There would be more hunting offered the sporting public if the bird population of the area would permit it and still have an adequate carry over of breeding stock. In order to hunt it is necessary for the hunter to write the Texas Game and Fish Commission, attention chief clerk, Austin and request application blanks for a quail permit. There will be far more applicants than there are birds for the hunters of the refuge, therefor a drawing will be necessary to select the lucky hunters. large Ranch home is a 5 bed room home, in every respect. The home place is literally ith barns, chicken houses, grain houses and

and Mrs. Jarvis moved to this area in 1902 reared a fine family of sons who are leadens of the area. Most of the improvements, the home and barns was built during the 1 to 1914. The original homesite was a dugout located about a half mile East of the present commodious home.

Woodville Jarvis, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Jarvis tells us that the old "horse" barn was built primarily with cross ties and heavy timber fished out of the Canadian river. It is built of wood and concrete. Raymond and Billy Jarvis salvaged the timber from the Canadian.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Jarvis own six sections of as fine land as can be found in this area. The home place has an irrigation well, but this portion of the home place is under lease to Billy Jarvis, who takes care of the work and planning. Mr. Jarvis operates only a small portion of the home place, depending upon his sons for the operation of the remainder.

The elder couple have been very successful farmers over a period of years, and quite as successful as cattle ranchers. In fact Mr. O. W. Jarvis still maintains a herd of about 100 cows and calves, and remains one of the few ranchers of this area who maintains cows and grows a calf crop each year.

When the original barn was built most of the farming power was horses and mules, thus we see the old horse barn on the homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Jarvis have three living sons, Woodville, Raymond and Billy, Jarvis. A daughter Jureta died at the age of 8 years.

Perhaps we could use a page praising this fine couple for their pioneer life and success in life, but we do want to praise them for having reared three fine boys that certainly reflects the fine training they received in their youth.

Sin is like a rattlesnake --it buries its fangs in your flesh and pumps venom through every vein. You become groggy, weary, sick and helpless. But only for the grace of a loving God you would pass through the door on the bottom side and head straight for an eternity in Hell. But God lives and you may still have hope.
