvenience, according to Soloff. It falls into three general categories: the juvenile who, when reported and caught, seldom repeats the offense; the adult who is angry and takes that anger out on the telephone; and the thief, often a professional, who wants the money out of the coin box.

Identifying people who make harassing or threatening phone calls does not save money, but the company feels strongly that customers should be able to have and use the phone without fear or inconvenience. "It is our goal to prevent such calls where possible or give the victim peace of mind by working with the local police to identify and convince such callers," he said.

Soloff's advice to people receiving harassing calls is to hang up immediately without comment. If the calls continue, report them to the police and the phone company. Threats to life or property should be reported immediately, he emphasized.

Soloff has trouble understanding why people want to take the chance of making annoyance or threatening calls. Apprehension is likely and punishment can mean fines and/or imprisonment.

The latest effort on the part of General Telephone to further reduce losses which affect the cost of telephone service to the consumer is the addition of a claims division within the security department responsible for investigating and settling claims brought by or against the company.

Local employees throughout the company's operations in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arkansas work with the claims division by reporting within 24 hours damage to telephone facilities, thus expediting investigative action and increasing the likelihood of identifying and billing the responsible party.

"We expect this new claims division to save the company an estimated $500,000 from accidental or negligent losses this year, again saving the company and ultimately the consumer money because it reduces the cost of doing business," Soloff stated.

"Theft of long distance service is like any other theft. It is taking something without paying for it," Soloff emphasized. General's centralized ticket investigation (CTI) group works with the security department on toll fraud. "Techniques for tracking are specialized and endless," Soloff said. "Few escape detection and restitution is frequently ordered in addition to the punishment." Toll fraud is punishable at federal, state and local levels.

Electronic toll fraud, which allows the caller to duplicate the electronic sounds routing calls through long distance switching facilities, is described by Soloff as "a more sophisticated form of theft, but still stealing." The telephone company is well equipped to detect this type of fraud and the penalties upon conviction are severe.

Coin telephone vandalism is

GTE Security Dept. Helps Consumers

Telephone customers benefit from activities of General Telephone of the Southwest security department, according to Court Soloff, former FBI agent, now security director for the company. But he hastened to add that the company, investors and employees also benefit from security department activities.

Soloff explained his belief this way:

"We save the company money by preventing losses, recovering assets and obtaining restitution for damages inflicted through negligence or willful destruction. These savings help keep the cost of telephone service lower than it might be otherwise, thus helping consumers. The company, investors and employees benefit when earnings are not reduced through losses.

"We are no cloak and dagger operation, Soloff commented. "It's just a lot of hard work by our professional staff trained to obtain and correlate relevant information and to work effectively with law enforcement people."

"Our customers and employees also play an important role in reducing losses by reporting to police or the telephone company damages or suspicious activities involving telephone facilities. We want to hear about unauthorized long distance calls on customer bills, too. Often customer reports are the first solid clue we have to fraudulent activities," he stated.

Soloff pointed out the Department of Commerce estimates over $16 billion in assets, facilities and funds are lost each year through illegal activities against businesses.

General Telephone of the Southwest estimates $500,000 in comparable losses in 1977.

Soloff summarized examples and activities most often encountered which are costly to the company:

"The theft of a bulldozer, truck and tractor trailer valued at $90,000. Four groups, the FBI, Texas Rangers, local police in several towns, and General Telephone's security staff, were involved in solving the case when the equipment was found scattered in northern Texas and a foreign country after being sold by a ring of professional

Texas Crude Oil Production Declines

DALLAS -- Texas' crude oil production declined last year for the fifth consecutive year. The downward trend continued in spite of another year of production at or near the maximum effective recovery rate in nearly all fields.

The output of the nation's No. 1 oil producing state in 1977 was just over 1.1-billion barrels and pushed the state's cumulative production since 1889 to almost 42.7-billion barrels. But, last year's production was almost 51-million barrels below 1976 production and more than 162-million barrels below the all-time peak production year of 1972.

The following table shows the amount of yearly decline in recent Texas crude oil production: PRODUCTION (BARRELS): 1977-1,128,287,453; 1976-1,179,221,092; 1975-1,211,179,171; 1974-1,251,784,956; 1973-

1,284,233,849; 1972-1,290,514,953. LOSS FROM PREVIOUS YEAR (BARRELS): 1977-50,933,639 (-4.3%); 1976-31,958,079 (-2.6%); 1975-40,605,785 (3.2%); 1974-32,448,893 (-2.5%); 1973-6,281,104 (-0.5%); TOTAL 162,227,500 (-12.6%); AVERAGE: 32,445,500 (-2.5%).

H. B. (Hank) Harkins, Alice, president of Dallas-based Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, blames the continuing decline in large part on federal price controls on crude oil.

"Only increased developmental and wildcat drilling, combined with expensive secondary and tertiary recovery projects, can brighten Texas' oil production and reserves picture, strengthen the state's economy, and reduce our dependence on imported oil. But, we must have the cash flow necessary to finance this activity. It will not come under price controls," says Harkins, an independent producer and drilling company executive.

Hansford County, which has had recorded production since 1937, last year produced 521,831 barrels of crude oil at the rate of 1,430 barrels per day. Production in 1977 boosted Hansford County's production total through the end of the year to 28,661,764 barrels.

In 1977, 26 counties produced more than 10-million barrels of crude oil, a decrease of one county from 1976 and four from 1975.

The following chart shows 1977 production figures for the state's five top producing counties, all with production in excess of 48-million barrels. Yoakum replaced Scurry as the state's top producing county, while Ector, Gaines, and Hockley retained the Nos. 3, 4, and 5 ranks they held in 1975 and 1976.

1. Yoakum, 74,354,617 barrels; 2. Scurry, 70,745,781 barrels; 3. Ector, 62,364,428 barrels; 4. Gaines, 58,859,385 barrels; 5. Hockley, 48,992,268 barrels.

In addition to the top five, eight other counties topped 30-million barrels in production last year. They included: 6. Gregg, 47,285,684 barrels; 7. Andrews, 46,904,788 barrels; 8. Pecos, 43,076,484 barrels; 9. Wood, 38,309,096 barrels; 10. Refugio, 35,859,779 barrels; 11. Crane, 35,262,109 barrels; 12. Brazoria, 32,211,737 barrels.

Gregg County, the first Texas county to produce more than two-billion barrels of crude oil in the history of recorded production, remains the all-time leader with a cumulative total through 1977 of 2,596,793,663 barrels. Ector County, through the end of last year, had produced 2,135,900,495 barrels.

Other counties with cumulative production in excess of one-billion barrels include the following eight: 3. Andrews, 1,850,192,429 barrels; 4. Rusk, 1,599,322,900 barrels; 5. Scurry, 1,443,352,109 barrels; 6. Crane, 1,221,245,826 barrels; 7. Harris, 1,194,610,013 barrels; 8. Brazoria, 1,088,141,076 barrels; 9. Yoakum, 1,069,042,174 barrels; 10. Gaines, 1,047,937,231 barrels.

FB Head Says Higher Food Prices Necessary

WACO -- Consumers "are going to have to adjust" to higher food prices because of excessive cost increases on the inputs of production, Texas Farm Bureau President Carrol Chaloupka declared.

The Dalhart grain farmer and cattle producer responded to the Wednesday announcement of a sharp rise in the latest cost of living index with increased costs of food, particularly beef, being singled out as the main culprit. Chaloupka acknowledged the sharp rise in beef prices and defended them as being "very necessary" because "the cattle industry has suffered a four-to-five-year disaster."

He expressed doubt that the producer is realizing the full benefit of the retail price increase, commenting that processors and distributors pad price increases "whenever there's an opportunity," producing what he termed "a wratchet effect" with a total price rise of "more than what we think might be justifiable."

He said Farm Bureau would protest any move to relax limitations on beef imports to slow the price rise. "We don't need to beat the cattlemen down any longer; they've had their share of problems for a period of years," he declared.

"We can no longer produce in America with inflation like it is at prices we've received in the past," he emphasized, noting that the costs of production items "are accelerated primarily because of excessive labor increases." If farmers and ranchers are to continue producing an adequate supply of food, they will have to receive better prices, he declared.

Equity Annual Meeting Held

An estimated 700 persons attended the 59th annual stockholders meeting of the Perryton Equity Exchange Thursday night held at Perryton High School.

In his president's report Gray reported that the Equity board had elected to add about 400,000 bushels of concrete space at keys; bolted steel of about 180,000 at Turpin, along with a new 8,000 bushel per hour leg; about 180,000 bushels of storage at Floris; and about 1.1 million bushels of reinforced concrete added to the Twitchell elevator.

The operating statement for the fiscal year showed net earnings to be at $933,065.86. The prior year showed net earnings to be over $1.88 million and two years ago the Perryton Equity Exchange had its best year ever as far as net earnings, bettering 1974's record of $3.3 million by more than $500,000.

The stockholders meeting opened at 6:30 p.m. with a barbecue dinner catered by Dyer's of Pampa. The first order of business was the election of Board of Directors. Re-elected were William Gray as president, Don Williams, Carl Morris, Jim Latham, Clefthon Lynch, Jimmy Brown, Thane McCloy, and Ron Englebrecht, Dean Leighner was elected to replace Marvin Gross of Waka, a former past president and longtime Equity board member who retired.

Kenneth J. Allen followed with an abbreviated manager's report. In prepared remarks, Allen said that while the year had produced about one-half of a wheat crop, 90 per cent of a milo crop, and 75 per cent of a corn crop, farmers of the cooperative were holding more grain than ever before.

"In trying to predict how effectively we will be able to handle the wheat, milo and corn, there are primarily three areas that can and will affect our ability to function. One is how much of the old grain we now have on hand will the farmers sell? Number 2 is what kind of yields will we have?

Third is the availability of grain cars. We are presently experiencing the worst grain car shortage in history. In fact, as far as I know it is unprecedented."

Gray also outlined other works. The fiscal year, he said, saw the completion of additional grain handling facilities in Pringle, Morse, Waka, and Floris.

"At most of our meetings throughout the year the manager appraised us of changes that were being made in our facilities relative to safety and dust control, and of course, both of these items are monitored and supervised by the Air Pollution Board and Occupational Safety and Health Administration. Admittedly, some of the necessary changes did not impress me as a board member that we would have a better operation, however, they were necessary to comply with these regulatory bodies."

The president also pointed out that during the year the board discussed the operation of feed mills and decided to close or curtail the operations substantially. "We did not close the Perryton mill. We did, however, offer fewer services and apparently we offered about all that was needed as it is working reasonably well at this time," he said.

The speaker for the night was Ed O'Rourke, vice president in charge of export marketing with Union Equity in Enid, Okla. His talk was entitled "Exports, What About Them?"

Of particular interest, O'Rourke said that carry-over was the main obstacle in the price of wheat rising. As in other commodities, the price will rise when the surplus goes down.

America needs to cut back on production, he said.

O'Rourke pointed out that the export is vital to farmers and a definite necessity in today's economic world. He also said he had high hopes for America's agricultural exports. He cautioned, however, that the U.S. does not have a choke-hold on the world wheat market and we must realize we have to be competitive with countries such as Argentina, Russia, Canada, and Australia. Our greatest potential, he said, is China—there are lots of mouths to feed.

"PIECES OF MOSAIC..."

Psychiatrist Mel Brooks is unaware that his colleague, Harvey Korman, is frightening the patient on the couch, Ron Clark, in "HIGH ANXIETY," a psycho-comedy from 20th Century-Fox.

Directing yourself in a movie can be a fast road to schizophrenia.

"There are more difficult things," smiles Mel Brooks, one of the few who's accomplished the feat, "—although I can't think of one off hand."

Brooks recently directed himself in "HIGH ANXIETY," a Twentieth Century-Fox comedy co-starring Madeline Kahn, Cloris Leachman and Harvey Korman. He also produced the film which he wrote with Ron Clark, Rudy DeLuca and Barry Levinson, and, in addition composed both words and music to the title song.

"Not the shots, not the cinematic aspects of it, but the emotion," Brooks states emphatically. "The best directors get the best performances out of actors. Everybody lauds Hitchcock for his shots, but it's not his shots, it's the emotion he evokes in us, the respect we have for the feelings of the characters."

With "HIGH ANXIETY," Brooks invades the Hitchcockian domain of the suspense thriller portraying Dr. Richard Thorndyke, described by journalist Gene Lees as "a character who aspires to be a romantic figure and is impeded in his aspirations to derring-do by his preposterous and pathetic acrophobia."

Lees, who visited the set during filming, also offers this informative comment in his article appearing in the October '77 issue of American Film:

"As for Mel Brooks the actor, Mel Brooks the director treats him as a tool, a puppet. I noticed he is far more concerned with how Harvey Korman is getting into film than with how Mel Brooks, actor, is making out."

"Exhaustion sets in by the time I get home at night," admits Brooks, "trying to keep in mind all the little pieces of the mosaic while you're doing it."

Brooks says that directing a film as well as starring in it would not be possible without the video playback system he employs during shooting. "It allows me to look at the scene within moments of filming it," explains Brooks. "I wouldn't know where I was at without it."

"Basically, I'm a writer, not a performer, director or producer," says Brooks, "but if I turn all those chores over to other people," he is quick to add, "it means my material will never reach the screen the way I envisioned it. So I act, direct and produce in self-defense."

COPE-VAN METER MARRIAGE VOWS EXCHANGED

The beautiful sanctuary of the First Baptist Church, Happy, Texas, was the scene of the wedding uniting Carrie Denise Cope and Bryan Rex VanMeter in holy matrimony Saturday, May 27, 1978 at 5:00 p. m.

Denise is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cope of Spearman, Texas. Rex is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill VanMeter of Happy.

The Reverend Paul Heil, formerly of Happy and now of Clarinda, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Paul Heil, the organist played wedding music preceding and after the marriage ceremony. She also accompanied Barry Stevens of Morse, Texas, as he sang "Today and The Wedding Prayer". She played the traditional wedding march as the bride was escorted down the aisle by her father.

The bride was radiant in a gown of pure white tulle with a high collar and a full skirt. Her hair was styled in a classic updo. She carried a bouquet of mixed spring flowers, also. Best man was Mike Sims of Happy, Texas. Ushers were Dennis Zimmerman of Hayes, Kansas, brother-in-law of the groom, Otis VanMeter, brother of the groom, and Bill Cope, brother of the bride.

The wedding vows were exchanged before an archway interwined with greenery and flanked on either side of ferns. Two floral arrangements of springtime flowers on a pedestal base completed the altar decorations. Ferns were also placed on the altar steps. The Unity Candle was on a golden pedestal wrapped in greenery and was standing behind a table draped in white and bearing the two single candles and two red roses the bride presented the mothers at the close of the service.

After the ceremony, guests were received in the Fellowship Hall. Preeding at the serving table were Karen Zimmerman of Hayes, Kansas, sister of the groom, and Shannon Wilhelm of Happy. Preiding at the guests book were Diane Johnson and Gina Luker, both of Happy. Kim McGastin and Cathy Hamblen presented the guests with rice bags as they left the reception hall.

The mother of the bride wore a formal gown of silver blue tulle. The groom's mother wore a formal gown of mint interlocked with an over-jacket of ruffled chiffon.

For her departure, the bride changed into a street length 2-piece dress with buttoned front and lace-trimmed neck edge. Her going away corsage was a replica of her bridal bouquet. After their wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 405 N. Floyd, Happy, Texas. The bride has completed a year at WTSU and is employed by Tolzien's Music Company in Amarillo, Texas. The groom is a graduate of WTSU with a degree in plant science and is presently employed by Swisher Cattle Company in Happy, Texas.

Out of town guests other than those previously mentioned were Mr. and Mrs. Sam VanMeter of Dacoma, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moses and Sheryl of Wichita Falls, Texas; Harold Moses of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Walker, Rod and David of Pampa, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Freddy Munsell of Odessa, Texas; and Greg Hacker of Hereford.

The Petroleum Institute, designed particularly for science, mathematics and social studies teachers, will be coordinated this year by Dr. Jack M. Sheridan, professor of education, University of Houston. Lectures, provided by experts from the oil industry, will include transportation, exploration, production, manufacturing, marketing and research. Three hours of graduate credit in the field of education are granted upon successful completion of assignments.

The Petroleum Institute, Mr. Taylor said, is to provide a broadened understanding of oil and gas as important energy sources, and to develop an awareness of the industrial importance of the petroleum industry in Texas.

The Panhandle OIC Area of Texas contributors to the 21st Annual Petroleum Institute for Educators are: Malouf Abraham Co., Inc.; Amarillo Oil Co.; Box Oil & Quality Oil Co.; W. P. Buckthal; Ford Tool Co.; James B. Franklin; Mesa Petroleum Co.; Panhandle Association of Petroleum Landmen; Panhandle Geological Society; Panhandle Producers and Royalty Owners Association; Paradox Petroleum Co.; Pioneer Corp.; SPE-AIME, Amarillo Petroleum Section; United Mud Service Co.; and, Yuca Petroleum Co.

Some people pay a higher amount than the basic premium. This is because there was a period of 12 months or more that they were eligible for medical insurance but were not enrolled for this protection. The increase in the basic premium amounts to 10 percent for each such 12-month period.

Even with this slight increase, medical insurance represents a real buy. This is because the people pay only about 30 percent of the cost while the Federal Government pays the remaining 70 percent from general revenues.

The basic premium will remain $8.20 a month through June 1979.

Those interested can get more information about Medicare and about social security retirement, survivor, and disability benefits at the Pampa Social Security Office, located at 1541 North Hobart. The telephone number is 669-3381.

Starting with July 1978, the basic premium for the medical insurance part of Medicare will increase to $8.20 a month, up from the $7.70 it has been since July 1977, Howard Weatherly, social security branch manager in Pampa, said today.

People who pay the premium directly will notice the increase in their bills. But, people who have the premium deducted from their social security check probably will not notice the increase because of the much larger increase in their social security check as a result of the cost of living increase that goes into effect with July checks.
