Quacks Extort Millions With Phony Cure-alls and Gadgets, Says AMA

Today there are thousands of quacks promising quick cures for every disease known. They extort millions of dollars annually from their gullible patients.

Yet, the quack's promises, cure-alls and gadgets are as phony as a fixed gambling wheel or a "con man's" schemes," said F. J. L. Blasingame, M.D., executive vice president of the American Medical Association. "Healthy people usually laugh at or ignore the quack," he said, "but sick people may grasp at anything that offers a quick cure. Indeed, almost anyone can be fooled unless he knows how quacks operate."

Machines can be a blessing or a curse to medicine. In the hands of a skilled physician, certain machines are useful in arriving at a diagnosis or charting a method of treatment.

But some machines are a threat to your health. Any quack who passes off his device or gadget or "system" as a cure-all is cashing in on your limited knowledge of science.

Doctors of medicine are trained for years in reputable schools and hospitals. They are licensed only after they meet high medical standards. The legitimate doctor does not limit himself to a device or instrument or to any one "system." He does not limit himself to manipulations or adjustments.

Not so with the quacks. The quack pretends to medical skill. He invents a machine, device or scheme to defraud the public. He advertises that he has the one and only "cure." He may even purchase a phony medical diploma. All the quack needs is someone to believe him. And some sick people are easily impressed.

One alleged "doctor" testified he received four degrees from a "drugless practitioners college," he said he had attended for one year. He claimed to be a doctor of chiropractic, naturopathy, herbal materia medica and electro-therapeutics.

Another "practitioner," who came here from India, advertised that he has at least 15 degrees, including an "honorary M.D." He started the Spectro-Chrome Institute about 1920 and did a flourishing business until the government prosecuted him in 1947 for repeated violation of the federal food and drug law. At the trial it came out that the founder of the institute had told an elderly diabetic to stop taking insulin—that Spectro-Chrome was all he needed. The diabetic took the advice, and soon afterward went into a coma and died.

Also at the trial an epileptic, testifying that the same device had benefited him, collapsed on the witness stand—from an epileptic fit.

A $20,000 fine was levied against the institute and its director, who escaped a prison sentence only because of his age (he was 75). He was put on five years' probation. However, when the term ended he was reported to be working again.

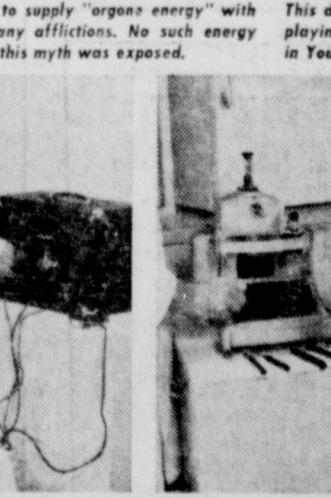

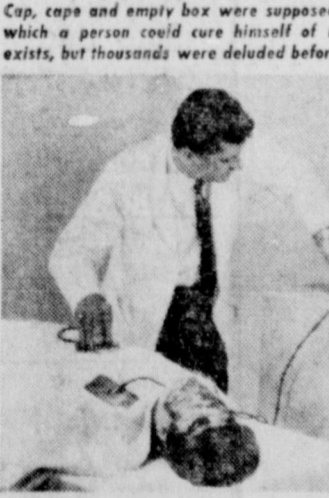

Some quacks are also licensed to practice a "healing art." Some cultist groups lobby powerfully for license recognition in various states. Well-meaning citizens often help to pass laws permitting limited practice, but this does not protect the public.

A woman chiropractor in Los Angeles was given a chance to demonstrate her alleged ability during tests made at the University of Chicago. According to the university's official report, she claimed she could diagnose illness from a drop of blood of a person who wasn't there. She "diagnosed" that the person had cancer, abnormal blood pressure and a very poor chance to recover. The spot of blood, the university reports, was taken from one of its staff physicians in the best of health.

Fantastic? Not at all. Each year thousands are fooled by quacks using phony machines.

"The American Medical Association," explained Dr. Blasingame, "does not bring charges against these quacks, nor prosecute them. Such action is the responsibility of law enforcement agencies."

You can best protect your health, he advised, by avoiding devices like the ones pictured here and, even more important, by relying on the advice of your family doctor.

The Way I See It

(During the weeks ahead, I intend to offer a series of studies on The Bible. I suggest you save these and be able to review each article. They will have to be brief. But I'd be glad to answer any problem or question or enlarge my statements. My address is just Gruver, Texas.)

I believe in God the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. I believe God has created me and all that exists. He has given me and still preserves my body and soul with all their powers.

He provides me with food and clothing, home and family, daily work and all I need from day to day.

God also protects me in time of danger and guards me from every evil.

All this He does out of fatherly and divine goodness and mercy, though I do not deserve it. Therefore I surely ought to thank and praise, serve and obey Him.

The Bible takes God for granted.

ted. We do not seek God because we can prove that God exists. Rather we seek Him because we need Him. God has made himself known through the world and through His Word, the Bible. In nature we can see some creator had to make things, but it doesn't reveal a God of love. For us we must turn to His word. Here we find a God who saves sinners.

God is a Spirit, eternal, everywhere present, all wise and sinless. He created Angels, His world and all animals and people. He not only created but continues to provide us with abilities to work, think, develop ideas. God in three persons, namely Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Mathew 28:20 reads "Go make disciples of all nations, baptizing in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Ghost . . . Thus the Tribune God is shown in Scripture.

The work of all three persons in the God are necessary for our salvation. More on this in later weeks. But we see creation, and God's Son Jesus coming to earth to die for us and the Holy Spirit to lead us to and keep us in Jesus. Yes I believe in God.

Essar Angus Herd Auction June 7th

The largest registered cattle sale ever held in the Southwest will take place at Essar Ranch, San Antonio, June 7 thru 9, according to Dr. Judd Morrow, president director of Southwest Agricultural Institute.

Dr. Morrow stated that the entire 1200 head of the famed Essar Angus herd, founded by the late Tom Slick, will be sold at auction including 250 bulls, 650 cows most with calves, and 350 heifers.

The dispersal sale will be held at Essar Ranch San Antonio, starting at 10 a.m., June 7 and continue for three days until the cattle are sold. The cattle will sell in range condition.

Morrow stated that a reorientation of the program of Southwest Agricultural Institute and Essar Ranch led to the decision by the board of Governors to sell the Essar Angus herd, called the "most know-about herd of cattle in the world."

In commenting on the sale Dr. Morrow stated: "As most people know, our good friend and benefactor Tom Slick was killed in an airplane accident two and a half years ago, and this decision on our part has been influenced by the coming settlement of the estate."

"We realize that to disperse such a large herd on such short notice will be to the definite advantage of the buyers. This has been a reluctant decision as the Essar herd is just now at its peak of production."

According to Morrow, Essar cattle have been ultrasonically tested for ribeye area and fat cover for five years and have been culled for superior cut out values.

Morrow explained that Essar cattle have ten years of performance records and five years of Carcass Records behind them.

He pointed out that catalog information on each bull lot will include current weight, average daily gain test, weight per day of age, yearling weight, adjusted 205 day weaning weight.

Each female will have P. R. I. rating, number of calves weaned, average birth weight, average weaned weight and average sale price of progeny.

"The combination of all these factors and records certainly earn for the Essar Angus herd the title 'the most know-about herd of cattle in the world,'" Morrow declared.

It was announced that many top daughters of Marshall of Faulkton will be sold. Now deceased, Marshall of Faulkton, was the foundation sire of the Essar Ranch herd and during his lifetime of ten years, sired over 1,000,000 worth of cattle.

Hyland Marshall 7, along with Marshall of Faulkton, headed the Essar bull battery. During his lifetime HM7 sired more than $500,000 worth of cattle, known for their extra size and length. Described as the 'Sire of the Near-Perfect Carcass', HM7 will be sold during the dispersal sale.

Marshall of Faulkton 2nd, chosen as the greatest breeding son of Marshall of Faulkton, was brought back to Essar to continue the blood line in the herd. This top sire, who did an outstanding breeding job in the Ramsey Triple 7 Ranch herd, will be sold.

For catalogs, reservations and further information interested parties may write the sales managers Tom Adams, Adams-Canning Cattle Co., Box 9183, San Antonio Don Wideman, Animal Geneticist or Fred D. Coy, business manager, Essar Ranch, Route 4 Box 88L, San Antonio; H. V. Bert Reyes, P. O. Box 809; San Antonio; or Marvin Couey, P.O. Box 2296, San Antonio.

FISHING LINES

By DICK WOLFF

Researchers have announced that fishing is one of the very best ways to "clear the cobwebs" from our minds and rid ourselves of work-a-day tensions. Millions of fishermen have known that for years. Fishing means relaxing to most fishermen. Ever notice the contented look on a man's (or woman's) face as he sorts through his tackle box, picking out a favorite ABU-Reflex or other lure?

Some fishermen, though, fall into the unhappy habit of basing a "good day's fishing" on the number of fish they catch. No fish, or only a few, and they are likely to get upset — sometimes downright irritable. These folks are missing most of the fun of fishing — and they certainly aren't relaxing. Catching a "limit" of fish overshadows all thought of getting as much fresh air, sunshine and enjoyment as possible. They overlook the pleasure of making perfect casts with Garcia tackle and the natural beauty of unspoiled surroundings.

Even getting ready for a fishing trip should quicken the pulse, and the anticipation of the out-of-doors should take the mind off everyday problems. Next time you sit down to wind some new Super-Platyl mono-filament line on your Mitchell or Ambassador reel, or try some back yard practice casting, consider how you measure your fishing fun.

Fishing is not a competition — even though there are many contests (for youngsters, especially) which emphasize catching a lot of fish. Putting a fish back for the future is lots more rewarding than bringing it home and ending its recreational value forever. Fishermen who develop the reputation for returning some fish to the water never have to "prove" they caught a "limit" by showing a full stringer or creel, either.

Fishing offers something new and a lot of excitement each time you go afield. It offers a real chance to become completely absorbed in the fun at hand, "away from it all." So if the fish are few, remember there's always another day. You're bringing home a revitalized spirit (and probably a big, healthy appetite) every time you go, and that's a full stringer in any man's sport.

Six Flags Now Open Daily

SIX FLAGS Over Texas will be open seven days a week throughout the summer months beginning Monday, May 31. Operating hours for the popular tourist attraction, located midway between Dallas and Fort Worth, will be from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.

The 1965 season at SIX FLAGS, which began April 16, has already furnished Park officials with some healthy signs of another banner year according to attendance reports and license plate surveys taken over the past five weeks.

Despite the rainy weather that has plagued the area during this time, the worst in SIX FLAGS' four year history, attendance is still running higher, with 175,077 visitors to date as compared to 169,770 last year.

The percentage of out-of-state visitors is up 53 percent over a year ago. Kansas has now taken over the number three spot right behind Oklahoma and Louisiana in percentage of tourists visiting SIX FLAGS. Arkansas is fourth, followed by California, Illinois, New Mexico, Missouri, Michigan and Colorado.

"The large increase of visitors, especially from the Midwestern growth and recognition as one of the nation's top tourist attractions," said Angus G. Wynne, Jr., president of Great Southwest Corporation, owner/operators of the 115-acre theme Park.

SIX FLAGS was recently ranked as the number one tourist attraction in the State of Texas with more than 5,000,000 visitors since opening in 1961. Anticipated attendance for the 1965 season is in excess of 1.8 million.

The Golden Spread Chapter of the Texas Nursing Home Association met at the DeVille Restaurant, Memphis with 13 persons in attendance representing 7 nursing homes namely Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, Martin Nursing Home, Claude, Mr. and Mrs. Jack D. Rue Vivian's Nursing Home, Amarillo, Mr. Lloyd Nellner, Thurman's Nursing Home, Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Jones, and Mrs. Mildred Stephens, Cousins Home, Memphis, Mr. and Mrs. Trusten Thomas, Thomas Nursing Home, Wellington, Mrs. Helen Hartshorn, Perryton Nursing Home, Perryton, Mr. and Mrs. Eugen Thompson, Edward Abraham Memorial Nursing Home, Canadian.

Mr. Rude, president, presided over a brief business meeting and members voted to have all future meetings in Amarillo as it is more centrally located. The meeting place to be announced at a later date but the time will be 7:00 P.M. on June 24.

Mr. Thomas was elected to head Entertainment committee, that is to secure a program for each meeting, either by a doctor, dietician, or TNHA board member or Welfare.

A brief history of Texas Nursing Home Association was given by Mr. Martin. He said, "In a brief 5 year period the Association has grown from a mere 40 members to the present 208 members for 1965. Out of 254 Counties in Texas, 91 are in the Panhandle or in our district. Some sub-standard homes have been closed."

"Not as many Veteran's Hospitals will close as was the recent outlay; Veteran's Administration is now building its own nursing homes. Some patients are being released to nursing homes in the state but not more than 50 will be released in the entire State," Mr. Martin stated.

"We should be very proud of a former Memphis man, C. B. Francis, is now treasurer of American Nursing Association and he is also past president of TNHA," Mr. Martin said.

He brought out some of the new phases facing nursing homes such as rehabilitating patients as much as possible, getting the patient that has surgery, a broken limb, or other illness that he may return home, also group insurance, program being worked out.

April 15 isn't the only time to worry about income taxes. The amount that you pay on April 15 or whatever day that you file your Form 1040 and pay your individual income tax, is determined through the year. Since income taxes play an important part in all our lives, it's pretty good advice to "look before you leap" on your tax transactions as well as your other affairs.

After sorghum has emerged, spray Atrazine to control weeds and grasses.

The idea is to spray Atrazine 80W herbicide right after sorghum has emerged, but before weeds are 1 1/2 inches high. This one application, moved to the weed root zone by rainfall, will control most annual broad-leaf weeds and grasses in sorghum for the entire season.

Control of weeds and grasses in sorghum with Atrazine can greatly reduce the need for cultivating. And so your crop goes through the entire season without weed competition for moisture and soil nutrients.

The results of weed control in sorghum are higher yields and lower production costs... giving you more profit per acre. So this year, use Atrazine for control of weeds and grasses after sorghum has emerged.

Contact your local supplier now for Atrazine 80W herbicide.

HEAVIEST MOISTURE OF YEAR FALLS OVER COUNTY SUNDAY

Rain and hail that brought joy and sorrow to the wheat producers of Hansford County fell Sunday night averaging from 2.10 at Spearman to a reported 5 inches at Morse.

According to reports coming to Spearman, the moisture was general over the north Panhandle reaching flood stages at Morse, Dumas and near Stratford.

Palo Duro creek has been on a rampage following the Sunday night rainfall with one bridge that has been free from flood stages for 23 years washed from the mooring.

In Spearman territory the rain fall came as an added aid to the wheat production. Those wheat fields already past the danger stage will make better yields as a result of the moisture.

 for a series of excise tax reductions and eliminations effective July 1. In a full year, these reductions will amount to an estimated $1.75 billion. A second series of excise tax reductions and eliminations to go into effect on that date will amount to $1.7 billion. Thus, both reductions will total $3.4 billion annually.
 With certain other reductions and eliminations due to take effect on Jan. 1, 1967, 1968 and 1969 the aggregate drop in excise taxes is expected to be $4.8 billion.

For years, I have campaigned to bring about a major revision in the tax structure. Excise taxes are a legacy of wartime, enacted in the first place to discourage the production and sale of items made with vital war materials as much as to raise revenue. Jewelry and luggage are two such classes of products, and they are two of the four categories of items on which 10 percent reductions are to be repeated effective July 1. The others are furs and toilet preparations.

In addition to the retailers'
 "taxes, manufacturers' excises of 5 and 10 percent will be repealed on a long list of items effective July 1. These items are involved: Air conditioners, business machines, cameras and film, electric and gas and oil appliances, freezers, musical instruments, pens and mechanical pencils, phonograph records, playing cards, radios and phonographs, refrigerators, sporting goods (except fishing equipment), and television sets. Also due for complete repeal July 1 are taxes on the rent of safety deposit boxes, a seemingly small item but one which has netted $7 million annually in tax revenue.

The excise tax reduction concerning automobiles calls for reductions in the 10 percent manufacturers' tax to 7 percent on July 1 (refunds will be granted to May 24); to 6 percent on January 1, 1966; to 4 percent on January 1, 1967; to 2 percent on January 1, 1968; and total elimination as of January 1, 1969.

It is good to know that progress is being made in reducing to some extent the heavy tax burden on the citizenry. However, I am disappointed that further success has not been obtained in reducing income taxes. I have long advocated an increase in the individual and dependents' exemptions. I proposed an increase in this exemption from $8,000 to $1,000. Anyone with children knows that a $600 exemption from income taxes is completely unrealistic. Actually, an exemption for dependents should be closer to $2,000. If this increase in the exemptions could be accomplished the additional money available to the middle income classes as a result of this income tax reduction would in my opinion provide substantial added vigor to the economy. It would serve to create additional purchasing power in those segments of our economy where additional spending money is most needed. It would contribute to the betterment of large families and would serve in many instances to help relieve the poverty which we are supposed to be warring against.

When I first introduced this legislation during my early years in the Congress, I had six dependants. Some of the other Members of Congress facetiously called this "a bill for the relief of Walter Rogers." However, my dependants have grown up and I have only two left. My desire and advocacy of this type of legislation has continued to grow stronger each year and I hope too see it enacted.

Helen Greever Is Hostess To Friends

The friends and college classmates of Helen Grever began arriving at her home Friday afternoon, May 27, for a last time get-together before they all went their separate ways for the summer.

The serving table was laden with snacks of all kinds, juices and popcorn. From 8:30 p.m. until 2:30 a.m. the girls played games ate and discussed the highlights of their college year.
 At 12 o'clock, one of the guests a very talented pianist, entertained the others with several selections, some of which she had composed herself.

While all the fun was going on Helen's mother was taking movie pictures. Some she took the next morning, while they were asleep. It will be a surprise to them.

By 3 o'clock the sixteen girls bedded down so they wouldn't be too tired for their class mates wedding, Ruth Brown, the next day.

Saturday morning the girls were up by 11:30 and served a buffet style lunch.

From then on it was a rush to get that many girls dressed for the wedding. When all were ready, more pictures were taken to be put in their scrap books as a reminder of their friendship.
