You Name It

From the den of the poison pen
Thursday, January 24, 1980

I enjoyed the Lions Club program Tuesday, as Judge Lee brought the program on the new proposed Palo Duro Lake. The program was introduced by Lion Postmaster brother-in-law Ray Robertson. The subject was the recreational facilities for the new Palo Duro Lake North of Spearman. Some 2.5 million dollars will be spent on the recreational facilities at the Palo Duro dam! It was very interesting to say the least! One of the problems at the Palo Duro dam, is finding enough level land around the lake for the approximately 500 picnic tables and etc. But Judge Lee went ahead to say that we had plenty of level land at the lake site he thought! Judge cautioned me not to get too excited about the possibilities of the new lake getting started tomorrow! We promise we won't do that, but here are some positive points of view that are most interesting. We will probably get started on the new lake in 1983, and it shouldn't take over 3 years to build the lake. The flood problems that most lake sites have, is not at the Palo Duro lake, so that will enable the dam to be built in a couple of years! If we use the present site, the water will back up about 5 miles. Some proposed sites have actually backed water up to the Old Hansford cemetery.

Be sure and attend the JV tournament in Spearman this week-end, it starts Thursday and the brackets are in this paper, sponsored by two local business and professional organizations! We no longer have a high school basketball tourney in Spearman! I never have figured this one out as we used to have the best tourney in the state of Texas.

Remember to attend the Chamber of Commerce banquet here Saturday night! I am anxious to see who the outstanding citizen of the year will be!

How about this winter weather! We have finally received some good moisture. About 1 inch total the past week-end, and the ice and snow and moisture blended into about the slickest road conditions Monday and Tuesday of this week we have ever seen!

Former assistant band director Mike Newsome, who now lives in Phillips had his home damaged in the explosion at Phillips Sunday morning! Mike was in the hospital when all of this was taking place. He had surgery, and his wife was on duty at the hospital when the explosion occurred. It blew in the picture window, and the ceilings out of two rooms!

I enjoyed the basketball games here Friday night. I refused to accept the five girls basketball teams, but am about to change my mind, after watching the Lynxettes and Dalhart here Friday night. Those Dalhart gals were very impressive in losing to the Lynxettes, and now I think the Lynxettes will win the district and go all the way this year! Of course I am equally impressed with the boys, and hope that they will put it together here Tuesday nite against the Canadian Wildcats!

James Cunningham was on his way to Austin for a meeting this week, and drove our oldest, and "worst" school bus down to Huntsville to the state "prison" where the prisoners will re-conditioning the old bus. I plan to run a picture of the bus when it gets back, so that tax-payers might see what a swell job the prisoners do on some of their projects. Most people think that they just set behind "bars" but actually they have some outstanding programs at the state prisons for the inmates!

Annual Chamber Banquet Is Saturday

Edward O. Daniel, Humorist

Edward O. Daniel, humorist from Arlington, will speak at the Spearman Chamber of Commerce Banquet Saturday night in the high school cafeteria here. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Daniel spoke here last year and by popular demand was asked to return. Russell Pogue, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will be the Master of Ceremonies.

Mayor C. Ralph Blodgett will present the Citizen of the Year award. He was winner of last year's award. Banquet tickets are $8.00 each. There will be delicious steaks served with baked potatoes, green beans and a salad. The cafeteria ladies will help prepare the food and the steaks will be cooked by volunteers.

The Celebrate group, under the direction of Travis Angel, will entertain the early arrivals in the auditorium from 7 until 7:30. You are encouraged to arrive a little early and enjoy this fine group of young people. They always put on a great performance.

J.W. "Buck" Buchanan Announces Candidacy

J.W. "Buck" Buchanan of Dumas, a former legislator this week announces his candidacy for State Representative, Texas 64th District, subject to the 1980 elections.

Buchanan's campaign was opened by a number of his friends and neighbors in a kickoff rally last week in Dumas.

Buchanan will retire April 1st as manager of the North Plains Water District, that covers seven counties in the upper Panhandle. He has been the District manager for 25 years, except for leaves of absence when he served in the Texas House of Representatives.

Buchanan is recognized as a leading authority on North Plains and Texas water resources and has been active in developing Texas water legislation for years.

The Hansford county native has a long record of public service, including terms as President of Water, Incorporated, the Panhandle water-development association, and of the Texas Water Conservation Association.

His record in community and area work includes terms as President of the Moore County Fair Association, Dumas Chamber of Commerce, Manager of the Spearman Chamber of Commerce and President of the Hansford County Fair Association. He has received numerous awards from local, area and state organizations.

As a legislator, he was Chairman of the Natural Resources Committee and of the House Subcommittee on Appropriations, and a member of Committees on Highways and Roads, and Livestock.

He authored legislation increasing funds for water development, establishing the North Plains Research Farm at Etter, and exempting gas companies for being classed as public utilities for selling gas for irrigation.

"I believe my experience as a Representative and the years spent in promoting legislation to meet the needs of the North Plains equip me to do an effective job for the 64th District from the start," Buchanan declares. "This is especially important at a time when many changes in motion for Texas make it vital to have the North Plains represented well."

In a further statement to voters he declares: "Government has long been a special interest of mine, and I have had the experience of working at it from the city level to Austin. I believe that I can avoid the loss of time in on-the-job training, a loss the 64th District cannot afford at this time."

FOOTBALL

By Pete Fritchie
WASHINGTON, D. C. -- Los Angeles must be rated the biggest surprise of 1979, and 1980, and disregarding the outcome of the Super-bowl, two highly impressive playoff wins by the Rams were solid evidence that this team has come of age.

The Rams' victory over the always-tough Cowboys shocked many. After that, it should have been obvious what they'd do to Tampa Bay's Bucs. The Rams' 9-0 victory at Tampa might well have been much more lopsided.

Despite Tampa Bay coach John McKay's admirable attempt to put a good face on it, the affair was a case of Tampa Bay's quarterback being a complete washout. Doug Williams has long been suspect by some sports writers, and seemed intimidated from the very first. He threw passes ten or fifteen feet over receivers heads for most of the first half.

McKay should probably have used Mike Rae or Chuck Fusina earlier - clearly Williams wasn't up to it. Could it be he remembered that broken jaw the Rams administered to him in 1977? His 3rd quarter injury didn't appear serious but it was a perfect excuse to get him out and he appeared ready enough to leave.

On the same day, Houston lost a touchdown on a missed call in Pittsburgh. There was no doubt Mike Renfro scored that third quarter TD - which would have the score 17-17. Playing in Pittsburgh, against the world champions, miscalls like that are heavy handicaps. Houston thus rates right in there with L.A. as a Cinderella team in 1979.

in the afternoon. Some 160 friends and relatives signed the guest book.

The serving table was covered with an ecru lace tablecloth underlaid with gold. The centerpiece was an arrangement of gold mums and white and bronze daisies. The three tiered cake was off white topped with wedding bells, inside each bell the number 50 was printed in gold. Presiding over the silver punch bowl and serving the cake were granddaughters of the couple. On another table a silver coffee service was presided over by granddaughters. Taking turns with serving were Charlotte Mitchell, Sonja Moore, Lori Scroggs, Tamara Scroggs, Lesa Scroggs and Kimberly Scroggs.

Opal Faus and Oakes Scroggs were married at Perryton, Texas December 24, 1929, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Grigsby. Judge Grigsby performed the ceremony. Mrs. Grigsby being the only witness. Their first home was north of Waka. They moved to their present home in Spearman in March, 1941.

All of their thirteen children were present, and most of their grandchildren and great-grandchildren. A little great granddaughter, Jocelyn Alane Edward arrived Dec. 24 on their anniversary, but a day late for the party, that being the best gift the Oakes received; although they really enjoyed having most of our family together and meeting their friends.

Arts and Crafts projects aptly are in progress as people gather at the Golden Spread Center on Thursdays from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. to work on saleable items for the annual bazaar in connection with Hansford Days. People needing transportation should call the Golden Spread Center (3521) on Tuesday, January 29 and get your name on the list.

Those involved within the Golden Spread Center, including Pearl Pierce, the genial director; Edna Hays, the director's assistant and telephone reassurance worker; Darla Moyer, the youth assistant and custodial coordinator; the board members, and the volunteers, act as a booster in the process of creative options "with" older adults rather than "for" older adults to advance independence and promote well-being. The uniqueness of the Golden Spread Center stems from its total concern for older people and its concern for the total older person through proved expanded alternatives, thereby elevating the quality of life in later years. Golden Spread Center is open Monday through Friday, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and is open to everyone fifty-five years of age or older without discrimination as to sex, race, color, national origin, ethnic background, religion, church membership, denominational preference, political party or handicap.

Dedication Leads To All-State Choir

JAMES PIERCE

JAY COMEGYS

Jay Comegys and James Pierce were chosen for the All-State Choir in Lubbock January 21. The two Spearman High choir students started the long road back in August when they first began to prepare the seven pieces of music they would have to sing for auditions.

Their first audition was Nov. 3 in Amarillo where they tried out against students from every choral program in the Panhandle North of Tulsa. Unlike athletics, they must try out against not only AA schools, but also against B, A, AAA, and AAAA schools. The auditions are solo auditions where only they are singing their part at the time. They then had to re-audition in December against the 16 top students chosen at the Region level. They must be in the top four. These four students then get to go to the next level of audition which is the All-State level where they are against the four students from five other regions. Out of the 20 students only seven are chosen for the All-State Choir. Our area includes everything in the Panhandle, to Mineral Wells to El Paso south to Snyder and Big Springs. There are 8 parts in a choir (1 Soprano, 2 Sopranos, 1 Alto etc.) making a total of 256 in the All-State Choir. The state vocal chairman figures that for every student in the All-State Choir-5000 try out. So, with the audition tryouts and the directors doing the judging, the students must be well prepared and sing very well. They are judged on how well they sing, what their voice sounds like, notes in the music, rhythms, dynamics, words and overall musicianship.

James and Jay will go to San Antonio on Feb. 13 to rehearse with Dr. Donald Neven from the University of Tennessee and present two concerts, one on Feb. 15 and the All-State Grand Concert on Feb. 16 which includes the All-State Band & All-State Orchestra.

These two young men are to be congratulated on their dedication and hard work to obtain such a goal.

Newspaper-Fuel of the Future

At a meeting sponsored by Hansford County AAM at the county barn in Spearman last Thursday night, the 40-50 people in attendance heard presentations of options available to farmers for getting into the alcohol production business. These options are 1) a large plant built in cooperation with many other farmers in the area, and 2) small on-farm plants.

Reporting on the structure and progress of the large cooperative plant presently being put together on the North Plains was R.C. Porter, who represents the Northwest Texas Grain Products Coop in the Spearman area. He was quite optimistic that the feasibility study phase of the planning would be initiated within ten days, stating that 3 million of the 3 1/2 million bushel goals has been committed to the coop, and the total has been increasing rapidly since the embargo action.

Joe Cook, of near Childress, Texas, was present to describe his on-farm plant, which produces 190-192 proof alcohol (95-96% pure). Joe stated that he has used his alcohol both straight and mixed with gasoline in various ratios; mixed with sunflower oil and used in a diesel tractor; and even in a kitchen stove! He remarked that no changes at all were necessary on his old pickup to burn 10, 20, or 100% alcohol.

Joe produced at least 25 small vials of alcohol, each made from different raw materials, including wheat, corn, milo, soybeans, cottonseed, gin trash, cabbage, garbage, coffee grounds, sudax, corn silage, redtop cane, cactus, grass, maize stalks, and even old newspapers! "I finally found a use for the 'Childress Index'," Joe grinned.

In a graphic demonstration of the clean burning properties of alcohol, using the bottoms of two empty coke cans for a burning chamber, Mr. Cook measured an eyedropper full of alcohol onto one can, and the same amount of "Iranian Alcohol" onto the other.

The gasoline burned with a heavy orange flame, and threw off considerable black smoke, while the alcohol burned with a clear blue flame, outlined with a trace of yellow at the edges, and absolutely no smoke. After both had burned out, he held up the two cans to reveal a bright, shiny surface where the alcohol had burned, but a dirty grey deposit left by the gasoline. "Draw your own conclusions," he invited.

The alcohol plant presentations were preceded by a short history of what AAM has accomplished in the two years of its' existence, and spokesman Ted Godfrey urged those present who were not already members to become members and enable the voice AAM has become to continue to speak for agriculture. He pointed out that the newsmedia now appears to seek out the AAM viewpoint oftener than that of any other farm group.

There were seventy-six in the group from Texas and delegations from ten other states while they were in Washington, D.C. Soil Testing Campaign Hansford County launched its gigantic soil testing campaign, Monday, January 21 and will continue it through Saturday, Jan. 26.

The "Test the Soil" campaign has a goal of 100 samples to be sent to the Texas Agricultural Extension Service Soil Testing Laboratory at Lubbock for analysis. The campaign will reach out to every section of the county, encouraging land users to test for the right kinds and amounts of fertilizer to enrich the growing qualities of their soil.

It is an important way, Extension agricultural specialists say, to combat the rising costs of fertilizer, getting the most results by applying the right kinds and right amounts. Sponsored by the field crops committee of the county Extension Program Building Committee, the campaign is designed to conserve vital energy used in production and application of fertilizers and to assure economically efficient use of fertilizers.

Fred Groves of Spearman is coordinator of the countywide soil campaign.

"We know the 100 goal is an ambitious one," Groves said. "But it is realistic and will be a real accomplishment in determining the needs of so much of Hansford County's land. It can mean a lot more profit dollars for the county."

He pointed out that samples may be taken by anyone wishing to determine the needs of their soil. This includes gardeners and lawn owners as well as those with cropland, pastures and rangeland, he stressed. As many samples as is desired may be taken, particularly on farms where there are different types of soils that might need different nutrients in different amounts.

Cartons in which samples may be placed already are being distributed to collection stations over the county and may be picked up by those wishing to take samples, said County Extension Agent Layton Barton.

When samples have been taken, the soil cartons should be returned to the collection station to be picked up and sent to the soils laboratory at Lubbock.

Here are collection stations in the county where cartons may be obtained: Consumers Coop, Spearman Equity Elevator, Spearman, Double D. Ag Center, Gruver, Farmers Ag Supply, Gruver, and North Plains Chemical, Gruver.

Farmers Union Honors Senator Price

CORPUS CHRISTI...Texas State Senator Bob Price was one of the twenty state lawmakers honored for outstanding legislative service during the 76th annual state convention of the Texas Farmers Union.

Senator Price was selected by the statewide farm organization for "consistent support and outspoken leadership on behalf of the family farmers and ranchers of Texas," according to Jay Naman, President of TFU.

"The 66th Legislature will be regarded as one in which a progressive step was taken for rural interests, especially in light of passage of the Family Farm and Ranch Security Act," Naman noted. "The support given that and several key agricultural issues by Senator Price is deeply appreciated by our organization and we are proud to bestow this honor upon him."

The 10,000 member Texas Farmers Union was the most vocal proponent of the Family Farm and Ranch Security Act which was passed in the recent session with funding approved by voters in a constitutional referendum November 6. Other issues of TFU concern upon which voting records were measured included prohibition of foreign ownership of farm land, productivity valuation for agricultural property taxes, and legalization of alcohol fuels produced from farm products.

NEW GUIDELINE

President Carter's Pay Advisory Committee, bowing to double-digit inflation, agreed to a new, higher wage guideline that ranges between 7 1/2 percent and 9 1/2 percent. Currently, the voluntary standard in the president's anti-inflation program generally allows a 7 percent pay increase.

Social Security News

Increases in average earnings covered by social security the past year have triggered an increase in the retirement test annual exempt amount for people receiving social security benefits, Howard L. Weatherly, Social Security Manager in Pampa, said recently.

The retirement test annual exempt amount is the amount of earnings a person can have and still receive all benefits for the year.

For people under 65, the 1980 annual exempt will be $3,720. The 1979 amount was $3,480.

For people 65 or over the 1980 annual exempt amount is $5,000. The 1979 amount was $4,500.

A person whose 1980 earnings go over the annual exempt amount generally has $1 in benefits withheld for each $2 earnings above the exempt amount.

Another figure increased is the amount of annual earnings required to receive social security credits. A person needs credit for a certain amount of work to be eligible for social security benefits. This credit is measured in "quarters of coverage." A person can receive up to 4 "quarters of coverage" in a year.

In 1980, a person receives credit for 1 "quarter of coverage" for each $290 of annual earnings, up to a maximum of 4 if annual earnings are $1,160 or more. The 1979 measure was $260.

More information about social security credits and about the retirement test can be obtained at the Pampa, TX social security office. Free leaflets are available that give more detail about both of these subjects. The office is located at 125 South Gillespie and the telephone number is 669-3381.

This does not mean that you have to sell your grain at this time. You can place it in storage and sell it when you choose. We are operating under some most difficult and uncertain conditions, and your cooperation will help us serve you better.

LEE MARVIN: VETERAN OF COUNTLESS SHOOT-OUTS

"I've been pumped so full of lead in my film career that if they dropped me into the Hudson Bay, I'd probably sink," grins Lee Marvin, referring to the string of tough-guy film roles which have brought him fame, prosperity and an Academy Award for "Best Performance by an Actor."

In the Twentieth Century-Fox release, "AVALANCHE EXPRESS," he portrays an American military agent assigned to bring a high-ranking Russian defector to the West in safety.

"It used to bother me," says Marvin. "I mean, in every movie I made, I got knocked off. Wham! It got to be a hassle to find a new way to do it and make it interesting."

It is a Western with Randolph Scott in which Marvin played one of his favorite death scenes. "In the film, Randy is shot to pieces and it's obvious I'm the fastest gun. I've got the money to make my getaway and we come face-to-face on the street."

At this point, the actor is on his feet to demonstrate.

"We all know I'm going to win. But he's the hero, okay? What do we do? I'll tell you. We both go for our guns...he fires...and there's me, looking down in disbelief at my empty hands! Then I topple dead into the dust."

Marvin underlines the point with a smile. "If I missed him, see, it would mean I'm a lousy shot. But if he shoots the guns out of my hands first..."

For Marvin these moments recall many "good black-hat movies" that you don't see any more. "I regret it," he reflects. "I think they entertained people, and that's what it's all about. Right?"

"AVALANCHE EXPRESS,"

a Lorimar presentation of a Mark Robson film, also stars Robert Shaw, Linda Evans, Maximilian Schell, Mike Connors and co-stars Horst Bucholz, Claudio Cassinelli, and Joe Namath as "Leroy." Robson produced and directed the screenplay by Abraham Polonsky based on a novel by Colin Forbes.

LINDA EVANS stars as Elsa Lang, an American agent on a dangerous assignment in "AVALANCHE EXPRESS," a 20th Century-Fox release.

C of C Installs Officers

The 1980 officers and directors of the Spearman Chamber of Commerce were formally installed, Thursday, January 17, at the Home Demonstration Clubroom.

Gerald Heinrich, President 1979, officially turned the gavel over to L.E. Thomas, Jr. president, 1980. Officers and directors were installed by Mary Lou Wysong, Manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Gerald Heinrich presented plaques to the out going directors and thanked them for the work they have done this past year. The out going directors are Grady McCormack, Mike Garnett and Dick Hudson.

A delicious meal was prepared and served, by the ladies of the First Assembly of God Church, to Mr. & Mrs. Gerald Heinrich, L.E. Thomas, Jr., Jim Shirley, Robert Elliott, Jim McLain, Robert Queener, Ray Igle, Kim Brock, Butch Baker, Sam Wysongs, Dr. & Mrs. E.E. Novak, and Joy McCormack.

National Alcohol Coop Association Formed

Representatives from groups seeking to organize local grain alcohol cooperatives in 5 states across the farm belt met in Dallas Friday and Saturday to explore the possibility of sharing feasibility study costs, and organizing a national association of local coops to handle coordination of production and marketing of alcohol and related byproducts. Also on the agenda was an attempt to reach a consensus on what action to take regarding GPI the controversial promotional group which originated the concept of a national association of local coops and were instrumental in establishing the nuclei of the 7 coops represented.

The group took the preliminary step of forming a steering committee consisting of two delegates and an alternate from each coop, to function in taking the necessary steps in chartering a national coop.

Dissatisfaction with GPI appeared to stem from the agreement GPI has proposed to enter into with each local coop to provide management services for a substantial fee and an ongoing percentage of all future gross revenues of the coop, together with a GPI veto over local and national management. That agreement proved unacceptable to most of the groups. It was proposed that a settlement on expenses incurred by GPI up to the present be negotiated after an audit of GPI's records. In return for such settlement, GPI would agree to release the various consultants presently contractually bound to them, to the national group, and would enter into no future agreements with these firms concerning this project without the approval of the national board. The proposal was tentatively approved, pending approval of each local board. Such approval would leave the local coops in complete control of both their own plants and the national structure.

Representatives were present from a coop in Indiana, two North Dakota groups, one from Kansas, and three from Texas, including Northwest Texas Grain Products Coop in our area. Also present as an observer was a representative of a Colorado group which has not yet obtained their charter.

Present at the meeting from the North Plains area were Freddie Vanderburg of Pampa, Art Noack and Jimmy Wells of Dumas, and R.C. Porter of Spearman.

What calories do-and don't do--to weight control is often confusing.

Technically, a calorie is a unit of measurement equal to the amount of energy required to raise the temperature of a liter (about a quart) of water by one degree centigrade. Bodies use this energy for breathing or moving.

Calories are provided by the food eaten. Each gram of sugar and starches (carbohydrates) gives four calories, for protein, four calories per gram, and for fat, nine calories per gram. If a person eats more calories than he needs, whether it is in carbohydrates, proteins or fats, then he gains weight--if he consumes less, then he loses weight.

One pound of fat is equal to 3,500 calories. By eating 500 calories a day more than you need for one week, in one week you have gained one pound. If you eat 500 calories less than you need in a day for a week, then you lose one pound.

Nutritionists have been aware of energy as it relates to weight control for many years. Since 1770, it has been known that you take less energy when resting at a comfortable temperature, twelve hours after your last meal, so you need less calories during the night. It takes more energy to digest a meal, when you are exposed to cold or exercise, so you burn up more calories during this time.

Research over the past two centuries has shown that an adult requires the following: Activity, Calories per Day for Man, Rest 1800, Much Physical Activity, 2400, Greater Activity (Sports) 3000; Calories per Day for Woman, Rest 1500, Much Physical Activity 2100, Greater Activity (Sports) 2600-3500.

A trained male athlete may use between 3,500 to 5,000 calories per day. Children require more energy in proportion to their weight, because they are growing, active and have more body surface to keep warm. Pregnant mothers require 300 more, and nursing mothers require 1,000 more calories a day--both require more energy. Older people require even less energy because of decreased metabolism and activity.

If you need a weight control program to help reduce or maintain weight, contact the county Extension office located in the Courthouse or call 659-2030 or 733-2901.

Workshop For 4-H Clothing Leaders

The Texas 4-H Center near Brownwood will host a weekend workshop designed especially for 4-H clothing leaders. Extension Clothing Specialists Nancy Brown and Beverly Rhoades, both of College Station, will cover a number of informative and helpful 4-H clothing project topics including construction techniques, alterations, project activities, award program and fashion revue tips, and much more. Resource persons from the Abilene area will be on hand to help workshop participants gain new ideas and skills to share with 4-H clothing project members. For further information and registration forms, interested persons may contact Mrs. Peggy Winegarner at the Hansford County Extension office located in the Courthouse or phone 659-2030 or 733-2901. Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Farm Bureau Urges Participation In Beef Referendum

Beef cattle producers are urged to participate in the upcoming referendum on the Federal Beef Research and Information Order, according to Delbert McCloy of Morse, president of the Hansford County Farm Bureau.

Producers who owned cattle anytime in 1979 are eligible to vote in the 1980 "Beef Referendum," the farm leader said. They can register at the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) office anytime between Jan. 28 and February 6. They can vote at the ASCS office anytime between Feb. 19-22.

"The best way to determine how the majority of producers feel about this matter is for all producers to participate," McCloy said. Details on registering and voting and on the Order itself are available at the county Farm Bureau office at Davis in Spearman, he said.

"We want to remind cattlemen that it's their money at stake in the check-off vote," the county farm leader said. "A good turn-out should determine whether or not beef producers want a mandatory check-off for beef research and promotion that is run by a quasi-governmental agency," he added.

For approval of the Order, ballots must be cast by at least 50 percent of the producers registered to vote in the referendum, and a majority of those voting must favor or approve the issuance of the Order, McCloy said.

In essence, the check-off program provides for a mandatory deduction from each sale of cattle, the farm leader said. The law permits a deduction of up to 1/2 of 1 percent from the sale price. The deduction would be limited to not more than 2/10 of 1 percent for the first two years, and after that can be increased up to 1/1 percent without a referendum.

The law requires purchasers of cattle to make the deduction. Failure to comply is subject to a $1,000 fine. The deduction would be made at each point of sale. The buyer would pay the purchase price minus the amount of the check-off to each seller of cattle. The check-off money would be paid to the administering agency at the point of slaughter.

Explaining how much money is involved, the county FB leader used a $450 calf as an example. For the first two years, the assessment authorization would be limited to 90 cents on such a sale. After that, the assessment could go to $2.25, he said.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture estimates that initial collections at the 2/10 of 1 percent figure could total about $40 million annually, and about $100 million annually at the 1/2 of 1 percent figure.

The proposed order provides for refunds of assessments if demand is "made within 60 days after the end of the month in which the transaction occurred..." Cattle producers desiring refunds would have to keep up with their own refund deadlines and may be required to keep sale records up to eight years or more on heifers purchased and sold later as aged cows, McCloy said.

WARSHIPS DEPLOYED

What happens when a cold front and a warm front meet head-on? What are the characteristics of the stationary front produced?
A cold front, running into a warm front with about equal momentum, stagnates and marks time. The warm front also comes to a halt and the result, where the two air masses have met, is a stationary front.

A stationary front almost always produces prolonged rain and cloud and erratic wind currents. Sometimes the rain lasts for many days, until one of the systems breaks through the other and another strong front moves in.

If you're planning to fly in private aircraft, the weather map symbol of a stationary front should be highly discouraging, for landing and navigating in such an area is hazardous and often dangerous.
Stationary fronts occur during the change of seasons. This spell of bad weather was called by old-timers the "turn of the seasons."
