*New Year
Greetings*

Beginning of the year

How did we ever get into the habit of looking backwards? By-product of some shoddy mathematics, no doubt. If the day you are born is your birthday—then it's undoubtedly your first birthday. And when you are a year old you should celebrate your second birthday, and begin your second year.

Of course, we are not seriously advocating that everybody add one to his next birthday. That would be too confusing for certain friends of ours who are 39 and holding!

But you will agree, won't you, that on birthdays we ought to be looking ahead? The only year we can do anything about is the one we're about to live. Opportunities do a great deal more for human character than memories, no matter how fond the memories.

The churches with their tremendous resources for spiritual training and growth always celebrate our children's birthdays by looking ahead.

Start the New Year
by attending church this Sunday!

Highway emergencies can happen to anyone, anywhere, anytime.

Think about the unexpected from other drivers or your car. And be prepared to act. The "Driving Emergency" and "Emergency Repair" books can help you handle many highway surprises.

Think, React, Live!
Panic is your enemy. It can kill you.

The "Driving Emergency" book gives examples of seven highway emergencies with suggested responses from the National Safety Council.

Example: brake failure. Pump the brake pedal. Use the parking brake (but don't jam it on hard if you're in a curve—that can cause a spin.) Shift into a lower gear (or lower range on your automatic.) The drag of the engine will slow you down. As your last resort, sidestep something. Damaged metal is better than damaged people.

Other examples include blow-outs, vehicles coming at you in your lane, stuck accelerators, skids, sinking, and popped-up hoods. Each suggested reaction gives ideas for life-saving action.

Simple Fix-Tips For Breakdowns

You can handle some common car problems yourself. You just have to know where to look, what to look for, and what to do when you find it.

Be prepared with an emergency kit. Pack it with jumper cables, working flashlight, siphon pump, distress flag, flares, duct tape, wire paper clip, tire inflator, plastic water bar, screwdrivers, and adjustable pliers. The whole kit should cost less than $18. If it saves you one towing charge, it could pay for itself.

Here's an example. Your car's temperature light goes red. The engine has overheated. Pull off the road, turn on your flashers and turn off the key. First, look for a water leak. If you find a small leak in the radiator hose, wait for the engine to cool, then tape it up. If you can't loosen the radiator cap a notch to relieve pressure and drive slowly to the nearest service station.

If a broken hose isn't the problem when the radiator is cool enough to touch, check the level of coolant. If it's low and you have water handy, fill 'er up.

Or check the fan belt. If it's broken, but the radiator is full and the cap is on tight, drive slowly until the warning light comes on again. Stop, and let the engine cool again. You'll be able to limp far enough this way to get help.

Gabriel Receives "Outstanding Jr. Citizen" Award

Kyle Gabriel, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Novak, is shown here receiving an "Outstanding Jr. Citizen" award for his part in reporting a fire in Arizona recently.

Kyle Gabriel, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Monty Gabriel of Phoenix, Ariz. and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Novak of Spearman, along with a companion Dominick Serikstad, 10, were out delivering the Mesa Tribune for a friend who was on vacation recently. While on their route, the boys noticed smoke coming from the eaves of a home. They took a closer look by looking through the front windows of the home, and knocked on the door to see if there was anyone inside. There was no one in the home so the boys went next door to call the fire department. According to the homeowner, the family had just left early that morning for the weekend. When the fire department arrived, the crew went into the home and came out with clothes, furniture and other valuable personal property. Mesa firemen told the boys that if they had not seen the fire when they did, the home would have suffered great damage along with the homes next door. The boys were commended for not trying to open the door of the home as it could have exploded. This could have been a total disaster. When asked how the boys knew not to open the door of the fiery home, Dominick stated, "I saw the same thing on EMERGENCY." Both boys received "Outstanding Jr. Citizen" awards for their action.

Judge McClellan says... SALVATION ARMY DRIVE UNDERWAY IN HANSFORD AREA

A total of $1,210,000 has been raised to date in the Spearman Salvation Army Service Unit fund drive, as announced by campaign chairman R. L. McClellan at the first report meeting.

"We are making excellent progress. We are still $300,000 short of our $1,500,000 goal, but I am confident we will go over the top," McClellan said. McClellan said many prospects have yet to be contacted by the 14 campaign workers who will stay on the job until the goal is reached.

Donated funds will be used during the current fiscal year for emergency welfare aid to needy families and individuals.

The Service Unit also enables the community to participate in Salvation Army state programs, including summer camp for boys, relief in time of disaster, help for families of prisoners and alcoholics, and care for pre-delinquent girls and unwed mothers.

Dog Bark Brings Rescue Efforts!

When F. A. Shapley Jr. sustained his extremely serious farm mishap recently the family dog may have been instrumental in causing rescue efforts to reach the injured Gruverite more quickly than might otherwise have been the case.

Several Gruver Officials note that when the longtime Gruver farmer sustained the incapacitating leg injury, he whistled to his dog above the noise of the machinery; the dog began to bark and thus alerted Wilma Shapley to the plight of her seriously injured husband. Gruver Patrolman Mike Vick, on the force barely several months was summoned to drive the ambulance from Gruver to the Hansford hospital. He was assisted by Gruver City Official Ruth Gumfroy.

Recent word from those close to the injured man indicate that he continue to make progress. He is still in High Plains Hospital, where he was taken following emergency surgical therapy at the Hansford Hospital in Spearman.

John Travolta Ignites The Screen In "SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER" Opening At Theatre

John Travolta, who soared to television stardom as Barbarino on "Welcome Back, Kotter," now ignites the big screen in his motion picture debut, Paramount Pictures' "Saturday Night Fever," a Robert Stigwood Production. Travolta portrays a local disco kingpin at the peak of his popularity, representing the restless and explosive youth of the Seventies.

"Saturday Night Fever," produced by Robert Stigwood with Kevin McCormick as executive producer, has a screenplay by Norman Wexler (two-time Oscar nominee for "Joe and "Serpico") based upon a story by Nik Cohn. It deals openly with a new generation growing up in the Seventies—kids living outside Manhattan and boasting their own mores, their own dress, their own lifestyle.

Director John Badham previously impressed critics with his ability to combine high-spirited entertainment and social significance in "The Bingo Long Traveling All-Stars and Motor Kings."

Karen Lynn Gorney is introduced as Stephanie in "Saturday Night Fever." Chosen following an extensive talent search, Karen is most familiar to television audiences as the soap opera princess Tara on "All My Children." She portrays more than John Travolta's love interest in the film—she is the enigmatic world-out-there, and finally Travolta's ticket to it.

Also in the cast of "Saturday Night Fever" are Barry Miller, Joseph Cali, Paul Pape, Bruce Ornstein, Donna Pescow, Val Bisoglio, Julie Bovasso, Martin Shakar, Nina Hansen and Lisa Peluso.

Production on "Saturday Night Fever" took cast and crew all over New York City. From the streets of Brooklyn's Bay Ridge, they traveled to Manhattan's West Side with some of the most intriguing filming taking place on the Verrazano Bridge. The film was shot entirely on location and exclusively in New York City and its environment. "Saturday Night Fever" offers audiences a look at the Seventies' generation. Taking one character from adolescence to adulthood, it is a romance and it is disco. And it is Travolta.

A Clear Example Of Success
The future looks light when it comes to furniture and decorating accessories.

In fact, much furniture seen in showrooms featuring the latest designs is practically invisible—it's made of elegant, practical acrylic sheet, a material being used by many furniture designers who find it helps bring a feeling of spaciousness to today's smaller homes and apartments because it's

Whether colored or clear, acrylic furniture is extremely sturdy but also lightweight, and it stays clean with just mild soap and water.

Acrylic sheet, such as Acrylite® from CYRO Industries, is also increasingly popular with home handy-men and women. It's easy and fun to work with and a lot more versatile than wood since you can bend or mold it to just about any shape.

Many people are turning out stunning footstools, backgammon boards and picture frames—even large pieces—for themselves or to give as gifts. For a free booklet, "How To Care for Acrylite® acrylic sheet," write to CYRO Industries, Berdan Ave., Dept. V, Wayne, N.J. 07470.

It would appear the acrylic success story is one you can see right through.

SUPER-SLICK SKILLET MAKES A SUPER GIFT

She may have heard about it from friends—but it's not until she actually uses it herself that she'll realize it's just what she wanted!

It's the made-in-France nonstick pan called T-Fal—a wonderful gift for any woman, whether she's a new bride or the best cook in town. The super-slick surface of mechanically bonded 100 percent pure PTFE is the miracle ingredient that makes all the difference in both food preparation and clean-up. No food sticks—not even protein foods such as eggs, or sugary foods such as candy or syrupy sauces. And this remarkable surface is responsible for the ultimate boon—no messy clean-up. Just a swish of a soapy cloth or sponge is all it ever takes.

In the Middle Ages it was against the law to tie knots during a wedding ceremony.

Karen Lynn Gorney, Princess Of TV Soap Operas, In "Saturday Night Fever"

Still # SN-COMP.19 SCENE 1A
Karen Lynn Gorney portrays John Travolta's love interest in Paramount Pictures' "Saturday Night Fever," a film that deals openly with the restless and explosive generation growing up in the Seventies.

As Tara on "All My Children," Karen Lynn Gorney merely had to face family feuds, fatal diseases, ill-timed pregnancies and a sweetheart called away to war. In "Saturday Night Fever" she has to hold her own as Stephanie opposite a national phenomenon called John Travolta. Karen originated the now-famous role of Tara, the one sweet and reliable centerpiece of "All My Children." They didn't want me to change Tara at all as the years went on. While I always wanted to let Tara develop, they forced her to remain one of the last vestiges of a pre-women's lib woman. If she really had to remain the same sweet thing she was in high school after all she'd been through, I think she might have died.

"Tara was always torn between one man and another. When she finally married her childhood sweetheart, I wanted to play her as if that dream had fallen through—but that wasn't in the formula."

Does Karen see any similarities between Tara and Stephanie, the young woman who fascinates John Travolta in "Saturday Night Fever" and eventually helps him broaden his world?

"Tara and Stephanie are total opposites. While Tara will be forced to stay in Pine Valley forever, Stephanie already has one foot on her way. She's much tougher than Tara, as far as survival is concerned, and she has a sense of humor. I see Stephanie working her way up and becoming a top agent, and eventually a producer. She's a street kid and determined to make it, and she will. As for Tony, he'll have a tough time keeping up with her, but I think they'll be tight for a long time to come."

Recently Karen has begun selling silkcreens of her early primitive acrylic paintings while putting together an album of her own compositions. Leaning toward jazz, she has played the guitar since the age of nine, preferring it to the piano which is "too big to hold in my arms." Karen has appeared at the Troubadour in Los Angeles, at the Texas Opry House in Houston and at the Other End and Folk City in New York, where Variety cheered. "In her musical performance she really scores... she could easily make it as a cafe singer." "Saturday Night Fever," starring John Travolta, is a Robert Stigwood Production produced by Robert Stigwood and directed by John Badham from a screenplay by Norman Wexler based on a story by Nik Cohn. Kevin McCormick is the film's executive producer.

Bullock Issues Revenue Report

AUSTIN--Comptroller Bob Bullock forecast Monday in a revenue report to the Legislature that Texas' economic prosperity will continue for the next two years but he cautioned that national forces may slow down the rate of the state's growth. Even with a mild recession in mid-1979, though, state government will have available for its budget record money from taxes and other sources. Bullock's revenue estimate said. Bullock predicted that money from existing taxes and other sources will top $21.2 billion in the 1980-81 budget period, or $2.8 billion more than the state is spending in its current budget. The estimate includes a $743.2 million balance expected to be left in the treasury August 31, but the figure includes $300 million which has already been appropriated to the agencies by the Legislature and may be spent. The balance may be further reduced by special or emergency appropriations by the incoming Legislature. The constitution requires the Comptroller to make a revenue estimate at the start of each legislative session, and under the state's pay-as-you-go policy the Legislature cannot spend more than the Comptroller says will be available. Besides the mild recession, Bullock's estimate is based on assumptions that there will be a gradual recovery and that federal policies will bring inflation under control by mid-1981. He predicted that Texas' economic growth will slow down to less than three percent during the recession. "We are talking about something that has a high probability of happening but is not a certainty," Bullock said. The estimate, for the first time in history, was based on a news economic forecasting technique designed and developed by the Comptroller's Planning & Research Division. The technique mathematically relates tax collections to economic variables in spending growth and price levels.

County Roads To Get Seal Coat

AMARILLO—High Plains Pavers Inc. of Plainview is the apparent low bidder to perform the work of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation Amarillo District 1979 Seal Coat Program.

High Plains' bid of $1,440,530 was the lowest of five received recently by the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission in Austin on the Program.

A. L. McKee, SDHPT Amarillo District Engineer, said the District Seal Coat Program calls for improvement to some 237 miles of Texas Panhandle highways, including Interstate and U. S. highways and Farm and Ranch to Market Roads.

The district engineer said the seal coat—an additional asphalt surfacing material—improves riding comfort and safety and assists in guarding the road bed from moisture.

The Program includes the following work:
Hansford-FM 760, from SH

51 to FM 759, 7.9 miles, $40,660.

Hansford-FM 520, from SH 207 to SH 136, 10.9 miles, $55,075.

Hansford-FM 2349, from the Sherman County line 6.9 miles to FM 1262, $37,065.

Hansford-FM 759, from the east city limits of Spearman 5.3 miles to the Ochiltree County line, $39,080.

Hansford-FM 278, from Main Street in Gruver, 2.9 miles to SH 207, $14,690.

Price Speaks On Health Care

AMARILLO—Senator Bob Price, speaking at the Women's Legislative Workshop sponsored by the Amarillo League of Women Voters held at the First Christian Church in Amarillo said that he is closely following the recommendations made in the area of health care by the Legislative Budget Board in Austin.

"In matters of health care," said Price, "there is some cause for concern in the Panhandle. According to the Special Subcommittee on Rural Health Care Services, approximately sixty-two percent of the counties in the 31st Senatorial District are medically underserved. The need for more doctors in rural areas is only one component of health care. Health care includes diet, water quality, sanitation as well as preventive services, emergency services and the traditional medical services."

Senator Price feels that one of the major issues of rural areas of the Panhandle is limited access to available health services, particularly primary health care services.

Price also plans to urge financial assistance from existing funds for improving the lack of health manpower, such as primary care physicians, nurse practitioners, pharmacists and dentists in the rural areas.

Senator Price further stated that he is studying in depth various methods of improving the quality of health care without adding to the taxpayers burden. Price said, "Certain programs are necessary, but I feel that we have reached a point in this country where government consumes more in tax money than it produces in benefits such as in the area of health care services in rural Texas."

Over $ 1.6 Million will be channelled into the Hansford County economy in the next several days by the Department of Agriculture. The "infusion" of this money will be represent wheat deficiency payments for the most part to hundreds of Hansford County farm operators and producers. Police Enjoy Merry Christmas

Not a creature was stirring... Not even a mouse!

And by the look of the Police blotters in Gruver, Spearman and Hansford County for the Christmas weekend, the words of the poem written by a Theological professor many years ago, apparently held true.

What police action there was turned out to be a misunderstanding concerning a motor vehicle and that soon was placed in its right perspective.

Happily it was an accident free weekend on Hansford County Highways and streets. There have been no reports of any criminal activity; the only item that initially raised some concern was a report of a missing vehicle in Gruver. Spearman Patrolwoman Sara Norton, routinely found the supposedly missing vehicle in a grocery store parking lot Sunday afternoon. It happened to be a slight family misunderstanding and all turned out well.

Police Chief Steve Wisniewski will take up his new duties in Portales, N. M. on Monday January 8th...and in the meantime is conducting a search hopeful that applicants may be found and the Spearman Police department be brought up to full officer strength.

Auto Safety In Six Easy Steps

COLLEGE STATION-- Six safety steps will prevent "miles" of auto accidents, says Claudia Kerbel, a consumer information specialist.

These steps are "fight-back" measures against major-accident causes, she says.

Mrs. Kerbel is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Practice these steps—and drive defensively:

* Observe speed limits.

* Speeding is a factor in more than 25 percent of all accidents.

* Yield the right of way—even if the other driver is wrong.

* Failing to yield is a factor in more than 20 percent of all accidents.

* Keep a safe distance from the car ahead of you.

* Tailgating is involved in almost 10 percent of all accidents.

* Drive during daylight hours when possible.

* Three times more people are killed at night than during the daytime.

* Do not drink and drive.

* Drinking is a factor in about half of all fatal traffic accidents.

* Use your seat belt.

* At least 12,000 more lives would be saved each year if all car passengers used seat belts, according to the National Safety Council.

To Be Sworn In

Warren G. Harding, State Treasurer, announced today that he will be sworn in to his first elected term as State Treasurer by Chief Justice Joe Greenhill of the Supreme Court of Texas at high noon on Tuesday, January 2, 1979 in the office of State Treasurer.

Following the swearing-in ceremonies, traditional "good luck" blackeye peas and cornbread will be served to employees and guests.

Mr. Harding, who was appointed State Treasurer on October 5, 1977 by Governor Dolph Briscoe, said: "It is with great pride and pleasure that I announce to the people of Texas that interest income from the investment of State's Funds during calendar year 1978 will amount to approximately 142 Million, which reflects an increase of approximately $38 Million over the amount earned in calendar year 1977."

"Also, I should like to express my appreciation to the people of Texas for the tremendous vote of confidence I received in both the Democratic Primary and the General Election. I am highly honored to serve the people of Texas as State Treasurer, and I shall continue to perform the duties in a manner which will merit this support."

John Travolta Screen Debuts As Disco Kingpin In "Saturday Night Fever"

Dedicated to his art, John Travolta is on his way to fulfilling his goals as a great actor and entertainer. At 23 years of age he is establishing himself in motion pictures as well as television, stage and recordings, and is becoming a true renaissance man of his time.

With the overwhelming success of "Welcome Back, Kotter" and his characterization of Vinnie Barbarino, John Travolta has become one of the most popular faces on T.V. However, he is anything but a prototypical T.V. hero. At present he is deftly juggling a multi-faceted career and now John's artistic progression will be apparent on the silver screen.

Although his first screen performance in the movie "Carrie" with Piper Laurie and Sissy Spacek and under the direction of Brian De Palma was just a supporting role, his impact was remarkable and proved that John is indeed a gifted actor. De Palma was extremely impressed with John's vivid depiction of the rough and tragic character of Billy Nolan.

John's first Movie of the Week for ABC-TV, "The Boy In The Plastic Bubble" made him the third highest paid actor on the network for a T.V. Movie. He brilliantly evoked the true life story of a boy born with no immunities, living a lonely existence inside a germ-free plastic bubble. His vulnerable, sensitive performance added quality and depth to the film which was directed by Randal Kleiser and costarred Glynis O'Connor. His performance was hailed by all the major critics. Judith Crist said, "The Boy In The Plastic Bubble" is marked by John Travolta's excellence." From Kevin Thomas, "John Travolta triumphs in the title role," and Daily Variety applauded with "John Travolta negotiates a smashing breakthrough as a serious actor."

John's astounding success led him to sign to star in three pictures for producer Robert Stigwood. The first, already completed for December release, is "Saturday Night Fever" based on Nik Cohn's electrifying article in New York Magazine which examined today's lower middle class young people in America. John plays the part of Tony Manero, an intense, moody youth who is trapped in a mundane Brooklyn environment while yearning for the glamour and excitement of Manhattan and whose only outlet is disco dancing at which he is the King.

The second film, which is now in production, is the Robert Stigwood/Allan Carr production of the hit Broadway musical "Grease." John plays the role of Danny Zuko, using his varied skills as an actor, singer, dancer, with Olivia Newton-John playing his love interest, Sandy Olsen.

John is rapidly gaining recognition in the record world. His first album "John Travolta" which included the giant hit single "Let Her In" gained him the Billboard award for new pop male vocalist of the year. His new album "Café! Let You Go" is reaching a wider audience and is regarded as an artistic achievement. The single "Slow Dancing" is swiftly climbing the charts.

John Travolta is a charismatic cult hero who can sing, dance and act with a powerhouse style that is categorically all his own. He is challenged but not spoiled by his success. The future is wide open and limitless for this unassuming young man.

"Saturday Night Fever," starring John Travolta, is a RolZet Stigwood Production produced by Robert Stigwood and directed by John Badham from a screenplay by Norman Wexler based on a story by Nik Cohn. Kevin McCormick is the film's executive producer.

Servitors Met At Museum

Servitors met at the museum December 21st to start their Christmas evening of fun. After a tour of our local museum the members went to the B & B building to have an installation service for the new members. We were entertained with a song by Beth Hester who sang "Just One Little Candle" accompanied on guitar by Stephanie Brock. The members then enjoyed a covered dish dinner and exchanged home made Christmas gifts.

Our November meeting was an International Dinner. Club members visited five countries, starting with Italy at the home of Donna Thomas. Susan Pearson showed slides of Italy while Pizza was served. The members then traveled to the home of Linda Butt for German bread and cheese and listened to a history of German foods and beer given by Becky Booth. The third stop was at the home of Jackie Pearson and Cindy Sweeney showed a display of China while members ate stir fried vegetables on rice. Rene Wisniewski's home was the scene of Good Ol' American hamburgers. Everyone traveled to the B & B building for cream puffs from France.

Our next meeting will be held Jan. 25th, 1979.

Never a Christmas morning,
 Never an old year ends...
 But someone thinks of someone,
 Old days, old times, old friends.

Presbyterian Church News

There will be no men's prayer breakfast this Thursday.

There is a Sunday Church School class for everyone every Sunday at 9:45 a.m. with a friendly, loving Sunday Church School teacher with an interesting, well prepared lesson on some practical Biblical truths to help meet your personal spiritual needs.

"For My Eyes Have Seen Your Salvation" is the subject of Pastor Edward D. Freeman's sermon at the service for the public worship of God on Sunday, December 31 at 11:00 a.m.

Newcomers to our church are adopted into the extended family. Adoption is a Biblical metaphor to describe the way the outsider becomes a part of the family of God. According to the apostle Paul, in his letters to the Romans (chapter 8) and to the Galatians (chapter 4) we are adopted into God's family, but now we are. The metaphor has already been absorbed into Pauline theology when it is mentioned only in passing in the letter to the Ephesians (chapter 1). Altho Paul is most explicit, the process of adoption by God is implied also in the synoptic Gospels, in Joh. Hebrews, and Revelation.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Grubbs and their children, Wendi and Andy Cordle, from Port Arthur, Texas, are visiting in the home of Mrs. Jim Sutherland and Mrs. I. R. Tompkins. Mrs. Grubbs is the daughter of Mrs. Sutherland and granddaughter of Mrs. Tompkins.

Jamie's Jabber

by Jamie Casdorph
Well, this week has been pretty hectic, with Christmas and all. I can honestly say that this was the best Monday I have ever had. I mean usually Monday's are those dreary days that I hate to face up too!
The only bad things about holidays is that I have an excuse to overeat, and believe me I do indulge!! I guess that maybe I didn't overeat so much! (I worked it all off in the excitement!) Really and truly Christmas is my very favorite time of the year! This year it was special because it was my first Christmas as a married lady!

I guess business will slow down for a spell. I mean if you all are like me you've spent your budget for the next three months! (It's kinda hard to eat leftover Christmas paper!) Really though, as much Food as we had left over I don't have too much to worry about! Except maybe that Rex will get tired of turkey. I can always tell him about that weight he needs to lose! I'm sure he will decide that turkey is the best food in the whole world!
New Year's is sure on a rotten day MONDAY, the way I feel about Monday's anyway! Can you imagine what I'm going to feel like when I wake up New Year's day after all the celebrating I'm going to do New Year Eve! I think maybe I'll just sleep all day Monday and just skip everything.

I guess I get to tour the local businesses for boys fashions pretty soon! The only bad thing about my writing about fashions is the fact that I always get a case of the "wants." And if your on my budget you can't afford walking into stores, much less looking at their merchandise! Honestly though, I love to look and I'm getting a good opportunity of it now!

Library Qualifies

Twenty public libraries in the 25-county area served by the Texas Panhandle Library System have qualified for System membership for the year that began on September 1. The libraries that qualify for membership this year include Amarillo Public Library, Hutchinson County Library at Borger, Hemphill County Library at Canadian, Canyon Public Library, Gabie Betts Burton Memorial Library at Dimmitt, Kilgore Memorial Library at Dumas, Friona Public Library, Deaf Smith County Library at Pampa, Carson County Public Library at Panhandle, Perry Memorial Library at Perryton, Shamrock Public Library, Hansford County Library at Spearman, Sherman County Public Library at Stratford, Swisher County Library at Tulia, Wheeler Public Library and Collingsworth County Library at Wellington.

The ten regional public library systems organized under provisions of the Texas Library Systems Act of 1969 carry out a wide range of cooperative activities. The $184,734 grant to the Texas Panhandle Library System for these activities includes both state funds appropriated under provisions of the Systems Act and Texas allocation of federal Library Services and Construction Act funds. They are administered by the Texas State Library.

Each system member must meet certain criteria concerning per capita local support, number of volumes, and staff. These are determined by the number of persons served by the library.

Dramatic changes have taken place in public libraries in recent years. On the one hand there has been a sharp rise in the number of books and magazines published. On the other, information is increasingly available in audio-visual media as well as print.

Amarillo Public Library of which Ms. Alice Green is director serves as the Major Resource Center for the system. Miss Jane Ulrich is system coordinator. Members of the lay advisory council include Steve Messenger of Amarillo, Mrs. Lucy O'Brien of Amarillo, Mrs. Jean Wilkeson of Borger, Mrs. Judy Renick of Canadian, Mrs. Helen Eades of Hereford, Mrs. Joe Franklin of Pampa.

WORD of GOD

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgement, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.
