CIMMARON In 1906, Floyd filed on a quarter section of land in Cimmaron County, Okla.. He built a small house on the claim, two rooms downstairs and two upstairs. The small children and I went with him to live down the claim. Besides farming and stock raising Floyd used his good team and buggy to advantage while we were in Cummaron. He located settlers on the land. It was an arduous task as he had to haul them about the prairie until they were satisfied "to light".
