Prowler Shot - Whereabouts Mystery!

Sgt. Jimmy Jackson, of the Spearman Police Department is leading an area wide search for a prowler who apparently has sustained a gun shot wound. Area hospitals have been alerted should the victim seek medical attention. According to Sgt. Jackson, Spearman police received a prowler call early Tuesday morning and two units each with two officers responded to a call at 120 S. Haney. The occupant, Leonard Garrard, told police he had heard what appeared to be a prowler around 12:35 A.M., and upon checking the area saw the suspect standing in one of the three garages on the premises. Mr. Garrard told police that he went inside his residence and secured a 45 caliber semi-automatic rifle and fired one shot at fifteen yards distance. Mr. Garrard told police he was certain he hit the suspect... described as a man, 5'8" medium build and possibly wearing a stocking cap...and wearing a heavy coat.

Police searched the area but were unable to locate the suspect. A car sped away from the scene approximately thirty minutes later and could not be stopped by police. A check of the rifle supported the statement from Mr. Garrard that a shot had been fired...however no bullets have been found at the scene...leaving the strong possibility that somewhere in the area a suspect has a bullet lodged in his body. Local police are continuing an intensive investigation.

Fatality

A two vehicle mishap eight miles South West of Gruver on FM 2018 at 4:10 P.M. Monday claimed the life of a Gruver Resident. Pronounced dead at the scene was Edwin Dale West, 54, of Gruver. The deceased was alone in his car at the time of the accident. A second person, Ethel Ora Pittman 72, of Morse was injured and was taken to Hansford Hospital in Spearman.

Department of Public Safety Spokesmen said that Mrs. Pittman's vehicle struck the West Vehicle Broadside at an intersection on the County road. The West car ran into a ditch following the impact and according to DPS officers overturned. Mr. West was a Night Watchman for a feedlot in the Gruver area. Hansford County recorded its second fatal accident within the month as a result of Mr. West's death.

Farmers Hope

Farmers in Hansford County welcomed the sunshine this week and are hoping to get in the fields to finish cutting the milo if the drying out continues. The damp, drizzly, foggy weather of the past week or so completely halted the harvest.

A check with a local elevator Tuesday noon indicated that a check on grain brought in was too high in moisture, but with the high winds of Tuesday, the grain should be drying out and hopefully the farmers can get in the fields this week and get the milo cut.

The late planting of the crop, the late freeze, and the past two weeks of inclement weather have many farmers wondering if they are going to get their harvest over so they will be able to enjoy Christmas. Here's hoping the weather holds and they get to do just that.

Four Escape Injury When Van Flips

Four Pampa men escaped what might have been a serious injury at 4:35 P.M. Monday when the van in which they were riding failed to negotiate a curve on FM 760 N., 13 miles North of Spearman.

Chief Deputy Sheriff John Mull of Hansford County identified the driver of the 1977 GMC van as Tommy Cooper, 24, of Pampa.

None of the four occupants of the van sustained any injuries.

TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
 NEWS Nov. 22, 1978

GOLDEN GOODNESS - Any way you slice it, this delicious herb flavored loaf will add the perfect touch to a holiday table, notes Texas Department of Agriculture Home Economist Fran Gerling. And besides, there's nothing like the aroma of baking bread to whet those cold weather appetites!

From the TAP Kitchen

Texas Department of Agriculture-Reagan V. Brown, Commissioner

TEXAS HERB BREAD

- 3 C. sifted all-purpose flour
- 1/2 C. sugar
- 1 T. salt
- 1 pkg. active dry yeast
- 2 1/2 C. warm water
- 1 1/2 tsp. oregano
- 3 T. finely minced onions
- 1/2 C. shortening
- 1 egg, beaten
- 1 C. sifted flour
- 3/4 C. sifted flour
- 1 1/2 tsp. basil
- 3/4 tsp. thyme

With an electric mixer, in a large mixing bowl, mix flour, sugar, salt and yeast. Combine in another bowl, water and shortening. Gradually add this mixture to dry ingredients and beat 2 minutes at medium speed, scraping bowl occasionally. Add egg and flour. Beat 1/2 minute at low speed, then at high speed 3 minutes. Stir in 3/4 cup flour. Turn out on a lightly floured board. Add herbs and onions and knead dough until elastic, about 10 minutes. The top of each loaf can be garnished with herbs and/or onions. Allow the bread to rise once in the mixing bowl, and once in the baking pan.

When ready to bake, place loaves in a cold oven. Turn the heat to 400 degrees. After 15 minutes reduce heat to 375 degrees and bake 25 minutes longer. Test for doneness. Remove the loaves and cool on a rack before storing.

This bread freezes beautifully, so it can be baked ahead, wrapped in foil and placed in the freezer. Thaw the bread, still wrapped, for 3 hours before serving. Twenty minutes before serving, place bread in a 300 degree oven to freshen.

The Now Washbasket
 By Steffie Miller

Are your white clothes showing signs of 'tattle-tale grey'? Fabric greying is caused by a buildup of unremoved soil and soap or detergent, an overloaded washer and wash water temperature that's not hot enough. Here's a 'prescription' to help alleviate this problem:

1. Wash whites in separate loads; cottons in hot water, synthetics and blends in warm.
2. Use at least the recommended amount of detergent as per directions on the package. Increase this amount for heavily soiled items.
3. If you have hard water and/or live in a 'phosphate ban' area, use a laundry additive with your detergent. These products condition the wash water and help prevent fabric greying and remove stains, thus boosting your detergent's cleaning power. However, stay away from liquid chlorine bleach. Frequent use can weaken some fabrics and cause others to fade or turn yellow over time. Many homemakers recommend using BORATEEM PLUS instead, because it's safe for laundering whites and colored clothes.

4. Some white items, if severely discolored, might be restored with a packaged color remover. Use according to label directions.

Want some additional laundry tips? Write to: LAUNDRY BOOKLET, P.O. Box 75128, Sanford Station, Los Angeles, CA 90075.

TDA Asks Texas Cooks To Send In Best Recipes

AUSTIN--The Texas Department of Agriculture is asking Texas cooks to share some of their favorite recipes by allowing them to be published in the TDA Quarterly, a magazine distributed throughout the state.

Recipes from readers are a regular feature in the general-interest magazine, which features articles on Texas food and fiber. The upcoming January issue will feature carrots, potato chips and fruit from Texas-grown trees.

"There's nothing to beat Texas cooking," said Agriculture Commissioner

Reagan V. Brown, "and we'd like to help pass along some of those recipes which help our state maintain its culinary reputation."

"Of course, a big part of the reason our Texas cooks are so good is that just about every ingredient needed is produced in abundance right here in our state," Brown added.

TDA Quarterly magazine is available without charge to Texas residents. To be placed on the mailing list or to submit recipes, write TDA Quarterly, Texas Department of Agriculture, P. O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711.

FB Prexy Opposes "Cheap Food" Policy

DALLAS-- Texas Farm Bureau President Carol Chaloupka said Monday that the wrong kind of a farm program could lead to a "cheap food" policy by government that would benefit neither farmers nor consumers.

Addressing the 45th annual meeting of the Texas Farm Bureau at the Dallas Hilton, Chaloupka warned producers about piling up surpluses in government-held reserves.

"We must avoid giving political planners the opportunity to impose a cheap food policy on us," Chaloupka said.

Chaloupka referred to the large increase in private storage built by producers, and urged farmers to keep control of their grain.

The leader of the state's largest farm organization said the only way producers will get fair prices is to balance supply with demand. He referred to the recent experience in the cattle industry.

"The cattle industry has gone through a devastating four years, but it did reduce cattle numbers by 15 percent, and today cattle prices are very good," he said.

Chaloupka pointed to other problems that must be solved if farmers and ranchers are to obtain a high net income in the marketplace. These include, he said, expanding exports, controlling inflation, lessening government regulations, restraining the "monopoly power" of labor unions, and "sensible" water and energy policies.

The state farm leader stressed the importance of farm exports to agriculture. He said one-fourth of farmers' income results from foreign sales, and that the production of one acre in three of cropland is exported. He said many people in agriculture still do not realize how much farmers depend upon exports.

"If we didn't have this outlet," he said, "our prices for export commodities -- assuming current production -- would be way below the cost of production. And, a lot of us would be out of business," he said.

Still on the subject of exports, Chaloupka said agriculture could not afford a farm program that forced foreign buyers to pay 100 percent of parity for American farm products. He pointed out that the U.S. does not control the world markets.

"Anytime you have a law like that, you can prepare to take tremendous cuts in your cotton, grain, rice, and soybean production," he said. "I don't mean acreage, I mean production."

The farm leader said inflation -- caused primarily by government deficit spending -- is the greatest problem facing this nation. If inflation is not stopped, he warned, it will be the "downfall of this society as we know it."

Chaloupka said Farm Bureau has a policy that deals with inflation. It includes adopting amendments to the U.S. Constitution requiring Congress to operate on a balanced budget and restricting the tax authority of government to a realistic percentage of the gross national product.

On the subject of government regulations, Chaloupka said there is no excuse for the degree of regulation and restraint Americans are subjected to today.

"The unneeded regulations and the bureaucracy they have spawned create special problems for all of us," he said. "They take away our freedom. They add to the cost of everything we buy and sell."

Commenting on what he termed the "strangle-hold" union labor has on the American economy, the farm leader said unions are protected from anti-trust provisions of the law. This "unfair advantage" should be restrained, he said.

On another subject, Chaloupka said water may become the most limiting resource to which Texas must adjust.

"We in Farm Bureau are going to have to be leaders in the development of a water resources plan to eliminate shortages in water-deficit areas as well as prevent flooding in the surplus areas," he said.

The TFB leader commented that the President's energy bill is "worthless" as far as Texas is concerned as it would regulate intr-state use of natural gas. He said total deregulation would provide incentives for adequate production of energy supplies.

Chaloupka commended county leaders for helping to pass the Tax relief Amendment in the general election. But, he warned, enabling legislation is still necessary if agriculture is to have relief from agricultural land taxes.

"If we fail to pass enabling legislation this next session, we may never have another chance again," he said.

Controlled Harvesting

When fire and windstorm destroy a forest, the animals that aren't killed by falling trees or flames, flee to another refuge. The birds fly away, and the fish die. That's how nature harvests the forest.

Foresters -- private, state and federal -- have succeeded in reducing acreage in the U.S. lost to fire from more than 43 million acres in 1936 to less than three million in 1974 by harvesting timber before it becomes overripe and falls prey to disease, rot, insects, lightning and wind.

TO STOP DEVASTATING FOREST FIRES, foresters build roads to bring in modern fire-fighting equipment.

USDA - ACP Program

Priorities Set

College Station--ASCS COUNTY DELEGATES MEET WITH STATE OFFICE OFFICIALS TO SET USDA-ACP '79 PROGRAM PRIORITIES:

Forty elected delegates, representing the 235 county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) offices, met at the Ramada Inn in College Station with the staff members and officials of the Texas State ASCS Office who administer the State's Agricultural Conservation Program (ACP) to discuss the changes made in the 1979 program.

State and county ACP programs will be based on the national practices although additional practices may be developed at the local level to meet specific pollution or conservation problems, reported George Boenigk, Texas State ACP program specialist. ACP assistance will not be used to carry out measures and practices that are primarily production oriented or those that have little or no conservation or pollution abatement benefits.

Darrel Davis, ACP program specialist who accompanied Boenigk to the Area ACP Meeting held in Denver, Colorado, preliminary to this meeting, reported that implementation of the provisions of the 1979 ACP Act will be achieved through the establishment of: criteria for determining the practices eligible for ACP assistance; guidelines for directing assistance toward situations in which practices can be expected to yield significant public soil or water conservation or pollution abatement benefits; and procedures to facilitate approval of solutions to local soil conservation, water conservation, or pollution abatement problems not addressed by practices thought to meet the national criteria.

Responding to a request made by the Texas State ASCS Committee, a five member board that governs the Texas national ACP program be afforded input from the "grass-roots" level, the delegates, in September of this year, furnished to the State office written recommendations for the program's basic policy and program procedures.

John D. Smith, Committee chairman, announced that details of the 190 million dollar program will be published in the Federal Register on or about November 14, and that the public would be afforded a 30 day comment period.

The amount of funds allocated to Texas has not as yet been announced. "The amount," Boenigk said, "will be determined from the results of the needs study conducted in 1971 by USDA Federal agency representatives."

Under ACP, the USDA provides both technical and financial assistance to farmers whose land is a source of agricultural pollution, or is affected by wind or water erosion. ACP emphasizes providing enduring solutions to these problems, and is aimed at farmers who would not carry out approved conservation practices without some cost-sharing incentive. Cost-sharing for a part of the farmers or ranchers costs on the most critical problems, with a payment limit of $3,500 per person, will be made available.

Other officials participating in the meeting were Leonard C. Williams, State Executive Director of the Texas ASCS headquarters office located in College Station and State ASC Committee members: Marguerite B. Snyder of Baird; Edward L. Lehman of Vernon; Joe E. Chapa of Linn; and James E. Goad of Rosebud.

Texas Department of Agriculture
Reagan V. Brown, Commissioner

TEXAS' RICH AND DIVERSE agricultural heritage is responsible for much of the state's present prosperity, although this heritage is in danger of being forgotten, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown said recently.

Brown addressed descendants of many of Texas' pioneer farmers and ranchers at the Texas Department of Agriculture's 1978 Family Land Heritage Program in Austin.

"Today there are fewer than one-half million persons living on farms and ranches in the state, even though 50 per cent of our entire population lived in rural areas as recently as 40 years ago," Brown said. "Agricultural producers now represent only about three per cent of the population, which makes them one of the smallest, but most important, minority groups."

"Even though we are a minority, and a misunderstood one at that, we must never let this country's vital food and fiber lifeline be taken for granted," he added. "We must make the consuming public aware that farmers and ranchers do not always share in the prosperity, even during the best of times."

WARNINGS ARE BEING ISSUED that screwworms have been discovered in areas of South Texas and Northeastern Mexico, which are used extensively for wintering over cattle, notes Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown.

"Experts reveal that screwworms have been indicated throughout the Hill Country and Edwards Plateau," Brown said. "They also appear to be moving from the heavily infested area west of the Pecos River."

Confirmed cases of the costly parasite have increased dramatically in 1978, after a relatively light year in 1977, Brown stated.

REAGAN V. BROWN,
Texas Commissioner of Agriculture, has been honored with a second major agricultural award this year.

Brown recently received the 1978 Distinguished Government Service Award from the Professional Agricultural Workers of Texas, for his work to make Texas agriculture No. 1 in production and profits. He was previously notified that he has been named the 1978 recipient of the D. Howard Doane award from the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers.

Brown has received some 17 major awards and citations during his nearly three decades of involvement in Texas agriculture.

Rapid Completion of Forms Urged on 1978 Ag Census

AUSTIN--Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown urges Texas farmers and ranchers to complete and return all 1978 Farm Census reports as soon as they are received early next year.

"The report forms which will be used for the 21st national agriculture census will take just one-third the time to complete as the old forms," Brown said. "Prompt completion of the forms will allow the U. S. Department of Agriculture to quickly and accurately compile this benchmark data for its current agriculture statistical series."

Yesterday's Yuletides Still At Greenfield Village

HOLIDAY ENCHANTMENT—The 1832 Clinton Inn is decorated with traditional greenery.

While blustery winter winds blow and snow flurries snarl modern thoroughways, a bit of yesterday's Yuletide lies nestled in the quiet outskirts of bustling Detroit, Mich.

In the adjacent Henry Ford Museum, craftsmen offer examples of yuletide activities along the Street of Shops. In the Museum Theater the classic Dickens tale, "A Christmas Carol," delights children and parents alike, honoring the past tradition of holiday entertainment for the entire family.

While the hustle and bustle of the modern world rushes by outside the Village, the old-fashioned spirit of Christmas is alive and well at Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum.

The Village and Museum are open every day of the year except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Days. Village and Museum admission are separate, each being $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for children 6-12. Children under 6 are admitted free.

Money Management Tips

CHECKING FOR SAFETY

Interest paid on bonds often reflects the degree of risk involved. Another way of estimating the safety of an investment is by referring to bond rating services the safety of an investment is by referring to bond rating services such as Moody's and Standard & Poor's, which periodically assign ratings to each entity that issues bonds for public sale. A rating of AAA is the highest expression of confidence that a rating service gives and a rating of A or higher is considered to represent a reasonably safe investment.

STOCKS VS. BONDS

A bond differs from a share of stock in that the former represents part ownership in the issuing company. Bonds pay interest at regular intervals and as a rule are considered safer investments than most stocks. But a low-rated bond—in the C or D category—may in fact pose a greater risk than do many stocks.

INCOME STABILITY

When investing for steady income, remember that as a rule bondholders can depend upon interest payments to a greater degree than stockholders can depend upon dividends. The reason: interest on bonds represents payment of a debt at a fixed rate; dividends represent distribution of profits, which can vary dramatically.

MUNICIPALS NOT FOR EVERYONE

State and municipal bonds are exempt from most income taxes but pay a lower rate of interest than many corporate and federal issues. If you are in a modest income bracket, it may not pay to concern yourself with the tax advantages of municipals. Some federal treasury bonds and many high-rated corporate bonds can pay as much as three percent more than municipals.

GIVE "BEARER" BONDS SPECIAL CARE

Special care should be taken to safeguard a "bearer" bond, which is not registered in the name of its holder. Such bonds are fully negotiable and difficult to trace if lost or stolen.

AVOID PENALTY FOR UNDERWITHOLDING

At this time of year it might be worthwhile to make a quick calculation concerning your 1978 income taxes: will the taxes withheld from your paychecks cover less than 80 percent of your total tax bill? If so, you might wind up paying a penalty for underwithholding. The problem perhaps can be eliminated by having your employer increase withholding from your last few paychecks for 1978. If you file declarations of estimated tax, you can increase your final payment.

SHIFTING DEDUCTIONS

If you are planning to take the standard deduction on your 1978 return, you might want to put off until January some bill-paying that could increase your deductions for 1979. For example, charitable contributions, non-emergency medical and dental services and certain state and local taxes represent expenses you might defer until after the New Year. Doing so might help save taxes if you decide to itemize deductions for 1979.

TRY TO COLLECT

If you are planning to claim a bad debt as a 1978 tax deduction, be prepared to show that you made a serious, unsuccessful effort to collect what is owed you before the end of the year. That is one of the requirements for establishing that the debt went bad in 1978.

The Music For Film Version Of "Grease" Captures Talents Of Dazzling Young Cast

"A musical director generally takes a simply constructed song and, along with the choreographer, makes it live," explains Louis St. Louis, special creative musical consultant for the film version of "Grease." Louis, who was also musical director and vocal and dance arranger for the original Broadway production, goes on to explain how he has adapted the Broadway score for film.

"Summer Nights" is basically the same as it was in the show, with a few minor changes, while "Beauty School Dropout" has changed drastically. I did that because of Frankie Avalon's approach to the song. It's a far more legitimate version, totally romantic.

"You have to take your cues from the ingredients. 'Look at Me, I'm Sandra Dee' is a really very funny song, but Stockard Channing has made it truly Loony-Tunes, which is just what it ought to be. I've been lucky to be able to take a fresh point of view for the film, since I've been away from the show for two years."

Louis, who was brought up in a heavily populated black neighborhood in Detroit, has a background similar to that of rock and roll. "It all came from black rhythm and blues, which then transferred into white music. Then the white performers adapted it in the mid-Fifties."

When Louis was called in to work on the film version of "Grease," a number of musical decisions had to be made. "I think it's been a good choice to use some real songs from the period. It gives us some reality, rather than a pure musical comedy feeling." As the story line redefined itself for film, with more emphasis on the two principal characters, it was also agreed that several of the show's songs no longer worked. In their place, four new songs have been added.

John Farrar, who has produced Olivia Newton-John's albums while producing her platinum single, "I Honestly Love You," and writing, producing and arranging her smash, "Have You Ever Been Mellow," was brought in to create a solo for Olivia. "Hopelessly Devoted to You," and a duet for her and John Travolta, "You're the One That I Want."

Louis then collaborated with Scott Simon, Sha-Na-Na's keyboard genius, on a solo for Travolta. "I simply felt that John deserved a matinee-idol song in the show. I tried to find a song that could do that, and also one that might have a touch of humor to it. Then it hit me—we must immortalize the name Sandy. It was the biggest girl's name of the Fifties—and so we wrote a real teen-age bleeding-heart, agony song: 'Sandy.'"

Of the material written especially for the soundtrack, some of today's most outstanding writers were called upon to contribute. Bee Gee Barry Gibb wrote the title cut, "Grease," performed by Frankie Valli in the film, and Peter Frampton plays guitar.

"It's turned out that we've used several elements in our new songs," Louis explains, "but you can't say that the Fifties were all rock and roll."

"People like Johnny Mathis were also popular in that period, and it's just as legitimate to use all those elements, because they all happened at the same time."

"Grease" is a Robert Stigwood/Allan Carr Production For Paramount Pictures Starring John Travolta * Olivia Newton-John. Also Starring Stockard Channing as Rizzo. Screenplay By Bronte Woodward. Adaptation By Allan Carr. Based on the Original Musical By Jim Jacobs and Warren Casey. Produced on the Broadway Stage By Kenneth Weissman and Maxine Fox In Association With Anthony D'Amato. Directed By Randal Kleiser. Produced By Robert Stigwood and Allan Carr. Dances and Musical Sequences Staged and Choreographed by Patricia Birch.

Taiwanese Corn Purchase Totals Over $11 Million

DALLAS--Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has announced that the Republic of China (Taiwan) recently signed contracts for $11 million worth of Texas-crop corn.

The contract was awarded to the Louis Dreyfus Corp. of Stamford, Conn., during ceremonies at the World Trade Center. The contract called for 99,000 metric tons of Texas corn to be delivered to a Texas Gulf Coast export location. The meeting between Republic of China buyers and potential American sellers was coordinated by the Texas Department of Agriculture, in a continuing effort to stimulate foreign sales of Texas and American agricultural goods.

The Taiwanese buyers were part of a grain procurement mission which will arrange for the purchase of 1.9 million metric tons of U. S. grains during a 45-day tour in this country. As well as agricultural products, the mission will also purchase American industrial equipment.

So far in 1978, Taiwan's trade with the U. S. has totaled about $5.4 billion, with almost $1 billion of this going for agricultural products.

Texas Poultry, Eggs Fill Cold Weather Menu Needs

AUSTIN--Texas consumers should figure plenty of nutritious poultry and eggs into those cold weather menus, due to bright supply prospects and reasonable prices, urges Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown.

"Over 15 million broiler chicks were hatched in Texas during September, up 7 per cent over 1977," Brown said. "This signals good supplies of broilers in the months ahead. In addition, placements of broiler chicks so far this year are up from over 65 million in 1977 to almost 88 million."

Brown stated that consumer demand for chicken has gained steadily as supplies of red meats have leveled off. As of August, chicken slaughter in Texas was up 6 per cent over last year in response to this growing demand. However, turkey supplies are reported to be less abundant this year, and this could force holiday prices somewhat higher, he noted. September figures show 328,000 heavy breed turkey poult hatched, which is 1 per cent below a year ago. Total poundage of turkeys slaughtered during August also was down 10 per cent from 1977, he added.

In contrast, eggs for holiday baking and cooking should be in plentiful supply through the upcoming cold months. Production during September totaled 196 million eggs, an increase of 4 per cent from last year at that time. Texas producers hatched 2.3 million egg-type chicks during September, and this 8-per-cent jump should help guarantee future supplies at reasonable prices.

COMPUTERS FOR HOME STUDY

What can compete with the automobile, stereo, TV and other modern wonders for your child's attention? Quite possibly the micro-computer.

A new low-cost, complete microcomputer system designed for the home could be just the ticket to turn your boy or girl back on to studying and improving his or her grades in school. No more holding up cards, or calling out spelling words or questions if you're a concerned parent who wants to help.

Following the computer's easy-to-understand instruction/programming manual, you can program drills and subject-related activities for your student. Then, he can devise his own questions and test himself, or store vital background material on a tape cassette recorder that plugs right into the computer. And you can be sure he'll use it because using the microcomputer is fun!

A HOME COMPUTER is like having a private tutor for your child.

Made by Radio Shack, a nationwide electronics store chain that's a leading supplier of top-quality microcomputers, the new portable instrument is called the TRS-80 Microcomputer. It's compatible with the ordinary household current.

When you give this handy instructional aid, with pre-recorded instructional programs like elementary math, algebra and computer programming itself, you'll probably find the interest was there. Until now, you just didn't know how to tap it.

Many homemakers think of frozen foods primarily as an answer for hurry-up meals, but, increasingly, smart cooks are using frozen soups and sauces to facilitate the preparation of more elaborate meals, as well as to provide variety, economy, and appetite appeal in using leftovers.

House Burglary Cleared

The arrest of a fifteen year old Juvenile apparently clears the burglary of a house several days ago in Spearman. Hansford County Sheriff R. L. McFarlin said that the fifteen year old remains in custody at the Hansford County Jail. Most of the items taken in the burglary of the Verlin Behne residence have also been recovered according to Sheriff McFarland.

Felony Warrants Filed

Two felony warrants filed in Hansford County have been served on two subjects in connection with over $1000 worth of worthless checks issued in Hansford County.

Sheriff R. L. McFarlin said that Leslie Joseph White, 21, of Perryton has been arrested in Perryton and is being held in custody and is awaiting trial. Bobby White is also in custody in Texarkana, Texas on a similar charge filed in Hansford County and is awaiting return to Hansford County.

Boys Scouts Selling Christmas Trees

tions early to have the Christmas tree you want.

They will be open from 4:30 to 7 p.m., Mondays thru Fridays, and from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday.

This is one of the money making projects of the troop so be sure and patronize them if you need a tree.

Price To Introduce "Initiative & Referendum" Resolution

PAMPA. . . Senator Bob Price has today announced that he is pre-introducing a resolution that could bring "initiative and referendum" to Texas.

The resolution will be filed this week with the Secretary of the Senate for placement on the Legislative calendar.

The resolution proposes to amend Article III and XVII of the Texas Constitution so as to reserve in the people the powers of initiative and referendum.

Senator Price explained, "This amendment gives the people the power to participate in the enactment of legislation. Initiative will allow the people of Texas to propose laws and constitutional amendments and to adopt them at the polls independently of the Legislature. Referendum would allow the people to reserve to themselves the power and to approve or reject at the polls any act or part of an act passed by the Legislature."

"I can think of no better goal," said Price, "than to give the people of Texas the right to participate in this democratic form of government."

Senator Price added that this resolution is one of a number of pieces of legislation that he is planning to introduce during the upcoming session.

Peggy's Pointers

COLLEGE STATION--Best buys this week at Texas grocery markets include grapefruit, fryer chickens, potatoes and winter squash, according to Gwendolyn Clyatt.

Large-size eggs and grocery market feature items in several departments are other economical buys, she reports.

Mrs. Clyatt is a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

This week's price-quality trends are the following:

FRUITS--Grapefruit offers high quality and low prices, especially in bags--5, 8 or 18-pound bags. Apples have moderate prices.

For best buys or other fruits, compare prices on oranges, grapes, bananas, cranberries, tangerines and tangelos.

POULTRY--Fryer chickens make an economical meat choice in spite of slightly higher prices. Large-size eggs are a budget buy, also.

VEGETABLES--Best buys are potatoes, sweet potatoes and winter squash (hard-shell).

Other budget-stretching items are cabbage, carrots, turnips, broccoli, rutabagas, cooking greens and dry yellow onions.

DAIRY--Feature items are eggnog, yogurt and cottage cheese.

GROCERY MARKET AISLES--"Specials" include canned applesauce, peanut butter and sugar.

FROZEN FOOD CHESTS--Check for low prices on vegetables, strawberries and dinners.

BEEF--Markets follow no pattern on "specials." Some offer chuck cuts, while others offer loin or rib cuts or ground beef.

For economy, buy less-tender cuts--shoulder or chuck, flank, shank, round--and cook them with slow, moist heat.

PORK--"Specials" include Boston butt roasts, end chops, quarter loin cut into chops and pork liver.

LAMB--Some features appear on leg of lamb and lamb shoulders.

For tenderness, choose a shank or sirloin half of the leg of lamb.

For economy, choose a shoulder roast.

HOLIDAY WATCHWORDS: In buying fruitcake ingredients, remember these guides:

- Use high-quality fruit. It is relatively high-priced but means more flavor.
- To cut costs, use less expensive items, such as prunes, for part of the candied fruit.
- Mixed, ready-cut candied fruit costs less than each kind of fruit which is not cut.
- Use only fresh nuts to avoid rancidity problems with older ones.
- In buying nuts, compare prices of in-shell nuts against those already shelled.

A pound of shelled pecans equals two pounds of in-shell pecans. The same is true for almonds. However, a pound of shelled English walnuts equals 2 1/2 pounds of in-shell walnuts.

Also, one pound of chopped pecans equals three and three-fourths cups.

Babies can easily be scalded if they turn on hot water or drown in very small amounts of water in the tub, the specialist explains.

Health care costs are increasing more than 10 percent a year, reports Claudia Kerbel, consumer information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

This puts a strain on family budgets without adequate health insurance, she points out.
